The Supreme Court of South Carolina

James P. Robinson, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2018-001315

ORDER

Petitioner filed a notice of appeal from the denial of his fourth application for post-conviction relief (PCR). Petitioner was asked to provide the explanation required by Rule 243(c), SCACR, and in light of the number of PCR applications petitioner has filed, he was also asked to provide any reasons why this Court should not impose restrictions on his filing of collateral actions or motions in the circuit court challenging his 1998 convictions and sentences for murder, possession of a weapon during the commission of a violent crime, and two counts of pointing a firearm (1997-GS-41-00039, -00323, -00325, -00326).

Petitioner has failed to show that there is an arguable basis for asserting the dismissal of his fourth PCR application was improper, nor has he asserted any valid reason this Court should not impose restrictions on his future filings. Accordingly, we dismiss the notice of appeal pursuant to Rule 243(c), SCACR. In addition, we hereby prohibit petitioner from filing any further collateral actions in the circuit court, including PCR actions and habeas corpus actions, as well as any motions relating to the previously filed collateral actions, challenging his 1998 convictions and sentences for murder, possession of a weapon during the commission of a violent crime, and two counts of pointing a firearm, or any motions in the underlying criminal cases, including a motion pursuant to Rule 29, SCRCrimP, without first obtaining permission to do so from this Court.
