Attorneys for Appellant

Respondents, through their undersigned counsel, respectfully request and move under Rule 263 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules for a thirty (30) day extension of time to file their Initial Brief and Designation of Matter due to scheduling and work conflict issues. The due date for Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be included in the record on appeal are currently due on or before January 2, 2019. With a thirty-day extension, Respondents' Initial Brief and Designation of Matter would be due on or before February 1, 2019. This is Respondents' second request for an extension of time.

WHEREFORE, Respondents respectfully request that this Court grant an additional 30 days to file and serve their Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be included in the record on appeal.
