MOTION FOR REHEARING APPELLANTS
 AMENDED RECORD ON APPEAL

RECEIVED
 JAN 02 2019
 SC Court of Appeals

Appellant is requesting a rehearing on the dismissal Appellants case due to Appellants incorrect Record on Appeal. Appellant pleads Legal inexperience and not having legal counsel and Plain Error with the lower Court not addressing Appellants handicap status after Appellant asserted handicaps to the lower Court. Appellant has been diligent in filing of Appellants Record On Appeal and the Amendments to the Record. Appellants last Order to Amend Appellants Record On Appeal was recieved by Appellant on October 13-2018, with 20 days to file. Counsel for for Respondent was served VIA hand delivery to Counsels office on November 02-2018. The filing staff advised Appellant as Appellant was unable to finish the binding required for the 15 copies. Appellant has a continuing desire to correct Appellants Record on Appeal. With the Courts understanding with broad-mindedness, Appellant is confident that a positive and fair decision for Appellant, by the Court, Appellant will produce and file a correct Record ON Appeal, with Respondents and all other Designation of Matter.

Appellant with all due respect wants the Court to know, Appellants case is a "Landmark Case," with the adage of "the other side of the coin!" Appellant declares a dismissal will not advance Justice, Honor or the Sovereignty of the people. Appellant asserts Title 15, Section 15-3-60, and no Counsel. Saving 1 life is worthy of Appellant correcting Appellants Record On Appeal and Appellants case continuing to Final Briefs.
