Ms. Burke:

From reviewing our file it does not appear that we require anything from the Appellate Defense Division. There has not been a motion filed to request appointment of counsel. I note Mr. Gainey proceeded pro se at trial.

Thank you,

Subject: The State v. Robert Len Gainey - Appellate Case No. 2018-001956

Good Morning Ms. Allen:

Chief Appellate Defender Robert Dudek was copied on a letter from you to Robert Len Gainey dated December 20, 2018 and received by our office on December 21, 2018. This letter pertained to Mr. Gainey's pro-se notice of intent to appeal and a document not being included with the notice of intent to appeal as he represented to the Court.

The delay in getting back to you was caused by the Holidays. We are not aware of any request from Mr. Gainey for our office to represent him in this appeal. I understand he has been proceeding pro-se, and a review of this case on C-Track reveals that Mr. Gainey has not yet requested his trial transcript.

Based on our office being copied on your letter to Mr. Gainey dated December 20, 2018, please let me know if any action is expected or required from our office in this case at this time. Thank you –

Adriane Burk
