RE: Donquavious Dashon Davis, #364690 v. State of South Carolina; 2016-CP-46-2450

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

This is an appeal from a Post-Conviction Relief action. The transcript of the PCR hearing is due to be ordered on today's date. I do not intend to continue my representation of the Petitioner on appeal; however, the Petitioner has not yet either retained a new attorney nor returned a completed affidavit of indigency to me so that he may seek appellate counsel. For that reason, I am respectfully requesting a thirty-day extension of time in which to order the PCR hearing transcript in this matter. If I have not heard from the Petitioner further regarding the matter of representation, I will file a motion to be relieved as counsel two weeks from today so that, if the Court grants the motion, the Petitioner will have time to order the PCR hearing transcript on his own. Furthermore, I will keep the Court apprised of further developments regarding the status of representation. With my thanks for your assistance in this matter and my best regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,
