Re: State v. Holmes Andrew Simpson-Davis, Appellate Case No. 2017-001974

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Thank you for your letter dated January 14, 2019, inquiring about the necessity of transporting certain exhibits in the above-referenced case. I moved this Court to transport those exhibits because they were designated to be a part of the record on appeal by the state. Prior to preparing the proposed order to transport the exhibits, I called opposing counsel, J. Anthony Mabry, Esquire, and confirmed that he wanted those items transported. Mr. Mabry assured me he wanted all physical exhibits that had been designated to be transported to the Court for review. Therefore, to comply with my obligations under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules to prepare the record on appeal based upon the designations of matter, I prepared the proposed transportation order. See Rule 210(a), SCACR; Rule 210(f), SCACR.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan B. Hackett
Appellate Defender
