Appellate Case No. 2016-001553

Motion to Notice The Courts In Good Faith, prevention OF undue delay and <sup>serve</sup> due diligence...

I motion the courts AS undersigned incompetent prose laymen in this case on appeal to request that the courts demand the opposing counsel/Attorney General file all " requests to extensions OR for continuances in this case matter two weeks prior to the deadline. Good cause, Good Faith is due diligence in priority of cases necessitated upon a work load and any competent attorney will know approximately two weeks prior to deadlines if they will be ready to prepare/complete the contents of a brief. To wait until the last day of a deadline to request an extension while deprive adverse party of proof of service because of the undue delay is not a fair tactic and discriminative.
Attorney General of record should not be allowed to manipulate undue delay or prejudice me from a timely, speedy appeal as was done in last extension requests. Very sincerely

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Court of Appeals, I have wrote the courts prior to this letter asking who is the official attorney General of record involved in this case and I have not recieved any disposition. Please send me an official letter informing me who the Attorney General is, I have had 4 or five diverse Attorney Generals on this case since Lower court case No. 2013-CP-46-1797 and I am an incompetent prose latmen. Please see the enclosed motion to notice the courts... I request a copy of all my records that was transferred to the Court of Appeals from the S.C. Supreme ~~and~~ Court because I do not have copies of many of the documents I sent in and I need them to prevent a miscarriage of justice and to file a writ to safe guard procedural defaults involving my case. I am indigent and cannot pay at the moment but here is proof of my financial status so that I may proceed without payment. ~~My~~ My
