VERIFIED STATEMENT OF FACT

RE: To Appellate Return of property by the Court, dismissal of the case was on 8/27/18. However, Petitioner didn't receive notice requesting for proof of service until Aug. 31, 2018 which allowed 10 days upon receipt to respond Enclosed is a copy of that letter stamped At PCI mailroom. Further petitioner served S.C. Highway Patrol At 33 Villa Rd. G'ville, S.C. 29615 which is also attached Along with a copy of proof of service to the Solicitor's office in the original filing on 9/7/17 clocked filed on 10/13/17. Note: The Court stated petitioner's improperly named the defendant. However petitiner name the solicitor's office, At 305 East North St. G'ville, S.C. 29601 but misprinted the first name of the solicitor. Petitioner Advise the Court that this petition was filed Pro Se, and it has been well established law stating that a Pro Se petition can't be held to the same strict standard as an Attorneys filing thus the reason for dismissing the Petition for improperly naming the first name of the defendant is unwarrant considering Petitioner properly named the correct Solicitor's office
