To whom it may concern:

I ask the court accept this letter and the information included.

I put all my documentation in the mail today at the post office and as I was filling out the paper work, the postal clerk ask me if the envelope that I had the proof of services in was included in this one. The one he was talking about I'm not sure which one it was or the package that he inserted the envelope in. I informed the guy helping me that the one final brief went in a package by its self and the rest of the material I had went to Columbia.

I am sending the letter and the proof of services in because i didn't see where he put the documents. I have included the Certified Mail Receipts also.

Thank You,

Chris Holcombe
