LET ALL MEN KNOW BY THESE PRESENT and the Official Record that the within Appellant HAS NOT been able to work here in and around Metro Columbia, South Carolina, and in Richland County due to the threats and stalking reported on record to the Columbia Police Department and SLED. The Appellant's need of monetary funding prohibited Appellant from being able to pay the cost of filling this matter let alone being able to sustain himself in this economy. Appellant returned to South Carolina on Saturday, January 19, 2019 and where Appellant received (2) letters from the mail box. 1 was dated for January 9, 2019 and the 2nd was dated January 10, 2019. Both concerning the need to order transcripts and tolling of time for the same. Due to the national holiday of MLK on January 21, 2019 the government offices were closed. On January 21, 2019 Appellant made contact with SC Court Administration and forwarded to a (Jerry LaBronch) who was told was the only one in their office who could assist me in this matter of ordering the transcripts. I left a detailed message of who I am along with the case information need for him to look up or retrieve. I am waiting for a return call as such from (him) SC Court Administration.

Respectfully submitted, for I am
