APPEAL FROM LEXINGTON COUNTY

Common Pleas Court

Alison R. Lee, Presiding Judge

James Reese.

Appellant,

vs.

Richie D. Barnes

Respondent.

SC Court of Appeals
Objection and Response to Motion to Dismiss.

I, James, who comes with clean hands and good faith, to seek what's fair and just, asking the court to grant this Objection to appellee(s), hereinafter, "Respondent(s)", "Motion to Dismiss" on the grounds of such presented supporting prima facie evidence, for and on the record, that the respondents have acted with the intent to perjure themselves while performing purely without good faith. I, James, aid this court in striking the respondent(s) false claims by presenting the following included and attached true and correct certified copies under notary seal, substantial evidence supporting that the respondent(s) has received appellant's 'Notice of Appeal' required under the court rules. (See attached USPS Form 3811 Return Signature Receipt (Evidence "A") and Certified Mail Receipt (Evidence "B")). Respondent(s) supporting grounds for this court to grant a dismissal presents the false claim that I, James, the appellant did not produce upon mandatory delivery of such required notice to interested parties within a timely fashion under the court rules or by discretion of the court. Respondents(s) makes the claim that such notice was not received as of 17th day of January of 2019. I, James, object and strike respondent(s) motion to dismiss, on the grounds that supporting evidence "A" and "B", produces evidence that it was received by the respondent(s) on the 11th day of January of 2019 , and mailed on the 27th day of December 2018 in accordance with the additional time allotted granted by the court, also evidenced by USPS Postmark Stamp and Certified Mail Receipt with USPS Postmark Stamp dating the 27th day of December of 2018. It is also witness by evidence that a notice of appeal has been delivered via USPS to stenographer . (See attached evidence) It appears the attorney has contacted the stenographer in attempt to persuade to make the false claim that, Steven LeBlanc, the stenographer has not received any documents requesting the reporting as well as cost for such copies regarding this subject matter. These acts of apparent attempts of perjury and dishonesty are also prejudice to the appellants good name and character .

Wherefore I, James, the appellant, now ask this court to deny the respondent(s) motion based upon the law in which these facts now cast , that the respondents has knowingly and willfully with the intent to sway the court to grant a judgment by use of perjury. I, James, also seek any necessary sanction or judgment against the respondent(s) for such perjury, the false defamation of my character, and wasting of the courts time. With the respondent(s) clear disregard to integrity, honesty, and good faith, such continuous acts are prejudicial and injurious to my interest, property, and rights, protected under the civilian due process of rights clause granted and protected within the Constitution of the United States of America.
