

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Glenn Odom, Respondent,

v.

Town of McBee Election Commission and Shilon Green, Appellants.

Appellate Case No. 2019-000147

Lower Court Case No. 2018CP1300621

ORDER

This election case will be expedited for consideration by this Court as follows:

- (1) Unless the transcript(s) have already been ordered, the transcript(s) of the proceedings before the circuit court shall be ordered in the manner specified by Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR) within five (5) days of the date of this order. The Office of Court Administration and the court reporter(s) shall give priority to the completion of the transcript(s).
- (2) No initial briefs and designations of matter shall be served and filed in this appeal.
- (3) The record on appeal shall consist of the entire record before the circuit court, along with the transcript(s) of the proceedings before the circuit court and any orders issued by the circuit court in this case. Appellants shall serve and file the record on appeal within ten (10) days after the delivery of the transcript(s) by the court reporter(s). The record on appeal shall comply with the requirements of Rule 210, SCACR, including the number of copies to be served and filed.
- (4) The brief(s) of appellants shall be served and filed within fifteen (15) days of the service of the record on appeal.

- (5) The brief of respondent shall be served and filed within fifteen (15) days of the service of appellants' brief(s).
- (6) Any reply brief shall be served and filed within five (5) days of the service of respondent's brief. Notwithstanding Rule 263(a), SCACR, Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays will be included in computing this five days.

The briefs shall comply with the content requirements of Rule 208(b), SCACR, with the exception that any references to the record on appeal shall be to the page number and/or line number where the material appears in the record on appeal. The briefs shall be served and filed in the number specified by Rule 211(a), SCACR.

Due to the short time periods established by this order, the record on appeal shall be served on respondent's counsel by hand delivery. Further, the parties shall provide the opposing counsel with a copy of any brief by e-mail at the same time the brief is served in the manner specified by Rule 262(b), SCACR. However, if counsel agree to do so, the parties may serve the record on appeal and all briefs by e-mail without serving a paper copy.

Finally, no extensions will be granted in this case except upon the showing of an extraordinary circumstance such as illness or other circumstance beyond the control of the movant. The parties are warned that the press of other business is not an extraordinary circumstance which will warrant the granting of an extension.
