

THE STATE, RESPONDENT

v.

David Ray Brown, - Appellant

Appellate Case No: 2016-000170

RECEIVED

SC Court of Appeals

January 30, 2019

DEAR MS. KITCHINGS →

I am in hopes that you will be able to assist me in this situation. My Appellate Attorney at the time had filed an Anders Brief in my case even though the issue had merit, the main reason that this was filed is because during sentencing I admitted guilt for a lesser sentence since I had lost hope in the trial process and my trial attorney that led to a guilty plea. The Appeals Court dismissed with an unpublished opinion. I had 45 days to submit brief to get this decision reconsidered, I failed to do so because I had no idea of any legal processes at this time and trusted the legal system. I do know that mistakes happen and that is why the right to appeal is available. My issue here is, this issue on appeal prejudiced me of a fair trial with an end result of guilty. Only after an unfair trial did I admit guilt. Could I at this time appeal the decision, or could I raise this on my P.C.R.

Sworn to be subscribed before me

This 30 day of January 2019
