JULIE CLEGG, CLERK OF COURT

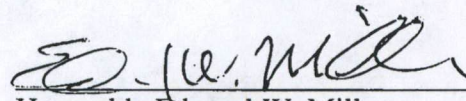

THIS MATTER CAME before the Court upon Southern States Police Benevolent Association, Inc.'s Motion for Reconsideration.

It appears and I so hold that this Court did not err in finding that Plaintiffs Donald Stanley and Sein Reiter, Individually and as Class Representatives (hereinafter "Plaintiffs") satisfied the commonality, typicality, and adequacy requirements of Rule 23 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and class certification is proper.

It further appears and I so hold that these issues have been addressed and rejected repeatedly in this Court's rulings on Southern States Police Benevolent's Memo in Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification, Motion to Dismiss, and Motion for Summary Judgment.

Accordingly, for the reasons set forth on the record and herein, the Court DENIES Southern States Police Benevolent's Motion for Reconsideration and will not reconsider nor reverse certification of Plaintiffs' injunctive relief class.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED!
