

Dear Court of Appeals of Law,

My Name is Marcus L. Watts. I am a Muslim prisoner of the State of South Carolina in the custody of the South Carolina Department of Corrections. I'm currently confined at Perry Correctional Institution, in Pelzer, South Carolina.

IN 1848, this Court found that the Christian religion was a part of the common law. See City Council of Charleston v. Benjamin, 2 Strob. 508, 49 Am. Dec. 608.

~~I'm writing just out of curiosity, to see if there has been a ruling held to determine or consider as to whether the Islamic religion is a part of the common law too.~~

Now i don't want this to be construed as a Request for Legal Research Materials, or anything like that. I know and understand that this Court is constantly burdend by various other things, so all i merely seek is essentially a yes or NO answer to my above-mentioned question.

As a Indigent Inmate, i have no access to utilizing the Internet to find this out on my own, and i have no friends or close relatives who i could ask to find this out either.

If you could aid and assist me in this regard, i would greatly appreciate it a whole lot!

Respectfully,

(S) Marcus L. Watts
