RE: State of South Carolina v. Antwon D. Goodwin; 2018-000144

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

My Initial Reply Brief of Appellant and the Designation of Matter are due to be filed on today's date. Due to my heavy State and federal trial and appellate schedules, however, I will be unable to complete my work on these documents by today's date. Accordingly, I am requesting a ten-day extension of time in which to file these documents. There have been two prior extension requests in this matter. Inasmuch as this is my third request, I have obtained opposing counsel's consent via email to this request. I enclose a copy of my email correspondence with opposing counsel with this letter. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns that the Court may have for me. With my thanks for the Court's assistance in this matter, and my best regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Jeremy A. Thompson

Susannah,

I apologize; I meant to send this email to you now that you're the attorney assigned to the case. Do you consent to the extension request? Thanks!

Jeremy

Melody,

My initial reply brief is due today and I certainly had expected to have it done. However, I have been plagued with unexpected hearings and meetings all week and am going to need a third extension. Do you consent to my request? Thanks!

Jeremy
