Good Morning,

After speaking with the Attorney General's office, it has been brought to our attention that the original extension was indeed correct and J. Ben Aplin, Esquire is the Attorney General on the case. We have received a reply email giving his consent at 8:58 am February 12, 2019. We apologize for all of the confusion.

Thank you,

Emily Woynicz

Good Morning,

The previous email was sent with an error. This is a murder case and was original sent to the wrong Attorney General for consent. The correction in our database has been made to switch from Ben J. Aplin, Esquire to Melody J. Brown, Esquire. Below is the corrected extension.

South Carolina Court of Appeals

Re: The State v. Theodore Harrison, Jr. – Appellate Case No. 2018-001682

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The Initial Brief of Appellant and Designation of Matter in the above case are due to be served and filed with the Court today. However, due to my heavy work-load, I am requesting a thirty day extension in which to serve and file this brief.

By copy of this email, I am informing Melody J. Brown, Esquire, of the Attorney General's office of my request.

Sincerely,

Susan B. Hackett
