Re: Ackbar V. SDC
Appellate Case No. 2018-001948

Dear Deputy Clerk

In the Notarized letter dated 12-4-18 you were made aware of several facts concerning the above subject matter and in your response letter dated 1-9-19 you did not dispute or deny any of those facts.

FACTS

1. Appellant claimed to enclosed two (2) informal briefs and certificate of service.
2. It appears that you referred or associate Appellant's other initial brief as an attachment.
3. Along with those attachments Appellant submitted an initial brief which addressed 18-AW-04-0112-AP and another one addressing 18-AW-04-0113-AP and the above Appellate Case No. was affixed to each notarized initial brief.
4. There is no verification by the Respondent in this consolidated matter.
5. The Malice of the ALC's prejudice is plain and obvious.

6. You are clearly frustrating and impeding My right to access the court and recklessly and callously depriving me of the equal protection of due process of law.
7. Your delay in filing the certified attachments constitutes actual and substantial prejudice to Appellant.
8. You are not immune from civil liability for such violations nor is the ALC Judge.
9. You both are now involved in civil action pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 242 and Relevancy; Rule 406.
10. You all have obstructed justice long enough.

Based upon the above facts I deny filing an amended appellants initial brief as such the error if any on my part is harmless.
