RICHLAND COUNTY

SCANNED

This matter came before the Court by way of a non-jury trial on April 9, 2009. Plaintiff Place on the Greene Homeowners Association, Inc. ("HOA") was represented by William M. Spillane, Esquire. Defendant Easy Coin Laundry, Inc. ("Easy Coin") was represented by Jamie M. Best, III, Esquire and Defendants W.G.R.Q., LLC, Eva Nell Berry, and Jeffrey ("Jeff") O. Keeney were represented by Brian Boger, Esquire. Testimony was heard from the following witnesses: Karen Greiner, HOA President and owner of a residential unit at Place on the Greene; Larry Phipps, former HOA board member and owner of a residential unit at Place on the Greene; Laura Nichols, former HOA board member and owner of Landmark Resources, LLC; the managing company of Place on the Greene; Lloyd Reese, owner of Blue Cactus Café; Blair Monroe, owner of Unit A; Jeff Keeney, owner of Unit B; Marsha Berry, proprietor of Tavern on the Greene Restaurant; and David Rodarte, managing partner of W.G.R.Q., LLC.

BACKGROUND

This action was commenced by the filing of a Summons and Complaint against each Defendant on December 4, 2007. In its Complaint, HOA seeks a permanent injunction preventing Defendants from operating their businesses in violation of restrictive covenants contained in the Master Deed plus enforcement costs and attorney's fees. On January 17, 2008, Defendants W.G.R.Q., LLC, Eva Nell Berry, and Jeffrey O. Keeney filed their Answers and Counterclaims asserting affirmative defenses including waiver, equitable estoppel, and laches and asserting a counterclaim against Plaintiff for the recovery of attorney's fees. Defendant Easy Coin filed its Answer and Counterclaim on January 9, 2008 generally denying the allegations of the Complaint, asserting defenses of waiver, equitable estoppel, and statute of limitations and counterclaiming against Plaintiff for the recovery of attorney's fees. Plaintiff HOA filed its Reply to Defendants' Counterclaims on January 26, 2009 generally denying the equitable defenses and specifically denying the allegations of the counterclaims. Upon consent of the parties, these four cases were consolidated for purpose of trial.

FINDINGS OF FACT

After considering all of the testimony presented by the witnesses together with the exhibits submitted the Court makes the following findings of fact:

1. Place on the Greene is a South Carolina Horizontal Property Regime ("Regime") established under S.C. Code Ann. §§ 27-31-10 through 27-31-300, et seq. ("South Carolina Horizontal Property Act").
2. Plaintiff Place on the Greene Homeowners Association, Inc. ("HOA") is a non-profit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of South Carolina. HOA is duly authorized to manage the affairs and enforce the restrictive covenants and By-Laws of the Regime.
3. The Regime was established by the filing and recording of the Master Deed on September 14, 1984 in the Office of the Register of Deeds for Richland County in Deed Book D-711 at Page 1. A first amendment to the Master Deed was executed and recorded on September 20, 1984 in Deed Book D-711 at Page 673. The first amendment recorded the "as built" survey of the project. No other amendments to the Master Deed have been filed.
4. Defendants are record owners of seven of the eight commercial condominium units on the ground floor of the Regime property. Units A, B, C, D, F, G, and H are the subject of this suit.
5. The Master Deed subjects the Regime's residential and commercial condominium units to covenants, restrictions, uses, limitations, easements, and obligations.
6. Article X, Section 3 of the Master Deed restricts the use of the commercial condominium units in the Regime to "general office space and limited service establishments." Article X, Section 3 further provides:

The use shall comply with all ordinances and zoning regulations promulgated by the City of Columbia and the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Directors. The Rules and Regulations, among other things, however, shall provide that no restaurant or food establishment engaged in the preparation or delivery of food, no pool hall, game room, bar, lounge, or retail shop that relies on a volume of walk-in patrons shall be permitted.

7. Each of the commercial condominium units is currently being operated as a restaurant, bar or other retail business. Unit A, owned by Easy Coin Laundry, Inc., is currently leased to the Pita Pit Restaurant. Unit B, owned by Jeff Keeney, is being operated as Tavern on the Greene Bar. Units C and D, owned by Eva Nell Berry, are being operated as Tavern on the Greene Restaurant. Unit F, owned by W.G.R.Q., LLC, is being operated as Five Points Tobacco store. Units G and H, owned by W.G.R.Q., LLC, are being operated as Blue Cactus Café.

8. On June 25, 2007, Plaintiff sent each Defendant a cease and desist letter informing Defendants that they were operating their businesses in violation of use restrictions stated in the Master Deed and demanding that the use restriction violations cease. This letter informed Defendants that if they did not comply with the HOA's demand, the HOA would pursue legal action to enforce the restrictions.

9. Defendants have continued to operate their businesses in violation of the Master Deed.

10. The prohibited businesses and their predecessors have operated these commercial condominium units in violation of the restrictions for an extended period of time.

Unit A was deeded by the Developer to Craig B. Stoneburner on November 8, 1985. Unit A was vacant from 1985 until 1988. Easy Coin Laundry, Inc. operated in Unit A from 1988 to 1999 and purchased the unit from Mr. Stoneburner in 1990. Easy Coin closed in 1999 and the Pita Pit Restaurant opened in 2000.

Unit B was deeded by the Developer to Craig B. Stoneburner on November 8, 1985. Mr. Stoneburner sold Unit B to EHM Investments, LLC on February 24, 2004. EHM Investments, LLC sold Unit B to Jeff Keeney in November 30, 2005. Tavern on the Greene Bar operated in Unit B at the time of the hearing.

Units C and D were deeded from the Developer to Clarence D. Bain, III on October 29, 1984. Initially, a hair salon operated in the units, but it closed after a short period and the units remained vacant until 1991. There were two lender foreclosures. Eva Nell Berry was deeded a one-third (1/3) interest in Units C and D on December 12, 2002 and acquired full title to the property in 2006. Tavern on the Greene Restaurant operated in Units C and D at the time of the hearing.

Unit F was deeded from the Developer to Roy A. Powell, Jr. on November 8, 1985. Powell sold the unit to Defendant W.G.R.Q., LLC in May 2002. Prior to 2002, the Sub Pub Restaurant operated in Unit F. Five Points Tobacco operated in Unit F at the time of the hearing.

Units G and H were deeded from the Developer to Roy A. Powell on November 8, 1985. In May 2002, W.G.R.Q., LLC purchased Units G and H from Mr. Powell. The Blue Cactus Café has operated in Units G and H before 2002.

11. All commercial units were conveyed by the Developer subject to, among other things, the provisions of the Master Deed and all exhibits attached.
12. At least one restaurant operated in violation of the restrictions as early as 1995. According to the minutes from the HOA Annual Meeting held on March 24, 1995, the meeting was held at Bo-D's Restaurant, a restaurant "located in the building."
13. Laura Nichols served on the HOA Board from 1985 to 1995. She testified the board members knew the commercial condominium units were being operated in violation of the restrictive covenants. Ms. Nichols testified that the Board did not approve the violations but the Board did not believe it could stop the violations.
14. The operation of Defendants' businesses in violation of the restrictive covenants has caused problems that the HOA had to address. Mr. Larry Phipps, former HOA board member and owner of a residential unit, testified these problems include security issues, health concerns, safety concerns, unfair appropriation of the water bill, noise, loitering, and litter. Employees of the restaurants leave the back door unlocked or slightly ajar and this allows vagrants access to the building. The trash generated by the restaurants is excessive and adds to the pest problem in the building. The increased foot traffic and loitering outside the ground floor generate safety concerns and contribute to the noise problem. He testified that the HOA bears the cost of the building's water bill and the amount of the bill has increased due to the operation of the restaurants.
15. Ms. Karen Greiner, former HOA President, testified the HOA received complaints from residents and all of the resident complaints trace back to the operation of businesses in the commercial condominium units. Mr. Blair Monroe, owner of Unit A, received no complaints from homeowners about the Pita Pit Restaurant prior to the 2007 cease and desist letter sent by the HOA.

16. Mr. David Rodarte, managing partner of W.G.R.Q., LLC, did not know prior to 2007 the operation of businesses in the commercial units was a concern for the HOA. Ms. Marsha Berry, owner of Tavern on the Greene Restaurant, did not know her business operated in violation of the restrictions until June 2007 when she received the cease and desist letter. Mr. Jeff Keeney, owner of Tavern on the Greene Bar, received no notice that his business was operating in violation of the restrictions from the HOA until 2007.

17. On several occasions members of the Board discussed amending the Master Deed to lift the restaurant and bar restriction. These amendments were never approved or filed.

18. Article XVIII of the Master Deed provides that the deed "may be amended by the vote of at least seventy-five (75%) percent of the total percentage interest of all co-owners, cast in person or by proxy at a meeting duly held in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws"

19. In 1985, an amendment to the Master Deed was proposed. The proposed amendment would have removed the ban on restaurants, bars, food delivery establishments, game rooms, pool hall, and lounges from Article X, Section 3 of the Master Deed and would have allowed the Board of Directors to approve the operation of a particular business in the commercial condominium units at its discretion.

20. On November 25, 1985, the HOA's Property Manager wrote the residential unit owners informing them of a HOA members' special meeting to be held by absentee ballot for the purpose of voting on the proposed Master Deed Amendment. Despite the attempt to revise the Master Deed in 1985, the Master Deed was not amended.

21. An annual HOA meeting was held on March 21, 1991. The minutes of this meeting state that Beau Powell, HOA Board Member, offered a motion to amend the By-laws to allow the Board at its discretion to allow uses prohibited by the Master Deed. The minutes reflect that a special election would be held because less than 75% of the owners were present as required to amend the Master Deed.

22. Several HOA meetings have been held since 1991. The minutes from the HOA Annual Meetings in March 1993 and March 1995 do not mention any proposed amendments to lift the restaurant restriction. The notice of the 2003 HOA Annual Meeting sent to owners does not mention amendments to the Master Deed among those listed as topics of discussion. The minutes from the 2003 HOA Annual Meeting were not provided to the Court.

23. In 2007, Ms. Berry inquired about an amendment to lift the restaurant restriction but was told that an amendment would be unlikely because it was difficult to encourage residents to attend the homeowner's meeting required to amend the Master Deed.

24. Article XIX, Section 1 provides that "[f]ailure to comply with any of the terms of this Master Deed or other restrictions and regulations contained in the Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws of Association, or its rules and regulations, shall be grounds for relief which many include . . . injunctive relief." Article XIX, Section 3 permits the HOA to recover reasonable attorney's fees "[i]n any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by the owner of any unit."

25. Article XIX, Section 6 states "the failure of the Grantor . . . to enforce any right, privilege, covenant or condition which may be granted to them . . . by this Master Deed . . . shall not constitute waiver of the right . . . to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition in the future."

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based upon the above findings of fact, the court makes the following conclusions of law:

1. "A restriction on the use of property must be created in express terms or by plain and unmistakable implication, and all such restrictions are to be strictly construed, with all doubt resolved in favor of the free use of property." Taylor v. Lindsey, 332 S.C. 1, 498 S.E.2d 862 (1998). Words of a restrictive covenant will be given the common, ordinary meaning attributed to them at the time of their execution. Id.

2. The Regime established the Master Deed and subjected all residential and commercial units to the restrictive covenants.

3. Article X, Section 3 of the Master Deed expressly restricts the use of the commercial condominium units to "general office space and limited service establishments" and prohibits the operation of restaurants/bars, establishments engaged in the preparation of food, and retail shops that rely on a volume of walk-in patrons.

4. The restrictions apply to the commercial units and the Defendants are operating or leasing their property to businesses that operate in violation of Article X, Section 3.

5. Property owners are charged with constructive notice of any restriction properly recorded in their chain of title. Harbison Community Ass'n, Inc. v. Mueller, 319 S.C. 99, 103, 459 S.E.2d 860, 863 (Ct. App. 1995). Each conveyance to the commercial unit property owners subjected the property to the provisions of the Master Deed. The landowners operating the seven commercial units were put on constructive notice of the contents and restrictions of the Master Deed.

6. The Master Deed provides that the owners of each unit shall be governed by and shall comply with the provisions of the Master Deed, the Articles of Incorporation, and the By-Laws. Article XIX, Section 1 states that “[f]ailure to comply with any of the terms of [the] Master Deed or other restrictions and regulations” constitutes grounds for relief including an action for monetary damages or injunctive relief.

7. Generally, equitable relief is available only when there is no adequate remedy at law. Milliken & Co. v. Morin, 386 S.C. 1, 685 S.E.2d 828 (Ct. App. 2009). Restrictive covenants are construed like contracts and may give rise to actions for breach of contract. Queen’s Grant II Horizontal Prop. Regime v. Greenwood Dev. Corp., 368 S.C. 342, 361, 628 S.E.2d 902, 913 (Ct. App. 2006). A party seeking a remedy for breach of a restrictive covenant may ask for money damages at law or an injunction in equity. Marathon Finance Co. v. HHC Liquidation Corp., 325 S.C. 589, 608, 483 S.E.2d 757, 768 (Ct. App. 1997) (citing Gouveia v. Tazbir, 37 F.3d 295 (7th Cir. 1994)).

8. A permanent injunction may be granted to prevent the violation of restrictive covenants. Hunnicut v. Rickenbaker, 268 S.C. 511, 234 S.E.2d 887 (1977). An action to enforce restrictive covenants by injunctive relief is an action in equity. Seabrook Is. Prop. Owners Ass’n v. Marshland Trust, Inc., 358 S.C. 655, 661, 596 S.E.2d 380, 383 (Ct. App. 2004). The decision to grant an injunction is ordinarily left to the sound discretion of the trial court. County of Richland v. Simpkins, 348 S.C. 664, 668, 560 S.E.2d 902, 904 (Ct. App. 2002).

9. In determining whether to grant an injunction to enforce restrictive covenants, a court must balance the equities of the parties. Sea Pines Plantation Co. v. Wells, 294 S.C. 266, 363 S.E.2d 891 (1987) (holding a court must balance the equities once it finds a restrictive covenant has been violated). Although a serious threat of irreparable injury usually must be shown to obtain an injunction, irreparable injury is not an independent requirement for obtaining a permanent injunction. 27 S.C. Jur. Injunctions § 12.

10. Courts should also consider equitable doctrines when determining whether to enforce a restrictive covenant and enjoin a landowner from using land in a manner that violates the covenant. Buffington v. T.O.E. Enterprises, 383 S.C. 388, 680 S.E.2d 289 (2009).

11. Property owners possess a right to be free from activity that interferes with the use and enjoyment of their property. AJG Holdings, LLC v. Dunn, 382 S.C. 43, 52, 675 S.E.2d 505, 509 (Ct. App. 2009) (holding subdivision property owners established irreparable harm required for preliminary injunction where property owners showed business' violation of restrictive covenants interfered with their right to the use and enjoyment of their property). Plaintiff provided evidence that Defendants' activities interfere with the owners' right to use and enjoy their property. At trial, Larry Phipps testified that the operation of Defendants' restaurants and businesses in violation of the restrictions raised security, health, and safety concerns that the HOA had to address. Laura Nichols received numerous complaints from residents regarding the Defendants' businesses. Despite multiple discussions to amend the Master Deed to lift the restriction on restaurants, food establishments, bars and lounges, the Board never amended the Master Deed. The Master Deed subjecting the units to the restrictions was in each Defendant's chain of title. Defendants were put on constructive notice of the restrictions when they purchased the property or leased the units.

12. The issuance of a permanent injunction would require the Defendants to close the businesses they currently operate in the commercial condominium units. Defendants failed to prove that enforcing the restrictions would result in any hardship to them, other than loss of revenue. While the loss of revenue may be a hardship, each owner had notice of the restrictions in the Master Deed and there is no evidence that any of the owners determined whether the business could legally operate. Blair Monroe, owner of Unit A, testified in 2009 that the lease to Pita Pit Restaurant expired in November 2010 and he would suffer economic loss if a permanent injunction was granted. Jeff Keeney testified that he derives his income from the operation of Blue Cactus Café at Units G and H and would be financially affected by the issuance of a permanent injunction. Lloyd Reese, owner of Blue Cactus Café, testified he derives his income from the operation of his restaurant. David Rodarte, managing partner of W.G.R.Q., LLC testified that it would be unjust to enforce the restrictions 20 years after the businesses began operating in violation of the Master Deed.

13. Defendants have asserted equitable estoppel as a defense to Plaintiff's request for relief. Defendants contend that Plaintiff should be estopped from enjoining Defendants' use of the property because Plaintiff represented it had no desire to enforce the restrictions and observed am

the violations of the restrictions for 15 to 20 years and made no objection while allowing Defendants to “invest time and money into their units and ventures.”

14. South Carolina law recognizes the doctrine of equitable estoppel. Equitable estoppel applies if a person, by his actions, conduct, words, or silence which amounts to a representation, or a concealment of material facts, causes another to alter his position to his prejudice or injury. Rushing v. McKinney, 370 S.C. 280, 633 S.E.2d 917 (Ct. App. 2006). To establish the defense of equitable estoppel, the defendant must prove the following by the preponderance of the evidence: (1) the plaintiff engaged in conduct amounting to a false representation or concealment of facts, or conduct calculated to convey the impression that the facts are different or inconsistent with those the party subsequently attempts to assert; (2) the plaintiff had the intention or expectation that the conduct will be acted upon by the defendant; (3) the plaintiff possessed knowledge, actual or constructive, of the real facts; (4) the defendant lacked the knowledge and the means of knowledge of the truth as to the facts in question; (5) the defendant relied upon the conduct of the plaintiff; and (6) the defendant changed his position to his prejudice. Brading v. County of Georgetown, 327 S.C. 107, 114, 490 S.E.2d 4, 7 (1997).

15. Defendants claim Plaintiff's inaction or silence amounts to a representation that it would not enforce the restrictions and Defendants relied on this representation to their prejudice. Estoppel by silence arises when one party observes another dealing with his property in a manner inconsistent with his rights and makes no objection while the other party changes his position based on the party's silence. Queen's Grant II Horizontal Prop. Regime v. Greenwood Development Corp., supra, at 358, 628 S.E.2d at 911.

16. The Defendants have failed to prove that Plaintiff is barred from asserting its claim on the basis of equitable estoppel. Defendants contend that Plaintiff represented it had no desire to enforce the restrictions given its inaction for numerous years. Testimony was presented that the HOA did not bring suit to enforce the restrictions until 2007. The HOA concedes it delayed in bringing suit to enforce the restrictions for various reasons including “budget restraints, other litigation against the Developer related to stucco, a necessary special assessment for roof replacement, confusion as to its rights, confusion because of Property Management company changeovers, naiveté on the part of volunteers, uncompensated inexperienced members, pressure from and misguidance by commercial unit owning member(s) of the Board, and a high Board member turnover rate.” Plaintiff admits it knew restaurants were being operated in violation of the restrictions as early as 2000. Despite attempts to amend the restrictions, seventy-five percent (75%) of the homeowners never agreed to amend the Master Deed to lift the prohibition on restaurants.

17. Defendants have failed to prove they lacked knowledge of the facts and relied upon HOA's inaction in enforcing the restrictions to their prejudice. Blair Monroe, Jeff Keeney, Marsha Berry, and David Rodarte testified they first learned of the use restrictions in 2007. David Rodarte testified that it would be unjust to enforce the restrictions 20 years after restaurants began operating in the commercial condominium units. The Master Deed appears in each Defendants' chain of title and subjects the units to the restrictions. Defendants had notice of the restrictive covenants when they were deeded the property or when they entered into a lease on the property and operated their businesses at their own peril. They relied on the previous course of dealing but no representations were made that the HOA would not enforce the restrictive covenants. Defendants did not change their position in reliance on the inaction of the Plaintiff. Defendants did not make any significant improvements to the property or enter into any long term commitments, leases, or contracts to operate their businesses in the commercial units. Defendants have failed to prove they lacked knowledge of the facts and that they relied on and were prejudiced by Plaintiff's inaction in enforcing its rights.

18. Defendants also assert laches as an affirmative defense to the injunctive relief sought by HOA. Laches is the delay in asserting a legal right for an unreasonable length of time in circumstances permitting assertion of the right and signifying abandonment or surrender of the right by one who later seeks to enforce it. Strickland v. Strickland, 375 S.C. 76, 650 S.E.2d 465 (2007): The party seeking to establish laches must prove the following: (1) a delay; (2) that was unreasonable under the circumstances; and (3) prejudice. Robinson v. Estate of Harris, 389 S.C. 360, 698 S.E.2d 801 (2010). A party's delay is not a mere lapse of time but negligence and an opportunity to have acted sooner. Chambers of S.C., Inc. v. County Council for Lee County, 315 S.C. 418, 434 S.E.2d 279 (1993). A party may be prejudiced from unreasonable delay after incurring expenses, entering into obligations, or otherwise detrimentally changing his position. Skipper v. Perrone, 382 S.C. 53, 674 S.E.2d 510 (Ct. App. 2009).

19. Whether a plaintiff is barred by laches is to be determined in light of the circumstances in each particular case. Rabon v. Mali, 289 S.C. 37, 40, 344 S.E.2d 608, 610 (1986). A party is not necessarily barred from enforcing restrictive covenants where a previous deviation of the restrictions has been allowed. Id.

20. Most Defendants have operated their businesses in violation of the restrictive covenants for at least 10 years. Unit A was a coin operated laundry from 1988 to 1999 before becoming the Pita Pit Restaurant in 2000. Units C and D were operated as Tavern on the Greene Restaurant beginning in 1999, and Tavern on the Greene Bar (Unit B) opened in 2005. Prior to 2002, Unit F was operated as the Sub Pub restaurant. Unit F is currently leased by Five Points Tobacco Store. Prior to 2002, Units G and H were operated as Blue Cactus Café. However, in 2007, each owner had actual knowledge of the HOA's intent to enforce its rights and had actual notice it was in violation of the restrictions.

21. The HOA concedes it delayed in bringing suit to enforce the restrictions for several reasons including budget restraints, the naiveté of the Board, and involvement in other litigation. The HOA knew or had reason to know in 2000 that the property was being put to use in violation of the restrictive covenants. The HOA did not file suit to enforce the restrictive covenants until 2007.

22. Although Defendants have proved that the HOA delayed in asserting its rights, Defendants failed to prove this delay was unreasonable under the circumstances and any delay was to their prejudice. Blair Monroe, Jeff Keeney, Marsha Berry, and David Rodarte testified they did not receive notice or any complaints of the restriction violations until they received the demand letter in June 2007. They had constructive notice of the restrictions in their deeds. At trial, Blair Monroe, owner of Unit A testified that the lease to Pita Pit Restaurant expired in November 2010 and he would suffer economic loss if a permanent injunction was granted. Jeff Keeney testified that he derives his income from the operation of Blue Cactus Café at Units G and H and would be financially affected by the issuance of a permanent injunction. David Rodarte testified it would be unjust for the HOA to enforce the restrictions years after the restaurants began operating in violation of the Master Deed. No testimony was presented that the restaurant owners or landlords made any significant improvements to the property. Defendants were put on constructive notice of the restrictions contained in the Master Deed. Defendants presented no other evidence that they would be prejudiced by the issuance of the permanent injunction other than that they would be financially affected. Defendants want to rely on their ignorance of the contents of the Master Deed as evidence they were misled. One cannot avoid the contents of the document by failing to read it. Regions Bank v. Schmauch, 354 S.C. 648, 582 S.E.2d 432 (Ct. App. 1993) (a party who signs a contract or other written document cannot avoid the effect of the document by claiming he did not read it). Thus, Defendants knew they operated in violation of the restrictions and were not lulled into a false sense of security. They were on notice to inquire about the restrictions. These circumstances are not sufficient to find that Plaintiff's delay in seeking relief was unreasonable under the circumstances and to the prejudice of Defendants. The Plaintiff is not barred by laches from seeking injunctive relief.

23. Defendants contend Plaintiff waived its right to enforce the restrictions. Waiver is the "voluntary and intentional relinquishment or abandonment of a known right." Strickland v. Strickland, 375 S.C. 76, 650 S.E.2d 465 (2007).

24. Generally, the party claiming waiver must show that the party against whom waiver is asserted possessed, at the time, actual or constructive knowledge of his rights or of all the material facts upon which his rights depended. Heritage Federal Sav. & Loan v. Eagle Lake and Golf Condominiums, 318 S.C. 535, 458 S.E.2d 561 (Ct. App. 1995). Waiver may be express or implied by a party's conduct or actions inconsistent with the continued assertion of a right. Parker v. Parker, 313 S.C. 482, 443 S.E.2d 388 (1994); Provident Life and Acc. Ins. Co. v. Driver, 317 S.C. 471, 451 S.E.2d 924 (Ct. App. 1994).

25. Defendants failed to prove that HOA expressly waived its right to enforce the restrictions. Defendants rely on HOA's inaction to establish that HOA impliedly waived its right to enforce the restrictions. The "no waiver" clause in Article XIX, Section 4 of the Master Deed provides that the Association's failure to enforce any right, covenant or condition shall not constitute a waiver of the Association's right to enforce such in the future. The "no waiver" clause in the Master Deed clearly and expressly reserves the right of the HOA or any unit owner to enforce a right, provision, covenant or condition. This clause is enforceable and Plaintiff is not barred from seeking injunctive relief on the basis of waiver.

26. In its Answer, Defendant Easy Coin Laundry asserts statute of limitations as a defense to the relief sought by Plaintiff. Statute of limitations does not apply to actions in equity. Dixon v. Dixon, 362 S.C. 388, 608 S.E.2d 849 (2005) (citing Anderson v. Purvis, 220 S.C. 259, 67 S.E.2d 80 (1951) (holding that the Court's power to do equity transcends the limitations of the statute of limitations)). Because HOA's action to enforce the restrictions by injunctive relief is an action in equity, the statute of limitations is inapplicable.

#12

27. Plaintiff and Defendants seek to recover attorney's fees and costs incurred. In their Answers and Counterclaims, each Defendant asserts a counterclaim for attorney's fees against Plaintiff.

28. Generally, a party cannot recover attorney's fees unless authorized by contract or statute. Historic Charleston Holdings, LLC v. Mallon, 381 S.C. 417, 673 S.E.2d 448 (2009).

29. Plaintiff contends Defendants' operation of their businesses in violation of the restrictions constitutes a default entitling them to attorney's fees and costs under Article XIX, Section 3. Article XIX provides that owners of each unit are governed by the provisions of the Master Deed and a default by the owner entitles HOA to the relief outlined in Article XIX. Article XIX, Section 3 of the Master Deed provides that "[i]n any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by the owner of any unit, the Association, if successful, shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceedings, and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be determined by the Court, but in no event shall the owner of any unit be entitled to attorney's fees." Defendants urge the Court to construe Article XIX, Section 3 as a "loser pays" provision and grant the Defendants attorney's fees and costs in the event the Defendant prevails. In addition, Defendants Eva Berry, W.G.R.Q., LLC, and Jeff Keeney contend Article XIX, Section 3 is a clause of adhesion that should not be enforced.

30. The Master Deed does not specifically define what actions constitute default. "Default" has been defined as the omission or failure to perform a legal or contractual duty. Black's Law Dictionary (9th ed. 2009). Here, Defendants owed a legal/contractual duty to refrain from operating a business in violation of restrictive covenants. Defendants' actions constitute default for purposes of Article XIX.

31. An adhesion contract is a standard form contract offered on a "take-it-or-leave-it" basis with terms that are not negotiable. Simpson v. MSA of Myrtle Beach, Inc., 373 S.C. 14, 644 S.E.2d 663 (2007) (citing Munoz v. Green Tree Fin. Corp., 343 S.C. 531, 541, 542 S.E.2d 360, 365 (2001)). Article XIX, Section 3 is part of the Master Deed establishing Place on the Greene as a Horizontal Property Regime under South Carolina law. The clause is not the type of provision recognized as unenforceable. Simpson v. MSA of Myrtle Beach, supra, at 669-70, 644 S.E.2d at 25-28 (holding that arbitration clause contained in an automobile trade-in and sales contract formed with automobile dealership was part of an adhesion contract).

32. Plaintiff submitted an Affidavit of Attorney's Fees showing incurred costs in the amount of $1,269.42. Rule 54(d) generally permits a prevailing party to recover cost including all filing and recording fees, all sheriffs' fees incurred for service, and all service of process fees and costs. Plaintiff is entitled to recover costs in the amount of $1,269.42.

33. Plaintiff submitted an Affidavit of Attorney's Fees and invoices showing incurred fees in the amount of $7,260. South Carolina case law delineates several factors relevant to determining the reasonableness of an award of attorney's fees. Such factors include the following: (1) the nature, extent, and difficulty of the legal services rendered; (2) the time and labor necessarily devoted to the case; (3) the professional standing of counsel; (4) the contingency of compensation; (5) the beneficial results accomplished; and (6) the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services. Blumberg v. Nealco., Inc., 310 S.C. 492, 494, 427 S.E.2d 659, 660 (1993) (citing Collins v. Collins, 239 S.C. 170, 122 S.E.2d 1 (1961)); Clardy v. Bodolosky, 383 S.C. 418, 428, 679 S.E.2d 527, 532 (Ct. App. 2009) (citing Jackson v. Speed, 326 S.C. 289, 307, 486 S.E.2d 750, 759 (1997)). According to his Affidavit, Mr. Spillane spent approximately 48.4 hours preparing for trial, participating in trial, and drafting post-trial submissions in this matter. Mr. Spillane has practiced law for more than 23 years and charged the Plaintiff a rate of $150 per hour. In light of these factors, attorney's fees and costs in the amount of $8,529.42 are reasonable.

34. Plaintiff is entitled to recover $1,269.42 in costs and $7,260 in attorney's fees collectively against all Defendants.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiff's claim for injunctive relief to enforce the restrictive covenants is GRANTED; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff is entitled to recover costs in the amount of $1,269.42 and attorney's fees in the amount of $7,260. Defendants are jointly and severally liable for the attorney's fees and costs.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

12. Upon information and belief, the Defendant, as Landlord, has profited from the existence and continuation of the restricted/prohibited activity on the Property.
13. The Plaintiff has informed the Defendant of these restriction violations on the Property and has made demand on the Defendant that the prohibited activity cease and desist. But, the Defendant has not stopped the prohibited activity and, therefore, the Plaintiff must bring this legal action to enforce the covenants and stop the violation.

15. Article XIX, Sections 1 and 3 of the Master Deed further states that failure to comply with its terms or other rules and regulations or By-Laws of the Plaintiff Association shall be grounds for relief which may include an action for injunctive relief which relief may be sought by the Plaintiff association . 16. The Plaintiff believes it is entitled to an Order of the Court awarding Plaintiff judgment against the Defendant for its costs and reasonable attorney's fees in pursuit of this action against the Defendant.

1. Issue a Permanent Injunction against the Defendant prohibiting the current restaurant/bar/café business activity and similar comparable activity (prohibited by the Covenants of the Master Deed) from being conducted on or about the Property.

2. Award the Plaintiff Judgment against the Defendant for the Plaintiff's costs of this action plus reasonable attorney's fees.

The Plaintiff, complaining of the Defendant herein, would respectfully show the Court

1. The Plaintiff, Place on the Greene Homeowners Association, Inc. The Plaintiff's place of business is Richland County, South Carolina.

The owners and his agents, servants, invitees, and tenants are bound by those restrictions. The units' uses are further restricted by the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Directors of the Plaintiff corporation. The Rules and Regulations, among other things, however, shall provide that no restaurant or establishment engaged in the preparation or delivery of food, no pool hall, game room, bar, lounge, or retail shop that relies on a volume of walk-in patrons shall be permitted.
11. In contravention of the Master Deed, the Defendant has allowed the operation of a restaurant/bar and/or pool hall, doing business by the name of "Tavern on the Greene" on the Property. The restaurant/bar and/or pool hall business activity being conducted on the Property is in direct violation of the covenants of the Master deed and constitutes an event of default thereunder by the Defendant.
12. Upon information and belief, the Defendant, as Landlord, has profited from the existence and continuation of the restricted/prohibited activity on the Property.
13. The Plaintiff has informed the Defendant of these restriction violations on the Property and has made demand on the Defendant that the prohibited activity cease and desist. But, the Defendant has not stopped the prohibited activity and, therefore, the Plaintiff must bring this legal action to enforce the covenants and stop the violation.

14. The Plaintiff is informed and believes it is entitled to an Order of a permanent injunction against the Defendant enjoining the continuance of the restricted and prohibited activity by the Defendant and/or its agents or tenants.
15. Article XIX, Sections 1 and 3 of the Master Deed further states that failure to comply with its terms or other rules and regulations or By-Laws of the Plaintiff Association shall be grounds for relief which may include an action for injunctive relief which relief may be sought by the Plaintiff association . In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by the owner of any unit, the Association, if successful, shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceedings, and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be determined by the Court.
16. The Plaintiff believes it is entitled to an Order of the Court awarding Plaintiff judgment against the Defendant for its costs and reasonable attorney's fees in pursuit of this action against the Defendant.

WHEREFORE THE PLAINTIFF PRAYS that the Court:

1. Issue a Permanent Injunction against the Defendant prohibiting the current restaurant/bar and/or pool hall activity, or any comparable activity in violation of the covenants of the Master Deed from being conducted on or about the Property.
2. Award the Plaintiff Judgment against the Defendant for the Plaintiff's costs of this action plus reasonable attorney's fees.
3. Grant such other relief as is just, equitable and proper.

 ANSWER AND COUNTERCLAIM

FILED

 BERTINA A. SCOTT
 C.J.C. & G.S.

The Defendant, W.G.R.Q., LLC, answering the Complaint of the Plaintiff, would respectfully show unto the Court the following:

FOR A FIRST DEFENSE
 (General Denial)

1. That answering the Complaint, the Defendant would specifically deny any allegations not hereinafter admitted and would demand strict proof thereof.
2. The Defendant would admit paragraphs one through eight of the complaint.
3. The Defendant would admit so much of paragraphs nine through sixteen of the complaint insofar as the Plaintiff is has standing to bring this action, but would deny the remaining allegations and demand strict proof thereof and would crave reference to the defenses which the Defendant alleges herein.

FOR A SECOND DEFENSE
 (Equitable Estoppel)

4. The Defendant reiterates and re-alleges all defenses hereto.

5. The Defendant would allege that the area where this property is located is a commercial part of the Five Points portion of the City of Columbia, specifically on Greene Street, directly across from "Andy's Deli". The Five Points area has a rich history of commercial development dating back almost one hundred years.
6. That the Defendant herein is the landlord of the restaurants known as "The Blue Cactus", "Subway" and "Sub Pub" which were approved by the City of Columbia as restaurants for well over ten years. The Defendant has made substantial improvement to the property, including, but not limited to, compliance with the City of Columbia code for fire prevention, water usage, restroom facilities, trash removal, satellite or cable television, and food service requirements. These improvements and/or permits were made and issued while the Plaintiff watched and did nothing to stop or prevent the construction of and use of a restaurant.
7. That the Plaintiff allowed the Defendant to make the improvements and operate as restaurants to the Plaintiff's own detriment, that is to say the Plaintiff has been at fault for not enjoining the Defendant from the first time it was opened as restaurants years ago.
8. That the Defendant has been prejudiced by the Plaintiff's lack of prosecution of the restrictions in that he has made the substantial improvements and has been able to make a living and become part of the local iconic commercial environment in the Five Points area.
9. That the Defendant is informed and believes that the doctrine of equitable estoppel applies, and as such, the Plaintiff's case should be dismissed.

FOR A THIRD DEFENSE

(Waiver)

10. The Defendant reiterates and re-alleges all defenses hereto.

11. That the Plaintiff Association had actual or constructive knowledge of the fact that the Defendant was in violation of the restrictive covenants especially since the Defendant's restaurants are at the entrance level of the condominium development. The Plaintiff knew and has known about these commercial establishments for over a decade.

12. That by definition the Plaintiff Association had knowledge of its rights to enjoin the Defendant from the first time a meal was served over a decade ago; the Association did nothing for the past ten years.

13. That having done nothing for well over ten years and knowing of its rights to do something long ago, the Plaintiff Association has waived its rights and the Defendant is entitled to the defense of waiver and is informed and believes that the Plaintiff's case should be dismissed.

FOR A FOURTH DEFENSE

(Laches)

14. The Defendant reiterates and re-alleges all defenses hereto.

15. The Defendant is informed and believes that the Plaintiff did not reasonably seek to avail itself of the means it had at hand for the enforcement of the restriction that it now seeks to enforce.

16. That the Plaintiff, as alleged herein, sat idly by while it had the tools to stop the commercial development and did nothing for over ten years.

17. That the Defendant had built a business and invested substantial assets and work to make the restaurants successful and has therefore been prejudiced and disadvantaged by this action for injunction.

18. The Defendant is informed and believes that the doctrine of laches applies as a defense and the Plaintiff's case should be dismissed.

FOR A FIFTH DEFENSE AND BY WAY OF COUNTERCLAIM

(Attorney's fees)

19. That the Defendant is informed and believes that the Association restriction and covenants in Article XIX, Section 3 provides for attorney's fees in a "loser pays" fashion, but does not allow the winner, in the event a "unit owner" prevails, to collect their attorneys' fees. As such the section is unfair and prejudicial to a unit owner who has a justiciable cause and defense. Further, the clause is one of adhesion and without and choice of negotiation and is void of consideration and should therefore, at a minimum, be a true "loser pays" paragraph.

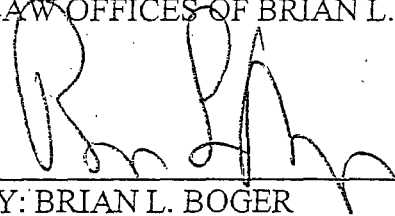

20. That the Defendant is further informed and believes that the association has used funds from the association dues, part of which are paid by the Defendant, to essentially sue "on of its own" without any recourse by the Defendant to stop paying his association dues. This runs afoul of fairness in that the Defendant has no avenue to collect his attorney's fees in the event he is successful.

21. The Defendant is informed and believes that this Court should treat Article XIX Section 3 as a loser pays provision, and in the event the Defendant prevails, the Defendant herein requests attorney's fees and costs be granted to the Defendant from the Plaintiff Association.

WHEREFORE, Defendant prays that this Court inquire into the matters herein, dismiss the Complaint of the Plaintiff, grant judgment to the Defendant and, after inquiry, grant the Defendant his attorney's fees to be paid by the Plaintiff, and for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Answer and Counterclaim

BARBARA A. SCOTT
C.P.C. & G.S.

2008 JAN -9 PM 2:15

FILED

Defendant, by and through its undersigned counsel, answers the Complaint of Plaintiff as follows:

1. For each and every allegation not hereinafter admitted, denied, explained or otherwise qualified, same is denied and strict proof demanded thereof.

For a First Defense

2. Defendant reiterates paragraph 1 above as if repeated herein verbatim.
3. With regard to the allegations contained in paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, and 13, same are admitted.
4. With regard to allegations contained in paragraph 4, Defendant admits so much of said allegations as refers to the initial imposition of restrictions, covenants, conditions and limitations, etc. in the Master Deed, however, Defendant specifically denies that these would "bind any person at any time having an interest in any unit" since enforcement of these restrictions are subject to being waived, estopped from enforcement or denied enforcement by the doctrine laches.
5. With regard to the allegations contained in paragraph 11, Defendant admits so much of said allegation as can be construed to allege that "Pita Pit" is its tenant, however, has been for some seven (7) years, during which time no objection has been raised by Plaintiff to within Defendant over said usage.

6. With regard to the allegations contained in paragraph 12, Defendant does not admit any profit from the current use of the property nor does he admit that the current use of the property is restricted or prohibited since Plaintiff has never sought to enforce the restriction. There are other such businesses in the regime and as previously stated, this business has been in operation for some seven years.

7. The allegations contained in paragraphs 14 and 16 are denied.

8. The allegations contained in paragraph 15 with regard to what is stated in the Article referred to in the Master Deed would be admitted, however, Defendant does not believe Plaintiff would be entitled to recover costs, attorney fees, or any other damages due to their own inactions.

For a Second Defense, Laches

9. Defendant reiterates paragraphs 1 thru 8 above as if repeated herein verbatim.

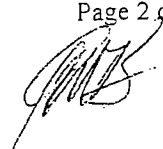

10. That Defendant purchased his unit in 1990.

11. That Defendant operated a self-service coin laundry in said unit for at least three years prior to purchase, and for approximately nine (9) years thereafter.

12. That Plaintiff never objected to nor informed Defendant his use of his unit as a self serve coin laundry was prohibited.

13. That Defendant leased the unit to his current tenant in November 2000 and that sandwich shop has been in the unit since that time.

14. That Plaintiff has had actual notice of the business(es) operated in the Defendant's unit and has taken no action to attempt any enforcement of the restrictions.

15. That Plaintiff should be barred by the doctrine of laches from any enforcement at this time.

For a Third Defense, Equitable Estoppel

16. Defendant reiterates paragraphs 1 thru 15 above as if repeated herein verbatim.

17. That Defendant has a right to rely upon the Plaintiff as the entity charged with the duty of enforcement of restrictions if placed upon use of said property, to act in a timely manner in such instances.

18. As stated above, no notice of alleged violation or prohibited activity was ever issued to Defendant or its tenants except immediately prior to this filing.

19. That by failing to attempt enforcement of the alleged restrictions within a reasonable time, Plaintiff should be estopped from seeking enforcement at this time and denied the relief sought.

For a Fourth Defense, Waiver

20. Defendant reiterates paragraphs 1 thru 19 above as if repeated herein verbatim.

21. That also Plaintiff's failure to object to Defendant's use, or that of Defendant's tenant over these many years, constitutes a waiver of Plaintiff's rights in attempted enforcement of the restrictions originally imposed upon the premises as against any current, longstanding owner, such as Defendant, or its tenant.

For a Fifth Defense

22. Defendant reiterates paragraphs 1 thru 21 above as if repeated herein verbatim.

23. Defendant pleads the statute of limitations as a bar to the relief sought by Plaintiff.

By Way of Counterclaim

24. Defendant reiterates paragraphs 1 thru 23 above as if repeated herein verbatim.

25. Defendant would counterclaim as against Plaintiff for attorney fees and costs associated with the defense of this suit since Defendant's tenants have a business operation currently in existence in excess of seven (7) years as a restaurant/sandwich shop. Prior to that time Defendant itself operated a coin laundry which generated a great deal of foot traffic in and out of its business, to which Plaintiff never objected.

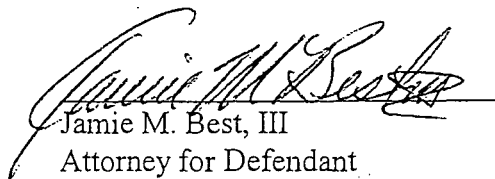

26. During all these years no one has, until recently, notified Defendant of any objection, nor have they made any demand for cessation of the current or previous business activities within the unit owned by Defendant.

27. That as such, Defendant deems this action to be frivolous and without merit and believes itself entitled to attorney fees and costs.

Wherefore, having fully answered the Complaint of Plaintiff, Defendant prays this court inquire into the things and matters alleged between the parties and issue its Order:

- A. Denying Plaintiff the relief sought in its Complaint; and
- B. Granting Defendant reasonable attorney fees and costs in this matter.

3 THE COURT: We have before us this morning four 4 cases. They're Docket Nos. 2007-CP-40-8107, Place on the 5 Greene Homeowners Association versus W.R.G.Q., LLC (sic);
6 2007-CP-40-8108, Place on the Greene Homeowners
7 Association versus Easy Coin Laundry, Incorporated; Docket
8 No. 2007-CP-40-8109, Place on the Greene Homeowners
9 Association versus Eva Nell Berry; and 2007-CP-40-8110,
10 Place on the Greene Homeowners Association versus Jeffrey
11 Keeney.

12 In all four of these cases the plaintiff is 13 represented by William Spillane; is that correct?

14 MR. SPILLANE: Yes, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And the defendants are represented
16 by Brian Boger with the exception of Easy Coin Laundry,
17 Incorporated, who is represented by Jamie Best; is that 18 correct, gentlemen?

19 MR. BOGER: Yes, Your Honor.

20 MR. BEST: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: I understand that while there is no
22 formal motion in the file to consolidate all these cases,
23 that that's what the parties would propose to do for 24 purposes of trial today; is that correct?

25 MR. SPILLANE: Your Honor, we've discussed it.

1 We can see similar issues, similar law, few differences,
2 and I'll make the motion to consolidate at this point all
3 four.

4 THE COURT: Is there any objection from counsel?

5 MR. BOGER: None, your Honor.

6 MR. BEST: None, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And I've read in the file --
8 the only thing that's in the file is basically the 9 summons, the complaint, the answers, counterclaim and 10 reply to counterclaims. And I think that's in all four 11 cases if I'm not mistaken, if I read them correctly. And 12 I believe the allegations are basically the same as to all
13 four cases. There might be a few differences, of course,
14 based upon the filings, but it appears to be mostly the 15 same issues to be addressed in all four cases.

16 MR. BEST: That's our understanding also, Your
17 Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. SPILLANE: I believe so, Your Honor.

20 As a matter for the Court, there should be 21 certificates of service.

22 THE COURT: Yes, I'm sure there are. I'm sure
23 there are certificates of service in the file. I look at 24 those, but I don't pay a lot of attention to them. If 25 there's an answer, I don't bother to look to see if it's

1 been served properly because I assume that that will be
2 raised in the answer by some other formal pleadings. So I
3 believe that there are, in fact, certificates of service
4 in the file.

5 Is there anything else we need to take up before
6 we get started?

7 MR. SPILLANE: No, Your Honor.

8 We've identified Plaintiff's first eight
9 exhibits and made group exhibits a number of times,
10 grouping, for instance, the chain of title, four different
11 chains of title, and grouping some demand letters, but I
12 think we're ready to go.

13 THE COURT: Okay. There's nothing else from the 14 defendants at this point?

15 MR. BOGER: Not at this point, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Then if you'd like to make opening
17 statements you certainly can. It's up to you.

18 MR. SPILLANE: Your Honor, I would plan to do
19 so, if I may.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. SPILLANE: May it please the Court.

22 I'm William Michael Spillane representing a
23 homeowners association that runs a high rise I call it.
24 It's a five-story residential and commercial complex down
25 on Greene Street right at the edge of the university and

1 at the edge of Five Points.

2 I think the facts of this case are going to be
3 pretty straight, and I think anybody can interpret the 4 facts. The homeowners association simply wants an 5 injunction to stop the types of commercial activity that
6 are in the commercial units.

7 The high rise is four stories residential and on 8 the first floor, there are eight units that are labeled
9 commercial units in the master deed and there's certain
10 restrictions on the commercial units that you'll find out
11 about.

12 The violations I don't think my client even 13 challenges. There's clearly some restaurants in there and 14 the answers even say there's some restaurants, and it's 15 our contention that the restaurants are prohibited. So
16 that's pretty much straight.

17 What we want the Court to do is do right and 18 uphold the master deed. That would be a permanent 19 injunction against the type of activity conducted in those 20 commercial units and we're asking for costs to the 21 association. It's pretty simple.

22 However, when you look into the history of the 23 case, and I think both sides are going to talk a lot about 24 the history of the case, how people took deeds, what was 25 there when they took their deeds, how it got there and

1 what they're doing now and so on and so forth, the case
2 really is about the development and that's what we want
3 the Court to focus on.

4 In the seventies, the condominiums started
5 spouting up everywhere and we had a Horizontal Property
6 Act set in place in the state to stop developer abuse and
7 got that cleaned up and this condo, Place on the Greene,
8 is like the second generation I would call condo units.
9 However, on the first floor, it got complicated with 10 commercial units that are in the master deed.

11 The key to this case is the master deed. And 12 we're going to go into the restrictions, why the 13 restrictions are there, why the restrictions are enforced,
14 and why there are certain specific restrictions, how they 15 come about, and really why. We're going to go into the 16 role of the master deed and we're going to talk about why
17 it takes 75 percent of the majority of owners, ownership
18 interest, to change the master deed. And once you do
19 that, you have to have a meeting to vote and record it at 20 the courthouse and everybody's got to be noticed. And 21 we'll talk about the only single change of the master
22 deed.

23 We're going to talk about the role of the board
24 of the association as the enforcer of the covenants.
25 Basically our position is the following: Like a

1 policeman, he is the enforcer of the speed limit. And he
2 might let me go 70 in the 40 every day as I go past him,
3 but he's letting me get away with a violation. He has no
4 authority since he's administrative branch of 5 government -- the policeman, the executive branch -- no
6 authority whatsoever to change the law on speeding and on 7 violating that speeding limit every time I go.

8 We're going to go into the role of the no-waiver
9 clause in the master deed and the reasons, the specific
10 reasons based on development history there is a no-waiver
11 clause. There's very good reason and the Court will see
12 it.

13 We're going to go into what homeowners boards
14 do, what their makeup is and what their problems are.

15 We're basically asking the Court to do right, to 16 shut down the businesses that are clearly prohibited.

17 We've got some defendants here, they're nice
18 people, we've got no gripe with them. It's the type of 19 business that they're running at that particular location.

20 It's tough, it's a tough history to this case.
21 You're going to find it all out, but we're now stepping to 22 the plate and asking the Court to enjoin this activity,
23 basically restaurants and bars, that are in seven of the 24 eight units.

25 The eight units on the first floor from left to

1 right are labeled A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, from the left to
2 the right facing the condominium unit. Unit E is not part
3 of the lawsuit. Don't even know who owns Unit E. The 4 board at this time feels there's no violation of the 5 covenant and restrictions in Unit E.

6 So in closing my opening, I'd ask the judge and 7 the Court to hear what these clients have to say and
8 understand the reason, please, for the 75 percent changing
9 rule.

10 The case is really about democracy and how we 11 won't let a small select group of people control the 12 destiny of the majority to the majority's detriment. And 13 it's a democratic case and it goes deeper than you see on 14 the ground. Clearly anybody walking by can make a
15 decision on this case and say there's restaurants there,
16 the master deed says no restaurants, bars. Anybody can do
17 that. But we have a case in equity court and we're asking
18 the judge to do equity between the homeowners association
19 that didn't jump on these restaurants right away, and 20 that's an understatement, and some businessmen that own
21 those commercial units that are clearly in violation.
22 We're asking the judge to stop it and award court fees and 23 costs to these plaintiffs.

24 Thank you, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Boger.

1 MR. BOGER: May it please the Court, Your Honor.
2 I'll be brief.

3 It's interesting that Mr. Spillane talked about
4 doing equity, because that's what the defendants want.
5 They have owned these commercial establishments, some of 6 them for 15 years, and they've never been, with the 7 exception of an 11 percent no settlement, ever been
8 challenged in any way to open these restaurants.

9 The law is simply dead against them. We can
10 argue the law for the defendants in this case, but doing
11 equity would certainly be equitable estoppel -- that's 12 what our argument is -- waiver and laches. Those are our 13 three defenses.

14 We will establish through the evidence in this 15 case that the plaintiff has allowed these businesses to 16 run, regardless of what their restrictions say about
17 waiver being not an option, they've let them run for 15
18 years and suddenly out of the blue it comes along and they 19 want these things shut down.

20 My clients are in commerce, they pay their 21 taxes, they have good running businesses and continue to 22 run businesses in a deep recession, and to shut them down
23 would be inequity.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Best.

25 MR. BEST: Your Honor, in judicial economy I am

1 fully in line with Mr. Boger's opening statement.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 Mr. Spillane, you may present your first
4 witness.

5 MR. SPILLANE: Yes, Your Honor. I'd call Karen
6 Greiner to the stand.

7 KAREN GREINER, after being duly sworn, testified
8 as follows:

9 THE CLERK: Please have a seat there, ma'am.
10 Speak into the microphone and state your full name for the 11 record.

12 THE COURT: And please spell your last name.

13 THE WITNESS: Greiner, G-R-E-I-N-E-R. Karen
14 Greiner.

15 DIRECT EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. SPILLANE:

17 Q Ms. Greiner, where do you live?

18 A I live in Richland County, Columbia, South Carolina.

19 Q Do you live at Place on the Greene?

20 A No, I do not.

21 Q Do you own a unit --

22 A Yes, I do.

23 Q -- at Place on the Greene?

24 A I do.

25 Q A residential unit?

1 A It is. It is.

2 Q And when did you purchase that?

3 A We purchased that back in May of 2002.

4 Q What is your occupation?

5 A I'm an advertising executive, write and produce ad
6 campaigns, that sort of thing.

7 Q That's interesting.

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q You said "we" to the purchase question. Who did you
10 purchase it with?

11 A My husband and I. My husband and I purchased it.

12 Q And why did you purchase it?

13 A Well, actually we had -- I had read where Senator
14 Hollings was going to get a big old chunk of money to redo
15 Five Points and I had a son who was entering Carolina and 16 a daughter two years after that and I thought -- actually,
17 I read the classifieds as kind of a hobby and I happened
18 to see the condominium and it just seemed like a really
19 awesome price. So we went to look at it and just thought
20 it would be a good investment and my son could live there
21 and perhaps my daughter later.

22 Q What's your role with the homeowners association
23 today?

24 A I'm the president of the homeowners association.

25 Q You're president, you're the plaintiff's president?

1 A Right now, uh-huh.

2 Q How long have you lived in Columbia?

3 A My whole life.

4 Q Okay.

5 A I'm fifty-something.

6 Q How did you become active in the --

7 A Well, when I bought the condo -- this is going to 8 make me seem a little dumb at the time, but when my 9 husband and I went and looked at it, I didn't really 10 realize that the commercial units were even part of the 11 whole Place on the Greene, because you're buying it as a 12 residence so it didn't really dawn on me. You kind of 13 walk past them and get on the elevator and go up. And at 14 the time the condominium complex really needed some 15 repairs, you know, and I've remodeled homes and I just 16 like that kind of challenge. So I thought, wow, we could 17 buy this and then I could help them fix it up.

18 Actually, the first floor behind the commercial
19 units, which again I didn't realize they were part of it,
20 was like the worst looking. Anyway, so the idea was that
21 I could help remodel it. And so --

22 Q So I take it there were --

23 A So I got on the board so that I could have some 24 say-so way back then.

25 Q All right. So there are residential units also on

1 the first floor; is that correct?

2 A There are on the other side, yeah.

3 Q The back side?

4 A On the back side.

5 Q Do they face Greene Street?

6 A No.

7 Q You're familiar with the commercial units now; is
8 that correct?

9 A Yeah. I got real familiar with them when I got on 10 the board. I thought, oh, this is part of it.

11 Q How did you become a board member?

12 A I just said I wanted to be one.

13 Actually, this is my first experience ever with 14 a condominium or being on a board. And it's really
15 actually kind of tough to get people to be on the board
16 because it's kind of a volunteer and everybody's busy and 17 doesn't have time. And so I just said I wanted to be on 18 the board.

19 Q And who did you say that to?

20 A Landmark -- Weston really at the time. They send out
21 a thing about the annual meeting and you go to the annual 22 meeting and "Does anybody want to be on the board?" I mean
23 that kind of thing.

24 Q Western?

25 A Weston at the time.

1 Q What was their role?

2 A They were the property management company at the
3 time. But actually just a few months after we bought the 4 condo, it switched to Landmark.

5 Q Weston was the property management so you got on the 6 board and then --

7 A Went to the annual meeting and they were like,
8 "Anybody want to be on the board?" And you stand up and 9 you say a little bit about yourself and that was kind of
10 it.

11 Q So how did you help when you got on the board?

12 A I didn't know anything. I didn't even know that
13 those units were part of Place on the Greene. I mean, it
14 sounds kind of stupid, but you didn't think of it like
15 that because it's a residence.

16 Q Tell me about the board meeting. Who runs the 17 meeting?

18 A Well, the management company kind of does up a little 19 agenda.

20 There's always kind of a challenge of just you
21 want people on the board that are going to actually come
22 to the meetings and help out a little bit. So, you know,
23 we have old business -- you have meetings. We read the 24 minutes from the last meeting, we go over the financials,
25 we have old business and then new business.

1 And you talk about all of the -- just the
2 problems. And that's when I learned -- well, I had, of 3 course, found out they're commercial now, but all the
4 problems, the trash, the bugs. I mean everything's --
5 security, it all goes back to those commercial units. So
6 that's how I started becoming familiar with the commercial
7 units.

8 Q Did the board meeting discuss problems?

9 A All the time.

10 Q And those problems again were you said bugs and trash
11 and what else?

12 A Security, noise, all the things that the residents
13 complained about, or my son complained about too.

14 Q And you traced those problems back somewhere and I
15 missed that.

16 A Well, they go back to the commercial units because 17 they're the ones that generate a lot of trash and because 18 of the food and the bugs. I mean, it's just a lot -- 19 people that just live don't have quite as many things to 20 deal with.

21 Actually, my husband and I owned a restaurant so
22 I'm real familiar with restaurants.

23 Q Okay. Thank you. So what did you do?

24 A You know, I was like -- I just couldn't believe that 25 you could -- that you could -- that anybody could agree to

1 having a bunch of people living above a place that could
2 stay open until 2 or 3 in the morning and have loud music.
3 I mean, it's just like, how can this be? How can this be?
4 I just -- I don't know.

5 I mean, I would ask the management company and 6 the whole answer was just always, "Well, they've just 7 always been there. They've just been there." I was like,
8 "Well, but are they supposed to be there?"

9 It just seemed like nobody in their right mind
10 would agree to have, you know, people living right above
11 or behind stuff that was open so long. I just didn't get
12 it.

13 Q What are the names of these businesses, do you know?

14 A The Place on the Greene, The Pita Pit, The Blue
15 Cactus, you know, the --

16 Q Well, The Place on the Greene is the homeowners
17 association. What is the name -- do you know the names of 18 the other businesses?

19 A Oh, Tavern on the Greene. I'm sorry. Not Place on 20 the Greene, Tavern on the Greene.

21 Q So then what did you do? You're frustrated?

22 A Well, I am frustrated. It kind of -- you know, I got 23 back on the board the first year and, you know, just after 24 a few years of, you know, people telling me that that's 25 just the way it is, it's like but, you know, it just

1 doesn't make any sense.

2 So I literally got a copy of the deed, the
3 master deed, and had been told that my main job as a board
4 member was to uphold the master deed. And I'm like, okay,
5 well, you know, maybe we could change whatever's in there
6 so that these commercial people won't be there. I mean,
7 we've got to do something because it's never -- it's 8 always -- it's just always -- we're just always going to 9 have all these problems.

10 Q Let me, if I could --

11 A Okay.

12 Q -- show you what's been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 1.
13 Do you recognize that?

14 A This is our master deed. Absolutely.

15 MR. SPILLANE: All right. Thank you.

16 I move --

17 MR. BEST: Without objection, Your Honor. We 18 stipulate that those have already been marked.

19 THE COURT: To all the exhibits or just the 20 plaintiff's exhibits?

21 MR. BEST: To Plaintiff's 1 through 8, what was 22 pre-marked.

23 THE COURT: They're all eight admitted, then.

24 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibits Nos. 1-8 were 25 admitted into evidence.)

1 MR. SPILLANE: Your Honor, I have other copies
2 of this master deed. If I could have the certified one
3 with the Court while she looks at the copy.

4 THE COURT: Certainly.

5 BY MR. SPILLANE:

6 Q I'm giving you an exact copy of what is Plaintiff's
7 1.

8 THE COURT: She can take the one with the 9 sticker on it. It makes no difference to me.

10 BY MR. SPILLANE:

11 Q Okay. I interrupted you rudely when you're talking
12 about "so I got the master deed" I think is what you said.

13 A I did. I got the master deed because I --

14 Q Where did you get the master deed?

15 A Actually, when you close on the condo, my lawyer had 16 put it on the back of my file with my paperwork on the 17 condo and it was actually in there, the master deed.

18 Q And what were your -- you had a question or 19 frustration?

20 A Well, the thought process was, okay, so, you know,
21 either we could maybe change whatever's allowing these 22 people to be there -- well, actually that's what I really 23 thought I was going to do. But I got the master deed and 24 I started kind of going through it and I got to a part
25 that was about the commercial units, and it was like -- I

1 mean, I was expecting it to be in language that I couldn't
2 understand because I don't know that much about legal. In
3 fact, this is my first time ever in a courtroom, so I'm a
4 little nervous.

5 Q What part did you come to?

6 A The part where it talks about and it says really
7 plainly "no restaurants." And I'm like, well, Mark,
8 listen to this, I mean, because it wasn't hard to 9 understand. Let me see.

10 Q Could you direct the Court to the page and to the 11 section --

12 A Right. Exactly.

13 Q -- you're talking about.

14 A Right. This is the part that I found. And actually,
15 I didn't look for anything else because I thought it was 16 pretty clear. It's on page 13.

17 THE COURT: One moment, Ms. Greiner.

18 THE WITNESS: Uh-huh.

19 THE COURT: If you would move back from the 20 microphone a little bit.

21 THE WITNESS: Oh, I'm sorry.

22 THE COURT: Either that or turn them down
23 because your voice is carrying into the courtroom next 24 door.

25 THE WITNESS: Oh, my gosh. I'm so sorry.

1 THE COURT: It's fine.

2 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

3 THE COURT: Either just push them down so that
4 you're not speaking directly into them. I think your 5 voice is loud enough that --

6 THE WITNESS: Without them. I hear you. I've
7 been told that. I'm sorry.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 I'm sorry. Go ahead.

10 BY MR. SPILLANE:

11 Q You're excited about being here?

12 A Well, I mean, I've been working towards it for a long
13 time. But anyway.

14 Q Okay. I understand you're excited, but we can all
15 hear. Good acoustics.

16 A Okay.

17 Q So you found something you told us on page what?

18 A It was on page 13.

19 Q Can you show us?

20 A Section 3. It's the third piece down. Section 3.
21 And it says "condominium commercial unit." And if you
22 read it, it says -- is it okay to read it, the little 23 part?

24 Q Sure.

25 A Okay. "Each condominium commercial unit is hereby

1 restricted to general office space and limited service
2 establishments by the owner thereof and his agent,
3 servant, invitees, licensees, and patrons. The use shall
4 comply with all the ordinances and zoning regulations
5 enumerated by the City of Columbia and the rules and 6 regulations of the board of directors. The rules and 7 regulations, among other things, however, shall provide 8 that no restaurant or establishment engaged in the 9 preparation or delivery of food, no poolhall, game room,
10 bar, lounge, or retail shop that relies on a volume of 11 walk-in patrons shall be permitted."

12 Q And did you say that's as far as you went?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Then what did you do?

15 A Well, at the next board meeting I told them that we 16 didn't need to amend anything, it's here right plain as 17 day. And I still got a lot of resistance in terms of 18 just -- I just decided that I was going to try and uphold
19 the master deed because that was what I'm supposed to do
20 as a board member and it states clearly what it stated.

21 Q What did the board do ultimately?

22 A Well, actually I informed the board that I was going
23 to try to talk to a few lawyers. I was going to try and 24 find out if, in my limited knowledge, if it seemed as cut
25 and dried to them and then I was going to try and get

1 lawyers to come and talk to the board because I knew I
2 couldn't get them to do it on my own, because we're a
3 board, there's five of us. I'd have to get them to agree
4 that, you know, we should do this, we should uphold the
5 master deed.

6 So I talked to a few lawyers, eventually had
7 them come and, you know, say you came and saw, you know,
8 spoke to the board on your interpretation of, you know --
9 I was trying to see if we could take it to the legal step
10 to make it happen.

11 Q All right. But you had contacted other attorneys
12 prior to that?

13 A I did. I did. I did.

14 Q What were the reasons the board was reluctant?

15 A Well, you know, when you have a condominium, the idea
16 is you have to agree when it comes to repairs and spending
17 money. And you have a regime fee so money is put in a
18 pool. It was really a question of most of the time
19 feeling like, you know, we just don't have the money, we 20 can't spend the money on hiring a lawyer to try and uphold
21 the master deed. And I tried to -- my goal was to make 22 them understand -- as I see it, that's the whole reason
23 you have a board of directors is to uphold the master deed
24 and to do what's best for the building and the residents.
25 And, you know, all these people complaining about noise at

1 3 in the morning and complaining about bugs and trash, you
2 know, it was like you could never -- you couldn't have a
3 whole lot of success as long as there were restaurants and 4 bars in the bottom of the building, the first floor of the
5 building.

6 Q So what are you asking this Court to do?

7 A I'm asking them to give an injunction so that those 8 businesses have to cease and desist and that we go back to 9 living by the master deed which says that, you know, you
10 can have general office space.

11 You know, nobody minds if there's a business
12 there from 9 to 5, 9 to 6, and it's a, you know, just a
13 little few people coming in and out type of stuff or a 14 limited service. It would be like a great little spot for 15 like even a little law firm would be great, I think.

16 Q Has the board spent money on this action?

17 A We have. We have. And we actually -- in order to 18 make it happen, we had to agree that there was a cap.
19 We'll try and uphold the master deed and fight this thing
20 to a -- you know, but we won't go beyond that because we 21 have limited resources. We're not, you know, we just have 22 the regime fee stuff.

23 So, yeah, that's what I would like, to cease and 24 desist.

25 Q All right. Is there anything else you want?

1 A You know, I don't really feel like we should have to
2 pay the costs. I'd kind of like for the Court to ask that
3 they pay -- that the homeowner association doesn't have to 4 pay for these fees.

5 Q What's the basis of you saying that the association
6 shouldn't pay?

7 A Well, if you didn't have to go through courts to 8 uphold -- I mean, I tried just showing this to people. We 9 sent out a complaint to the owners because it's not really
10 the people that run it as much as the owners, because if 11 they read their master deed, they would see that they're 12 not supposed to lease their building to those types of 13 places.

14 Q Let me show you Plaintiff's Exhibit 8 and ask you if 15 you recognize that.

16 A Exactly. This was step one. We sent a letter to the 17 owners saying, you know, we want you to quit having those 18 types of -- leasing those types of businesses to your 19 tenant.

20 Q Those are my letters; is that correct?

21 A Correct.

22 Q How were those letters sent out?

23 A Certified mail. Absolutely.

24 Q And what's the date on those letters, the first one
25 at least?

1 A The date is June 25th, 2007.

2 MR. SPILLANE: I think all of these are
3 admitted.

4 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

5 BY MR. SPILLANE:

6 Q Are you familiar with the amendment process for the 7 master deed, for the restrictions in the master deed?

8 A In other words, if we wanted to amend the master
9 deed?

10 Q Yes.

11 A I know you have to have 75 percent.

12 Q Seventy-five percent of what?

13 A Of the owners agree that they want to amend the 14 master deed.

15 Q Let me direct your attention to page 21.

16 A All right. All right. I'm there.

17 Q Do you have that section?

18 A Are you talking about the amendment of the master
19 deed?

20 Q Yes?

21 A XV111.

22 Q That's Roman Numeral 18. Basically what does it say?

23 A "This master deed may be amended by the vote of at 24 least 75 percent of the total percentage interest of all
25 co-owners cast in person or by proxy at the meeting."

1 Or by proxy, yeah. That means, you know, if you
2 can't be there you can -- somebody can vote on your
3 behalf.

4 Q All right. And when did the amendment become 5 effective?

6 A Shall become effective upon recordation of the 7 written -- in other words, it has to be pretty official.
8 It has to be put on record by a lawyer.

9 Q All right. We'll let the Court look at that.

10 In your experience, have there -- and you're 11 still president now, correct?

12 A I'm president now. I got on the board back then and 13 I've remained on the whole time.

14 Q You've served how many years?

15 A Four, five, six, seven, eight -- this is my sixth
16 year.

17 Q Are you elected every year?

18 A You are. You are.

19 Q What's the term of a board member?

20 A A year.

21 Q How many board members are there?

22 A Five.

23 Q Do you know who they are right now?

24 A I do know who they are. Myself, Jerry West, Michael 25 Dover, Tim O'Brien and Brian Smith. We had two new ones

1 this year.

2 Q You had two new ones coming on?

3 A Uh-huh.

4 Q Jerry West, what does he do? Do you know his 5 occupation?

6 A I really don't. I mean I know he's in some kind of 7 management stuff.

8 Q Okay. The next person, who is that?

9 A Michael Dover.

10 Q Do you know his occupation?

11 A Michael works at Carolina First.

12 Q All right. And the next guy?

13 A Is Tim O'Brien. He's a new -- he's new.

14 Lot of times -- actually, he was kind of like
15 me. He bought a condo and so I think that's why he wanted
16 to be on the board. He just recently purchased a condo.

17 Q Okay. How old is he?

18 A He's kind of a young guy. He's about thirty-ish 19 looking.

20 Q And who else?

21 A One other guy, Brian Smith.

22 Q What does he do?

23 A You know, I thought he was a doctor, but when I
24 called Michelle to see if she knew, she didn't know. I'm 25 not sure. But he, too, recently had purchased a

1 condominium.

2 That's usually the way -- I mean that's how I
3 got on too. It's like, oh, well, let me see what's going
4 on and how I can make sure that the best interest is being
5 served for the residents, I guess.

6 Q Were there any requests to the board during your time
7 to change the -- to amend the master deed, the 8 restrictions?

9 A You know, I have to tell you that it was really more
10 me saying, "Come on, guys, we're supposed to uphold this."

11 You know, my first thought when I first, very 12 first went to the master deed was going to be trying to do
13 an amendment because I assumed that those commercial
14 people could be there. I mean, so no, we didn't talk
15 about an amendment because step one was just to uphold
16 what's there. I mean, it was already in black and white.
17 It was always there. We didn't have to amend it. So no.

18 Q Do you feel the association's given up its rights to 19 crack down on the restaurants and bars?

20 A Not at all. I mean, that doesn't make any sense. I
21 mean, no, no, we haven't given up our right.

22 I'll admit that the board of directors -- or I
23 can only speak for Place on the Greene, but I mean people
24 are just giving of their time freely, you're not paid
25 anything. You know, there's not a lot of initiative. I

1 don't know any way to put it.

2 But I mean, I had to push through an initiative
3 to get the first floor retiled because that carpet from 4 where the -- was just disgusting.

5 I mean, it's kind of a -- the building was
6 really becoming kind of run down and it was just not a
7 good thing when I first got there. And so I knew if we
8 could do some things it would help. And there's just not 9 a lot of initiative.

10 And I don't think we should be penalized,
11 because we're just a group of people, five people, that 12 constantly changes year after year. I mean, I've been on 13 the board the longest of anybody, or a lot of people.

14 Q Let me direct your attention to page 22.

15 A All right.

16 Q And two specific sections on page 22 of the master
17 deed. That's Article XIX at the bottom of 21.

18 A Right.

19 Q Section 3.

20 A All right. Costs.

21 Q What's your understanding of that?

22 A "In any proceeding" --

23 Q Just tell me your understanding of that.

24 A Oh, it just means that we shouldn't have to pay to 25 uphold the master deed.

1 Q Who should have to pay?

2 A The people that were violating it.

3 Q You truly feel the defendants here, which is Pita
4 Pit, Tavern on the Greene, Blue Cactus, I think, the
5 restaurant --

6 A Uh-huh.

7 Q -- you truly feel they're violating the restrictions?

8 A Absolutely. Absolutely. And just because you've 9 gotten away with something for a long -- I mean, it's 10 still not right. It's still not supposed to be happening.

11 Q Do you feel you have any ulterior motives here?

12 A None whatsoever except for, again, I go back to -- I
13 don't think you could find anybody that would -- a group
14 of 75 percent -- 75 percent of any group of owners that 15 would say, yeah, that's a good idea, let's have a bar
16 that's open until 2 and 3 in the morning, what a great
17 idea, and a couple more restaurants that create all this 18 trash. I mean, nobody is going to agree. It made no
19 sense that that was a possibility.

20 Q And you feel you're right in this case; is that
21 correct?

22 A Absolutely I'm right.

23 And, you know, I mean, I know the economy's bad,
24 but they're -- it's just that that building is always 25 going to have issues that we, as a board of directors, we

1 can't overcome these. They're just too massive, they're
2 too big a problem.

3 Q All right. Let me direct your attention to Section 4
4 on page 22.

5 A Uh-huh.

6 Q What's your understanding of Section 4 of Article
7 XIX, Roman Numeral XIX, that's 19, Section 4.

8 A You know, that's a really good one, I mean, because 9 it was probably put in there because -- the association is 10 kind of not a very strong group of people, so you
11 shouldn't be able to get by just because we haven't done
12 our duty in a more timely fashion, I guess.

13 Q Has the association incurred expenses in this
14 lawsuit?

15 A We have. We have. And that was probably the thing I
16 went out on a limb the biggest for. But, you know, we 17 have expenses around $5,500, between five thousand and six 18 thousand, you know, because --

19 Q At this point?

20 A -- there still legal fees and -- yeah, exactly.
21 Uh-huh.

22 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you. Answer any questions
23 the other attorneys have.

24 THE WITNESS: Oh, all right.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Boger.

1 MR. BOGER: May it please the Court, Your Honor.

2 CROSS-EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. BOGER:

4 Q Ms. Greiner, you've been on the board longer than 5 anybody?

6 A Well, I mean, I did out the list of the different
7 people and Karen Denning was on there for about three and 8 a half years. Her son graduated so she was no longer on 9 the board. But, yeah, I've have been on there -- this is 10 my sixth year.

11 Q And since you've been on the board the longest you
12 would have access to the records of the history of this 13 association; isn't that right?

14 A Access to the history, yeah, yeah.

15 Q Is there a book somewhere that has all the minutes in
16 it?

17 A Not exactly. I would say kind of more recent ones, 18 but we were actually up in a -- like an attic looking for 19 old minutes and stuff.

20 People don't do the greatest job in the world
21 with that part. I guess because it always changing.

22 Q So the only records you ever looked at was what was 23 produced over the past six years; is that your testimony?

24 A Yeah. I mean, I have the ones from when I've been on
25 the board.

1 And like I say, when we hired the lawyer, the
2 idea was is we were supposed to go and find all the
3 records to give to him to see if, you know, he could find
4 anything. So we dug up some and there wasn't some real
5 perfect little -- all these records. It was just kind of 6 a hodge-podge of stuff that we passed on.

7 Q Let me show you this document and see if you
8 recognize that document.

9 A No, sorry.

10 Q You've never seen that before?

11 A Unh-unh. But I could sit here and read it if you'd 12 like.

13 Q Well, I'm going to ask you to, but let me find my 14 place first.

15 A Okay.

16 Q That's dated March 21, 1991, isn't it?

17 A 1991, yeah, yeah.

18 Q You didn't have that record; is that right?

19 A Again, I didn't -- when we were going to gather stuff
20 to give to the lawyer --

21 Q I understand. You did the best you could.

22 A Perfect, right.

23 Q But in that document you're looking at, look at the 24 part that says "new business" which is about three 25 quarters of the way down the page.

1 A Okay. All right.

2 Q And if you can just read that, the first couple of --
3 well, just read that whole little paragraph for me.

4 A "Beau Powell addressed the vacancy problems of the
5 commercial units due to the restrictions as stated in the 6 master deed. Restaurants, which are prohibited, have
7 worked well in other similar buildings. He offered the
8 motion to amend the bylaws to allow the board at its
9 discretion to allow other usage. Due to there being less
10 than 75 percent, the motion will go to the homeowners in a
11 special election. The additional caveat was made there
12 would not be beer or wine sold without food consumption."

13 I think that's a rule -- but yeah. Okay.

14 Q So that's out of the minutes that you either didn't
15 have or couldn't find; is that right?

16 A Yeah. I mean, they might be in that box.

17 Q That seems to say, doesn't it, that there is a motion
18 on the table to amend the bylaws to allow restaurants to 19 be there as long as they serve beer and wine with food
20 consumption; isn't that right?

21 A Amend the bylaws. Is the bylaws the same as the 22 deed, the same deal?

23 Q I'm not supposed to answer your questions, but yes.

24 A Okay.

25 Q So that's one you didn't have; is that right? In

1 your investigation in looking through the attic and so
2 forth, you didn't have that one?

3 A I don't think so.

4 Q Okay. Now let me show you another document. Take a
5 look at that one.

6 A All right.

7 Q Now, the date at the top of that is March 22nd, 1993;
8 is that right?

9 A Right. Right.

10 Q And if you'll look at once again where it says "new 11 business," what does that say?

12 A "The Duck In restaurant has notified the board of its
13 intent to build a deck in front of the commercial units
14 currently occupied by G&A Jewelers and the Columbia Tan
15 Spa. This property is owned by the City of Columbia and 16 the deck will have to be approved by the zoning
17 department. The opinion of those present at the meeting
18 was that the deck, done properly, could be an asset to the
19 building."

20 Q Okay. That's good. You've got the part.

21 A Okay.

22 Q So it looks like that the first one I showed you was 23 dated 1991; is that right?

24 A Right. Uh-huh.

25 Q And the second one is March of '93 --

1 A Right.

2 Q -- which is two years later?

3 A Right.

4 Q And it appears that The Duck In is a restaurant now
5 in Tavern on the Greene, isn't it?

6 A Uh-huh.

7 Q And they're going to build a deck in front of those
8 commercial units; isn't that right?

9 A Right.

10 Q And no objection from the homeowners association;
11 isn't that right?

12 A Or at least those five people on the board, yeah.

13 Q Well, if there were a problem with the entire 14 association, wouldn't they have come to the board and 15 said, gee, there's something going on here, there's a
16 restaurant that's come in, I want to stop this?

17 A No. It doesn't really work like that because there's 18 some owner residents, but the great majority are leased.

19 Q Wouldn't the board, however, have done something in 20 its power to stop a restaurant had it not already approved
21 a restaurant in 1992?

22 A I don't know. I think maybe these people -- I don't
23 know. I don't know.

24 Q You just don't know. And part of the reason you
25 don't know is you don't have access to the history that

1 apparently the defendants have; is that right?

2 A Well, people on the board don't know a lot. I mean,
3 we're just people.

4 Q Okay. Now, let me show you the next document,
5 March 25th -- March 24th, 1995. See if you recognize that 6 document.

7 A Nope. Again, I didn't get in there until May of 8 2002.

9 Q Well, and if you would, this is once again the annual 10 meeting, isn't it?

11 A In 1995 this is the annual meeting.

12 Q Okay. And if you'll read the first line, where does 13 it say the meeting was held?

14 A At Beau Dee's restaurant.

15 Well, you know, I definitely knew that there's 16 been restaurants there a long time. I think that was the 17 reason why people just -- on the board were like, well,
18 it's always been there, it's always been there. So, I
19 mean, I don't dispute that there's been restaurants there.

20 Q Well, if you're the -- if you've been there the 21 longest, you've been there six years --

22 A Uh-huh.

23 Q -- and you can't find old records that have history
24 of it, is it possible that records existed that tacitly
25 approved of restaurants and bars and that you just didn't

1 know --

2 A Well, even if they approved them, they didn't get the
3 deed changed. It says plain as day, no restaurants
4 allowed. I mean, that's all that I'm going by.

5 Q But there was not an amendment made and, once again,
6 you don't have any history because you're just people?

7 A Yeah. There was not an amendment done.

8 Q Okay.

9 A Had there been, then we might have, as the current 10 board, attempted to do an amendment so that there couldn't
11 be restaurants, I guess.

12 MR. BOGER: Beg the Court's indulgence.

13 BY MR. BOGER:

14 Q Now, you came on in '02 again?

15 A No, I bought the unit in '02. I actually was -- our 16 annual meetings are in December and that's when we vote,
17 and so December of '03. So the board for '04 was when I
18 first came on.

19 Q And this restaurant/bar has been a problem for a long
20 time; is that right?

21 A Yeah. Once I found -- yeah. I mean, it's part of 22 Place on the Greene. It's not just there.

23 Q And has that been a focus of some of the meetings?

24 A You know, not really because there's just this, Well, 25 they've just always been there, they've just always been

1 there, they've just always been there. So no, there's
2 not -- I mean, I have to honestly tell you that I am the
3 one that after reading the master deed said, you know --
4 that spearheaded this, well, let's uphold the master deed.
5 Let's try and just uphold the master deed and do what
6 we're supposed to do.

7 Q Let me show you this document, if I may. If you can
8 just identify that for me.

9 A December '03, Clawson's Inn.

10 Q And what does it -- give me just a second.

11 The problems in the middle of that are -- the 12 topics are re-election of officers, budget, roof repairs,
13 revision of rules and regulations, fines and penalties,
14 pigeon problems, and results of pet preference by owners.
15 Is that the problems in those three?

16 A Right.

17 Q The restaurant is not on the table in '03, is it?

18 A No.

19 Q In fact, without me going through all of these --

20 A The restaurants are never on the table.

21 Q It's never been on any --

22 A No, because they've just been there.

23 Q At any annual meeting that has not been an issue, has
24 it?

25 A Unh-unh. No. I mean, it just -- no.

1 Q So this is just sort of your spearheading, this .
2 termination of the restaurants?

3 A No. This is me upholding the master deed.

4 Q Okay.

5 A Or looking at what should or shouldn't be. This is 6 me going, there is nobody in their right mind that would 7 say I want to live above -- that's all that is.

8 MR. BOGER: Your Honor, I would --

9 THE WITNESS: I mean all along I will tell you
10 that lots of people that live there say they don't like
11 it.

12 MR. BOGER: Object to anything that --

13 THE WITNESS: Oh, sorry.

14 MR. BOGER: I would like to move to mark the 15 exhibits which I have given her, and I think there are 16 four. Did anybody keep count?

17 THE WITNESS: Oh, I'm sorry. One, two --

18 THE COURT: Any objection?

19 THE WITNESS: Actually, there might be five.

20 MR. BOGER: I will do them individually, Your 21 Honor, unless there's an objection.

22 MR. SPILLANE: Your Honor, I plan to call Deane
23 Chavous later to signing two of these.

24 We have no objection to their admission as four
25 exhibits. Are they all separate?

1 THE COURT: There are four?

2 MR. BOGER: There are four. Two pages need to
3 be stapled together.

4 MR. SPILLANE: They seem to be the business
5 records of the association.

6 THE COURT: Just give the court reporter an
7 opportunity to mark them before you start back.

8 (WHEREUPON, Defendant's Exhibits Nos. 1-4 were 9 marked for identification and received into
10 evidence.)

11 MR. BOGER: Your Honor, that all the questions I
12 have for Ms. Greiner.

13 THE COURT: Anything from you, Mr. Best?

14 MR. BEST: Yes, Your Honor, just a few.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. BEST:

17 Q Ms. Greiner?

18 A Yes.

19 Q A couple of times you have made the statement that 20 who in their right mind would want to live above that?

21 A Uh-huh.

22 Q Isn't it primarily college students that live at
23 Place on the Greene?

24 A You know, it's a combination, which I was kind of 25 pleased to see.

1 Q But there are a lot of college kids that live there?

2 A Yeah, there are. It's right there at the university.

3 You can walk to class. It's perfect.

4 Q Whose duty is it to follow through with the amendment
5 process in that master deed? Isn't it yours?

6 A The board of directors.

7 Q Yours now?

8 A Are you asking me if I was going to make an 9 amendment would it be my job?

10 Q If you were to make an amendment, isn't it your 11 responsibility to follow through to see that the 12 recordation takes place?

13 A I guess. I mean, I'll be honest, when you're on a
14 board of condominiums you don't know a whole lot, but yes,
15 I would assume if you uphold the deed or you amend the 16 deed, that it's up to you.

17 Q All right. In the first exhibit that Mr. Boger
18 showed you --

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q -- I think it's March of '91.

21 A Uh-huh.

22 Q It says a special vote is going to be taken.

23 A Uh-huh.

24 Q Do you have the results of that vote?

25 A I mean in '91 I wasn't even -- do I have the results?

1 Q You are the board, ma'am. Does the board have those
2 records?

3 A I don't think so. I'd have to look.

4 Q So if I further understand your testimony, the way
5 you read these restrictions is that if you can get
6 75 percent this year and 75 percent next year, you can 7 flip-flop this thing any way you want to?

8 A No. I don't think so.

9 Q That's the way you testified.

10 A Oh, yeah. I mean, if I could get 75 percent of the 11 people to say they don't want restaurants down there,
12 yeah, that would -- but I didn't need to do that because 13 it already said it in the master deed.

14 Q All right. Now, in 2004, is that the year that you
15 ran for the board?

16 A Yeah. Well, actually December of 2003, which yes,
17 I'm on the board starting in '04, January of '04.

18 Q And did in '04 the board for Place on the Greene
19 publish some new rules and regulations?

20 A We were always trying to do -- you know, we were 21 trying to -- with students living there, yeah, we had good
22 rules and regulations, as does every place.

23 Q Can you identify that document for me?

24 A It's the rules and regulations that my guess is 25 Michelle typed up.

1 Q And if you would, turn to the last page and cite the
2 date at the bottom that shows the revision date.

3 A 1-04.

4 Q Do you take that to be January '04?

5 A I do.

6 MR. BEST: Okay. We'd move this as Defendant's
7 whichever next number, your Honor.

8 THE WITNESS: You know, we're always thinking in 9 terms of residents because that's what we consider
10 ourselves, residents, people living there.

11 BY MR. BEST:

12 Q But you don't live there?

13 A My son and his wife and little boy, but they moved
14 out. So now I'm renting it or leasing it.

15 MR. SPILLANE: They appear to be the rules and 16 regs of Place on the Greene in '04. No objection.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Boger, there's no objection from 18 you?

19 MR. BOGER: No, ma'am.

20 THE COURT: So that will be Defendant's Exhibit
21 5. If you'll give the court reporter time to mark it,
22 please.

23 (WHEREUPON, Defendant's Exhibit No. 5 was marked
24 for identification and received into evidence.)

25 BY MR. BEST:

1 Q On your page two, Ms. Greiner, is that where the
2 actual rules and regulations start or is that on page one
3 of what you have?

4 A Renting of unit, parking. One, two, three is on my 5 front page.

6 Q All right. One, two, three. Item three deals with 7 solicitation?

8 A Uh-huh.

9 Q And, if you would, read the first sentence of that,
10 please.

11 A "Businesses shall not advertise their product,
12 services or functions in the common areas of Place on the 13 Greene."

14 Q Okay. And then go on to your page two and item 15 number four.

16 A Annoyances?

17 Q Correct. In the second paragraph of that, beginning
18 with the words "after 10 p.m."

19 A Right.

20 "Noise from televisions, stereo equipment,
21 people, et cetera, should be kept to a minimum at all
22 times, especially during the hours of 10 p.m. through
23 8 a.m. After 10 p.m., customers of the commercial units
24 must be served within the business location" -- well,
25 that's because they're always spilling out, being loud --

1 "outside commercial units. Any tables or chairs for
2 commercial units are to be brought in by 10 p.m. to 3 decrease the loitering problem."

4 Do you want me to keep reading, "Columbia
5 Police"?

6 Q No, ma'am, I don't.

7 A Okay.

8 Q The rules in '04 make specific provisions for 9 operation of commercial units, do they not?

10 A Oh, absolutely. When I first got there, that's the 11 deal, they've just been here and they've always been. So
12 we're trying to make the best of the situation.

13 Q And you made specific mention of how they should 14 serve their customers and they're serving them what?

15 A What are they serving them?

16 Q Yes, ma'am.

17 A Food and drink.

18 MR. BEST: Thank you, ma'am.

19 I don't have any further questions, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Any redirect?

21 MR. SPILLANE: Yes, Your Honor.

22 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. SPILLANE:

24 Q Ms. Greiner, did the board vote to bring this
25 lawsuit?

1 A Yes, we did.

2 Q Do you consider yourself spearheading the lawsuit?

3 A I consider myself bringing it to the board's 4 attention, that it's our job to uphold the master deed and
5 we just need to do it no matter how long it's not been
6 done. So yes, I was the one that continued to point that 7 out.

8 Q Let me show you Defendant's Exhibit 1.

9 A All right.

10 Q And under "new business" it mentions Beau Powell.

11 A Uh-huh.

12 Q Do you know who that was?

13 A I've learned that he was actually the developer.

14 Q All right. You don't really know who he is, right?

15 A No, I don't. I mean, I don't know him, no.

16 Q And it says he addresses the vacancy problem for the 17 commercial units due to the restrictions in the master
18 deed.

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q What were the restrictions in the master deed?

21 A That you couldn't have a restaurant. It was just for 22 general office use and limited service establishments.

23 Q All right. The second sentence says that it worked
24 in similar buildings. It says --

25 A Worked well in similar buildings.

1 Q Listen to my question. He offered the motion to
2 amend the bylaws.

3 Is the restaurant restriction in the bylaws or
4 the master deed?

5 A The master deed.

6 Q All right.

7 A That's why I asked that other lawyer.

8 Q Are the bylaws part and amended to the master deed?

9 A Hold on one second. Let me look and see if it says
10 bylaws.

11 Yes. There are bylaws. But there's nothing
12 about the restaurants in there I don't believe.

13 Q Would amending the bylaws change the master deed?

14 A I don't think so.

15 MR. BOGER: Object, Your Honor. She doesn't 16 know the answer.

17 THE WITNESS: I don't. I mean, the master deed
18 is the main thing that was set up so that it would be a
19 good property.

20 BY MR. SPILLANE:

21 Q All right. Let's stop and find the bylaws which are 22 attached in the master deed.

23 A And I see those.

24 Q All right. If you could give me the page.

25 A It's right after the certification of incorporation.

1 It's right here.

2 Q All right. What page?

3 A It's right after the certification. You know, the 4 whole master deed and then there's some drawings of the 5 building and then there's a certification and then there's 6 bylaws. Page 46 is what it's stamped.

7 Q Page 46 it's stamped. That's the bylaws?

8 A Correct.

9 Q Could you find where it talks about amending the 10 bylaws?

11 A Hold on. I've looked at this.

12 MR. BOGER: Your Honor, if it will help, we'll 13 stipulate that the bylaws may be amended.

14 THE COURT: It's page 52.

15 BY MR. SPILLANE:

16 Q Page 52.

17 A Sorry. I'm looking. The writing is kind of little.

18 Q All right. Page 52, Exhibit J-7, page seven, talks
19 about amendments in Article XIV, 14. How are the bylaws
20 amended?

21 A "These bylaws may be amended at a regular or special
22 meeting of the members by vote or a majority of a quorum
23 of members present in person or by proxy."

24 Q All right. So they would be amended by a majority --

25 A Right.

1 Q -- of the people; is that correct?

2 A A quorum, yes.

3 Q Quorum of the interests represented?

4 A Uh-huh.

5 Q And we said earlier the master deed would be amended
6 by a super majority; is that correct?

7 A Right.

8 Q What was that number?

9 A Seventy-five percent.

10 Q All right. Do you know if this motion ever went to 11 the homeowners in a special election? Someone had a 12 motion it seems maybe?

13 A From back in '91?

14 Q Yes.

15 A No.

16 Q You weren't on it then, were you?

17 A Seems like when we got a copy of this it would have 18 been in there.

19 Q Can the board amend the bylaws?

20 A Yeah. I mean, if you have enough support.

21 Q Does the board have to get a majority vote of the 22 people?

23 A Yes. Yes, they do.

24 Q Defendant's Exhibit 3, I want to show you -- I think
25 it's in that attachment.

1 A That was one of the letters. That's all I have.

2 Q Defendant's Exhibit 3 --

3 A He took them all back.

4 Q Okay. I've got 5.

5 A It's the only one I have.

6 MR. BOGER: Which one is that?

7 MR. SPILLANE: That's the annual meeting.

8 BY MR. SPILLANE:

9 Q I'll show you Defendant's Exhibits 3 and 5.

10 A Okay.

11 Q This was an annual meeting; is that correct?

12 A Right.

13 Q From '95?

14 A Right.

15 Q Before you came on, right?

16 A Right.

17 Q Are issues discussed in the board that never get to 18 the agenda at the annual meeting?

19 A Oh, absolutely.

20 Q Who sets the agenda for the annual meeting?

21 A You know, since I've been on the board, the property
22 management company.

23 Q Okay. Do you know of any amendments that were passed
24 by the people during your tenure, amendments to the master
25 deed that didn't get recorded at the courthouse?

1 A No.

2 Q Do you know of any amendments that were passed by the
3 people during your eight years -- not eight years. How 4 many years, eight?

5 A Six.

6 Q Six -- that were passed by the people? Were there
7 any amendments to the master deed?

8 A No.

9 Q Do you know of any amendments to the bylaws that were 10 passed by the people during your time?

11 A No.

12 Q All right. Let me show you Defendant's 5, rules and 13 regulations.

14 And Mr. Best asked you about limiting hours and 15 telling them to take in tables and all.

16 Did the board try to control the situation?

17 A Yeah. It seemed like the next -- I mean I had just 18 gotten on the board, but yeah, at least limit things,
19 sure.

20 Q Is there any -- who passes the rules and regulations?

21 A The board of directors.

22 Q Can the rules and regulations overtake or trump the 23 master deed?

24 A Not at all, no.

25 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you, Ms. Greiner.

1 THE COURT: You may step down.

2 THE WITNESS: All right.

3 MR. BOGER: Recross, Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. Yes.

5 MR. BOGER: I will be brief.

6 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. BOGER:

8 Q On page 16 of the these amendments -- excuse me, of 9 the master deed --

10 A Uh-huh.

11 Q Can you find that pretty quickly?

12 A I can. Page 16. All right. You mean the stamp or 13 the one at the bottom?

14 Q The stamped one at the bottom.

15 A The stamp.

16 Q The stamp, I'm sorry.

17 A That's okay. That's the page where it talks about 18 the commercial units?

19 Q Yes, ma'am. I'm going to try to just limit my 20 questioning.

21 You see where it says "in the preparation or 22 delivery of food"?

23 A Okay. Let me find that.

24 Q It's about the sixth or seventh line down on that
25 paragraph. "Engaged in," it begins "engaged"?

1 A And you're in Section 3?

2 Q Yes, ma'am.

3 A Okay.

4 Q About six or seven lines down. And I'll just read it
5 for you.

6 A Okay.

7 Q "Engaged in the preparation or delivery of food, no
8 poolhall, game room, bar, lounge, or retail shop that 9 relies on a volume of walk-in patrons shall be permitted."
10 Is that correct, that's what it says?

11 A Right. Right. Right.

12 Q And in the pictures, which I think are marked as 13 Exhibit 8 --

14 A Uh-huh.

15 Q -- there's a picture of the ATT store; isn't that 16 right?

17 A There is.

18 Q And it's heavy walk-in, wouldn't you agree?

19 A Not really. I mean it's open 9 to 5, I guess, for 20 people that have phone issues that come and go.

21 Q So there's walk-in traffic?

22 A There is.

23 Q And you've chosen and you're spearheading this
24 lawsuit not to sue them; isn't that right?

25 A Correct.

1 Q Okay. And you, as the spearhead of this lawsuit, did
2 not find until today that there was minutes in 1991, in
3 1993, which tacitly approved of the restaurant and bar;
4 isn't that correct? You didn't find those records, did
5 you?

6 A No. I mean, I'm sure there's a reason why they're
7 there and had been all these years. There's no doubt.

8 Q Could the reason be that you didn't find them because 9 of the poor recordkeeping on the board of directors'
10 behalf?

11 A Oh, I think every board in America has poor
12 recordkeeping, you know, but we do have our master deed.

13 MR. BOGER: That's all the questions I have.

14 THE COURT: Anything further from anybody?

15 You may step down. Thank you.

16 You may call your next witness.

17 MR. SPILLANE: We'd call Larry Phipps.

18 LARRY PHIPPS, after being duly sworn, testified
19 as follows:

20 THE CLERK: Please have a seat here, sir. State
21 your full name for the record and please spell your last.

22 THE WITNESS: My name is Larry Phipps. Last
23 name is P-H-I-P-P-S.

25

1 BY MR. SPILLANE:

2 Q Mr. Phipps, what's your occupation?

3 A I write a couple of sports football magazines and
4 have a small janitorial service.

5 Q What is your connection with Place on the Greene?

6 A I have been a resident for about eight years.

7 Q Were you ever on the board?

8 A For a little over a year, yes, sir.

9 Q What unit?

10 A 508.

11 Q 508?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q What type of businesses are being run at Place on the 14 Greene starting from left to right facing the building in 15 the commercial unit?

16 A Starting with Unit A would be the Pita Pit and then
17 Tavern on the Greene has three units and then you have the 18 ATT store and you have the new store, the tobacco shop,
19 and then you have The Blue Cactus.

20 Q All right. Let's start with A. What's the Pita Pit
21 do?

22 A They are basically a sandwich shop, I believe. I've 23 actually never been in there, but as far as I can tell 24 they're a sandwich shop. I see a lot of people going in 25 and out with sandwiches up until, you know, 3 a.m. in the

1 morning the business stays open.

2 Q Do you have a menu from there?

3 A I certainly do.

4 Q Would you identify that? Is this the only one you
5 have, Mr. Phipps?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 MR. BEST: It's looks like a menu, Your Honor.

8 MR. SPILLANE: I will introduce this as
9 Plaintiff's 9.

10 THE COURT: Without objection.

11 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 9 was marked
12 for identification and received into evidence.)

13 BY MR. SPILLANE:

14 Q Do you have any other menus?

15 A Yes, I have a menu from The Blue Cactus.

16 Q Where did you get this menu?

17 A That was pulled from the Internet.

18 Q It was pulled from the Internet?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q When did you do that?

21 A Last night.

22 MR. BEST: No objection.

23 MR. SPILLANE: I would submit this as
24 Plaintiff's 10.

25 THE COURT: Without objection.

1 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 10 was
2 marked for identification and received into
3 evidence.)

4 BY MR. SPILLANE:

5 Q Mr. Phipps, I show you a set of pictures that have
6 been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 7. Would you identify 7 those, please?

8 A These are photos that I took a couple of weeks ago --
9 I guess a few days ago, showing the front of the Place on 10 the Greene.

11 Q Are they pictures of Place on the Greene?

12 A Correct.

13 MR. SPILLANE: I move to admit that as
14 Plaintiff's 11, that group.

15 THE COURT: I thought that was Exhibit 7?

16 MR. SPILLANE: Stipulated.

17 THE COURT: I thought that was Exhibit 7?

18 MR. SPILLANE: I'm sorry. You're right.

19 THE COURT: It's already entered.

20 BY MR. SPILLANE:

21 Q Mr. Phipps, looking through those pictures, do they 22 adequately depict the front of the Place on the Greene
23 building?

24 A Most certainly.

25 Q All right. You have some other pictures from the

1 back in that group. What are those? You have a dumpster,
2 I believe.

3 A That's the dumpster area for the entire complex, both
4 residential and commercial.

5 Q Okay. Do you have a menu from Tavern on the Greene?

6 A No, I do not. From what I understand, all they have 7 is a menu that's on a chalkboard. And there was some 8 question regarding that on a separate occasion that I have 9 knowledge of to be able to say that.

10 Q Okay. Are you familiar with restrictive covenants --

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q -- at Place on the Greene. What do the restrictive
13 covenants allow for in your understanding?

14 A They do not allow for bars and restaurants.

15 Q All right. Businesses, some businesses operating 16 there are bars and restaurants and serve food; is that
17 correct?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q Does ATT -- I guess it's ATT in Unit E, do they serve
20 food?

21 A They do not.

22 Q Serve beer?

23 A They do not.

24 Q Serve wine?

25 A They do not.

1 Q Are they noisy?

2 A In the times that I've lived there, they actually are
3 not very busy at all. There's not much foot traffic going
4 in and out of there. So no, I would say that they're not.

5 Q Do customers loiter in front?

6 A No.

7 Q They close up at what time, do you know?

8 A I believe it's 6 o'clock every evening except for 9 Saturday. I think they close a little bit earlier on 10 Saturday.

11 Q Do they generate a lot of garbage?

12 A No.

13 Q Are you familiar with the problems with the 14 commercial units at Place on the Greene?

15 A Yes, I am.

16 Q How are you familiar with those problems?

17 A Well, of course, I live there and I live on -- right
18 above the businesses basically. I'm on the street side
19 the same as they are.

20 Q List for me or tell me about the problems. And if 21 you can be specific to one unit. Mention either the unit
22 or the name of the business. I think we talked about Pita
23 Pit and Blue Cactus.

24 A Well, first of all, I think it definitely presents a
25 security problem. For example, the employees of these

1 businesses, they have access to the secured areas of the 2 building. And now when they are going in and out of the 3 building, the secured part of it, for example, taking out
4 garbage, when they go down to the garage area, come off
5 the elevator, that is a real opportunity for a vagrant or 6 any other unauthorized person to come into the building.
7 And I know that this happens because when I go down the
8 elevator at night, sometimes I will run into people that I
9 recognize as not being residents of that building, should
10 not be in that building, and I will either call the police
11 or I will question them. So I think it definitely affects 12 the security.

13 For example, the Pita Pit, for example. At the 14 Pita Pit, they have a real bad habit of leaving their back
15 door, which goes into the secured hallway, they have a bad
16 habit of leaving that door unlocked and slightly ajar.
17 This is a big security problem. Someone could go into the 18 Pita Pit, order a sandwich or act like they're ordering a 19 sandwich and go straight through the back door right into 20 the secured entrance. So I think this is a big security
21 problem.

22 Q Security, all right.

23 A Let me also say this.

24 I used to, and still do on occasion, check the 25 stairwell at around 2 a.m. in the morning. There would be

1 no vagrants in there. But then the next morning at 9 a.m.
2 there would be vagrants there. So somehow vagrants were
3 accessing that building.

4 Q All right. So the front doors, the front door
5 entrance is locked after a certain hour; is that what I'm 6 concluding?

7 A Well, no. What happens is you have -- to enter the 8 building you go through a set of double doors and then you
9 come to a secured entrance. So the lobby area is 10 unsecured. But to get into the secured section, the first
11 floor hallway, you have to go through the secured door.

12 Q Okay. Security, fine. What other problems?

13 A Health concerns. These businesses, Pita Pit, Blue
14 Cactus, Tavern on the Greene, they roll their garbage down
15 the hallway on to the elevator, and I don't think anybody
16 sitting in this courtroom right now would want to get on 17 an elevator or be in a hallway with a bunch of trash. So
18 I see that as a health concern.

19 And then you've got the food preparation and the 20 food storage by these restaurants. That's going to add to 21 the pest problems we have. We do have a roach problem. A
22 few years ago we had to actually pay quite a bit of money
23 to have the roaches eradicated. So that adds to the pest
24 problem.

25 And then another problem we have, this dumpster

1 area is very small.

2 Q Do you have pictures of the dumpster area in that
3 package?

4 A Sure.

5 Q You have a dumpster area in the back of the building,
6 right?

7 A Right.

8 Q Is that near the parking lot?

9 A Right. It's basically in the covered parking garage.
10 It's on the outside part of that.

11 And what I want to mention about this is from 12 time to time, we will have vagrants that will go through
13 that dumpster and pull out the bags in particular of Pita
14 Pit -- they love the Pita Pit food -- and leave a complete
15 mess back there. So not only is there not sufficient
16 garbage capacity there, we also have a problem with 17 vagrants going through that garbage and leaving it smeared
18 all around the garbage area itself.

19 We also have a problem when the city comes to 20 pick up that dumpster, and keep in mind, this dumpster is 21 solely -- is basically for the commercial units as well as 22 for the residents, not near enough capacity. For example,
23 if you go over there right now, you're going to see where 24 the dumpster was picked up last night by the city, there
25 is a large garbage bag of something -- I didn't have time

1 to check it, but there's a large garbage bag that had
2 fallen out when the city truck picked up the dumpster.

3 So -- and plus, there's some bottles down in
4 that area as well as we speak.

5 Q What are the other problems?

6 A Well, the other problems are safety concerns. And by 7 safety concerns, what I'm talking about is these 8 businesses increase the foot traffic in the area and then
9 this foot traffic turns into crowds that congregate. And 10 quite naturally, you know, if you have any type of 11 business that's going to stay open late at night in the 12 Five Points area, you're going to have crowds congregate
13 in that area.

14 We have that problem with Tavern on the Greene,
15 especially now that you have the no smoking inside the 16 building. You'll have groups of people standing out there
17 'til 2, 3 a.m. in the morning talking. Sometimes it turns
18 into much more than talking. You can actually hear every 19 word they say all the way up to the fifth floor.

20 Now, when there's a little confrontation or when 21 there's, you know, people get drunker and drunker, you're 22 going to have -- you know, the noise escalates.

23 For example, two weeks ago there was a gentleman
24 standing in the crowd, I caught the last part of it from 25 my window, but apparently there was an argument between

1 him and maybe it looked like a vagrant guy. It almost
2 turned into the fight.

3 And, of course, we have had fights out there
4 before. I'm not saying those fights were with the patrons
5 from Tavern on the Greene, but certainly any time you have
6 people congregating in the area and they're drinking, you
7 do have the potential of violence and for fights. So I
8 see that as a traffic concern.

9 There's actually been occasions when residents
10 in the units have actually been arguing with people on the 11 street. This really happened a lot when Sub Pub was in 12 existence.

13 Q Where is Sub Pub?

14 A Sub Pub was in -- it would have been in F. And that 15 would be in the area where we have that patio, the 16 concrete patio. That business would stay open sometimes
17 until 5 a.m. in the morning.

18 During the South Carolina/Alburn football game
19 on a Thursday night, I had to call the police five times
20 because of all the noise that was generated from patrons
21 of Sub Pub.

22 Q Sub Pub's gone, though, right?

23 A Sub Pub's gone, right.

24 Q Who's in there now?

25 A They just moved in there now. I think it's like a

1 tobacco shop or something like that.

2 Q What do they sell? Just a tobacco shop. What do
3 they sell there?

4 A I think it's, you know, tobacco. Maybe they sell
5 candy bars, I don't know.

6 Q But is it general office?

7 A I wouldn't guess it would be general office.

8 Q What else? You talked about security, garbage,
9 safety.

10 A I want to mention, too, under safety concerns that I
11 also see these businesses with the high amount of traffic
12 that they have and with the type of business they are, I
13 see that as an increase in the potential for fire as well.

14 Q Fire?

15 A Fire. And I think that's definitely a legitimate
16 safety concern.

17 Q Okay.

18 A Again, another problem I have is like the residents
19 of the other units are basically subsidizing all the 20 excessive water.

21 Q Excessive what?

22 A Water.

23 Q Water?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q Tell me about the water arrangement.

1 A Well, the water arrangement, basically the way the
2 master deed is set up, really I don't think the commercial
3 units are actually -- since they weren't considered to 4 be -- there's not supposed to be any businesses in there
5 that use a great amount of water, there's really not a
6 differential in what they're paying and then the other
7 owners are really not paying.

8 Q Do you as a residential owner pay a separate water
9 bill?

10 A No, I do not.

11 Q Who pays the water bill?

12 A The association pays it.

13 Q Do the commercial units pay a separate water bill?

14 A They do not.

15 Q Who pays the water bill?

16 A Funds from the association through the property
17 management.

18 Q So a general office water bill you conclude is less 19 than -- would be less than a restaurant water bill; is 20 that what you're saying?

21 A Certainly.

22 Q You say they're subsidizing. Is there a noise
23 problem?

24 A Yes, sir. You know, I know this year I've called at 25 least five times about noise generated by Tavern on the

1 Greene, called the police. When I call the police, they
2 tell me there's many reports and complaints regarding 2002
3 Greene Street. I do not have a copy of those. They are 4 public record.

5 Q Noise from what?

6 A Noise from basically the crowds congregating in front
7 of the building. And, of course, this is the problem we 8 have.

9 Let's take, for example, you've got Place on the 10 Greene is on one side of Greene Street. On the other side
11 of Greene Street you don't have any open bars, any 12 businesses that stay open past 9 p.m.

13 When you look at the two, the noise differential
14 is quite striking. The people on the other side of the 15 street since nothing is open late at night, people simply 16 walk by. They don't congregate. They keep on going from 17 the Five Points area back towards the university area. We 18 don't have that on our side of the street simply because 19 we've got businesses that stay open until 2, 3, 4 o'clock
20 in the morning.

21 Q Who are these people congregating?

22 A They would be patrons from, you know, the different
23 businesses that are there now. In particular right now
24 you'd be talking about Tavern on the Greene and Pita Pit.

25 Q What other problems?

1 A Another concern that I have is regarding the
2 insurance on the building. Quite naturally the insurance
3 premiums I would assume would be higher because of the 4 risk.

5 MR. BEST: Object to his assumptions, Your
6 Honor.

7 THE COURT: Sustained as to the assumptions.

8 BY MR. SPILLANE:

9 Q Mr. Phipps, do you pay insurance, property insurance
10 on the building because of your unit?

11 A Yes, through the regime fee.

12 Q Who pays the bill?

13 A The property management company.

14 Q Does the insurance company know these restrictions
15 are being violated?

16 A I cannot testify to that. I would hope they do
17 because I would hate to think that the entire building
18 could go up in smoke and not have proper coverage.

19 Q Okay. What about the front doors and back doors?
20 Are they a danger? Are they a problem, opened and closed?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q What's the issue?

23 A Well, in particular in the garage area, there's 24 immediate access to the building once those garage doors
25 open. If you have businesses staying open late at night

1 and employees of those businesses using those entrances or
2 exits, whatever you want to call them, then you have the
3 potential for unauthorized people entering the building.
4 And then you have to question, well, you wouldn't think
5 that any employee would knowingly allow somebody to enter,
6 but at the same time, these vagrants in Five Points are
7 very cunning. They know every trick in the book and once
8 that door is compromised in the least, they know how to 9 take advantage of it.

10 Q You were on the board for one year, two years,
11 something like that?

12 A It was about a year and three or four months.

13 Q And you've been following the board activity?

14 A Somewhat, I guess.

15 Q What were the issues when you were on the board?

16 A Well, when I took over, the building was in pretty
17 rough shape. Many rules and regulations were either
18 needed or not enforced.

19 There were physical problems, the most expensive
20 of which was a -- we had to replace the entire roof. We 21 did not have the funds at that time to do that so we had 22 to have a special assessment, which was not very popular
23 with the other homeowners.

24 We had issues with pets. You know, just a wide
25 variety of problems that we had to deal with.

1 Q Do you concur in the board's activity in bringing
2 this suit? Do you agree with it?

3 A Yes, I do. Not only because it's what is written in 4 the master deed but also because of the practical
5 experience of what I've observed, what I've heard. And in
6 my opinion, the reason that the framers of this master
7 deed put this in here was because of the same things that
8 I'm experiencing as a resident.

9 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you, Mr. Phipps. I have no
10 further questions.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Boger.

12 CROSS-EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. BOGER:

14 Q Mr. Phipps, were you on the board in 1991?

15 A I was not.

16 Q Have you had access to the records from the time you
17 were on the board?

18 A I did not.

19 Q Did you find anywhere the 1991 and 1993 minutes when 20 you were on the board?

21 A I did not.

22 Q Okay. So you don't know what the board did during 23 that time, do you?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q What year did you move in?

- 1 A It was February of 2001, I believe.
- 2 Q February of 2001?
- 3 A Correct.
- 4 Q And when did you get elected to the board?
- 5 A The first election, I guess, was maybe 2002 or so.
- 6 Q And when did you leave the board?
- 7 A About a year later.
- 8 Q You did not have a six-year tenure like Ms. Greiner?
- 9 A I did not, no.
- 10 Q As you stand at the railroad track where the train
11 comes by and look down towards Five Points, this building
12 is on the right; isn't that right?
- 13 A That's correct.
- 14 Q And it would be a fair statement, wouldn't it, to say
15 the students leave Five Points and come up that sidewalk?
- 16 A They come up that sidewalk as well as across the 17 street.
- 18 Q And it would also be fair to say that right behind
19 the building is a bar called Pavlov's; is that correct?
- 20 A That seems correct. Right behind the building
21 there's a parking lot. Behind the building to the right
22 as you're facing Greene Street would be Pavlov's.
- 23 Q So behind the building to the right is Pavlov's?
- 24 A Right.
- 25 Q And once again standing on the railroad tracks, to 1 your right would be another restaurant?

2 A Salty Nut.

3 Q Salty Nut. Those are all -- those two restaurants,
4 that restaurant and bar are right within 50 yards of that
5 building; isn't that right?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And if you once again stand at the railroad tracks
8 and go down the hill and turn right where Starbucks is,
9 you go a little bit further and maybe another 50 yards
10 there's a bar called Delaney's; isn't that right?

11 A That's right.

12 Q So patrons from Delaney's, Pavlov's, and Salty Nut 13 are within, once again, a 50-yard proximity to your 14 building; isn't that right?

15 A That would be correct.

16 Q Isn't it true that water meters could be set up to 17 have the water for the Pita Pit and The Blue Cactus and 18 the Tavern on the Greene to have their own separate water
19 meters; isn't that true?

20 A I wouldn't know that. I'd have to see what's in the 21 master deed.

22 Q Okay.

23 A For me to categorially say that, I could not.

24 Q Did you know that those three restaurants are zoned
25 general commercial?

1 A What three restaurants?

2 Q Pita Pit, Blue Cactus, and Tavern on the Greene.

3 A They're zoned what?

4 Q General commercial.

5 A I'm not familiar with their zoning. So I couldn't 6 answer that.

7 Q You don't know that.

8 Did you know that the board sued its old board
9 when the stucco problem came about?

10 A No, I'm not familiar with that.

11 Q Okay. You're familiar with the stucco that came off
12 the building?

13 A In general terms. I'd heard briefly about it.

14 Q And there was a lawsuit that took place between the 15 board then and the old board. You're not familiar with 16 that?

17 A No.

18 Q Now, you own a -- what is it that you do again?

19 A I write a couple of sports magazines and have a small
20 janitorial service.

21 Q And you also repair credit?

22 A I do what?

23 Q Repair credit.

24 A I've never repaired credit. I don't know where you
25 got that.

1 Q Do you know -- have you ever done anything like how
2 to protect yourself if divorce is inevitable?

3 A No.

4 Q No? Let me show you your website.

5 A Oh, you're talking about the book I wrote, "Financial 6 Sense." That's a book I wrote on that website.

7 Q And in that book or in that website that I'm showing
8 you, it says you do "how to repair your credit;" is that
9 right?

10 A You know, I haven't messed with this for like four
11 years. I probably should have taken it off the website.

12 As far as what I wrote, as far as the context of 13 what I was saying how to repair your credit in that
14 particular deal, it wasn't -- as far as I can recall, it
15 wasn't anything other than general statements, you know,
16 things that -- you know, just general commentary.

17 Q So your answer to my question a few minutes ago about 18 credit repair, you've never done anything like that, that 19 was a wrong answer, wasn't it?

20 A Yes.

21 Well, when you say I do credit repair, I really
22 didn't do credit repair. I didn't have a business.

23 What you're talking about here, these are topics
24 that are in a book that I wrote.

25 Q Well, now, that was taken off the Web in October of 1 '08. You can see that at the bottom.

2 A I understand.

3 Q Is it still on the Web today?

4 A It's still on the Web today. And I'd completely
5 forgotten about it. I haven't done anything with that
6 book as far as sales or anything since maybe 1999, 2000,
7 2001, something like that.

8 Q Would you consider -- let me strike that.

9 Have you walked down to the Sub Pub when it was 10 there and accosted patrons of that place when they were 11 trying to get a sandwich?

12 A No.

13 Q You've never done that?

14 A Never.

15 Q Do you consider this lawsuit sort of your lawsuit
16 too?

17 A I think I benefit from the lawsuit, yes, sir.

18 Q Have you done things to these restaurant owners,
19 accosted customers, talked people out of going in there?

20 A Never.

21 Q Never done that?

22 A Never.

23 Q Never done credit repair?

24 A I've never repaired anybody's credit.

25 Q So that was a mistake a few minutes ago, wasn't it?

1 A What are you talking about?

2 Q When I asked you if you repaired credit and you said
3 no, but your website says you do?

4 A Again I'll mention to you, my website, what you're
5 talking about in this particular section, it tells you
6 that in the book, you will discover these things.

7 I've never counseled anyone for credit repair,
8 I've never counseled anyone for divorce. These are simply 9 chapters and information in the book.

10 MR. BOGER: I don't have any further questions.

11 MR. BEST: And I have no questions of this
12 witness, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Thank you. Any redirect?

14 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 REDIRECT EXAMINATION.

16 BY MR. SPILLANE:

17 Q Mr. Phipps, you're familiar with the deed
18 restrictions on the property that Pavlov's is located?

19 A No, sir, I'm not.

20 Q Are you familiar with the deed restrictions on 21 Delaney's, Starbucks or Salty Nut's property?

22 A No, sir.

23 Q Are you familiar with the zoning for those 24 properties?

25 A No, sir, other than the fact that they exist.

1 Q Do you understand this case to be a zoning case or an
2 injunction case to enforce restrictions?

3 A I think what he was referring to is completely
4 irrelevant. This is simply to enforce the provisions of
5 the master deed.

6 Q When you said you'd benefit from the lawsuit, what
7 did you mean?

8 A Well, I don't mean that I -- you know, what I'm 9 talking about is in the lawsuit, if the provisions are 10 upheld, then I think that that makes the property a more
11 desirable property. I think I'd benefit from the fact
12 that I don't have to listen to the noise. I don't have to 13 be concerned about security. I don't have to be concerned
14 about the health concerns.

15 Q Do you think your property value would increase?

16 A I think it would help somewhat.

17 Q What about the value of the commercial property?
18 Assuming an injunction were issued, what do you think
19 about that?

20 MR. BOGER: Your Honor, he's not an expert to 21 assess value.

22 THE COURT: I'd sustain the objection.

23 MR. SPILLANE: I'm not asking as an expert, Your 24 Honor. I'm asking --

25 THE COURT: You need to lay a foundation.

1 MR. SPILLANE: Excuse me?

2 THE COURT: I think you'd need to lay a
3 foundation.

4 MR. SPILLANE: All right. Thank you. No
5 further questions.

6 THE COURT: You may step down. Thank you.

7 At this time we'll take a lunch break. Let's
8 come back at about 2:10 and we'll continue on.

9 Anything we need to take up before we leave for 10 lunch?

11 Hearing none --

12 MR. SPILLANE: Excuse me?

13 THE COURT: Is there anything we need to take up
14 before we leave for lunch?

15 MR. SPILLANE: I don't believe so.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Then we'll see you back about 17 2:10.

18 (A lunch break was taken.)

19 THE COURT: Is there anything we need to take up
20 before we begin back?

21 MR. SPILLANE: I don't believe so, Your Honor.

22 MR. BEST: I don't believe so, Your Honor.

23 MR. BOGER: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Then, Mr. Spillane, you may call
25 your next witness.

1 MR. SPILLANE: We'd call Laura Nichols.

2 LAURA NICHOLS, after being duly sworn, testified
3 as follows:

4 THE COURT: Thank you. If you'd please have a
5 seat and state your full name, please.

6 THE WITNESS: Laura Nichols.

7 DIRECT EXAMINATION

8 BY MR. SPILLANE:

9 Q Ms. Nichols, where do you live?

10 A Richland County, Columbia, South Carolina.

11 Q Okay. What is your occupation?

12 A Real estate broker in charge.

13 Q What is your connection with Landmark Resources?

14 A I'm the owner and broker in charge.

15 Q All right. Is Landmark Resources the current
16 property manager at Place on the Greene?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q And what does Landmark Resources do for Place on the 19 Greene?

20 A We are employed by the board of directors and the 21 owners to enforce the rules and regulations, to do as 22 we're directed by the board of directors, to pay the 23 bills, clean the building, collect the regime fees.

24 Q Do you manage other complexes?

25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q How many?

2 A We have about 14, including Place on the Greene, that
3 we manage.

4 Q Are they condominium projects, if I remember right?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q How did you get started with Place on the Greene?

7 A I was hired by Security Federal Savings and Loan to 8 assist them in the development and the marketing of Place
9 on the Greene.

10 Q And when was that?

11 A In '83.

12 Q 1983?

13 A 1983.

14 Q And what did you do in that capacity?

15 A I recommended the architect, who was my husband, who
16 did the architectural plans for Place on the Greene.

17 In doing so I was able to talk with the 18 developer, Security Federal, Beau Powell and Craig
19 Stonebruner, about who we were going to market the 20 property to, what their concepts were, help develop the 21 floor plans, make recommendations, put together the 22 marketing materials, structured the advertising, took the 23 calls, sold the units, closed them.

24 Q And you had an office somewhere to do that?

25 A We originally started at where 950, the Five Points

1 bar is. Frank Barcow leased a space.

2 We renovated it there at the corner of Harden
3 and Greene Street initially. And then once the units
4 started selling, then we were never actually on site, but 5 we were right down the street during construction.

6 Q Was this a pre-sale?

7 A It was a pre-sale, yes.

8 Q How many pre-sold before construction?

9 A It had to be 50 percent sold before construction.

10 Q Did you meet that goal?

11 A Yes.

12 Q How did they sell?

13 A Rapidly.

14 Q Really?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Had you been involved in pre-sales for other outfits
17 like that?

18 A Yes, I have.

19 Q How did it compare?

20 A The other property was on Hilton Head that I did
21 pre-construction sales for.

22 The market had changed because of the tax laws a
23 little bit, but this sold much better, I think, than the 24 one -- there was just not much competition near the 25 University of South Carolina, so it ended up being highly

1 sought after.

2 Q Are you familiar with this brochure?

3 A Yes. That's the building.

4 Q Can you identify that?

5 A That's the original and only Place on the Greene
6 sales brochure that we used in the marketing of the 7 product.

8 MR. BOGER: No objection.

9 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 11 was
10 marked for identification and received into
11 evidence.)

12 THE COURT: That's exhibit number?

13 MR. SPILLANE: Eleven.

14 BY MR. SPILLANE:

15 Q Plaintiff's 11 is now a Place on the Greene sales
16 brochure.

17 Ms. Nichols, the first insert seems to be the 18 building; is that correct?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q Is that an accurate depiction of the building as 21 proposed?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q You say your husband was the architect?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q Okay. Who was the market target for Place on the

1 Greene?

2 A When we were developing, when Security Federal and
3 Craig Stonebruner and Beau Powell, when we originally 4 started, we really designed the units and the concept was 5 for professionals to be living downtown and working
6 downtown. That was our market target initially in the 7 original before we actually started selling the units.

8 Q Did that target change or what?

9 A Once they went on the market, there was a lot of 10 parents that started contacting us because of the location
11 convenient to the University of South Carolina and so the 12 buyers turned out -- there were certainly professional 13 people that purchased, because again, that's who we 14 originally targeted, but the parents of students ended up
15 reaching us and became really the buyers of a lot of them.

16 Q Do you remember the price range?

17 A I'm not sure that -- and I'm not sure that that's 18 even in here. It may be.

19 Price range started from thirty-eight nine to 20 seventy-four nine.

21 Q What was your understanding of the first floor setup?
22 Of course, your husband's the architect so you would be
23 familiar with that; is that correct?

24 A Correct.

25 Q Did you see the plans?

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q What was your understanding of the first floor?

3 A The first floor -- Security Federal was really
4 primarily instrumental and what their concept was is for 5 that first floor to be office space, general office.

6 Again, because it's going to be residential
7 professional kind of people, they felt like because it
8 fronted on Greene Street, that it could be used for 9 general office, a CPA or a lawyer or someone that would be 10 open in normal business hours.

11 Q Nine to five?

12 A Nine to five, yes, sir.

13 Q Now you keep mentioning Security Federal. What was 14 their role?

15 A They were the developer and lender of the project, 50
16 percent of the developer.

17 Q You mentioned two other men also.

18 A Beau Powell and Craig Stonebruner were the other part
19 of the developers.

20 Q Beau Powell and Craig Stonebruner?

21 A Correct.

22 Q And what was their role?

23 A I'm not -- they were partners in the development.
24 They did a lot of overseeing. I know with the 25 construction they were on the site and they talked with

1 the contractor. What their exact relationship with
2 Security Federal and how their inter-operations were I
3 couldn't tell you.

4 Q Was this any different than other developments that 5 you've had?

6 A No.

7 Q Had you had other developments with commercial units
8 on the ground floor or on a separate floor?

9 A No.

10 Q All right. Did the commercial units get marketed at 11 about the same time?

12 A They never -- they were there, but they really were 13 not marketed. We didn't solicit commercial businesses.
14 They were available. Only two of the units were sold by 15 Landmark Resources. They never sold. It's really the 16 residential units that were really marketed and sold by 17 the marketing plan that Security Federal laid out.

18 Q So you're saying of the eight commercial units, only 19 two were sold by your sales company?

20 A Correct.

21 Q Were any changes made in the architectural 22 development during construction that you know of, of 23 significance?

24 A When the commercial --- the hair salon bought units C
25 and D where Tavern on the Greene is. The change was that

1 they took out that center wall because it was one owner.
2 They went back to the architect, because again it was
3 under construction, and eliminated a wall.

4 And then I know that there was, which really
5 wasn't public record, but I know because of my 6 relationship with the architect that there were changes
7 made by Beau Powell on the type of stucco that was used
8 that was not specified by the architect.

9 Q But the stucco wouldn't go to anything in the master
10 deed, did it?

11 A No, sir.

12 Q Did it become a problem later?

13 A I did become a problem later.

14 Q You said a hair salon was in C and D?

15 A Correct.

16 Q Now facing -- I'm standing on Greene Street and I'm 17 going left to right, that's is A, B, C, and D?

18 A Correct.

19 Q And then the next spot would be the front door; is 20 that correct?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q Tell me about the hair salon.

23 A It was an individual that ran a hair salon and opened
24 up there in the space.

25 Q And that was the first business?

1 A That was the first business.

2 Q That's interesting. What happened to the hair salon?

3 A It wasn't as much business as he felt like he needed
4 and closed it up after several years.

5 Q All right. Now, are you familiar with the board of 6 directors of the Place on the Greene Homeowners
7 Association?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q And do you have a copy of the master deed?

10 A I do.

11 Q All right. With the understanding that that is just 12 a copy, not a certified copy, let me direct you to Exhibit
13 I which is stamped page 41.

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q Is that -- that appears to be the Articles of 16 Incorporation filed with the Secretary of State, I assume,
17 back then?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q Is that correct?

20 A Correct.

21 Q I direct you to Article Roman Numeral IV, Purpose and 22 Powers of the Association.

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q What does that first sentence refer to?

25 A It talks about the specific purpose for which it is

1 formed is to administer and enforce all covenants,
2 conditions and restrictions for the maintenance,
3 preservation, architectural control, and general
4 appearance at Place on the Greene.

5 Q Why do we put restrictions on property anyway?

6 A To protect all the owners. It's to protect their
7 value. It's to have a level playing field so all owners
8 can feel comfortable in going into something owned by a
9 group of people.

10 Q Does it help in marketing to individuals that they 11 know there are quality control restrictions?

12 A Yes, sir, it does.

13 Q All right. I refer you to the next page which is 14 page two of the Articles of Incorporation, Article XI,
15 Roman Numeral XI, Board of Directors.

16 It says here, "Shall consist of five directors."

17 We heard earlier testimony that there are five
18 directors. Are there still just five directors?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And are they filled as one-year terms?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q Has there been any change in the master deed as to 23 the length of terms of the directors?

24 A No, sir.

25 Q Do some directors get reelected for a second, third,

1 and fourth year?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q You're familiar with Karen Greiner. She said she was
4 on six years or so, I forget.

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q Is that normal?

7 A If somebody's willing to serve, it's normal.

8 Q What do you mean "if someone's willing to serve"?

9 A In an association because it's totally volunteering,
10 it's very difficult to get owners to be willing to 11 participate and contribute their time.

12 Q But you have to be an owner, right?

13 A You have to be an owner.

14 Q Can you be just a commercial owner and be on the 15 board?

16 A Can you be a commercial owner?

17 Q Yes. Do you let commercial owners on the board?

18 A If they would like to be on the board, they could
19 have been on the board, yes.

20 Q There's no prejudice against them?

21 A No, sir.

22 Q And who elects the board?

23 A At the annual meeting they're elected by the owners.

24 Q And you've conducted some and helped conduct some of 25 those annual meetings, haven't you?

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q How long has your company, Landmark Resources, been
3 the property managing company?

4 A Since 2000.

5 Q So you've conducted or at least help conducted at 6 least eight annual meetings; is that correct?

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q Have there been any special meetings of everybody?

9 A No, not that I can remember.

10 Q I direct you to that Article XI, Board of Directors, 11 and you see the names there of three people in the 12 Security Federal building. Do you know those people,
13 Horton, Huntley and Deek?

14 A I know two of them.

15 Q Okay. Who are they? Who do you know and what do
16 they do?

17 A Ed Horton was my immediate contact through -- he's 18 the one that hired me to do the marketing and development.
19 Harry Huntley was their counsel who wrote the master deed.

20 Q All right. Harry Huntley wrote the master deed. You
21 don't know Carol Ann Deek?

22 A I don't know Carol.

23 Q Their address is in the Security Federal building.
24 The last two are members of the board you've already
25 referred to, Roy A. Powell, Jr.

1 A Which he goes by Beau Powell.

2 Q That's my next question.

3 A Yes.

4 Q He's known as Beau Powell. And Craig B. Stonebruner.

5 A Correct. They were partners.

6 Q You knew them and you said earlier you worked with 7 them?

8 A I knew them through -- I did not know them prior to 9 Place on the Greene.

10 Q Okay. And their address as listed on this Articles
11 of Incorporation are in the Keenan building?

12 A Correct. They had an office there in the Keenan
13 building.

14 Q And that's the high rise here in downtown; is that
15 correct?

16 A Correct.

17 Q Is Keenan Real Estate in there?

18 A Correct.

19 Q What's Keenan Real Estate do, do you know?

20 A They're commercial. They have a commercial realty.
21 They do homeowners associations. They sell and list
22 commercial buildings and do property management.

23 Q Okay. You say they do homeowners associations. You
24 mean what?

25 A They manage homeowners associations. They were --

1 Keenan Company was the first property management company
2 for Place on the Greene.

3 Q All right. Keenan Company existed at that time, they
4 were the first property manager for Place on the Greene?

5 A Correct.

6 Q And when would they have started?

7 A When the developers turned it over to a management
8 company, which was in December of '85, our first annual 9 meeting.

10 Q All right. Now, you are on -- you have been on the 11 board of directors in the past for Place on the Greene?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q And you are not currently on the board of directors?

14 A No, sir.

15 Q And why not?

16 A Because Landmark Resources is the management company,
17 there would be a conflict of interest.

18 Q All right. I can understand that.

19 When were you on the board?

20 A Not until the second year. The developers controlled
21 the property and elected not -- even though I was 22 nominated, I was not chosen by the developer, by Craig and 23 Beau to serve on the first board. I started on the second
24 year.

25 Q All right. On the second year of the board being

1 free from the developer you got elected to the board?

2 A When they were free of the control of the proxies,
3 correct.

4 Q All right. And how long did you stay on the board?

5 A Until about 1995 off and on. I can't say I was on it
6 every year, but pretty much consistently until 1995.

7 Q So is that '86 to '95?

8 A Correct.

9 Q And were you on it later? Did you ever go back on 10 the board?

11 A No, sir.

12 Q Do you know or are you familiar with any changes or
13 restrictions?

14 A I know that there were requests for changes, but none
15 ever passed and none were ever made.

16 Q How would that process go?

17 A Well, there is a master deed. It's pretty 18 straightforward about any changes being approved by 19 75 percent of the owners. If that happened, if you got an 20 approval, then the approved amendment would be given to 21 the attorney that's handling the association affairs,
22 evictions or whatever collections that you're doing, and 23 you would have it recorded in the courthouse if there was 24 ever anything that had gotten approved.

25 Q All right. What were the topics of the proposed --

1 you said you heard of a few during your years.

2 A There was Beau Powell. When the association was
3 turned over to the owners that first year, only the two
4 commercial spaces had actually sold. The other ones had
5 remained vacant. Beau Powell had wanted to change the way
6 the master deed read. He wanted to be able to have other
7 types of businesses other than commercial because they 8 weren't selling and they weren't renting to just the 9 office spaces originally laid out in the master deed.

10 And there was requests later on about changing
11 the master deed to allow animals. There was a big to-do
12 about that that didn't get passed, to allow pets in the
13 building.

14 Those were the two major things other the years
15 that have been addressed.

16 Q All right. As manager of Landmark, do you have 17 control of the corporate records for Place on the Greene,
18 the homeowners association?

19 A I have what's passed on from management company to 20 management company and control of what we've generated
21 since we started managing.

22 Q And give me a history of the management companies if
23 you could. You said initially it was Keenan.

24 A Ferris Richardson was the first manager with Keenan
25 Company, then Steve Taylor with Keenan Company. Steve

1 started his own business and then it went to Deane Chavous
2 Realtors.

3 Q About when?

4 A I'm not exactly sure. I would say the early
5 nineties, '89, '90 it went to Deane Chavous. And then
6 from Deane Chavous it went to Weston Management around
7 '97, '98. And then in 2000 it went to Landmark Resources.

8 Q Let me show you two of the same letters. Do you
9 recognize those?

10 A This is a letter that --

11 Q Do you recognize them?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Tell me what it is.

14 A It is a letter that was produced by Keenan Company
15 requesting --

16 Q Well, don't tell me about what it says.

17 A Okay. A letter from the manager of Keenan Company
18 was that managing Place on the Greene.

19 Q All right. You've answered that. And is that letter
20 kept in the regular course of business activity for Place
21 on the Greene?

22 A It was in their documents that were passed on,
23 correct.

24 Q All right. It was in the documents that were passed
25 on by prior management companies?

1 A Correct.

2 MR. BOGER: We don't have any objection, Your
3 Honor.

4 THE COURT: It's Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 12?

5 MR. SPILLANE: Yes.

6 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 12 was
7 marked for identification and received into
8 evidence.)

9 BY MR. SPILLANE:

10 Q Ms. Nichols --

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q -- I'm going to hand you Plaintiff's Exhibit 6 which 13 we've represented to the Court as a certified true copy of 14 the chain of title to Units F, G, and H. Are you familiar
15 with those units?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q F, G, and H?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q Who owned those units?

20 A Beau Powell, Roy A. Powell, Jr., the developer.

21 Q Roy Powell. How -- I thought you said the developer
22 owned them. Did Greene Street Partnership not sell them
23 or do you remember?

24 A They did not sell and in the final ending of the 25 development, Beau Powell took the four spaces on the right

1 side of the front door and Craig took the two spaces on
2 the left side of the building, A and B, as part of their
3 payment in the development.

4 Q Okay. So I'm facing Place on the Greene from Greene
5 Street. Beau Powell got a deed you say for the spaces to 6 the right?

7 A Correct.

8 Q Four you stated, and the spaces to the left, the 9 first two closest to the door were already a hair salon;
10 is that correct?

11 A Correct.

12 Q So far left would be A and B went to Stonebruner?

13 A Correct.

14 Q All right. That helps me understand that.

15 Let me see that deed.

16 And I direct you to the deed from Greene Street
17 Partnership, an indenture deed recorded in Richland County
18 as a Deed 767, page 629, to be a deed to Roy A. Powell,
19 Jr. of a number of units on the 200 level, F, G, and H,
20 and ask you to look at that.

21 Are you familiar with deeds?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q Okay. Is what I said just true?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q If you flip to the second page of the deed, what date

1 did Mr. Powell take F, G, and H commercial units? What is
2 the date on that deed?

3 A April of -- no, wait a minute.

4 November the 8th of 2085 -- of 1985, excuse
5 me.

6 Q November 8th, 1985?

7 A Correct.

8 Q Was that about the time the developers were winding
9 down?

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q And it was your understanding that he took those 12 three units plus some units on the second floor or one on 13 the fifth floor; is that correct?

14 A The unsold properties, yes.

15 Q Oh, so he took the unsold properties?

16 A Correct.

17 Q And if we're just talking commercial, he took the 18 ones to the right?

19 A Correct.

20 Q F, G, and H. I thought there were four to the right.
21 Maybe I'm --

22 A There are four to the right. I'm not sure.

23 Q We'll catch up with that.

24 Now, I direct you to the exhibit in front of 25 you, the letter from November 25th, 1985.

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q You just testified on November 8th, 1985, that Mr.
3 Powell got Units F, G, and H?

4 A Correct.

5 Q As part of the wind-down. Does that summarize right?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Now, what is this letter? And I shut you down
8 earlier. Now you can talk about this letter.

9 "Dear Place on the Greene Owners" from 10 November 25th, 1985. What's the import? What's going on 11 here?

12 A That this meeting will be held by absentee ballot.
13 It was a request trying to get the commercial spaces
14 changed to allow something other than just office space
15 which had originally been recorded.

16 Q And this letter is from whom?

17 A Ferris Richardson, the property manager that worked
18 with Keenan Company that was hired by the developers to do
19 the homeowners association management that first year.

20 Q This is on Keenan Company letterhead, is it not?

21 A It is.

22 Q All right. The first part of the letter talks about 23 voting on a proposed master deed amendment and what's the 24 underlying sentence say?

25 A "This meeting will be held by absentee ballot."

1 Q Have you ever been familiar with a homeowners meeting
2 or a general meeting held by absentee ballot?

3 A No, not really because this was done prior to it even
4 being turned over to the owners. So our first annual
5 meeting was not until December of '85. So this letter
6 seems a little odd, of trying to get things changed by 7 absentee ballot, people that have just purchased, that it
8 hadn't even been -- a board hadn't even been elected other
9 than the designated board in the master -- in the other
10 document, Section I-F, that stated Security Federal, Beau
11 Powell and Craig Stonebruner.

12 Q You did have the fourth board as explained in Exhibit
13 I that we went to earlier which was the Articles of 14 Incorporation which lists the first board.

15 A Correct.

16 Q So this was during the first board running the regime
17 in September of '84; is that correct?

18 A Yes, sir, prior to it being turned over to the 19 owners.

20 Q All right. Now let's go -- "the amended version 21 would read." What did they want the amended version to 22 read? And I direct you to the last two lines on the front
23 page.

24 A It says, "The use of the commercial space shall be at 25 the discretion of the board of directors regarding the

1 type of business."

2 They were wanting the board to be able to
3 determine the type of business and the type of operation.

4 Q And who were "they" on the board?

5 A They were the developers.

6 Q And that's three from Security Federal and two 7 from -- at least in the Keenan building, Powell and 8 Stonebruner, right?

9 A Right.

10 Q All right. The second paragraph, first full
11 paragraph there, states what? Read it for the Court.

12 A Starting at "this amendment"?

13 Q Yes.

14 A "This amendment has been proposed to allow the board
15 of directors to use their discretion in approving 16 businesses for the commercial space. It is intended to 17 protect you as a homeowner from any business operation
18 that would not be in your best interest."

19 Q What do you think about that phrase?

20 A I don't think it was a true statement.

21 Q Do you remember this? Do you remember this proposal?

22 A I remember efforts by Beau Powell and Craig
23 Stonebruner to change the use on a very regular basis.

24 Q On a regular basis you say?

25 A It came up at a lot of board meetings, yes.

1 Q Okay. So what units did Craig Stonebruner get? You
2 said to the left.

3 A A and B.

4 Q A and B. And I show you a deed to Craig Stonebruner
5 for Unit A coming out of Greene Street Partnership, which
6 is in Exhibit A, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3. What is the date
7 on this deed? I think you're going to have to go to the 8 third page.

9 A November 8th, 1985.

10 Q So November 8th, 1985; they wound down. I guess they 11 got rid of the commercial unit; is that correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And on November 25th, 1985, 17 days later, they're 14 asking for an amendment; is that correct?

15 A Correct.

16 Q You weren't on the first board?

17 A Correct.

18 Q You got on the second board?

19 A Correct.

20 Q While you were on the second board, was there any 21 litigation you knew about?

22 A Later, yes.

23 Q Significant litigation?

24 A Significant litigation was when we -- ten years --
25 once Beau Powell got off of the board, the board finally

1 sued the developer for the stucco problems we were having.

2 There was continuous problems with water coming
3 into the building because there was not proper expansion
4 joints put in the stucco. Beau Powell had an ability to 5 convince the board, oh, we'll caulk it, we'll do this,
6 continued putting things off.

7 After the ten years Beau got off the board, the 8 board then finally sued the developer and tried to sue the 9 previous board for insurance purposes to try to get 10 insurance money to help cover the problems that we were 11 having with the stucco. But the statute of limitations
12 has run out and it didn't produce anything or any relief
13 for the owners.

14 Q You said Beau Powell had been off the board ten
15 years?

16 A Correct.

17 Q And then the board sued the developer?

18 A Correct. The builder.

19 Q The builder?

20 A The builder, the architect, correct.

21 Q Why ten years?

22 A Statute of limitations.

23 Q On construction?

24 A Correct.

25 Q What happened to that? Were you sued? Was your

1 husband sued?

2 A He was sued. That's when I resigned from the board
3 so there would be no conflict of interest and they could
4 talk freely about their pursuing the lawsuit. I withdrew
5 myself from the board in order for there not to be a
6 problem.

7 Q And is that the same lawsuit Mr. Boger was referring
8 to earlier, or do you not know?

9 A It is.

10 Q So they did name the board is your recollection?

11 A It was the decision of the board to try to name the 12 previous board to be able to get insurance to help cover
13 the cost of the litigation.

14 Q Okay. And that suit went down the tubes because of 15 the statute of limitations; is that correct?

16 A It did.

17 Q I show you Defendant's Exhibit 1 which is a
18 homeowners meeting, general, March 21, 1991.

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q Have you had a chance to review that document?

21 A Only briefly.

22 Q All right. I direct your attention strictly to the 23 new business section two-thirds of the way down.

24 A Yes, sir.)

25 Q "Beau Powell addressed the vacancy problems with the

1 commercial units."

2 Did he own the commercial units at that time?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q And who else owned them besides himself?

5 A Craig Stonebruner. I'm not sure who all the other
6 owners were.

7 Q And there was one unit owned by the hair salon
8 fellow, I guess earlier, whoever that was?

9 A I don't think he owned it then. I think that it
10 possibly had been sold. But I know Craig and Beau still 11 owned commercial spaces.

12 Q All right. And according to this document, this is 13 the minutes, Mr. Powell said, "Commercial units were 14 vacant." Is that your recollection of the status of the 15 units?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q There was nobody in them, no businesses?

18 A I can't say there were no businesses, but that he had 19 some that were vacant.

20 Q Did they have trouble renting the commercial units?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Why?

23 A Because the office people didn't have enough parking
24 at Place on the Greene to accommodate the businesses.

25 Q The office people. How much parking do you need?

1 A Well, there was -- the parking on Greene Street's
2 changed several times, but there's only one reserved
3 parking space per unit.

4 Q And the commercial unit had how many reserved spaces?

5 A One parking space.

6 Q Okay. And so it's your testimony that they had
7 trouble renting it to general office because of a
8 limitation of parking?

9 A That certainly was what -- the feedback that we got.

10 Q All right. Was there an attempt to change the master
11 deed to give the commercial spaces more parking?

12 A There wasn't any -- no, there wasn't.

13 Q There wasn't any more spaces, were there? That would 14 be fruitless?

15 A Correct.

16 Q Was there an attempt to change the master deed --
17 according to these minutes, what was the plan?

18 A He offered a motion to amend the bylaws to allow the 19 board at its discretion to allow other uses is what he was 20 proposing.

21 Q And other uses would be what? What did they 22 specifically refer to here?

23 A To allow people to sell food and beer and wine, or 24 allow beer and wine to be sold. The additional caveat was 25 made that there would be beer or wine -- there would not

1 be any beer or wine sold without food consumption.

2 Q So there's an attempt, or at least a discussion, in
3 March of '91 about changing, amending the bylaws?

4 A Correct.

5 Q Do the bylaws restrict the commercial units?

6 A No, sir.

7 Q What restricts the commercial units?

8 A The master deed.

9 Q And how do you change those?

10 A With 75 percent vote of the owners agreeing to 11 change.

12 Q Can the board change the bylaws?

13 A No.

14 Q Can the board change the master deed?

15 A No.

16 Q How do the bylaws get changed?

17 A The bylaws have to be changed by 75 percent or more
18 of the owners agreeing to change it.

19 Q Listen carefully. I asked you earlier how the master
20 deed gets changed and that's 75 percent, you said that.

21 How would the bylaws get changed?

22 A Fifty percent plus one.

23 Q Of whom?

24 A Of the owners.

25 Q Of the owners. So the board of directors cannot

1 change either, right?

2 A Correct.

3 Q And then it says, "Due to there being less than 73 or 4 75 percent present." So what does that mean, do you know?

5 A I'm not sure, because this was certainly in March.
6 The annual meetings were in December. But again, it --

7 Q This is a homeowners meeting. It says it's an annual 8 meeting in March.

9 A That was held in March.

10 Q Okay.

11 A Master deed -- okay.

12 Q "The motion will go to the homeowners in a special 13 election."

14 Did you ever know of any special election --

15 A There was not.

16 Q -- over this? There was none? You were present at 17 the time?

18 A I was present.

19 Q You were on the board?

20 A I was on the board.

21 Q Yes. You were a board member present in these 22 minutes, right?

23 A Right.

24 Q So there's another attempt in '91 to get around the 25 bylaws in the master deed; is that correct?

1 A That's correct.

2 Q And that's Defendant's Exhibit 1?

3 A Correct.

4 Q Do you remember anything to do with the Duck In 5 restaurant from Defendant's Exhibit 2, March of '93, the 6 annual meeting minutes?

7 A I don't remember anything specifically about The Duck
8 In. They weren't there that long, in the building.

9 Q The annual meeting was March as best you can 10 recollect?

11 A Correct.

12 Q What was going on here with the commercial units?

13 MR. BEST: Your Honor, I think that calls for 14 speculation on this witness's part and I would object.
15 She's trying to get into the minds of -- I know she's got 16 a background in real estate and marketing and whatnot;
17 however, she's trying to jump from there to what was in 18 two men's minds, Mr. Stonebruner and Mr. Powell. She's 19 got no way of doing that for us.

20 THE COURT: You need to rephrase the question.

21 MR. SPILLANE: All right. We'll break it down.

22 BY MR. SPILLANE:

23 Q What would happen in the meetings with respect to the 24 commercial units? Tell me what happened.

25 A Beau Powell was the board member and he was certainly

1 the developer and the other board members know and he was
2 able to intimidate and control the other board members to
3 look at things that would best serve him.

4 Q Did he need to get his commercial units rented?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Did he ever get them rented?

7 A Yes.

8 Q All right. Let's talk about the commercial units,
9 starting from the left.

10 Pita Pit, A. How did that become Pita Pit?

11 A I don't know how. It originally started off as a 12 laundromat.

13 Q A laundromat.

14 A And then Pita Pit. I don't know when that changed
15 hands.

16 Q And who owned that?

17 A Craig Stonebruner.

18 Q And Craig Stonebruner was one of the developers on
19 the board?

20 A He was not on the board, but he was one of the 21 developers.

22 Q He was one of the developers.

23 A He was on that original board.

24 Q He was on the original board, but not later.

25 He wasn't on your second board, was he?

1 A No.

2 Q All right. Did he develop Easy Coin Laundry? Is
3 that the name of it?

4 A I don't know. He owned the space. I don't know if
5 he owned Easy Coin Laundry.

6 Q All right. That's Unit A. Unit B, C, and D are now
7 Tavern on the Greene. Give me the history as you know it
8 from the board meetings about those units.

9 A B was -- at one time was a shoe store. And then once
10 the shoe store closed, it was purchased and then 11 eventually incorporated into Tavern on the Greene. They 12 put a pool table and some other things in there.

13 The original being in C and D was the hair
14 salon. Once it went vacant, it was vacant for awhile and 15 then John Hicks --

16 Q John Hicks?

17 A John Hicks was the instrument that came in and 18 approached Deane Chavous who was the regime manager and 19 made the request to be able to serve beer and wine, which 20 Blue Cactus was in the far unit and had been for awhile
21 and also wanted to serve beer and wine.

22 Q About when was that?

23 A That was in the mid-nineties.

24 Q Did these two developer people still own those units
25 at that time?

1 A I wasn't the association manager so I don't know when
2 that actually transpired, but Beau Powell I know still
3 owned some and I know Craig -- I don't know if they owned
4 all of them or what they still owned at that time.

5 Q So you're saying John Hicks became the owner of C and 6 D?

7 A I don't know if that's the name that he used, if it's 8 Liberty Funding or if it was actually in John Hicks or 9 some other LLC partnership, but he was certainly the one
10 that owned it.

11 Q Okay. What did the board do when the restaurants
12 started and went up, when Tavern on the Greene and Pita
13 Pit were on the left side of the front, what did the board
14 do?

15 A Again, Tavern on the Greene was not until later. The 16 Blue Cactus had been there before that was there and so
17 the board just sort of thought that they didn't have 18 anything else to do, that it was already existing and they 19 didn't realize that they had the right to stop them.

20 Q Blue Cactus it's my understanding had to make an 21 alteration to put a ventilating system for the grill of 22 some sort, right?

23 A Correct. Beau Powell came to the board and convinced
24 them to allow a hole to be put through the stucco, which 25 there was a lot of concern about, but he convinced them

1 that it wasn't a problem and it was needed for this
2 business and it would not create a problem structurally
3 and it wouldn't create any other kind of problem. And 4 they believed him.

5 Q And the board believed him?

6 A Uh-huh.

7 Q So what did the board do?

8 A They went along with Beau Powell's request.

9 Q Did they look the other way or did they give written
10 permission or what?

11 A I don't know if it was written, but they certainly 12 authorized him to put in the vent into the building and 13 cut a hole which is still there.

14 Q Was there any trial period on this deal?

15 A Once the vent's cut, the vent's cut. There's not a
16 trial period.

17 Q No, I mean on the restaurant itself, on Blue Cactus?

18 A There was never anything -- there was never really 19 even any permission given for the restaurant. It was 20 really just requested the ventilation that was necessary
21 for them to be able to operate. I don't know that the 22 board ever gave permission for the restaurant to be there
23 or was asked if it could or if I couldn't.

24 Q And who did this?

25 A Beau Powell.

1 Q He was the owner; is that correct?

2 A Correct.

3 Q How did you vote? Did it take a vote?

4 A They did take a vote, and I voted against it. All
5 the other board members voted for it and it was passed to 6 allow the venting.

7 Q Did the board think they could do that?

8 A They thought that they could. Beau Powell told them
9 they could.

10 Q Did you know otherwise?

11 A Well, it's certainly against the master deed and 12 there were a lot of other issues, but I guess that it was 13 just a losing battle.

14 Q What did you mean, "a lot of other issues"?

15 A Again, we still had stucco issues, we had roof
16 issues, we had all kinds of issues. Window issues, water
17 penetrating through windows. Just there were always a lot
18 of issues. Cleaning. Just --

19 Q Who were the board members at that time? Were they 20 competent, incompetent?

21 A They were -- two of them lived in the building:
22 Vicki Wingate, Richard Peterson. They were business
23 people. They were not real estate people. They don't 24 even know -- they certainly agreed to the master deed, but 25 I don't know if they actually understood what their

1 responsibilities were, as I'm not sure that most board
2 members understand what their responsibilities are.

3 Q Did you find that common since you've had many 4 boards?

5 A Yes, it is common.

6 Q Is this a typical problem or an exceptional problem?

7 A Well, the board not knowing what their real
8 responsibilities are and what they can do and what they 9 can't do I think is probably pretty common.

10 Q What's the budget for the board? Was it financially
11 in good shape or poor?

12 A Well, it's like most boards, there's not a lot of 13 money and you always -- it was still a fairly new 14 building. Again, we were having a lot of water intrusions
15 and they were caulking windows. That was Beau Powell's
16 suggestion of how to repair that. But -- so they were 17 spending money that wasn't really planned or budgeted for.
18 So I think that they were in fair shape. They weren't in 19 great shape.

20 Q How many presidents were on the board during your 21 management period from 2002 until today? How many 22 different presidents, do you know?

23 A Probably five, six. Karen, I guess, has been 24 president for three years.

25 MS. GREINER: Actually six.

1 MR. SPILLANE: No. Stay quiet.

2 MS. GREINER: Sorry.

3 BY MR. SPILLANE:

4 Q Defense Exhibit 5 has to do with rules and
5 regulations. Are you familiar with that?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Is that Place on the Greene?

8 A It is.

9 Q The rules and regulations?

10 A It is.

11 Q It talks about parking, children, signs, pets, trash
12 liability, solicitation, they didn't want the businesses
13 advertising in the corridor?

14 A Correct.

15 Q What were the problems created by the restaurants?

16 A Trash, bugs, noise. Noise is probably the biggest.
17 It's a nuisance to those living above, particularly the 18 bar and the music.

19 The people being able to -- doors being propped
20 open.

21 An attempt with those living in the building to 22 provide them some kind of security, which is something
23 that was sold originally in the concept of the development
24 was the fact that it was a locked, secure building, people
25 being able to come and go. We added cameras at a later

1 time, again trying to give people a comfort level for
2 their daughters and their -- whomever was living there.

3 A lot of trash was generated by the commercial
4 spaces and the noise, I think, are the predominant
5 problems.

6 MR. SPILLANE: If I could have five minutes,
7 Your Honor, a short recess to review some notes, I'd 8 appreciate it.

9 THE COURT: Let's take a break.

10 Ms. Nichols, during this break you may not
11 discuss your testimony with anyone. You've not completed
12 your testimony so it would be inappropriate to discuss it
13 at this time.

14 Let's take an afternoon break, a brief break,
15 and we'll come back and continue on.

16 (A break was taken.)

17 THE COURT: Yes, sir, you may continue.

18 BY MR. SPILLANE:

19 Q Ms. Nichols, the Place on the Greene Homeowners
20 Association calls for one-year terms for the board of 21 directors. Do you find that unusual or normal in your 22 experience?

23 A I find it unusual.

24 Q What's the -- what do you experience in other boards?

25 A Normally it's two or three-year terms.

1 Q Do most homeowner associations have staggered terms?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Did Beau Powell ever indicate to the board that these
4 restaurants wouldn't be a problem?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Are you trying to be fair today with respect to the 7 history? Have you told the whole truth?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q Did the board rely or did you offer your real estate
10 background when these issues came up?

11 A I certainly offered my opinion. Beau Powell had more
12 background. He was the one that was in charge of the 13 contractor and with the developer and asserted that power
14 over the board to fight what anybody else's concerns were.
15 He intimidated the board.

16 Q He intimidated the board?

17 A Yeah. I think that they were naive and I think he 18 intimidated them. He knew more than they did. He was in 19 charge and they just sort of accepted and trusted him.

20 Q I notice on page four in the master deed the 21 commercial units were limited to 600 square feet. But you
22 said C and D was pre-purchased by one person?

23 A Correct.

24 Q And does that mean it became 1200 square feet?

25 A Correct.

1 Q Was the wall ever built between C and D?

2 A No.

3 Q Is the wall there now, do you know?

4 A No.

5 Q And that C and D is where Tavern on the Greene is 6 two-thirds located?

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q Did you try to uphold the master deed in those board
9 minutes all those years ago?

10 A Yes.

11 Q What did you do?

12 A Well, I'm only one vote. I certainly voiced my 13 opinion, my concerns, but I was only one vote.

14 MR. SPILLANE: No further questions. Answer any 15 questions defense counsel has, please.

16 THE COURT: Yes, sir, Mr. Boger.

17 MR. BOGER: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 CROSS-EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. BOGER:

20 Q Just by way of clarification, I think you said you
21 came on as property manager in the year 2000?

22 A I think so, yes.

23 Q Would 2003 be better?

24 A It could be.

25 Q That's what the letter of December of '02 says,

1 you're coming on in January of '03. That clarifies that?

2 A Thank you, yes.

3 Q Have you ever had a drink at The Blue Cactus?

4 A No.

5 Q Do you know they serve beer and wine in there?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Have you ever been in there?

8 A Yes.

9 Q So the board, through the board of which you were a
10 member, had knowledge, very intimate knowledge of the fact
11 that these restrictions were violated?

12 A I don't think they did.

13 Q You don't think the board knew that the restrictions
14 were violated?

15 A I don't think they did. Most people don't ever read
16 master deeds.

17 Q But you knew?

18 A I certainly was opposed to a lot of the things that 19 happened, uh-huh.

20 Q And you knew that the master deed was being violated?

21 A I knew that it wasn't being followed by the letter of 22 the law, correct.

23 Q And you were a member of the board?

24 A Some of the time, yes.

25 Q Well, almost ten years?

1 A Correct.

2 Q So you were a member of the board in 1991 --

3 A Yes.

4 Q -- when Defendant's Exhibit 1 was written?

5 A Uh-huh.

6 Q And you were a member of the board in 1993 when
7 Defendant's Exhibit 2 was written?

8 A Correct.

9 Q And you were there knowing full well it violated the 10 restrictions?

11 A Correct.

12 Q Okay. Now, do you -- and I'm not blaming this on 13 you, but just as a board in general, do you think that 14 they had any fault for not doing something in 1991, 1993?
15 Do you place any blame for them not doing something about
16 this?

17 A They were naive and I don't think they knew that they
18 could do anything.

19 Beau Powell ran -- was never president, was only
20 a board member, but he was very vocal and very dominant
21 and I -- he had the ability to make them believe that it
22 was okay.

23 Q But once again, you were a board member and knew that 24 that wasn't --

25 A I was one vote and I usually voted -- I voted against

1 Tavern on the Greene, I voted against beer and wine, I
2 voted against the vent, but I was only one vote.

3 Q So the board acquiesced to these restaurants being
4 there?

5 A They -- it wasn't the restaurants. I don't think
6 that the board was ever asked if a restaurant could go in
7 there. They were asked about the vent and they were asked
8 about beer and wine, but I don't know that they were ever
9 asked if it's okay if a restaurant goes in.

10 Q Well, let me show you Defendant's Exhibit 2. This is 11 the one from March 22nd, 1993, about the paragraph that 12 says "new business." Read that for me.

13 A "The Duck In restaurant has notified the board of its
14 intent to build a deck in front of the commercial units."

15 Do you want me to read the whole paragraph?

16 Q Well, but certainly -- my point is, in 1993, the Duck
17 In had to have been there in '92, right?

18 A Correct. But they were never -- never asked for 19 permission to be there.

20 Q Well, in 1991 --

21 A They asked for a deck.

22 Q No, 1991. That's 1993 they asked for a deck.

23 Let me find Defense Exhibit 1 and I'll show that 24 to you.

25 Once again, go to "new business" and read that

1 part.

2 A "Beau Powell addressed the vacancy problem of the
3 commercial units due to the restrictions as stated in the 4 master deed. Restaurants, which are prohibited, but had
5 worked well in other similar buildings. He offered the
6 motion to amend the bylaws to allow the board at its
7 discretion to allow other uses. Due to there being less
8 than 75 percent, the motion will go to the homeowners in a
9 special election. The additional caveat was made that 10 there would be no -- there would be beer or -- there would 11 not be beer or wine sold without food consumption."

12 Q And that's exactly what happened, isn't that right,
13 beer and wine was sold with food consumption at Tavern on 14 the Greene and now Pita Pit; isn't that right?

15 A There were restaurants. In fact, I think Blue Cactus
16 had been operating as a restaurant and didn't have beer
17 and wine. Blue Cactus and Tavern on the Greene --

18 Q I'm sorry.

19 A That's okay -- and Tavern on the Greene sort of came 20 to the board together, or John Hicks, in the request to be 21 able to do beer and wine and that was when they said,
22 well, you need to have food, we really don't want it just
23 to be a bar, we want it -- if you want to be able to serve
24 a glass of wine with a meal --

25 Q I understand.

1 A -- and that was the pretense that they came to the 2 board. And again, they were sort of already there. The 3 board is just trying to appease the question that's 4 answered, not go to the master deed and say you aren't
5 supposed to be here at all.

6 Q Okay. Once again, you're a board member, you're 7 there, and we're a democracy in America, and I think the 8 term Mr. Spillane used earlier, you could have gone, could 9 you not, to other members who lived there and said, you
10 know, there's something going on with this board, I'm 11 resigning, and we need to stop these restaurants and 12 they're violating the master deed? And certainly the 13 board, through you, acquiesced, although you opposed it,
14 but you could have done things to stop this in 1991, could
15 you not, hindsight?

16 A No. Again, my voice was one. Beau Powell's voice
17 was much louder, much stronger, much more authoritative
18 that it wasn't a problem and because of that, they didn't
19 talk about it not being -- it being against the master
20 deed. They didn't talk about -- it was done in a trying 21 to get along. It wasn't -- they didn't think about the 22 repercussions and the fact that they weren't upholding the 23 master deed until Karen started.

24 Q And that went on for 15 years for Blue Cactus?

25 A Uh-huh.

1 Q They've been in business 15 years. That's going to
2 be his testimony.

3 A Uh-huh.

4 Q Fifteen years they've been operating, quote,
5 "illegally," while the board did nothing. I mean, it's a
6 fact, isn't it?

7 A Yeah. Are there complaints? There were -- Blue
8 Cactus did not pre-date --

9 Q I'm sorry, answer my question. What did -- did the 10 board do anything until this lawsuit for 15 years?

11 A Not legally, no.

12 Q Okay. And they had knowledge through you at least 13 that they could have done something as a board member?

14 A No, not through me.

15 Q Well, you knew, you're a real estate -- you're a
16 broker, aren't you?

17 A It's in the master deed. It was certainly available
18 to everyone. It's in the master deed.

19 Q Public knowledge, isn't it?

20 A It was -- they were in violation of the master deed
21 as well as they knew it also.

22 Q "They" meaning Beau Powell?

23 A Duck In, Beau Powell, Blue Cactus. I would think
24 that they signed the same master deed.

25 MR. BOGER: If you could give us a moment, Your

1 Honor.

2 (Pause.)

3 MR. BOGER: Please answer anything Mr. Best has,
4 Ms. Nichols.

5 CROSS-EXAMINATION

6 BY MR. BEST:

7 Q Ms. Nichols, when Mr. Spillane asked you earlier
8 about some of the problems created by the restaurants, you
9 mentioned security, vandalism, I believe, and that kind of 10 thing. You mentioned roaches and that kind of --

11 A Mentioned what?

12 Q Cleanliness, roaches, bugs crawling in?

13 A Uh-huh.

14 Q Did you also mention security?

15 A Uh-huh.

16 Q I think it's in our Exhibit No. 1, Defense Exhibit
17 No. 1, did you not have a discussion with Mr. Chavous in 18 1991 about the amount of vandalism had decreased and the 19 security guard being shared with Plaza Center on big USC
20 weekends?

21 A Uh-huh. Yes.

22 Q And that three video cameras seemed to have been a
23 deterrent?

24 A Was for awhile.

25 Q Okay. And a big USC weekend, what significance does

1 that have?

2 A Well, vandalism was not just in the building. There
3 was vandalism in the parking lot. That was really
4 different than security, even though that security breach
5 of commercial spaces going and coming, they propped doors
6 open, we moved them, but there was a reduction in cars
7 being broken into by having a security guard.

8 Q Were there any commercial customers' businesses there
9 in 1991 other than the hair salon possibly?

10 A I don't know. I don't remember exactly which 11 commercial -- when the commercial buildings -- obviously 12 Blue Cactus was there.

13 Q Maybe not in 1991, and I'm asking you. That's when 14 Mr. Powell was wanting apparently a second vote to amend 15 the restrictions, okay? So you were there. Am I helping 16 you remember?

17 A I'm not exactly sure what commercial properties were 18 there in '91.

19 Q But my point is, there was a problem with security in 20 1991 and vandalism in 1991, was there not?

21 A I think the only thing we said was vandalism. I'm 22 not -- did it say security?

23 Q It said the security had helped.

24 A The security officers had helped with the vandalism
25 that happened in the parking lot.

1 Q Right. Now, in the initial plans, in the initial
2 floor plans, were there plans for two dumpsters? Weren't
3 there two dumpsters at the building for a long period of 4 time?

5 A In that back area, correct.

6 Q And now there's only one, according to previous
7 testimony?

8 A That's all that's there right now.

9 Q And referring to Defense Exhibit 1, you stated that 10 in the special vote, due to there being less than 11 75 percent, which it would have taken to amend the 12 restrictions in the master deed, even though the 13 non-lawyer used the term "bylaws" here, you said that vote
14 never took place?

15 A I said the vote never got approved.

16 Q You said never had the vote in 1991. Did I
17 misunderstand you that you said they never had that 18 special vote?

19 A They never had a special meeting. As far as I know,
20 it never got approved. It was approached to the owners a 21 couple of times. It never got approved, it never got 22 authorized by the owners.

23 Q Okay. And the restrictions go further than just 24 cover no restaurants and no bars, do they not?

25 A Restrictions in the master deed?

1 Q The restrictions in the master deed. I hope we all
2 know we're talking about restrictions in the master deed.
3 Do they cover more than just bars and restaurants?

4 A The master deed covers the governing of the entire
5 building, the entire property.

6 Q The prohibitions. I mean, we've brought a lawsuit
7 here. We're all here on this lawsuit. And I'll try to 8 make myself a little more clear. I apologize for that.

9 In the restrictions for the commercial units,
10 which is on page 16, I think subparagraph three if I
11 remember, it said commercial office space and limited
12 service establishments, but it goes further and specifies
13 a number of prohibited activities, does it not?

14 A It does.

15 Q Specifically, no restaurants, no bars, no lounges, no
16 poolhalls?

17 A Uh-huh.

18 Q No nothing that relies on heavy foot traffic or 19 walk-in patrons?

20 A Correct.

21 Q Or words to that effect, correct?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q Easy Coin Laundry, my client, do you recall what kind
24 of laundry they had there?

25 A A coin laundry.

1 Q Was it -- did it have an attendant?

2 A No.

3 Q Was it open 24/7?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Relied on foot traffic, didn't it?

6 A Undesirable foot traffic, correct.

7 Q You never took any action against that, did you?

8 A Craig Stonebruner was approached and again --

9 Q Ma'am, was action taken?

10 A We never took any legal action.

11 MR. BEST: Thank you.

12 That's all I have. Thank you, Your Honor.

13 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. SPILLANE:

15 Q Ms. Nichols, a few follow-up questions.

16 Who owned and set up Easy Coin Laundry?

17 A Craig Stonebruner owned the space.

18 Q He owned the commercial space?

19 A The commercial space.

20 Q And he was one of the developers?

21 A Correct.

22 Q Defendant's Exhibit 1 talked about the new business
23 and I want to go back to that because I want to get 24 cleared up that new business paragraph.

25 A Yes.

1 Q I want to get real clear what we're talking about.

2 We talked about vacancy problems, restaurants
3 that worked well in other similar buildings, and a motion
4 to amend the bylaws was offered at an annual meeting; is
5 that correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q Can the bylaws change the master deed?

8 A No, sir.

9 Q So if those members at that annual meeting voted to 10 change the bylaws to amend to allow restaurants, what 11 would the vote threshold be?

12 A Seventy-five percent.

13 Q No, what would the vote be for the bylaws?

14 A It'd be 50 percent plus one.

15 Q All right. However, it indicates that there was less
16 than 75 percent present of the ownership. How much is 17 needed to amend the master deed?

18 MR. BOGER: Your Honor, he's already asked these 19 questions on direct earlier. We're plowing the same old
20 ground. I object.

21 THE COURT: I'll let him ask it this time, but 22 it has been stated several times, so we can move on.

23 BY MR. SPILLANE:

24 Q Since there wasn't enough present at the annual 25 meeting, they did not hold a vote; is that correct?

1 A They did not.

2 Q That's what the minutes said. Therefore, they
3 decided this motion will go to the homeowners in a special
4 election, right?

5 A Correct.

6 Q And you were asked by defense counsel, he questioned
7 whether you knew about any of the special elections being
8 held. Was it held?

9 A There was not a special election held.

10 Q Had there been a special election held, would it be 11 by mail and proxy or by another meeting?

12 A Well, a special election held implies to me that it
13 would be an actual meeting.

14 Q All right. Do you remember the 1985 attempt on 15 November 25, 1985, by Ms. Ferris Richardson's letter?

16 THE COURT: It's right here.

17 MR. BOGER: Your Honor, this is that same ground
18 we're plowing again.

19 BY MR. SPILLANE:

20 Q Do you remember that?

21 THE COURT: I'll overrule the objection.

22 BY MR. SPILLANE:

23 Q Do you remember that attempt?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q Was that attempt by mail and proxy or by a special

1 held called meeting of the members?

2 A By mail.

3 Q And it says on it, does it not, this will be by --
4 this will be held by absentee ballot?

5 A Correct.

6 Q Now, my question is to you, if this letter went out,
7 not like you're saying another special meeting, if it went 8 out to amend the bylaws, what percentage would they have 9 needed to change the bylaws?

10 A Seventy-five percent.

11 Q No.

12 A Fifty percent -- of the bylaws? Fifty percent
13 because plus one.

14 Q You're confused, aren't you?

15 A Well, bylaws, yes.

16 Q This is confusing, isn't it?

17 A Yes.

18 Q You would not agree with defense counsel when he was
19 claiming the board acquiesced, you used the word
20 "appease." What did you mean?

21 A They were trying -- they tried to appease Beau
22 Powell, they tried to make it work. They're sympathetic
23 because the commercial spaces or some of them -- not all
24 of the commercial spaces, but some of them were vacant and 25 they tried to accommodate his request to not cause

1 conflict and difficulties within the board and within the
2 association. That wasn't what they wanted to do.

3 Q So they tried to accommodate the owner of the units,
4 the commercial units; is that correct?

5 A Correct.

6 Q They tried appease the owners of the commercial
7 units?

8 A Correct.

9 MR. SPILLANE: No further questions. Thank you.

10 MR. BOGER: Limited recross, Your Honor.

11 RECCROSS-EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. BOGER:

13 Q When your husband got sued, you got off the board and 14 resigned?

15 A Resigned, yes.

16 Q You saw the conflict of interest and resigned from
17 the board?

18 A Correct.

19 Q But you did not resign from the board from 1985 to 20 1995 when these things that Beau Powell was intimidating
21 and convincing people to do on the board took place; isn't
22 that correct?

23 A Correct.

24 MR. BOGER: Okay. Thank you. That's all I
25 have.

1 THE COURT: You may step down.

2 Anything further from the plaintiff?

3 MR. SPILLANE: We rest.

4 THE COURT: Anything from defense?

5 MR. BEST: Your Honor, if we may have a moment.

6 (Pause.)

7 MR. BOGER: We'll call the first witness if Your
8 Honor, please.

9 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

10 MR. BOGER: I'd call Lloyd Reese.

11 LLOYD REESE, after being duly sworn, testified
12 as follows:

13 THE COURT: Thank you. You may have a seat.

14 DIRECT EXAMINATION

15 BY MR. BOGER:

16 Q You are Lloyd Reese?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q And where do you live?

19 A I live out in Woodfield Park, Columbia.

20 Q And you're the owner of The Blue Cactus?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q Now, you're not the landlord of The Blue Cactus --

23 A No.

24 Q -- but you operate the business?

25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q And what is The Blue Cactus?

2 A It's a restaurant that has evolved into a
3 Korean-Cuban-Asian-Thai-Mexican cuisine, with heavy on the 4 vegetarian.

5 Q Do you serve beer and alcohol, beer and wine?

6 A No. When I went through --

7 Q I don't know if the judge heard your answer. You do
8 not?

9 A No.

10 Q Go ahead.

11 A I reserved the right to request it later when I was 12 at zoning, but I preferred, if possible, to make a living
13 without the problems of selling alcohol.

14 Q So you never sold it?

15 A No, no.

16 Q And how long have you been in business?

17 A I opened business May of 1994.

18 Q And you've been in business all that time?

19 A Oh, yes, sir.

20 Q Fifteen years?

21 A Right.

22 Q And how did you -- tell me about the vent that got 23 cut. Were you there when that happened?

24 A Yes. The -- to make a -- to put a vent in over where 25 the stove unit is was cut through the wall, the fan was

1 put inside my unit, and just the air itself exhausts out
2 on the alleyway. As trucks come up and down and the 3 driveway isn't level and they lean the trucks toward the 4 building and they hit the building all the time and 5 nothing that extends out three or four inches stays on the 6 outside of the building.

7 Q It's been that way for 15 years, too, right?

8 A Oh, yes.

9 Q And that was authorized by whoever at the Place on 10 the Greene, right?

11 A I would have to assume.

12 Q Nobody stopped you?

13 A No.

14 Q Did you hide the fact that there was a vent being 15 cut?

16 A No. It was pretty evident.

17 Q Do you have a business license from the city?

18 A Yes.

19 Q How long have you had it?

20 A About 15 years in May.

21 Q And you pay every year?

22 A Yes.

23 Q How many employees do you have?

24 A I have my wife, my daughter part-time, my son
25 part-time, two sister-in-laws part-time.

1 Q Your family works there?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And is there any -- do you make your living any other
4 way?

5 A I'm retired military, but no, the family income comes
6 from the restaurant.

7 Q What -- when you served in the military, where did
8 you serve?

9 A I was -- spent almost 22 years in Berlin, the 10 demilitarized zone, in reconnaissance and ambush patrols,
11 spent a year in Vietnam, all this infantry time.

12 Q And was your dream always to open a restaurant?

13 A No.

14 Q What did you want to do?

15 A I wanted to retire.

16 Q And what's your clientele like during the day and the 17 evening?

18 A The -- it's a -- there's one of the professors at USC
19 that teaches the hotel/restaurant tourism uses us as one
20 of the examples of a business that's able to get
21 everything from lawyers to young hippies sitting at tables
22 next to each other and as diverse a clientele outside of 23 the Highway Department that you'll ever find.

24 Q And how late are you open?

25 A We stop people coming in at 9 o'clock at night. We

1 finish cooking generally around 10 and we leave between
2 midnight and 1 o'clock.

3 Q And you're back there in the morning at what time?

4 A We leave the house at 9 o'clock, go down and buy
5 vegetables, buy whatever, and we open at 11. And we do
6 this five days a week.

7 Q Okay. You're off Saturday and Sunday?

8 A Sunday and Monday.

9 Q Sunday and Monday.

10 Now, what kind of bug eradication do you use?

11 A Well, when I opened, I swept up about a half a bushel
12 of dead bugs and I treated myself a combination of bait of 13 contact poison and did that for about six years and then I
14 hired a company to come in and do the weekly bait and to 15 treat.

16 Q And you don't have a bug problem at your restaurant?

17 A We don't have an infestation of bugs. We will on 18 occasion see one. We don't know if they come in in boxes
19 or they come from upstairs or across the hall or, in some 20 cases, they walk in the front door.

21 Q When you opened this business, who did you talk with 22 about opening it?

23 A I took a -- went around to the businesses around me
24 and brought a little sheet of paper with the statement
25 that I was going to open a restaurant and they had two

1 places they could sign, either they didn't have a problem
2 or they had a problem, and I went about a two-block area
3 around and I think I had two people that said they didn't
4 want it. Both of them run restaurants.

5 Q And are you a member of the Five Points Merchants
6 Association?

7 A No, sir. I run a restaurant, I'm busy.

8 Q Did you have any issues with other restaurants around
9 you? Do you have any problems with other restaurants
10 around you?

11 A No.

12 Q And you have relied on this being a restaurant for a
13 living, haven't you?

14 A Yes. My daughter's husband is not able to work right
15 now, so it feeds her and her four children, my wife,
16 myself.

17 Q Now, you see Mr. Phipps here in the courtroom sitting
18 down back here. Do you recognize him?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q Have you had a problem with him?

21 A The problem I've had with Mr. Phipps has all been 22 indirect in that I've never been directly confronted.

23 I have observed him when he walked out of the 24 building one day and informed the city engineer that they
25 were going to have to take the sidewalk up and completely

1 redo it because it was not to his satisfaction and that
2 there would be fights in front and that the -- it would
3 not be acceptable.

4 And later when the calls started coming in 5 through the crime hotline tips, it was almost verbatim as 6 far as fights in front of the building, one of which was 7 when the police lieutenant was standing there talking to 8 the retired federal officer that run the restaurant next
9 door when the fight was reported breaking out.

10 Q So you were a witness to there being -- not being a
11 fight there, but a fight being reported?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Okay. Did you ever see Mr. Phipps accost any 14 customers of the Sub Pub next door to you when it was 15 opened?

16 A During the time that Mr. Phipps is up and around is 17 normally later in the evening and that's when I'm busy,
18 and I don't recall.

19 MR. BOGER: Fair enough. Answer any questions
20 by Mr. Spillane.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Best, do you have any questions?

22 MR. BEST: No, Your Honor, not of this witness.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Spillane.

24 CROSS-EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. SPILLANE:

1 Q Mr. Reese, I thank you for your service to the 2 country.

3 Who was the owner when you began your
4 restaurant?

5 A Roy Powell.

6 Q Roy Powell. Who is the owner now?

7 A David Dwartly.

8 Q Have you had any other owners?

9 A No.

10 Q When did Roy Powell deed, I guess, ownership to David
11 Dwartly?

12 A I don't really know. I wasn't privy to that.

13 Q Do you have any evidence that the vent was 14 authorized?

15 A It's there. It was inspected by the city inspectors,
16 and it is.

17 Q City inspectors have authorized it; is that correct?

18 A The city inspectors have inspected it, passed its 19 installation and said it met code.

20 Q That's the fire code, the building code?

21 A I would assume.

22 Q Okay. When you surveyed the surrounding businesses
23 prior to you opening up, you did that for what purpose?

24 A The hearing was at the zoning. When you open a
25 restaurant in Five Points you have to go through zoning

1 because of the concerns of parking, and the Five Points
2 Merchants Association didn't oppose my opening and there
3 was no one there that spoke in or spoke out against it.

4 Q So that was the zoning approval?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And what is the concern with parking?

7 A The people who have existing businesses own the 8 on-street parking and they don't want anyone else to use
9 it.

10 Q How much off-street parking do you have?

11 A I have the assigned space that the business has.
12 There is -- and assigned for each unit there are two other
13 spaces that float with the business units and that's used
14 so that we don't have to tow someone immediately when we 15 come to work when one of the students park there.

16 Q And you say you have one space because of your 17 rental?

18 A Yes, per unit there's one space assigned.

19 Q So you're in two units, are you not?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Two bays?

22 A Yes.

23 Q So you've got two spaces at Place on the Greene?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q I didn't understand who assigned the three other

1 spaces and where.

2 A There are two extra spaces, commercial unit, that is
3 used by the commercial units in addition to one space per 4 individual unit.

5 Q So each commercial unit has two extra spaces?

6 A No. There are a total of two extra spaces.

7 Q A total of two for all eight bays?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. I understand. And that's Place on the Greene
10 spaces?

11 A That is Place on the Greene spaces as opposed to the 12 open spaces Place on the Greene has that are unassigned.

13 Q And I didn't follow you about in case a student parks
14 in your assigned space. Could you say that again?

15 A When someone parks in the wrong space, the vehicle is 16 normally towed when the person comes up that wants to use
17 that space. In an attempt to avoid that, the other two 18 spaces were added so that there would be a place to park
19 when you go to work and not have to tow a student
20 immediately.

21 Q Okay. So my understanding is that of the eight
22 commercial space units, each one has one space, and then
23 all of those eight share just two others?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Two floating spaces?

1 A Yes.

2 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you. No further questions.

3 MR. BOGER: No redirect, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: And just to be clear, this business
5 operates spaces F, G, and H or --

6 MR. BOGER: G and H.

7 THE COURT: That's all I have. You may step
8 down.

9 MR. BOGER: May we excuse Mr. Reese, Your Honor?

10 THE COURT: I don't have any objection.

11 Any objection?

12 MR. SPILLANE: No objection.

13 MR. BOGER: He's got to go cook.

14 MR. BEST: Your Honor, I'd call Blair Monroe.

15 BLAIR MONROE, after being duly sworn, testified
16 as follows:

17 THE COURT: Thank you. If you'd have a seat and 18 state your full name, please.

19 THE WITNESS: My name is Blair Monroe.

20 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21 MR. BEST: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 DIRECT EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. BEST:

24 Q Mr. Monroe, you go by Barry, don't you?

25 A I do.

1 Q You live in Columbia, do you not?

2 A I do live in Columbia.

3 Q But you do not live at Place on the Greene?

4 A I do not.

5 Q As a matter of fact, you own one of the commercial
6 units at Place on the Greene?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Is that Unit A?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q And that brings us up to the present time is where 11 The Pita Pit is presently located?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q All right. What -- and you're here in the capacity
14 as representative of the company, in fact, that owns Unit
15 A?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q And that company is Easy Coin Laundry, Incorporated?

18 A That's right.

19 Q And you're currently president of that company?

20 A That's right.

21 Q All right. And Easy Coin first went into Unit A
22 when?

23 A In 1988.

24 Q And that was on a rental basis?

25 A That's right. We rented it to start with.

1 Q You were a tenant of Mr. Stonebruner?

2 A That's right.

3 Q And then in 1990 you purchased it?

4 A That's right.

5 Q And you operated your coin laundry from 1988 through
6 about what time?

7 A 1999.

8 Q At which point you shut it down?

9 A That's right.

10 Q And was it a profitable venture for you to have a
11 coin laundry there?..

12 A Yes, it was.

13 Q And did you, in fact, have an extra share of the 14 water bill at Place on the Greene?

15 A Yes, we did. We put in a separate meter when we 16 opened up the coin laundry.

17 Q So Unit A put in a separate water meter to take care
18 of the additional water. So that is not an issue as far
19 as Unit A is concerned?

20 A No.

21 Q All right. Now, you bought it in 1990. Did you have 22 an attendant there at the coin laundry?

23 A Never did.

24 Q How often would you go by or your representative go
25 by and collect the money?

1 A We probably went in three times a week to check it
2 out. Had somebody clean it once a day. That's pretty
3 much it.

4 Q And was it -- you said it was profitable for you.
5 What were your hours of operation?

6 A 24/7. We stayed open almost all night, all day, all
7 the time.

8 Q Okay. And during your tenure there from 1988 through 9 approximately 1999 --

10 A Yeah.

11 Q -- were you ever complained about or receive any 12 complaints from the homeowners board?

13 A We had a couple of leaks, but other than that, we 14 never had any kind of problems.

15 Q Did they say that you were an undesirable tenant?

16 A Not that I'm aware of.

17 Q You heard about the parking around there, there's not 18 much parking. Was it walk-in traffic that you relied on 19 as Easy Coin Laundry?

20 A One hundred percent.

21 Q What was next-door to you when you went into that 22 unit?

23 A A Birkenstock shoe store.

24 Q A retail store?

25 A Right.

1 Q They rely on walk-in traffic, foot traffic?

2 A Foot traffic, yeah.

3 Q There have been a number of restaurants down there
4 since about 1991 or '92, have there not?

5 A Yeah. I think it's been a carousel, yes.

6 Q And now Pita Pit is leasing from you Unit A?

7 A Yes. They started in 2000, I believe.

8 Q And they're in their second five-year term which will
9 expire I believe you said?

10 A November of 2010, I believe.

11 Q And that's not your only livelihood, is it, Mr.
12 Monroe?

13 A No, it's not.

14 Q But you do have from your present tenant an interest
15 in purchasing your unit, do you not?

16 A That's true, we do.

17 Q And are you selling it about for what you paid for it
18 or substantially more or substantially less than what you
19 paid for it in these negotiations that you're thinking
20 about?

21 A Substantially more.

22 Q So there would be an economic loss to you in the 23 event of an injunction in this case --

24 A That's true.

25 Q -- because you'd lose that sale?

1 A That's right.

2 Q Are you copied with notices from the homeowners
3 association such as the annual meetings and the minutes
4 and proxies and that kind of thing?

5 A Right. We get the minutes and when the meeting is 6 going to be.

7 Q Is the board or the management company required to 8 notify you if your tenant is doing something that is not
9 up to their standards?

10 A I'm not sure what the board's responsibility is on 11 there.

12 Q Do you get such notifications?

13 A Yes, we do. We have gotten a few.

14 Q Did you get one in reference to The Pita Pit?

15 A Yes, we've gotten one or two.

16 Q And the issue in that was?

17 A One issue was trash getting caught in the chute. I'm 18 not sure of the setup, but something about boxes got 19 wedged in there and they thought it was from The Pita Pit.

20 Q Have you been aware that security is an issue in that
21 building?

22 A Yes. It's kind of an area of town where there's 23 considerable vagrancy and the kids have kind of trashed
24 things, so I would imagine, yeah, I'm aware of that.

25 Q And this has been going on since you operated your

1 laundry there?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Did you -- strike that.

4 Did you ever get a notification from the 5 management company or the homeowners for Place on the 6 Greene that you and/or your tenant were in violation of 7 the restrictions in the master deed until you received
8 Mr. Spillane's letter in 2007?

9 A Never did.

10 Q Do you believe they've waived their right to pursue
11 this?

12 MR. SPILLANE: Objection, Your Honor. Legal 13 opinion.

14 THE COURT: Rephrase the question.

15 MR. BEST: Ma'am?

16 THE COURT: Rephrase the question.

17 BY MR. BEST:

18 Q Do you think it's fair for them to come all these 19 number of years later and tell you you've got to get out
20 or your tenant's got to get out, Barry?

21 A No. After 20 years, no, I don't think that's proper
22 at all.

23 Q Am I charging you a fee in this?

24 A Yes, you are.

25 Q Do you remember what my hourly rate is?

1 A Not exactly.

2 Q For you?

3 A Well, probably just a couple hundred dollars an hour
4 is all.

5 Q I showed you the bill earlier, Mr. Monroe. Did you
6 hide it?

7 A No, I didn't hide it. I do remember seeing it. It's 8 around here.

9 Q You do remember seeing it?

10 A Yeah.

11 Q I think I turned it over.

12 Now, this was prepared what date?

13 A The date on this is Monday, April 6th, 2009, for 14 $2,030.

15 Q Okay. That does not include today's time?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q What time did we start this morning at Mr. Boger's
18 office?

19 A 9:30.

20 Q And we came over here and we got started here at 11?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Took maybe an hour and a half break for lunch?

23 A Right.

24 Q How many more hours do you think we'll work?

25 A Well, we're pushing about seven it looks like now.

1 Q Okay. Now, are you aware in the restrictions in the 2 master deed it says that you as owner can't get your
3 attorney's fees?

4 A I've seen that.

5 Q But the association can?

6 A I've seen that.

7 Q That isn't fair either, is it?

8 A No, sure isn't.

9 Q And you're asking this Court to consider awarding you
10 attorney fees, are you not?

11 A I am.

12 Q And that's based on the equity -- the inequity of 13 what the homeowners association is trying to do to your 14 tenant and these other similar-situated tenants; is that 15 right?

16 A That's correct.

17 MR. BEST: I'd offer my bill to date plus seven 18 hours at $200 an hour as this defendant's exhibit whatever
19 number.

20 THE COURT: Any objection?

21 MR. SPILLANE: No objection, Your Honor.

22 Are we going to have examination on this later
23 if it comes up?

24 THE COURT: You can certainly cross-examine him
25 on it.

1 That's Defendant's 6.

2 (WHEREUPON, Defendant's Exhibit No. 6 was marked
3 for identification and received into evidence.)

4 MR. BEST: Mr. Monroe, I don't believe I have
5 any questions, but the other attorneys may. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Best, any questions?

7 I'm sorry, Mr. Boger?

8 MR. BOGER: No, ma'am.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Spillane.

10 CROSS-EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. SPILLANE:

12 Q Mr. Monroe, you stated that you purchased it in 1990
13 from Mr. Stonebruner; is that correct?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q Did you have a written contract with him?

16 A Yes, we did.

17 Q Did you have a closing?

18 A Yes, we did.

19 Q And did you have a closing attorney?

20 A Yes, we did.

21 Q And who was that?

22 A I can't recall at the time.

23 Q Do you know where the closing was?

24 A No.

25 Q Did you select the attorney?

1 A No. I'll have to tell you at that time my father was
2 involved in the business as well and he's passed away, so
3 I'd have to dig to find that information out.

4 Q Did you get a copy of the master deed at the time you
5 closed?

6 A I'm thinking we did.

7 Q Did you research your files to find a copy of the 8 master deed?

9 A Yes, we did.

10 Q Do you understand that the master deed restricts
11 restaurants?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Would you want a restaurant on the first floor of 14 your residence where you live?

15 A That's kind of an open question.

16 I don't think it would bother me, to tell you
17 the truth. I could go down and get a bite to eat any time
18 I wanted.

19 Q Did you have trouble leasing it after you shut down
20 Easy Coin Laundry?

21 A No. We had a for lease sign in it for maybe a couple
22 of months.

23 Q How did you come in 1988 to find that or your father
24 to find that location?

25 A We had been in this business, the coin laundry

1 business, for probably a dozen years or so before that,
2 and still are, and we noticed that there was not any type
3 of facility in the Greene Street/Five Points area. So we 4 actively looked and we saw that.

5 And I'm not sure how my dad got with
6 Mr. Stonebruner on that. I'm not sure if he had a sign
7 up, but I do remember all the infrastructure work that we 8 had to do to the unit, to put holes in the side of the 9 unit to vent the dryers and have fresh air holes put in so
10 air could come in to service the dryers. We had to put in 11 a set of steps coming up the front, cut a door in the 12 front, take out that window and put a door in. We did all
13 that in '88.

14 Q Do you have the unit under contract for sale at this 15 point?

16 A Not right now. We have a verbal contract, though.

17 MR. SPILLANE: No further questions.

18 THE COURT: Any redirect?

19 MR. BEST: No, Your Honor, no redirect.

20 THE COURT: I don't have any questions. You may 21 step down.

22 THE WITNESS: Okay.

23 MR. BOGER: I'd call Jeff Keeney to the stand,
24 Your Honor.

25 JEFF KEENEY, after being duly sworn, testified

1 as follows:

2 THE COURT: Thank you. If you'd have a seat and
3 please state your name.

4 THE WITNESS: My name is Jeff Kenney.

5 THE COURT: If you'd spell your last name,
6 please.

7 THE WITNESS: K-E-E-N-E-Y.

8 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

9 THE WITNESS: K-E-E-N-E-Y.

10 THE COURT: Thank you. Yes, sir.

11 DIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. BOGER:

13 Q Mr. Keeney, where do you live?

14 A Columbia.

15 Q And how long have you been operating Tavern on the 16 Greene?

17 A Since 1999, February 17th. It was in some of the 18 papers.

19 Q Did you have a ten-year anniversary just recently?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And is that what you do for a living?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Would you be prejudiced and injured if this place
24 were closed?

25 A Considering that I have a child on the way, it would

1 be pretty devastating.

2 Q Tell me a little bit about the business. Tell me in
3 particular about how security is handled in your facility.

4 A We have a person at the door that checks IDs to make
5 sure that no one's underage and we have bartenders that
6 work there and whoever's cooking.

7 Q And do you have security cameras inside?

8 A Yes, I do. I have security cameras facing at the 9 bar, at the front door, and pretty much covering the whole
10 area, including the kitchen.

11 Q Have you ever suggested to the homeowners association
12 that they put security cameras outside?

13 A I did. I went to one of the meetings and they were 14 complaining about the glass doors being broken, not on the 15 inside but on the front entrance, and I said, Well, there
16 seems to be a camera on the inside, why didn't they put 17 one up on the outside to kind of see what was going on,
18 but nothing's been done about it.

19 Q There's never been a security camera put on the 20 outside by the homeowners association?

21 A If there is, it hasn't done any good because I've had 22 my doors that go into the lobby broken in. I can't seem 23 to find out any information on it.

24 Q Now, we talked a little bit about vagrancy here
25 today. You've been here the whole time, haven't you?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Tell me what you do to keep "undesirables," for lack
3 of a better word, out of the building.

4 A Well, it's really bad during the wintertime when you
5 go towards the locked door and the gate into the building
6 itself, vagrants just slip right in there in the little
7 hallway and I just tell them, I say, Look, I'm not going 8 to call the police, but you got to get out of here and if
9 you don't, I will call the police.

10 And then when we take the trash out, there's 11 usually two of us to make sure nobody's coming in behind
12 us or getting into the elevator and we've got a key lock
13 to get in the elevator to come back up.

14 Q So describe for me in detail how trash is taken out.

15 A When the trash is taken out, we go out through the 16 side door, lock it behind us. We go through the locked
17 door, unlock it, close the door behind us. We go to the 18 elevator, take the elevator down, let the door close
19 behind us. We come around, dump it in the dumpster, come
20 back up, same process back upstairs.

21 Q And how many people take the trash out at one time?

22 A Most times two, sometimes one depending on how busy
23 the night was.

24 Q And the reason you do that, that process with the 25 door locking and that sort of thing is why?

1 A To make sure nobody gets in.

2 Q What do you see as a guy that's there -- well, let me
3 ask you. How long are you there? What time do you shut
4 down at night?

5 A Well, it depends on what night it is and, you know.
6 Saturdays and Sundays we shut down at 2. The rest of the 7 other nights mostly 3. Whenever we're there after that
8 it's cleaning or doing whatever.

9 But the biggest problem I see with security is 10 the college kids or whoever it is living in the building
11 put like a little piece of cardboard in the door or put a
12 trash can in front of the elevator downstairs for all 13 their friends to be able to come in. And when we go by,
14 we kick it out of the way.

15 Q Do you do that all the time?

16 A All the time. I've had people, I've told people,
17 I've seen them do it. I've said, Man, you cannot do that.
18 And they'll leave it there and I'll grab it and the door
19 will close behind me.

20 Q You're there, once again, 12 hours a day would you
21 say, maybe even more?

22 A I'm there a whole lot less here recently. I'm there
23 Monday nights until close and Friday nights until close
24 and a lot during the week during the day.

25 Q And you have an opportunity to see what kind of

1 people live there?

2 A Yes. A lot of people who live there are my
3 customers.

4 Q And what percentage of the building? There's 71
5 units, right?

6 A Right.

7 Q What percentage of those people who live there are 8 students?

9 A I couldn't give you an exact figure, but what comes
10 out of the people I see coming in and out of the building,
11 most of them appear to be young. I wouldn't say all of 12 them are college students. There are some older people
13 that live there. There's a really sweet lady that lives
14 on the fifth floor and I talk with her every time she 15 comes in, but it's mostly younger people I see.

16 Q Tell me about the sweet lady on the fifth floor. It
17 is my understanding she has cats.

18 A Well, there was -- I think there was a complaint
19 about the fact that she had cats.

20 The last time I talked with her she was actually 21 coming to me with another complaint that Mr. Phipps had 22 against me in another court and I had to bring her some 23 milk. She couldn't make it to court because she had 24 bursitis in her hip.

25 Q Now, the restrictions say no pets in the building.

1 A Right.

2 Q But she has pets?

3 A I believe she does. I've never been in her
4 apartment. I believe she does. But I've never been in 5 her apartment. I've never seen them.

6 Q Okay. But from what you understand she has cats in 7 there that are talked about a lot?

8 A From what I understand, yes, but to say that I've 9 seen them, no.

10 Q Now, what is your health score rating, the code that 11 comes up with the health department?

12 A An A. Just since the St. Patty's Day Festival we got 13 an A.

14 Q Has it ever been less than an A?

15 A If it has been less than an A, it went to -- and I'm 16 not positive on this -- I believe it went to a B for like
17 one week because we had a problem with the water heater,
18 and that's a big violation. But we had the water heater
19 fixed and that was it.

20 Q Have you -- do you have a license to do business in 21 the city?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Have you been inspected by the city before?

24 A Everything's good to go, yeah. For the trial I just 25 had, SLED came in and inspected and said everything was

1 okay.

2 Q You're totally sanctioned by every government agency
3 that you know of?

4 A Everything that I know of and every license that I
5 need to have.

6 Q You pay your taxes?

7 A I do.

8 Q You pay your employees?

9 A I do.

10 Q How many do you have?

11 A I have a manager, Chris. I have a bartender. I have 12 two door guys and the guy that works happy hour. One,
13 two, three -- six.

14 Q Before July of '07 when you got the letter from 15 Mr. Spillane, had you ever had any notice from any 16 homeowners association letter or board member telling you
17 that you were in violation of anything?

18 A Never had any idea that there was any problems. That 19 was the first I'd heard of it.

20 Q That was July of 2007?

21 A July of 2007.

22 Q And you've been in business for ten years?

23 A Since '99, yeah.

24 Q Now, within a hundred yards of your restaurant, your 25 bar and restaurant, how many other bars and restaurants

1 are there?

2 A There is -- I would say within a hundred yards there
3 is the Cellar on Greene, there is Durkins; there is
4 Mr. Friendly's, there's Salty Nut, there's Pavlov's,
5 there's CJ's, there's Dr. Rocco's, there's Garibaldi's,
6 there is Sammi's Deli, there is Saluda's. That's the best
7 I can tell you.

8 Q How about Dr. Rocco's?

9 A Dr. Rocco's on the corner.

10 Q How about Durkins?

11 A Durkins, I'm sorry, between the Cellar on Greene and 12 Mr. Friendly's. There's a bunch of them.

13 Q All of those restaurants, do they not have patrons?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Do they walk up the sidewalk?

16 A All the time.

17 Q Especially after midnight?

18 A All the time, yeah. I mean it's starts around dinner
19 time and it doesn't stop until late at night. And there's 20 bars down on the corner at the bottom of the hill and 21 there's bars above me and there's bars across the street
22 and there's bars around the corner, and to get to them,
23 you have to walk.

24 Q Do those people talk outside the bars as well?

25 A Yeah. Everybody talks on the sidewalk.

1 Q Now, you have employed me to handle this matter, have
2 you not?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And you have agreed to pay my legal bill?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And would it surprise you that your part of my legal
7 bill is a thousand dollars?

8 A I would not like to hear it. But no, it would not
9 surprise me. We've been here all day.

10 Q And you've agreed to pay that?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And you also know that the restrictions say that you
13 can be made to pay Mr. Spillane's bill, but you can't 14 pay -- the homeowners association can't pay mine. Do you
15 understand that?

16 A I've heard that here now, yeah. It doesn't seem 17 fair.

18 Q You don't think that's fair?

19 A Not at all.

20 Q You would like to have -- you would like to have what 21 they call fee shifting and let them pay my bill?

22 A Yeah. They're the one -- yeah.

23 Q And you understand you're responsible for my bill
24 which is now a thousand dollars?

25 A Yes. Thank you.

1 MR. BOGER: Let me talk to co-counsel right
2 quick, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Best, any questions?

4 MR. BEST: I don't have any, Your Honor.

5 MR. BOGER: I have nothing further for Mr.
6 Keeney, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Spillane.

8 CROSS-EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. SPILLANE:

10 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Kenney.

11 You own Unit B; is that correct?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q Is that the only unit you own?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q Are you the owner of Tavern on the Greene?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q Okay. And do you think the pet lady should be 18 enjoined from having those pets and cats if she has them?

19 A I don't think that is my call to make.

20 Q Okay. The other bars you mentioned and your counsel
21 mentioned and listed within the area, do they have 22 residences above them, Pavlov's and those ones you
23 mentioned?

24 A No. Pavlov's and Salty Nut are about 50 yards away
25 from some of the residences and I know that Sammi's Deli

1 has residents above it. I'm not really sure about any of
2 the others. Mostly not the others I would say.

3 Q Have you made any arrangements to share fees with the 4 multiple clients Mr. Boger is representing?

5 A Yes, I have.

6 Q Do you have more trash or less trash than a general
7 office operation?

8 A I would say maybe more trash depending on how much
9 paperwork they're doing in the office.

10 Q Has Tavern on the Greene ever been cited, fined, or 11 reprimanded for not serving food?

12 A We were fined for not serving food. It was something
13 that we did go to court for. We got it fixed. It was a 14 problem -- they came in right before St. Patty's Day and 15 we had food in one freezer the lady did not see. We had 16 ice in the other freezer so we would not have to pay for 17 the ice on St. Patty's Day because that's what we run out
18 of most..

19 Q Did you pay the fine?

20 A I did.

21 Q Do you have music in Tavern on the Greene?

22 A I do.

23 Q What's your percentage of receipts connected with 24 food versus beer and wine? Do you have liquor?

25 A I do have liquor, yes.

1 Q Beer, wine, and liquor on one side and food on the
2 other. What percentage?

3 A The percentage I couldn't tell you exactly. I know
4 it's low. When they took the smoking ban and they said
5 they were going to let bars operate with just smoking if
6 their food sales were less than 15 percent, then yeah, I
7 thought smoking was more important than food sales. When
8 that all changed, I tried to get my food sales back up,
9 which has not succeeded.

10 Q What percentage are food sales right now?

11 A I would say probably less than five percent.

12 Q At Tavern on the Greene?

13 A Yeah. But I don't know anybody in town whose 14 business is not struggling now.

15 Q So you do mostly beer, wine and liquor?

16 A I'm doing whatever I can to keep the doors open right
17 now. And whatever food I can sell, I try to sell.

18 Q Have you ever been violated for any liquor license
19 requirement?

20 A Not that I know of.

21 Q Have you ever been cited?

22 A Not that I know of.

23 Mr. Phipps just took me to court for trying 24 to -- for me not to get my liquor license renewed.

25 Q Do you have live music?

1 A No.

2 Q Do you have loud music?

3 A It depends on what you call loud. I don't think it's 4 loud.

5 We've had the police come to the door and they
6 look at us and I say, "Is that too loud?" and they say
7 "no" and they walk away because there's a mysterious
8 caller that complains about it.

9 Q When did you find out that you can't have beer and 10 wine and liquor and food in the unit?

11 A When did I find out?

12 Q Yes.

13 A I guess when this whole thing started. But it was a
14 bar a few years before me and a restaurant, I believe,
15 before that and just kind -- when I came in, my lawyer
16 looked at the paperwork and said we're good to go, let's
17 sign, and we bought the place. It was already operating 18 as a bar when I bought it.

19 Q You did have your own lawyer at the closing?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And you purchased from EMH Investments, LLC in '05;
22 is that correct?

23 A I'm sorry, my Unit B?

24 Q Yes.

25 A Yes.

1 Q And you own Units C and D also?

2 A No, only Unit B.

3 Q You rent C and D?

4 A I do.

5 Q And from whom do you rent C and D?

6 A Marsha Berry.

7 Q Marsha Berry. Did you discuss this issue with her
8 when you received my letter?

9 A I did.

10 Q So your testimony is the first time you found out
11 about the restriction was in '07 when you got my letter?

12 A Pretty much.

13 Q June of '07?

14 A Yes.

15 Q As you read the restrictions, do you feel like you're 16 in violation of the restrictions?

17 A I believe the violations are something that 18 happened -- that's been going on way too long. I don't
19 feel that I'm in violation.

20 Q Right now you don't feel you're in violation?

21 A I feel that I'm not going by the bylaws, but I feel
22 that that's something that should have been addressed a
23 long time ago before the business was bought ten years ago
24 and I don't hear anything about it and it was running
25 before that and they didn't hear anything about it.

1 Q Who is EHM Investments, do you know?

2 A I believe, if I'm not mistaken, that was Stonebruner
3 Properties. Or the person that bought it from Stonebruner
4 Properties, I bought it from them.

5 Q I think the deed chain will reflect that on 6 February 24th, Mr. Stonebruner deeded it to EMH,
7 Investments, LLC.

8 A February 24th of what year?

9 Q Of 2004.

10 A 2004. That sounds like about when I bought it from 11 him.

12 Q And were you operating at that time?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And you said you've been there ten years?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And then it was sold to you?

17 A Yes.

18 Q In '05?

19 A In '05 he wanted to sell. And actually the real
20 estate agent was a customer of mine and she said he wanted
21 to sell and would you like to buy it and I said yeah.

22 Q What did you pay for it?

23 A I want to say $69,000. I'm not positive on that
24 number, but that's what I want to say.

25 Q Did anybody tell you it was restricted to general

1 office?

2 A Unh-unh.

3 Q Would you have bought it had you known it was
4 restricted to general office?

5 A No. It was a shoe store. It was already going as 6 another business.

7 Q At that time?

8 A At that time.

9 Q Ten years ago?

10 A No, in '05. Before '05 it was a shoe store and then
11 it was vacant and that's when I got it and -- or no, I
12 sorry. I got it, rented it in '99. Before that it was a
13 shoe store.

14 Q So you rented it in '99, that's ten years, and it was 15 a shoe store before that?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And how did you come to -- you said you looked around
18 or is that some other testimony I'm confusing? How did
19 you come to open a tavern?

20 A I had been working in the restaurant business pretty
21 much since I was 18 years old and wanted to give it a shot
22 myself. A buddy of mine lived here in Columbia and they 23 wanted to get out, we wanted to get in, we made a deal.

24 Q So you began in '99 the restaurant and beer, or 25 95 percent beer, liquor and wine began in '99?

1 A Yes. The food sales, I believe, were a little higher
2 then.

3 Q And where did you start? Did you start in B or C and 4 D or --

5 A Started in C and D, expanded into B.

6 Q Okay. And when did you -- you started in C and D in 7 '99?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And how did you get --

10 A We rented B and I had an agreement with the landlord
11 at the time, who I cannot recall his name from C and D,
12 and from Stonebruner saying that if I took the wall out
13 for that to go with it, I would be responsible for 14 replacing that if anything ever happened to the business.

15 Q So you purchased -- you rented C and D and took the 16 wall out?

17 A I rented C and D and I rented B. And I talked with 18 both landlords saying that I wanted to take the wall out
19 to expand and I would be responsible for the cost of 20 replacing that wall.

21 Q Did you pursue in '99 or at any time the possibility
22 of getting the restrictions changed?

23 A No.

24 Q Why not?

25 A Because it was already a bar. I just figured that

1 was the way it was. And there was already a shoe store
2 and there was already a restaurant down there. There was
3 already a cell phone place there.

4 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you, sir. I have no
5 further questions.

6 THE COURT: Any redirect?

7 MR. BOGER: Very briefly.

8 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. BOGER:

10 Q Mr. Keeney, it was a bar when you bought it, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And what was the name of that bar?

13 A It was Dubbs. I believe, if I'm not mistaken, it was 14 on the Prairie Chicken Corporation, but it was Dubbs.

15 Q And before that, is that where the Duck In was?

16 A I'm not sure about that. That was before my time in 17 Columbia, but I believe that's where it was.

18 Q Okay.

19 A And I believe there was a Mexican place, if I'm not 20 mistaken, that was there also.

21 Q Was that called Rio Bandito?

22 A That's it.

23 Q So Rio Bandito, Dubbs, Duck In, and Tavern on the 24 Greene?

25 A Right.

1 Q A 15-year history?

2 A I would say.

3 MR. BOGER: Okay. That's all I have.

4 MR. SPILLANE: One other item, Your Honor, if
5 you can bear with me.

6 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

7 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

8 BY MR. SPILLANE:

9 Q Mr. Stonebruner owned B right up to the time he sold
10 to you? Either it was in his name or for one year as EHM
11 Investments?

12 A I believe that's the case, yes.

13 Q He owned it?

14 A Yes.

15 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: You may step down.

17 MR. BOGER: Your Honor, I'd call Marsha Berry.

18 MARSHA BERRY, after being duly sworn, testified
19 as follows:

20 THE COURT: Thank you. If you'd have a seat and 21 please state your full name.

22 THE WITNESS: Marsha Berry.

23 DIRECT EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. BOGER:

25 Q Ms. Berry, where do you live?

- 1 A Prosperity, South Carolina.
- 2 Q And you are the landlord or owner of B?
- 3 A No, sir.
- 4 Q Help me out.
- 5 A C and D. And it's actually my mother's now.
- 6 Q Okay. You owned C and D?
- 7 A Yes, sir.
- 8 Q And you and your mother have owned it for years?
- 9 A Yes, sir.
- 10 Q And that's where Tavern on the Greene -- that's your 11 tenant, he owns a third of it and you own two-thirds of 12 the space; is that correct?
- 13 A I own C and D and then he owns B.
- 14 Q So if Tavern on the Greene is B, C, and D --
- 15 A Yes, sir.
- 16 Q -- then you are the owner of two-thirds of that space
17 where Tavern is; is that correct?
- 18 A Correct.
- 19 Q And you as a landlord, did you know anything about 20 these restrictions until July of '07?
- 21 A No, sir. It was June, I think, wasn't it?
- 22 Q I'm sorry, June of '07.
- 23 A Okay. It was June. And we received the notice.
24 When it came in, then I called -- I called Landmark
25 Resource and speak to Michelle and that's when I asked

1 what did I need to do because I wasn't going to kick a man
2 out of a business he's been in for I thought over ten
3 years when they were telling me I had to get him out of 4 there in like almost 60 days. This man had been in 5 business forever. That just wasn't right. So I just 6 needed to know what I needed to do. And she said that she 7 didn't represent me, that she represented the board, and 8 that the best thing for me to do was get an attorney.

9 Q Okay. Would you be at some disadvantage or injury or 10 prejudiced by the closing of this?

11 A My mother would be.

12 What happened, my mother bought it from me
13 because it was actually to help her because she's very ill
14 and so I needed income for her in order to take care of 15 her.

16 Q So it would prejudice your mother greatly?

17 A Greatly.

18 Q Now, let's just talk about your mother. You take 19 care of her all the time now; is that right?

20 A Correct. In fact, my neighbor is tending to her
21 right now because the sitter who's normally there had a
22 funeral today and so I asked the neighbor, because she has 23 to have care.

24 Q Your mother does?

25 A Yes.

1 Q 24/7?

2 A Well, she's on a little Medi alert. So as long as
3 I'm at home, because I only live two doors down from her,
4 as long as I'm at home then she can be left during the 5 evening unless she's very, very ill and then I stay with 6 her. But during the day while I'm teaching, she -- I have 7 a sitter.

8 Q Okay. So you teach during the day?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q And take care of your mother at night?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Okay. And did you receive any notice because I think
13 that's what you mean, but let me just make sure, you
14 didn't know anything about this violating any restrictions
15 until June of '07; is that correct?

16 A I don't -- when the original closing of the deal,
17 when we were closing, I had an attorney and the attorney
18 then said there is a clause in here that they're not 19 supposed to be like bars and stuff and I looked at the 20 person I was buying it from -- and I apologize, I cannot 21 remember his name -- and I said, "Has this been a
22 problem?" and he looked at me and said, "Absolutely not."
23 He said, "This bar was there before I even bought it."
24 And I said "okay," and that's what happened.

25 Q And how many years ago would that have been?

1 A Gosh, I don't remember when it was purchased. I want
2 to think maybe '02. I'm really not sure. I'm really not
3 sure.

4 Q Okay. And so for at least five years before you got
5 notice that there was a problem, you didn't know of a
6 notice?

7 A Right. We never had anything -- no one ever said
8 that Jeff had to get out at all.

9 MR. BOGER: I don't have any further questions.

10 THE WITNESS: Can I say something? May I,
11 please?

12 BY MR. BOGER:

13 Q I'm sorry, I've got one more thing for you anyway, if
14 I can just come back.

15 You've also agreed to pay my bill; is that
16 right?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q And your part is about a thousand dollars. Does that 19 sound about right?

20 A I guess so, if that's what -- yes, sir.

21 Q And it's being split between you and Mr. Rodarte and 22 Mr. Keeney; is that right?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q It's about $3,000 total?

25 A Sounds right.

1 Q You're familiar with the fact that the homeowners
2 association documents say that you can only pay
3 Mr. Spillane's bill but they can't be made to pay mine?

4 A And that's one of the things I wanted to say.

5 Q Yes, ma'am. Go ahead and say it.

6 A It's the fact that we pay the regime -- you know, the 7 commercial units pay a larger portion of the regime fee to 8 my knowledge and so I don't understand. I mean, we're 9 paying to be sued. I mean, that's just what it is. We're
10 paying to be sued. And it's not right. That's number
11 one.

12 The number two thing about the amendment to the 13 little section, in the '07 meeting I was there, and if you
14 remember I said, "Why can't we get that changed? That 15 should be changed because these businesses have been 16 there." And I was told, "Well, you can't even get people
17 to come to these meetings and you have to have at least 18 75 percent." I mean, we were told that in that '07
19 meeting.

20 I wasn't able to make the 2008 meeting because 21 of my mother, I mean I just couldn't come, and I had been 22 to other meetings at the Clawson Inn, if you remember.

23 And I also said at the '07 meeting that if
24 someone would not be elected on the board that I would do
25 it except that I do live far away and I wouldn't be able

1 to meet all the time because I knew I couldn't.

2 Q Because you live in Prosperity and take care of your
3 mother?

4 A Well, I live in Prosperity, right, and there are just
5 times that I can't -- you know, with school, I might have
6 a meeting after school. I mean, there's just times I just 7 can't do that. And now I certainly can't do it because of 8 my mother.

9 Q Otherwise you would have volunteered to serve on the 10 board?

11 A Right.

12 MR. BOGER: I don't have anything else.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Best.

14 MR. BEST: No questions, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Spillane.

16 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. SPILLANE:

19 Q Ms. Berry, your mother is the landlord on C and D; is 20 that correct?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q But did you ever have an interest in C and D?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q How did you have an interest in C and D?

25 A I actually purchased it with a friend of mine and my

1 mother had like a third of it and it was all a real estate
2 type thing. I just read it in the paper, for sale by
3 owner, property at Place on the Greene, and at the time I
4 didn't even know it was a bar.

5 Q All right. Our chain of deed shows Berry Tart
6 Properties conveyed two-thirds to Eva Nell Berry.

7 Eva Nell Berry is your mom, correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Berry Tart Properties was your general partnership
10 with you and Ms. Tart; is that correct?

11 A Correct.

12 Q And that deed was in what year, do you remember?

13 A I don't.

14 Q September 26th of 2006; is that correct?

15 A When the original one or --

16 Q Your deed to your mom.

17 A Okay. That's probably right.

18 Q I believe I'm correct, your partnership deeded it to 19 your mom in 26 September of 2006.

20 A Okay.

21 Q All right. Now, you mentioned a complaint you made
22 in the '07 meeting.

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q And I didn't hear what that complaint was about.

25 A All I said is, why didn't we make -- why didn't we

1 change the master deed in order so that these businesses
2 could stay in business.

3 Q So what businesses could stay in business?

4 A The restaurants, the bars, the places like that.

5 Q So that's the 2007 meeting after my --

6 A Notice.

7 Q -- my notice letter, my statement letter?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q Okay. Now I understand.

10 If you had deeded your interest to your mother
11 in September of 2006, how did you become involved in the 12 2007 owners meeting?

13 A I take care of my mother's business. My mother
14 doesn't probably even have a clue that she's -- has that 15 business. I mean, I did everything in order to get funds
16 for my mother to take care of her.

17 I'm not understanding your question, I'm 18 assuming.

19 Q All right. It seems you were not an owner in 2007
20 but you attended the owners meeting?

21 A My mother surely couldn't.

22 Q Excuse me?

23 A My mother couldn't, so yes, sir, I did.

24 Q That's all I need to understand. Thank you.

25 The deed to Berry Tart Properties according to

1 the official records was December of 2002. Would that be
2 about right?

3 A Yes, sir, that sounds right.

4 Q From Robert A. Alexander?

5 A That's it.

6 Q Do you know who he was?

7 A That's who I bought the piece of property from. I
8 just could not remember his name, but it was Alexander.

9 Q And you had an attorney?

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q And the attorney told you you can't have bars?

12 A Well, that was pretty much after the fact, yes. It
13 was after the fact. You know, I mean, we had already 14 signed papers, everything was already done, and she was 15 giving me the master deed and just said, you know, "In 16 this master deed I just want to let you know this is 17 stated." And I said, "Do you think it's going to be a
18 problem?" And she's, you know, like, "Well, this bar's
19 been here forever," you know. And I looked at -- I want
20 to call him Bobby -- I think his name was Bobby Alexander
21 now -- and I said, "Have you ever had a problem with it?"
22 And he said "no." And I don't know how long he had owned
23 it.

24 Q Well, the deed, the deeds are public record and the 25 Court has them and won't go further back because I think C

1 and D, you've heard testimony C and D were the only ones
2 that originally were sold by the developers, sold to the 3 public and was a hair salon.

4 But the attorney didn't tell you that it
5 wouldn't be a problem, did he?

6 A She.

7 Q She.

8 A She didn't say that it would and she didn't say that
9 it would not. She said she just would -- she pretty much
10 made me think that it probably wouldn't be since it had 11 been there so long. Of course, I wouldn't have thought it
12 either. To me, Tavern on the Greene is a landmark of Five 13 Points.

14 Q And it was operated as Tavern on the Greene when you
15 purchased it --

16 A Purchased it, yes, sir.

17 Q -- in your general partnership?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q And it was operated as Tavern on the Greene when 20 Mr. Alexander had it?

21 A To my knowledge, yes, sir, it was.

22 Q Well, that's when you purchased?

23 A Right.

24 Q You mentioned the original closing with the attorney,
25 talking to Mr. Boger. What did you mean by the original

1 closing? Were there two or three?

2 A Well, I had the closing when it was -- when myself
3 and Lisa purchased it and then I had the closing when I
4 purchased it for my mother, when it was swapped over.

5 Q You did get a copy of the master deed when you and
6 Lisa purchased it as a partnership, right?

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q All right. Who handled the closing when you deeded
9 two-thirds interest to -- the partnership deeded
10 two-thirds interest to your mother?

11 A The same attorney.

12 Q The same attorney?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q Okay. And you live in Prosperity?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q Would you like to have a Tavern on the Greene on the 17 first floor of your residence?

18 A It wouldn't bother me due to the fact that I would 19 have, you know, I've already known that it was there. I
20 mean, so many of these people have moved in after the 21 fact. After Tavern on the Greene and The Blue Cactus and 22 all these other places, they've moved in after the fact.
23 And most of them have purchased it for an investment, you
24 know, just like I did and just like I've turned it over
25 for my mother to have an investment. I mean, if I ever

1 thought any of this was going to come up, I certainly
2 would never have done that for my mother, never.

3 Q All of this surprised you, didn't it?

4 A Absolutely.

5 Q It's a mess?

6 A Well, it is a mess, and it's ridiculous. I mean,
7 you're getting ready to put people out of business that 8 have been there, that have been there longer than the 9 tenants. It's just not right. And that's what I said
10 from the get-go, it's just not right.

11 Q Have been there longer than what tenants?

12 A Than so many of the tenants that are causing the
13 problem.

14 Q Are you talking about the residential owners or --

15 A Correct.

16 Q The residential owners?

17 A Correct.

18 Q Not the commercial tenants?

19 A Not the commercial tenants.

20 Q Do the commercial tenants cause any problems?

21 A Well, I haven't heard of any of them yet.

22 Q And the residential tenants, what problems do they 23 cause?

24 A At the '07 meeting with the security, it was not 25 about -- the security was not the problem of the bar or

1 the restaurants. The security problem was coming in with
2 the tenants coming into the door and allowing other people
3 behind them to come in also. That was a problem. They
4 were trying to come up with like a pass card and things
5 like that, but they just really wanted to inform the 6 tenants not to allow the other people to come in. But it
7 wasn't the bars and it wasn't the restaurants. And I was 8 at that '07 annual meeting.

9 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you. No further questions.

10 THE COURT: Any redirect?

11 MR. BOGER: No, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: You may step down.

13 MR. BOGER: Your Honor, I have one more witness
14 and he will be hopefully as brief as Ms. Berry.

15 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

16 MR. BOGER: Is it okay?

17 THE COURT: If he's quick.

18 MR. BOGER: Yes, ma'am.

19 DAVID RODARTE, after being duly sworn, testified
20 as follows:

21 THE COURT: Thank you. If you'd have a seat and
22 please tell me your name.

23 THE WITNESS: David Rodarte, R-O-D-A-R-T-E.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 DIRECT EXAMINATION

1 BY MR. BOGER:

2 Q Mr. Rodarte, you live here in Columbia also?

3 A Yes, sir, I do.

4 Q And you are the owner of the space where Blue Cactus
5 operates?

6 A Actually I'm a managing partner of W.G.R.Q., LLC, and
7 we own F, G, and H.

8 Q And G and H is where The Blue Cactus is?

9 A The Blue Cactus, that's correct.

10 Q And F is where there's now a tobacco shop?

11 A They just put a tobacco -- it's like a little 12 convenience store that sells cigars, cigarettes, soft
13 drinks. No alcohol.

14 Q And that recently opened?

15 A Just did, March 1st.

16 Q And that has heavy foot traffic; is that correct?

17 A Oh, yes.

18 Q The Blue Cactus, you bought that space, you bought
19 all three of those spaces in '05?

20 A '02.

21 Q And you bought it from whom?

22 A Beau Powell.

23 Q Beau Powell, the infamous --

24 A The developer.

25 Q And did he tell you that there was any problem with

1 the restrictions at that time?

2 A It never came up. I became aware of it when we got
3 served by Mr. Spillane. I read it and I talked to my
4 partners and I said, "Look at this," and so we got a copy
5 of the deed and it was there.

6 And we bought a lot of property from Mr. Powell.
7 And so when we bought it, we bought places by the center,
8 we bought some units from the kiddie condos we called 9 them, a couple of houses on campus, a six-plex on campus,
10 two office buildings.

11 He was doing an exchange, so we cut a deal as an 12 investment. I have two partners and we bought a lot of 13 real estate from him as an investment. It was designed to 14 help us retire one day.

15 And so we didn't look at every deed. We just 16 knew that both -- Sub Pub was there. He showed me the 17 contracts. They had about three more years left on their 18 contract. He showed me the contract for Blue Cactus.

19 And he works different than I do. I'm an 20 engineer and I'm very -- actually I'm a very detailed 21 person. His contract was just like, he didn't do new 22 contracts, he just kind of changed the date and initialed
23 them, and so I knew that Blue Cactus had been there a long
24 time. And I met Lloyd and we're looking for businesses
25 that could sustain themselves, that would be there for us

1 in the future so we could generate monthly retirement
2 income, and that's why we bought them.

3 We sold the kiddie condos upstairs because we
4 thought that the building was run down. The carpets were 5 nasty. It just wasn't the kind of place that I wanted to 6 even rent, much less own. So we sold those. We just 7 fixed them up and flipped them.

8 Q You sold them?

9 A We just kept the commercials. We thought that was 10 the best property then that was there.

11 Q And if this were shut down, would you be injured or 12 prejudiced or disadvantaged?

13 A Severely. Severely. We spent -- we paid a lot of 14 money for what we bought.

15 Q And it produces income for you and your partners?

16 A Correct. Right now it's just covering the debt
17 service.

18 Q Paying the bank?

19 A Paying the bank.

20 Q Did -- until June of 2007, did you know anything? I
21 think you answered, but did you know that this was a
22 problem?

23 A I had no idea.

24 Q And you knew The Blue Cactus had been there for some 25 ten years before you --

1 A Ten years before. Yeah, when we bought it in 2002,
2 about seven years.

3 And so I got to know Lloyd. I'm a military guy
4 myself and realized he was retired and he's a good hard
5 working man, I can tell you that. He's got a good
6 business.

7 Q In fact, you went to West Point?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And finished in what year?

10 A 1974.

11 Q And you also have agreed between you, Ms. Berry and 12 Mr. Keeney to pay my bill; is that right?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q And it's a thousand dollars per person, about three 15 thousand dollars total?

16 A It's very fair.

17 Q And you know that the restrictions say that you have
18 to pay Mr. Spillane's bill but they can't be made to pay
19 mine. How do you feel about that?

20 A I know I brought that up to you initially.

21 I was going to hold off, hold from paying my
22 regime fees for that main reason because I didn't think it
23 was fair that I was paying money to sue myself and I was 24 going to hold them in escrow, and you told me not to, so I
25 paid them.

1 Q Against your better judgment I made you pay your
2 fees?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Made you pay your regime fees.

5 And do you know that the commercial units pay a
6 little more in regime fees than the residents do?

7 A You know, I look at them -- I just -- I look at the 8 expenses and, you know, you've just got to pay what they 9 tell you to pay. I think they're -- I don't know what the 10 other people pay, to be honest with you.

11 MR. BOGER: I don't have any other questions.
12 Answer any questions by Mr. Spillane.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Best, any questions?

14 MR. BEST: Your Honor, no questions.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Spillane.

16 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. SPILLANE:

19 Q Mr. Rodarte, is that the correct pronunciation?

20 A Rodarte, yes, sir.

21 Q W.G.R.Q. Units F, G, and H, that has a convenience
22 store in it now?

23 A Well, he calls it Five Points Tobacco. He's got fine
24 cigars, a humidor, he sells cigarettes, soft drinks. It's 25 like -- I consider it like a little convenience store

1 basically. He's got toilet paper, toothpaste.

2 Q Milk and cheese and stuff?

3 A I don't think he's -- no, I don't think he's got any
4 milk or cheese. It's strictly soft drinks and items that
5 don't spoil.

6 Q You purchased directly from Mr. Powell I think the 7 record reflects on May 24th, 2002; is that about right?

8 A I knew it was 2002.

9 Q And you said he was doing an exchange.

10 A He was tired of managing a lot of properties.

11 When you're -- I own a lot of real estate as an 12 investor and it's a little bit of a headache when you've 13 got a lot of properties, a lot of calls, and he had been
14 doing it for a long time and he was tired of it himself.
15 So he was trying to sell a lot of property at one time to 16 do a 1035 exchange so he wouldn't have to pay taxes and he 17 was going to buy a Walgreen's and clip coupons, as the 18 term goes, just get a check for 20 years from Walgreen's.

19 Q He was going to do what about Walgreen's?

20 A He bought a Walgreen's is my understanding and 21 just -- about a 20-year lease, so he was -- we feel we got 22 a fair price because we bought a lot of stuff that we 23 didn't want, but we bought stuff we wanted as well, but it
24 was his way of getting to roll over all the money without 25 paying taxes. Very legal.

1 Q And who was fixing up and flipping? Is that you?

2 A No, I don't flip. I try to hold. I buy and hold. I
3 buy rental properties.

4 We fixed up three kiddie condos, the small units
5 upstairs. We had -- I don't know which units they were.
6 We just -- when you looked at the condition of the 7 hallways, we just didn't want to be associated with that,
8 with the housing portion of it. So we fixed them up and 9 we just sold them just to get them out of our inventory.

10 Q Your deed does reflect you bought the different
11 parcels and it says in your deed, "To have and to hold 12 subject to easements and restrictions of record."

13 Did Mr. Powell tell you about restrictions?

14 A No.

15 Q Did your attorney tell you about restrictions?

16 A No.

17 Q Did you have your own attorney?

18 A Yes, we did.

19 Q And he showed you the Sub Pub and a lease that went a 20 couple of more years, the same as Blue Cactus; is that
21 correct?

22 A Correct.

23 Q Is that how he marketed it to you and sold it to you?

24 A No. We were aware that he was trying to sell a 25 couple of million dollars worth of real estate and you had

1 to buy all. You couldn't buy it piecemeal, you had to buy
2 everything he wanted to sell because it was an exchange.
3 So we bought a lot of stuff we didn't want to buy the 4 stuff we did want. It was just a mass purchase.

5 Q It was a package deal?

6 A A package deal. Take it or leave it.

7 Q Did you get a copy of the master deed from your
8 attorney at the time?

9 A I don't recall.

10 Q Like with Ms. Berry, the issue of the restrictions
11 being a problem never came up?

12 A No, sir.

13 Q Were you surprised by my letter and suit?

14 A Very much so.

15 Q And this is mess as Ms. Berry said; is that right?

16 A You know, I'll survive. I'm more concerned about my 17 tenants, Lloyd's family, my new tenant now that's going
18 into business, so I think it's unjust.

19 Q It's unjust to enforce the restrictions?

20 A To enforce them 20 years after the fact.

21 Q Have you ever talked to Mr. Powell since my letter,
22 my letter from June of '07 for the suit?

23 A I have not seen Mr. Powell since we closed. I
24 wouldn't even recognize him.

25 Q Oh, you didn't know him before?

1 A No, sir.

2 Q How did you get in contact with him?

3 A I think one of my investment partners, he's a real
4 estate broker, and I think he was aware of it, heard it
5 through the real estate network, I guess.

6 Q And who is that?

7 A Bud Kenny.

8 MR. SPILLANE: I have no further questions.

9 Thank you.

10 MR. BOGER: Nothing further from the defense,
11 Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: You may step down.

13 Anything further from the defendants?

14 MR. BOGER: None from Berry, W.G.R.Q., or 15 Mr. Keeney, Your Honor.

16 MR. BEST: And none from Easy Coin Laundry, Your
17 Honor.

18 THE COURT: Any rebuttal from the plaintiff?

19 MR. SPILLANE: No, Your Honor, I have no
20 rebuttal witnesses.

21 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 MR. SPILLANE: We would like -- I assume we're
23 going to do a closing?

24 THE COURT: What I would like to do in lieu of 25 closing is to ask you all to prepare proposed orders that

1 would incorporate the information that you would place in
2 the closing.

3 And in particular, I've heard the testimony. I
4 am particularly interested in the law that you all would
5 plan to cite to me. And so in lieu of those arguments, I
6 would ask that you prepare proposed orders, if that's 7 acceptable.

8 MR. SPILLANE: I had planned for a brief closing
9 besides going into the law because the defenses are 10 law-specific theories.

11 THE COURT: I think you can.

12 MR. SPILLANE: But if I can be broad in the 13 order.

14 THE COURT: You can certainly be broad in the 15 order and you can incorporate all of those arguments as 16 well as the appropriate findings of fact and conclusions
17 of law. And I will ask that you submit them to me in 18 electronic format.

19 MR. BEST: Which electronic format, Your Honor,
20 PDF?

21 THE COURT: No. Word format.

22 You can e-mail it to me or you can give it to me
23 on disc or flash drive.

24 The address is ALeeLC@sccourts.org. And if you
25 can -- and I will even give you the opportunity to respond

1 to the other side's order. If you can send me your order
2 by, let's say, Monday, April 20th, with any response by
3 the 27th, and I will review them at that particular
4 time, if that's acceptable.

5 MR. BEST: That's acceptable.

6 MR. SPILLANE: The dates are acceptable, but
7 you're not going to allow any closing; is that correct?

8 THE COURT: I would prefer if you would
9 incorporate it in that argument.

10 MR. SPILLANE: All right.

11 THE COURT: And that way -- I will -- trust me,
12 I will read everything you provide to me. So you can make 13 your arguments as short or as long as you'd like. I will 14 review all of the information that you give to me as well
15 as review all of the exhibits because I've not had a 16 chance to do that. And then that way I can dissect it and 17 consider it and cut and paste it as I think would be 18 appropriate based upon the arguments and the law and the 19 evidence.

20 MR. SPILLANE: One question.

21 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 MR. SPILLANE: With respect to attorney's fees,
23 the figures will be updated given certain bills can be 24 submitted. Where would that come in? On a separate
25 hearing later or --

1 THE COURT: Depending on what the ruling is.

2 I guess after you've prepared your order, you
3 can do an affidavit on attorney's fees and submit it and 4 I'll consider it. And that's for both sides. If you'll
5 submit your affidavits --

6 MR. BEST: Well, Your Honor, it's how Your Honor
7 wants to treat it, but for the record, we would object.
8 Mr. Spillane hasn't put up anything other than his fee and 9 there's no evidence in the record and we've totally shut
10 down the case.

11 Now, Mr. Boger and I -- and the trial's not
12 bifurcated. So I would be willing to make that statement
13 if you wish to rule on it now, certainly we can update
14 things later on, but that would be -- other than the bare
15 statement that the association has agreed to pay it, he's 16 had no -- not a penny's put in as far as the amount.

17 MR. SPILLANE: Your Honor, I think Ms. Greiner
18 testified as to her latest review of the latest -- of the 19 invoice for five thousand something. She wasn't --

20 THE COURT: It was between five thousand and six
21 thousand dollars.

22 MR. BEST: I only heard her say they agreed on a
23 cap.

24 THE COURT: I have written down in my notes,
25 legal fees, I wrote down between five thousand and six

1 thousand dollars.

2 MR. BEST: Then I'm corrected on my memory of
3 the evidence, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. She may have testified
5 to a more specific figure, that I did not catch the 6 specific figure, but I remember the cap was, I think, six
7 I think is what it was.

8 MR. BOGER: That's fine, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Anything further?

10 MR. SPILLANE: I don't remember the cap. I've 11 talked to the clients before that, I think probably in the 12 board meeting. I didn't object when she mentioned the 13 cap. I asked her about it at lunch.

14 THE COURT: I think her testimony was that they
15 had proposed a cap. I don't -- but I'll go based upon
16 what's contained in my notes and, if I need to, my law
17 clerk's notes. And if you all can recall specific
18 testimony differently, if I need to check that, then I
19 guess I'll find a way to do that.

20 MR. SPILLANE: Well, let me get the dates.

21 You want the order by Monday, April 20th, the 22 response by -- we're to send it to the other party?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MR. SPILLANE: Response by the 27th?

25 THE COURT: It gets sent to me on the 20th as

1 well as to opposing counsel. Any response will be on the
2 27th. And at the time of the 27th, you need to provide me
3 your affidavit for attorney's fees. Because at that
4 particular point I will cut off any further legal work
5 subject to anything that may come up after that point.

6 MR. SPILLANE: And the response, does it also go
7 to the other party?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: And you need not reply to their 11 response. Because I assume that you would not agree with 12 it and so there's no need to hear another argument.

13 MR. BEST: Your Honor, before we pack up, I know
14 the bailiff is making sure we've got all the exhibits.

15 THE COURT: Yes. Please let's make sure all the 16 exhibits are here before anybody walks off. I have two of 17 them in my hand.

18 MR. SPILLANE: There is one other item, Your
19 Honor.

20 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21 MR. SPILLANE: There was a motion that I'm not
22 sure you ruled on it.

23 Are you denying Mr. Best's motion?

24 MR. BEST: Actually I withdrew it, I think.

25 MR. SPILLANE: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: All right. And I'm sure that the
2 defendants will provide me particular information about
3 their request for attorney's fees as well.

4 Since you made that argument through the
5 testimony of your witnesses, I assume that you will
6 provide me ample information about that as well.

7 MR. BOGER: We will.

8 THE COURT: As well as all the other issues. I
9 just want to make sure that there's case law or something,
10 some equitable argument that can be supported, if that's 11 what you're requesting.

12 Anything else?

13 Hearing nothing --

14 MR. SPILLANE: You're reading that clause
15 different than I, but I will --

16 THE COURT: And I understand. And I'm not --
17 and please don't assume that I'm making any decisions
18 because I'm asking for specific information. I just want
19 to make sure that it's not going to be an argument that 20 will not be supported by some statutory or case law
21 authority.

22 MR. SPILLANE: There are.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And I just want to make sure
24 that -- sometimes people assume that judges know a whole
25 lot more than what they know, and I like all the arguments

1 to be amply supported and include every argument that you
2 want to make so that I have all the information that I
3 have to consider what's been done, what's being asked.

4 Thank you.

Plaintiff's Exhibit 1:
The Master Deed
(Excerpts)

(4) occupants; (d) the rights of any lessee or sublessee of any unit shall be bound by the covenants, conditions, and restrictions set forth in the Master Deed, By-Laws, Articles of Incorporation and any Rules and Regulations adopted by the Association; (e) a unit owner is not relieved of his primary obligation to pay assessments to the Association.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Article shall not apply to a holder of a first mortgagee who is in possession of a unit following a default in such mortgage, a foreclosure proceeding or deed in lieu of foreclosure.

Section 3. Condominium Commercial Unit. Each condominium commercial unit is hereby restricted to general office space and limited service establishments by the owner thereof and his agents, servants, invitees, licensees and patrons. The use shall comply with all ordinances and zoning regulations promulgated by the City of Columbia and the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Directors. The Rules and Regulations, among other things, however, shall provide that no restaurant or establishment engaged in the preparation or delivery of food, no pool hall, game room, bar, lounge, or retail shop that relies on a volume of walk-in patrons shall be permitted. Neither the owner nor his agents, servants, invitees, licensees, and patrons shall use the unit either on a temporary or permanent basis as a sleeping accommodation. Except as reserved to Grantor, no condominium commercial unit shall be divided or subdivided into smaller units nor any portion sold or otherwise transferred. This paragraph shall not prohibit a condominium commercial unit owner from leasing his unit; however, said leasing shall be in accordance with Article X, Section 2. Each condominium commercial unit may be entitled to have an entrance way directly onto Greene Street if the plans are approved by the Board of Directors. The construction of the entrance way shall also be subject to the zoning laws and other laws of the City of Columbia. The cost of the construction of the entranceway shall be borne exclusively by the owner of the condominium commercial unit desiring the entranceway.

Section 4. Common Elements. The Common Elements shall be used only for the purposes for which they are intended in the furnishing of services and facilities for the enjoyment of the units.

Section 5. Lawful Use. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of any unit or of the common elements, nor any part thereof, and all laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction of the Condominium shall be observed. No owner of any unit shall permit anything to be done or kept in a unit, or on the common elements which will increase the rate of insurance on the Condominium.

Section 6. Insurance. No owner shall permit any use of his unit or make any use of the Common Elements that will increase the cost of insurance upon the condominium project.

Section 7. Nuisances. No use or practice which is either an annoyance, obstruction or interference with the peaceful possession and proper use of the condominium by the unit owners shall be allowed. All parts of the condominium shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and no rubbish, refuse or garbage shall be allowed to accumulate or any fire hazard allowed to exist. No nuisance shall be allowed upon the condominium property.

Section 8. Employees. No employees, customers, or patrons of a condominium commercial unit shall be allowed to use the Common Elements reserved exclusively for use by the owners of residential condominium units.

default by the owner or owners of any unit shall entitle Association or the owner or owners of other unit or units to the following relief:

Section 1. Failure to Comply with Master Deed, Etc. Failure to comply with any of the terms of this Master Deed or other restrictions and regulations contained in the Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws of Association, or its rules and regulations, shall be grounds for relief which may include without intending to limit the same, an action to recover sums due for damages, injunctive relief, foreclosure of lien or any combination thereof and which relief may be sought by Association or, if appropriate, by an aggrieved owner of a unit against the Association or the owner of another unit.

Section 2. Liability for Negligence. The owner or owners of each unit shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his act, neglect or carelessness, or by that of any member of his family, or his or their guests, employees, agents or leasees, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by Association. Such liability shall include any increase in fire insurance rates occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of a unit or its appurtenances. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed so as to modify any waiver by insurance companies of rights of subrogation.

Section 3. Costs. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by the owner of any unit, the Association, if successful, shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceedings, and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be determined by the Court, but in no event shall the owner of any unit be entitled to such attorney's fees.

Section 4. No Waiver by Association. The failure of Association or of the owner of a unit to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by this Master Deed or other above mentioned documents shall not constitute a waiver of the right of Association or of the owner of a unit to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition in the future.

Section 5. Rights to be Cumulative. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to Association or the owner or owners of a unit pursuant to any terms, provisions, covenants or conditions of this Master Deed or other above mentioned documents, shall be deemed to be cumulative and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies nor shall it preclude the party thus exercising the same from exercising such other and additional rights, remedies or privileges as may be available to such party as in law or in equity.

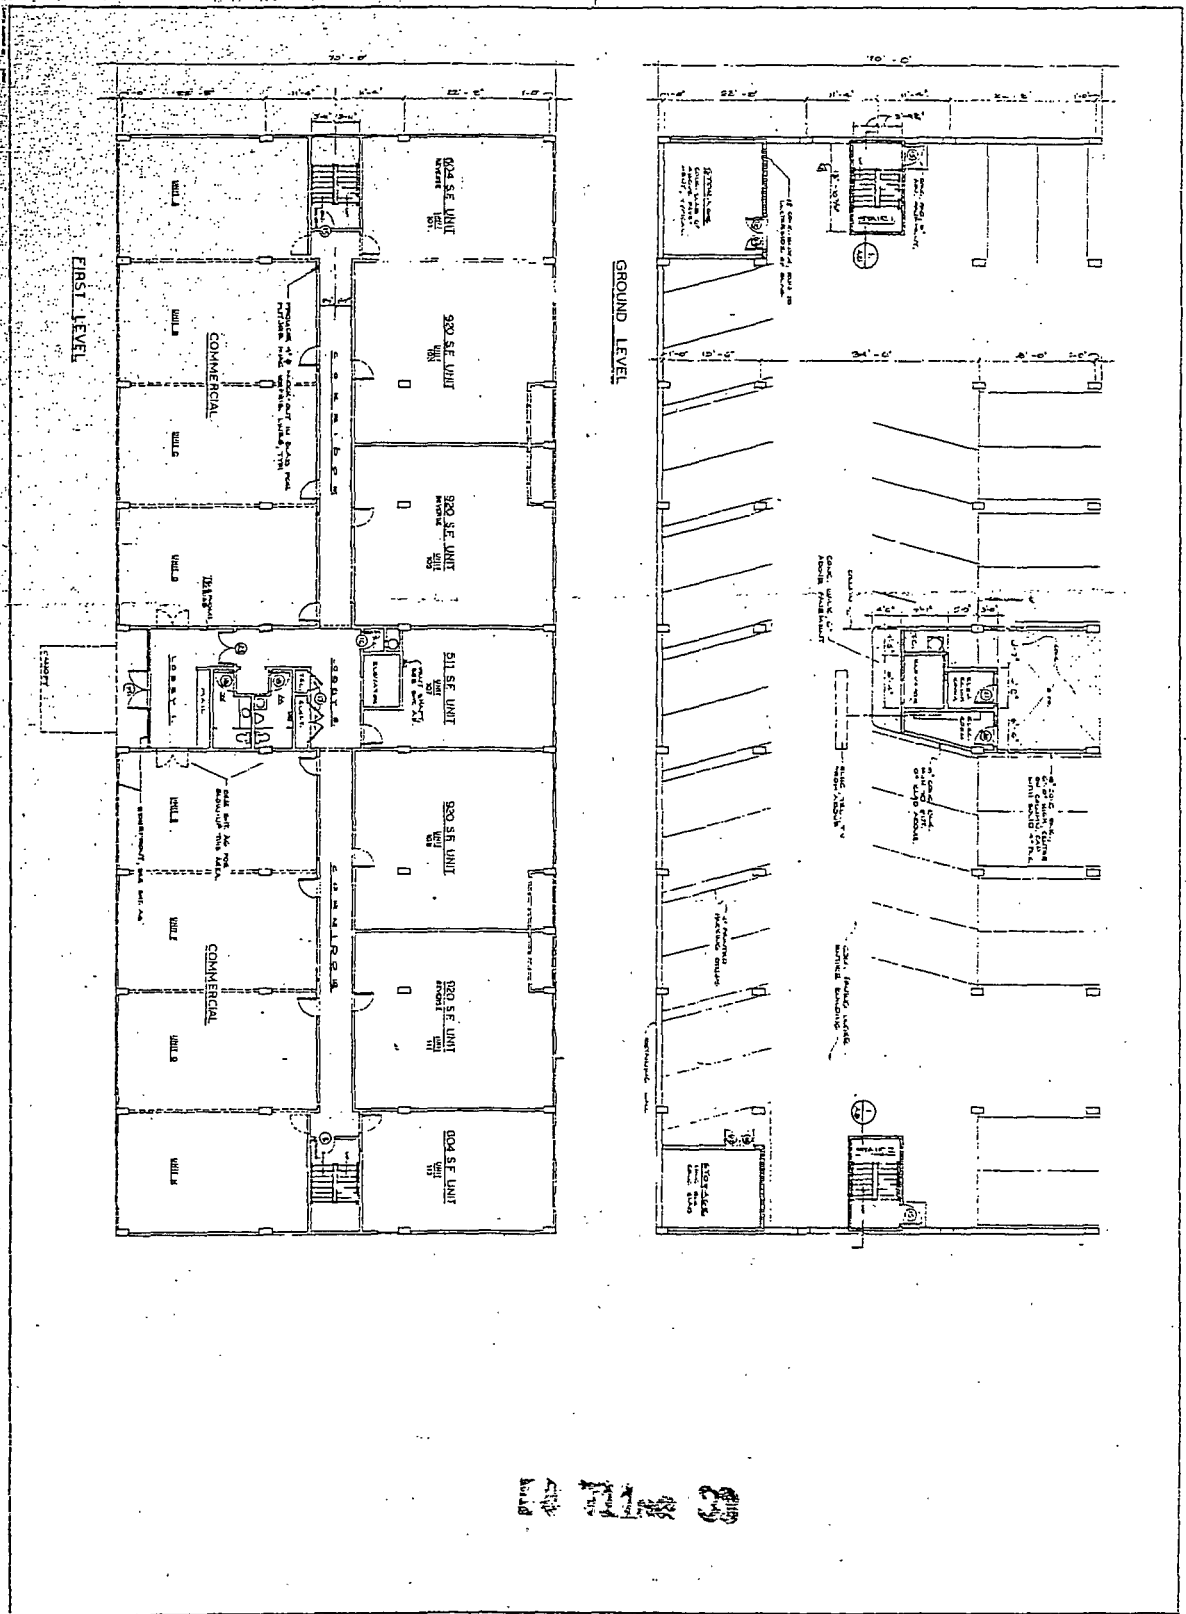

Section 6. No Waiver by Grantor or Lender. The failure of the Grantor herein or the lender to enforce any right, privilege, covenant or condition which may be granted to them, or either of them, by this Master Deed or other above mentioned document shall not constitute waiver of the right of either of said parties to thereafter enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition in the future.

Dear Place On The Greene Owner:

In accordance with the By-Laws of Place On The Greene Horizontal Property Regime, notice is hereby given for the holding of a Special Homeowners Meeting for the purpose of voting on a proposed Master Deed Amendment. This meeting will be held by absentee ballot. (Ballot enclosed). For recording purposes the meeting will be held on Friday, December 27, 1985.

The proposed Master Deed amendment involves Article X, Section 3, which now reads:

Condominium Commercial Unit. Each condominium commercial unit is hereby restricted to general office space and limited service establishments by the owner of thereof and his agents, servants, invitees, licensees and patrons. The use shall comply with all ordinances and zoning regulations promulgated by the City of Columbia and the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Directors. The Rules and Regulations, among other things, however, shall provide that no restaurant or establishment engaged in the preparation or delivery of food, no pool hall, game room, bar, lounge, or retail shop that relies on a volume of walk-in patrons shall be permitted. Neither the owner nor his agents, servants, invitees, licensees, and patrons shall use the unit either on a temporary or permanent basis as a sleeping accomodation. Except as reserved to Grantor, no condominium commercial unit shall be divided or subdivided into smaller units nor any portion sold or otherwise transferred. This paragraph shall not prohibit a condominium commercial unit owner from leasing his unit; however, said leasing shall be in accordance with Article X, Section 2. Each condominium commercial unit may be entitled to have an entrance way directly onto Greene Street if the plans are approved by the Board of Directors. The construction of the entrance way shall also be subject to the zoning laws and other laws of the City of Columbia. The cost of the construction of the entranceway shall be borne exclusively by the owner of the condominium commercial unit desiring the entranceway.

The amended version would then read:

Condominium Commercial Unit. Each condominium commercial unit is hereby restricted to general office space and limited service establishments by the owner of thereof and his agents, servants, invitees, licensees and patrons. The use shall comply with all ordinances and zoning regulations promulgated by the City of Columbia and the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Directors. The use of a commercial space shall be at the discretion of the Board of Directors regarding type of business.

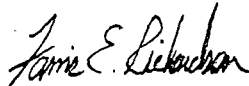

Any proposed businesses must first be approved by the Board of Directors as to type of operation. Neither the owner nor his agents, servants, invitees, licensees and patrons shall use the unit either on a temporary or permanent basis as a sleeping accomodation. Except as reserved to Grantor, no condominium commercial unit shall be divided or subdivided into smaller units nor any portion sold or otherwise transferred. This paragraph shall not prohibit a condominium commercial unit owner from leasing his unit; however, said leasing shall be in accordance with Article X, Section 2. Each condominium commercial unit may be entitled to have an entrance way directly onto Greene Street if the plans are approved by the Board of Directors. The construction of the entrance way shall also be subject to the zoning laws and other laws of the City of Columbia. The cost of the construction of the entranceway shall be borne exclusively by the owner of the condominium commercial unit desiring the entranceway.

This amendment has been proposed to allow the Board of Directors to use their discretion in approving businesses for the commercial space. It is intended to protect you as a homeowner from any business operations that would not be in your best interest.

You will find enclosed with this letter a ballot for voting purposes. Please complete the information and return it as soon as possible. The ballot is addressed and stamped for your convenience.

The Board of Directors thanks you in advance for your cooperation. If you should have any questions, please contact me at (803) 254-2300.

Sincerely,

Farris E. Richardson
Property Manager

Meeting Minutes

Place on the Greene Annual Homeowners' Meeting - March 21, 1991

Board Members Present: Laura Nichols, Beau Powell, Joe Rosen, and Vicki Wingate. Absent: Carolyn Stewart.

Call to Order and Roll Call: The meeting was called to order by Laura Nichols, President. Deane Chavous, Property Manager, announced proxies and members present accounted for 60% of total ownership interest.

Proof and Notice of Meeting: The secretary provided these.

Reading of Last Year's Minutes: This was waived upon a motion/seconding to accept them as written.

Reports of Officers:

Vicki Wingate, Treasurer, gave a brief report of the financial status at December 31, 1990. Income was above budget and expenses were less than budgeted, with $5775 placed into the reserve. The annual audit by an independent CPA firm is forthcoming. Vicki Wingate and Laura Nichols, President, discussed the status of delinquencies. Through February 1991, these amounted to $5160, of which $3300 has been delinquent for over a year. These are three units owned by a partnership; liens are attached.

Laura Nichols also discussed capital expenditures the board has considered in the past year and their status. All windows have been caulked and no recent water damages have been identified. The roof needs to be painted, but the board has decided to hold off due to it being purely cosmetic. On another matter, bids are forthcoming on re-directing the HVAC drainage piping in the garage, whose run-off is unsightly and a health hazard. In the past year, the wallpaper in the lobby was replaced, and the elevator interior is soon to be upgraded with new formica. In the garage, the elevator entrance has been improved with a concrete ramp, paint, and the removal of HVAC compressor which partially blocked the entrance.

Laura Nichols and Deane Chavous discussed the amount of vandalism has decreased. A security guard is shared with Plaza Centre on big USC weekends, and the three video cameras have been a deterrent. A reward has been offered in the quarterly newsletter for information regarding such acts.

Old Business:

Joe Rosen reported on the successful outcome of the tax appeal he coordinated for 38 of the 63 residential owners. For example, a large 2-bedroom, 2-bath unit's tax bill was lowered 12%.

New Business:

Beau Powell addressed the vacancy problems of the commercial units due to the restrictions as stated in the Master Deed. Restaurants, which are prohibited, have worked well in other similar buildings. He offered the motion to amend the by-laws to allow the board at its discretion to allow other uses. Due to there being less than 75% present, the motion will go to the homeowners in a special election. The additional caveat was made there would not be beer or wine sold without food consumption.

Election of Board:

The following slate of officers was elected by majority: Laura Nichols, Beau Powell, Joe Rosen, John Price, and Grady Jordan.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Vicki Wingate

Prices are also requested to fill pot holes in the open parking lot.

Annual Meeting
March 24, 1995

The Place on the Greene Homeowners association held their annual meeting on Friday, March 24, 1995 at 7 p.m. at Bo-D's Restaurant, located in the building.

Roll Call - Verification of Quorum: President Laura Nichols called the meeting to order at 7:10 p.m. Seven homeowners were present. A quorum of 51% was represented by proxy.

Proof of Notice of Meeting: Deane Chavous verified that all members were sent notices of the annual meeting in accordance to the Master Deed.

Reading of Minutes of Proceeding Annual Meeting: A motion was made, seconded and passed to waive the reading of the minutes. All homeowners were mailed a copy of the 1994 Annual Homeowners meeting minutes.

Reports of officers and committees: President Laura Nichols gave the following up-date:

1994 Annual Meeting Follow up

1. Doors have been relocated to allow access to restrooms and not the building by patrons of commercial units. Commercial owners and tenants have been notified that they will be responsible for maintaining the restrooms.
2. Security- We now have a Richland County police officer on duty Fridays and Saturdays from 10 pm until 3 am. To reduce costs, this officer also patrols Plaza Centre. We get better service than we have had with security companies.
3. Notices were sent out offering replacement of plastic icemaker lines for $18.00 and service of HVAC systems for $20.00. Approximately 40 owners took advantage of these reduced rates.
4. The wallpaper and border has been replaced in the lobby.

DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT

5. The smoke detectors originally installed were electric. Some owners have replaced defective detectors with battery operated ones. It is up to the individual owner or management company to maintain the detectors.

Reports

Financial: Income budgeted for 1994 was $66,598, collected $68,932 for an overage of $2,334. This is due to prepayment of fees. Expenses budgeted for 1994 was $63,263. Actual expenses totalled $63,808 for an overage of $545. Water- sewer rates increased 12% and electricity rates increased 7%. We were able to offset this by reducing trash removal cost by $1,268. We are now lease purchasing the trash compactor. In three years we will own the equipment and can further reduce the expense in this category.

Reserves: We made a contribution of $2,333 to reserves in 1994. At the end of 1994 we had $2,279 in a money market account and $4994 in a certificate of deposit.
