Re: Kevin E. Herriott v. State
Appellate Case No. 2018-001966

Dear Mr. Herriott:

This responds to your letter dated February 17, 2019, which was received today in an envelope postmarked February 20, 2019.

This Court did receive your explanation under Rule 243(c) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules on December 14, 2018. By order dated December 18, 2019, this Court dismissed this case finding that this Rule 243(c) explanation was insufficient. Thereafter, you filed various documents which were construed as a petition for rehearing regarding the order of December 14, 2018. By order dated February 20, 2019, the Court denied rehearing, and the remittitur was sent the circuit court that same day.

The sending of the remittitur in this case ended appellate jurisdiction over this case. Wise v. S.C. Dept. of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 642 S.E.2d 551 (2007). Therefore, no action will be taken on your letter by this Court.

However, since you are apparently concerned about what documents were received by this Court, I have enclosed a copy of all of the documents received from you in this case.

Very truly yours,
