Re State v.

Shawn Patrick Bell

Appellate Case # 2019-000103

RECEIVED

FEB 25 2019

SC Court of Appeals

V. Claire Allen, Deputy Clerk

I am writing to verify that your office receive, my arguable basis I sent to your office within the 20 days ordered from your office. I sent the letters from here at Kirkland Correctional. I am verifying to be sure that my letters have been receive, due to Kirkland Correctional, R#E being on ~~Insurrection~~ lockdown and I had to send my legal mail out via regular mail. Which is a violation to access to due process and interfering with legal process. I am please requesting notification my letters was received by your office. Due to the clear mistake and error on my plea agreement and lawyers errors in plea hearing. Simply my court transcript will show that two of several errors taken place during my plea hearing. I signed a plea for 0-10yr for kidnapping, a open plea, Solicitor Recommended (State Recommended 10yrs) not what was part of deal and not discussed. Solicitor made Recommendation secretly in middle of plea hearing. My plea (sentence sheet) show box check. ~~I~~ I never signed a Negotiated 10yrs or a Recommended 10yr. Which also shows my lawyer neglected to stop hearing when she known I did not agree with the false details Solicitor was presenting the Judge (transcript will prove that) also Solicitor and lawyer moved my court date preventing important factors, for my mental health, and statements that is important. It's plenty I can prove, and witness. I also have character

Please inform me, when this letter is received to verify S.C.D.C has not interrupted my due process

How do I find out who is representing me from the Appellate defense, so I may send important numbers, paperwork, and witnesses to them.
