Ms. Singleton,

As I mentioned in our phone conversation, we have prepared this transcript for Ms. Bradley. She picked up the transcript with a refund and signed for it on 2/7/19 (see attachment). That same day she prepared a letter stating that the transcript had numerous errors and omissions, so I, being the owner of the company, proofed the job and did find six (6) mistakes. I prepared these notations similar to a read and sign and forwarded it to all the parties (see attachment). The original transcript was electronically filed with the WCC by email:

I am now in receipt of a letter dated 2/14/19 referring me to the prior letter dated 2/7/19. "Once again, I'm not in receipt of transcript(s) requested since September 7, 2018. Full certified copies of the entire transcript(s) is still being requested."

I am at a loss of how to handle this lady, and simply don't know what else to do. Any direction the Court could give me would be greatly appreciated.

THANK YOU for your time.

Albert Bradley vs. Southern Industrial, Inc., Zurich American Insurance Co. % Zurich North America

Dear Ms. Godfrey:

I have reviewed the transcripts that you have provided me with which you stated were prepared by Rob Fitzgerald from Raleigh, NC. After reviewing the transcript, there are numerous errors in the transcription as well as numerous blank spaces with omission of details. Therefore, I am not able to utilize this document as it is incomplete and inaccurate. Please notify me in writing via U.S. mail when the corrected transcript is available for pick up. Also, please make sure each transcribed page includes your authentic company stamp/seal. Again, all recordings pertaining to the case of Albert Bradley are requested for transcription.

Sincerely,

Christine Bradley, Pro Se (Albert Bradley)

RE: Christine Bradley, Ex Parte, Appellant (Albert
Bradley v. Southern Industrial Constructors, Zurich American Insurance Company, c/o Zurich
North America, Carrier, Respondents)

Appellate Case No. 2018-001535

Ms. Kitchings,

I am in receipt of the letter from Ms. Bradley stating that "after reviewing the transcript, there are numerous errors in the transcription of the hearing as well as numerous blank spaces with omission of details."

I, personally, have reviewed this transcript and have treated it as a read and sign to make the only corrections I found in the transcript, and have attached it hereto. I will also copy the same to all the parties involved.

If I can be of any further service, please do not hesitate to contact me directly. I would prefer that Ms. Bradley not contact my staff, but me directly as well.

Respectfully,

Amanda Creel Godfrey

I, Amanda Creel Godfrey, have checked the transcript against the audio of the Full Commission Hearing in the case of Albert Bradley, Claimant v. Southern Industrial Construction, Employer and Zurich American Insurance, Carrier/Defendants held on May 21, 2018 and confirm that it is a true and accurate transcript. Any errors I noticed have been listed below.
