Re: Death Of Writ Of Certiorari Counsel

Mr. Shearouse,

I am writing you in regards to my Writ of Certiorari. My attorney, Robert Mills Esq. recently passed away. I learned of his demise yesterday. The last time I spoke with him (February 11, 2019) he told me "I needed to ask for an extension for health reasons."

I need an attorney to pursue my Writ of Certiorari matter. Can you please give me clarity as to how I move forward from this point because I am really lost as to what I need to do now? Importantly, I need to know how to get an extension until counsel comes aboard my case so my Writ will not be deemed abandoned. Even more so I don't want my Writ to be doomed because I am unable to effectively represent myself. If I can not get the money I paid to Robert Mills back I will need an indigent attorney.

Please contact me addressing my concerns. Thank you very much.
