

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION
COMMISSION

The Honorable Avery B. Wilkerson, Commissioner

Appellate Case No. 2013-001322
W.C.C. 1112328

Samuel A. Rose, Claimant.....Respondent,

v.

JJS Trucking, LLC, Unisured Employer, and
Chris Thompson Services, LLC, Upstream Contractor, and
Bridgefield Casualty Ins. Co., Carrier, and South Carolina
Uninsured Employers' Fund,.....Defendants,

of whom JJS Trucking, LLC, Uninsured Employer, and the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund are.....Respondents,
and

Chris Thompson Services, LLC, Upstream Contractor,
and Bridgefield Casualty Ins. Co., Carrier are the.....Appellants.

RECORD ON APPEAL

Of Counsel:

Joseph B. Fisher, Esq.
George Sink Law Firm
P.O. Box 63506
North Charleston, SC 29419
(843) 569-1700
Attorney for Samuel Rose

Benjamin W. Akery, Esq.
The Steinberg Law Firm
P.O. Box 1028
Goose Creek, SC 29445
(843) 572-0700
Attorney for Samuel Rose

J. Eric Kaufmann, Esq.
P.O. Box 6461
Columbia, SC 29260
(803) 787-1055
Attorney for JJS Trucking, LLC

Kirsten L. Barr
Trask & Howell, L.L.C.
P.O. Box 2167
Mt. Pleasant, SC 29465
(843) 881-4228
Attorneys for Appellants

Amy V. Cofield, Esq.
The Cofield Law Firm
809 South Lake Drive
Lexington, SC 29072
(803) 951-0389
Attorneys for the South Carolina
Uninsured Employers' Fund

RECEIVED
OCT 08 2013
SC Court of Appeals

INDEX

I. Orders

1. Decision and Order of Commissioner McCaskill (8/23/12).....1
2. Decision and Order of the Appellate Panel (5/15/13).....12

II. Forms and Pleadings

1. Claimant's Form 50 (12/6/11).....23
2. Appellants' Form 51 (12/15/11) .....24
3. SCUEF Form 51 (1/4/12).....25
4. Petition to Transfer Liability to the SCUEF (with exhibits)
(1/24/12).....27
5. Pre-hearing Brief and APA Submissions (none) on behalf of the
SC Uninsured Employers' Fund (4/16/12) .....56
6. Amended Return to Carrier's Petition to Transfer Liability
(5/3/12).....63
7. Appellants' Form 30 (9/5/12) .....72

III. Transcript of Proceedings

1. Transcript of Hearing before Commissioner McCaskill (5/15/12).....85
  - i. Direct-examination of Samuel Rose by Mr. Fisher .....89
  - ii. Cross-examination of Samuel Rose by Ms. Barr .....92
  - iii. Cross-examination of Samuel Rose by Mr. Smalls.....94
  - iv. Cross-examination of Samuel Rose by Ms. Cofield .....95
  - v. Redirect examination of Samuel Rose by Mr. Fisher .....95
  - vi. Recross-examination of Samuel Rose by Ms. Barr .....96
  - vii. Direct examination of Christopher Thompson by Ms. Barr .....96
  - viii. Cross-examination of Christopher Thompson by Mr.
Smalls .....98
  - ix. Cross-examination of Christopher Thompson by Ms.
Cofield.....99
  - x. Redirect examination of Christopher Thompson by Ms.
Barr .....100

|                                                                       |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| xi. Recross-examination of Christopher Thompson by Ms. Cofield .....  | 101 |
| xii. Recross-examination of Christopher Thompson by Mr. Warder .....  | 101 |
| xiii. Recross-examination of Christopher Thompson by Mr. Smalls ..... | 101 |

IV. APA Submissions and Exhibits

|                                                                                                                            |            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 1. Appellants' APA Submissions No. 1 through No. 6 from Hearing before Commissioner McCaskill (pages 1-39) .....           | 103        |
| i. SLED Report.....                                                                                                        | 103        |
| ii. Petition to Transfer Liability .....                                                                                   | 112        |
| iii. SCWCC Form 18, dated April 10, 2012 .....                                                                             | 117        |
| iv. Deposition of Samuel Rose, dated November 14, 2011 .....                                                               | 118        |
| v. Deposition of Sedrick Smalls, dated November 14, 2011 .....                                                             | 129        |
| vi. IN Trucking Certificate of Insurance .....                                                                             | 141        |
| 2. APA Submissions of Travelers Insurance No. 19 through No. 23 from Hearing before Commissioner McCaskill (pages —) ..... | 142        |
| i. Correspondence from Garry Smith, Compliance Division, to F. Reid Warder, Jr., dated March 30, 2012.....                 | 142        |
| ii. Premium Finance Agreement for JJS Trucking, LLC, dated October 13, 2010.....                                           | 156        |
| iii. Travelers Invoice to JJS Trucking, LLC, dated November 8, 2010 .....                                                  | 157        |
| iv. Notice of Cancellation, dated January 4, 2011.....                                                                     | 159        |
| v. SC Department of Employment and Workforce.....                                                                          | 161        |
| V. Certificate of Counsel .....                                                                                     | 176 |

DECISION AND ORDER
OF THE
SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

WCC FILE NO: 1112328

SAMUEL ROSE, EMPLOYEE/CLAIMANT

vs.

JJS TRUCKING, LLC, AND CHRIS THOMPSON SERVICES, LLC, EMPLOYERS,

and

BRIDGEFIELD CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY AND TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY, CARRIERS,

and

SOUTH CAROLINA UNINSURED EMPLOYERS FUND/ DEFENDANT.

Hearing: Held in Summerville, South Carolina on May 15, 2012

Appearances: Employee/Claimant represented by Joseph B. Fisher, George Sink
Law Firm, N. Charleston, South Carolina

Employer, Chris Thompson Services and Bridgefield Casualty
Company represented by Kirsten L. Barr, Trask & Howell, LLC,
Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina

Employer, JJS Trucking, LLC appeared pro se.

Carrier, Travelers Insurance Company represented by F. Reid
Warder, Jr., Esquire, Wood & Warder, LLC, Charleston, SC

South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund, Defendant was represented by Amy V. Cofield, Cofield Law Firm, Lexington,
South Carolina

Purpose of Hearing: To determine issues as set forth on Form 50 and Form 51

Decision and Order: By Commissioner Gene McCaskill

Date: August 23, 2012

STIPULATIONS

The parties stipulated to the following matters at the hearing:

1. The purpose of the hearing was to determine issues pursuant to Form 50 and 51.
2. Notice of the hearing was timely and properly served upon all parties of interest.
3. The Claimant's average weekly wage is $650.00 and compensation rate is $433.34 respectively.
4. Venue, set in Dorchester County, is proper.
5. The Employee/Claimant was injured while working for Chris Thompson Services, LLC and workers' compensation was filed, therefore, the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission has jurisdiction of the case.

APA SUBMISSIONS:

ON BEHALF OF THE EMPLOYER:

| EXHIBITNO. | NAME OF REPORT/PHYSICIANOR OTHER EVIDENCE | DATE OFREPORTS | NO. OFPAGES |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1                      | SLED Report                                           | 04/30/12-04/26/12          | 1-9                     |
| 2                      | Petition to Transfer Liability                        | 04/30/12-01/24/12          | 10-14                   |
| 3                      | SCWCC Form 18                                         | 04/10/12                   | 15                      |
| 4                      | Deposition of Samuel Rose                             | 11/14/11                   | 16-26                   |
| 5                      | Deposition of Sedrick Smalls                          | 11/14/11                   | 27-38                   |
| 6                      | JJS Trucking Certificate of Insurance                 | 10/08/11-10/08/10          | 39                      |

ON BEHALF OF THE CLAIMANT

| EXHIBITNO. | NAME OF REPORT/PHYSICIANOR OTHER EVIDENCE | DATE OFREPORTS | NO. OFPAGES |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1                      | Stuart M. Leon, MDMUSC Medical Center             | 08/10/11                   | 1-2                     |
| 2                      | Andrew B. Conrad, MDMUSC Medical Center           | 08/10/11                   | 3-5                     |
| 3                      | Christopher J. Erikson, MD                            |                            |                         |

|      |                                                                  |                      |            |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|------------|
| 4    | MUSC Medical CenterPeter H. White, MDMUSC Medical Center | 08/10/1108/11/11 | 6-78-9 |
| 5    | Alan N. Abel, MD                                                 | 08/16/11-01/25/12    | 10-22      |
| 6    | Michael S. Rissing, MDMUSC Medical Center                    | 08/23/11             | 23-24      |
| 7    | Cameron Wills, DCTri-County Spinal Care                      | 09/02/11             | 25-26      |
| 8    | Richard Kellett, MDTri-County Spinal Care                    | 09/06/11-10/11/11    | 27-40      |
| 9    | Troy Marlow, MDTriCounty Radiology Associates                | 11/09/11             | 41-42      |
| 10   | Michael Wildstein, MDWildstein Spine Center, PA              | 11/23/11             | 43-44      |
| 11   | Donald E. Olofsson, DOTriCounty Radiology Associates         | 11/30/11             | 45-46      |
| EX A | Traffic Collision ReportSC Highway Patrol                    | 08/10/11             | 47-50      |
| EX B | Pay Records of the Claimant                                      | 07/12/11-08/09/11    | 51-55      |

ON BEHALF OF TRAVELERS INDEMNITY COMPANY

| EXHIBITNO. | NAME OF REPORT/PHYSICIANOR OTHER EVIDENCE                       | DATE OFREPORTS | NO. OFPAGES |
|-------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1                             | Correspondence from Garry Smith,Compliance Division, to F. ReidWarder, Jr. | 03/30/12                          | 14                             |
| 2                             | Premium Finance Agreement forJJS Trucking, LLC                                 | 10/13/10                          | 1                              |
| 3                             | Travelers Invoice to JJS Trucking,LLC                                          | 11/08/10                          | 2                              |
| 4                             | Notice of Cancellation                                                             | 01/04/11                          | 2                              |
| 5                             | SC Department of EmploymentAnd Workforce                                       | 02/21/12                          | 15                             |

ON BEHALF OF SC UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND

| EXHIBITNO. | NAME OF REPORT/PHYSICIANOR OTHER EVIDENCE | DATE OFREPORTS | NO. OFPAGES |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------|
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------|

NONE

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This claim is before the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission pursuant to a Form 50 filed by the Claimant on November 18, 2011, and Form 51 filed by Defendant, Chris Thompson Services on December 15, 2011, and Form 51 filed by Defendant, SC Uninsured Employers' Fund on January 4, 2012. The Claimant alleged that on August 10, 2011 he sustained an alleged injury to his right knee, back, neck and head. Defendants denied the claim.

It was the Claimant's position that he was injured on August 10, 2011 while employed by JJS Trucking. Claimant asserted that JJS Trucking was a subcontractor to Chris Thompson Services. JJS Trucking is uninsured and Chris Thompson is insured by Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company. The Claimant seeks a finding of compensability that includes medical treatment, payment of temporary total benefits less any amounts paid by the carrier of Chris Thompson Services.

It was the position of Chris Thompson Services that the Claimant sustained an admitted injury by accident as alleged on August 10, 2011. However, the severity of permanency of injuries and need for future treatment was specifically denied. Chris Thompson Services also made a Motion to Transfer Liability to the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund pursuant to §42-1-415 because Mr. Cedric Smalls, a principal of JJS Trucking, had represented to Chris Thompson Services that it had workers' compensation coverage. Chris Thompson Services had obtained an ACORD Form 25 Certificate of Insurance indicating coverage. Chris Thompson Services also stated to the Commissioner that it had, through its insurance carrier, Bridgefield, paid temporary total disability payments since the date of the accident in the amount of $75.00 per week and requested that the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund reimburse Bridgefield for those benefits paid. Chris Thompson Services argued that JJS Trucking never provided notice that his coverage had changed or lapsed. Chris Thompson Services argued that a certificate of insurance presented distinguished this case from the Hopper case, (Hopper v. Terry Hunt Construction, 383 S.C. 310, 680 S.E.2d 1 (2009).)

Because the case at had a description of the policy terms. The distinction was also offered that the Hopper case dealt with an out of state employer or multi-state employers and regulations and that this case did not.

It was further argued that the signature of David Hayes as the authorized agent for the insurance company satisfactory the face of the certificate of insurance rose no red flags regarding the authority of the signature. It was also argued that a copy of the certificate of insurance was filed with the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission on November 4, 2011, which was believed to be a timely filing.

The SC Uninsured Employers' Fund argued that liability could not be transferred to the UEF. It was argued that the certificate of insurance presented was sufficient pursuant to the law set forth in the Barton v. Higgs case (Barton v. Higgs, 381 S.C. 367, 674 S.E.2d 145 (2009)) as well as the Hopper v. Terry Hunt Construction case. The SC Uninsured Employers' Fund argued that the description of operations box was blank and that the cases of Barton and Hopper stood for the proposition that incomplete certificates were not sufficient to transfer liability. It was also argued that the certificate of insurance only stated it was a "binder" and never conveyed any information that there was ever a policy written.

The Uninsured Employers' Fund argued that the timing of the presentation of the certificate was contrary to §42-1-415. That statute provides that documentation must be turned over to the Commission "at the time a claim is filed". This certificate was not turned over for several months. The UEF argued that §42-1-415(A) stated that the upstream contractor must first pay all benefits due before requesting liability to be transferred and at the time of the hearing. However, only a few benefits had been paid, certainly not all. Therefore, the UEF argued that the case was premature as far as the motion to transfer liability.

EVIDENCE OF THE CASE

The Claimant testified that he was working on August 10, 2011 for JJS Trucking in Summerville, SC at the Keystone Lumber Mill. He stated that JJS Trucking was owned by Cedric Smalls and that he had been working there for about 4 ½ to 5 months prior to his accident. Claimant testified that during his time at JJS Trucking, his job was to haul loads from Summerville, SC to North Charleston, SC, specifically from Keystone Lumber Mill to Westvaco. He explained that he was injured when he was rear-ended by a truck that was following him causing his truck to jackknife and hit the median wall. Following the accident, Claimant testified that he suffered a fractured knee, low back and neck injury as well as dizziness and problems with his left hand. He testified that following the accident, he went to MUSC where he was to receive further treatment from a neurologist and orthopedist but never got those because of having no insurance. Instead he went to a general practitioner by the name of Dr. Abel and from there, he was referred to Tri County Spinal Care for pain management and then to Dr. Wildstein, an orthopaedic surgeon.

Claimant testified that he has been unable to work since August 10, 2011, because of the nerve damage he sustained in his neck and back. He further testified that he still has headaches, numbness in his left arm and fingers and his back. He is currently on several medications such as Flexeril, Neurontin, Elavil and Viracept as well as Ibuprofen. He testified that it is his understanding that he needs to see a neurologist and needs to have surgery.

On cross-examination, the Claimant stated that he had to reschedule his last hearing because he had been incarcerated, accused of stealing a 32" television, some barstools and a laptop. Claimant stated, "the police said a witness observed me running across the parking lot running from an apartment across the street to my mom's car and putting it in the car". Claimant testified that he was using a cane recommended by Dr. Avery because he had fallen down the stairs once. He said he had fallen down the stairs in January when at his mother's house but after that fall, his pain became worse.

On cross-examination by Mr. Smalls, the Claimant testified that he was hired by JJS Trucking as a contractor. He testified that he worked his own schedule but that Cedric Smalls told him to work 12 hours from the time he started. On further cross-examination by Mrs. Cofield, the Claimant clarified that he was a sub-contractor for Chris Thompson Services, but was an employee of JJS. He also stated that when he was arrested last month, he was not using his cane, but he was on Oxycodone and other medications.

On cross-examination by Mrs. Barr, it was stated that it was his responsibility to keep his truck clean and would be responsible for any fines due to his own negligence. He also stated that he is responsible for any state and federal taxes and any workers' compensation insurance.

Christopher Thompson testified that his business was Chris Thompson Services, LLC, and in August of 2011 JJS Trucking was a subcontractor for Chris Thompson Services. He indicated he had been using JJS Trucking since approximately 2008. He explained that when he first hired JJS Trucking he was given a certificate of insurance showing that they had workers' compensation coverage. He said that he requested updated documentation once a year.

Mr. Thompson was shown a certificate of insurance that he identified to be dated October 18, 2011, and issued by Swamp Fox Agency. He stated that he was familiar with Swamp Fox Agency and knew David Hayes who signed the certificate of insurance as being the owner of Swamp Fox Insurance Agency. He stated that his view of the certificate of insurance gave him no reason to question whether or not JJS Trucking had insurance. He conveyed that it was not until about September or beginning of October before he was positively told that he did not have insurance. After that information was received, he severed his relationship with JJS Trucking.

On cross-examination by Mrs. Cofield, Mr. Thompson acknowledged that there was no description in the Description of Operations box on the certificate of insurance. Mr. Thompson also acknowledged that it did not have a policy number, but in fact, stated that it was a "binder". Mr. Thompson testified that he did not believe that Mr. Smalls purposely defrauded him or purposely gave a false certificate of insurance.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Samuel Rose was an employee of JJS Trucking on August 10, 2011.
2. On August 10, 2011, Samuel Rose sustained an injury by accident to his head, knee, leg back and neck arising out of and in the course of his employment with JJS Trucking.
3. Claimant has an average weekly wage of $650.00 and a compensation rate of $433.34.
4. Claimant is not at maximum medical improvement.
5. As a result of his accident, Claimant is entitled to temporary total disability benefits beginning on August 10, 2011 and continuing until such time as he reaches maximum medical improvement.
6. As a result of his accident, Claimant is entitled to an evaluation to determine the extent of his injuries and is entitled to ongoing medical treatment as prescribed by an authorized treating physician to be selected by the carrier.
7. On or about October 8, 2010, JJS Trucking, LLC represented to Chris Thompson Services, LLC that it had workers' compensation insurance.
8. On August 10, 2011, JJS Trucking was operating without proper insurance as required by the Workers' Compensation Act.

9. On August 10, 2011, JJS Trucking was operating as a subcontractor for Chris Thompson Services, LLC. Chris Thompson Services, LLC, is an "upstream employer" pursuant to §42-1-415.

10. Chris Thompson Services, LLC is liable to pay Claimant all benefits to which he is entitled under the Act.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. On August 10, 2011 Samuel Rose was an "employee" of JJS Trucking as defined in S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-130 (1976).

2. At the time of the Claimant's accident, JJS Trucking possessed over the Claimant the actual right and authority to control and direct his particular work or undertaking and the manner or means of its accomplishment, consistent with the definition of an employee provided in Young v. Warr, 252 S.C. 179, 189, 165 S.E.2d 797, 802 (1969).

3. The testimony of the Claimant, his immediate employer, Cedric Smalls, and the upstream contractor, Chris Thompson, combined with the evidence available in the record, when evaluated using the factors outlined in Nelson v. Yellow Cab Co., 564 SE 2d 110 ( S.C. 2002), weigh towards finding Claimant is an employee and not an independent contractor. This finding is consistent with South Carolina's policy to resolve jurisdictional doubts in favor of the inclusion of employers and employees under the Workers' Compensation Act. See South Carolina Workers' Compensation Comm'r v. Ray Covington Realtors, Inc., 318 S.C. 546, 459 S.E.2d 302 (1995).

4. Claimant is entitled to temporary total disability benefits beginning on August 10, 2011 pursuant to § 42-9-10 until such time as he is able to return to work.

5. Claimant is entitled to medical treatment causally related to his injury pursuant to §42-15-60. Claimant is entitled to reimbursement for all out of pocket medical expenses incurred to date. Carrier shall select an authorized treating physician.
6. Claimant was an employee of JJS Trucking which, at the time of his accident, was an uninsured subcontractor. Pursuant to § 42-1-415(A) Chris Thompson Services, LLC, as the higher tier contractor, shall pay all benefits due the Claimant under the Workers' Compensation Act.
7. Chris Thompson Services, LLC, asserted in its pleadings and at the Hearing that liability for this claim should be transferred to the South Carolina Uninsured Employer's Fund. § 42-1-415 only permits the higher tier contractor to petition the Commission to transfer responsibility for benefits to the UEF after it has paid all benefits due the Claimant under the Act. The evidence in the record indicates that Claimant has not received all benefits he is due under the Act from Chris Thompson Services, LLC, or its carrier. Therefore, the issue of transfer of responsibility to the UEF is not ripe for adjudication at this time.
8. Chris Thompson Services, LLC is entitled to credit for any compensation paid to the Claimant prior to the date of this Order.
9. Traveler's Indemnity was not the carrier for JJS Trucking, LLC on the date of Claimant's injury and therefore is dismissed as a party to this claim.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the statutory employer, Chris Thompson Services, LLC, through its carrier, Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company, is liable for this claim and shall pay Claimant's medical treatment and temporary total disability benefits beginning August 10, 2011 and continuing through such time Claimant is able to return to work.

All other issues are held in abeyance.

Any party wishing to appeal this Decision and Order may, within fourteen (14) days of the date this Decision and Order is received, file an application for review by the Full Commission, along with the appropriate filing fee.

Commissioner Gene McCaskill

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

This is to certify the undersigned has this date served this order in the above entitled action upon all parties to this cause by sending an electronic copy hereof by electronic mail addressed to the attorney or attorneys for said parties or by depositing a copy hereof, postage paid, in the United States certified mail addressed to any unrepresented party.
August 23, 2012

By: Kellie Lindler, Administrative Assistant to Commissioner McCaskill

BEFORE THE
SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSIONS' APPELLATE PANEL

|                                          |   |                             |
|------------------------------------------|---|-----------------------------|
| SAMUEL A. ROSE,                          | ) | W.C.C. FILE NO. 1112328     |
| Claimant/Respondent,                     | ) |                             |
|                                          | ) |                             |
| v.                                       | ) | DECISION &amp; ORDER |
|                                          | ) |                             |
| JJS TRUCKING, LLC                        | ) |                             |
| Uninsured Employer/Respondent,           | ) |                             |
| and                                      | ) |                             |
| CHRIS THOMPSON SERVICES, LLC,            | ) |                             |
| Upstream Contractor, and                 | ) |                             |
| BRIDGEFIELD CASUALTY INS. CO.,           | ) |                             |
| Carrier, Appellants,                     | ) |                             |
| and                                      | ) |                             |
| S.C. UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND,          | ) |                             |
| Respondent.                              | ) |                             |
| <hr style="border: 0.5px solid black;"/> |   |                             |

Statement of the Case

This matter is before the Commission's Appellate Panel pursuant to the Form 30 filed by Chris Thompson Services and Bridgefield Casualty, seeking review and reversal of the August 23, 2012 Decision and Order of Hearing Commissioner McCaskill. The Appellants respectfully contend that Commissioner McCaskill erred as a matter of law in failing to transfer liability to the UEF pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415, erred as a matter of law in ordering the Appellants to reimburse "all out of pocket medical expenses," and erred as a matter of law in awarding the Claimant future medical treatment pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415.

The Hearing Commissioner's Decision and Order contained the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Samuel Rose was an employee of JJS Trucking on August 10, 2011.
2. On August 10, 2011, Samuel Rose sustained an injury by accident to his head, knee, leg back and neck arising out of and in the course of his employment with JJS Trucking.
3. Claimant has an average weekly wage of $650.00 and a compensation rate of $433.34.
4. Claimant is not at maximum medical improvement.
5. As a result of his accident, Claimant is entitled to temporary total disability benefits beginning on August 10, 2011 and continuing until such time as he reaches maximum medical improvement.
6. As a result of his accident, Claimant is entitled to an evaluation to determine the extent of his injuries and is entitled to ongoing medical treatment as prescribed by an authorized treating physician to be selected by the carrier.
7. On or about October 8, 2010, JJS Trucking, LLC represented to Chris Thompson Services, LLC that it had workers' compensation insurance.
8. On August 10, 2011, JJS Trucking was operating without proper insurance as required by the Workers' Compensation Act.
9. On August 10, 2011, JJS Trucking was operating as a subcontractor for Chris Thompson Services, LLC. Chris Thompson Services, LLC, is an "upstream employer" pursuant to §42-1415.
10. Chris Thompson Services, LLC is liable to pay Claimant all benefits to which he is entitled under the Act.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. On August 10, 2011 Samuel Rose was an "employee" of JJS Trucking as defined in S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-130 (1976).
2. At the time of the Claimant's accident, JJS Trucking possessed over the Claimant the actual right and authority to control and direct his particular work or undertaking and the manner or means of its accomplishment, consistent with the definition of an employee provided in Young v. Warr, 252 S.C. 179, 189, 165 S.E.2d 797, 802 (1969).
3. The testimony of the Claimant, his immediate employer, Cedric Smalls, and the upstream contractor, Chris Thompson, combined with the evidence available in the record, when evaluated using the factors outlined in Nelson v. Yellow Cab Co., 564 SE 2d 110 (S.C. 2002), weigh towards finding Claimant is an employee and not an independent contractor. This finding is consistent with South Carolina's policy to resolve jurisdictional doubts in favor of the inclusion of employers and employees under the Workers' Compensation Act. See South Carolina Workers' Compensation Comm'r v. Ray Covington Realtors, Inc., 318 S.C. 546, 459 S.E.2d 302 (1995).
4. Claimant is entitled to temporary total disability benefits beginning on August 10, 2011 pursuant to § 42-9-10 until such time as he is able to return to work.
5. Claimant is entitled to medical treatment causally related to his injury pursuant to §42- 15-60. Claimant is entitled to reimbursement for all out of pocket medical expenses incurred to date. Carrier shall select an authorized treating physician.
6. Claimant was an employee of JJS Trucking which, at the time of his accident, was an uninsured subcontractor. Pursuant to § 42-1-415(A) Chris Thompson Services, LLC, as the higher tier contractor, shall pay all benefits due the Claimant under the Workers' Compensation Act.

5. Chris Thompson Services, LLC, asserted in its pleadings and at the Hearing that liability for this claim should be transferred to the South Carolina Uninsured Employer's Fund. § 42-1415 only permits the higher tier contractor to petition the Commission to transfer responsibility for benefits to the UEF after it has paid all benefits due the Claimant under the Act. The evidence in the record indicates that Claimant has not received all benefits he is due under the Act from Chris Thompson Services, LLC, or its carrier. Therefore, the issue of transfer of responsibility to the UEF is not ripe for adjudication at this time.
6. Chris Thompson Services, LLC is entitled to credit for any compensation paid to the Claimant prior to the date of this Order.
7. Traveler's Indemnity was not the carrier for JJS Trucking, LLC on the date of Claimant's injury and therefore is dismissed as a party to this claim.

Furthermore, the Form 30 filed by the Appellants alleges the followings errors and exceptions:

1. The Hearing Commissioner erred in finding that Chris Thompson Services, LLC is liable to pay Claimant all benefits to which he is entitled under the Act, as this "finding" is arbitrary, capricious, impermissibly vague, and contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.

2. The Hearing Commissioner erred in finding that the Claimant sustained an injury to his head, knee, leg, back, and neck, as this finding is arbitrary, capricious, impermissibly vague, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.
3. The Hearing Commissioner erred in "finding" that the Claimant is entitled to temporary total disability benefits from August 10, 2011 and continuing until, as this finding is arbitrary, capricious, impermissibly vague, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.
4. The Hearing Commissioner erred in "finding" that the Claimant is entitled to an evaluation to determine the extent of his injuries, as this finding is arbitrary, capricious, impermissibly vague, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.
5. The Hearing Commissioner erred in "finding" that the Claimant is entitled to ongoing medical treatment, as this finding is arbitrary, capricious, impermissibly vague, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.
6. The Hearing Commissioner erred as a matter of law in concluding that the Claimant is entitled to reimbursement for all out of pocket medical expenses incurred to date, as this conclusion is arbitrary, capricious, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.

7. The Hearing Commissioner erred as a matter of law in concluding that the Claimant has not received all benefits due under the Act, as this "conclusion" is arbitrary, capricious, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence in the record and the applicable law.
8. The Hearing Commissioner erred as a matter of law in concluding that the issue of transfer of responsibility to the UEF is not ripe for adjudication at this time, as this conclusion is arbitrary, capricious, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence in the record and the applicable law.

Evidence Summary

The Claimant testified that he was employed as a driver for JJS Trucking on August 10, 2011 when he was injured in a motor vehicle accident. Since the accident, the Claimant has received medical treatment from MUSC, Dr. Abel, and Dr. Wildstein for alleged injuries to his back, knee, and left hand. Although the Claimant testified that he has been unable to work since the accident, the originally hearing in this case had to be rescheduled due to the Claimant's incarceration. According to the Claimant, he was accused of stealing a 32" television, some barstools, and a computer. The Claimant testified that, "the police said a witness observed me running across the parking lot running from an apartment across the street to my mom's car and putting it in the car." In addition, the Claimant testified that he fell down the stairs in January 2012 at his mother's house, which increased his pain and resulted in him using a cane.

Chris Thompson testified that JJS Trucking was operating as a subcontractor Chris Thompson Services, LLC, at the time in question. Mr. Thompson testified that he obtained a Certificate of Insurance from JJS Trucking at the time his relationship with the company began in 2008 and that he has requested and obtained updated Certificates of Insurance from JJS Trucking on a yearly basis since that time. Mr. Thompson identified the October 18, 2010 Certificate of Insurance contained in the Record (Appellants' APA #6, p.39). This Certificate shows that JJS Trucking had workers' compensation coverage through Travelers Insurance for the period from October 8, 2010 through October 8, 2011. This Certificate shows Chris Thompson Services as the Certificate Holder and is signed by David W. Hayes, whom Mr. Thompson identified as the owner of the Producer, the Swamp Fox Agency. Mr. Thompson testified that after receiving this Certificate of Insurance, he had no reason to believe that JJS Trucking did not have workers' compensation insurance until after the Claimant's accident.

The record reveals that Travelers Insurance did, in fact, insure JJS Trucking for a period after the Certificate of Insurance was issued, but the policy lapsed without notice to Chris Thompson Services by any person or entity. Cedric Smalls, the owner of JJS Trucking, confirmed that he did not ever inform Chris Thompson Services that his workers' compensation insurance had lapsed and further testified that Chris Thompson would not allow him to work as a subcontractor if his workers' compensation insurance ever lapsed.

At the time of the hearing, the Claimant was receiving weekly temporary total disability compensation from the Chris Thompson's carrier, as reflected on the Form 18.

Conclusion

After reviewing the record and considering the briefs and oral arguments, we AFFIRM with AMEND in part, as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Samuel Rose was an employee of JJS Trucking on August 10, 2011.

2. On August 10, 2011, Samuel Rose sustained an injury by accident to his head, knee, leg back and neck arising out of and in the course of his employment with JJS Trucking.
3. Claimant has an average weekly wage of $650.00 and a compensation rate of $433.34.
4. Claimant is not at maximum medical improvement.
5. As a result of his accident, Claimant is entitled to temporary total disability benefits beginning on August 10, 2011 and continuing until such time as he reaches maximum medical improvement.
6. As a result of his accident, Claimant is entitled to an evaluation to determine the extent of his injuries and is entitled to ongoing medical treatment as prescribed by an authorized treating physician to be selected by the carrier.
7. On or about October 8, 2010, JJS Trucking, LLC represented to Chris Thompson Services, LLC that it had workers' compensation insurance.
8. On August 10, 2011, JJS Trucking was operating without proper insurance as required by the Workers' Compensation Act.
9. On August 10, 2011, JJS Trucking was operating as a subcontractor for Chris Thompson Services, LLC. Chris Thompson Services, LLC, is an "upstream employer" pursuant to §42-1415.
9. Chris Thompson Services, LLC is liable to pay Claimant all benefits to which he is entitled under the Act.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. On August 10, 2011 Samuel Rose was an "employee" of JJS Trucking as defined in S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-130 (1976).
2. At the time of the Claimant's accident, JJS Trucking possessed over the Claimant the actual right and authority to control and direct his particular work or undertaking and the manner or means of its accomplishment, consistent with the definition of an employee provided in Young v. Warr, 252 S.C. 179, 189, 165 S.E.2d 797, 802 (1969).
3. The testimony of the Claimant, his immediate employer, Cedric Smalls, and the upstream contractor, Chris Thompson, combined with the evidence available in the record, when evaluated using the factors outlined in Nelson v. Yellow Cab Co., 564 SE 2d 110 ( S.C. 2002), weigh towards finding Claimant is an employee and not an independent contractor. This finding is consistent with South Carolina's policy to resolve jurisdictional doubts in favor of the inclusion of employers and employees under the Workers' Compensation Act. See South Carolina Workers' Compensation Comm'r v. Ray Covington Realtors, Inc., 318 S.C. 546, 459 S.E.2d 302 (1995).
4. Claimant is entitled to temporary total disability benefits beginning on August 10, 2011 pursuant to § 42-9-10 until such time as he is able to return to work.
5. Claimant is entitled to medical treatment causally related to his injury pursuant to §42-15-60. Claimant's past causally-related medical treatment should be paid directly to the providers pursuant to the Fee Schedule. Carrier shall select an authorized treating physician for any future medical treatment.

5. Claimant was an employee of JJS Trucking which, at the time of his accident, was an uninsured subcontractor. Pursuant to § 42-1-415(A) Chris Thompson Services, LLC, as the higher tier contractor, shall pay all benefits due the Claimant under the Workers' Compensation Act.
6. Chris Thompson Services, LLC, asserted in its pleadings and at the Hearing that liability for this claim should be transferred to the South Carolina Uninsured Employer's Fund. § 42-1415 only permits the higher tier contractor to petition the Commission to transfer responsibility for benefits to the UEF after it has paid all benefits due the Claimant under the Act. The evidence in the record indicates that Claimant has not received all benefits he is due under the Act from Chris Thompson Services, LLC, or its carrier. Therefore, the issue of transfer of responsibility to the UEF is not ripe for adjudication at this time.
7. Chris Thompson Services, LLC is entitled to credit for any compensation paid to the Claimant prior to the date of this Order.
8. Traveler's Indemnity was not the carrier for JJS Trucking, LLC on the date of Claimant's injury and therefore is dismissed as a party to this claim.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the statutory employer, Chris Thompson Services, LLC, through its carrier, Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company, is liable for this claim and shall pay Claimant's medical treatment and temporary total disability benefits beginning August 10, 2011 and continuing through such time Claimant is able to return to work.

All other issues are held in abeyance.

IT IS SO ORDERED!

The Honorable Avery B. Wilkerson

WE CONCUR:

The Honorable T. Scott Beck

The Honorable Melody James

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

This is to certify that the undersigned has this date served this order in the above entitled action upon all parties to this cause by depositing a copy hereof, postage paid, in the United State mail addressed to the attorney or attorneys for said parties.

This 15 day of May, 2013
By Valerie D. Deder

Administrative Assistant to the Commissioner

Amy V. Cofield
Kirsten L. Barr
Joseph B. Fisher
Chris Thompson Services (Reg & cert)
JTS Trucking LLC (Reg & cert)

South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission
1612 Marion Street • Post Office Box 1715
Columbia, South Carolina 29202-1715
(803) 737-5723
www.wcc.sc.gov

WCC File #: 1112328
Carrier File #: EQS3181
Carrier Code #: 0269
Employer FEIN #: 710986219

Claimant's Name: Samuel Rose SSN: _____ Employer's Name: JJS Trucking, LLC
Chris Thompson Services, LLC (upstream employer)
Address: _____ Address: 137-A Gordon Street
City: Charleston State: SC Zip: 29403 City: Charleston State: SC Zip: 29403
Home Phone: _____ Work Phone: ( ) Insurance Carrier: Travelers Indemnity Company
SCUEF
Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company (Chris Thompson)
Preparer's Name: Joseph Fisher, Esquire Law Firm: George Sink, P.A. Preparer's Phone #: (843) 569-1700

Complete each information blank. To request a hearing, check Box 13b, indicate the kinds of benefits claimed by checking the box(es) at Lines 6, 7, 8, and 9, and file this form in duplicate.

A claim for workers' compensation benefits is made based on the following grounds:

Date of Injury or Illness: on or about 8/10/2011

☒ Injury ☐ Illness ☐ Repetitive Trauma

- 1a. The claimant sustained an injury to right knee, back, neck, and head on or about 08/10/2011 in Charleston County, State of South Carolina.
1b. Body part(s) affected are: right knee, back, neck, and head.

Briefly describe how the accident occurred: Claimant was involved in a traffic collision during course and scope of employment

2. Both the claimant and the employer were subject to the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Act at the time of injury.
3. The relationship of employer and employee existed at the time of injury.
4. At the time of the injury the claimant was performing services arising out of and in the course of employment.
5. Notice of the accidental injury was given to the Employer on or about 08/10/2011 in the following manner:
Verbally to owner of company.

☒ 6. Due to injury, the claimant is in need of (check one):

- ☐ (a) medical examination and treatment for: all above-referenced injuries
☐ (b) additional medical examination and treatment for:

☒ 7. Due to injury, the claimant requests temporary total disability benefits because of lost compensable time from work and wages for the period of:
from date of injury to MMI.

☒ 8. Due to the injury, the Claimant has permanent disability of the following nature and extent (check one):

- ☐ (1) General Disability: ☐ Total ☐ (2) Specific Disability: ☐ Total
☐ (3) Wage Loss ☐ Partial ☐ Partial

☐ 9. Due to the injury, the Claimant has a serious bodily disfigurement consisting of:

10a. At the time of the injury, the Claimant was paid weekly wages of $To Be Determined, and demands accounting of days worked and wages earned as provided by law.

10b. Give names and addresses of all employers for whom the Claimant has worked since the date of the accident:
N/A

11a. Further grounds or unusual aspects of claim:

Any and all allowable; claimant reserves the right to amend.

11b. List names and addresses of all physicians or other medical specialists who have seen or treated the Claimant as a result of the accident:

MUSC, 171 Ashley Avenue, Charleston, SC 29403; Dr. Alan Abel, 7741-C Dorchester Road, N. Charleston, SC 29418; Tri-County Spinal Care Center, 8626 Dorchester Road, Suite 101, N. Charleston, SC 29420.

11c. To the best of your knowledge, did you have any prior permanent disability? No.
If yes, describe: N/A

12. Appropriate benefits as provided in the Act for the above grounds and other relief as the Workers' Compensation Commission may direct as just and proper.

☐ 13a. I am filing a claim. I am not requesting a hearing at this time.

☒ 13b. I am requesting a hearing. A $25 fee is required.

14. Estimated time needed for hearing: 60 minutes

I verify the contents of this form are accurate and true to the best of my knowledge.

Joseph B. Fisher, Esq.

Preparer's Signature

Attorney for Claimant

Title

jfisher@sinklaw.com

Email

12/6/2011

Date

Refer to R.67-204 through R.67-210 and R.67-601 through R.67-615. Questions about the use of this form may be directed to the Commission's Claims Department.

WCC Form # 50
Revised 9/07

AMENDED

50

Employee's Notice of Claim and/or Request for Hearing

South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission
P.O. Box 1715 • 1612 Marion Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29202-1715
(803) 737-5739

WCC File # 1112328
Carrier File # 943450
Carrier Code #
Employer FEIN

Samuel A. Rose
Claimant's Name

SSN

Charleston, SC 29403

Address

City State Zip

Home Phone

Work Phone

Date of Injury: August 10, 2011

JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and Chris Thompson Services,
LLC/Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company

Employer's Name

106 New Hope Dr.

Summerville, SC 29483

Address

City

State Zip

Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co.

Insurance Carrier:

Preparer's Name: Kirsten L. Barr

Law Firm: Trask & Howell, LLC

Preparer's Phone #: (843) 881-4228

Date of Injury or Illness: August 10, 2011

Complete each information blank. Specify clearly when contentions are admitted in part and denied in part. The employer / carrier in answer to the claim, respectfully shows:

1. It is denied the employee sustained an injury or illness on or about the date set forth in the application. The reasons for denial are:
2. It is denied both the employer and employee were subject to the Workers' Compensation Act at the time in question. The reasons for denial are: Claimant was never an employee of Chris Thompson Services.
3. It is denied the relationship of employer and employee existed at the time in question. The reasons for denial are: Claimant was not an Employee of Chris Thompson Services at any time.
4. It is denied at the time in question the employee was performing services arising out of and in the course of employment. The reasons for denial are: Claimant never performed any services for Chris Thompson Services and it is further denied that he sustained any injury by accident as alleged.
5. It is denied notice of injury was given the employer. The reasons for denial are: Claimant did not give notice of any accident to Chris Thompson Services and it is denied that he gave notice to his actual employer; pending investigation.
6. It is denied the employee needs medical care as a result of injury. The reason for denial are: See #1 through #5, above.
7. It is denied the employee is entitled to temporary total disability for the period(s) of: See #1 through #5, above.
8. It is denied that the employee is permanently disabled. The reasons for denial are: See #1 through #5, above.
9. It is denied that the employee has a serious disfigurement.
10. It is contended that an average weekly wage of $ TBD applies, according to attached Form 20 as provided by law. Claimant earned no wage from Chris Thompson Services at any time.
11. Further contentions, grounds of defense, or unusual aspects are: Reserve the right to amend. Chris Thompson Services and Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co. assert S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415 as a defense.
12. Estimated time needed for hearing: One hour

I certify that I have served this document pursuant to R.67-212 by delivering a copy to: Ms. Virginia Crocker, SCWCC, P. O. Box 1715, Columbia, SC 29202-1715; Joseph B. Fisher, Esq., PO Box 63506, North Charleston, SC 29419; Timothy Killen, Esq., S.C. Uninsured Employers Fund, 100 Executive Center Drive, Suite 101, Columbia, SC 29210; and Cedric Smalls, JJS Trucking, LLC, 137-A Gordon Street, Charleston, SC 29403 on the 15th day of December, 2011 by ☒ first class mail; ☐ personal service; ☒ certified mail.

I verify the contents of this form are accurate and true to the best of my knowledge.

Kirsten L. Barr

Attorney for Defendants.

kbarr@trask-howell.com

December 15, 2011

Preparer's Signature

Title

Email

Date

Refer to R.67-204 through R.67-210 and R.67-601 through R.67-615. Questions about the use of this form may be directed to the Commission's Judicial Department. Pursuant to R.67-606, a Form 20 must be filed with the Claims Department at least 30 days from the date of filing this form.

South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission
1333 Main Street, Suite 500 • Post Office Box 1715
Columbia, South Carolina 29202-1715
(803) 737-5739
www.wcc.sc.gov

File #: 1112328
Carrier File #: 007236
Carrier Code #:
Employer FEIN #:

Claimant's Name: Samuel Rose SSN: 247-55-3390 Employer's Name: JJs Trucking, Llc
Address: 17 Ashton St. Address: C/o Cedric Smalls, R.a. 137-a Gordon St.
City: Charleston State: SC Zip: 29403 City: Charleston State: SC Zip: 29403
Home Phone: (843) 437-4012 Work Phone: Insurance Carrier:
Date of Injury: 08/10/2011
Preparers Name: Timothy B Killen Law Firm: SCWCUEF Preparers Phone #: (803) 798-2722

Date of Injury or Illness: 08/10/2011

Complete each Information blank. Specify clearly when contentions are admitted in part and denied in part. The employer/carrier in answer to the claim, respectfully shows:

1. It is denied the employee sustained an injury or illness on or about the date set forth in the Form 50. The reasons for denial are:
General: there has been no proof.
2. It is denied both the employer and employee were subject to the Workers' Compensation Act at the time in question. The reasons for denial are:
3. It is denied the relationship of employer and employee existed at the time in question. The reasons for denial are:
4. It is denied at the time in question the employee was performing services arising out of and in the course of employment. The reasons for denial are:
5. It is denied notice of injury was given the employer. The reasons for denial are:
6. It is denied the employee Needs / Is Entitled to Additional medical care as a result of injury or illness. The reasons for denial are:
7. It is denied the employee is entitled to temporary total disability for the period(s) of:
8. It is denied the employee is permanently disabled. The reasons for denial are:
9. It is denied the employee has serious disfigurement.
10. It is contended that an average weekly wage of $ (unknown) applies, according to attached Form 20 as provided by law.
11. Further contentions, grounds of defense, or unusual aspects are:
See Attachment.
12. Estimated time needed for hearing: 1 hour.

I certify I have served this document pursuant to R.67-212 by delivering a copy to:

Name: SEE CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

Address:

on the 5th day of January, 2012, by ☒ first class mail ☐ personal service ☐ certified mail.
I verify the contents of this form are accurate and true to the best of my knowledge.

Preparer's Signature: [Signature] Staff Attorney: tkillen@slf.sc.gov Title: 01/04/2012
Email: 01/04/2012 Date:

Refer to R.67-204 through R.67-210 and R.67-601 through R.67-615. Questions about the use of this form may be directed to the Commission's Judicial Department. Pursuant to R.67-606, a Form 20 must be filed with the Claims Department at least 30 days from the date of filing this form.

WCC Form # 51
Revised 9/07

51

Employer's Answer to Request for Hearing

11. The Uninsured Employers' Fund is informed and believes that no capitulation or other order has been issued by the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission finding that the employer is subject to Title 42 and is operating without insurance or as an unqualified self-insurer. The Uninsured Employers' Fund is not a proper party to this action and is not subject to the jurisdiction of the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission in this case.

All affirmative and specific defenses (see Reg. 67-603), including but not limited to Sections 42-9-60, 42-15-20, 42-15-40, 42-17-90; and fraud in the application for employment; fraud in the inducement to sign Form 15; fraud in the initiation of the claim for benefits; pre-existing disability to allegedly injured members; election of remedies; intervening trauma; no compensable injury by accident under Section 42-1-160; degree of disability, if any, attributable to this injury speculative; claimant's problems personal in nature and not work related.

Fund reserves the right to amend this Answer and plead additional defenses. This form is filed to comply with the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission regulations.

Fund files this Answer in response to Claimant's Form 50, Requesting a Hearing        Filing a Claim       , dated 12/6/11.

Fund files this Answer in response to Claimant's Amended Form 50, Requesting a Hearing        Filing a Claim       , dated       .

Further, the Uninsured Employers' Fund does not represent the uninsured employer, is not an agent for the uninsured employer, nor a carrier for the uninsured employer.

BEFORE THE
SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

|                                        |   |                                       |
|----------------------------------------|---|---------------------------------------|
| Samuel A. Rose,                        | ) | W.C.C. FILE NO. 1112328               |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| Employee/Claimant,                     | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| -vs-                                   | ) | PETITION TO TRANSFER LIABILITY        |
|                                        | ) | TO S.C. UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND     |
| JJS Trucking, LLC and Chris Thompson   | ) | PURSUANT TO S.C. CODE ANN. § 42-1-415 |
| Services, LLC,                         | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| Employers,                             | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| and                                    | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co. and | ) |                                       |
| The S.C. Uninsured Employers' Fund,    | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| Carriers,                              | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| Defendants.                            | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |

---

TO: The South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission; Joseph B. Fisher, Esq., attorney for the Claimant; JJS Trucking, LLC; Timothy B. Killen, Esq., attorney for The South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund; and F. Reid Warder, Esq., attorney for Travelers Insurance Company.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Chris Thompson Services, LLC and Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company hereby Petition the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415 to transfer liability for this claim to the S.C. Uninsured Employers' Fund based upon the following:

1. In his December 6, 2011 Form 50, the Claimant named JJS Trucking, LLC and Chris Thompson Services, LLC (upstream contractor) as employers at the time of his August 10, 2011 work-related accident. The Claimant alleges injuries to the right knee, back, neck, and head as a result of an August 10, 2011 motor vehicle accident.

2. JJS Trucking, LLC was the Claimant's direct employer at the time of the August 10, 2011 accident. (See attached depositions of Samuel Rose and Sedrick Smalls).
3. JJS Trucking, LLC was a subcontractor for Chris Thompson Services, LLC at the time of the Claimant's alleged injuries.
4. JJS Trucking, LLC provided Chris Thompson Services, LLC with a Certificate of Liability Insurance, with effective date of October 8, 2010 and expiration date of October 8, 2011 for its workers' compensation policy, at the time it commenced work for Chris Thompson Services, LLC. (Exhibit A).
5. Travelers Insurance Company is listed as the workers' compensation insurer on the Certificate of Insurance provided by JJS Trucking, LLC to Chris Thompson Services, LLC.
6. JJS Trucking's workers' compensation policy with Travelers apparently lapsed, without notice to or the knowledge of Chris Thompson Services, LLC, prior to the August 10, 2011 accident.
7. Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415(A), "[n]otwithstanding any other provision of law, upon the submission of documentation to the commission that a contractor or subcontractor has represented himself to a higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner as having workers' compensation insurance at the time the contractor or subcontractor was engaged to perform work, the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner must be relieved of any and all liability under this title...In the event that employer is uninsured...the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, project owner, or his insurance carrier shall in the first instance pay all benefits due under this title. The higher tier subcontractor, contractor, project owner, or his insurance carrier may petition the commission to transfer responsibility for continuing compensation and benefits to the Uninsured Employer's Fund."

8. Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415(B), "[t]o qualify for reimbursement under this section, the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner must collect documentation of insurance as provided in subsection (A) on a standard form acceptable to the commission. The documentation must be collected at the time the contractor or subcontractor is engaged to perform work and must be turned over to the commission at the time a claim is filed by the injured employee."
9. Under S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415, it is clear that when a contractor or subcontractor has represented himself to a higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner as having workers' compensation insurance, and the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner collects documentation of said insurance, the higher tier party must be relieved of any and all liability under this title.
10. JJS Trucking, LLC represented itself to Chris Thompson Services as having workers' compensation insurance coverage as evidenced by the attached Accord Form 25, Certificate of Insurance, which is a standard form acceptable to the Commission. (Exhibit A).
11. Furthermore, S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415(C) requires that the lower tier subcontractor notify, by certified mail, the higher tier contractor, subcontractor, or project owner of a lapse in coverage within five days of such a lapse in coverage.

12. JJS Trucking, LLC never provided Chris Thompson Services, LLC with notice, by certified mail or otherwise, that its workers' compensation coverage had lapsed, as required by S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415(C).
13. Based on all of the above, Chris Thompson Services, LLC is informed and believes it must be relieved of any and all liability under this title.

WHEREFORE, Defendants Chris Thompson Services, LLC and Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company respectfully request that the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission issue an Order relieving Chris Thompson Services, LLC and Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company from any liability under the Act for WCC Claim Number 1112328 in accordance with S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415 and transfer liability, if any, to the S.C. Uninsured Employers' Fund.

Respectfully submitted,

TRASK & HOWELL, L.L.C.
P. O. Box 2167
Mt. Pleasant, SC 29465

By Kirsten L. Barr
Kirsten L. Barr
Attorney for Chris Thompson Services, LLC
and Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company

January 24, 2012

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that on this 24th day of January 2012 I have caused a true and correct copy of the Petition to Transfer Liability to be mailed postage prepaid to the Claimant's attorney and parties to be added addressed as follows:

Joseph B. Fisher, Esq.
PO Box 63506
North Charleston, SC 29419

Sedrick Smalls
JJS Trucking, LLC
137-A Gordon St.
Charleston, SC 29403

Timothy Killen, Esq.
S.C. Uninsured Employers Fund
100 Executive Center Dr., Ste 101
Columbia, SC 29210

F. Reid Warder, Esq.
P.O. Box 20550
Charleston, SC 29413

Kirsten L. Barr

118/133\petition to transfer liability

CERTIFICATE OF LIABILITY INSURANCE

 OPID PT
JJSTROC

 DATE (MM/DD/YYYY)
10/18/10

|                                                                                                                          |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                             |              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| PRODUCERSwamp Fox Agency, Inc.P.O. Box 522Pinopolis SC 29459Phone: 843-761-3999 Fax: 843-761-6186 |  | THIS CERTIFICATE IS ISSUED AS A MATTER OF INFORMATION ONLY AND CONFERS NO RIGHTS UPON THE CERTIFICATE HOLDER. THIS CERTIFICATE DOES NOT AMEND, EXTEND OR ALTER THE COVERAGE AFFORDED BY THE POLICIES BELOW. |              |
| INSUREDJJS TRUCKING, LLC137-A Gordon St.Charleston SC 29403                                       |  | INSURERS AFFORDING COVERAGE                                                                                                                                                                          | NAICS |
|                                                                                                                          |  | INSURER A: Tower Ins. Co. of New York                                                                                                                                                                       |              |
|                                                                                                                          |  | INSURER B: Travelers Indem. & Affiliates                                                                                                                                                                    |              |
|                                                                                                                          |  | INSURER C:                                                                                                                                                                                                  |              |
|                                                                                                                          |  | INSURER D:                                                                                                                                                                                                  |              |
|                                                                                                                          |  | INSURER E:                                                                                                                                                                                                  |              |

COVERAGES

THE POLICIES OF INSURANCE LISTED BELOW HAVE BEEN ISSUED TO THE INSURED NAMED ABOVE FOR THE POLICY PERIOD INDICATED. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY REQUIREMENT, TERM OR CONDITION OF ANY CONTRACT OR OTHER DOCUMENT WITH RESPECT TO WHICH THIS CERTIFICATE MAY BE ISSUED OR MAY PERTAIN, THE INSURANCE AFFORDED BY THE POLICIES DESCRIBED HEREIN IS SUBJECT TO ALL THE TERMS, EXCLUSIONS AND CONDITIONS OF SUCH POLICIES. AGGREGATE LIMITS SHOWN MAY HAVE BEEN REDUCED BY PAID CLAIMS.

| DESCRIPTION | TYPE OF INSURANCE                                                                              | POLICY NUMBER | POLICY EFFECTIVE DATE (MM/DD/YYYY) | POLICY EXPIRATION DATE (MM/DD/YYYY) | LIMITS                                          |
|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| A           | GENERAL LIABILITY                                                                              |               |                                    |                                     | EACH OCCURRENCE $                              |
|             | COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY                                                                   |               |                                    |                                     | DAMAGE TO RENTED PREMISES (EA occurrence) $    |
|             | CLAIMS MADE <input type="checkbox"/> OCCUR <input type="checkbox"/>                            |               |                                    |                                     | MED EXP (Any one person) $                     |
|             |                                                                                                |               |                                    |                                     | PERSONAL & ADV INJURY $                        |
|             |                                                                                                |               |                                    |                                     | GENERAL AGGREGATE $                            |
|             | GEN'L AGGREGATE LIMIT APPLIES PER:                                                             |               |                                    |                                     | PRODUCTS - COMPROP AGG $                       |
|             | POLICY <input type="checkbox"/> PRO-JECT <input type="checkbox"/> LOC <input type="checkbox"/> |               |                                    |                                     |                                                 |
| A           | AUTOMOBILE LIABILITY                                                                           | BAPDF0280410  | 10/02/10                           | 10/02/11                            | COMBINED SINGLE LIMIT (EA accident) $1,000,000 |
|             | ANY AUTO                                                                                       |               |                                    |                                     | BODILY INJURY (Per person) $                   |
|             | X SCHEDULED AUTOS                                                                              |               |                                    |                                     | BODILY INJURY (Per accident) $                 |
|             | HIRED AUTOS                                                                                    |               |                                    |                                     | PROPERTY DAMAGE (Per accident) $               |
|             | NON-OWNED AUTOS                                                                                |               |                                    |                                     |                                                 |
|             | UM/UM 75,000                                                                                   |               |                                    |                                     |                                                 |
|             | GARAGE LIABILITY                                                                               |               |                                    |                                     | AUTO ONLY - EA ACCIDENT $                      |
|             | ANY AUTO                                                                                       |               |                                    |                                     | OTHER THAN AUTO ONLY EA ACC $                  |
|             |                                                                                                |               |                                    |                                     | AGG $                                          |
|             | EXCESS / UMBRELLA LIABILITY                                                                    |               |                                    |                                     | EACH OCCURRENCE $                              |
|             | OCCUR <input type="checkbox"/> CLAIMS MADE <input type="checkbox"/>                            |               |                                    |                                     | AGGREGATE $                                    |
|             | DEDUCTIBLE                                                                                     |               |                                    |                                     | $                                              |
|             | RETENTION $                                                                                   |               |                                    |                                     | $                                              |
| B           | WORKERS COMPENSATION AND EMPLOYERS LIABILITY                                                   | BINDER        | 10/08/10                           | 10/08/11                            | EL EACH ACCIDENT $500,000                      |
|             | ANY PROPRIETOR/PARTNER/EXECUTIVE OFFICER/MEMBER EXCLUDED (Mandatory in NC)                     |               |                                    |                                     | EL DISEASE - EA EMPLOYEE $500,000              |
|             | If yes, describe under SPECIAL PROVISIONS below                                                |               |                                    |                                     | EL DISEASE - POLICY LIMIT $500,000             |
|             | OTHER                                                                                          |               |                                    |                                     |                                                 |

DESCRIPTION OF OPERATIONS / LOCATIONS / VEHICLES / EXCLUSIONS ADDED BY ENDORSEMENT / SPECIAL PROVISIONS

CERTIFICATE HOLDER

CANCELLATION

|                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| CHRISTHCHRIS THOMPSON SERVICES, LLCFAX: 688-5084P.O. BOX 3377SUMMERVILLE SC 29484 | SHOULD ANY OF THE ABOVE DESCRIBED POLICIES BE CANCELLED BEFORE THE EXPIRATION DATE THEREOF, THE ISSUING INSURER WILL ENDEAVOR TO MAIL 10 DAYS WRITTEN NOTICE TO THE CERTIFICATE HOLDER NAMED TO THE LEFT, BUT FAILURE TO DO SO SHALL IMPOSE NO OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY OF ANY KIND UPON THE INSURER, ITS AGENTS OR REPRESENTATIVES.AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVEDAVID W. HATES |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

ACORD 25 (2008/01)

© 1988-2008 ACORD CORPORATION. All rights reserved.

The ACORD name and logo are registered marks of ACORD

EXHIBIT A

Condensed Transcript

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA
WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION
WCC FILE NO. 1112328

Samuel A. Rose,
Employee, Claimant,
vs.
JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and Chris Thompson
Services, LLC/Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company,
Employer,
and
Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co., Carrier,
Defendants.

---

DEPOSITION OF

SAMUEL ROSE

November 14, 2011
9:45 a.m.

George Sink, P.A.
7011 Rivers Avenue
N. Charleston, South Carolina

Laci Bearden, Court Reporter and Notary Public

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044
Telephone:

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINAWORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSIONWCC FILE NO. 1112328 Samuel A. Rose,Employee, Claimant,-vs-JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and ChrisThompson Services, LLC/BridgefieldCasualty Insurance Company,Employer.-and-Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co.,Carrier, Defendants. The deposition of Samuel Rose,taken before Laci Bearden, Court Reporter and NotaryPublic, at the George Sink, P.A., 7011 RiversAvenue, N. Charleston, South Carolina on November14th, 2011, commencing at 9:45 a.m. | INDEX EXAMINATION BY MS. BARR 4EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLÉN 28 EXHIBITS (No exhibits produced.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| APPEARANCES For the Employer: George Sink, P.A.BY: Joseph B. Fisher7011 Rivers AvenueSuite 105N. Charleston, SC 29406jfisher@sinklaw.com For the Carrier: Trask &amp; Howell, LLC.BY: Kirsten L. Barr763 Johnnie Dodds Blvd.P.O. Box 2167Mt. Pleasant, SC 29465kbarr@trash-howell.com S.C. UninsuredEmployers FundBY: Timothy Killen, Esq100 Executive CenterDrive, Suite 101Columbia, SC 29210TKillen@sif.sc.gov                                                                               | SAMUEL ROSE was sworn (affirmed) and testified as follows: EXAMINATION BY MS. BARR: Q Mr. Rose, my name is Kirsten Barr and I represent acompany called Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company, andChris Thompson Services regarding your worker's compensationclaim. And I'm sure Mr. Fisher's explained to you whatwe're doing here today, but again, it's called a discoverydeposition, and it really is just what it sounds. It's mychance to discover a little bit more about you as a personand about the accident and your injuries and how you've beendoing since then. My questions are intended to be straightforward, so if I ask something that is unclear or doesn'tmake sense, please ask me to rephrase or repeat my question.I'm happy to do that. Because otherwise, if you answer myquestions, number one, I'm going to assume you're answeringtruthfully, and number two that you understood the questionbefore you answered it, fair enough? A Okay. Q The other thing is the court reporter is going to takedown everything we say here today. This is the microphone,so we just need to speak up and speak clearly. I'llunderstand you if you nod your head here today, but shecan't take that down on paper very well, so we just need toremember to say yes or no and just again, answer it to the |

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 best of your ability. 2 If you would state your full name for the record? 3 A Samuel Archidell Rose. 4 Q Could you spell your middle name for me? 5 A A-R-C-H-I-E-D-E-L-L. 6 Q And Mr. Rose, what is your date of birth? 7 A August 23, 1970. 8 Q And your social security number? 9 A 10 Q And are you married, single, divorced? 11 A Single. 12 Q Have you ever been married? 13 A No. 14 Q Do you have any children? 15 A No. 16 Q And what is your current you address? 17 A Charleston, South Carolina. 18 Q And who do you live with at ? 19 A My cousin. 20 Q And how long have you lived there? 21 A I grew up there. 22 Q And it's just the two of you living there? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Anybody depending on you for support? 25 A No.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 1 early. 2 Q And would you work until the North Charleston plant 3 closed or the saw mill up in Summerville closed? 4 A Summerville. North Charleston is open 24/7. 5 Q So you would begin and start your day at Summerville? 6 A Yes. 7 Q Did you keep the truck you used at your home or JJS 8 Trucking, how did your day start? 9 A It was parked in Summerville at the saw mill. 10 Q So would you drive your personal vehicle to the saw 11 mill then? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Did you have to punch a time card or anything like 14 that, or how did you keep track - how would JJS keep track 15 of your time? 16 A Our daily logs. 17 Q What would you keep track of in your daily log? 18 A The time that I start work, the inspection of the 19 truck, and number of runs I made. 20 Q And would you also get receipts from either the saw 21 mill or from the mill in Charleston as far as what you 22 loaded or unloaded? 23 A Each load that we pick up we received a receipt. When 24 we got to Capstone we received another receipt. 25 Q And what would you do with these receipts?                 |
| 1 Q Tell me, it's my understanding you were working for a 2 company called JJS Trucking at the time of this accident, is 3 that right? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And who did you work for at JJS Trucking? 6 A Sedrick Smalls. 7 Q And when did you start working for Sedrick Smalls at 8 JJS Trucking? 9 A Back in February or March. 10 Q Of 2011? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And what were you hired to do for JJS Trucking? 13 A To haul woodchips from Summerville to North Charleston. 14 Q And that was to North Charleston to the Capstone plant? 15 A Yes. 16 Q Did you have a set work schedule that you did? 17 A From 12:00 o'clock until 12 noon: Either 12 noon or 18 2:00 o'clock, and I worked a 10 to 12 hour shift. 19 Q And during your ten to 12 hour shift, I guess it would 20 be a ten hour shift if you started at 2:00 o'clock in the 21 afternoon? 22 A Yes - well, no. From the time I started, I worked 23 either 10 to 12 hours, and I worked until the plant closed. 24 Q And to your knowledge, what time did the plant close? 25 A It's suppose to close at 3:30, but sometimes it closes | 1 A We turned them in at the end of the week. 2 Q And who did you turn the receipts in to? 3 A They went to Chris Thompson. He has a mailbox placed 4 at the saw mill in Summerville, and we fill out our work 5 sheet, and we put everything in the envelope for him. 6 Q And then how would you get paid? 7 A By check. Sedrick Smalls is the one that paid me. 8 Q And what was the basis of your pay? How did he 9 calculate how much you would earn per week? 10 A $25 dollars per load. 11 Q So someone would add up all those receipts and there 12 would be $25 even for each load that you would get paid? 13 A Yes. 14 Q And how many loads would you average per shift? 15 A Anywhere from six, seven loads per shift. 16 Q And how many days per week did you do this? 17 A Five. 18 Q Was it Monday through Friday? 19 A Yes. We worked on weekends as needed? 20 Q How frequently would you work weekends? 21 A Not often? 22 Q And how did it work? Would Mr. Smalls pay you in 23 check, or would he give that to you personally? Was it 24 mailed to you? 25 A It was given personally. |

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9 1 Q By Mr. Smalls? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And what day of the week would he give you your check? 4 A Friday. 5 Q So every Friday you would get a check? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And how much was your average check that you were paid on Fridays by Mr. Smalls? 8 A It ranged from 650 to 750 depending on how many loads I ran for the week. 9 Q And so you would get the whole 650 to 750? 10 A Yes. 11 Q He didn't take out any taxes? 12 A He took out a hundred dollars for damages to the truck for an escrow account. 13 Q He took that out each week or just the beginning? 14 A Each week. 15 Q What is your job status with Mr. Smalls? Are you still employed by him? 16 A Yes, to my understanding. 17 Q Do you still have funds in that escrow account? 18 A I have no idea. 19 Q When was the last time you got a paycheck from Mr. Smalls? 20 A The week prior to the accident.                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 11 1 Q As I understand it, you had legal representation pretty quickly after the accident; is that fair to say? 2 A Yes, I called him. 3 Q I mean; that was within like a day or two after the accident you had somebody working on your behalf? 4 A In two days. 5 Q Where did you work prior to JJS Trucking? 6 A Leopard, Incorporated. 7 Q Leopard? 8 A Yes. 9 Q What does Leopard, Incorporated do? 10 A It's a tire company. We distribute tractor trailer tires. 11 Q How long did you work for Leopard? 12 A About seven years. 13 Q And where's Leopard located? 14 A It's headquartered out of New Jersey. It's local office is here in North Charleston. 15 Q You said that they distribute tractor trailer tires. Were you doing long distance hauling, trucking? 16 A Both. My job required mostly local driving. 17 Q So local within South Carolina? 18 A No. South Carolina, North Carolina, Florida, Georgia. 19 Q And why did you leave Leopard, Incorporated? 20 A The work slowed down, and I needed money. |
| 10 1 Q Have you spoken to Mr. Smalls since the accident? 2 A Once or twice. 3 Q Did he come see you in the hospital? 4 A Yes. 5 Q Has he done anything to help you with your lost wages or your medical bills? 6 A Nothing. 7 Q Have y'all discussed that? 8 A When I asked him about it, he told me about the insurance. When I contacted the insurance, nothing. 9 Q And what did he tell you about insurance? 10 A That he had insurance. 11 Q Did he tell you, like, auto insurance or worker's comp, or did he tell you what kind? 12 A He said he had workers' comp insurance for us. 13 Q And he gave you the name of a company to call? 14 A Yeah. I gave that to the lawyer. I don't remember the name. He also said that he spoke with Chris Thompson, and Chris Thompson told him that he would cover the medical bills. 15 Q Did you ever speak with anybody at Mr. Smalls insurance company, or did you just pass that on to your attorney? 16 A They contacted me at first, after the accident. They sent me a card and then after that, nothing. I passed all that information on to my attorney. | 12 1 Q When did you last work for them? 2 A February, the latter part of February. 3 Q Of this year? 4 A Yes. 5 Q How much were you earning on average at Leopard? 6 A About 500 a week. 7 Q And is that the same you would earn from them say in 2010 or 2009? 8 A Yeah. 9 Q One of the things we have to do in worker's comp is try to get an idea of how much money you were making in the past year. So was there any other income from any sources other than Leopard, Incorporated or from Sedrick Smalls in this past year, 2011? 10 A Allstate Logistics. 11 Q What did you do for Allstate Logistics? 12 A Local runs. That's just to supplement my income. 13 Q When was the last time you worked for Allstate Logistics? 14 A Back in January. The company went out of business. 15 Q So around the time of this accident, say July or August of 2011, any other supplemental sources of income? 16 A No. 17 Q The checks that you would get from Sedrick Smalls, would it be on a JJS checking account?                                  |

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13 1 A Yes. 2 Q Would it always be the same looking check, or did you 3 ever get a check personally from Sedrick? 4 A Always from JJS Trucking. 5 Q And if we needed to try to track down how much those 6 checks were, would you have a habit of cashing them 7 somewhere or depositing them into a checking or saving 8 account? 9 A I always cashed it at First Citizens Bank. 10 Q Did you have an account there or was that where 11 Mr. Smalls did? 12 A That's where Mr. Smalls had his account. 13 Q Was there a particular branch that you used? 14 A Summerville, Main Road. 15 Q Tell me, on the day of this accident, I believe it was 16 August 10, 2011, what were you doing before the accident 17 occurred or what were you in the process of doing when the 18 accident occurred? 19 A That was my last run for the night, and I was on my way 20 to Capstone to drop the load. 21 Q Did you ever turn in the receipts from that day to 22 Sedrick Smalls? 23 A No. The receipts were left inside the truck. My log 24 book and everything was left in the truck. 25 Q And tell me, as a result of the accident, what                                                                   | 15 1 A Yes. 2 Q How long did you stay at MUSC? 3 A A day and a half. 4 Q And when they released you from MUSC were you referred 5 to any particular doctors or what was your plan of care 6 after your release from MUSC? 7 A They scheduled me an appointment with the neurologist. 8 They gave me a physical therapist and told me I needed to 9 see an orthopaedist as well. 10 Q Do you have a family physician? 11 A No, not at the time, no. 12 Q In the past, have you had a personal family doctor? 13 A No, I just use military doctors. 14 Q Did you serve in the military? 15 A No, my parents. 16 Q So when you were younger, you would just see VA 17 doctors? 18 A Yeah. 19 Q But you haven't seen anybody at the VA since this 20 accident? 21 A No. 22 Q And if you need to take a break, just let me know. 23 A I took pills before. 24 Q What sort of pills might have you taken today? 25 A Flexeril, Fioricet, Elavil, Ibuprofen.                                                                                                  |
| 14 1 happened. Did you stay inside the cab of truck, were you 2 thrown from the cab of the truck, what happened to you 3 specifically? 4 A After the accident, I was pulled out of the truck. 5 Some people stopped, and they pulled me out of the truck and 6 tossed me over the wall, the median of the highway. 7 Q Are there air bags in the truck or any other restraint 8 devices? 9 A Seatbelt. 10 Q Do you recall hitting in particular on the inside of 11 the cab, or did the seatbelt restrain you? 12 A My knee shattered the steering column. My head bounced 13 off the rear glass and steering wheel. 14 Q You said the rear glass? 15 A Yes, it was a day cab. 16 Q Anything else that you can really recall hitting? 17 A Just my right knee when it shattered the steering 18 column and just hitting -- I blacked out when I hit the 19 glass, but I do remember getting pulled from the cab, and 20 then they threw me over the wall before the truck blew up. 21 Q When you blacked out were you totally out cold, or did 22 things just kind of go hazy for you a little bit? 23 A I was told I was out cold. 24 Q It's my understanding you were taken to MUSC; is that 25 right? | 16 1 Q Do those medications have any effects on you, side 2 effects? Do they make you drowsy or -- 3 A Drowsy, dizzy but they are suppose to help me cope with 4 pain. 5 Q Now, after MUSC, did you -- you said that they 6 scheduled a appointment with a neurologist; is that right? 7 A Yes. 8 Q Did you see the neurologist? 9 A No, they kept canceling my appointment. 10 Q Have you seen a neurologist at all since the accident? 11 A I'm scheduled to see one next week. 12 Q Who are you scheduled to see next week? 13 A Dr. Weinstein(sic). 14 Q Doctor who? 15 A Weinstein. 16 Q Weinstein? Is this somebody that you're -- 17 MR. FISHER: Wildsteen. 18 MS. BARR: Wildsteen. 19 Q And you're to see Dr. Wildsteen about your neck? 20 A My neck, my back, and my knee. 21 Q Now, I know MUSC had talked to you about seeing an 22 orthopedist about your knee. Did you see any of the 23 orthopedists at MUSC for your knee? 24 A No. They canceled the appointments as well. 25 Q There was talk about you seeing Dr. Hartsock(ph). Did |

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 17 1 you ever see him? He's an orthopedist at MUSC? 2 A He's the one that canceled the appointment. There was 3 a problem with the insurance. 4 Q You've seen Dr. Wildsteen already; is that right? 5 A I've spoken with him, but I haven't went to his office 6 yet. 7 Q Have you seen any doctor since you were released from 8 MUSC? 9 A Yes. 10 Q And who has treated you? 11 A Dr. Able, Dr. Keller, Dr. Willis. 12 Q Dr. Able, what kind of doctor is Dr. Able; do you know? 13 A General practitioner. 14 Q And how did you find Dr. Able? 15 A Through my lawyer's office. 16 Q And what has Dr. Able been doing for you? 17 A He's the initial one that treated me for my neck, my 18 back, and my knee. He's been -- 19 Q Giving you the medications? 20 A Some of it. I'm just monitoring my treatment. 21 Dr. Kellet(ph) is the pain specialist. He's the one -- he's 22 been trying to help me cope with my pain. He's given me 23 Oxycodone, Lortab, just things to help with the pain. I've 24 taken two epidurals, cortisone shots. 25 Q And were your epidurals for your neck or for your lower | 19 1 Q After -- I know you spent the night there but after 2 your release did you ever go back to see any doctors at 3 MUSC? 4 A No, I went to my appointments but they kept getting 5 canceled. And the also assigned me a physical therapist. 6 And I forgot who that was. 7 Q Did you get any therapy done there? 8 A Three times. 9 Q And I know you said you scheduled Dr. Wildsteen. Any 10 other doctors appointment? 11 A No. Doctor Ables, yes. 12 Q What sort of schedule to you have with Dr. Able? Do 13 you see him like once a week or once a month? 14 A Every two weeks. 15 Q And the pain medicines you have now you said you get 16 some from Dr. Able and then some from Dr. Kellet? 17 A Yeah. 18 Q Tell me a little bit about the pain you're feeling now, 19 where you're feeling it, and help me understand how you 20 describe it. 21 A Dizziness. 22 Q And how frequently are you dizzy? 23 A Daily. 24 Q Is it something that comes and goes? 25 A If I move too fast then my head starts spinning. If I                                                                                                                                        |
| 18 1 back? 2 A My lower back. The cortisone shots were for my neck. 3 And he referred me to Dr. Wildsteen. 4 Q Have you seen anybody in Dr. Wildsteen's office. 5 A No. I took an MRI already, and I'm waiting for my 6 appointment. 7 Q Where did you have the MRI done? 8 A Trident County Radiology. 9 Q And was that for your neck or for you or lower back? 10 A My neck. I've had an MRI of my knee done at MUSC. 11 Q All right. Do you have any appointments with any 12 doctors that deal specifically with the knee problem or the 13 main problem, your neck and your back at this point? 14 A My neck and my back at this point. 15 Q And you mentioned Dr. Willis; is that right? 16 A Yes. 17 Q What has Dr. Willis done for you? 18 A Mostly it's just therapy, physical therapy and just to 19 help me deal with the pain. 20 Q Any doctors other than Dr. Able, Dr. Kellet, 21 Dr. Willis? 22 A No. 23 Q And then of course you saw a number of doctors while 24 you were a patient at MUSC. 25 A Yes.                                                                                          | 20 1 get up, when I first stand up I have to orient myself. 2 There's a throbbing in the back of my head that hurts. My 3 neck, if I hold it up too long it starts hurting. My lower 4 back is still in pain. And my knee, if I go for walks in 5 the neighborhood to exercise, walking less than a block I 6 just need help or need some rest just to get back on. 7 Q And that's your right knee? 8 A Yeah. 9 Q Does it lock up or it just hurts? 10 A It locks up and it hurts. 11 Q Do you feel the pain anywhere else? 12 A My whole back. My entire back. 13 Q Is there anything that helps with the pain or improves 14 it even a little bit as far as your back pain goes. A 15 position or activity that helps? 16 A Showers, warm Showers, Bengay. 17 Q But you have been doing some exercises with the 18 physical therapist? 19 A Yes. 20 Q Do they have you doing anything at home as far as 21 exercising or stretching to help with your back? 22 A Stretching helps my back and my neck. 23 Q Are you good? Some people are better than others about 24 actually doing the stretches and exercises. Do you do them? 25 A I do some of them, but it hurts. |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 21 1 Q You mentioned that the medication that you've taken 2 before you came here today, do you take any other 3 medications say like at bedtime? 4 A Yeah. 5 Q What other medications do you take? 6 A Flexeril. 7 Q Your handing me a list and it look likes -- 8 A Those are all the medication that I take. 9 Q So it's Flexeril, Amitriptyline, Fioricet, Ellevil, 10 Ibuprofen, Lortab, the Ibuprofen, and you also have 11 Neurontin and Oxycodone? 12 A Right? 13 Q And the Oxycodone, is that something that you take when 14 the pain gets really bad? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And the Neurontin you take everyday? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Have you ever had surgery before? 19 A No. 20 Q Have you ever been hospitalized for any reason prior to 21 this accident? 22 A No. 23 Q Have you ever had a workmen's compensation claim or a 24 personal injury claim? 25 A Never. | 23 1 blood pressure, diabetes anything like that. 2 A High blood pressure. Asthma. 3 Q Do you take prescription medications for either of 4 those conditions? 5 A For high blood pressure Lotensin. 6 Q And who prescribes Lotensin for you? 7 A Dr. Able. 8 Q And before Dr. Able, who -- 9 A I was not on any medication for high blood pressure. 10 Q Were you aware you had high blood pressure before the 11 accident? 12 A Yes, but it wasn't dangerously high. 13 Q Do you monitor your blood pressure now? 14 A Now, I do, yes. 15 Q Do you have it under control now? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And just so I'm clear, you may have already told me 18 this, but Dr. Able -- you never saw Dr. Able until after 19 this accident in August? 20 A Right. The blood pressure medicine, they first assumed 21 the headaches I was having was because of the blood 22 pressure. Then the blood pressure came under control and 23 then I still had the headaches. 24 Q Does the pain medication that you're taking, does that 25 help with the headaches?     |
| 22 1 Q Have you ever been in an automobile accident prior to 2 this? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And when was that? 5 A I think it was '07. 6 Q In 2007? 7 A Yes. 8 Q And where did that accident occurred? 9 A Here in Charleston. 10 Q Were you injured in that accident? 11 A No. 12 Q Was there any sort of settlement with the insurance 13 company over that accident? 14 A Yes. 15 Q Do you recall about how much you received in that 16 settlement? 17 A No. 18 Q Was it a couple hundred dollars, a couple thousand 19 dollars? 20 A It was a few hundred. And the owner of the car is the 21 one that got his car repaired. I borrowed the car. 22 Q Did they take you hospital or anything after the 23 accident? 24 A No. 25 Q Do you have any chronic medical conditions like high                                                                                       | 24 1 A No, not really. 2 Q How would you describe the type of headaches you have. 3 Where do you feel it and what does it feel like? 4 A The back of my head. It's like a buildup of pressure, 5 throbbing. 6 Q Does that change through the course of the day, the 7 intensity? 8 A Sometimes it gets worse and sometimes it's milder, but 9 it's there. 10 Q I noticed your wearing a soft collar around your neck. 11 Where did you get that? 12 A Dr. Able. 13 Q When do you wear that? 14 A Whenever I have to keep my head up. 15 Q So like you don't wear that around the house or that 16 sort of thing? 17 A No. Right now just keeping my head up it hurts, and my 18 collar is just to help me keep it up. 19 Q So you kind of rest your chin on it a little bit? 20 A Yeah. 21 Q And the cane, I notice that your off carrying the cane? 22 A Dizziness and balance. 23 Q Have you talked to Dr. Able about maybe your 24 medications effecting you making you a little dizzy? 25 A He said that the whiplash effect, I'm going to be dizzy |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Galt Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 25 1 for another year. I'll still have side effects from it. 2 Q But you have not gone to a neurologist to have that 3 checked out. 4 A Not yet. 5 Q And you don't think any appointments are scheduled 6 right now with the specialist? 7 A No. They've taken X-rays, and Dr. Kellet is the last 8 to take X-rays of my neck, and he referred me to the 9 neurologist. 10 Q And that's in his same practice together, Dr. Wildsteen 11 and Dr. Kellet; is that right? 12 A Dr. Willis and Dr. Kellet is in the same practice. 13 Dr. Able is in a different practice. 14 Q Have you had any sources of income since the accident? 15 A Just family and money that I've borrowed. 16 Q You don't have like a AFLAC policy or any kind of 17 insurance policy? 18 A No. 19 Q And your medical bills, have you started getting bills 20 from MUSC or any of the other providers? 21 A Yes. 22 Q Have you paid any of your medical bills? 23 A No. 24 Q When was the last time you spoke to Sedrick Smalls? 25 A It's been over a month ago.                                                                                                                                   | 27 1 of record like a check stub or anything like that that you 2 could -- 3 A I didn't save any. 4 Q You didn't save any. 5 A We probably can go to the bank and ask for copies of 6 the check. 7 Q But you said they were always on a JJS Trucking 8 checking account? 9 A Yes. 10 Q And then there would have also been somebody would have 11 kept a log -- 12 A Sedrick Smalls. 13 Q Did your log survive the accident; do you know? 14 A I have no idea. 15 Q With the log that you would have had with you on the 16 night of the accident, been your only log you ever had 17 working for JJS Trucking, or would there have been other 18 log? 19 A Copies of the logs are kept by Chris Thompson when we 20 turned in the logs at the end of the week. 21 Q Did you ever see him personally and like hand him the 22 log, or was there just left in the place? 23 A We left it in a place. 24 Q Was that left at Capstone? 25 A No, it was left in Summerville.                                                                   |
| 26 1 Q And you said that he told you that you were covered by 2 workmen's? He had a worker's comp policy that covered you? 3 A That was in the hospital after the accident he told me 4 that and that was back in August. 5 Q Did you subsequently find out that he didn't have a 6 policy in effect? 7 A Yes. 8 Q Did you talk to him about that? 9 A I spoke with my lawyer. 10 Q But you never confronted Mr. Smalls, and said hey, your 11 policy was no good? 12 A Yeah. I asked him about it, and he still showed me 13 that it was good. 14 Q Do you have a gut feeling, do you believe him, do you 15 think he had a workmen's compensation policy? 16 A At the time of the accident, I did believe him. 17 Q What about now, do you know what to think? 18 A Right now I was told they didn't that the policy 19 lapsed. 20 Q Do you think, you know, if Mr. Smalls said he had it, 21 do you think he knew it had lapsed, or do you think he was 22 telling you the truth -- 23 A At the time, I assumed he was telling me the truth. 24 Q If we needed you to help us figure out how much you had 25 earned while working for JJS Trucking, do you have any sort | 28 1 Q At the saw mill in Summerville? 2 A Yes. 3 Q Would it have been at that front office where you drop 4 in? 5 A No, back at the scales. 6 Q Would you talk to anybody when you dropped that off? 7 A No. We put it in a envelope in the mailbox. The 8 mailbox was for CTS Trucking, and we just put it in an 9 envelop for CTS Trucking. 10 Q There was just some kind of lobby with the mailbox in 11 it? 12 A It's outside. 13 Q Outside. And it's over there by the scales? 14 A Yes. And if there was any problems CTS would contact 15 me or Sedrick Smalls would contact me. 16 Q As far as problems with the logs? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Mr. Rose, I think that's all the questions I have for 19 you. Mr. Killen may have some questions for you and your 20 lawyer might have some, too. 21 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN: 22 Q I'm Tim Killen. I represent the state agency involved 23 in this case. This is Workmen's Compensation Uninsured 24 Employer Fund. When you went to work for JJS Trucking, did 25 your route ever vary? |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 29 1 A We took the interstate or we went the back way through2 Hanahan and Goose Creek.3 Q But you were always going to the same place from the4 same place; is that correct?5 A Yes.6 Q How did you know you were hauling these loads for Chris7 Thompson?8 A Chris Thompson was the contractor and everything coming9 out of Summerville saw mill is either hauled for Don Sweet10 or Chris Thompson. Everybody else were just subcontractors11 under those two.12 Q How did you know you were you working under Chris13 Thompson?14 A I was told.15 Q Who told you that?16 A Sedrick Smalls.17 Q Did you ever work for anybody else other than Chris18 Thompson?19 A At the saw mill, no.20 Q You said that Chris Thompson would contact you?21 A No, his secretary.22 Q His secretary would contact you?23 A If there's a problem with the logs or paperwork that I24 turn in, they left either notes in the box for us, or when25 we picked up our checks, we received the note from them, or                      | 31 1 Chris Thompson. The trucks belong to JJS Trucking, and they2 were responsible for the maintenance on the trailer. JJS3 Trucking was responsible for maintenance on the truck.4 Q Every time you hauled a load the trailer was Chris5 Thompson's?6 A Yes.7 Q When you were hurt the trailer on your out truck was8 Chris Thompson's?9 A Yes.10 Q Did JJS Trucking own any of the trailers?11 A No, just the truck.12 Q Could you have done the job without the trailer?13 A No. The trailer is used to haul the chips.14 Q And so in order to get the job done you needed Chris15 Thompson's trailer?16 A Right.17 Q Did you ever have any direct interaction with Chris18 Thompson himself?19 A His mechanics.20 Q What would they do?21 A They were the ones that inspected the trucks, took care22 of the maintenance on the trucks, fix the tires, just the23 regular maintenance on the trailer.24 Q You said the trucks, you mean the trucks or the trailer25 or both?                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 30 1 they would call us on the phone, or our boss would tell us,2 relay the message to us.3 Q Did somebody from Chris Thompson call you more often,4 or did your boss Sedrick Smalls?5 A Mostly Sedrick Smalls. Once I was contacted by someone6 from Chris Thompson's office?7 Q Just once?8 A Twice.9 Q Are you sure?10 A Yes.11 Q I don't want you to guess. I just want you to tell us12 what you know. And when you were contacted by someone from13 Chris Thompson what did they want?14 A First time, was my hours of service. I went over 1215 hours, and they told me not to do that, and the second time16 it was for truck inspections.17 Q What in regards to truck inspections?18 A I needed to take the truck over to his shop to have19 them inspect it.20 Q You needed to take your JJS Trucking truck over to21 Chris Thompson's shop; is that correct?22 A Yes.23 Q So that someone from Chris Thompson's outfit could24 inspect your truck?25 A The trailer. The trailers that we hauled belonged to | 32 1 A The trailer. The day before the accident they2 inspected the trucks, the truck itself.3 Q And that JJS Trucking's truck?4 A Yes. Chris Thompson mechanic inspected the truck5 itself. The tractor, the day before the accident and prior6 to that they were only inspecting the trailer and just done7 any maintenance or anything that we found wrong with the8 trailer, they would fix it.9 Q Do you know why they would inspect your truck the day10 before the accident?11 A One of trucks that belonged to JJS Trucking had a tire12 problem. The treads on the tires was worn. The mechanics13 inspected it when it was parked at Summerville saw mill. He14 left a note saying it needed to get repaired, and then he15 wanted to see all the trucks and inspect the tires.16 Q He being who?17 A The head mechanic. A guy named Tim.18 Q Tim working for?19 A Chris Thompson. And to my knowledge he wanted every20 truck that JJS drove inspected by him.21 Q Did you talk to Sedrick Smalls about that?22 A Yes.23 Q What did Sedrick Smalls tell you?24 A The truck that I was driving I had to take it to the25 mechanic to get some tires replaced, and after I had the |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 33 1 tires replaced, I took it to have Tim, Chris Thompson's2 mechanic to have it inspected.3 Q What did Sedrick Smalls tell you about the inspections?4 A That we passed the inspection.5 Q Did he tell you anything else?6 A No. He just you told me to go get the trailer from7 Chris Thompson, so I could continue my work for the day.8 Q Did you ever hand in your logs to Sedrick Smalls or JJS9 Trucking?10 A Yes.11 Q How frequently would you do that?12 A When I first started, I gave him my logs personally.13 But after approximately two weeks I started putting it in14 the box.15 Q And giving it directly to Chris Thompson's company?16 A Yes.17 Q Beside the truck and the trailer, was there anything18 else you needed to do your job?19 A Fuel.20 Q And you needed the logs; right.21 A Yep.22 Q How was fuel paid for?23 A Tohya Smalls, Sedrick's wife, we met her at the gas24 station on Monroe Gray Avenue. She would fill up the truck.25 She did it twice a week. | 35 1 Q What do you think would you happen if he made that2 recommendation?3 A We would be fired.4 Q Is it your understanding that Chris Thompson said he5 would pay for your medical bills?6 A That's what I was told.7 Q You were told that by Sedrick Smalls?8 A Yes.9 Q And none of your medical bills have been paid?10 A Nothing.11 Q And you have not received any form of weekly12 compensation while you have been out?13 A No.14 Q Did Chris Thompson subcontract this work out to any15 other companies other than JJS Trucking?16 A I wouldn't know that.17 Q Were you aware of any drivers from other companies18 hauling loads using Chris Thompson's trailers?19 A I wouldn't know that.20 Q Capstone ever have any drivers?21 A None that came in contact with it. Everybody that22 drove there just came from all over the state.23 Q You never saw any Capstone employers driving your truck24 doing the same things that you were you doing?25 A I wouldn't know if they were Capstone employees. |
| 34 1 Q Did you ever --2 A Plus she would pay for it after we filled it up.3 Q Did you fill up your truck any other way than that?4 A No.5 Q And when you got those new tires on the truck how was6 that paid for?7 A He paid for it himself. Sedrick Smalls paid for it.8 Q Did anybody working for JJS Trucking ever get fired9 while you worked there?10 A Nobody got fired.11 Q Did anybody ever get reprimanded while you were there?12 A Not to my knowledge.13 Q Did you ever get reprimanded in any way?14 A Once for my hours of service.15 Q You got reprimanded by Chris Thompson's secretary.16 A Both. Chris Thompson secretary and Sedrick Smalls.17 Q And you got paid $25 a load?18 A Yes.19 Q And all the load you were hauling were --20 A Woodchips.21 Q In Chris Thompson's trailers.22 A Yes.23 Q Do you know whether or not Chris Thompson had a right24 to fire you?25 A He would recommend that we be fired.                                                            | 36 1 Q So you don't know, is that the right?2 A Right.3 Q How often do you take the Oxycodone?4 A I take the oxycodone when the pain is unbearable.5 Q When's the last time you took it.6 A Last night.7 Q Before that, when's the last time you took it?8 A When I took my MRI.9 Q How long ago was that?10 A Last week, Monday.11 Q Do you ever take it more than a couple times a week?12 A No.13 Q And you said you were tossed over the median when you14 got out of the truck?15 A The people that pulled me out of the truck. They tried16 to pull me away from it. I remember one guy saying get him17 on the other side against the wall, and then I felt them18 throw me over the wall, and when I came, to the police and19 firemen was dragging me further away from the truck while it20 was burning.21 Q What was burning?22 A The truck blew up. The tractor that hit me blew up,23 and my truck was burning. It caught on fire.24 Q You didn't get any burns yourself?25 A Smoke Inhalation, no.    |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 37 1 Q Who pulled you out of the truck? 2 A I have no idea. 3 Q Do you know who hit you? 4 A I was told it was the driver by the name of Robbie. 5 Q Do you know Robbie? 6 A No. 7 Q Have you ever met him prior to that night? 8 A Just speaking saying hi and bye. 9 Q Where would you see him? 10 A When I'm leaving or coming to work. When I'm leaving 11 the saw mill or coming to work to the truck. 12 Q Saw mill. That's where you would start your work every 13 day? 14 A Yes. 15 Q What business is there? 16 A Summerville saw mill. That's where we picked up the 17 woodchips to take to Capstone. 18 Q Where did you keep your -- 19 A All the trucks were parked across the street from the 20 saw mill property. All of Chris Thompson's trucks and JJS 21 trucks, they were parked there. 22 Q Where there any other trucks from any other companies 23 parked in the same lot? 24 A There used to be, but back in June or you July Don 25 Sweet, he had his drivers bring his trucks to him, and his                | 39 1 STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA) 2 : C-E-R-T-I-F-I-C-A-T-E 3 COUNTY OF DORCHESTER) 4 I, Laci B. Bearden, Court Reporter and Notary Public, 5 certify that I did have Samuel Rose to appear before me at 6 9:45 a.m. on Monday, November 14th, 2011, at the law offices 7 of George Sink, P.A., 7011 Rivers Avenue, n. Charleston, 8 South Carolina; that the witness was sworn and cautioned to 9 tell the truth, the pages constitute a true and accurate 10 transcript of the testimony given at that time and place. 11 I further certify that I am not of counsel or kin to 12 any of the parties to this cause of action, nor am I 13 interested in any manner in its outcome. 14 IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and 15 seal this the 14th day of November, 2011. 16 17 18 19 Laci B. Bearden 20 Notary Public for South Carolina 21 My Commission Expires: September 29, 2021 22 23 24 25 |
| 38 1 sub contractors parked their trucks somewhere else. The only 2 people that parked there was Chris Thompson and JJS trucks. 3 Q Do you know anything about who paid who to park there? 4 A No. 5 Q Do you know anything about the agreement between JJS 6 Trucking and Chris Thompson? 7 A No. 8 Q Do you know how much -- and I know I just asked you 9 this question. Do you know what percentage Chris Thompson 10 took from each of your loads. 11 A No. 12 Q Did you have an understanding what would have happened 13 had your truck not passed that inspection by Chris 14 Thompson's personnel that day? 15 A I would have either had to drive a different truck or 16 not work. 17 Q Do you know whether or not Sedrick Smalls had any 18 discussions with Chris Thompson when you were hired? 19 A I don't know. 20 Q That's all I have. 21 MS. BARR: Thank you, sir. That's all we have for 22 you if Mr. Fisher doesn't have any questions. 23 (The deposition was concluded at 24 10:40 a.m. November, 14th, 25 2011.) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

Condensed Transcript

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA
WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION
WCC FILE NO. 1112328

Samuel A. Rose,
Employee, Claimant,
vs.
JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and Chris Thompson
Services, LLC/Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company,
Employer,
and
Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co., Carrier,
Defendants.

---

DEPOSITION OF SEDRICK SMALLS

November 14, 2011
11:00 a.m.

George Sink, P.A.
7011 Rivers Avenue
N. Charleston, South Carolina

Laci Bearden, Court Reporter and Notary Public

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044
Telephone:

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINAWORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSIONWCC FILE NO. 1112328 Samuel A. Rose,Employee, Claimant,-vs-JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and ChrisThompson Services, LLC/BridgefieldCasualty Insurance Company,Employer. -and- Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co.,Carrier, Defendants. The deposition of Sedrick Smalls,taken before Laci Bearden, Court Reporter and NotaryPublic, at the George Sink, P.A., 7011 RiversAvenue, N. Charleston, South Carolina on November14th, 2011, commencing at 11:00 a.m.                                                                                                   | 1 INDEX 2 3 EXAMINATION BY MR. FISHER 4 4 EXAMINATION BY MS. BARR 19 5 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN 22 6 EXAMINATION BY MR. FISHER 38 7 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN 39 8 9 10 11 12 EXHIBITS 13 14 Plaintiff's Exhibit Number One 8 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1 APPEARANCES 2 3 4 For the Employer: George Sink, P.A.BY: Joseph B. Fisher7011 Rivers AvenueSuite 105N. Charleston, SC 29406jfisher@sinklaw.com 6 7 8 For the Carrier: Trask &amp; Howell, L.L.C.BY: Kristen L. Barr763 Johnnie Dodds Blvd.P.O. Box 2167Mt. Pleasant, SC 29465kbar@trash-howell.com 10 11 12 S.C. UninsuredEmployers FundBY: Timothy Killen, Esq100 Executive CenterDrive, Suite 101Columbia, SC 29210Tkillen@sif.sc.gov 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 | 1 SEDRICK SMALLS 2 was sworn (affirmed) and testified as follows: 3 EXAMINATION BY MR. FISHER: 4 Q My name is Joe Fisher. I represent Samuel Rose with 5 the worker's compensation claim that we filed arising out of 6 an accident that occurred on August 10, 2011. I want to ask 7 you some questions about your relationship with my client, a 8 work relationship and your work relationship, business 9 relationship with a gentleman named Chris Thompson and his 10 company Chris Thompson Services, LLC; okay? 11 A Yes, sir. 12 Q Will you please state your name for the record? 13 A Sedrick Smalls. 14 Q Mr. Smalls, where do you live at? 15 A Charleston, South Carolina, 29403. 16 Q And are you familiar with the company called JJS 17 Trucking? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And how are you familiar with that company? 20 A I am the owner, president. I think that's it, the 21 president. 22 Q Are there any other owners, any other shareholders, 23 anything like that in JJS Trucking? 24 A No. 25 Q Your a sole proprietor? |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 A Yes. 2 Q Sole owner? 3 A Yes. President, yes. 4 Q And do you know a gentlemen named Samuel Rose? 5 A Yes. 6 Q How do you know Mr. Rose? 7 A I employed him at JJS Trucking. 8 Q Do you remember when he went to work for you? 9 A I believe it was the fourth month. 10 Q I think he testified earlier he went to work for you in April of 2011. Would that be about right? 12 A Correct, correct. 13 Q Was he working for you in August of 2011? 14 A Yes. 15 Q And JJS Trucking, you guys subcontract work for Chris Thompson Services; is that correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q And how long have you had a relationship to work with Chris Thompson Services? 19 A For over three plus years. 20 Q And what is that relationship? 22 A I'm a subcontractor. He -- I pull loads for him. He provides a trailer, and I provide my insurance coverage to him, and he pays me by the ton to carry each load. 24 Q And where do these loads go to, and where do the loads                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 1 A Yes. 2 Q Take your time. 3 A Here we go. If you want to make a copy of that. 4 Q That would be great. 5 A That's the same thing I provided to the insurance company. 6 7 (Where upon an off the record discussion took place.) 8 9 Q Sir, you provided us with what looks like a payroll log, is that what that is? What is that? And I'll show you a copy of it. 11 12 A Exactly. This is what we call a load sheet and for each ticket number you see represents a load. For each load that's turned in, that's how he gets paid his $25. It just verifies what he done that particular week. 14 15 Q And for example on 7/12/2011, if you'll take a look at that. 17 18 A Correct. 19 Q Which is one, two, three, four, five, six, seven numbers; is that correct? One, two, three, four, five, six, seven numbers. 21 22 A Correct. 23 Q Does that mean he made seven loads that day? 24 25 A Correct. Q And then on the 13th it shows one, two, three, four,                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1 come from? 2 A They come from a lumber mill in Summerville, and then they go to a paper mill in Charleston, and the lumber mill is off of Highway 78 and they go to Virginia Avenue. 4 5 Q And that's your exclusive contract with him? 6 7 A Yes. 8 Q You don't haul anything else anywhere other than this route from Summerville to the paper mill; is that right? 9 10 A Correct. 11 Q And let me see, my client had started working for you in April of 2011. Did you pay my client? 12 13 A Yes, I paid him. Yes. 14 Q And how did you pay him? 15 16 A I paid him as a subcontractor by the per load. For every load that he received, he got paid for each load. 17 18 Q And how much did he get paid per load? 19 20 A Twenty-five dollars per load. 21 Q And how many loads would you say he could make on average in a day? 22 23 A Focus -- he would on average per day it was normally around five loads. Sometimes a little bit more, sometimes a little bit less, but on average for Mr. Samuel every week, he typically got 25 to 30 loads every week. I do have some documentation for that. 24 25 Q You do. Could I see what you have? | 1 five numbers, so he made five loads that day; correct? 2 3 A Correct. 4 Q And I would assume it varies on traffic and other things; is that correct? 5 6 A Correct. 7 Q As to how many loads you could get a day. And what you've given us is from July 12, 2011, through August 9, 2011; is that correct? 8 9 A Correct. But I do have all of his since he was employed. I just thought it might be handy here today because that's for the insurance company. They just wanted "X" amount for representation so, but that's what you're looking at right there. 11 12 Q I would like to mark this is as Plaintiff's Exhibit One, please. 13 14 (Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1 was marked for identification.) 15 16 Q Now, what was your arrangement with Chris Thompson Services, your business arrangement? 17 18 A My arrangement was to -- and we only had a verbal agreement, but my arrangement was to haul loads, and I was to receive compensation for each load that I carried, and I would turn in my sheets at the end of the week, and then the following week he would relinquish me a check for what I did the previous week. 20 21 22 23 24 25 |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Galle Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 Q Were you paid by the ton? 2 A Correct. 3 Q And then he was also paid by the ton. "He" being Chris 4 Thompson, did he get paid so much per ton as well? 5 A I believe so, yes. 6 Q Who paid Chris Thompson? 7 A I would believe he got paid from Capstone because 8 that's the -- maybe -- matter of fact, he might have got 9 paid from the lumber mill. Actually, I really don't know, 10 but I know that's where we delivered it to, Capstone. 11 Q And Chris Thompson would cut a check JJS Trucking -- 12 A Correct. 13 Q -- every week and then you would cut a check to your 14 employees -- 15 A Yes. 16 Q -- or is it the fellows who drove a truck for you -- 17 A Correct. 18 Q -- and that's how that worked? 19 A Correct. 20 Q And how many trucks did you have working for you at the 21 time of this accident? 22 A Three. 23 Q Three. And how many trucks do you own? 24 A Four. 25 Q Four trucks. Who all drove a truck for you?                                                                                                                                                          | 1 A Exactly. But excluding the trailer. Everything on the 2 trailer would be Chris Thompson's. 3 Q How long have you had JJS Trucking? 4 A If I'm not mistaken -- I know I got a date for when it 5 was established, but I would say somewhere around seven 6 years. 7 Q Have you ever had any trouble with insurance like 8 what's going on now? 9 A No, sir. 10 Q Now, you've provided and I believe your insurance 11 agency provided some insurance certificates to us, and the 12 state has concluded that your insurance had lapsed from 13 February 5, 2011. Until September 23, 2011. Did you ever 14 receive a letter from the state? 15 MR. KILLEN: Let me just object to the form of 16 that question. 17 Q Well, if you could just answer that. Have you ever 18 received a letter from the South Carolina Workmen's 19 Compensation Commission by a gentlemen named Gary Smith? 20 A Please repeat that question. 21 Q Have you ever received a copy of this letter right 22 here, I want to show you? 23 A No, sir. 24 Q It says it was mailed to 137A Gordon Street? 25 A Let's see, this is on October -- okay, October the |
| 1 A At that time of the incident, it was me, Samuel Rose, 2 Shaun Thompson -- Shaun Thomas, and Reggie Washington. 3 Reggie was really part time. He didn't run every day. 4 Q Did you have a truck driver named Terri? 5 A Yes, I did, but he was not employed with me at that 6 time. He was a subcontractor for me at that time. 7 Q Did you have a truck driver named Max? 8 A Yes. I did at that time, but he was not working for me 9 at that time. 10 Q The deal with Chris Thompson was in order for you to 11 work for him you had to provide him with copies of your 12 certificates of insurance -- 13 A Correct. 14 Q -- to cover your drivers and yourself for worker's 15 compensations purposes; is that right? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And what would happen if you didn't provide those 18 certificates of insurance to Chris Thompson? 19 A I would be terminated. 20 Q And who paid for the gas for the trucks that you drove? 21 A I did. 22 Q What about the tires? 23 A I did. All maintenance to the vehicles, I was 24 responsible for? 25 Q But the trailers were owned by Chris Thompson? | 1 28th. Okay. Okay. 2 Q Is this your address here, 137A Gordon Street? 3 A Yes. Well, what I want to say is I haven't actually 4 seen it myself, but they have sent quite a bit of letters to 5 me. 6 Q And has any insurance company or anyone told you that 7 your insurance had lapsed starting February 5, 2011, through 8 September 23, 2011? 9 A I had not received anything from my actual insurance 10 carrier. 11 Q But have you talked with anyone at the State of South 12 Carolina Workmen's Compensation Commission about that? 13 A No, sir. 14 Q And no one's discussed any sort of fine with you for 15 not having it -- 16 A I did receive a letter saying that if I do not show 17 that I had insurance over "X" amount of years that I would 18 receive a fine. 19 Q Now, are you aware that the insurance company -- your 20 worker's compensation carriers has said that you didn't have 21 insurance at the time of this accident? 22 A I am aware that they said that. 23 Q Have you talked to them about that since then? 24 A Have I talked with them? 25 Q Your insurance company?                                |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 A I have, and they still stand by the fact that I do not2 have worker's compensation.3 Q And which company said that, is it Travelers, Zurich,4 do you remember?5 A Towers.6 Q After Mr. Rose was in the accident, when did you find7 out this accident happened?8 A I found out immediately. I mean, within an hour.9 Q Did you go to the hospital and see him?10 A Yes, I did.11 Q Did you ever talk to Chris Thompson about this12 accident?13 A Yes, I did.14 Q What did Chris Thompson and you discuss?15 A I informed him that at this scene his driver hit my16 driver in the rear, that at the scene DOT and South Carolina17 State Troopers had faulted his driver at fault and that my18 driver was in no way -- they called it not contributing. So19 I informed him of all of this.20 Q After this accident, did you and Chris Thompson ever21 discuss worker's compensation coverage?22 A We did later on once I found out that I was not being23 covered.24 Q What did Mr. Thompson tell you?25 A That when he informed me that --                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 151 but I don't know what's going on because if you look at2 those documents, it would state that you would have it, but3 again, if I don't I don't, but I was not aware that I did4 not.5 Q Is this the documents you were just asking me about?6 A Yes, sir.7 Q And one of them is dated 10/18/2010. Can you take a8 look at that? Number one it has Tower Insurance Company.9 Below it it has Travelers Insurance; is that correct?10 A Correct.11 Q And it shows the date covered 10/8/10 to 10/8/11?12 A I know on this policy, if I'm not mistaken, I had just13 renewed it after the incident because after I found out, I14 went to go get reinstated, you know, and so that's what15 we're looking at right here.16 Q And this was generated after the accident; is what17 you're saying?18 A That's right, that's right.19 Q And where it says binder down there, what does that20 mean?21 A That means that I'm covered.22 Q That's your understanding that it means you're covered.23 Then I have this other one from Swap Fox Agency? Is this24 your agency?25 A No. No. No. We're looking at the wrong thing. I'm |
| 141 MS. BARR: Object to the hearsay.2 Q Go ahead and answer the question.3 A He informed me that I can no longer work for him based4 on the fact that my insurance had lapsed at that time.5 That's what he said.6 Q Did he ever say anything about his insurance taking7 care of this claim with regard to Mr. Rose?8 A What he stated is that --9 MS. BARR: Same objection to hearsay.10 Q Go ahead.11 A What he stated was that Sedrick -- that I was12 responsible for keeping my worker's comp coverage current.13 He stated that he was not informed that my insurance had14 lapsed. Actually, I was looking for it here, but I don't15 have it. But I was going to ask you -- remember I faxed you16 two copies of -- he in turn said to me, Sedrick -- so the17 bottom line I was terminated. Later on, a week or so later18 he informed me that he did an investigation or he had come19 across the fact that my insurance had not lapsed, and he20 provided me with documents. I in turn called my insurance21 agent that happened to look into this because ever since I22 worked for Mr. Thompson, if my insurance was ever in23 jeopardy of lapsing, my insurance carrier always would24 inform him because he's listed down there, but all I can say25 is, he said, Sedrick, you know you can't be employed here, | 161 sorry. This is not what I'm looking at because this here2 says 10/2/2010 --3 Q Yes, sir.4 A -- through 10/2/2011.5 Q Yes, sir.6 A So therefore when I look at this I would have been7 covered through -- because I received a couple of them now,8 so let me retrack what I stated.9 Q This is another one that you -- no, this one's dated10 9/29/11.11 A Okay. There we go. This is the one probably I was12 referring to.13 Q And this one, the 10/8/10, that says -- does that say14 Travelers Insurance?15 A Yeah, that says Travelers Insurance; correct.16 Q And this 9/29/11, now whose insurance company picks up17 coverage at that point.18 A Zurich America Insurance Company.19 Q And that's good from August 24, 2010, it says, to20 August 24, 2011; is that correct.21 A Correct.22 Q But you didn't purchase it until 9/29/11; is that23 correct?24 A Actually -- the best thing I can say to you is --25 purchase -- I was under the impression that I didn't -- if                                                                                                                                       |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 this is 9/29/11 -- I wasn't the person -- that was not a 2 purchase actual date because if that's a purchase date, why 3 would it be 9/29/11 where it actually says here, you know, 4 coverage 8/24/10 through 8/24/11. I -- 5 Q That's a good question. 6 A I was under the impression that that's when probably 7 someone actually sent it out verifying the date it was sent 8 out but not the actual date of coverage. These -- from my 9 interpretation -- these are the actual dates of coverage. 10 Q Why would there have been one from August 24, 2010 for 11 Zurich and one from October 8, 2010 from Travelers? I don't 12 have any idea. 13 A The only idea that I could have is maybe the insurance 14 had lapsed and somebody else picked it up. I don't know. 15 What I do is I make my payments to Swap Fox and -- but I 16 don't know. 17 Q Have you ever went and showed these and discussed these 18 with anyone at Swap Fox? 19 A We talked -- I sent it back to Swap Fox. I have not 20 gotten a response back from Swap Fox, and that would be 21 attention Gregg Hudson, I believe, operations manager via 22 Swap Fox. 23 Q When you hired Samuel Rose, his job was to haul 24 woodchips from Summerville to the Capstone Plant; is that 25 correct? | 17 1 EXAMINATION BY MS. BARR: 2 Q Mr. Smalls, my name is Kirsten Barr. We met briefly 3 before we went on. I represent Chris Thompson and the 4 insurance carrier. Do you recall making payments to Swap 5 Fox or to anybody else for worker's comp insurance in 2011? 6 A No, ma'am. 7 Q Would you have written one check. I mean, do you 8 recall making any payments toward the purchase of a worker's 9 comp insurance policy in the year prior to the accident? 10 A Yes, ma'am. 11 Q Now, do you have business records showing -- would you 12 write the check to Swap Fox then? 13 A Sometimes I made them to Swap Fox and sometimes I -- 14 like, if I was close to being terminated, they would say, 15 hey, just make it out to us and make sure it stays current. 16 Q At any time in the months prior to this accident that 17 happened in August of 2011, did you stop making your regular 18 payment? 19 A Focus: I'm not going to say that I didn't -- I might 20 not have had some times when I might have been late. But 21 what would happen is that my insurance agent would say, 22 Smalls, well this is where you are and this is what you need 23 to do. But, yes, ma'am -- and -- focus -- if my insurance 24 had lapsed, I would have to go in and sign something saying 25 that I didn't for that particular period that might have |
| 18 1 A Correct. 2 Q And you furnished the truck; is that correct? 3 A Correct. 4 Q You paid for the gas; is that correct? 5 A Correct. 6 Q You paid for the maintenance on the truck; is that 7 correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And really all he did was he was suppose to get in the 10 truck and drive it safely to and from Summerville, dumped in 11 Capstone, come back. His job was just to drive the truck? 12 A His job was just to drive the truck; yes. 13 Q And you told him where to go? 14 A No, I did not. 15 Q You didn't tell him where to go? 16 A No, sir. At Summerville, we have a loader box and each 17 driver has a shift, but you can start your shift earlier or 18 later. I did not make that determination. 19 Q Not when, but where? I mean, he had your truck. His 20 job was to drive your truck from Summerville saw mill, to 21 Capstone. He couldn't just take that truck if he wanted to 22 haul chips to Savannah or something like that? 23 A No, sir. 24 Q Well, thank you, sir. I don't have any other 25 questions. Appreciate it.                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 20 1 just lapsed that I was not covered, so again, the best way I 2 can put it is that I'm not going to say that I didn't have 3 any issues, but at the time of this incident, I was under 4 the impression that I was covered. 5 Q Would you be able to put your hand on like the canceled 6 checks or check stubs that you would have written to pay for 7 your worker's compensation insurance in the months prior to 8 Mr. Rose's accident? 9 A I'm pretty sure I could go back and find documentations 10 of payments. 11 Q Do you recall ever getting a notice from Swap Fox or 12 from the worker's comp insurance company saying that your 13 policy had lapsed -- 14 A No. 15 Q -- or that they were going to cancel it? 16 A No, ma'am. 17 Q You still get your insurance with Swap Fox? 18 A As of now, I'm out of business pretty much. I'm 19 exhausted. 20 Q Were you running trucks for anybody other than -- 21 A No. No, ma'am. 22 Q -- what you did for Chris Thompson? 23 A Exactly. That was everything for me. 24 Q And you have four trucks? 25 A Yes.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 21 1 Q Do you still have the four trucks? 2 A I still have -- yes, I still have them. 3 Q And where do you keep your trucks? 4 A I keep one of them at the shop that broke, but I have 5 three in a yard, what they call Red Top. 6 Q Is that something that you own or -- 7 A It's a friend's property. 8 Q And where in Red Top is that? 9 A That's off of Charleston -- I think that's Old 10 Charleston Road. 11 Q And who owns the property where they're located? 12 A Rodney Doctor. 13 Q Doctor? 14 A Yes, ma'am. 15 Q And do you pay him rent to keep those trucks there, or 16 is he just a friend, or what's the arrangement? 17 A Oh, no, he's a friend. 18 Q And you say that you have not worked or done any kind 19 of work with JJS Trucking since you talked to Mr. Thompson 20 about the lapse in your worker's comp insurance? 21 A Yes, ma'am. 22 Q Just a quick question. We've marked this as Claimants 23 One, but I think you said this was a load sheet; is that 24 what you called it? 25 A Yeah. By definition, we call them load sheets, but                                                                                    | 23 1 Q So Mr. Rose would leave this in a box for Chris 2 Thompson; is that correct? 3 A Correct. 4 Q And Chris Thompson or someone in his company would do 5 these calculations? 6 A Correct. 7 Q And then Mr. Thompson's company would pay you -- 8 A Correct. 9 Q -- and send these sheets back? 10 A Correct. 11 Q And then you would have them for your records; is that 12 right? 13 A Correct. 14 Q So would you just then write a check to Samuel Rose for 15 the amount shown on the bottom of this load sheet? 16 A No. I would write a check to him for each load -- his 17 compensation was $25. 18 Q That's right. 19 A I would count each load that was turned in to verify, 20 and I would cut him a check for those amount of loads. 21 Q Did Mr. Rose ever tell you how many trips he took in a 22 certain week? 23 A Sometimes we would discuss -- you know, he would say, 24 well, yes Smalls, I got 25 loads, or I got 30 loads and 25 then, so we would discuss it and then what would happen is |
| 22 1 that's how we determine compensation. 2 Q And would this be something that an employee like Mr. 3 Rose would turn in to you each week? 4 A Yes. But technically he turned it in to the office. 5 He didn't really turn them in to me, but I look at it as 6 being turned in to me. Every week he would fill it out just 7 like I did and put it in a box, and then when the checks 8 came from Chris Thompson then it would come back to me. 9 Q So when you say he leaves it in a box, this was a box 10 at Capstone? 11 A Correct. 12 Q But Chris Thompson didn't write a check to Samuel Rose. 13 He wrote you a check? 14 A Exactly. He wrote me a check. Yes, ma'am. 15 Q I think Mr. Killen probably has some questions for you. 16 That's all I have for you right now. 17 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN: 18 Q Mr. Smalls, I'm Tim Killen. I represent South Carolina 19 Worker's Compensation Uninsured Employers Fund, and this 20 load sheet, this is filled out by Samuel Rose; is that 21 correct? 22 A Correct. 23 Q And did Mr. Rose do the calculations on this document? 24 A No. No. Chris Thompson did the calculations on the 25 sheet. | 24 1 when this came back this was like double checking what the 2 verbal communication was. 3 Q The verbal communication was just informative; right? 4 A Correct. 5 Q This document, this load sheet, I mean, that's the holy 6 grail. 7 A Yes. 8 Q That's the document where everything is based off of; 9 right? 10 A Correct. 11 Q Let me ask you a few background questions. What's your 12 date of birth? 13 A 5/22/70. 14 Q And your social security number? 15 A 16 Q And your driver's license number? 17 A 18 Q And that's South Carolina? 19 A Correct, sir. 20 Q I know your home address, is that your business address 21 as well? 22 A Correct, sir. 23 Q Have you ever operated any other locations other than 24 the Gordon Street location? 25 A No, sir.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 25 1 Q Where do you house your trucks? 2 A Red Top or if I was -- 3 Q I'm sorry. Let me ask that a better way. When you 4 were in business, where did you house your trucks? 5 A In Summerville at the mill. 6 Q And who owns that mill? 7 A Well, owns the mill would be Capstone. 8 Q And so you would park your trucks there, did you pay 9 anyone for the space? 10 A No, sir. 11 Q Who did you negotiate that with? 12 A Well, you use the word, "negotiate." I was just 13 authorized by Mr. Chris Thompson to be able to park there. 14 Q And you went into business with Chris Thompson about 15 three and a half years ago; right? 16 A Yes, sir. 17 Q You never had a written contract with him? 18 A No, sir. 19 Q But you had a written contract with all your drivers? 20 A Yes, sir, most of them. 21 Q You're the only member of your LLC? 22 A Yes, sir. 23 Q How are you taxed? 24 A When you say, how am I taxed? 25 Q Are you taxed like a sole proprietor? Do you know? | 27 1 A Correct. 2 Q Where do you bank? 3 A First Citizens. 4 Q Do you have personal accounts there? 5 A I don't have a personal account. 6 Q All your bank accounts there -- if there -- is there 7 more than one? 8 A No. It's just one, JJS Trucking. 9 Q And it's just a checking account? 10 A Yes. 11 Q Do you have a mortgage on your house at Gordon Street? 12 A I do. 13 Q Is that in your name alone? 14 A It is. 15 Q How do you pay the mortgage? 16 A By check. 17 Q Out of your JJS Trucking, LLC account? 18 A Most of time I would assume so, yes. 19 Q You would assume so or yes or no? 20 A I would say yes. 21 Q So you use that JJS Trucking account for your personal 22 needs? 23 A I guess you can say it like that. 24 Q Do you separate your money from your corporation with 25 your personal money? |
| 26 1 It's okay if you don't know. 2 A I mean, I got some tax documents, but I know there's 3 different ways you can be taxed. 4 Q Do you pay corporate taxes for your income through your 5 LLC? If you don't know, it's okay? 6 A Well, I know on my taxes my corporation is listed so. 7 Q Okay. Your LLC? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q You pay personal income tax? 10 A Can I make a call? Because my accountant might answer 11 the phone. 12 Q It's all right. Who's your accountant? 13 A Liberty Tax. Warren -- Warren Frazier. 14 Q Where is he located? 15 A Goose Creek. 16 Q Do you own the property at Gordon Street? 17 A Yes, I do. 18 Q Personally? 19 A Yes. 20 Q Does your LLC own any property? 21 A No, sir. 22 Q Who owns those trucks? 23 A My corporation. 24 Q Their titled in the name of JJS Trucking, LLC; is that 25 correct?                                                                                                                                              | 28 1 A Oh, no, I see what you're saying. No, I do pull it 2 out. 3 Q How do you pull it out? 4 A I write a check to myself. 5 Q And then you cash it? 6 A Correct. 7 Q At First Citizens? 8 A Correct. 9 Q How do you pay your electric bill? 10 A I would pay it off of my account. 11 Q From your corporate account? 12 A Correct. 13 Q What about when you go get groceries? 14 A I pay cash. 15 Q Do you ever write a check for groceries? 16 A No, sir. 17 Q Do you own any automobiles personally? 18 A Yes, sir. 19 Q How do you get gas? 20 A I pay for it with the cash. 21 Q You pay cash for your gas at all times? 22 A Correct. 23 Q You never use your corporate account to pay for your 24 personal vehicle's gas. 25 A No, sir.                                                                                 |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Oalle Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 29 1 Q What kind of cars do you own personally? 2 A I got a Kia Sorento and a F250 true cab truck and a 3 F150 that's an older truck. 4 Q Any other automobiles or trucks? 5 A No, sir. 6 Q Does your wife own those vehicles as well? 7 A No. 8 Q Did you ever take money out of any of your drivers 9 checks to pay for worker's comp insurance? 10 A No. 11 Q Did Chris Thompson ever take money out of what he paid 12 you to pay for worker's compensation insurance? 13 A No. 14 Q Did the terms of your agreement with Chris Thompson 15 ever change at any time during the course of your 16 relationship? 17 A No. 18 Q So he took the same percentage out when you started as 19 he did from your last load? 20 A Same percentage out -- same percentage out. I would 21 say -- you say take the same percentage out. I would word 22 it as I was paid by the ton, but that would change based off 23 of fuel cost or what he was being compensated with because 24 it did go up and down. But I don't see it as -- you say 25 take something out. | 31 1 (Where upon an off the record 2 discussion took place.) 3 Q Do you have a copy of that certificate dated 10/18/2010 4 or do you need -- 5 A I got it. 6 Q Now, in October of 2010, did you get a new policy 7 through the Swap Fox Agency for worker's comp insurance? 8 A I'm sorry. Which one am I looking at? 9 Q Your looking at the one dated 10/18/2010. 10 A Okay. 11 Q That's the one that we're dealing with here. That's 12 the most important one, in my opinion. 13 Did you get a new policy of insurance that year in 14 October of 2010 for worker's comp; do you remember that? 15 A A new? 16 Q Yes. 17 A 10th, the 18th, 10/18/10, did I get a new? 18 Q Let me go through this certificate with you. This 19 purports to show that the document was created on 20 October 18, 2010 by someone at Swap Fox Agency, and it has 21 Insure B Travelers Insurance or Indemnity and Affiliates. I 22 can't read, it and that's where your worker's comp policy 23 would be in effect. That Insure B up there at the top is 24 referencing this right here where it says binder and then 25 these dates of effective coverage down here, 10/8/10 through |
| 30 1 Q So when it changed, how did you find out that it 2 changed? 3 A I saw it on the -- I mean, I got the load sheet -- the 4 statement. 5 Q When you got paid, that's when you learned? 6 A Correct. 7 Q There was no negotiating those factors? 8 A No, sir. 9 Q What Chris Thompson paid you, you got; is that correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q And you didn't have any say so in that? 12 A No, sir. 13 Q And you said earlier your job was to provide insurance 14 coverage, and his job was to provide the trailer? 15 A Well, I mean, no. My job was to provide a truck and a 16 driver. 17 Q Okay. 18 A But under the terms, I was supposed to make sure I keep 19 my insurance, you know, current. 20 Q And that's your liability insurance and your worker's 21 comp insurance? 22 A Correct. 23 Q I believe Mr. Fisher showed you a certificate of 24 insurance earlier. I don't think we made it an exhibit. 25 There's one dated 10/18/2010.                                                                                                       | 32 1 10/8/11. Did you go get a new insurance policy around that 2 time? 3 A If that's the 10/18/10 -- I would -- are you saying 4 this is the time when I was renewing it? 5 Q I'm asking you. Did you renew a policy, or did you get 6 a new one or what? 7 A I renew it every year, so if I'm renewing it every year 8 and it starts on the 10th, the 8th, the 10, 10th the 2nd and 9 then this date up here is -- I would have believed that this 10 is the beginning of a new policy. 11 Q It shows binder down there. Did you ever have an 12 actual policy issued to you from Travelers? 13 A I'm pretty sure I would have had to. I mean -- 14 Q When did you make your payments to Swap Fox? 15 A Oh, wow, I mean, normally there would have been a 16 deposit made, and I would be making monthly payments. 17 Q So around the time, you either renewed or get a new 18 policy you make a deposit; is that correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q And then from the rest of the year you make -- 21 A Correct. 22 Q -- equal monthly installments; is that correct? 23 A Pretty much. 24 Q And there were times in the past where you would fall 25 behind?                |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 33 1 A Correct. 2 Q But someone from Swap Fox would contact you and let you 3 know and then you would catch up; correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q Now, the worker's comp commission is showing a -- that 6 this policy was canceled sometime in February of 2011. Now, 7 between October of 2010 and February of 2011, were you 8 missing payments to Swap Fox or Travelers? 9 A Okay. Say that one more time, please. 10 Q Between October of 2010 and February of 2011, that's 11 about what, four months? 12 A Okay. Between October -- go ahead now. 13 Q Did you miss any of your payments? 14 A For my worker's comp, I'm going to say I really don't 15 recall missing any payments, but if worker's comp says -- 16 well, not worker's comp but if they say my insurance lapsed 17 in January, I would have to say obviously I didn't make a 18 payment. 19 Q Are you telling me you know that you didn't make a 20 payment or just because this paperwork, which is not 21 binding, says it. 22 A Exactly. 23 Q Are you relying on these documents? 24 A Yeah, pretty much. 25 Q Solely for your recollection? | 35 1 Chris Thompson? 2 A I myself don't send certificates over to Chris 3 Thompson. My agent would send it over to Chris Thompson. 4 Q Did you ever ask your agent to do that? 5 A In the past I think one time I did. It wasn't in the 6 last year. I think one time before my -- he questioned me 7 on my insurance renewal date, and I called my agent and say 8 could you send over Chris Thompson a current, you know, 9 certificate of insurance, but that was -- that had probably 10 happened two years plus ago. 11 Q How long was your agreement with Chris Thompson 12 supposed to last? 13 A He never -- we never discussed a time frame for how 14 long it was supposed to last. 15 Q How long did it actually last? 16 A I'm going to say about three and a half years. 17 Q So for three and a half years, you two companies never 18 had a written agreement? 19 A No, sir. 20 Q Three and a half years you two companies, both of your 21 LLCs, never put anything on paper to show that you two had a 22 contract with each other? 23 A No, sir. 24 Q And nothing changed since three and a half years before 25 the contract terminated, as far as the terms of contract are |
| 34 1 A Pretty much. 2 Q Are you telling me that it's possible you missed a 3 payment or two? 4 A I'm saying it is possible. 5 Q Is it probable? 6 A Probable? If that the same meaning as saying possible, 7 I'm going to say it's possible. 8 Q Did you ever get a call from anyone at Swap Fox during 9 that time? 10 A No, sir. 11 Q Did you ever get a letter from anyone at Swap Fox 12 during that time telling you your policy was getting ready 13 to lapse? 14 A No, sir. 15 Q Did you ever get a letter from Travelers during that 16 period of time telling you your policy was getting ready to 17 lapse and what you could do to cure that? 18 A I don't recall it, no, sir. 19 Q Did you ever get any of your premiums refunded to you? 20 A No, sir. 21 Q Neither Travelers nor Swap Fox ever wrote you a check 22 for any worker's compensation insurance you paid for, but 23 they weren't providing coverage for you? 24 A No, sir. 25 Q How frequently would you send certificates over to                                                                                                   | 36 1 concerned; is that correct? 2 A Yes, sir, that's what I am saying. 3 Q After Chris Thompson terminated the contract with your 4 company, did your company receive full payment for the work 5 it had already performed? 6 A If you are saying if anything was owed to me from him, 7 did I receive it, then I would say, yes. 8 Q Was it effective immediately, or did you get a 30 day 9 grace period? 10 A Immediately. 11 Q And you would make your insurance payments to Swap Fox 12 Agency? 13 A Yes, sir, sometimes, yes. 14 Q Sometimes? 15 A Yes, sometimes. 16 Q Where would you make them if you weren't making them 17 directly to Swap Fox? 18 A If I'm not mistaken it would have been to like a 19 finances company maybe. I don't know if it was actually to 20 Towers or Zurich, but sometimes it would be like a finance 21 company that would be established, and I would pay them. 22 Q When is the last time you remember making payments to a 23 finance company? 24 A I would have to go and look at my records. Right this 25 second I --                                                                                                                           |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 37 1 Q Just to the best of your recollection? 2 A I would -- I would believe in this -- in the early 3 portion of this year because like I said, I know I was 4 making payments. 5 Q So you were making payments in 2011? 6 A 2011. 7 Q It's 2011. 8 A Yes. 9 Q It is your testimony that you never received notice of 10 a cancellation? 11 A No, sir. 12 Q By notice of cancellation, I mean a letter from the 13 insurance company or the agent saying that they were getting 14 ready to cancel your policy unless you followed up with the 15 payment? 16 A It's a possibility they might have sent me something. 17 Also when I was aware of a possible lapse then, I would 18 bring it current. In this particular case here, I was not 19 aware that my insurance had lapsed, and any other time if my 20 insurance was about to lapse, Chris Thompson would have been 21 all over me because he did not want my insurance to lapse, 22 so I can't say I didn't make a mistake. What I can say is 23 that ever since I dealing with Swap Fox and ever since I've 24 been running for Chris, I never had this problem, and when 25 he brought it to my attention, I didn't have nothing to say.                                                                                                                                              | 39 1 deal with my policy. They might have had a more faster, 2 efficient way of dealing with the situation. 3 Q Well, there's this note here -- cancellations, 4 reinstatements, non renewals and it shows on 1/6/11 that 5 your policy was canceled, and it says by the request of the 6 finance company? 7 MR. KILLEN: Can you tell him where that is, Joe? 8 MR. FISHER: Yeah. 9 Q It says TOC inquiry on line with South Carolina. This 10 is something to show whether or not you had insurance. But 11 anyway, the finance company, if you don't make a payment to 12 the finance company, does your coverage lapse? 13 A I would say I'm sure it would lapse. I guess, that's 14 an answer. 15 Q Do you know what finance agency it was that you were 16 dealing with at this time? 17 A I would have to really go back and talk to my agent. I 18 can find that out. 19 Q It would be worth it for you to do that. Thank you, 20 sir. I don't have any other questions. 21 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN: 22 Q Quick follow up. Did you ever sign a contract with the 23 finance agency? 24 A You know something, I have to go back and look at my 25 documents because like I said, normally when I start the |
| 38 1 Q "He" being who? 2 A Chris Thompson. 3 Q And he didn't know about this problem until after the 4 accident, is that correct? 5 A Correct. 6 Q That's all the questions I have. 7 EXAMINATION BY MR. FISHER: 8 Q Let me ask you one, Mr. Smalls: The finance company, 9 whenever you say sometimes you made insurance payments 10 through a finance company and not directly to Swap Fox, what 11 finance company would that be, and how did that work? 12 A The best way I can put it is Swap Fox was my insurance 13 agent. Normally, when I would go and establish a insurance 14 binder, I would have to put "X" amount of dollars down, and 15 then it would say, okay, well, to the balance on this -- if 16 the policy was $5,000, I might put down $2,000. They might 17 finance 3,000. I would give Swap Fox a check and then what 18 would happen would be I would either make payments to a -- 19 normally, I don't think it was the actual insurance, I think 20 it was to like a finance company. And then if I got in 21 trouble, you know, they would say, Hey, you know your 22 insurance is about to cancel. I would talk to my insurance 23 agent and say, Hey, what's the deal, well, you got "X" 24 amount of time. Sometimes I would just cut them a direct 25 check, you know, and they would deal with it however they | 40 1 policy I would sign "X" amount of papers, and I'd have to go 2 back and try to start looking at all those things to verify 3 that. 4 MR. FISHER: Okay. Thank you. That's all. 5 (The deposition was concluded at 6 12:10 p.m. November, 14th, 7 2011.) 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquire resolutions.com

Sedrick Smalls

November 14, 2011

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 1 STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA)2 : C-E-R-T-I-F-I-C-A-T-E3 COUNTY OF DORCHESTER)4 I, Laci B. Bearden, Court Reporter and Notary Public,5 certify that I did have Sedrick Smalls to appear before me at6 11:00 a.m. on Monday, November 14th, 2011, at the law7 offices of George Sink, P.A., 7011 Rivers Avenue, N.8 Charleston, South Carolina; that the witness was sworn and9 cautioned to tell the truth, the pages constitute a true and10 accurate transcript of the testimony given at that time and11 place.12 I further certify that I am not of counsel or kin to13 any of the parties to this cause of action, nor am I14 interested in any manner in its outcome.15 IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and16 seal this the 14th day of November, 2011.17181920 Laci B. Bearden21 Notary Public for South Carolina22 My Commission Expires: September 29, 2021232425 | 41 |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |           |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission
P.O. Box 1715
Columbia, South Carolina 29202-1715
(803)737-5700

WCC File # 1112328
Carrier File # 007236
Carrier Code # _____
Employer FEIN _____

SAMUEL ROSE
Claimant's Name
Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____
Home Phone # _____ Work Phone # _____
TIMOTHY B KILLEN
Preparer's Name Address _____

JJS TRUCKING, LLC, ET AL.
Employer's Name
C/O CEDRIC SMALLS, R.A.
Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____
BRIDGEFIELD CAS.
Insurance Carrier
100 Executive Center Dr. 803 798-2722 EXT. 134
Suite 101, Columbia, SC 29210 Phone # _____

Provide the information requested in the space provided. Use an additional sheet, if necessary. Type or print all information.

☒ Injury by Accident ☐ Occupational Disease ☒ Both Injury by Accident and Disease ☐ Other

1. Date of accident: 08/10/2011 2. AWW: $ unknown Comp. Rate: $ unknown

3. Type of injury and body part(s) Alleged right knee, neck, back and head following MVA.

4. Facts in controversy: See attached Addendum.

5. Legal issues involved: See attached Addendum.

6. Unusual problems: See attached Addendum.

7. Witnesses (designate if expert)* See attached Addendum.

8. Exhibits: Fund reserves the right to supplement upon receipt of documents subject to subpoena to Employer/Carrier.

9. Medical evidence: (Indicate report pursuant to R.67-612; deposition or appearance)
N/A

10. Name, address, and specialty, if any, of the treating physician: N/A

11. Impairment rating(s); body part(s); physician and date of opinion: None or unknown.

DATE OF HEARING: 04/25/2012 TIME OF HEARING: 11:30 a.m.

SIGNATURE [Signature] DATE 4-16-12
On behalf of ☐ Claimant ☐ Employer ☒ SC Uninsured Employers' Fund

File this form and proof of service on the opposing party according to R.67-611 and R.67-212. Do not send medical reports.
* Commissioners reserve the right to admit expert witnesses at hearings.

UNISURED EMPLOYERS' FUND'S ADDENDUM TO FORM 58
SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND

4. Whether Statutory Employer/Carrier's petition to transfer liability to the Fund should be denied, where:
- (a) Statutory Employer/Carrier has failed to comply with the Fund's subpoena for information regarding payment of benefits to or on behalf of Claimant;
  - (b) Under Tillotson v. Keith Smith Builders,

" . . . the statute [§ 42-1-415] itself makes clear its purpose is to ensure that statutory employees are protected, although their immediate employer may have misrepresented to a contractor that it had workers' compensation insurance.

" . . . Importantly, in keeping with the statutory employee doctrine, § 42-1-415(a) requires the upstream contractor initially pay all benefits due to the subcontractor's injured employee. The contractor may then petition to transfer responsibility of future payments to the Uninsured Employers' Fund. In addition, the contractor may be reimbursed by the Fund.

"The section may be viewed as enforcing the statutory employee doctrine even when a subcontractor commits fraud by stating it has workers' compensation coverage. The purpose of the section is further clarified when read in context of surrounding statutes. Each section, from § 42-1-410 to 450, deals with certain aspects of the statutory employee doctrine. Section 42-1-415 is principally concerned with protecting a subcontractor's injured employees." 357 S.C. 554 (2004), 593 S.E.2d 621, 624 (Ct. App. 2004) (emphasis added).

The Statutory Employer/Carrier herein, rather than "pay[ing] all benefits due<sup>1</sup>" to the Claimant "in the first instance<sup>2</sup>", as required by S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415, has only recently begun paying Claimant the minimum amount of Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00) a week. Additionally, the Statutory Employer/Carrier and has paid a small amount of medical bills (per its APA Submissions).

<sup>1</sup> Due is defined as " 1. Just, proper, regular and reasonable . . . 2. Immediately enforceable . . . 3. Owing or payable . . . ." Black's Law Dictionary 515 (7th ed. 1999).

<sup>2</sup> Instance is defined, in relevant part, as "2. The act of instituting legal proceedings <court of first instance>. 3. Urgent solicitation or insistence <she applied for the job at the instance of her friend>." Black's Law Dictionary 800 (7th ed. 1999).

Importantly, to date, the Statutory Employer/Carrier has failed to pay for the majority of Claimant's medical costs and expenses. To date, the Statutory Employer/Carrier has failed to pay Claimant a reasonable compensation rate. To date, the Statutory Employer/Carrier has failed to make the medical referrals that Claimant is due. Because the Statutory Employer/Carrier failed to pay these in the first instance – i.e., within a reasonable time after the claim was filed by the Claimant – the petition must fail.

Further, it is clear that the Claimant has not been protected where the Statutory Employer/Carrier have failed to provide him proper medical and indemnity benefits. In fact, the Claimant testified at his most recent deposition that his condition has deteriorated due to his lack of care and treatment. As the Court of Appeals has written, the purpose of this statute is to protect the Claimant. Should Statutory Employer/Carrier's petition be granted here, that purpose would not be served.

- (c) The Claimant filed his claim on or about September 8, 2011. The Statutory Employer/Carrier filed its Form 51 on or about October 7, 2011. In that Form 51, the Statutory Employer/Carrier "assert[ed] S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415 as a defense." However, Statutory Employer/Carrier failed to submit the Certificate of Insurance upon which it intended to use as grounds for this defense at that time, as required by § 42-1-415(b) ("The documentation must be . . . turned over to the commission at the time a claim is filed by the injured employee.").

The Statutory Employer/Carrier failed to submit the documentation to the Commission until the following year, on or about January 24, 2012, when it filed its Petition to Transfer Liability despite having paid no benefits at that time.

- (d) Assuming arguendo that the matter is ripe to be heard by this Commission or the Commission disagrees with the Fund's positions above, whether the Statutory Employer/Carrier can transfer liability to the Fund where:
  - (i) The Certificate of Insurance fails to show that the alleged insured had insurance at the time the certificate was collected, in that it purports to show only a binder of insurance.
  - (ii) The Certificate of Insurance is dated some ten (10) months prior to the Claimant's date of injury, where no binder could remain effective for that period of time and Statutory Employer took no steps to ensure that a policy was subsequently issued to the Direct Employer.
  - (iii) The Certificate of Insurance was collected some ten (10) months prior to the Claimant's date of injury, but the "contract" between the Statutory Employer and Direct Employer involved an at will<sup>3</sup> relationship between the parties where amount of work and rate of payment to the Direct Employer fluctuated without Direct Employer's consent, giving rise to a new agreement each time the Direct Employer and/or his employee(s) picked up a shipment for Statutory Employer.

- (iv) The Statutory Employer/Carrier has made no showing that David W. Hayes is an authorized representative of Travelers Indemnity.
  - (v) The Certificate of Insurance is blank in the "Description of Operations" box, contrary to the requirements as set forth by the Court of Appeals.
5. See Number Four (4), above; Statutory Employment Doctrine (Voss v. Ramco, Inc., 325 S.C. 560, 566, 482 S.E.2d 582, 585 (Ct.App.1997; S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415 (Hopper v. Terry Hunt Const., 383 S.C. 310, 680 S.E.2d 1 (2009), Barton v. Higgs, 381 S.C. 367, 674 S.E.2d 145 (S.C. 2009), Hardee v. McDowell, 372 S.C. 413, 642 S.E.2d 632 (Ct.App. 2007)); S.C. Code Reg. 67-415.
  6. Statutory Employer/Carrier has failed to respond to the Fund's subpoena of February 22, 2012, demanding "copies of any and all Forms or other documents or reports showing any and all compensation payments to Claimant and/or medical benefits paid on behalf of Claimant." The Fund reserves the right to file a Motion to Compel these materials should Statutory Employer/Carrier continue to fail to comply.
  7. Claimant; Chris Thompson (by deposition or live); Sedrick Smalls (by deposition or live); and any and all witnesses named or called by any party. Statutory Employer/Carrier has submitted the depositions of Mr. Thompson and Mr. Smalls, and Fund will rely on those submissions. However, this is to advise that Fund reserves the right to submit these materials should Statutory Employer/Carrier withdraw its submissions prior to the hearing date.

---

<sup>3</sup> "An individual working for an employer under a contract of employment for an indefinite period can be terminated at will." Williams v. Riedman, 339 S.C. 251, 529 S.E.2d 28, 32 (Ct. App. 2000) (citing Shealy v. Fowler, 182 S.C. 81, 188 S.E. 499 (1936)). Statutory Employer/Carrier assert that the alleged contract was entered into some three (3) years prior to the Claimant's injuries. However, the alleged contract lacked essential terms, was indefinite, and was for an indefinite duration. The alleged contract was also terminated at will by the Statutory Employer. "Historically, perpetual contracts have not been favored in South Carolina and are generally upheld only where the perpetual nature of the agreement is an express term of the contract". Carolina Cable Network v. Alert Cable TV, Inc., 316 S.C. 98, 447 S.E.2d 199 (1994) (citing Childs v. City of Columbia, 87 S.C. 566, 70 S.E. 296 (1911)).

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA
WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

S.C.W.C.C. FILE NO: 1112328

|                     |   |                           |
|---------------------|---|---------------------------|
| SAMUEL ROSE,        | ) |                           |
|                     | ) |                           |
| Employee/Claimant,  | ) | NOTICE OF WITNESSES AND   |
|                     | ) | WRITTEN MEDICAL REPORTS   |
| vs.                 | ) | TO BE INTRODUCED AS       | |                     | ) | DIRECT EVIDENCE ON        |
| JJS TRUCKING, LLC,  | ) | BEHALF OF SOUTH CAROLINA  |
|                     | ) | UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND |
|                     | ) |                           |
|                     | ) |                           |
| Employer/Defendant. | ) |                           |
|                     | ) |                           |

TO: SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION
JOSEPH B. FISHER, ESQ., ATTORNEY FOR EMPLOYEE/CLAIMANT
JJS TRUCKING, LLC, EMPLOYER/DEFENDANT
KIRSTEN L BARR, ESQ., ATTORNEY FOR EMPLOYER/DEFENDANT
F. REID WARDER, JR., ESQ., ATTORNEY FOR EMPLOYER/DEFENDANT

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund, pursuant to the provisions of the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Act and the South Carolina Code Section 1-23-330, (1976, as amended), herewith submits the following medical reports as direct evidence on behalf of the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund, to wit:

| NAME OF PHYSICIAN/OTHER | DATE OF REPORT | NUMBER OF PAGES |
|-------------------------|----------------|-----------------|
|-------------------------|----------------|-----------------|

(SEE ATTACHMENT)

YOU ARE FURTHER HEREBY NOTIFIED that you have the right of cross-examination; and, should you desire to exercise said right, you are to forthwith schedule the depositions of any of the physicians, whose reports are submitted, for the purpose of cross-examination.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that the originals of the documents referred to herein, or photocopies received from said physicians/others are being herewith forwarded to the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission, for insertion in the file of the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission and inclusion into evidence on behalf of the Defendant South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund.

YOU ARE FURTHER NOTIFIED that the following witnesses may be called on behalf of the Defendant Uninsured Employers' Fund:

Claimant; Chris Thompson; Sedrick Smalls; and any and all witnesses named or called by any party.

SC UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND
By:
TIMOTHY B. KILLEN
STAFF ATTORNEY
Suite 101
100 Executive Center Drive
Columbia, South Carolina 29210
Telephone No.: (803) 798-2722 Ext. 124

April 16, 2012

UEF NO: 007236
SCWCC NO: 1112328

ATTACHMENT - NOTICE OF WITNESSES AND MEDICAL REPORTS

| NAME OF PHYSICIAN/OTHER----- | DATE OF REPORT----- | NUMBER OF PAGES----- |
|----------------------------------|-------------------------|--------------------------|
|----------------------------------|-------------------------|--------------------------|

FUNDS WILL RELY ON CLAIMANT'S ATTORNEY TO FILE/SERVE ALL CAUSALLY-RELATED MEDICAL RECORDS/REPORTS AND RESERVES ITS RIGHT TO SUPPLEMENT AS REQUIRED.

Fund reserves the right to supplement should Statutory Employer/Carrier comply with Fund's subpoena.

BEFORE THE
SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

|                                             |   |                                    |
|---------------------------------------------|---|------------------------------------|
| Samuel A. Rose,                             | ) | WCC File No: 1112328               |
|                                             | ) |                                    |
| Claimant,                                   | ) |                                    |
|                                             | ) |                                    |
| vs.                                         | ) |                                    |
|                                             | ) |                                    |
| JJS Trucking, LLC and Chris Thompson        | ) |                                    |
| Services, LLC,                              | ) | Fund's Amended Return to Carrier's |
|                                             | ) | Petition to Transfer Liability     |
| Employers,                                  | ) |                                    |
|                                             | ) |                                    |
| and                                         | ) |                                    |
|                                             | ) |                                    |
| Bridgefield Casualty Ins. Co. and Travelers | ) |                                    |
| Insurance Co.,                              | ) |                                    |
|                                             | ) |                                    |
| Carriers,                                   | ) |                                    |
|                                             | ) |                                    |
| and                                         | ) |                                    |
|                                             | ) |                                    |
| Uninsured Employers' Fund,                  | ) |                                    |
|                                             | ) |                                    |
| Defendants.                                 | ) |                                    |
|                                             | ) |                                    |

---

TO: SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION, JOSEPH B. FISHER, ESQUIRE, ATTORNEY FOR THE CLAIMANT, JJS TRUCKING, LLC, KIRSTEN L. BARR, ESQUIRE, ATTORNEY FOR CHRIS THOMPSON SERVICES, LLC/BRIDGEFIELD CASUALTY INSURANCE CO. AND F. REID WARDER, JR., ESQUIRE, ATTORNEY FOR TRAVELERS INSURANCE CO.:

YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND (Fund) hereby files this Amended Return to the Petition to Transfer Liability to S. C. Uninsured Employers' Fund pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415, pursuant to Regulation 67-215 on the following grounds:

1. The Fund denies the relief sought in the petition in that the Employer/Carrier have no proven by a preponderance of the evidence that they are entitled to relief sought, and the Employer/Carrier has the burden of proof in this matter;

2. The Fund denies the relief sought in the Petition in that the Employer/Carrier cannot meet its burden of proof under the statute relative case law; and

3. The Fund further affirmatively asserts all defenses allowed under the Act, including but not all affirmative and specific defenses (see Regulation 67-603), including but not to §42-9-60, §42-15-20, §42-15-40, §42-17-90, fraud, election of remedies, intervening trauma, no compensable injury by accident under §42-1-160, degree of disability, if any, attributable to this injury is speculative, Claimant's problems are personal in nature and are not work-related, and res judicata.

ARGUMENT

The carrier in this instance has petitioned this Court to transfer liability over to the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Uninsured Employers' Fund pursuant to §42-1-415. For the reasons set forth herein, the Petition for Transfer of Liability must be denied.

To warrant the granting of a Petition to Transfer Liability, the Carrier must meet all statutory requirements. §42-1-415 provides:

(A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon the submission of documentation to the commission that a contractor or subcontractor has represented himself to a higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner as having workers' compensation insurance at the time the contractor or subcontractor was engaged to perform work, the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner must be relieved of any and all liability under this title except as specifically provided in this section. In the event that employer is uninsured, regardless of the number of employees that employer has, the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, project owner, or his insurance carrier shall in the first instance pay all benefits due under this title. The higher tier subcontractor, contractor, project owner, or his insurance carrier may petition the commission to transfer responsibility for continuing compensation and benefits to the Uninsured Employers' Fund...

(B) To qualify for reimbursement under this section, the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner must collect documentation of insurance as provided in subsection (A) on a standard form acceptable to the commission. The documentation must be collected at the time the contractor or subcontractor is engaged to perform work and must be turned over to the commission at the time a claim is filed by the injured employee.

(C) The knowing and willful falsifying of information contained in standard forms submitted pursuant to this section must be considered fraud as provided by law. Knowing and willful failure to notify, by certified mail, the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner who originally was provided documentation of workers' compensation coverage of a lapse in coverage within five days after the lapse is considered fraud and subject the contractor or subcontractor who represented himself as having workers' compensation insurance to the penalties for fraud by law. Additionally, a contractor or subcontractor who knowingly and willfully falsely documents workers' compensation insurance or knowing and willfully fails to provide notice of lapse in workers' compensation coverage as specified in this section, or any contractor or subcontractor who refuses to reimburse the Uninsured Employers' Fund for a claim paid on its behalf shall suffer the revocation of his license or certificate as a contractor or residential home builder under applicable provisions of Title 40; provided, however, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the license or certificate of a contractor or residential home builder shall be revoked for a period of two years when the contractor or subcontractor knowingly and willfully falsely documents workers' compensation coverage as specified in this section. Upon expiration of the two-year revocation period, or when the license or certificate of any contractor or subcontractor is revoked for refusal to reimburse the Uninsured Employers' Fund for a claim paid on its behalf, the licensing entity of the contractor or subcontractor may reissue the license or certificate of the contractor or residential home builder in the same manner as any other revoked license.

The Commission, by its own Regulation (R. 67-415 (A)) established that:

(A) For the purposes of §42-1-415, the ACORD Form

25-S, Certificate of Insurance, as published by the ACORD Corporation, and as issued by the carrier for the insured, shall serve as documentation of insurance. The Certificate of Insurance must be dated, signed, and issued by an authorized representative of the insurance carrier for the insured.

It was long-established and well-settled that a statutory employer bore absolute liability to the injured workers of a subcontractor and could not shift that liability to the Uninsured Employers' Fund, even if the subcontractor was uninsured. See, generally, Miller v. Robinson Trucking, 333 S.C. 576, 510 S.E.2d 431 (Ct. App. 1998); S.C. Code Ann. Section 42-1-400, Annotations 1 -6; and Section 42-1-410, Annotations 1 - 3. By enacting Section 42-1-415, the legislature carved out a narrow exception to a statutory employer's absolute liability. This exception, ostensibly, provides remedy and relief to statutory employers misled or defrauded into believing a subcontractor is insured. The language of Section 42-1-415 clearly sounds in fraud ----- "... subcontractor has represented himself . . . as having insurance . . . knowing and willful falsifying . . .," and subsection (c) provides for criminal and administrative penalties. This exception creates a new liability on the State, and should be carefully applied. Unisys Corp. v. S.C. Budget and Control Brd., 346 S.C. 158, 551 S.E.2d 263 (2001). It should be given a strict, narrow application, based on the wrong it attempts to relieve.

Our legislature created a new right or remedy where none previously existed. It could properly impose such reasonable terms and conditions upon the exercise of such right as it deemed appropriate. The right of a statutory employer, such as Chris Thompson Services, LLC, to avoid liability under the statute, depends upon compliance with the specific terms and conditions imposed for transferring liability. Herein, Chris Thompson has failed to comply with statutory requirements and is not entitled to transfer liability to the Uninsured Employers' Fund. Cincinnati Ins. Co. v. South Carolina Second Injury Fund, 297 S.C. 372, 377 S.E.2d 130 (Ct.

App. 1989) (Failure to comply with the statutory requirement results in loss of right to reimbursement.)(The right of a claimant to secure reimbursement under the statute, therefore, depends upon compliance with the terms and conditions imposed for recovery . . .)(internal citations omitted).

Recent case law has further defined the necessary steps to be taken by the upstream employer before liability can be transferred to the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund. For example, in the recent case of Barton v. Higgs, 674 SE 2d 145 - SC: Supreme Court 2009, the upstream employer failed to recognize that the certificate of insurance presented to it lacked a signature from an authorized agent of the insurance company. The Court held "liability may be transferred from the higher tier contractor to defend only after the higher tier contractor has properly documented the subcontractor's claim that it retains workers' compensation insurance. This statutory scheme provides an ultimate safety for general contractors against the subcontractors act of fraud." This case further explains that the upstream contractor "could have easily investigated the absence of the signature and determined that the immediate employer did not have a valid policy. In our view, public funds should not be expended where Respondent could have discovered the mistake by acting in accordance with the Regulation."

In another recent case, Hopper v. Terry Hunt Construction, 373 S.C. 475, 646 S.E.2d 162 (Ct. App. 2007) aff'd, 383 S.C. 310, 680 S.E.2d 1 (2009), the Court declared that in order to transfer liability the certificate of insurance presented to the upstream contractor must be fully completed. In this case, the ACCORD Form was not fully filled out, the Court held that the Employer "submitted an incomplete document purporting to show that it had workers' compensation policy... In our view, accepting an incomplete ACCORD Form does not constitute proper documentation.” The Court specifically stated that one of the omissions on the certificate of insurance in the Hopper case was the section for “Description of Operations.”

The third recent certificate case, Hardee v. McDowell, 381 S.C. 445 (2009) 673 S.E.2d 813, addressed the issue as to what point in time a contractor must obtain proof of insurance for a subcontractor. §42-1-415 provides such proof must be obtained when the subcontractor is “engage to perform work”.

The Court ruled the phrase “engaged to perform work” means each time a subcontractor is actually hired to perform work. Thus, if a contractor enters into a contract to hire, subcontractor for one job in January and then enters a job in February, the contractor should verify that the subcontractor still has insurance coverage at the time of the February hiring.

The upstream employer, Chris Thompson Services, LLC, has failed to meet the requirements as set forth in §42-1-415 in the following ways:

Thus, the Legislature created a new right or remedy which must be strictly complied with. See, Simpson v. Sanders, 314 S.C. 413, 445 S.E.2d 93 (1994). A statute creating a liability against the State<sup>1</sup> must be applied carefully. Unisys Corp. v. S.C. Budget and Control Bd., 346 S.C. 158, 551 S.E. 263 (2001). The statute should be construed in the context of purpose of the remedy, should support the statute and should not lead to an absurd result. Miller, supra (internal citations omitted).

South Carolina Law in interpreting §42-1-415 that it was not the intent of the Legislature to create a liability for the state without requiring a defrauded statutory employer to exercise the minimally-reasonable steps of reading the certificate and reacting accordingly. Our Legislature encourage employers to remain intentionally ignorant and thereby escape responsibility cast upon it by our statutory scheme. The State is the party least able to protect itself in this transaction. (Finding that a contractor can be an employer is the bedrock of the statutory employer doctrine and serves the Legislative purpose of casting upon the industry in which industrial workers) are employed a share of the burden resulting from industrial accidents). (emphasis added) (citation omitted). If House stands for such absurdity, it should be reversed.<sup>1</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup> The Uninsured Employers’ Fund is a creature of statute established by the legislature to provide compensation to the injured employees of an employer that was subject to the Workers’ Compensation Act, but uninsured. §42-7-200.

1. A cursory review of the certificate of insurance presented by the Statutory Employer shows that the certificate only indicates a “Binder” of insurance, not a policy. An insurance binder is only a temporary issuance of proof of insurance that will “bind” or cover you temporarily until a formal policy is issued. The certificate of insurance is dated 10 months prior to the Claimant’s date of injury and no binder could remain in effect for that period of time. Obviously, the Statutory Employer took no steps to ensure any policy was ever subsequently issued to the Employer, which contradicts the findings in the Barton case.

2. The certificate of insurance is blank in the “description of operations” box, contrary to the requirements as set forth in the Hopper case as set forth above.

3. Although the certificate of insurance is signed by “David W. Hayes” as a purported authorized representative of Travelers Indemnity, the Statutory Employer/Carrier has provided no showing that David W. Hayes was an authorized representative. This is required pursuant to R. 67-415(A) as set forth above.

4. §42-1-415 provides “documentation must be ... turned over to the Commission at the time a claim is filed by the injured employee”. The Claimant filed his claim on or about September 8, 2011. However, the Statutory Employer/Carrier, filed a Form 51 on October 7,

---

<sup>1</sup> Appellant relies upon Rule 217, SCACR to argue against precedence in its brief without the Court’s permission.

2011 wherein Chris Thompson raised §42-1-415 as a defense. However, documentation was not provided to the Commission until the following year on January 24, 2012, when it filed a Petition to Transfer Liability.

5. §42-1-415(A) requires the upstream contractors to initially pay all benefits due to the subcontractor's injured employee. Then, the contractor may petition to transfer the responsibility of future payments to the Fund. The Statutory Employer/Carrier herein, rather than "paying all benefits due"<sup>1</sup> to the Claimant "in the first instance"<sup>2</sup> as required by §42-1-415, has only recently begun paying the Claimant the minimum amount of Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00) a week. Additionally, the Statutory Employer/Carrier has paid only a small amount of medical bills. The Statutory Employer has failed and refused to pay for the majority of the Claimant's medical costs and expenses or to pay the Claimant a reasonable compensation rate. The Statutory Employer/Carrier has failed and refused to make medical referrals that the Claimant is due. Because the purpose of this section is principally concerned with protecting a subcontractor's injured employee, the Statutory Employer's failure to take care of the Claimant has caused the Claimant's condition to deteriorate by resulting in further costs than necessary. The purpose of the statute has not been served.

6. The contract between the Statutory Employer and the Direct Employer involved an at will relationship between the parties wherein the amount of work and the rate of payment to the Direct Employer fluctuated on a job by job basis. This gives rise to a new agreement each time the Direct Employer or his employees picked up a shipment for his Statutory Employer and therefore, pursuant to the Hardee case, a new certificate of insurance should be presented each time a new job was started. If this had been properly requested then the contractor would have had notice that the immediate employer had no insurance.

<sup>1</sup> Due is defined as "1. Just, proper and reasonable . . . 2. Immediately enforceable . . . 3. Owning or payable . . ." Black's Law Dictionary 515 (7th ed. 1999).

<sup>2</sup> Instance is defined, in relevant part, as "2. The act of instituting legal proceedings <court of first instance>. 3. Urgent solicitation or insistence <she applied for the job at the instance of her friend>." Black's Law Dictionary 800 (7th ed. 1999).

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons and those that may be set forth in the hearing of this matter, the SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND respectfully requests that the Petition to Transfer Liability be denied.

South Carolina Workers' Compensation
Uninsured Employers' Fund

BY:

Amy V. Cofield
Cofield Law Firm
809 South Lake Drive
Lexington, SC 29072
Ph: (803) 951-0389
Email: amy@cofieldlaw.com

May 3, 2012
Lexington, South Carolina

South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission

P.O. Box 1715 • 1612 Marion Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29202-1715
(803) 737-5700

WCC File # 1112328Carrier File # 943450

Carrier Code # _____

Employer FEIN _____

Samuel A. Rose

Claimant's Name

SSN _____

JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and Chris Thompson Services,
LLC/Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company

Employer's Name

Address _____

City _____

State _____

Zip _____

Address _____

Summerville, SC 29483

City _____

State _____

Zip _____

Home Phone _____

Work Phone _____

Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co.

Insurance Carrier

Kirsten L. Barr

Preparer's Name

(843) 881-4228

Phone # _____

Request for Commission Review by ☐ claimant ☒ employer (check one)Date of injury: August 10, 2011

The undersigned makes application for review of the findings of the Commissioner in the above captioned case. The request for review is based on the following grounds: (State the grounds of your appeal in the form of questions presented. Each question presented must contain a concise statement of one proposition of law or fact. Refer to evidence by title and exhibit number. Use additional pages, if necessary).

See attached.

(Check one) Oral argument ☒ is ☐ is not requested. Appellant's request for oral argument is waived if not indicated on this form.

I certify that I have served this document pursuant to R.67-211 by delivering a copy to Ms. Virginia Crocker, S.C. Workers'
Name

Compensation Commission, P.O. Box 1715, Columbia, SC 29202-1715; Joseph B. Fisher, Esq., PO Box 63506, North Charleston,
SC 29419; Amy V. Cofield, Esq., The Cofield Law Firm, 809 South Lake Drive, Lexington, SC 29072; Sedrick Smalls, JJS Trucking, LLC 137-A Gordon St., Charleston, SC 29403; and F. Reid Warder, Esq., Wood & Warder, LLC, P.O. Box 20550, Charleston, SC on the 5th day of September, 2012 by ☒ first class mail; ☐ personal service; ☒ certified mail.Kirsten L. Barr
29413

Address

Preparer's Signature

Attorney for Defendants

Title

September 5, 2012

Date

Check this box if you are not represented by an attorney. ☐

If the claimant appeals and is representing himself or herself, the Judicial Department will prepare the additional copies of this form and serve this form on the opposing party. R.67-701 B. Otherwise, file the original and 4 copies of this form with the Judicial Department. The appeal must be postmarked no later than 14 days from the date of service of the Hearing Commissioner's decision. R.67-701 and R.67-205. Attach the filing fee to this form. Attach a Form 32 if you are unable to pay the filing fee. Refer to R.67-701 through R.67-711 for additional information.

Samuel A. Rose v. JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and Chris Thompson Services, LLC/Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company
W.C.C. File No: 1112328
Carrier File No: 943450
Date of Accident: August 10, 2011

Attachment to Form 30

1. The Hearing Commissioner erred in finding that Chris Thompson Services, LLC is liable to pay Claimant all benefits to which he is entitled under the Act, as this "finding" is arbitrary, capricious, impermissibly vague, and contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.
2. The Hearing Commissioner erred in finding that the Claimant sustained an injury to his head, knee, leg, back, and neck, as this finding is arbitrary, capricious, impermissibly vague, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.
3. The Hearing Commissioner erred in "finding" that the Claimant is entitled to temporary total disability benefits from August 10, 2011 and continuing until, as this finding is arbitrary, capricious, impermissibly vague, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.
4. The Hearing Commissioner erred in "finding" that the Claimant is entitled to an evaluation to determine the extent of his injuries, as this finding is arbitrary, capricious, impermissibly vague, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.
5. The Hearing Commissioner erred in "finding" that the Claimant is entitled to ongoing medical treatment, as this finding is arbitrary, capricious, impermissibly vague, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.
6. The Hearing Commissioner erred as a matter of law in concluding that the Claimant is entitled to reimbursement for all out of pocket medical expenses incurred to date, as this conclusion is arbitrary, capricious, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and the applicable law.
7. The Hearing Commissioner erred as a matter of law in concluding that the Claimant has not received all benefits due under the Act, as this "conclusion" is arbitrary, capricious, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence in the record and the applicable law.
8. The Hearing Commissioner erred as a matter of law in concluding that the issue of transfer of responsibility to the UEF is not ripe for adjudication at this time, as this conclusion is arbitrary, capricious, and otherwise contrary to the greater weight of the evidence in the record and the applicable law.

DECISION AND ORDER
OF THE
SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION
WCC FILE NO: 1112328
SAMUEL ROSE, EMPLOYEE/CLAIMANT

vs.

JJS TRUCKING, LLC, AND CHRIS THOMPSON SERVICES, LLC, EMPLOYERS,

and

BRIDGEFIELD CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY AND TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY, CARRIERS,

and

SOUTH CAROLINA UNINSURED EMPLOYERS FUND/ DEFENDANT.

Hearing: Held in Summerville, South Carolina on May 15, 2012

Appearances: Employee/Claimant represented by Joseph B. Fisher, George Sink
Law Firm, N. Charleston, South Carolina

Employer, Chris Thompson Services and Bridgefield Casualty
Company represented by Kirsten L. Barr, Trask & Howell, LLC,
Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina

Employer, JJS Trucking, LLC appeared pro se.

Carrier, Travelers Insurance Company represented by F. Reid
Warder, Jr., Esquire, Wood & Warder, LLC, Charleston, SC

South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund, Defendant was represented by Amy V. Cofield, Cofield Law Firm, Lexington,
South Carolina

Purpose of Hearing: To determine issues as set forth on Form 50 and Form 51

Decision and Order: By Commissioner Gene McCaskill

Date: August 23, 2012

STIPULATIONS

The parties stipulated to the following matters at the hearing:

1. The purpose of the hearing was to determine issues pursuant to Form 50 and 51.
2. Notice of the hearing was timely and properly served upon all parties of interest.
3. The Claimant's average weekly wage is $650.00 and compensation rate is $433.34 respectively.
4. Venue, set in Dorchester County, is proper.
5. The Employee/Claimant was injured while working for Chris Thompson Services, LLC and workers' compensation was filed, therefore, the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission has jurisdiction of the case.

APA SUBMISSIONS:

ON BEHALF OF THE EMPLOYER:

| EXHIBITNO. | NAME OF REPORT/PHYSICIANOR OTHER EVIDENCE | DATE OFREPORTS | NO. OFPAGES |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1                      | SLED Report                                           | 04/30/12-04/26/12          | 1-9                     |
| 2                      | Petition to Transfer Liability                        | 04/30/12-01/24/12          | 10-14                   |
| 3                      | SCWCC Form 18                                         | 04/10/12                   | 15                      |
| 4                      | Deposition of Samuel Rose                             | 11/14/11                   | 16-26                   |
| 5                      | Deposition of Sedrick Smalls                          | 11/14/11                   | 27-38                   |
| 6                      | JJS Trucking Certificate of Insurance                 | 10/08/11-10/08/10          | 39                      |

ON BEHALF OF THE CLAIMANT

| EXHIBITNO. | NAME OF REPORT/PHYSICIANOR OTHER EVIDENCE | DATE OFREPORTS | NO. OFPAGES |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1                      | Stuart M. Leon, MDMUSC Medical Center             | 08/10/11                   | 1-2                     |
| 2                      | Andrew B. Conrad, MDMUSC Medical Center           | 08/10/11                   | 3-5                     |
| 3                      | Christopher J. Erikson, MD                            |                            |                         |

|      |                                                                  |                      |            |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|------------|
| 4    | MUSC Medical CenterPeter H. White, MDMUSC Medical Center | 08/10/1108/11/11 | 6-78-9 |
| 5    | Alan N. Abel, MD                                                 | 08/16/11-01/25/12    | 10-22      |
| 6    | Michael S. Rissing, MDMUSC Medical Center                    | 08/23/11             | 23-24      |
| 7    | Cameron Wills, DCTri-County Spinal Care                      | 09/02/11             | 25-26      |
| 8    | Richard Kellett, MDTri-County Spinal Care                    | 09/06/11-10/11/11    | 27-40      |
| 9    | Troy Marlow, MDTriCounty Radiology Associates                | 11/09/11             | 41-42      |
| 10   | Michael Wildstein, MDWildstein Spine Center, PA              | 11/23/11             | 43-44      |
| 11   | Donald E. Olofsson, DOTriCounty Radiology Associates         | 11/30/11             | 45-46      |
| EX A | Traffic Collision ReportSC Highway Patrol                    | 08/10/11             | 47-50      |
| EX B | Pay Records of the Claimant                                      | 07/12/11-08/09/11    | 51-55      |

ON BEHALF OF TRAVELERS INDEMNITY COMPANY

| EXHIBITNO. | NAME OF REPORT/PHYSICIANOR OTHER EVIDENCE                              | DATE OFREPORTS | NO. OFPAGES |
|------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1                      | Correspondence from Garry Smith,Compliance Division, to F. ReidWarder, Jr. | 03/30/12                   | 14                      |
| 2                      | Premium Finance Agreement forJJS Trucking, LLC                                 | 10/13/10                   | 1                       |
| 3                      | Travelers Invoice to JJS Trucking,LLC                                          | 11/08/10                   | 2                       |
| 4                      | Notice of Cancellation                                                             | 01/04/11                   | 2                       |
| 5                      | SC Department of EmploymentAnd Workforce                                       | 02/21/12                   | 15                      |

ON BEHALF OF SC UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND

| EXHIBITNO. | NAME OF REPORT/PHYSICIANOR OTHER EVIDENCE | DATE OFREPORTS | NO. OFPAGES |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------|
| NONE                   |                                                       |                            |                         |

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This claim is before the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission pursuant to a Form 50 filed by the Claimant on November 18, 2011, and Form 51 filed by Defendant, Chris Thompson Services on December 15, 2011, and Form 51 filed by Defendant, SC Uninsured Employers' Fund on January 4, 2012. The Claimant alleged that on August 10, 2011 he sustained an alleged injury to his right knee, back, neck and head. Defendants denied the claim.

It was the Claimant's position that he was injured on August 10, 2011 while employed by JJS Trucking. Claimant asserted that JJS Trucking was a subcontractor to Chris Thompson Services. JJS Trucking is uninsured and Chris Thompson is insured by Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company. The Claimant seeks a finding of compensability that includes medical treatment, payment of temporary total benefits less any amounts paid by the carrier of Chris Thompson Services.

It was the position of Chris Thompson Services that the Claimant sustained an admitted injury by accident as alleged on August 10, 2011. However, the severity of permanency of injuries and need for future treatment was specifically denied. Chris Thompson Services also made a Motion to Transfer Liability to the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund pursuant to §42-1-415 because Mr. Cedric Smalls, a principal of JJS Trucking, had represented to Chris Thompson Services that it had workers' compensation coverage. Chris Thompson Services had obtained an ACORD Form 25 Certificate of Insurance indicating coverage. Chris Thompson Services also stated to the Commissioner that it had, through its insurance carrier, Bridgefield, paid temporary total disability payments since the date of the accident in the amount of $75.00 per week and requested that the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund reimburse Bridgefield for those benefits paid. Chris Thompson Services argued that JJS Trucking never provided notice that his coverage had changed or lapsed. Chris Thompson Services argued that a certificate of insurance presented distinguished this case from the Hopper case, (Hopper v. Terry Hunt Construction, 383 S.C. 310, 680 S.E.2d 1 (2009).)

Because the case at had a description of the policy terms. The distinction was also offered that the Hopper case dealt with an out of state employer or multi-state employers and regulations and that this case did not.

It was further argued that the signature of David Hayes as the authorized agent for the insurance company satisfactory the face of the certificate of insurance rose no red flags regarding the authority of the signature. It was also argued that a copy of the certificate of insurance was filed with the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission on November 4, 2011, which was believed to be a timely filing.

The SC Uninsured Employers' Fund argued that liability could not be transferred to the UEF. It was argued that the certificate of insurance presented was sufficient pursuant to the law set forth in the Barton v. Higgs case (Barton v. Higgs, 381 S.C. 367, 674 S.E.2d 145 (2009)) as well as the Hopper v. Terry Hunt Construction case. The SC Uninsured Employers' Fund argued that the description of operations box was blank and that the cases of Barton and Hopper stood for the proposition that incomplete certificates were not sufficient to transfer liability. It was also argued that the certificate of insurance only stated it was a "binder" and never conveyed any information that there was ever a policy written.

The Uninsured Employers' Fund argued that the timing of the presentation of the certificate was contrary to §42-1-415. That statute provides that documentation must be turned over to the Commission "at the time a claim is filed". This certificate was not turned over for several months. The UEF argued that §42-1-415(A) stated that the upstream contractor must first pay all benefits due before requesting liability to be transferred and at the time of the hearing. However, only a few benefits had been paid, certainly not all. Therefore, the UEF argued that the case was premature as far as the motion to transfer liability.

EVIDENCE OF THE CASE

The Claimant testified that he was working on August 10, 2011 for JJS Trucking in Summerville, SC at the Keystone Lumber Mill. He stated that JJS Trucking was owned by Cedric Smalls and that he had been working there for about 4 ½ to 5 months prior to his accident. Claimant testified that during his time at JJS Trucking, his job was to haul loads from Summerville, SC to North Charleston, SC, specifically from Keystone Lumber Mill to Westvaco. He explained that he was injured when he was rear-ended by a truck that was following him causing his truck to jackknife and hit the median wall. Following the accident, Claimant testified that he suffered a fractured knee, low back and neck injury as well as dizziness and problems with his left hand. He testified that following the accident, he went to MUSC where he was to receive further treatment from a neurologist and orthopedist but never got those because of having no insurance. Instead he went to a general practitioner by the name of Dr. Abel and from there, he was referred to Tri County Spinal Care for pain management and then to Dr. Wildstein, an orthopaedic surgeon.

Claimant testified that he has been unable to work since August 10, 2011, because of the nerve damage he sustained in his neck and back. He further testified that he still has headaches, numbness in his left arm and fingers and his back. He is currently on several medications such as Flexeril, Neurontin, Elavil and Viracept as well as Ibuprofen. He testified that it is his understanding that he needs to see a neurologist and needs to have surgery.

On cross-examination, the Claimant stated that he had to reschedule his last hearing because he had been incarcerated, accused of stealing a 32" television, some barstools and a laptop. Claimant stated, "the police said a witness observed me running across the parking lot running from an apartment across the street to my mom's car and putting it in the car". Claimant testified that he was using a cane recommended by Dr. Avery because he had fallen down the stairs once. He said he had fallen down the stairs in January when at his mother's house but after that fall, his pain became worse.

On cross-examination by Mr. Smalls, the Claimant testified that he was hired by JJS Trucking as a contractor. He testified that he worked his own schedule but that Cedric Smalls told him to work 12 hours from the time he started. On further cross-examination by Mrs. Cofield, the Claimant clarified that he was a sub-contractor for Chris Thompson Services, but was an employee of JJS. He also stated that when he was arrested last month, he was not using his cane, but he was on Oxycodone and other medications.

On cross-examination by Mrs. Barr, it was stated that it was his responsibility to keep his truck clean and would be responsible for any fines due to his own negligence. He also stated that he is responsible for any state and federal taxes and any workers' compensation insurance.

Christopher Thompson testified that his business was Chris Thompson Services, LLC, and in August of 2011 JJS Trucking was a subcontractor for Chris Thompson Services. He indicated he had been using JJS Trucking since approximately 2008. He explained that when he first hired JJS Trucking he was given a certificate of insurance showing that they had workers' compensation coverage. He said that he requested updated documentation once a year.

Mr. Thompson was shown a certificate of insurance that he identified to be dated October 18, 2011, and issued by Swamp Fox Agency. He stated that he was familiar with Swamp Fox Agency and knew David Hayes who signed the certificate of insurance as being the owner of Swamp Fox Insurance Agency. He stated that his view of the certificate of insurance gave him no reason to question whether or not JJS Trucking had insurance. He conveyed that it was not until about September or beginning of October before he was positively told that he did not have insurance. After that information was received, he severed his relationship with JJS Trucking.

On cross-examination by Mrs. Cofield, Mr. Thompson acknowledged that there was no description in the Description of Operations box on the certificate of insurance. Mr. Thompson also acknowledged that it did not have a policy number, but in fact, stated that it was a "binder". Mr. Thompson testified that he did not believe that Mr. Smalls purposely defrauded him or purposely gave a false certificate of insurance.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Samuel Rose was an employee of JJS Trucking on August 10, 2011.
2. On August 10, 2011, Samuel Rose sustained an injury by accident to his head, knee, leg back and neck arising out of and in the course of his employment with JJS Trucking.
3. Claimant has an average weekly wage of $650.00 and a compensation rate of $433.34.
4. Claimant is not at maximum medical improvement.
5. As a result of his accident, Claimant is entitled to temporary total disability benefits beginning on August 10, 2011 and continuing until such time as he reaches maximum medical improvement.
6. As a result of his accident, Claimant is entitled to an evaluation to determine the extent of his injuries and is entitled to ongoing medical treatment as prescribed by an authorized treating physician to be selected by the carrier.
7. On or about October 8, 2010, JJS Trucking, LLC represented to Chris Thompson Services, LLC that it had workers' compensation insurance.
8. On August 10, 2011, JJS Trucking was operating without proper insurance as required by the Workers' Compensation Act.

9. On August 10, 2011, JJS Trucking was operating as a subcontractor for Chris Thompson Services, LLC. Chris Thompson Services, LLC, is an "upstream employer" pursuant to §42-1-415.

10. Chris Thompson Services, LLC is liable to pay Claimant all benefits to which he is entitled under the Act.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. On August 10, 2011 Samuel Rose was an "employee" of JJS Trucking as defined in S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-130 (1976).

2. At the time of the Claimant's accident, JJS Trucking possessed over the Claimant the actual right and authority to control and direct his particular work or undertaking and the manner or means of its accomplishment, consistent with the definition of an employee provided in Young v. Warr, 252 S.C. 179, 189, 165 S.E.2d 797, 802 (1969).

3. The testimony of the Claimant, his immediate employer, Cedric Smalls, and the upstream contractor, Chris Thompson, combined with the evidence available in the record, when evaluated using the factors outlined in Nelson v. Yellow Cab Co., 564 SE 2d 110 ( S.C. 2002), weigh towards finding Claimant is an employee and not an independent contractor. This finding is consistent with South Carolina's policy to resolve jurisdictional doubts in favor of the inclusion of employers and employees under the Workers' Compensation Act. See South Carolina Workers' Compensation Comm'r v. Ray Covington Realtors, Inc., 318 S.C. 546, 459 S.E.2d 302 (1995).

4. Claimant is entitled to temporary total disability benefits beginning on August 10, 2011 pursuant to § 42-9-10 until such time as he is able to return to work.

5. Claimant is entitled to medical treatment causally related to his injury pursuant to §42-15-60. Claimant is entitled to reimbursement for all out of pocket medical expenses incurred to date. Carrier shall select an authorized treating physician.

6. Claimant was an employee of JJS Trucking which, at the time of his accident, was an uninsured subcontractor. Pursuant to § 42-1-415(A) Chris Thompson Services, LLC, as the higher tier contractor, shall pay all benefits due the Claimant under the Workers' Compensation Act.

7. Chris Thompson Services, LLC, asserted in its pleadings and at the Hearing that liability for this claim should be transferred to the South Carolina Uninsured Employer's Fund. § 42-1-415 only permits the higher tier contractor to petition the Commission to transfer responsibility for benefits to the UEF after it has paid all benefits due the Claimant under the Act. The evidence in the record indicates that Claimant has not received all benefits he is due under the Act from Chris Thompson Services, LLC, or its carrier. Therefore, the issue of transfer of responsibility to the UEF is not ripe for adjudication at this time.

8. Chris Thompson Services, LLC is entitled to credit for any compensation paid to the Claimant prior to the date of this Order.

9. Traveler's Indemnity was not the carrier for JJS Trucking, LLC on the date of Claimant's injury and therefore is dismissed as a party to this claim.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the statutory employer, Chris Thompson Services, LLC, through its carrier, Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company, is liable for this claim and shall pay Claimant's medical treatment and temporary total disability benefits beginning August 10, 2011 and continuing through such time Claimant is able to return to work.

All other issues are held in abeyance.

Any party wishing to appeal this Decision and Order may, within fourteen (14) days of the date this Decision and Order is received, file an application for review by the Full Commission, along with the appropriate filing fee.

Commissioner Gene McCaskill

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

This is to certify the undersigned has this date served this order in the above entitled action upon all parties to this cause by sending an electronic copy hereof by electronic mail addressed to the attorney or attorneys for said parties or by depositing a copy hereof, postage paid, in the United States certified mail addressed to any unrepresented party.
August 23, 2012

By: Kellie Lindler, Administrative Assistant to Commissioner McCaskill

| Page 1                                                       | Page 3                                                        |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 BEFORE THE                                                 | 1 CONTENTS                                                    |
| 2 SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION            | 2 PAGE                                                        |
| 3 WCC FILE NO. 1112328                                       | 3 WITNESS: SAMUEL ARCHIE DELL ROSE                            |
| 4                                                            | 4 Direct Examination by Mr. Fisher 20                         |
| 5 Samuel Rose, )                                             | 5 Cross-Examination by Ms. Barr 32                            |
| 6 Claimant, )                                                | 5 Cross-Examination by Mr. Smalls 39                          |
| 7 vs. )                                                      | 5 Cross-Examination by Ms. Cofield 41                         |
| 8 Chris Thompson Services, LLC, )                            | 6 Redirect Examination by Mr. Fisher 44                       |
| 9 and JJS Trucking, LLC, )                                   | 6 Recross-Examination by Ms. Barr 45                          |
| 10 Employer, )                                               | 7                                                             |
| 10 and )                                                     | 8 Statement on the Record of CEDRIC SMALLS 22                 |
| 11 Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company, UEF, Travelers )  | 9 WITNESS: CHRISTOPHER A. THOMPSON                            |
| 12 Indemnity, Carrier, )                                     | 10 Direct Examination by Ms. Barr 48                          |
| 13 Defendants. )                                             | 11 Cross-Examination by Mr. Smalls 55                         |
| 14                                                           | 11 Cross-Examination by Ms. Cofield 57                        |
| 15                                                           | 12 Redirect Examination by Ms. Barr 63                        |
| 16 This hearing was held before Commissioner Gene            | 12 Recross-Examination by Ms. Cofield 66                      |
| 17 McCaskill, reported by Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter  | 13 Recross-Examination by Mr. Warder 66                       |
| 18 and Notary Public in and for the State of South Carolina; | 13 Recross-Examination by Mr. Smalls 68                       |
| 19 said proceedings were held at the South Carolina Workers' | 14                                                            |
| 20 Compensation Commission, 500 North Main Street, County    | 15 Certificate of Reporter 70                                 |
| 21 Council Conference Room, Summerville, South Carolina, on  | 16                                                            |
| 22 Tuesday, May 15, 2012.                                    | 17                                                            |
| 23                                                           | 18 *****                                                      |
| 24                                                           | 19                                                            |
| 25                                                           | 20 EXHIBITS                                                   |
|                                                              | 21 PAGE                                                       |
|                                                              | 22 Exhibit No. 1 Owner Driver Contract 47                     |
|                                                              | 23 Exhibit No. 2 Certificate of Insurance 60                  |
|                                                              | 24                                                            |
|                                                              | 25 Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                          |
| Page 2                                                       | Page 4                                                        |
| 1 APPEARANCES                                                | 1 THE COURT: Today's date is May 15, 2012.                    |
| 2                                                            | 2 This is the case of Samuel Rose vs. Chris Thompson          |
| 3 ATTORNEYS FOR THE CLAIMANT                                 | 3 Services, LLC and JJS Trucking, LLC. The Workers'           |
| 4 GEORGE SINK, P.A.                                          | 4 Compensation Commission File Number is 1112328. The         |
| 5 BY: JOSEPH FISHER, ESQUIRE                                 | 5 claimant is represented by Joseph B. Fisher. The            |
| 6 7011 Rivers Avenue, Suite 105                              | 6 defendants are -- Amy V. Cofield is here on behalf of the   |
| 7 North Charleston, South Carolina 29406                     | 7 UEF, Reid Warder is on behalf of Travelers Indemnity        |
| 8                                                            | 8 Company, and Kirsten Barr is representing Chris Thompson    |
| 9 ATTORNEYS FOR THE DEFENDANTS                               | 9 Services, LLC and Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company.   |
| 10 TRASK & HOWELL, LLC                                       | 10 The date of the accident is August 10, 2011.               |
| 11 BY: KIRSTEN L. BARR, ESQUIRE                              | 11 We have an average weekly wage of $650 and a comp rate of |
| 12 763 Johnnie Dodds Boulevard #2                            | 12 $433. This is an admitted case. Are there any             |
| 13 Mount Pleasant, South Carolina 29464                      | 13 objections to jurisdiction, venue, or any APA              |
| 14                                                           | 14 submissions?                                               |
| 15 THE COFIELD LAW FIRM                                      | 15 MR. FISHER: The only objection that I would                |
| 16 BY: AMY COFIELD, ESQUIRE                                  | 16 raise, sir, my client has got some criminal history that   |
| 17 809 South Lake Drive                                      | 17 was attached to Ms. Barr's brief and there's some          |
| 18 Lexington, South Carolina 29072                           | 18 misdemeanor charges on there and I would ask that the      |
| 19                                                           | 19 misdemeanor charges be struck from the record. I don't     |
| 20 WOOD & WARDER, LLOC                                       | 20 believe that they meet the standards to which they should  |
| 21 BY: F. REID WARDER, ESQUIRE                               | 21 be taken into consideration. I don't think they affect     |
| 22 Post Office Box 20550                                     | 22 his credibility in any way, and I don't believe the        |
| 23 Charleston, South Carolina 29413                          | 23 misdemeanor charges were punishable by over a year in      |
| 24                                                           | 24 jail or a fine of $1500.                                  |
| 25                                                           | 25 THE COURT: Ms. Barr, do you want to speak to               |
|                                                              | Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                             |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 5 1 that? 2 MS. BARR: Yes, Your Honor. We did include 3 the SLED report, it's APA No. 1, in part due to the fact 4 that the delay in this matter was due in part to 5 Mr. Rose's recent incarceration, but there's also 6 contained in that arrest record crimes of moral turpitude 7 which we believe would affect claimant's credibility. I 8 don't have a problem redacting some of the minor 9 offenses, but I believe it's within the discretion of 10 you, Your Honor, to weigh and accord it the way you feel 11 it is appropriate. 12 THE COURT: Okay. And that is -- that's what 13 I'm going to do. I'm going to weigh it and give it 14 whatever weight it's due. 15 MR. FISHER: Yes. 16 THE COURT: Any other objections? 17 MS. BARR: Yes, Your Honor. There is one late 18 APA submission from the claimant. It is a medical report 19 from Dr. Wildstein dated 12/14/11. I'm not sure how he's 20 included it in his APA submission or what page number 21 he's given it, but this was only served on the parties -- 22 I received it on Friday. So we don't believe it meets 23 the statutory -- the regulatory requirement of 67-6-12 24 because we weren't afforded the 15 day's notice of that 25 report. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                           | Page 7 1 MR. WARDER: No, sir. 2 THE COURT: Where is that medical report? 3 MR. FISHER: Just one second, sir. 4 MS. BARR: Is it Page 56? 5 MR. FISHER: It's 56 and 57. 6 THE COURT: Mr. Fisher, do you disagree with 7 Ms. Barr's assessment that it suggests something 8 different than the earlier medical report? 9 MR. FISHER: Oh, yes, sir, I do. I do agree 10 with her assessment, that it -- that it does. My client 11 has been denied medical treatment by both of these 12 parties ever since we started. We did the best we could 13 with regard to getting him the treatment that we could 14 get him. He hasn't had any money since we started this 15 proceeding back in August. And I admit that that -- that 16 it's late and it does change. But if the claim is found 17 to be compensable, that's all we're asking for. We're 18 not asking for a determination with regard to you 19 ordering the surgery today. We're not asking for a 20 determination with regard to anything other than, you 21 know, a compensable claim right now. So if you want to 22 remove that, I don't think -- I don't think that would 23 prejudice us in any way. 24 THE COURT: Okay. Well, it's not timely, so 25 it's out. All right. Anything else? Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                        |
| Page 6 1 THE COURT: Mr. Fisher? 2 MR. FISHER: We didn't receive that report 3 until late. We submitted it when we received it. I 4 don't think it prejudiced any one in any way because 5 Dr. Wildstein has other records that are part of this 6 case. But all we're asking for, again, is a finding of 7 compensability and, you know, treatment. But I don't 8 think it prejudice any one in any way because they're 9 aware that Dr. Wildstein has treated Mr. Rose in the past 10 and I don't think it affects them in any way adversely. 11 MS. BARR: Your Honor, prior to Friday, the 12 most recent record from Dr. Wildstein that had been 13 submitted by the claimant is APA Page 44 and said, "I 14 don't think he's currently a reasonable surgical 15 candidate as most of his complaints are rather 16 non-specific and out of proportion with his physical exam 17 findings." The late APA submission says something quite 18 different and recommends potentially surgical treatment. 19 It does drastically change the nature of his opinions and 20 would have been something we would have responded to if 21 afforded the opportunity under the regulation. 22 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else from 23 Ms. Cofield? 24 MS. COFIELD: Not on the APAs. No, sir. 25 THE COURT: Mr. Warder, anything else? Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 8 1 (No response.) 2 THE COURT: All right. The Commission file 3 becomes part of the record with the exception of 4 self-serving declarations and unstipulated medical 5 reports. 6 Mr. Fisher, would you please state your 7 client's position for the record? 8 MR. FISHER: Yes, sir. Samuel Rose was 9 injured on August 10, 2011. He was an employee of JJS 10 Trucking. JJS Trucking was a subcontractor to Chris 11 Thompson Services. On August 10, 2011, he picked up a 12 load of woodchips. He was taking the woodchips from a 13 sawmill in Summerville to a paper mill in North 14 Charleston. On his way there, another Chris Thompson 15 truck that was behind him hit him, knocked him into a 16 wall. Both vehicles burned up. They were totaled. 17 My client was injured. He was taken to MUSC. 18 He was hospitalized for a period of time following the 19 accident. He filed a workers' compensation claim 20 alleging injuries to his head, knee, leg, back, the neck. 21 We filed that with JJS Service -- JJS Trucking. Excuse 22 me. We found out JJS Trucking didn't have any insurance, 23 so we went upstream to Chris Thompson asking for them to 24 pay his benefits. Benefits were denied. 25 My client started -- he's received $75 a week Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 9 1 benefits since going back to the day he was hurt. His2 comp rate is $433.34 or $433. His medical bills from3 MUSC haven't been paid. None of his medical bills have4 been paid.5 We're just set -- we're here today asking for6 you to find this to be a compensable claim award. His7 entitlement to medical treatment, payment of any medical8 bills that he's incurred as a result of this accident.9 We're asking for him to be compensated $433 a week back10 to the day that he got hurt because he hasn't worked11 since this accident occurred. And, of course, they would12 be entitled to a $75 a week credit for what they've paid.13 We're just looking for, again, you to find this14 compensable and award him the benefits that he deserves15 in accordance with the Act. Thank you, sir.16 THE COURT: Thank you. Ms. Barr.17 MS. BARR: Thank you, Your Honor, and thank18 you for your patience in allowing to get our positions on19 the record. It is true the claimant was a direct20 employee of JJS Trucking which is Chris Thompson21 Services, my client's subcontractor. We don't dispute22 that there was an accident as alleged on August 10 of23 2011, although we do dispute the severity or permanency24 of those injuries and the need for future treatment.25 But most importantly our position here todayKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                        | Page 11 1 that UEF has unreasonably denied the request and has2 submitted a return to the petition.3 Now, the petition was originally filed back in4 January and the issues raised back as early as our Form5 50 and again on a pre-hearing brief in November of 2010.6 But on a more recent return to our petition, the UEF7 claims that the statute places some obligation on Chris8 Thompson to -- to -- to update a representation of9 coverage because it does not contain a policy number, but10 simply lists that there is a binding insurance contract.11 We believe that the details of the coverage, including12 the coverage period, the coverage limits, the name of the13 insurer were all accurate representations of the coverage14 that was in fact written by Travelers. I believe15 Travelers -- and I'll ask Mr. Warder to speak to this,16 but that Travelers would stipulate that it insured JJS as17 of October 18, 2010, the date the Certificate of18 Insurance, due to a contract that initially covered the19 period from October 8, 2010 to October 8, 2011.20 Therefore the representations contained in that21 Certificate of Insurance at the time it was issued were22 correct despite the fact the policy later lapsed.23 Would Travelers be in a position to stipulate24 to that fact?25 MR. WARDER: The -- certainly Travelers gaveKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                         |
| Page 10 1 is that we believe we would be entitled to transfer2 liability to the South Carolina Uninsured Employers Fund3 under Statute 42-1-415 because JJS Trucking and its4 principal, Mr. Cedric Smalls, represented -- represented5 himself to Chris Thompson as having workers' comp6 insurance at the time he was initially engaged to perform7 work for and Chris Thompson Services and, thereafter,8 updated the Certificate of Insurance and that9 representation of coverage on an annual basis. On10 October 18, 2010, Chris Thompson Services obtained an11 ACORD Form 25 Certificate of Insurance showing that JJS12 Trucking was covered by a contract with workers'13 compensation issued by Travelers Insurance for the period14 from October 8, 2010 to October 8, 2011. And that's Page15 39 of our APA submissions.16 At no time prior to Mr. Rose's accident did17 JJS Trucking, Cedric Smalls, the Swamp Fox Insurance18 Agency which was the producer of this policy, Travelers19 or any other person or entity notify Chris Thompson20 Services that his coverage had changed or lapsed. And as21 required by Section 42-1-415, Chris Thompson Services and22 his insurance carrier, Bridgefield, have paid temporary23 total disability benefits since the date of accident and24 request as a part of their petition to transfer liability25 that the UEF reimburse these benefits to us. We believeKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 12 1 the authority to Swamp Fox Agency to write insurance on2 their behalf. And at the time that the policy was3 created and inbound initially and a deposit was made, it4 was fully in effect and it was a valid policy. And5 therefore later on afterwards, due to non-payment, it was6 cancelled later on. But, yes, otherwise we would have no7 cancellation of anything or a policy in existence. They8 certainly had the authority of Travelers to write9 policies on their behalf because they're an insurance10 agent.11 MS. BARR: For these reasons we believe that12 the certificate that we rely upon is a valid13 representation of insurance as required by 42-1-415.14 The second argument the UEF raises is that the15 Certificate of Insurance is not proper documentation of16 insurance because it doesn't contain a description of17 operations. They cite the Hopper case and Regulation18 67-4-15. Now, Hopper, which I believe you now have a19 copy of, has an important distinction that makes it not20 applicable to this case. And you will see that the court21 noted that this certificate, the certificate at play in22 Hopper, contained no information regarding the policy --23 the coverage that the policy provided. And, in fact, the24 Certificate of Insurance we rely upon does contain a25 detailed description of the policy terms including theKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 13 1 policy period and policy limits and, therefore, we2 believe it is distinguishable. 3 Furthermore, Hopper dealt with an out-of-state4 employer or multi-state employer and the regulations add5 additional burdens for Certificate of Insurance for an6 out-of-state employer under 67-415, and the description7 of operations is required for an out-of-state employer.8 That's not an issue here. Mr. Cedric Smalls, JJS9 Trucking, is right here in North Charleston, South10 Carolina and -- and -- and has no multi-state operations.11 So we believe that that alleged deficiency does not12 defeat our ability to transfer 13 The third issue they raise is that the14 Certificate of Insurance is invalid because they contest15 the authority of David Hayes. But as you've heard from16 Travelers's attorney, they don't dispute the authority of17 Swamp Fox Agency, the principal of which is David Hayes,18 to issue a Certificate of Insurance on their behalf. 19 Furthermore, there's no requirement under the20 statute or the regulations that we investigate the21 authority of the signator. We simply can rely on a22 reasonable representation of insurance and that's what we23 did. On the face of that Certificate of Insurance, it24 raises no red flag about the authority of the signator.25 We even took an extra step because my client didn'tKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                 | Page 15 1 interpretation. 2 The UEF, their sixth claim is that we should3 have obtained a new Certificate of Insurance each time4 JJS pulled a load on behalf of Chris Thompson Services.5 This is certainly belied by the statutory interpretation6 of this case -- of this statute. JJS only performed one7 service for JJS, was engaged a single time to do a single8 service, and that's to go back and forth between two9 mills. The terms of this engagement never changed, and10 for that reason we did not need to continually update the11 certificate each time he pulled a load. 12 We believe that we have met all the13 requirements and we appreciate your consideration. 14 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Cofield. 15 MS. COFIELD: Yes, Your Honor. It's been a16 long established policy that a statutory employer bears17 the absolute liability to injured workers. Section18 42-1-415 was a narrow exception whereas the employer19 could pass liability to the UEF. It must, therefore, be20 construed strictly. Recent case law that -- that we have21 discussed and that we've presented -- I have presented in22 my return has described further what some of these23 necessities to meet the statutory requirements are. One24 of those cases is Barton vs. Hicks, 674 Southeastern 2nd25 145. In this case the only thing wrong with theKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                            |
| Page 14 1 obtain the certificate directly from JJS Trucking. They2 had it faxed to them directly from the producer of that3 policy, the Swamp Fox Agency, and you'll see at the top4 of the certificate the fax number there and that will be5 borne out by the testimony of my client. 6 The UEF also argues that we are not entitled7 to transfer of liability because they question the timing8 of the presentation of our Certificate of Insurance.9 42-415 says that the certificate is to be turned over at10 the time a claim is filed. The claim was filed and we11 filed a Form 50 raising 42-1-415 as a defense. We12 served the certificate on November 4th of 2011, six and a13 half months ago. It was served again when we initially14 filed our petition to transfer liability in January and15 again when we had to renew our motion due to some recent16 scheduling difficulties. 17 The claim has yet to be adjudicated. The18 claim filed by Cedric Smalls is still pending. We19 haven't even determined that claim yet. So we believe20 that the certificate that's turned over six and a half21 months before the claim is even adjudicated for the first22 time is timely under the statute. The UEF seems to23 suggest that we need to show up at the Commission at the24 time that Form 50 was delivered in order to meet our25 burden, and I don't believe that's a justifiedKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 16 1 certificate was that it lacked a signature. One box was2 empty. Supreme Court ruled that that was not an3 acceptable form because there was no signature on it.4 The Court has taken the position that an employer cannot5 pass liability to the UEF by simply accepting a piece of6 paper without reviewing it and checking to make sure it's7 accurate thereby ignoring the information that appears on8 the certificate. 9 That in this case has been ignored in several10 ways. One, the description of operations box is blank.11 The Hopper case stands for the proposition that you can't12 have blanks on your certificate. Barton had a blank13 signature. This one has a description of operations14 that's blank. That case in nowhere stands for the15 proposition that that only applies to out-of-state16 employers. In that case there was an out-of-state17 employer, but that was not what the court relied on to18 rule that the certificate was invalid. They ruled upon19 the fact that it had not been filled out and the fact20 that the employer had failed to read it and see that it21 had not been filled out and to take proper steps to22 verify the information on the certificate. 23 Another problem with the certificate is it24 doesn't say anywhere that they have procured a policy.25 The only thing the certificate says is there's a binder.Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 17 1 A binder is only a temporary piece of coverage until a2 policy is issued. A binder cannot be expected to last3 for ten months into the period stated on here. As far as4 we know, the -- he never received another certificate5 that ever indicated that there was a policy of insurance.6 We did raise the question about David Hayes's7 signature on this certificate. There has been no8 evidence presented until today, and all we have today9 really is that Swamp Fox Agency was authorized to issue10 the certificate. Normally what is required is that some11 evidence be given that David Hayes was a -- she called12 him a principal of Swamp Fox. I don't know that. I13 don't know who David Hayes is. There's nothing in the14 record and nothing in evidence to show David Hayes was an15 authorized agent to sign the certificate.16 There is a problem with the timing of the17 presentation of the certificate because 42-1-41518 provides, "Documentation must be turned over to the19 Commission at the time a claim is filed by the injured20 employee." I would say that turning a certificate over21 months later to the Commission is not at the same time.22 Also raised is the question of whether or not23 they have met the requirements of 42-1-415(A) which says24 the upstream contractor must pay all the benefits due25 before requesting that liability be transferred. ThereKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 19 1 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Barr, anything2 else?3 MS. BARR: No, thank you, Your Honor.4 THE COURT: Ms. Cofield?5 MS. COFIELD: No, sir.6 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Fisher, do you7 want to call your witness?8 MR. FISHER: Yes, sir.9 THE COURT: Mr. Rose, I'm going to swear you10 in here in just a second, and then I'm going to ask you11 to state and spell your full name for the record. I have12 two requests for you. One, please speak loudly enough so13 that the court reporter who is making a record of this14 hearing, all of the attorneys and I can hear you. And15 the second thing is if you are asked a yes or no16 question, please respond with yes or no. Don't say17 uh-huh or unh-unh. That can get confused in the record.18 And please don't shake or nod your head because19 especially in this dynamic it would be very difficult for20 her to take down. Okay.21 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.22 (SAMUEL ARCHIE DELL ROSE, being duly sworn to23 tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified24 as follows:)25 THE COURT: Would you state and spell yourKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |
| Page 18 1 has not been an order. That is true. An order would2 establish all benefits due, then they should pay all3 benefits due, and then at that time they may petition to4 transfer liability. That issue makes this case premature5 as far as the transfer of liability.6 Commissioner, I would rely further on the7 return that I have sent to you that outlines specifically8 further the arguments and case law that support my9 position.10 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Warder.11 MR. WARDER: Thank you, Commissioner. I'm12 here today on behalf of Travelers Indemnity Company, and13 we take the position that since the policy that was14 issued to JJS Trucking was effectively cancelled on15 February 5th of 2011, that we certainly have no liability16 whatsoever for the date of injury in this matter which is17 August 10th of 2011, over six months later. I don't18 think anyone here is contending that we had an effective19 policy at that time. As I pointed out in our pre-hearing20 on Page 73 of my APA submissions, Swamp Fox Agency had21 received a notice of cancellation January 18th of 2011.22 Therefore, we would ask that we be released from this23 matter. Thank you.24 THE COURT: Mr. Fisher, anything else?25 MR. FISHER: No, sir.Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                               | Page 20 1 full name for the record, please?2 THE WITNESS: Samuel Archie Dell Rose.3 S-A-M-U-E-L, A-R-C-H-I-E, D-E-L-L, R-O-S-E.4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Fisher.5 DIRECT EXAMINATION6 BY MR. FISHER:7 Q. Mr. Rose, please try and speak as loud as you8 can. Where were you working on -- were you working on9 August 10, 2011?10 A. Yes.11 Q. And where were you working at?12 A. For JJS Trucking out of Summerville at13 Keystone Lumber Mill.14 THE COURT: Why don't you turn just a little15 bit so they can see you, at least a profile.16 BY MR. FISHER:17 Q. Where were you working at?18 A. For JJS Trucking out of Summerville.19 Q. Okay. And who owns JJS Trucking?20 A. Cedric. Cedric Smalls.21 Q. And how long had you worked there before22 August 10, 2011?23 A. Between four and a half to five months.24 Q. And what did you do at JJS Trucking?25 A. Haul loads from Summerville to NorthKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                                                      |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 21 1 Charleston. 2 Q. And was that -- and when you say from 3 Summerville, where at -- where did you start your trip 4 at? 5 A. Keystone Lumber Mill to Westvaco in North 6 Charleston. 7 Q. Did you drive anywhere else? 8 A. No. 9 Q. That was the only route that you drove the 10 whole time you worked there? 11 A. Yes. 12 MS. BARR: Your Honor, I apologize for 13 interrupting. We haven't yet put Mr. Smalls on the 14 record. 15 THE COURT: This is true. 16 MS. BARR: I'm sorry, Mr. Rose. 17 MR. FISHER: We can go ahead and then we can 18 go back if you would like. 19 THE COURT: Let's do that. Mr. Smalls, do you 20 have a statement for the record? 21 MR. SMALLS: Yes, Your Honor. I wanted to 22 state that as far as being properly -- 23 (CEDRIC SMALLS, being duly sworn to tell the 24 whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as 25 follows:) Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Page 23 1 THE COURT: Any of y'all have questions for 2 Mr. Smalls? 3 MS. COFIELD: Not at this time. When we put 4 him up to testify, we will. 5 THE COURT: All right. 6 MS. BARR: And, Your Honor, I believe 7 Mr. Smalls, he previously gave a statement in his 8 deposition that he was prepared to -- to appear on his 9 own behalf without assistance of counsel. 10 THE COURT: Yes. You do know you are entitled 11 to a lawyer? 12 MR. SMALLS: Yes, sir. I have been working on 13 that matter. Yes, sir. 14 THE COURT: But you are appearing today 15 without counsel? 16 MR. SMALLS: Yes, sir. 17 THE COURT: All right. 18 MR. SMALLS: Thank you, Your Honor. 19 THE COURT: Anything else before we go back to 20 Mr. Rose? 21 (No response.) 22 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Fisher. 23 BY MR. FISHER: 24 Q. Okay. Mr. Rose, now, how long did you drive 25 for JJS Trucking before August 10, 2011? Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Page 22 1 THE COURT: Please state and spell your full 2 name for the record. 3 THE WITNESS: Cedric Smalls. C-E-D-R-I-C. 4 Smalls, S-M-A-L-L-S. 5 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Smalls. 6 STATEMENT ON THE RECORD 7 MR. SMALLS: In regards of the matter on being 8 properly notified of the lapse of insurance, I am stating 9 that I was not properly notified. I also give in support 10 of that that Mr. Chris Thompson is listed as additionally 11 insured. From my understanding he was never notified of 12 the lapse of insurance. There is a situation in my past 13 to where one time my insurance was about to lapse and 14 Swamp Fox had as Chris Thompson being -- knowing as 15 additionally insured, contacted Mr. Chris. Mr. Chris 16 contacted me immediately and the situation was rectified. 17 In this particular case, nothing of that sort 18 ever happened. Mr. -- Mr. Thompson would have never 19 allowed me to actually work that long of a period without 20 being notified. We both have the same -- the same agent, 21 which is Swamp Fox. I clearly believe that there was a 22 mistake made in the notification of lapse. And I just 23 wanted to go on record as stating that as far as JJS is 24 concerned, at -- at this point in time, I believe that we 25 were not properly notified. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 24 1 A. About four and a half to five months. 2 Q. Okay. And your route was what? 3 A. From Summerville to North Charleston. From 4 Keystone Lumber Mill in Summerville to Westvaco in North 5 Charleston. 6 Q. And was that the only route that you ever 7 drove for Cedric Smalls -- 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. -- JJS Trucking? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Okay. And let me see. And what did you haul? 12 A. Woodchips. 13 Q. Okay. And what happened on August 10, 2011? 14 A. As I was -- well, I was on my last run for the 15 night from Summerville to Westvaco. I got on the 16 interstate at Exit 199. I came up I-26. And as I 17 approached Ashley Phosphate, I was rear-ended. The truck 18 hit me -- well, I downshifted to go through the 19 construction. There was construction going on at the 20 time. I slowed up and I was rear-ended by a truck that 21 was following me. I jackknifed. I hit the median wall. 22 The trucks exploded and I passed out. 23 Q. Okay. And at the -- what happened after the 24 accident? Did you go to the doctor? 25 A. I went to MUSC. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 25 1 Q. And what were the problems you were2 experiencing physically whenever you went to MUSC?3 A. My right knee was fractured, lower back pains,4 my neck was injured, and dizziness and problems with my5 left hand.6 Q. Now, were you knocked unconscious as a result7 of this accident?8 A. Yes.9 Q. And after the accident did you report your10 accident and injuries to the supervisor?11 A. Yes.12 Q. And who is your supervisor?13 A. Cedric Smalls.14 Q. Okay. And after they sent you home from MUSC,15 did they -- did the doctors at MUSC make any appointments16 for you to continue treatment?17 A. Yes.18 Q. And where were those appointments made at?19 A. On my discharge from MUSC, I was scheduled to20 go see an orthopedic surgeon and there was another21 doctor. I'm not sure. But I'm assuming that it was a22 neurologist, but both appointments -- both appointments23 was cancelled.24 Q. Why were they cancelled?25 A. No insurance.Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 27 1 A. No.2 Q. And why is that?3 A. The nerve damage that I have in my -- from my4 neck, back problems that I continue to have, dizziness,5 and numbness in my arm.6 Q. Are you able to drive now? You drove a truck7 for a living. Are you able to drive now?8 A. As long as I'm not on medication, I can drive,9 but not a truck.10 Q. Okay. Do you have any idea how far you can11 drive now without having any physical problems?12 A. Not far.13 Q. Okay. Is there any way you could run the14 circuit that you used to run for Cedric Smalls in the15 condition you're in now?16 A. No. The vibrations from the truck will -- I17 was told that it's going to do a little bit more damage18 to my neck.19 Q. Okay. And what's the worst current problem20 that you have right now?21 A. Neck pain, numbness in my arm, and lower back22 pain.23 Q. Okay. How about your knee?24 A. My knee is the only thing that I was told25 that's healed -- that's healing fine.Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                    |
| Page 26 1 Q. Okay. And did you tell them it was a2 work-related accident?3 A. Yes, I did.4 Q. And there was no workers' comp insurance that5 paid for that?6 A. They said they needed the policy and without7 the policy number or -- they couldn't do anything without8 a policy number or approval.9 Q. Okay. And nothing ever got approved?10 A. Nothing was ever approved.11 Q. After that, did you ever get any treatment12 after you left MUSC?13 A. Yes.14 Q. Where did you treat?15 A. I went to a general practitioner, Dr. Abel.16 And from there I went to Tri-County Spinal Care for pain17 management. And from there I went to Dr. Wildstein, an18 orthopedic surgeon.19 Q. Okay. And what did they treat you for,20 Dr. Abel, Dr. Wildstein, and the folks at Tri-County21 Spine?22 A. My neck, my lower back, and my knee.23 Q. And have you missed any time from work?24 A. Yes.25 Q. Have you worked since August 10, 2011?Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                            | Page 28 1 Q. Okay. And whenever your neck hurts, your back2 hurts, is there anything that alleviates the pain?3 A. Well, I'm on medication for pain, but that's4 not really working. What I try to do is just about5 anything that will get my mind off the pain whether it's6 walking or just anything.7 Q. Okay. And can you describe the pain that you8 feel in your neck to the Commissioner?9 A. The base of my skull is still swollen. It's a10 throbbing headache. My left arm is numb. I have11 numbness and I feel my fingers. My lower back. If I12 stand too fast, I get dizzy. If I move too fast, it just13 starts hurting. If I stay in one position and one place,14 it's fine.15 Q. Do you take any medication currently for your16 neck and your back pain?17 A. Yes.18 Q. And what do you take?19 A. I'm on Viracept, Flexeril, Neurontin, and20 Elavil, as well as ibuprofen.21 Q. And who is writing you these prescriptions for22 these medications?23 A. My latest prescriptions came from Dr. Abel.24 Q. Is it your understanding you're going to25 continue to take these medications into the near future?Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 29 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. What is your understanding about any future 3 medical needs you might have? 4 MS. BARR: Objection. Calls for hearsay. 5 MR. FISHER: I'm just asking his 6 understanding, not what anyone -- 7 THE COURT: What is your understanding? 8 THE WITNESS: My understanding is that I 9 need -- I need surgery on my neck. The doctor called 10 it -- 11 MS. BARR: Objection. Hearsay. 12 MR. FISHER: You can't say what the doctor 13 called. I just want what is your understanding. 14 THE COURT: What is your understanding. 15 THE WITNESS: My understanding is that I have 16 a herniated disc in my back and neck. That's my 17 understanding. 18 BY MR. FISHER: 19 Q. Okay. Do you have any understanding with 20 regard to any future medical treatment? 21 A. Yes. My understanding is I need to see a 22 neurologist, and I need the surgery on my neck to relieve 23 the pain. And afterwards, then I'll get my back checked 24 out. 25 Q. How were you paid whenever you were hauling Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 31 1 Q. Did he tell Cedric what to do and what not to 2 do? 3 A. To my knowledge, yes. 4 Q. Okay. Who serviced your truck? 5 A. The tractor was serviced by Cedric Smalls. 6 The trailer was serviced by Chris Thompson. 7 Q. Okay. As you're sitting here today, do you 8 think it would be in your best interest to have some more 9 medical treatment? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And have you been -- what payment have you 12 received since this accident? 13 A. I've received $75 per week from Bridgefield 14 Casualty. 15 Q. And our records indicate that an average 16 weekly wage for you would be around $650? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Does that sound about right? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Okay. And so your position you deserve TTD 21 back to the day you got hurt minus the $75 a week you've 22 already -- 23 A. Yes. 24 MR. FISHER: Thank you, sir. I don't have any 25 other questions. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                    |
| Page 30 1 for Cedric Smalls? 2 A. Weekly. 3 Q. And were you paid by the hour? 4 A. I was paid by the load. 5 Q. And how much is a load? 6 A. $25 per load. 7 Q. Okay. And who gave you the checks? 8 A. Cedric Smalls. 9 Q. Okay. Did Chris Thompson ever give you a 10 check? 11 A. No. 12 Q. And do you have any understanding with regard 13 to how Cedric Smalls was paid? 14 A. Yes. Chris Thompson -- 15 Q. What is your understanding? 16 A. Chris Thompson would pay Cedric Smalls and he 17 would pay us. 18 Q. And who was in -- you worked for Cedric 19 Smalls, but who was in charge of the operation? 20 A. Chris Thompson. 21 Q. Okay. You said Chris Thompson? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And how do you know that? 24 A. I was told by Cedric Smalls that he is the 25 boss and we work for him. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Page 32 1 THE COURT: Ms. Barr. 2 MS. BARR: Thank you. 3 CROSS-EXAMINATION 4 BY MS. BARR: 5 Q. Mr. Rose, we met before. But, again, my name 6 is Kirsten Barr and I represent Chris Thompson Services 7 and their insurance carrier. No doubt about it the night 8 you got hurt, you were working for JJS Trucking; is that 9 right? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And since that time, who have you worked for? 12 A. No one. 13 Q. Have you attempted to work for anybody? 14 A. No, ma'am. 15 Q. Have you driven a car or a truck anywhere? 16 A. I have driven a car. And because of the 17 medication I am taking, I have not driven a truck. 18 Q. You haven't tried to drive a truck? 19 A. I can't deal with the vibrations of a car, so 20 I know I can't deal with the vibrations of a truck. 21 Q. Have you surrendered your commercial driver's 22 license then? 23 A. No. I have my license, but my medical -- my 24 DOT card, the doctor took that from me. 25 Q. Which doctor? Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 33 1 A. Dr. Abel. 2 Q. Tell me Dr. Wildstein, this doctor you've gone 3 to, how do you pay Dr. Wildstein? 4 A. To my knowledge, he hasn't been paid yet. 5 Q. So you've got an arrangement with 6 Dr. Wildstein that you'll just pay him from whatever you 7 can get out of this workers' comp claim? 8 A. It's my understanding, yes. 9 Q. And who sent you to Dr. Wildstein? 10 A. My lawyer. 11 Q. Do you recall that we had a hearing scheduled 12 in your case a few weeks ago? 13 A. Yes, ma'am. 14 Q. And you were incarcerated at the time of that 15 hearing? 16 A. Yes, ma'am. 17 Q. How long were you incarcerated? 18 A. Three weeks. 19 Q. And where were you incarcerated? 20 A. St. George. 21 Q. And why were you incarcerated in St. George 22 for three weeks last month? 23 A. I was accused of stealing a 32-inch 24 television, some bar stools, and a laptop. The police 25 said that a witness observed me running across a parking Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Page 35 1 testified that you only wear a neck brace when you were 2 driving a car? 3 A. Yes, ma'am. 4 Q. Has your neck problem gotten worse since then? 5 A. It's hurting. It's continuous. And I still 6 wear my back brace. I still have it on now. 7 Q. A back brace? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Why aren't you doing exercises and therapy 10 instead of wearing a brace? 11 A. The doctor told me the only exercise he wanted 12 me to do was walking. Other than that, he told me to 13 stay off my feet as much as possible. 14 Q. The cane, did you just buy that at a drugstore 15 or something? 16 A. No. 17 Q. You paid for it, right? 18 A. Yes, I did. I was told by Dr. Abel to get it 19 because of dizziness. And I fell once down the stairs. 20 When I stood up, I use it for balance. 21 Q. When did you fall down the stairs? 22 A. Last year back in November and I fell again in 23 January. 24 Q. When you fell down the stairs in November, 25 where were you? Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                       |
| Page 34 1 lot running from an apartment across the street to my 2 mom's car and putting it in the car. And the police said 3 based on what their witness said that I did, that I was 4 arrested. 5 Q. And then you stayed in jail for three weeks as 6 a result of those allegations? 7 A. Yes. I was told that I could only be released 8 by a circuit judge in St. George. I had to wait for the 9 circuit judge to come. 10 Q. Did you have any medical treatment while you 11 were incarcerated? 12 A. No. 13 Q. And you were cleared to be in the general 14 prison population? 15 A. No, I was not cleared to be in the population. 16 From the day that I got there, the nurse that I spoke 17 with and she spoke to the doctors, they kept me in the 18 front in the holding cell under 24 hour observation. 19 Q. But you didn't receive any treatment? 20 A. The only thing they gave me was pain 21 management and they just kept me under observation. And 22 they gave me a few of my medications, but they told me 23 that I was not allowed to have narcotics while there. 24 Q. You're wearing a neck brace here today. Back 25 when we took your deposition several months ago, you Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 36 1 A. At my mother's house. 2 Q. And how many stairs did you fall down? 3 A. About five. 4 Q. Five stairs. How did you land when you fell 5 down the stairs in November? 6 A. I landed on the ground. 7 Q. I assume that hurt pretty bad? 8 A. Yes, it did. 9 Q. What did you injure when you fell down the 10 stairs in November? 11 A. My back and my neck was hurt. I went to 12 Dr. Kellett out of Tri-County Spinal Care. He gave me an 13 epidural injection and a cortisone injection in the base 14 of my skull. 15 Q. And he had to do that because you had fallen 16 down the stairs? 17 A. To help me manage the pain. Once he got it 18 back under control, I just kept doing what I was told. 19 Q. So the pain in your back and in your neck and 20 in your arms was worse after you fell the down stairs at 21 your mother's house in November of 2011? 22 A. Yes, it was worse. 23 Q. And you say you fell down a flight of stairs 24 in January 2012 as well? 25 A. Yes. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 37 1 Q. Where were you when you fell down the stairs2 then?3 A. At my mother's house.4 Q. How many stairs did you fall down in January?5 A. About five or six.6 Q. And how did you land when you fell down the7 stairs in January?8 A. On the ground.9 Q. I mean, what part of your body hit the ground?10 A. My knee.11 Q. Which knee?12 A. Both my knees.13 Q. What did you injure when you fell down the14 stairs at your mother's house in January of this year?15 A. I irritated my back.16 Q. Your low back or your neck or both?17 A. Yes, both.18 Q. And did you have to get some medical treatment19 or some medication to deal with the injuries you20 sustained or the worsening of your symptoms as a result21 of that fall in January?22 A. I already had the medication. I told Dr. Abel23 about it. I took -- at the time was on Lortab and24 Oxycodone, and I took that at the time.25 Q. Your symptoms were worse after you fell thatKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 39 1 MS. BARR: Okay. That's all the questions I2 have for you, Mr. Rose. I appreciate it.3 THE COURT: Ms. Cofield.4 MS. BARR: It appeared Mr. Smalls -- I don't5 know if he had a question for Mr. Rose.6 THE COURT: Sure. Mr. Smalls, you're pro se.7 CROSS-EXAMINATION8 BY MR. SMALLS:9 Q. At the accident, how long were you passed out?10 A. I was told by the EMTs that I was in and out.11 I was awake long enough to notify you and I called my mom12 and that was afterwards.13 Q. I recall that at the scene, I gave the state14 troopers all the insurance information at the scene. I15 also came to the hospital to provide additional insurance16 information at the time. I recall you stated they17 wouldn't -- they wouldn't do any surgery on you at that18 time because of lack of insurance information?19 A. Right. They needed policy numbers.20 Q. When you were released from the hospital, did21 the hospital give you a time frame in which they felt22 that you would be able to perform your work tasks?23 A. They told me I needed to speak to -- well, I24 needed to go to an orthopedic surgeon and they scheduled25 the appointment to go to the orthopedic surgeon and thatKimberly T. Power, Court Reporter     |
| Page 38 1 second time at your mother's house?2 A. It hurt as well.3 Q. Have you fallen down any other flights of4 stairs or fallen anywhere else?5 A. No, ma'am.6 Q. Have you had any other accidents or injuries7 since August of 2010?8 A. No, ma'am.9 Q. No. Just the two falls down the stairs at10 your mother's house?11 A. Yes.12 Q. Were those carpeted stairs or hardwood stairs13 or --14 A. Carpeted.15 Q. Were you wearing shoes when you fell either of16 those times?17 A. Slippers.18 Q. And as we're here today, I don't believe --19 you don't have a slip from any doctor excusing you from20 work at this point in time, do you?21 A. I have one from Dr. Abel. It said no work.22 Q. You don't have one here with you today --23 A. No.24 Q. -- saying you can't work at this time?25 A. I gave the slip to my lawyer.Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                  | Page 40 1 got cancelled twice. They gave me another appointment to2 see a neurologist, and that was cancelled as well. And3 then MUSC sent a physical therapist to the house, and4 that was cancelled by Dr. Abel.5 Q. Okay. So when you were released, they never6 gave you a time frame in which they felt like you would7 be able to go back to work?8 A. They told me not until the doctor releases me.9 Q. Were you hired from JJS Trucking as an10 employee or a subcontractor yourself?11 A. Contractor.12 Q. When it came time for you to take your loads,13 did Cedric Smalls tell you when to take your loads or did14 you contact the actual loader spreader and you would come15 into work based on work at the mill?16 A. I came based on my schedule at the mill in the17 afternoons, went to the loader spreader, got the loads,18 took the loads to North Charleston.19 Q. So -- so Cedric Smalls himself never told you20 when to go or start work?21 A. He only told -- well, Cedric Smalls only told22 me to work 12 hours from the time that I start and --23 just 12 hours from that time. No more.24 Q. Did you ever sign a document stating that you25 were a subcontractor, not an employee?Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 41 1 A. The only documents I've signed was an2 application.3 MR. SMALLS: I don't know -- I don't know.4 procedure, Your Honor, but Mr. Samuel Rose signed an5 owner driver obligation. And in that owner -- owner6 obligation contract it states that he was to obtain his7 own workers' comp if it was deemed necessary because he8 was actually signed on from JJS Tucking as a9 subcontractor. That's why he picked his own loads.10 He -- he decided actually when he went to work, and I11 just wanted that to be a matter of record.12 MR. FISHER: I would object unless you have a13 copy of that.14 THE COURT: Do you have a copy of that?15 MR. SMALLS: I do. It has his signature on it16 as well. And I also gave this document at a hearing17 previously.18 THE COURT: Any other questions, Mr. Smalls?19 MR. SMALLS: No, Your Honor.20 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Cofield.21 CROSS-EXAMINATION22 BY MS. COFIELD:23 Q. Mr. Rose, you testified a minute ago that you24 thought of yourself as a subcontractor, not an employee;25 is that correct?Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 43 1 Q. Since that time has Bridgefield or2 Mr. Thompson offered to pay any of your medical bills?3 A. I have not spoken with Mr. Thompson.4 Q. Have any of your medical bills been paid?5 A. Nothing has been paid.6 Q. Thank you.7 MS. BARR: Your Honor, we would stipulate if8 you found past medical bills casually-related to this9 accident, Bridgefield would pay medical bills that you10 believe are due and owing in an effort to expedite the11 transfer of liability.12 BY MS. COFIELD:13 Q. Mr. Rose, when you were arrested last month on14 April 12th, were you using your cane?15 A. No, I didn't have my cane. No.16 Q. Were you on your Oxycodone or other17 medications?18 A. Yes, ma'am.19 Q. Did you get those medicines while you were in20 jail?21 A. They were brought to the jail, but I was told22 that I couldn't have a Schedule III narcotic. They gave23 me the Neurontin, the Viracept, the Flexeril, the24 ibuprofen, and Tylenol.25 Q. That's what you took in jail?Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |
| Page 42 1 A. A subcontractor for Chris Thompson working for2 JJS.3 Q. What was your relationship with JJS? Were you4 a subcontractor for JJS or an employee?5 A. I believe I was an employee. I worked for JJS6 Trucking.7 Q. Okay. And you were paid per load?8 A. Yes, ma'am.9 Q. And your loads varied each week; is that10 correct?11 A. Yes, ma'am.12 Q. And no taxes were taken out of your check?13 A. No, ma'am.14 Q. And, in fact, you were given a 1099 at the end15 of the year, correct?16 A. I have not received a 1099.17 Q. Okay. Did Mr. Thompson know you were getting18 medical treatment?19 A. Not -- I have never spoke with Mr. Thompson20 about my -- any treatment.21 Q. Okay. When your deposition was taken in22 November of 2011, did you not testify that you were23 getting medical treatment?24 A. Yes. I testified that I was being treated by25 Dr. Abel, Dr. Kellett, and Dr. Wildstein.Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                           | Page 44 1 A. Yes, ma'am.2 MS. COFIELD: Okay. That's all I have for3 you.4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Warder.5 MR. WARDER: I have no questions of this6 witness at this time, Your Honor.7 THE COURT: All right. Anything further?8 MR. FISHER: Yes, sir.9 REDIRECT EXAMINATION10 BY MR. FISHER:11 Q. Mr. Smalls stated that you had signed a12 document and I just looked at it. Did he ever tell you13 that you needed to buy your own workers' compensation14 insurance?15 A. No.16 Q. Never told you that?17 A. No.18 MR. FISHER: Okay. Thank you.19 THE COURT: Any other questions for this20 witness, Mr. Smalls?21 MR. SMALLS: No, Your Honor.22 THE COURT: Ms. Barr?23 MS. BARR: Your Honor, just briefly. The24 document that was presented by Mr. Smalls, it's marked as25 Exhibit No. 1?Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 45 1 THE COURT: It will be. 2 MS. BARR: Or will be. 3 RE CROSS-EXAMINATION 4 BY MS. BARR: 5 Q. Mr. Rose, this is your signature on Page 2 of 6 this owner driver contract? 7 A. Yes, ma'am. 8 Q. All right. And that's your signature dated 9 April 28, 2011? 10 A. Yes, ma'am. 11 Q. That was prior to this accident that you were 12 involved with. Right. And you agreed to the obligations 13 as outlined of the driver's obligations under this 14 contract? 15 A. Yes, ma'am. I never made over -- I never made 16 over a thousand. The minimum amount it says is 1,000 per 17 week and I never made that. 18 Q. Okay. And it says that you were responsible 19 for keeping your truck in a responsible and clean manner? 20 A. Yes, ma'am. 21 Q. All right. And you were also responsible for 22 any fines due to your own negligence? 23 A. Yes, ma'am. 24 Q. And you were responsible for all state and 25 federal taxes? Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter   | Page 47 1 THE COURT: All right. Other witnesses, 2 Mr. Fisher? 3 MR. FISHER: No more witnesses, sir. 4 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Barr? 5 MS. BARR: Your Honor, I have one witness, 6 Mr. Chris Thompson, and he's asked for a momentary 7 adjournment if you would allow. 8 THE COURT: Certainly. 9 (Exhibit No. 1, Owner Driver Contract, was 10 marked and entered into evidence.) 11 (Off the record.) 12 MS. BARR: Mr. Chris Thompson. 13 THE COURT: I'm going to swear you in, and 14 then please state and spell your full name for the 15 record. Speak loudly enough so everyone can hear you. 16 THE WITNESS: Christopher A. Thompson. 17 THE COURT: Hold on, hold on. You're getting 18 ahead of me. And then if you're asked a yes or no 19 question, answer yes or no and not uh-huh or unh-unh. 20 Don't shake or nod your head. Please say yes or no if 21 it's a yes or no question. 22 (CHRISTOPHER A. THOMPSON, being duly sworn to 23 tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified 24 as follows:) 25 THE COURT: Would you state and spell your Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |
| Page 46 1 A. Yes, ma'am. 2 Q. And you were also responsible for your 3 workers' comp insurance when applicable? 4 A. That's what it says. Yes, ma'am. 5 Q. And this was the agreement you signed on April 6 11th -- or April 28th of 2011? 7 A. That's what it says. 8 MS. BARR: Thank you. 9 THE COURT: Anything further, Ms. Barr? 10 MS. BARR: Nothing, Your Honor. Thank you. 11 THE COURT: Ms. Cofield? 12 MS. COFIELD: No, sir. 13 THE COURT: Mr. Warder? 14 MR. WARDER: No, Your Honor. 15 THE COURT: All right, sir. You may step 16 down. Before we go any further, several of you have 17 referred to depositions taken of Mr. Rose and Mr. Smalls. 18 I do not see either of those in the file. Should they be 19 here? 20 MS. BARR: Your Honor, I think both are 21 contained in my APA submissions. 22 MR. FISHER: This is the original of Cedric 23 Smalls. 24 MS. BARR: And here is Samuel Rosé. That 25 lightens my load. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 48 1 full name for the record, please? 2 THE WITNESS: Christopher A. Thompson. 3 C-H-R-I-S-T-O-P-H-E-R, A, T-H-O-M-P-S-O-N. 4 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Ms. Barr. 5 DIRECT EXAMINATION 6 BY MS. BARR: 7 Q. Thank you, Mr. Thompson. Tell us where you're 8 employed, where you do business? 9 A. My office is in Berkeley County, Summerville, 10 South Carolina. We do business for a trucking company. 11 We do business from Summerville to North Charleston. 12 Q. All right. And what's the name of your 13 business? 14 A. Chris Thompson Services, LLC. 15 Q. And what is your role at Chris Thompson 16 Services, LLC? 17 A. I reckon from CEO to janitor. 18 Q. Okay. And back in August of 2011, was JJS 19 Trucking a subcontractor for Chris Thompson Services? 20 A. Yes, ma'am. 21 Q. And what did you engage JJS Trucking to do for 22 you? 23 A. Aid in hauling the woodchips from Summerville 24 Sawmill at SC-78 to North Charleston paper mill. 25 Q. Did you ever engage JJS Trucking to perform Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                               |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 49 1 any other subcontract work for you? 2 A. No, ma'am. 3 Q. Who owns JJS Trucking? 4 A. Cedric Smalls. 5 Q. Do you know how many employees or 6 subcontractors JJS Trucking may have had? 7 A. No, ma'am. 8 Q. Do you know if they had more than one office? 9 A. No, ma'am. 10 Q. Do you believe they did have more than one 11 office? 12 A. No, ma'am. 13 Q. And did, to your knowledge, JJS Trucking 14 operate anywhere other than the State of South Carolina? 15 A. No, ma'am, not to my knowledge. 16 Q. When did JJS Trucking start doing work for 17 Chris Thompson Services? 18 A. Approximately around 2008. 19 Q. Okay. And at the time you engaged JJS 20 Trucking, did you inquire as to whether or not they had 21 workers' compensation coverage for their employees? 22 A. For their employees, no, ma'am. JJS -- Cedric 23 Smalls provided Chris Thompson Services with a 24 certificate of workman's comp. Now, did I check the 25 depth of that policy or the parameters of that policy? Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                                                     | Page 51 1 the APA of our submissions. We have submitted this 2 document into evidence entitled, "Certificate of 3 Liability Insurance." Are you familiar with that 4 document? It's my 39. 5 A. Yes, ma'am, I am. 6 Q. And do you recall approximately when you 7 received that document? 8 A. Judging from the date on the document, 9 October the 18th. 10 Q. Of 2011? 11 A. 2010. 12 Q. 2010. And who is listed as the certificate 13 holder for that Certificate of Insurance? 14 A. JJS Trucking, LLC. 15 Q. That's the insured or the certificate holder? 16 A. Certificate holder is Chris Thompson Services, 17 LLC. 18 Q. Okay. And who -- from whom did you obtain 19 this Certificate of Insurance? 20 A. Come faxed from Swamp Fox Agency. 21 Q. Had you done business with Swamp Fox yourself 22 through Chris Thompson Services? 23 A. Yes, ma'am, since about 2002. 24 Q. So when you -- you knew that they were the 25 agent for JJS Trucking? Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Page 50 1 No, ma'am, that's not something I was privileged to. 2 Q. But at the time you first hired JJS Trucking, 3 you were presented by JJS Trucking with a Certificate of 4 Insurance showing that they had workers' compensation 5 coverage? 6 A. Yes, ma'am. JJS always provided workman's 7 compensation coverage -- workman's compensation policy 8 that JJS was covered. 9 Q. And why did you get that certificate? Why -- 10 why did you have to get a Certificate of Insurance from 11 JJS? Was that a policy of yours? 12 A. Yes, ma'am. Because I also have workman's 13 comp coverage and I'm required to verify that everyone 14 else who works for me has workman's comp or I have to 15 pay -- or I have to pay additional premiums to my 16 workman's comp policy. 17 Q. Now, did you -- after you first hired JJS 18 Trucking or engaged them to work for you, did you ever 19 request any updated documentation of their workers' 20 compensation insurance coverage? 21 A. Once a year. 22 Q. And why did you do that once a year? 23 A. Policy -- the existing policy would expire and 24 we would have to issue a new policy. 25 Q. We have submitted a document that's page -- in Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 52 1 A. Yes, ma'am. And had been for quite a while. 2 Q. Okay. And there's a signature at the bottom 3 of that Certificate of Insurance. Who signed that 4 Certificate of Insurance? 5 A. Appears to be David Hayes. 6 Q. And do you know who David Hayes is? 7 A. Yes, ma'am. He owns Swamp Fox Insurance 8 Agency. 9 Q. Now, after you received the Certificate of 10 Insurance from Swamp Fox Agency, did you take any further 11 actions to verify the insurance coverage that's indicated 12 on that form? Did you speak with anybody at Swamp Fox? 13 A. Yes, ma'am. I spoke with Greg Hudson. That 14 was my CSR. And I spoke with him and asked him just in 15 conversation, you know, got the certificate, everything 16 is good to go. He said everything is good to go, you're 17 covered. 18 Q. Did you have any reason after you had reviewed 19 that certificate and spoken with folks at Swamp Fox to 20 question whether or not JJS Trucking had workers' 21 compensation insurance at the time you received that 22 certificate? Did you have any reason to suspect that -- 23 A. No, ma'am. No, ma'am. I got a certificate 24 which was good enough, and I verbally spoke with Greg 25 Hudson and he told me that Cedric was good to go. Those Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 53 1 were his exact words, good to go. 2 Q. So after you reviewed that Certificate of 3 Insurance, did you believe that JJS in fact had workers' 4 compensation coverage through Travelers Insurance as of 5 October 18, 2010? 6 A. Yes, ma'am. 7 Q. And what was the coverage period for that 8 insurance through Travelers? 9 A. October 8, 2010 until October 8, 2011. 10 Q. Now, could you tell from that Certificate of 11 Insurance what the policy limits were for that workers' 12 comp policy? 13 A. Yes, ma'am. $500,000. 14 Q. And could you tell who the company was who 15 insured JJS Trucking for purposes of workers' 16 compensation? 17 A. Yes, ma'am. It would be Travelers Insurance. 18 Q. At any time prior to Samuel Rose's accident in 19 August of 2011, did anyone -- anyone with JJS or Swamp 20 Fox or Travelers or anyone else at all ever give you any 21 reason to believe that Mr. -- JJS Trucking did not have 22 insurance coverage as described on that Certificate of 23 Insurance? 24 A. No, ma'am. 25 Q. At any time prior to the accident in August of Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                         | Page 55 1 believe that Mr. Smalls did not know. 2 Q. And after -- after you learned of the lapse in 3 JJS Trucking's workers' compensation insurance, you said 4 you spoke with him, but did you take any further action 5 with regard to your relationship with JJS Trucking? 6 A. Yes, ma'am. I stopped him immediately. I 7 stopped him within the hour. I called him and told him I 8 needed to meet with him immediately, not to haul -- not 9 to load his trucks anymore under my -- my company. And 10 he met with me and I explained to him what was going on. 11 I verified and I can only do -- CTS can only do business 12 with JJS Trucking until such time as he obtained proof of 13 workman's comp coverage. 14 MS. BARR: Thank you very much, Mr. Thompson. 15 I'm sure that the other attorneys may have questions for 16 you as may well the Commissioner. 17 THE COURT: Mr. Smalls has a question. Are 18 y'all comfortable with him asking him questions? 19 MR. FISHER: Certainly. 20 MS. COFIELD: That's fine. 21 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Smalls. 22 CROSS-EXAMINATION 23 BY MR. SMALLS: 24 Q. Mr. Chris Thompson, as being the certificate 25 holder, can you think of a time in the past when an Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Page 54 1 2011, did you -- were you given any reason to believe by 2 any person at all that JJS Trucking's workers' comp 3 insurance had lapsed? 4 A. No, ma'am. 5 Q. Now, it's my understanding that after the 6 accident, you were informed by your own insurance company 7 that there had been a lapse in JJS's policy; is that 8 correct? 9 A. Yes, ma'am. It took almost until middle of 10 September, that's the best I can recall at the time, 11 middle of September, maybe even beginning of October, 12 before I was actually positively told that he didn't have 13 insurance. The first hint of it I called Mr. Smalls and 14 Mr. Smalls verified, yes, I do have it. I had 15 documentation showing that he had it. We were both -- 16 and I believe I was the one that actually informed 17 Mr. Smalls that -- that it was found that his policy had 18 expired. It was a shock to both of us. 19 Q. So you believe that Mr. Smalls at least 20 sincerely believed that he had continuous workers' 21 compensation coverage through the date of the accident? 22 A. Yes, ma'am, I do. 23 Q. But you now know that that's not -- that was 24 not true, that the policy had in fact lapsed? 25 A. I've been told the policy had lapsed. I still Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 56 1 insurance company informed you of an -- let me make sure 2 I say this right. You being a certificate holder, in the 3 past was your company ever notified when a 4 subcontractor's insurance might have been about to lapse? 5 A. Yes, sir. I've been notified in the past at 6 times that I've had other subcontractors that insurance 7 had been cancelled and you've been notified immediately, 8 and there's been times in the past where CTS doing 9 business with JJS Trucking it got to a time where it was 10 extremely close. I do not know the reasons or the 11 circumstances behind it, but it was in danger of lapsing 12 in a couple of days. Swamp Fox notified me, gave me 13 ample notice. I in turn notified Cedric Smalls, and 14 Cedric Smalls brought his insurance back into compliance 15 before any lapse ever happened. So I felt very confident 16 with Cedric because in the past when we have gotten into 17 rocky cases, he has done the right thing. 18 Q. The question is, procedure and notification. 19 So you believe it is a procedure to be notified of a 20 possible lapse of an insured? 21 A. In the past how I've been notified -- I cannot 22 state the South Carolina laws of notifications. But in 23 the past the way I've been notified is an immediate fax 24 from the insurance agency followed up by a registered 25 letter coming certified mail. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 57 1 Q. Okay. 2 A. Neither one I received from JJS Trucking or 3 from Swamp Fox Agency nor from Travelers nor from anyone. 4 Had I received any notification, Mr. Smalls would not 5 have been pulling and he is fully aware of that. He 6 would not have been pulling for Chris Thompson Services 7 had any -- any hint of workman's comp been cancelled. 8 MR. SMALLS: Thank you. 9 THE COURT: That's it? 10 MR. SMALLS: Yes, Your Honor. 11 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Cofield. 12 CROSS-EXAMINATION 13 BY MS. COFIELD: 14 Q. I'm going to show you again it's that same 15 thing you have in front of you. It's the certificate 16 dated October 18, 2010. I'm going to be referring to 17 that in just a second. Okay? 18 A. Yes, ma'am. 19 Q. How many subs do you use in your business? 20 A. Now or in the past? 21 Q. Both. 22 A. Now, none. 23 Q. In the past? 24 A. In the past, I've had up to approximately four 25 or five at one time. The aggregate total has been Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                            | Page 59 1 one? 2 A. Generally, yes, ma'am. 3 Q. Okay. Do you take an opportunity to look at 4 and read the certificates when you get one? 5 A. Yes, ma'am. 6 Q. Well, when you look at this certificate here 7 that you have there dated October 18th, is there any 8 description in the description of operations box? 9 A. No, ma'am, there's not. 10 Q. And when you look at the automobile liability 11 on here, it gives you a policy number, doesn't it? 12 A. Yes, ma'am, it sure does. 13 Q. When you look at the workers' comp section, 14 there is no policy number, is there? 15 A. No, ma'am. It says binder. 16 Q. It says binder. 17 MS. COFIELD: I have another certificate that 18 was also in her brief, Your Honor, dated September 29, 19 2011. It's in there too, I believe, but you can look at 20 mine. Is that in your brief? 21 MS. BARR: No, it's not. 22 MS. COFIELD: It's not? 23 MR. FISHER: What is it? 24 MS. COFIELD: I'm going to mark this one. 25 THE COURT: Show it to Mr. Fisher. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                           |
| Page 58 1 probably ten to 12, maybe 15. 2 Q. And I think it was your testimony that you 3 always require your subs to provide you a Certificate of 4 Insurance? 5 A. Yes, ma'am. 6 Q. And how long did JJS Trucking perform services 7 for you? 8 A. Best I can recall from 2008 until 9 approximately September/October of 2011. 10 Q. Okay. And it's your testimony I believe, too, 11 that he always provided you a Certificate of Insurance; 12 is that correct? 13 A. Yes, ma'am. 14 Q. Because if he hadn't, you wouldn't let him 15 work? 16 A. Yes, ma'am. 17 Q. Where do you keep your certificates? 18 A. In my file in my office at my house. 19 Q. Okay. So if I subpoenaed from you all the 20 certificates you have for JJS, would you have one for 21 each year he's performed services for you? 22 A. No, ma'am, probably not. We're not required 23 to keep them once the certificate gets outdated. It's no 24 longer a benefit. Generally it's purged. 25 Q. So when you get a new one, you purge the old Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 60 1 (Exhibit No. 2, Certificate of Insurance, was 2 marked and entered into evidence.) 3 BY MS. COFIELD: 4 Q. I'm going to show you what they've now marked 5 as Exhibit No. 2, a Certificate of Insurance whereas the 6 insured is JJS Tucking, LLC. Certificate holder is Chris 7 Thompson Services, LLC. Looks like it was faxed that 8 same day, September 29, 2011. You would agree with me 9 that September 29, 2011 is sometime after the claimant's 10 accident in this case? 11 A. Yes, ma'am. 12 Q. And you would agree that this certificate 13 shows an actual policy number? 14 A. Yes, ma'am. 15 Q. Okay. Why did you receive this -- this 16 certificate if you had already released JJS from your 17 services? 18 A. Personally I don't know exactly the date I 19 released him of his services. He might have still been 20 -- he might have still been at this time. I don't know. 21 I'd have to double check. I don't know the exact date of 22 the last time that he pulled a load for CTS. Down here 23 it says it's a revised certificate. 24 Q. Stop right there. Stop right there. You 25 testified as soon as you found out about the accident, Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 61 1 you found out there was no insurance and you let him go? 2 MS. BARR: Objection. 3 THE WITNESS: No, ma'am, I did not. That's 4 incorrect. 5 BY MS. COFIELD: 6 Q. Well, tell me what you said. 7 A. I said that at the time of the accident, 8 everyone assumed -- everyone was under the belief -- or 9 the assumption -- was fully belief we had workman's comp 10 coverage. It took until sometime in -- sometime in 11 September or October, I'm a little fuzzy on the time 12 frame, for Bridgefield Casualty to tell me that Cedric 13 Small's insurance -- and that was the first person that 14 actually could positively tell me. I called Swamp Fox 15 and I asked them. Swamp Fox said as far as they knew, it 16 was in effect. Bridgefield Casualty is the first person 17 to actually tell me, no, JJS Trucking's policy was not in 18 effect. 19 Q. So which of them did you rely on before you 20 quit using JJS? 21 A. The only person that could tell me -- the 22 first time I was told by Bridgefield Casualty -- the 23 first time I was told pointblank without any doubt that 24 JJS workman's comp policy is not in effect. We have 25 researched it. He does not have a valid policy. At that Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 63 1 bound. It's a legally binding policy that you have 2 workman's coverage is in effect and that it has not gone 3 to the agent, been processed through the actual 4 underwriter, and a policy number issued and sent back. I 5 also know there's -- and I don't really understand how 6 this works. Once again, I'm a truck driver, not an 7 insurance agent. My understanding is that there's also a 8 workman's comp pool that sometimes that have to get 9 signed and I have had binders that I've had for six to 10 eight weeks, nine, ten weeks before a policy has been 11 issued. 12 Q. Have you ever had one that lasted ten months? 13 A. Yes, ma'am. That one right there. 14 MS. COFIELD: Exactly. All right. Thank you. 15 I have no more questions. 16 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Warder? 17 MR. WARDER: Your Honor, I really don't have 18 any questions for this witness. 19 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Fisher? 20 MR. FISHER: No questions, sir. 21 THE COURT: Anything else, Ms. Barr? 22 MS. BARR: Just briefly. 23 REDIRECT EXAMINATION 24 BY MS. BARR: 25 Q. Mr. Thompson, when you initially reviewed the Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                |
| Page 62 1 point when I hung up the phone, I immediately called 2 Cedric Small's number and immediately stopped him from 3 hauling at that point right then. That was the first 4 time. Swamp Fox, everyone else I spoke to still said as 5 far as we know, he has workman's comp, we'll have to look 6 into it. And I -- and I -- as far my documentation 7 showed that he had it. So until I got positive evidence 8 that said that he didn't have it, everything I showed, 9 showed that he had it. 10 Q. So you kept using JJS for some weeks then 11 after the accident? 12 A. Yes, ma'am. 13 Q. Okay. Why did you get this -- this 14 certificate? 15 A. I don't really know. 16 Q. Okay. And you would agree with me that on the 17 workers' comp section here, it at least gives a policy 18 number this time, correct? 19 A. Yes, ma'am, it does. 20 Q. Okay. Do you know the difference between a 21 binder and a policy? 22 A. Yes, ma'am. 23 Q. Tell me the difference. 24 A. My understanding is the difference is when a 25 policy is issued for workman's comp, that the policy is Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                               | Page 64 1 Certificate of Insurance dated October 18, 2010, APA Page 2 39, did you notice that it said binder instead of 3 specifying a policy number? 4 A. Yes, ma'am. Every -- every single workman's 5 comp policy says binder when you first get it. There is 6 a time lapse. 7 Q. All right. You needed it quickly after this 8 policy started. And what was the date of the -- the 9 period of this coverage that's represented on the 10 certificate? 11 A. 10/08/2010. 12 Q. And what was the date of the certificate? 13 A. 10/18/2010. 14 Q. So ten days later would you have expected or 15 thought it unusual to not have an actual policy number? 16 A. I would have thought it more unusual to have a 17 policy number than to be binder. Binder is what should 18 be expected on all new policies for workman's comp. 19 Q. Simply because it says binder there instead of 20 listing a series of letters and numbers, did that cause 21 you to question whether or not Cedric -- JJS Trucking was 22 covered for the purposes of workers' compensation as 23 stated on this Certificate of Insurance? 24 A. No, ma'am. 25 Q. So you believed he was in fact covered? Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Page 65 1 A. Absolutely. 2 Q. And based on what you've heard here today, is 3 it your understanding that Travelers actually did cover 4 him for the purposes and as indicated on the Certificate 5 of Insurance until the policy lapsed sometime in 6 January or February of 2012? 7 A. Yes, ma'am. 8 Q. And, again, after you received this, not only 9 did you review it, you actually called the Swamp Fox 10 Agency, the producer of this policy? 11 A. Yes, ma'am. Swamp Fox Agent Greg Hudson is my 12 agent and is also Cedric Smalls's agent and a lot of 13 things happened verbally, you know, conversations about 14 insurance that CTS had. We have several different lines 15 of insurance with them. I was on the phone with Greg 16 Hudson. Did I call -- have any reason to call Greg 17 Hudson and verify that certificate individually? No. 18 While I was on the phone with him, I brought up Cedric 19 Smalls, and he said Cedric Smalls is good to go. His 20 insurance is great. And I believe -- I fully believe 21 that if Swamp Fox had any knowledge, I certainly hope 22 they would have notified Cedric Smalls and myself with a 23 simple phone call. 24 Q. And based on your work history with Mr. Smalls 25 and his company, JJS Trucking, you've experienced him to Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter | Page 67 1 This is a -- what appears to be -- it speaks for itself. 2 Do you have any -- let me ask it this way: Is it a 3 possibility that Swamp Fox Agency as indicated by this 4 record here was notified of the cancellation of JJS 5 Trucking's insurance and never informed you? 6 A. I can't say it's possible or impossible. I 7 don't know. There's certainly nothing on there from 8 Swamp Fox Agency showing that that they received it. 9 Q. There's not? What does it say here? 10 A. It says received from Swamp Fox Agency. But 11 I'm assuming -- 12 Q. What date, sir? 13 A. Sir, I'm assuming it was sent by Travelers. 14 And if Travelers sent it, how could Swamp Fox get on it 15 and you get a copy back unless you got a signed copy sent 16 back to you? 17 Q. I am Travelers. 18 A. Sir, I'm telling you that's between you and 19 Swamp Fox and I'm not inclined to comment on it. 20 Q. Okay. Understood. But is it possible that 21 the notice of cancellation was mailed to both JJS 22 Trucking who I don't represent, I represent Travelers, 23 and it was also sent to Swamp Fox as indicated by their 24 received date stamp here on the cancellation -- notice of 25 cancellation? Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter |
| Page 66 1 be forthright in his representations to you in the past 2 regarding his workers' comp insurance coverage? 3 A. Yes, ma'am. And he's been put through the 4 test because there's been times that he's gotten very 5 close and he's been very honest with it. 6 MS. BARR: Thank you very much, Mr. Thompson. 7 THE COURT: Ms. Cofield? 8 RECROSS-EXAMINATION 9 BY MS. COFIELD: 10 Q. So it's your testimony that he did not 11 purposely defraud you? 12 A. I don't believe he defrauded me. 13 Q. Okay. He did not purposely give you a false 14 Certificate of Insurance, did he? 15 A. It's my belief that -- my understanding and my 16 belief is that Cedric Smalls fully believed until the 17 time I told him -- Bridgefield Casualty told me and I 18 immediately told him, I believe he thought he had -- was 19 fully -- fully believed he had workman's comp coverage in 20 effect. 21 MS. COFIELD: Okay. That's all I have. 22 THE COURT: Mr. Warder? 23 CROSS-EXAMINATION 24 BY MR. WARDER: 25 Q. Quick question, sir. This is my APA Page 73. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Page 68 1 A. Sir, I -- I would -- I would not venture to 2 say that. I have no knowledge what transpired between 3 Travelers and JJS and Travelers and Swamp Fox and I would 4 decline to comment on any -- any business y'all had. 5 MR. WARDER: Understood. 6 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Fisher? 7 MR. FISHER: No, sir, I have nothing. 8 THE COURT: Mr. Smalls? 9 MR. SMALLS: Yes, Your Honor. 10 MS. BARR: And, Your Honor, we don't take an 11 issue with the cancellation at this point. 12 RECROSS-EXAMINATION 13 BY MR. SMALLS: 14 Q. On the definition of defraud, has JJS Trucking 15 ever forwarded you a Certificate of Insurance dealing 16 with workers' comp or any type of insurance? 17 A. No, sir. And in his defense, I would not have 18 accepted anything directly from any -- any owner 19 operator, any subcontractor. It all has to come directly 20 from the insurance company or a fax with their -- 21 something indicating that they sent it. 22 MR. SMALLS: Thank you. 23 THE COURT: Anything else, Ms. Barr? 24 MS. BARR: No, thank you, Your Honor. We 25 appreciate your time. Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter                                                                                                    |

Page 69

1 THE COURT: Anything else from anyone?
2 MS. COFIELD: No, sir.
3 MR. WARDER: No, sir.
4 THE COURT: All right, sir. You may step
5 down. Other witnesses, Ms. Barr?
6 MS. BARR: No, Your Honor. Thank you.
7 THE COURT: Witnesses, Ms. Cofield?
8 MS. COFIELD: We're going to rely on the 9 deposition transcript of Mr. Smalls that's already been 10 submitted. So, therefore, we won't have to call him
11 today.
12 THE COURT: Okay. Any witnesses, Mr. Warder?
13 MR. WARDER: No, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: All right. Anything else from 15 anyone?
16 (No response.)
17 THE COURT: All right. That concludes this 18 hearing.

19 20 21
22
23
24
25
Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter

Page 70

1 CERTIFICATE OF REPORTER
2

3 I, Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter and Notary
4 Public for the State of South Carolina at Large, do
5 hereby certify:

6 That the foregoing transcript of proceedings was 7 taken before me on the date and at the time and location
8 stated on page 1 of this transcript; that the witness was 9 duly sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth, and 10 nothing but the truth; that the testimony of the witness
11 and all objections made at the time of the proceeding
12 were recorded stenographically by me and were thereafter
13 transcribed; that the foregoing transcript of proceedings 14 as typed is a true, accurate and complete record of the 15 testimony and of all objections made at the time to the 16 best of my ability.

17 I further certify that I am neither related to nor 18 counsel for any party to the cause pending or interested
19 in the events thereof.

20 Witness my hand, I have hereunto affixed my 21 official seal this 6th day of June, 2012, at Richland
22 County, South Carolina.
23
24
25

Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter
Notary Public, State of South Carolina
My Commission Expires: 07/22/2015

Kimberly T. Power, Court Reporter

THE SUBJECT OF THIS RECORD IS
A CONVICTED SEX OFFENDER.
ADDITIONAL INFORMATION MAY
BE OBTAINED FROM THE NATIONAL
SEX OFFENDER PUBLIC WEBSITE AT WWW.NSOPW.GOV

ARREST RECORD

S.C. LAW ENFORCEMENT DIVISION

Since neither fingerprints nor an identifying number which is indexed in our files accompanied your request, SLED cannot guarantee in any manner that this material concerns the individual in whom you are interested.

TO: REC21A-09985 Mon Apr 30, 2012 14:23:31 OPHDRVBORPKM
FROM: SCCH-00561 Mon Apr 30, 2012 14:23:31

ICHR REQUEST FOR RAP SHEET

ORI-SCLED0000 FUR-E
ATN-SELF, LB

AUTHORIZED USE ONLY. ***** CONTACT CONTRIBUTING AGENCY FOR SPECIFIC/MORE DATA ABOUT CHARGES AND/OR DISPOSITIONS.
BECAUSE ADDITIONS OR DELETIONS MAY BE MADE AT ANY TIME, A NEW COPY
SHOULD BE REQUESTED WHEN NEEDED FOR SUBSEQUENT USE.

PAGE-01 DATE-04/30/2012 TIME-14:23:31

EQ ORI-SCLED0000 S C LAW ENF DIV

ID-: I-

NAME-ROSE, SAMUEL ARCHIEDE SEX-M RACE-B

HEIGHT-601 WEIGHT-165 EYES-BRO HAIR-BLK SKIN- BORN-SC

PC- HENRY-

PHOTOGRAPH AVAILABLE AUTHORIZED USE ONLY

-FINGERPRINT IMAGES ON THIS SUBJECT ARE STORED ON SCAPIS

DATE RECORD ENTERED--02/23/2001 DATE OF LAST UPDATE--04/23/2012

| ADDITIONAL IDENTIFIERS | BIRTH |       |         |          |
|------------------------|-------|-------|---------|----------|
| NAME                   | DATES | MARKS | SOC SEC | MISC NUM |
| OSE, SAMUEL ARCHIEDELL |       |       |         |          |
| OSE, SAMUEL            |       |       |         |          |
| OSE, SAMUEL A          |       |       |         |          |
| ISE, SAMUEL ARCHIEDELL |       |       |         |          |

ARCHIEDELL, ROSE SAMUEL
OSE, SAMUEL ARCHEIDELL

CONTRIBUTOR/SUBJECT DOA/RCVD CHARGE/DISPOSITION/ETC

OSE, SAMUEL ARCHIEDE 02/07/2001
0100800 NORTH CHARLESTON PD
SE-01-999999B
N-

ARREST CHARGE 01-INDECENT
EXPOSURE

DOC-01631003669 WARR-G536930

PHOTOGRAPH AVAILABLE
ARREST CHARGE 02-TRESPASS
OFFENSE DATE-02/07/2001
COURT CHARGE 01-INDECENT

EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:3 YRS
SUS PROB 5 YRS/CRED STARTED
D 2-7-01/SEX
COURT DATE-07/18/2001
ATN-

DOC-R84 WARR-G536915

COURT CHARGE 02-TRESPASSING
COURT DISP-NON-CONVICTION; DISMISSED
COURT DATE-03/20/2001

SC040055C R & E CENTER COLA 07/24/2001 CUSTODY STATUS-RECEIVED
CASE-276934 START DATE-07/24/2001
IT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR

COURT CHARGE 01-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:2YRS SS
2YRS WITH 5YRS PROBATION
ATN-

JOSE, SAMUEL 10/03/2002
C0100000 CHARLESTON CNTY SO
CASE-02999999X

ATN-
IT-N/A-MISDEMEANOR

ARREST CHARGE 01-PROBATION
VIOLATION
OFFENSE DATE-10/03/2002
PHOTOGRAPH AVAILABLE

JOSE, SAMUEL ARCHIEDE 10/08/2002
C0100000 CHARLESTON CNTY SO
CASE-02015011B
TN-
ARR-H099911
IT-23-3-470 (A) (B) (1)-MISDEMEAN

ARREST CHARGE 01-SEX OFFENDER
REGISTRY VIOLATION 1ST
OFFENSE
OFFENSE DATE-10/08/2002
PHOTOGRAPH AVAILABLE

IT-23-3-470 (A) (B) (1)-MISDEMEAN
XC-03631000111 WARR-H099911

COURT CHARGE 01-SEX OFFENDER
REGISTRY VIOLATION 1ST
OFFENSE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:197

DAYS/CRED GIVEN FOR TIME
SERVED BY SC DOC
COURT DATE-06/24/2003

ATN-

SC040015C SC DEPT CORRECTIONS 12/30/2002 CUSTODY STATUS-RECEIVED://///

CASE-276934

SC01454479 CONSOLIDATED

START DATE-12/30/2002

CIT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR

COURT CHARGE 01-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:3 YRS

ATN-500300026890

ROSE, SAMUEL ARCHIEDE 02/12/2004

SC0100100 CHARLESTON POLICE DE

CASE-03-25363C

ATN-10X004043021

WARR-H407261

IT-C/ORDINANCE-UNCLASSIFIED

ARREST CHARGE 01-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
OFFENSE DATE-02/12/2004

PHOTOGRAPH AVAILABLE

WARR-H407262

IT-N/A-MISDEMEANOR

ARREST CHARGE 02-SIMPLE ASSAULT
LT
OFFENSE DATE-02/12/2004

IT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR

XC-04G31003067 WARR-H407261

COURT CHARGE 01-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:3 YRS
SERVE 2 YRS BAL SUS 3 YRS
PROB/CRED FOR TIME
COURT DATE-01/03/2006
ATN-10X004043021

IT-C/L-UNCLASSIFIED

XC-04G31003068 WARR-H407262

COURT CHARGE 02-ASSAULT OF A
HIGH AND AGGRAVATED NATURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:10 YRS
SERVE 3 YRS BAL SUS 3 YRS
PROB/CRED FOR
COURT DATE-01/03/2006

ROSE, SAMUEL ARCHIEDE

10/25/2004

SC0100100 CHARLESTON POLICE DE

CASE-04023850C

ATN-10X004299044

IT-C/ORDINANCE-UNCLASSIFIED

CIT-C/ORDINANCE-UNCLASSIFIED

ERY OF HIGH AND AGGRAVATED
NATURE
OFFENSE DATE-10/25/2004
PHOTOGRAPH AVAILABLE

CIT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR
DOC-05G310000518 WARR-H865013

ARREST CHARGE 02-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
OFFENSE DATE-10/25/2004

COURT CHARGE 01-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:3YRS
SERVE 2YRS BAL SUS 3YRS

PROBATION CREDIT TIME SERVED
ATH-10X004299044

ROSE, SAMUEL ARCHIEDELL

11/17/2004

IC0100100 CHARLESTON POLICE DE
TN-
WARR-H749964
IT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR

ARREST CHARGE 01-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
PHOTOGRAPH AVAILABLE

IT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR
OC-05G31000768 WARR-H749964

COURT CHARGE 01-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:3 YRS
SERVE 2 YRS BAL SUS 3 YRS
PROB/CRED FOR TIME
COURT DATE-01/03/2006
ATH-

DSE, SAMUEL
T0100100 CHARLESTON POLICE DE
ASE-165 738
PN-990000031005
WARR-H768017
IT-16-3-654-FELONY

02/28/2005

ARREST CHARGE 01-CRIMINAL

T-16-3-654-FELONY
C-00G310 WARR-H768017

SEXUAL CONDUCT - THIRD DEGREE
OFFENSE DATE-02/28/2005

COURT CHARGE 01-CRIMINAL
SEXUAL CONDUCT - THIRD DEGREE
COURT DISP-NON-CONVICTION:
DISM/NOL PROS/PROS ENDED

SC040015C SC DEPT CORRECTIONS 01/12/2006 CUSTODY STATUS-RECEIVED
CASE-200601 START DATE-01/12/2006
IT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR

COURT CHARGE 01-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED;3 CTS 3
YRS 332YRS 3YRS PROBEA
COURT DATE-01/12/2006
ATN-500200045680

IT-C/L,-MISDEMEANOR

COURT CHARGE 02-ASSAULT/BATTE

RY OF HIGH AND AGGRAVATED
NATURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED;1YRS33YR
33YRS PROBCC
COURT DATE-01/12/2006

IT-C/L-UNCLASSIFIED

COURT CHARGE 03-ASSAULT OF A
HIGH AND AGGRAVATED NATURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED;10 YRS
33 3 YRS 3 YRS PROB CC
COURT DATE-01/12/2006

SC040015G CENTRAL PPP 06/30/2006 CUSTODY STATUS-PROBATION
CASE-SC0100 START DATE-06/30/2006
IT-C/L-UNCLASSIFIED

COURT CHARGE 01-ASSAULT OF A
HIGH AND AGGRAVATED NATURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED;10 YRS
SUSP 3YRS W/3YRS PROBATION
ATN-990000209935

END OF PAGE 01 - PAGE 02 TO FOLLOW

IN Mon Apr 30, 2012 14:23:31 000305513716/220

OUT Mon Apr 30, 2012 14:23:32 REC21A MSG# 09985 SAN: OPHDRVORPKM

TO: REC21A-09985 Mon Apr 30, 2012 14:23:32 OPHDRVORPKM
FROM: SCCH-00562 Mon Apr 30, 2012 14:23:32

AGE-02 DATE-04/30/2012 TIME-14:23:31
EQ ORI-SCLED0000 S C LAW ENF DIV
ID-...

CIT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR

COURT CHARGE 02-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:3YRS
SUSP 2YRS W/3YRS PROBATION

CIT-C/L,-MISDEMEANOR

COURT CHARGE 03-ASSAULT/BATTE
RY OF HIGH AND AGGRAVATED
NATURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:10 YRS
SUSP 3YRS W/3YRS PROBATION

CIT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR

COURT CHARGE 04-INDECENT

EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:3YRS
2YRS W/3YRS PROBATION

CIT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR

COURT CHARGE 05-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:3YRS
SUSP 2YRS W/3YRS PROBATION

OSE, SAMUEL
C0100156 CHARLESTON PFP
ASE-20080225
TN-10D100528242
ARR-W10081703 *
IT-N/A-MISDEMEANOR

02/26/2008

ARREST CHARGE 01-PROBATION
VIOLATION
OFFENSE DATE-02/26/2008
PALM PRINTS AVAILABLE

OSE, SAMUEL
C0100156 CHARLESTON PFP
ASE-20080714

07/14/2008

TN-10D100541133
ARR-W10081703 *
IT-N/A-MISDEMEANOR

ARREST CHARGE 01-PROBATION
VIOLATION
OFFENSE DATE-07/14/2008
PALM PRINTS AVAILABLE

040015C SC DEPT CORRECTIONS 07/16/2008 CUSTODY STATUS-RECEIVED
SE-071620 START DATE-07/16/2008
T-C/L-UNCLASSIFIED

COURT CHARGE 01-ASSAULT OF A
HIGH AND AGGRAVATED NATURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:10 YRS

ATN-500200058694

CIT-C/L,-MISDEMEANOR

COURT CHARGE 02-ASSAULT/BATTE
RY OF HIGH AND AGGRAVATED
NATURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:10 YRS
SS 3 YRS 3 YRS PROB CC

COURT DATE-07/16/2008

CIT-16-15-130-MISDEMEANOR

COURT CHARGE 03-INDECENT
EXPOSURE
COURT DISP-CONVICTED:3 CTS 3
YRS SS 2 YRS 3 YRS PRO
COURT DATE-07/16/2008

ROSE, SAMUEL ARCHIEDELL 04/14/2012
SC0180000 DORCHESTER CNTY SO
CASE-12004033
ATN-18D100513871
WARR-M473169
CIT-16-11-311-FELONY

ARREST CHARGE 01-BURGLARY - FIRST DEGREE
OFFENSE DATE-04/14/2012
PHOTOGRAPH AVAILABLE
PALM PRINTS AVAILABLE

WARR-M473168
CIT-16-13-180(B)(1)-MISDEMEANOR

ARREST CHARGE 02-RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS <$2,000

OFFENSE DATE-04/14/2012

- WARRANT OCCURS IN MORE THAN ONE ARREST CYCLE UNDER THIS SID NUMBER

BASED ON SEARCH OF SCLED CJIS CCH FILE USING SID/SC01354050
THIS CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD IS FOR SOUTH CAROLINA ARRESTS AND CONVICTIONS ONLY AND IS BASED ON THE INFORMATION PROVIDED. SINCE CHANGES MAY OCCUR DAILY A NEW INQUIRY SHOULD BE MADE AND NO SUBSEQUENT USE OF THIS RECORD IS ALLOWED.

>>> *** NOTICE *** <<<

*****
THE SUBJECT OF THIS RECORD IS A CONVICTED SEX OFFENDER. ADDITIONAL * INFORMATION MAY BE OBTAINED FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA SEX OFFENDER *
REGISTRY AT: > WWW.SLED.SC.GOV < *

-----
INDIVIDUAL PROHIBITED FROM POSSESSING OR ACQUIRING HANDGUN IN SOUTH CAROLINA

INFORMATION SUBMITTED TO SLED CCH PURSUANT TO 16-23-10 (C) AND 23-31-110
C) OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS INDICATES THIS INDIVIDUAL HAS BEEN CONVICTED OF A CRIME OF VIOLENCE AND IS NOT PERMITTED TO POSSESS OR ACQUIRE A HANDGUN.

-----
INDIVIDUAL PROHIBITED FROM POSSESSING OR ACQUIRING FIREARM OR AMMUNITION
PURSUANT TO FEDERAL GUN CONTROL ACT OF 1968

INFORMATION SUBMITTED TO SLED CCH INDICATES THIS INDIVIDUAL HAS BEEN CONVICTED OF A MISDEMEANOR IN WHICH AN OFFENDER COULD RECEIVE IN EXCESS OF TWO (2) YEARS OF CONFINEMENT, ACCORDING TO THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS.
HEREFORE, THIS PERSON IS INELIGIBLE TO SHIP, TRANSPORT OR RECEIVE ANY FIREARMS OR AMMUNITION, AFFECTED BY INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE AS DEFINED BY THE GUN CONTROL ACT OF 1968 (18.U.S.C. 922(G)).

* S C CJIS END OF RECORD **

N Mon Apr 30, 2012 14:23:32

000305515414/220

UT Mon Apr 30, 2012 14:23:33

REC21A MSG# 09986

SAN: OPHDRVBORPKM

Harold E. Trask
Roy A. Howell, III
Kirsten L. Barr
Jamie C. Guerrero

TRASK & HOWELL, L.L.C.

Workers' Compensation Defense

Allison C. Nussbaum
Jill W. King
William H. Lyon
D. Alan Westerlund, Jr.

763 Johnnie Dodds Boulevard
P. O. Box 2167
Mt. Pleasant, SC 29465

Phone
(843) 881-4228

Fax
(843) 881-8784

E-mail
kbarr@trask-howell.com
Direct Dial: (843) 881-1027

April 26, 2012

135 40 50

S. C. Law Enforcement Division
Attn: Records
P. O. Box 21398
Columbia, SC 29221

THE SUBJECT OF THIS RECORD IS
A CONVICTED SEX OFFENDER.
ADDITIONAL INFORMATION MAY
BE OBTAINED FROM THE NATIONAL
SEX OFFENDER PUBLIC WEBSITE AT
WWW.NSOPW.GOV

Re: Samuel A. Rose v. JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and Chris Thompson Services, LLC/Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company
W.C.C. File No.: 1112328
Carrier File No.: 943450
Date of Accident: August 10, 2011

ARREST RECORD

S.C. LAW ENFORCEMENT DIVISION

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed, please find our firm's check for $25.00 for a records check into the background criminal records of Samuel A. Rose, date of birth 8/23/1970, Social Security No. 247-55-3390.

Please forward any available information in the enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope. If this individual has no criminal records, please note that on this letter and return it to me in the enclosed envelope.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Yours very truly,

Kirsten L. Barr

Kirsten L. Barr

Since neither fingerprints nor an identifying number which is indexed in our files accompanied your request, SLED cannot guarantee in any manner that this material concerns the individual in whom you are interested.

KLK/czw/les

Enc.

cc: Melissa Kerby, Summit Holdings

Chris Thompson, Chris Thompson, LLC

118/133V-sled#2

RECEIVED SLED/CJIC
2012 APR 30 AM 8:11
CRIMINAL RECORDS DEPT

BEFORE THE
SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

|                                        |   |                                       |
|----------------------------------------|---|---------------------------------------|
| Samuel A. Rose,                        | ) | W.C.C. FILE NO. 1112328               |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| Employee/Claimant,                     | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| -vs-                                   | ) | PETITION TO TRANSFER LIABILITY        |
|                                        | ) | TO S.C. UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND     |
| JJS Trucking, LLC and Chris Thompson   | ) | PURSUANT TO S.C. CODE ANN. § 42-1-415 |
| Services, LLC,                         | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| Employers,                             | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| and                                    | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co. and | ) |                                       |
| The S.C. Uninsured Employers' Fund,    | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| Carriers,                              | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |
| Defendants.                            | ) |                                       |
|                                        | ) |                                       |

TO: The South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission; Joseph B. Fisher, Esq., attorney for the Claimant; JJS Trucking, LLC; Timothy B. Killen, Esq., attorney for The South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund; and F. Reid Warder, Esq., attorney for Travelers Insurance Company.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Chris Thompson Services, LLC and Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company hereby Petition the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415 to transfer liability for this claim to the S.C. Uninsured Employers' Fund based upon the following:

1. In his December 6, 2011 Form 50, the Claimant named JJS Trucking, LLC and Chris Thompson Services, LLC (upstream contractor) as employers at the time of his August 10, 2011 work-related accident. The Claimant alleges injuries to the right knee, back, neck, and head as a result of an August 10, 2011 motor vehicle accident.

2. JJS Trucking, LLC was the Claimant's direct employer at the time of the August 10, 2011 accident. (See attached depositions of Samuel Rose and Sedrick Smalls).
3. JJS Trucking, LLC was a subcontractor for Chris Thompson Services, LLC at the time of the Claimant's alleged injuries.
4. JJS Trucking, LLC provided Chris Thompson Services, LLC with a Certificate of Liability Insurance, with effective date of October 8, 2010 and expiration date of October 8, 2011 for its workers' compensation policy, at the time it commenced work for Chris Thompson Services, LLC. (Exhibit A).
5. Travelers Insurance Company is listed as the workers' compensation insurer on the Certificate of Insurance provided by JJS Trucking, LLC to Chris Thompson Services, LLC.
6. JJS Trucking's workers' compensation policy with Travelers apparently lapsed, without notice to or the knowledge of Chris Thompson Services, LLC, prior to the August 10, 2011 accident.
7. Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415(A), "[n]otwithstanding any other provision of law, upon the submission of documentation to the commission that a contractor or subcontractor has represented himself to a higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner as having workers' compensation insurance at the time the contractor or subcontractor was engaged to perform work, the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner must be relieved of any and all liability under this title...In the event that employer is uninsured...the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, project owner, or his insurance carrier shall in the first instance pay all benefits due under this title. The higher tier subcontractor, contractor, project owner, or his insurance carrier may petition the commission to transfer responsibility for continuing compensation and benefits to the Uninsured Employer's Fund."

8. Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415(B), "[t]o qualify for reimbursement under this section, the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner must collect documentation of insurance as provided in subsection (A) on a standard form acceptable to the commission. The documentation must be collected at the time the contractor or subcontractor is engaged to perform work and must be turned over to the commission at the time a claim is filed by the injured employee."
9. Under S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415, it is clear that when a contractor or subcontractor has represented himself to a higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner as having workers' compensation insurance, and the higher tier subcontractor, contractor, or project owner collects documentation of said insurance, the higher tier party must be relieved of any and all liability under this title.
10. JJS Trucking, LLC represented itself to Chris Thompson Services as having workers' compensation insurance coverage as evidenced by the attached Accord Form 25, Certificate of Insurance, which is a standard form acceptable to the Commission. (Exhibit A).
11. Furthermore, S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415(C) requires that the lower tier subcontractor notify, by certified mail, the higher tier contractor, subcontractor, or project owner of a lapse in coverage within five days of such a lapse in coverage.

12. HS Trucking, LLC never provided Chris Thompson Services, LLC with notice, by certified mail or otherwise, that its workers' compensation coverage had lapsed, as required by S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415(C).

13. Based on all of the above, Chris Thompson Services, LLC is informed and believes it must be relieved of any and all liability under this title.

WHEREFORE, Defendants Chris Thompson Services, LLC and Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company respectfully request that the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission issue an Order relieving Chris Thompson Services, LLC and Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company from any liability under the Act for WCC Claim Number 1112328 in accordance with S.C. Code Ann. § 42-1-415 and transfer liability, if any, to the S.C. Uninsured Employers' Fund.

Respectfully submitted,

TRASK & HOWELL, LLC

P. O. Box 2167

Mt. Pleasant, SC 29465

By

Kristen L. Barr

Attorney for Chris Thompson Services, LLC
and Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company

January 24, 2012
Refilled April 30, 2012

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that on this 30th day of April 2012 I have caused a true and correct copy of the Petition to Transfer Liability to be mailed postage prepaid to the Claimant's attorney and parties to be added addressed as follows:

Joseph B. Fisher, Esq.
P.O. Box 69506
North Charleston, SC 29419

Sedrick Smalls
HS Trucking LLC
137-A Gordon St
Charleston, SC 29403

Amy V. Coffield, Esq.
The Coffield Law Firm
809 South Lake Drive
Lexington, SC 29072

F. Reid Warder, Esq.
P.O. Box 20550
Charleston, SC 29413

Ms. Virginia Crucker
Judicial Director
S.C. Workers' Compensation Commission
P.O. Box 1715
Columbia, SC 29202-1715

Kirsten L. Barr

1127133-88100 to transfer liability

South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission

P.O. Box 1715 • 1612 Marion Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29202-1715
(803) 737-5700

WCC File # 1112328Carrier File # 943450

Carrier Code # _____

Employer FEIN _____

Samuel A. Rose

Claimant's Name

SSN

Charleston, SC 29403

Address

City

State

Zip

Home Phone

Work Phone

JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and Chris Thompson Services,
LLC/Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company

Employer's Name

106 New Hope Dr.

Summerville, SC 29483

Address

City

State

Zip

Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co.

Insurance Carrier

Kirsten L. Barr

Preparer's Name

(843) 881-4228

Phone #

1. Date of injury: August 10, 2011 month day year2. Total Weeks of Compensation Paid: 35 weeks

3. Type of Compensation Paid (TP or TT)/Periods of Payment:

Type: TTD From: 8/11/11 To: 4/12/12

Type: _____ From: _____ To: _____

Type: _____ From: _____ To: _____

4. Date of First Payment: 8/11/11 month day year5. Total Amount Paid (a) Compensation: $2,625.00(b) Medical (Include Nursing, Hospital Drugs, Etc.): $1,055.856. Informal Conference is Requested: ☐ yes ☐ no (check one)7. Use these lines to send a memo to the Commission:
_____
_____
_____Kirsten L. Barr

Employer's Representative

(843) 881-4228

Phone

April 10, 2012

Date

Type or print all information. File this form 6 months after the alleged injury date and each 6 months until the Commission's File is closed. Form 18 must be filed whether or not compensation is ongoing. Check "yes" after number 6 to request an informal conference. Refer to R.67-413, R.67-507, and R.67-804 for further information.

Condensed Transcript

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA
WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION
WCC FILE NO. 1112328

Samuel A. Rose,
Employee, Claimant,
vs.
JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and Chris Thompson
Services, LLC/Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company,
Employer,
and
Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co., Carrier,
Defendants.

---

DEPOSITION OF

SAMUEL ROSE

November 14, 2011
9:45 a.m.

George Sink, P.A.
7011 Rivers Avenue
N. Charleston, South Carolina

Laci Bearden, Court Reporter and Notary Public

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044
Telephone:

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINAWORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSIONWCC FILE NO. 1112328 Samuel A. Rose,Employee, Claimant,-vs-JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and ChrisThompson Services, LLC/BridgefieldCasualty Insurance Company,Employer. -and- Bridgefield, Casualty Insurance Co.,Carrier, Defendants. The deposition of Samuel Rose,taken before Laci Bearden, Court Reporter and NotaryPublic, at the George Sink, P.A., 7011 RiversAvenue, N. Charleston, South Carolina on November14th, 2011, commencing at 9:45 a.m.                 | 1 INDEX 2 3 EXAMINATION BY MS. BARR 4 4 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN 28 5 6 7 8 EXHIBITS 9 10 (No exhibits produced.) 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1 APPEARANCES 2 3 For the Employer: George Sink, P.A.4 BY: Joseph B. Fisher5 7011 Rivers Avenue6 Suite 1057 N. Charleston, SC 294068 jfisher@sinklaw.com 9 For the Carrier: Trask &amp; Howell, LLC.10 BY: Kristen L. Barr11 763 Johnnie Dodds Blvd.12 P.O. Box 216713 Mt. Pleasant, SC 2946514 kbar@trash-howell.com 15 S.C. Uninsured16 Employers Fund17 BY: Timothy Killen, Esq.18 100 Executive Center19 Drive, Suite 10120 Columbia, SC 2921021 Tkillen@sif.sc.gov 22 23 24 25 | 1 SAMUEL ROSE 2 was sworn (affirmed) and testified as follows: 3 EXAMINATION BY MS. BARR: 4 Q Mr. Rose, my name is Kristen Barr and I represent a 5 company called Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company, and 6 Chris Thompson Services regarding your worker's compensation 7 claim. And I'm sure Mr. Fisher's explained to you what 8 we're doing here today, but again, it's called a discovery 9 deposition, and it really is just what it sounds. It's my 10 chance to discover a little bit more about you as a person 11 and about the accident and your injuries and how you've been 12 doing since then. My questions are intended to be straight 13 forward, so if I ask something that is unclear or doesn't 14 make sense, please ask me to rephrase or repeat my question. 15 I'm happy to do that. Because otherwise, if you answer my 16 questions, number one, I'm going to assume you're answering 17 truthfully, and number two that you understood the question 18 before you answered it, fair enough? 19 A Okay. 20 Q The other thing is the court reporter is going to take 21 down everything we say here today. This is the microphone, 22 so we just need to speak up and speak clearly. I'll 23 understand you if you nod your head here today, but she 24 can't take that down on paper very well, so we just need to 25 remember to say yes or no and just again, answer it to the |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 best of your ability. 2 If you would state your full name for the record? 3 A Samuel Archidell Rose. 4 Q Could you spell your middle name for me? 5 A A-R-C-H-I-E-D-E-L-L. 6 Q And Mr. Rose, what is your date of birth? 7 A August 23, 1970. 8 Q And your social security number? 9 A 10 Q And are you married, single, divorced? 11 A Single. 12 Q Have you ever been married? 13 A No. 14 Q Do you have any children? 15 A No. 16 Q And what is your current you address? 17 A I, Charleston, South Carolina. 18 Q And who do you live with at 19 A My cousin. 20 Q And how long have you lived there? 21 A I grew up there. 22 Q And it's just the two of you living there? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Anybody depending on you for support? 25 A No.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 1 early. 2 Q And would you work until the North Charleston plant 3 closed or the saw mill up in Summerville closed? 4 A Summerville. North Charleston is open 24/7. 5 Q So you would begin and start your day at Summerville? 6 A Yes. 7 Q Did you keep the truck you used at your home or JJS 8 Trucking, how did your day start? 9 A It was parked in Summerville at the saw mill. 10 Q So would you drive your personal vehicle to the saw 11 mill then? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Did you have to punch a time card or anything like 14 that, or how did you keep track - how would JJS keep track 15 of your time? 16 A Our daily logs. 17 Q What would you keep track of in your daily log? 18 A The time that I start work, the inspection of the 19 truck, and number of runs I made. 20 Q And would you also get receipts from either the saw 21 mill or from the mill in Charleston as far as what you 22 loaded or unloaded? 23 A Each load that we pick up we received a receipt. When 24 we got to Capstone we received another receipt. 25 Q And what would you do with these receipts?                 |
| 1 Q Tell me, it's my understanding you were working for a 2 company called JJS Trucking at the time of this accident; is 3 that right? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And who did you work for at JJS Trucking? 6 A Sedrick Smalls. 7 Q And when did you start working for Sedrick Smalls at 8 JJS Trucking? 9 A Back in February or March. 10 Q Of 2011? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And what were you hired to do for JJS Trucking? 13 A To haul woodchips from Summerville to North Charleston. 14 Q And that was to North Charleston to the Capstone plant? 15 A Yes. 16 Q Did you have a set work schedule that you did? 17 A From 12:00 o'clock until 12 noon. Either 12 noon or 18 2:00 o'clock, and I worked a 10 to 12 hour shift. 19 Q And during your ten to 12 hour shift, I guess it would 20 be a ten hour shift if you started at 2:00 o'clock in the 21 afternoon? 22 A Yes - well, no. From the time I started, I worked 23 either 10 to 12 hours, and I worked until the plant closed. 24 Q And to your knowledge, what time did the plant close? 25 A It's suppose to close at 3:30, but sometimes it closes | 1 A We turned them in at the end of the week. 2 Q And who did you turn the receipts in to? 3 A They went to Chris Thompson. He has a mailbox placed 4 at the saw mill in Summerville, and we fill out our work 5 sheet, and we put everything in the envelope for him. 6 Q And then how would you get paid? 7 A By check. Sedrick Smalls is the one that paid me. 8 Q And what was the basis of your pay? How did he 9 calculate how much you would earn per week? 10 A $25 dollars per load. 11 Q So someone would add up all those receipts and there 12 would be $25 even for each load that you would get paid? 13 A Yes. 14 Q And how many loads would you average per shift? 15 A Anywhere from six, seven loads per shift. 16 Q And how many days per week did you do this? 17 A Five. 18 Q Was it Monday through Friday? 19 A Yes. We worked on weekends as needed? 20 Q How frequently would you work weekends? 21 A Not often? 22 Q And how did it work? Would Mr. Smalls pay you in 23 check, or would he give that to you personally? Was it 24 mailed to you? 25 A It was given personally. |

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9 1 Q By Mr. Smalls? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And what day of the week would he give you your check? 4 A Friday. 5 Q So every Friday you would get a check? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And how much was your average check that you were paid on Fridays by Mr. Smalls? 8 A It ranged from 650 to 750 depending on how many loads I ran for the week. 9 Q And so you would get the whole 650 to 750? 10 A Yes. 11 Q He didn't take out any taxes? 12 A He took out a hundred dollars for damages to the truck for an escrow account. 13 Q He took that out each week or just the beginning? 14 A Each week. 15 Q What is your job status with Mr. Smalls? Are you still employed by him? 16 A Yes, to my understanding. 17 Q Do you still have funds in that escrow account? 18 A I have no idea. 19 Q When was the last time you got a paycheck from Mr. Smalls? 20 A The week prior to the accident.                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 11 1 Q As I understand it, you had legal representation pretty quickly after the accident; is that fair to say? 2 A Yes, I called him. 3 Q I mean; that was within like a day or two after the accident you had somebody working on your behalf? 4 A In two days. 5 Q Where did you work prior to JJS Trucking? 6 A Leopard, Incorporated. 7 Q Leopard? 8 A Yes. 9 Q What does Leopard, Incorporated do? 10 A It's a tire company. We distribute tractor-trailer tires. 11 Q How long did you work for Leopard? 12 A About seven years. 13 Q And where's Leopard located? 14 A It's headquartered out of New Jersey. It's local office is here in North Charleston. 15 Q You said that they distribute tractor trailer tires. Were you doing long distance hauling; trucking? 16 A Both. My job required mostly local driving. 17 Q So local within South Carolina? 18 A No. South Carolina, North Carolina, Florida, Georgia. 19 Q And why did you leave Leopard, Incorporated? 20 A The work slowed down, and I needed money. |
| 10 1 Q Have you spoken to Mr. Smalls since the accident? 2 A Once or twice. 3 Q Did he come see you in the hospital? 4 A Yes. 5 Q Has he done anything to help you with your lost wages or your medical bills? 6 A Nothing. 7 Q Have you discussed that? 8 A When I asked him about it, he told me about the insurance. When I contacted the insurance; nothing. 9 Q And what did he tell you about insurance? 10 A That he had insurance. 11 Q Did he tell you, like, auto insurance or worker's comp, or did he tell you what kind? 12 A He said he had workers' comp insurance for us. 13 Q And he gave you the name of a company to call? 14 A Yeah. I gave that to the lawyer. I don't remember the name. He also said that he spoke with Chris Thompson, and Chris Thompson told him that he would cover the medical bills. 15 Q Did you ever speak with anybody at Mr. Smalls Insurance company, or did you just pass that on to your attorney? 16 A They contacted me at first, after the accident. They sent me a card and then after that, nothing. I passed all that information on to my attorney. | 12 1 Q When did you last work for them? 2 A February, the latter part of February. 3 Q Of this year? 4 A Yes. 5 Q How much were you earning on average at Leopard? 6 A About 600 a week. 7 Q And is that the same you would earn from them say in 2010 or 2009? 8 A Yeah. 9 Q One of the things we have to do in worker's comp is try to get an idea of how much money you were making in the past year. So was there any other income from any sources other than Leopard, Incorporated or from Sedrick Smalls in this past year, 2011? 10 A Allstate Logistics. 11 Q What did you do for Allstate Logistics? 12 A Local runs. That's just to supplement my income. 13 Q When was the last time you worked for Allstate Logistics? 14 A Back in January. The company went out of business. 15 Q So around the time of this accident, say July or August of 2011, any other supplemental sources of income? 16 A No. 17 Q The checks that you would get from Sedrick Smalls, would it be on a JJS checking account?                                  |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13 1 A Yes. 2 Q Would it always be the same looking check, or did you 3 ever get a check personally from Sedrick? 4 A Always from JJS Trucking. 5 Q And if we needed to try to track down how much those 6 checks were, would you have a habit of cashing them 7 somewhere or depositing them into a checking or saving 8 account? 9 A I always cashed it at First Citizens Bank. 10 Q Did you have an account there or was that where 11 Mr. Smalls did? 12 A That's where Mr. Smalls had his account. 13 Q Was there a particular branch that you used? 14 A Summerville, Main Road. 15 Q Tell me, on the day of this accident, I believe it was 16 August 10, 2011, what were you doing before the accident 17 occurred or what were you in the process of doing when the 18 accident occurred? 19 A That was my last run for the night, and I was on my way 20 to Capstone to drop the load. 21 Q Did you ever turn in the receipts from that day to 22 Sedrick Smalls? 23 A No. The receipts were left inside the truck. My log 24 book and everything was left in the truck. 25 Q And tell me, as a result of the accident, what                                                                  | 15 1 A Yes. 2 Q How long did you stay at MUSC? 3 A A day and a half. 4 Q And when they released you from MUSC were you referred 5 to any particular doctors or what was your plan of care 6 after your release from MUSC? 7 A They scheduled me an appointment with the neurologist. 8 They gave me a physical therapist and told me I needed to 9 see an orthopaedist as well. 10 Q Do you have a family physician? 11 A No, not at the time, no. 12 Q In the past, have you had a personal family doctor? 13 A No, I just use military doctors. 14 Q Did you serve in the military? 15 A No, my parents. 16 Q So when you were younger, you would just see VA 17 doctors? 18 A Yeah. 19 Q But you haven't seen anybody at the VA since this 20 accident? 21 A No. 22 Q And if you need to take a break, just let me know. 23 A I took pills before. 24 Q What sort of pills might have you taken today? 25 A Flexeril, Floricet, Ellevil, Ibuprofen.                                                                                                 |
| 14 1 happened. Did you stay inside the cab of truck, were you 2 thrown from the cab of the truck, what happened to you 3 specifically? 4 A After the accident, I was pulled out of the truck. 5 Some people stopped, and they pulled me out of the truck and 6 tossed me over the wall, the median of the highway. 7 Q Are there air bags in the truck or any other restraint 8 devices? 9 A Seatbelt. 10 Q Do you recall hitting in particular on the inside of 11 the cab, or did the seatbelt restrain you? 12 A My knee shattered the steering column. My head bounced 13 off the rear glass and steering wheel. 14 Q You said the rear glass? 15 A Yes, it was a day cab. 16 Q Anything else that you can really recall hitting? 17 A Just my right knee when it shattered the steering 18 column and just hitting - I blacked out when I hit the 19 glass, but I do remember getting pulled from the cab, and 20 then they threw me over the wall before the truck blew up. 21 Q When you blacked out were you totally out cold, or did 22 things just kind of go hazy for you a little bit? 23 A I was told I was out cold. 24 Q It's my understanding you were taken to MUSC; is that 25 right? | 16 1 Q Do those medications have any effects on you, side 2 effects? Do they make you drowsy or -- 3 A Drowsy, dizzy but they are suppose to help me cope with 4 pain. 5 Q Now, after MUSC, did you -- you said that they 6 scheduled a appointment with a neurologist; is that right? 7 A Yes. 8 Q Did you see the neurologist? 9 A No, they kept canceling my appointment. 10 Q Have you seen a neurologist at all since the accident? 11 A I'm scheduled to see one next week. 12 Q Who are you scheduled to see next week? 13 A Dr. Weinstein(sic). 14 Q Doctor who? 15 A Weinstein. 16 Q Weinstein? Is this somebody that you're -- 17 MFL FISHER: Wildsteen. 18 MS. BARR: Wildsteen. 19 Q And you're to see Dr. Wildsteen about your neck? 20 A My neck, my back, and my knee. 21 Q Now, I know MUSC had talked to you about seeing an 22 orthopedist about your knee. Did you see any of the 23 orthopedists at MUSC for your knee? 24 A No. They canceled the appointments as well. 25 Q There was talk about you seeing Dr. Hartsock(ph). Did |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 17 1 you ever see him? He's an orthopedist at MUSC? 2 A He's the one that canceled the appointment. There was 3 a problem with the insurance. 4 Q You've seen Dr. Wildsteen already; is that right? 5 A I've spoken with him, but I haven't went to his office 6 yet. 7 Q Have you seen any doctor since you were released from 8 MUSC? 9 A Yes. 10 Q And who has treated you? 11 A Dr. Able, Dr. Keller, Dr. Willis. 12 Q Dr. Able, what kind of doctor is Dr. Able; do you know? 13 A General practitioner. 14 Q And how did you find Dr. Able? 15 A Through my lawyer's office. 16 Q And what has Dr. Able been doing for you? 17 A He's the initial one that treated me for my neck, my 18 back, and my knee. He's been -- 19 Q Giving you the medications? 20 A Some of it. I'm just monitoring my treatment. 21 Dr. Kellet(ph) is the pain specialist. He's the one -- he's 22 been trying to help me cope with my pain. He's given me 23 Oxycodone, Lortab, just things to help with the pain. I've 24 taken two epidurals, cortisone shots. 25 Q And were your epidurals for your neck or for your lower | 19 1 Q After -- I know you spent the night there but after 2 your release did you ever go back to see any doctors at 3 MUSC? 4 A No. I went to my appointments but they kept getting 5 canceled. And the also assigned me a physical therapist. 6 And I forgot who that was. 7 Q Did you get any therapy done there? 8 A Three times. 9 Q And I know you said you scheduled Dr. Wildsteen. Any 10 other doctors appointment? 11 A No. Doctor Ables, yes. 12 Q What sort of schedule to you have with Dr. Able? Do 13 you see him like once a week or once a month? 14 A Every two weeks. 15 Q And the pain medicines you have now you said you get 16 some from Dr. Able and then some from Dr. Keller? 17 A Yeah. 18 Q Tell me a little bit about the pain you're feeling now, 19 where you're feeling it, and help me understand how you 20 describe it. 21 A Dizziness. 22 Q And how frequently are you dizzy? 23 A Daily. 24 Q Is it something that comes and goes? 25 A If I move too fast then my head starts spinning. If I                                                                                                                                        |
| 18 1 back? 2 A My lower back. The cortisone shots were for my neck. 3 And he referred me to Dr. Wildsteen. 4 Q Have you seen anybody in Dr. Wildsteen's office. 5 A No. I took an MRI already, and I'm waiting for my 6 appointment. 7 Q Where did you have the MRI done? 8 A Trident County Radiology. 9 Q And was that for your neck or for you or lower back? 10 A My neck. I've had an MRI of my knee done at MUSC. 11 Q All right. Do you have any appointments with any 12 doctors that deal specifically with the knee problem or the 13 main problem, your neck and your back at this point? 14 A My neck and my back at this point. 15 Q And you mentioned Dr. Willis; is that right? 16 A Yes. 17 Q What has Dr. Willis done for you? 18 A Mostly it's just therapy, physical therapy and just to 19 help me deal with the pain. 20 Q Any doctors other than Dr. Able, Dr. Kellet, 21 Dr. Willis? 22 A No. 23 Q And then of course you saw a number of doctors while 24 you were a patient at MUSC. 25 A Yes.                                                                                          | 20 1 get up, when I first stand up I have to orient myself. 2 There's a throbbing in the back of my head that hurts. My 3 neck, if I hold it up too long it starts hurting. My lower 4 back is still in pain. And my knee, if I go for walks in 5 the neighborhood to exercise, walking less than a block I 6 just need help or need some rest just to get back on. 7 Q And that's your right knee? 8 A Yeah. 9 Q Does it lock up or it just hurts? 10 A It locks up and it hurts. 11 Q Do you feel the pain anywhere else? 12 A My whole back. My entire back. 13 Q Is there anything that helps with the pain or improves 14 it even a little bit as far as your back pain goes. A 15 position or activity that helps? 16 A Showers, warm Showers, Bengay. 17 Q But you have been doing some exercises with the 18 physical therapist? 19 A Yes. 20 Q Do they have you doing anything at home as far as 21 exercising or stretching to help with your back? 22 A Stretching helps my back and my neck. 23 Q Are you good? Some people are better than others about 24 actually doing the stretches and exercises. Do you do them? 25 A I do some of them, but it hurts. |

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 21 1 Q You mentioned that the medication that you've taken 2 before you came here today, do you take any other 3 medications say like at bedtime? 4 A Yeah. 5 Q What other medications do you take? 6 A Flexeril. 7 Q Your handing me a list and it look likes -- 8 A Those are all the medication that I take. 9 Q So it's Flexeril, Amitriptyline, Fioricet, Ellevil, 10 ibuprofen, Lortab, the ibuprofen, and you also have 11 Neurontin and Oxycodone? 12 A Right? 13 Q And the Oxycodone, is that something that you take when 14 the pain gets really bad? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And the Neurontin you take everyday? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Have you ever had surgery before? 19 A No. 20 Q Have you ever been hospitalized for any reason prior to 21 this accident? 22 A No. 23 Q Have you ever had a workmen's compensation claim or a 24 personal injury claim? 25 A Never. | 23 1 blood pressure, diabetes anything like that. 2 A High blood pressure. Asthma. 3 Q Do you take prescription medications for either of 4 those conditions? 5 A For high blood pressure Lotensin. 6 Q And who prescribes Lotensin for you? 7 A Dr. Able. 8 Q And before Dr. Able, who -- 9 A I was not on any medication for high blood pressure. 10 Q Were you aware you had high blood pressure before the 11 accident? 12 A Yes, but it wasn't dangerously high. 13 Q Do you monitor your blood pressure now? 14 A Now, I do, yes. 15 Q Do you have it under control now? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And just so I'm clear, you may have already told me 18 this, but Dr. Able -- you never saw Dr. Able until after 19 this accident in August? 20 A Right. The blood pressure medicine, they first assumed 21 the headaches I was having was because of the blood 22 pressure. Then the blood pressure came under control and 23 then I still had the headaches. 24 Q Does the pain medication that you're taking, does that 25 help with the headaches?     |
| 22 1 Q Have you ever been in an automobile accident prior to 2 this? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And when was that? 5 A I think it was '07. 6 Q In 2007? 7 A Yes. 8 Q And where did that accident occurred? 9 A Here in Charleston. 10 Q Were you injured in that accident? 11 A No. 12 Q Was there any sort of settlement with the insurance 13 company over that accident? 14 A Yes. 15 Q Do you recall about how much you received in that 16 settlement? 17 A No. 18 Q Was it a couple hundred dollars, a couple thousand 19 dollars? 20 A It was a few hundred. And the owner of the car is the 21 one that got his car repaired. I borrowed the car. 22 Q Did they take you hospital or anything after the 23 accident? 24 A No. 25 Q Do you have any chronic medical conditions like high                                                                                       | 24 1 A No, not really. 2 Q How would you describe the type of headaches you have. 3 Where do you feel it and what does it feel like? 4 A The back of my head. It's like a buildup of pressure, 5 throbbing. 6 Q Does that change through the course of the day, the 7 intensity? 8 A Sometimes it gets worse and sometimes it's milder, but 9 it's there. 10 Q I noticed your wearing a soft collar around your neck. 11 Where did you get that? 12 A Dr. Able. 13 Q When do you wear that? 14 A Whenever I have to keep my head up. 15 Q So like you don't wear that around the house or that 16 sort of thing? 17 A No. Right now just keeping my head up it hurts, and my 18 collar is just to help me keep it up. 19 Q So you kind of rest your chin on it a little bit? 20 A Yeah. 21 Q And the cane, I notice that your off carrying the cane? 22 A Dizziness and balance. 23 Q Have you talked to Dr. Able about maybe your 24 medications effecting you making you a little dizzy? 25 A He said that the whiplash effect, I'm going to be dizzy |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 25 1 for another year. I'll still have side effects from it. 2 Q But you have not gone to a neurologist to have that 3 checked out. 4 A Not yet. 5 Q And you don't think any appointments are scheduled 6 right now with the specialist? 7 A No. They've taken X-rays, and Dr. Kellet is the last 8 to take X-rays of my neck, and he referred me to the 9 neurologist. 10 Q And that's in his same practice together, Dr. Wildsteen 11 and Dr. Kellet, is that right? 12 A Dr. Willis and Dr. Kellet is in the same practice. 13 Dr. Able is in a different practice. 14 Q Have you had any sources of income since the accident? 15 A Just family and money that I've borrowed. 16 Q You don't have like a AFLAC policy or any kind of 17 insurance policy? 18 A No. 19 Q And your medical bills, have you started getting bills 20 from MUSC or any of the other providers? 21 A Yes. 22 Q Have you paid any of your medical bills? 23 A No. 24 Q When was the last time you spoke to Sedrick Smalls? 25 A It's been over a month ago.                                                                                                                                 | 27 1 of record like a check stub or anything like that that you 2 could - 3 A I didn't save any. 4 Q You didn't save any. 5 A We probably can go to the bank and ask for copies of 6 the check. 7 Q But you said they were always on a JJS Trucking 8 checking account? 9 A Yes. 10 Q And then there would have also been somebody would have 11 kept a log - 12 A Sedrick Smalls. 13 Q Did your log survive the accident; do you know? 14 A I have no idea. 15 Q With the log that you would have had with you on the 16 night of the accident, been your only log you ever had 17 working for JJS Trucking, or would there have been other 18 log? 19 A Copies of the logs are kept by Chris Thompson when we 20 turned in the logs at the end of the week. 21 Q Did you ever see him personally and like hand him the 22 log, or was there just left in the place? 23 A We left it in a place. 24 Q Was that left at Capstone? 25 A No, it was left in Summerville.                                                                     |
| 26 1 Q And you said that he told you that you were covered by 2 workmen's? He had a worker's comp policy that covered you? 3 A That was in the hospital after the accident he told me 4 that and that was back in August. 5 Q Did you subsequently find out that he didn't have a 6 policy in effect? 7 A Yes. 8 Q Did you talk to him about that? 9 A I spoke with my lawyer. 10 Q But you never confronted Mr. Smalls, and said hey, your 11 policy was no good? 12 A Yeah. I asked him about it, and he still showed me 13 that it was good. 14 Q Do you have a gut feeling, do you believe him, do you 15 think he had a workmen's compensation policy? 16 A At the time of the accident, I did believe him. 17 Q What about now, do you know what to think? 18 A Right now I was told they didn't that the policy 19 lapsed. 20 Q Do you think you know, if Mr. Smalls said he had it, 21 do you think he knew it had lapsed, or do you think he was 22 telling you the truth - 23 A At the time, I assumed he was telling me the truth. 24 Q If we needed you to help us figure out how much you had 25 earned while working for JJS Trucking, do you have any sort | 28 1 Q At the saw mill in Summerville? 2 A Yes. 3 Q Would it have been at that front office where you drop 4 in? 5 A No, back at the scales. 6 Q Would you talk to anybody when you dropped that off? 7 A No. We put it in a envelope in the mailbox. The 8 mailbox was for CTS Trucking, and we just put it in an 9 envelop for CTS Trucking. 10 Q There was just some kind of lobby with the mailbox in 11 it? 12 A It's outside. 13 Q Outside. And it's over there by the scales? 14 A Yes. And if there was any problems CTS would contact 15 me or Sedrick Smalls would contact me. 16 Q As far as problems with the logs? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Mr. Rose, I think that's all the questions I have for 19 you. Mr. Killen may have some questions for you and your 20 lawyer might have some, too. 21 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN: 22 Q I'm Tim Killen. I represent the state agency involved 23 in this case. This is Workmen's Compensation Uninsured 24 Employer Fund. When you went to work for JJS Trucking, did 25 your route ever vary? |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 29 1 A We took the interstate or we went the back way through2 Hanahan and Goose Creek.3 Q But you were always going to the same place from the4 same place; is that correct?5 A Yes.6 Q How did you know you were hauling these loads for Chris7 Thompson?8 A Chris Thompson was the contractor and everything coming9 out of Summerville saw mill is either hauled for Don Sweet10 or Chris Thompson. Everybody else were just subcontractors11 under those two.12 Q How did you know you were you working under Chris13 Thompson?14 A I was told.15 Q Who told you that?16 A Sedrick Smalls.17 Q Did you ever work for anybody else other than Chris18 Thompson?19 A At the saw mill, no.20 Q You said that Chris Thompson would contact you?21 A No, his secretary.22 Q His secretary would contact you?23 A If there's a problem with the logs or paperwork that I24 turn in, they left either notes in the box for us, or when25 we picked up our checks, we received the note from them, or                      | 31 1 Chris Thompson. The trucks belong to JJS Trucking, and they2 were responsible for the maintenance on the trailer. JJS3 Trucking was responsible for maintenance on the truck.4 Q Every time you hauled a load the trailer was Chris5 Thompson's?6 A Yes.7 Q When you were hurt the trailer on your out truck was8 Chris Thompson's?9 A Yes.10 Q Did JJS Trucking own any of the trailers?11 A No, just the truck.12 Q Could you have done the job without the trailer?13 A No. The trailer is used to haul the chips.14 Q And so in order to get the job done you needed Chris15 Thompson's trailer?16 A Right.17 Q Did you ever have any direct interaction with Chris18 Thompson himself?19 A His mechanics.20 Q What would they do?21 A They were the ones that inspected the trucks, look care22 of the maintenance on the trucks, fix the tires, just the23 regular maintenance on the trailer.24 Q You said the trucks, you mean the trucks or the trailer25 or both?                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 30 1 they would call us on the phone, or our boss would tell us,2 relay the message to us.3 Q Did somebody from Chris Thompson call you more often,4 or did your boss Sedrick Smalls?5 A Mostly Sedrick Smalls. Once I was contacted by someone6 from Chris Thompson's office?7 Q Just once?8 A Twice.9 Q Are you sure?10 A Yes.11 Q I don't want you to guess. I just want you to tell us12 what you know. And when you were contacted by someone from13 Chris Thompson what did they want?14 A First time, was my hours of service. I went over 1215 hours, and they told me not to do that, and the second time16 it was for truck inspections.17 Q What in regards to truck inspections?18 A I needed to take the truck over to his shop to have19 them inspect it.20 Q You needed to take your JJS Trucking truck over to21 Chris Thompson's shop; is that correct?22 A Yes.23 Q So that someone from Chris Thompson's outfit could24 inspect your truck?25 A The trailer. The trailers that we hauled belonged to | 32 1 A The trailer. The day before the accident they2 inspected the trucks, the truck itself.3 Q And that JJS Trucking's truck?4 A Yes. Chris Thompson mechanic inspected the truck5 itself. The tractor, the day before the accident and prior6 to that they were only inspecting the trailer and just done7 any maintenance or anything that we found wrong with the8 trailer, they would fix it.9 Q Do you know why they would inspect your truck the day10 before the accident?11 A One of trucks that belonged to JJS Trucking had a tire12 problem. The treads on the tires was worn. The mechanics13 inspected it when it was parked at Summerville saw mill. He14 left a note saying it needed to get repaired, and then he15 wanted to see all the trucks and inspect the tires.16 Q He being who?17 A The head mechanic. A guy named Tim.18 Q Tim working for?19 A Chris Thompson. And to my knowledge he wanted every20 truck that JJS drove inspected by him.21 Q Did you talk to Sedrick Smalls about that?22 A Yes.23 Q What did Sedrick Smalls tell you?24 A The truck that I was driving I had to take it to the25 mechanic to get some tires replaced, and after I had the |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 33 1 tires replaced, I took it to have Tim, Chris Thompson's2 mechanic to have it inspected.3 Q What did Sedrick Smalls tell you about the inspections?4 A That we passed the inspection.5 Q Did he tell you anything else?6 A No. He just you told me to go get the trailer from7 Chris Thompson, so I could continue my work for the day.8 Q Did you ever hand in your logs to Sedrick Smalls or JJS9 Trucking?10 A Yes.11 Q How frequently would you do that?12 A When I first started, I gave him my logs personally.13 But after approximately two weeks I started putting it in14 the box.15 Q And giving it directly to Chris Thompson's company?16 A Yes.17 Q Beside the truck and the trailer, was there anything18 else you needed to do your job?19 A Fuel.20 Q And you heeded the logs, right.21 A Yep.22 Q How was fuel paid for?23 A Tohya Smalls, Sedrick's wife, we met her at the gas24 station on Monroe Gray Avenue. She would fill up the truck.25 She did it twice a week. | 35 1 Q What do you think would you happen if he made that2 recommendation?3 A We would be fired.4 Q Is it your understanding that Chris Thompson said he5 would pay for your medical bills?6 A That's what I was told.7 Q You were told that by Sedrick Smalls?8 A Yes.9 Q And none of your medical bills have been paid?10 A Nothing.11 Q And you have not received any form of weekly12 compensation while you have been out?13 A No.14 Q Did Chris Thompson subcontract this work out to any15 other companies other than JJS Trucking?16 A I wouldn't know that.17 Q Were you aware of any drivers from other companies18 hauling loads using Chris Thompson's trailers?19 A I wouldn't know that.20 Q Capstone ever have any drivers?21 A None that came in contact with it. Everybody that22 drove there just came from all over the state.23 Q You never saw any Capstone employees driving your truck24 doing the same things that you were you doing?25 A I wouldn't know if they were Capstone employees. |
| 34 1 Q Did you ever --2 A Plus she would pay for it after we filled it up.3 Q Did you fill up your truck any other way than that?4 A No.5 Q And when you got those new tires on the truck how was6 that paid for?7 A He paid for it himself. Sedrick Smalls paid for it.8 Q Did anybody working for JJS Trucking ever get fired9 while you worked there?10 A Nobody got fired.11 Q Did anybody ever get reprimanded while you were there?12 A Not to my knowledge.13 Q Did you ever get reprimanded in any way?14 A Once for my hours of service.15 Q You got reprimanded by Chris Thompson's secretary.16 A Both. Chris Thompson secretary and Sedrick Smalls.17 Q And you got paid $25 a load?18 A Yes.19 Q And all the load you were hauling were --20 A Woodchips.21 Q In Chris Thompson's trailers.22 A Yes.23 Q Do you know whether or not Chris Thompson had a right24 to fire you?25 A He would recommend that we be fired.                                                            | 36 1 Q So you don't know, is that the right?2 A Right.3 Q How often do you take the Oxycodone?4 A I take the oxycodone when the pain is unbearable.5 Q When's the last time you took it.6 A Last night.7 Q Before that, when's the last time you took it?8 A When I took my MRI.9 Q How long ago was that?10 A Last week, Monday.11 Q Do you ever take it more than a couple times a week?12 A No.13 Q And you said you were tossed over the median when you14 got out of the truck?15 A The people that pulled me out of the truck. They tried16 to pull me away from it. I remember one guy saying get him17 on the other side against the wall, and then I felt them18 throw me over the wall, and when I came, to the police and19 firemen was dragging me further away from the truck while it20 was burning.21 Q What was burning?22 A The truck blew up. The tractor that hit me blew up,23 and my truck was burning. It caught on fire.24 Q You didn't get any burns yourself?25 A Smoke Inhalation, no.    |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gatto Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 37 1 Q -Who pulled you out of the truck? 2 A I have no idea. 3 Q Do you know who hit you? 4 A I was told it was the driver by the name of Robbie. 5 Q Do you know Robbie? 6 A No. 7 Q Have you ever met him prior to that night? 8 A Just speaking saying hi and bye. 9 Q Where would you see him? 10 A When I'm leaving or coming to work. When I'm leaving 11 the saw mill or coming to work to the truck. 12 Q Saw mill. That's where you would start your work every 13 day? 14 A Yes. 15 Q What business is there? 16 A Summerville saw mill. That's where we picked up the 17 woodchips to take to Capstone. 18 Q Where did you keep your - 19 A All the trucks were parked across the street from the 20 saw mill property. All of Chris Thompson's trucks and JJS 21 trucks, they were parked there. 22 Q Where there any other trucks from any other companies 23 parked in the same lot? 24 A There used to be, but back in June or you July Don 25 Sweet, he had his drivers bring his trucks to him, and his              | 39 1 STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA) 2 : C-E-R-T-I-F-I-C-A-T-E 3 COUNTY OF DORCHESTER) 4 I, Laci B. Bearden, Court Reporter and Notary Public, 5 certify that I did have Samuel Rose to appear before me at 6 9:45 a.m. on Monday, November 14th, 2011, at the law offices 7 of George Sink, P.A., 7011 Rivers Avenue, n. Charleston, 8 South Carolina; that the witness was sworn and cautioned to 9 tell the truth, the pages constitute a true and accurate 10 transcript of the testimony given at that time and place. 11 I further certify that I am not of counsel or kin to 12 any of the parties to this cause of action, nor am I 13 interested in any manner in its outcome. 14 IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and 15 seal this the 14th day of November, 2011. 16 17 18 19 Laci B. Bearden 20 Notary Public for South Carolina 21 My Commission Expires: September 29, 2021 22 23 24 25 |
| 38 1 sub contactors parked their trucks somewhere else. The only 2 people that parked there was Chris Thompson and JJS trucks. 3 Q Do you know anything about who paid who to park there? 4 A No. 5 Q Do you know anything about the agreement between JJS 6 Trucking and Chris Thompson? 7 A No. 8 Q Do you know how much - and I know I just asked you 9 this question. Do you know what percentage Chris Thompson 10 took from each of your loads. 11 A No. 12 Q Did you have an understanding what would have happened 13 had your truck not passed that inspection by Chris 14 Thompson's personnel that day? 15 A I would have either had to drive a different truck or 16 not work. 17 Q Do you know whether or not Sedrick Smalls had any 18 discussions with Chris Thompson when you were hired? 19 A I don't know. 20 Q That's all I have. 21 MS. BARR: Thank you, sir. That's all we have for 22 you if Mr. Fisher doesn't have any questions. 23 (The deposition was concluded at 24 10:40 a.m. November, 14th, 25 2011.) | 39                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

Condensed Transcript

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA
WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION
WCC FILE NO. 1112328

Samuel A. Rose,
Employee, Claimant,
vs.
JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and Chris Thompson
Services, LLC/Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Company,
Employer,
and Bridgefield Causality Insurance Co., Carrier, Defendants.

---

DEPOSITION OF
SEDRICK SMALLS

November 14, 2011
11:00 a.m.

George Sink, P.A.
7011 Rivers Avenue
N. Charleston, South Carolina

Laci Bearden, Court Reporter and Notary Public

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044
Telephone:

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINAWORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSIONWCC FILE NO. 1112328 Samuel A. Rose,Employee, Claimant,-vs-JJS Trucking, LLC/SCUEF and ChrisThompson Services, LLC/BridgefieldCasualty Insurance Company,Employer,-and-Bridgefield Casualty Insurance Co.,Carrier, Defendants. The deposition of Sedrick Smalls,taken before Laci Bearden, Court Reporter and NotaryPublic, at the George Sink, P.A., 7011 RiversAvenue, N. Charleston, South Carolina on November14th, 2011, commencing at 11:00 a.m.                                                                    | 1 INDEX 3 2 3 EXAMINATION BY MR. FISHER 4 4 EXAMINATION BY MS. BARR 19 5 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN 22 6 EXAMINATION BY MR. FISHER 38 7 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN 39 8 9 10 11 12 EXHIBITS 13 14 Plaintiff's Exhibit Number One 8 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1 APPEARANCES 2 2 3 For the Employer: George Sink, P.A. 4 BY: Joseph B. Fisher 5 7011 Rivers Avenue 6 Suite 105 7 N. Charleston, SC 29406 8 jfisher@sinklaw.com 9 For the Carrier: Trask &amp; Howell, LLC. 10 BY: Kristen L. Barr 11 763 Johnnie Dodds Blvd. 12 P.O. Box 2167 13 ML Pleasant, SC 29465 14 kbar@trash-howell.com 15 S.C. Uninsured 16 Employers Fund 17 BY: Timothy Killen, Esq 18 100 Executive Center 19 Drive, Suite 101 20 Columbia, SC 29210 21 tkillen@sif.sc.gov 22 23 24 25 | 1 SEDRICK SMALLS 4 2 was sworn (affirmed) and testified as follows: 3 EXAMINATION BY MR. FISHER: 4 Q My name is Joe Fisher. I represent Samuel Rose with 5 the worker's compensation claim that we filed arising out of 6 an accident that occurred on August 10, 2011. I want to ask 7 you some questions about your relationship with my client, a 8 work relationship and your work relationship, business 9 relationship with a gentleman named Chris Thompson and his 10 company Chris Thompson Services, LLC; okay? 11 A Yes, sir. 12 Q Will you please state your name for the record? 13 A Sedrick Smalls. 14 Q Mr. Smalls, where do you live at? 15 A Charleston, South Carolina, 29403. 16 Q And are you familiar with the company called JJS 17 Trucking? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And how are you familiar with that company? 20 A I am the owner, president. I think that's it, the 21 president. 22 Q Are there any other owners, any other shareholders, 23 anything like that in JJS Trucking? 24 A No. 25 Q Your a sole proprietor? |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gatto Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquire resolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 A Yes. 2 Q Sole owner? 3 A Yes. President, yes. 4 Q And do you know a gentlemen named Samuel Rose? 5 A Yes. 6 Q How do you know Mr. Rose? 7 A I employed him at JJS Trucking. 8 Q Do you remember when he went to work for you? 9 A I believe it was the fourth month. 10 Q I think he testified earlier he went to work for you in 11 April of 2011. Would that be about right? 12 A Correct, correct. 13 Q Was he working for you in August of 2011? 14 A Yes. 15 Q And JJS Trucking, you guys subcontract work for Chris 16 Thompson Services; is that correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q And how long have you had a relationship to work with 19 Chris Thompson Services? 20 A For over three plus years. 21 Q And what is that relationship? 22 A I'm a subcontractor. He - I pull loads for him. He 23 provides a trailer, and I provide my insurance coverage to 24 him, and he pays me by the ton to carry each load. 25 Q And where do these loads go to, and where do the loads                                                                                                                                                                       | 1 A Yes. 2 Q Take your time. 3 A Here we go. If you want to make a copy of that. 4 Q That would be great. 5 A That's the same thing I provided to the insurance 6 company. 7 (Where upon an off the record 8 discussion took place.) 9 Q Sir, you provided us with what looks like a payroll 10 log, is that what that is? What is that? And I'll show you 11 a copy of it. 12 A Exactly. This is what we call a load sheet and for 13 each ticket number you see represents a load. For each load 14 that's turned in, that's how he gets paid his $25. It just 15 verifies what he done that particular week. 16 Q And for example on 7/12/2011, if you'll take a look at 17 that. 18 A Correct. 19 Q Which is one, two, three, four, five, six, seven 20 numbers; is that correct? One, two, three, four, five, six, 21 seven numbers. 22 A Correct. 23 Q Does that mean he made seven loads that day? 24 A Correct. 25 Q And then on the 13th it shows one, two, three, four,                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1 come from? 2 A They come from a lumber mill in Summerville, and then 3 they go to a paper mill in Charleston, and the lumber mill 4 is off of Highway 78 and they go to Virginia Avenue. 5 Q And that's your exclusive contract with him? 6 A Yes. 7 Q You don't haul anything else anywhere other than this 8 route from Summerville to the paper mill; is that right? 9 A Correct. 10 Q And let me see, my client had started working for you 11 in April of 2011. Did you pay my client? 12 A Yes, I paid him. Yes. 13 Q And how did you pay him? 14 A I paid him as a subcontractor by the per load. For 15 every load that he received, he got paid for each load. 16 Q And how much did he get paid per load? 17 A Twenty-five dollars per load. 18 Q And how many loads would you say he could make on 19 average in a day? 20 A Focus - he would on average per day it was normally 21 around five loads. Sometimes a little bit more, sometimes a 22 little bit less, but on average for Mr. Samuel every week, 23 he typically got 25 to 30 loads every week. I do have some 24 documentation for that. 25 Q You do. Could I see what you have? | 1 five numbers, so he made five loads that day; correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q And I would assume it varies on traffic and other 4 things; is that correct? 5 A Correct. 6 Q As to how many loads you could get a day. And what 7 you've given us is from July 12, 2011, through August 9, 8 2011; is that correct? 9 A Correct. But I do have all of his since he was 10 employed. I just thought it might be handy here today 11 because that's for the insurance company. They just wanted 12 "X" amount for representation so, but that's what you're 13 looking at right there. 14 Q I would like to mark this is as Plaintiff's Exhibit 15 One, please. 16 (Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1 was 17 marked for identification.) 18 Q Now, what was your arrangement with Chris Thompson 19 Services, your business arrangement? 20 A My arrangement was to - and we only had a verbal 21 agreement, but my arrangement was to haul loads, and I was 22 to receive compensation for each load that I carried, and I 23 would turn in my sheets at the end of the week, and then the 24 following week he would relinquish me a check for what I did 25 the previous week. |

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9 1 Q Were you paid by the ton? 2 A Correct. 3 Q And then he was also paid by the ton. "He" being Chris Thompson, did he get paid so much per ton as well? 4 A I believe so, yes. 5 Q Who paid Chris Thompson? 6 A I would believe he got paid from Capstone because that's the -- maybe -- matter of fact, he might have got paid from the lumber mill. Actually, I really don't know, but I know that's where we delivered it to, Capstone. 7 Q And Chris Thompson would cut a check JIS Trucking -- 8 A Correct. 9 Q -- every week and then you would cut a check to your employees -- 10 A Yes. 11 Q -- or is it the fellows who drove a truck for you -- 12 A Correct. 13 Q -- and that's how that worked? 14 A Correct. 15 Q And how many trucks did you have working for you at the time of this accident? 16 A Three. 17 Q Three. And how many trucks do you own? 18 A Four. 19 Q Four trucks. Who all drove a truck for you?                                                                                                                             | 11 1 A Exactly. But excluding the trailer. Everything on the trailer would be Chris Thompson's. 2 Q How long have you had JIS Trucking? 3 A If I'm not mistaken -- I know I got a date for when it was established, but I would say somewhere around seven years. 4 Q Have you ever had any trouble with insurance like what's going on now? 5 A No, sir. 6 Q Now, you've provided and I believe your insurance agency provided some insurance certificates to us, and the state has concluded that your insurance had lapsed from February 5, 2011. Until September 23, 2011. Did you ever receive a letter from the state? 7 MR. KILLEN: Let me just object to the form of that question. 8 Q Well, if you could just answer that. Have you ever received a letter from the South Carolina Workmen's Compensation Commission by a gentlemen named Gary Smith? 9 A Please repeat that question. 10 Q Have you ever received a copy of this letter right here, I want to show you? 11 A No, sir. 12 Q It says it was mailed to 137A Gordon Street? 13 A Let's see, this is on October -- okay, October the |
| 10 1 A At that time of the incident, it was me, Samuel Rose, Shaun Thompson -- Shaun Thomas, and Reggie Washington. Reggie was really part time. He didn't run every day. 2 Q Did you have a truck driver named Terri? 3 A Yes, I did, but he was not employed with me at that time. He was a subcontractor for me at that time. 4 Q Did you have a truck driver named Max? 5 A Yes. I did at that time, but he was not working for me at that time. 6 Q The deal with Chris Thompson was in order for you to work for him you had to provide him with copies of your certificates of insurance -- 7 A Correct. 8 Q -- to cover your drivers and yourself for worker's compensations purposes; is that right? 9 A Correct. 10 Q And what would happen if you didn't provide those certificates of insurance to Chris Thompson? 11 A I would be terminated. 12 Q And who paid for the gas for the trucks that you drove? 13 A I did. 14 Q What about the tires? 15 A I did. All maintenance to the vehicles, I was responsible for? 16 Q But the trailers were owned by Chris Thompson? | 12 1 28th. Okay. Okay. 2 Q Is this your address here, 137A Gordon Street? 3 A Yes. Well, what I want to say is I haven't actually seen it myself, but they have sent quite a bit of letters to me. 4 Q And has any insurance company or anyone told you that your insurance had lapsed starting February 5, 2011, through September 23, 2011? 5 A I had not received anything from my actual insurance carrier. 6 Q But have you talked with anyone at the State of South Carolina Workmen's Compensation Commission about that? 7 A No, sir. 8 Q And no one's discussed any sort of fine with you for not having it -- 9 A I did receive a letter saying that if I do not show that I had insurance over "X" amount of years that I would receive a fine. 10 Q Now, are you aware that the insurance company -- your worker's compensation carriers has said that you didn't have insurance at the time of this accident? 11 A I am aware that they said that. 12 Q Have you talked to them about that since then? 13 A Have I talked with them? 14 Q Your insurance company?                      |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13 1 A I have, and they still stand by the fact that I do not2 have worker's compensation.3 Q And which company said that, is it Travelers, Zurich,4 do you remember?5 A Towers.6 Q After Mr. Rose was in the accident, when did you find7 out this accident happened?8 A I found out immediately. I mean, within an hour.9 Q Did you go to the hospital and see him?10 A Yes, I did.11 Q Did you ever talk to Chris Thompson about this12 accident?13 A Yes, I did.14 Q What did Chris Thompson and you discuss?15 A I informed him that at this scene his driver hit my16 driver in the rear, that at the scene DOT and South Carolina17 State Troopers had faulted his driver at fault and that my18 driver was in no way -- they called it not contributing. So19 I informed him of all of this.20 Q After this accident, did you and Chris Thompson ever21 discuss worker's compensation coverage?22 A We did later on once I found out that I was not being23 covered.24 Q What did Mr. Thompson tell you?25 A That when he informed me that --                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 15 1 but I don't know what's going on because if you look at2 those documents, it would state that you would have it, but3 again, if I don't I don't, but I was not aware that I did4 not.5 Q Is this the documents you were just asking me about?6 A Yes, sir.7 Q And one of them is dated 10/18/2010. Can you take a8 look at that? Number one it has Tower Insurance Company.9 Below it it has Travelers Insurance; is that correct?10 A Correct.11 Q And it shows the date covered 10/8/10 to 10/8/11?12 A I know on this policy, if I'm not mistaken, I had just13 renewed it after the incident because after I found out, I14 went to go get reinstated, you know, and so that's what15 we're looking at right here.16 Q And this was generated after the accident; is what17 you're saying?18 A That's right, that's right.19 Q And where it says binder down there, what does that20 mean?21 A That means that I'm covered.22 Q That's your understanding that it means you're covered.23 Then I have this other one from Swap Fox Agency? Is this24 your agency?25 A No. No. No. We're looking at the wrong thing. I'm |
| 14 1 MS. BARR: Object to the hearsay.2 Q Go ahead and answer the question.3 A He informed me that I can no longer work for him based4 on the fact that my insurance had lapsed at that time.5 That's what he said.6 Q Did he ever say anything about his insurance taking7 care of this claim with regard to Mr. Rose?8 A What he stated is that --9 MS. BARR: Same objection to hearsay.10 Q Go ahead.11 A What he stated was that Sedrick -- that I was12 responsible for keeping my worker's comp coverage current.13 He stated that he was not informed that my insurance had14 lapsed. Actually, I was looking for it here, but I don't15 have it. But I was going to ask you -- remember I faxed you16 two copies of -- he in turn said to me, Sedrick -- so the17 bottom line I was terminated. Later on, a week or so later18 he informed me that he did an investigation or he had come19 across the fact that my insurance had not lapsed, and he20 provided me with documents. I in turn called my insurance21 agent that happened to look into this because ever since I22 worked for Mr. Thompson, if my insurance was ever in23 jeopardy of lapsing, my insurance carrier always would24 inform him because he's listed down there, but all I can say25 is, he said, Sedrick, you know you can't be employed here, | 16 1 sorry. This is not what I'm looking at because this here2 says 10/2/2010 --3 Q Yes, sir.4 A -- through 10/2/2011.5 Q Yes, sir.6 A So therefore when I look at this I would have been7 covered through -- because I received a couple of them now,8 so let me retrack what I stated.9 Q This is another one that you -- no, this one's dated10 9/29/11.11 A Okay. There we go. This is the one probably I was12 referring to.13 Q And this one, the 10/8/10, that says -- does that say14 Travelers Insurance?15 A Yeah, that says Travelers Insurance; correct.16 Q And this 9/29/11, now whose insurance company picks up17 coverage at that point.18 A Zurich America Insurance Company.19 Q And that's good from August 24, 2010, it says, to20 August 24, 2011; is that correct.21 A Correct.22 Q But you didn't purchase it until 9/29/11; is that23 correct?24 A Actually -- the best thing I can say to you is --25 purchase -- I was under the impression that I didn't -- if                                                                                                                                       |

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 17 1 this is 9/29/11 -- I wasn't the person -- that was not a 2 purchase actual date because if that's a purchase date, why 3 would it be 9/29/11 where it actually says here, you know, 4 coverage 8/24/10 through 8/24/11. I -- 5 Q That's a good question. 6 A I was under the impression that that's when probably 7 someone actually sent it out verifying the date it was sent 8 out but not the actual date of coverage. These -- from my 9 interpretation -- these are the actual dates of coverage. 10 Q Why would there have been one from August 24, 2010 for 11 Zurich and one from October 8, 2010 from Travelers? I don't 12 have any idea. 13 A The only idea that I could have is maybe the insurance 14 had lapsed and somebody else picked it up. I don't know. 15 What I do is I make my payments to Swap Fox and -- but I 16 don't know. 17 Q Have you ever went and showed these and discussed these 18 with anyone at Swap Fox? 19 A We talked -- I sent it back to Swap Fox. I have not 20 gotten a response back from Swap Fox, and that would be 21 attention Gregg Hudson, I believe, operations manager via 22 Swap Fox. 23 Q When you hired Samuel Rose, his job was to haul 24 woodchips from Summerville to the Capstone Plant; is that 25 correct? | 19 1 EXAMINATION BY MS. BARR: 2 Q Mr. Smalls, my name is Kirsten Barr. We met briefly 3 before we went on. I represent Chris Thompson and the 4 insurance carrier. Do you recall making payments to Swap 5 Fox or to anybody else for worker's comp insurance in 2011? 6 A No, ma'am. 7 Q Would you have written one check. I mean, do you 8 recall making any payments toward the purchase of a worker's 9 comp insurance policy in the year prior to the accident? 10 A Yes, ma'am. 11 Q Now, do you have business records showing -- would you 12 write the check to Swap Fox then? 13 A Sometimes I made them to Swap Fox and sometimes I -- 14 like, if I was close to being terminated, they would say, 15 hey, just make it out to us and make sure it stays current. 16 Q At any time in the months prior to this accident that 17 happened in August of 2011, did you stop making your regular 18 payment? 19 A Focus: I'm not going to say that I didn't -- I might 20 not have had some times when I might have been late. But 21 what would happen is that my insurance agent would say, 22 Smalls, well this is where you are and this is what you need 23 to do. But, yes, ma'am -- and -- focus -- if my insurance 24 had lapsed, I would have to go in and sign something saying 25 that I didn't for that particular period that might have |
| 18 1 A Correct. 2 Q And you furnished the truck; is that correct? 3 A Correct. 4 Q You paid for the gas; is that correct? 5 A Correct. 6 Q You paid for the maintenance on the truck; is that 7 correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And really all he did was he was suppose to get in the 10 truck and drive it safely to and from Summerville, dumped in 11 Capstone, come back. His job was just to drive the truck? 12 A His job was just to drive the truck; yes. 13 Q And you told him where to go? 14 A No, I did not. 15 Q You didn't tell him where to go? 16 A No, sir. At Summerville, we have a loader box and each 17 driver has a shift, but you can start your shift earlier or 18 later. I did not make that determination. 19 Q Not when, but where? I mean, he had your truck. His 20 job was to drive your truck from Summerville saw mill, to 21 Capstone. He couldn't just take that truck if he wanted to 22 haul chips to Savannah or something like that? 23 A No, sir. 24 Q Well, thank you, sir. I don't have any other 25 questions. Appreciate it.                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 20 1 just lapsed that I was not covered, so again, the best way I 2 can put it is that I'm not going to say that I didn't have 3 any issues, but at the time of this incident, I was under 4 the impression that I was covered. 5 Q Would you be able to put your hand on like the canceled 6 checks or check stubs that you would have written to pay for 7 your worker's compensation insurance in the months prior to 8 Mr. Rose's accident? 9 A I'm pretty sure I could go back and find documentations 10 of payments. 11 Q Do you recall ever getting a notice from Swap Fox or 12 from the worker's comp insurance company saying that your 13 policy had lapsed -- 14 A No. 15 Q -- or that they were going to cancel it? 16 A No, ma'am. 17 Q You still get your insurance with Swap Fox? 18 A As of now, I'm out of business pretty much. I'm 19 exhausted. 20 Q Were you running trucks for anybody other than -- 21 A No. No, ma'am. 22 Q -- what you did for Chris Thompson? 23 A Exactly. That was everything for me. 24 Q And you have four trucks? 25 A Yes.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

ESQUIRE

an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 21 1 Q Do you still have the four trucks? 2 A I still have -- yes, I still have them. 3 Q And where do you keep your trucks? 4 A I keep one of them at the shop that broke, but I have three in a yard, what they call Red Top. 5 Q Is that something that you own or -- 6 A It's a friend's property. 7 Q And where in Red Top is that? 8 A That's off of Charleston -- I think that's Old Charleston Road. 9 Q And who owns the property where they're located? 10 A Rodney Doctor. 11 Q Doctor? 12 A Yes, ma'am. 13 Q And do you pay him rent to keep those trucks there, or is he just a friend, or what's the arrangement? 14 A Oh, no, he's a friend. 15 Q And you say that you have not worked or done any kind of work with JJS Trucking since you talked to Mr. Thompson about the lapse in your worker's comp insurance? 16 A Yes, ma'am. 17 Q Just a quick question. We've marked this as Claimants One, but I think you said this was a load sheet; is that what you called it? 18 A Yeah. By definition, we call them load sheets, but                                            | 23 1 Q So Mr. Rose would leave this in a box for Chris Thompson; is that correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q And Chris Thompson or someone in his company would do these calculations? 4 A Correct. 5 Q And then Mr. Thompson's company would pay you -- 6 A Correct. 7 Q -- and send these sheets back? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And then you would have them for your records; is that right? 10 A Correct. 11 Q So would you just then write a check to Samuel Rose for the amount shown on the bottom of this load sheet? 12 A No. I would write a check to him for each load -- his compensation was $25. 13 Q That's right. 14 A I would count each load that was turned in to verify, and I would cut him a check for those amount of loads. 15 Q Did Mr. Rose ever tell you how many trips he took in a certain week? 16 A Sometimes we would discuss -- you know, he would say, well, yes Smalls, I got 25 loads, or I got 30 loads and then, so we would discuss it and then what would happen is |
| 22 1 that's how we determine compensation. 2 Q And would this be something that an employee like Mr. Rose would turn in to you each week? 3 A Yes. But technically he turned it in to the office. 4 He didn't really turn them in to me, but I look at it as being turned in to me. Every week he would fill it out just like I did and put it in a box, and then when the checks came from Chris Thompson then it would come back to me. 5 Q So when you say he leaves it in a box, this was a box at Capstone? 6 A Correct. 7 Q But Chris Thompson didn't write a check to Samuel Rose. He wrote you a check? 8 A Exactly. He wrote me a check. Yes, ma'am. 9 Q I think Mr. Killen probably has some questions for you. That's all I have for you right now. 10 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN: 11 Q Mr. Smalls, I'm Tim Killen. I represent South Carolina Worker's Compensation Uninsured Employers Fund, and this load sheet, this is filled out by Samuel Rose; is that correct? 12 A Correct. 13 Q And did Mr. Rose do the calculations on this document? 14 A No. No. Chris Thompson did the calculations on the sheet. | 24 1 when this came back this was like double checking what the verbal communication was. 2 Q The verbal communication was just informative; right? 3 A Correct. 4 Q This document, this load sheet, I mean, that's the holy grail. 5 A Yes. 6 Q That's the document where everything is based off of; right? 7 A Correct. 8 Q Let me ask you a few background questions. What's your date of birth? 9 A 5/22/70. 10 Q And your social security number? 11 A 12 Q And your driver's license number? 13 A 14 Q And that's South Carolina? 15 A Correct, sir. 16 Q I know your home address; is that your business address as well? 17 A Correct, sir. 18 Q Have you ever operated any other locations other than the Gordon Street location? 19 A No, sir.                                                                                                                                                                                                             |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 25 1 Q Where do you house your trucks? 2 A Red Top or if I was - 3 Q I'm sorry. Let me ask that a better way. When you 4 were in business, where did you house your trucks? 5 A In Summerville at the mill. 6 Q And who owns that mill? 7 A Well, owns the mill would be Capstone. 8 Q And so you would park your trucks there, did you pay 9 anyone for the space? 10 A No, sir. 11 Q Who did you negotiate that with? 12 A Well, you use the word, "negotiate." I was just 13 authorized by Mr. Chris Thompson to be able to park there. 14 Q And you went into business with Chris Thompson about 15 three and a half years ago, right? 16 A Yes, sir. 17 Q You never had a written contract with him? 18 A No, sir. 19 Q But you had a written contract with all your drivers? 20 A Yes, sir, most of them. 21 Q You're the only member of your LLC? 22 A Yes, sir. 23 Q How are you taxed? 24 A When you say, how am I taxed? 25 Q Are you taxed like a sole proprietor? Do you know? | 27 1 A Correct. 2 Q Where do you bank? 3 A First Citizens. 4 Q Do you have personal accounts there? 5 A I don't have a personal account. 6 Q All your bank accounts there - if their - is there 7 more than one? 8 A No. It's just one, JJS Trucking. 9 Q And it's just a checking account? 10 A Yes. 11 Q Do you have a mortgage on your house at Gordon Street? 12 A I do. 13 Q Is that in your name alone? 14 A It is. 15 Q How do you pay the mortgage? 16 A By check. 17 Q Out of your JJS Trucking, LLC account? 18 A Most of time I would assume so, yes. 19 Q You would assume so or yes or no? 20 A I would say yes. 21 Q So you use that JJS Trucking account for your personal 22 needs? 23 A I guess you can say it like that. 24 Q Do you separate your money from your corporation with 25 your personal money? |
| 26 1 It's okay if you don't know. 2 A I mean, I got some tax documents, but I know there's 3 different ways you can be taxed. 4 Q Do you pay corporate taxes for your income through your 5 LLC? If you don't know, it's okay? 6 A Well, I know on my taxes my corporation is listed so. 7 Q Okay. Your LLC? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q You pay personal income tax? 10 A Can I make a call? Because my accountant might answer 11 the phone. 12 Q It's all right. Who's your accountant? 13 A Liberty Tax. Warren - Warren Frazier. 14 Q Where is he located? 15 A Goose Creek. 16 Q Do you own the property at Gordon Street? 17 A Yes, I do. 18 Q Personally? 19 A Yes. 20 Q Does your LLC own any property? 21 A No, sir. 22 Q Who owns those trucks? 23 A My corporation. 24 Q Their titled in the name of JJS Trucking, LLC; is that 25 correct?                                                                                                                                              | 28 1 A Oh, no, I see what you're saying. No, I do pull it 2 out. 3 Q How do you pull it out? 4 A I write a check to myself. 5 Q And then you cash it? 6 A Correct. 7 Q At First Citizens? 8 A Correct. 9 Q How do you pay your electric bill? 10 A I would pay it off of my account. 11 Q From your corporate account? 12 A Correct. 13 Q What about when you go get groceries? 14 A I pay cash. 15 Q Do you ever write a check for groceries? 16 A No, sir. 17 Q Do you own any automobiles personally? 18 A Yes, sir. 19 Q How do you get gas? 20 A I pay for it with the cash. 21 Q You pay cash for your gas at all times? 22 A Correct. 23 Q You never use your corporate account to pay for your 24 personal vehicle's gas. 25 A No, sir.                                                                               |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Galle Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 29 1 Q What kind of cars do you own personally? 2 A I got a Kia Sorento and a F250 true cab truck and a 3 F150 that's an older truck. 4 Q Any other automobiles or trucks? 5 A No, sir. 6 Q Does your wife own those vehicles as well? 7 A No. 8 Q Did you ever take money out of any of your drivers 9 checks to pay for worker's comp insurance? 10 A No. 11 Q Did Chris Thompson ever take money out of what he paid 12 you to pay for worker's compensation insurance? 13 A No. 14 Q Did the terms of your agreement with Chris Thompson 15 ever change at any time during the course of your 16 relationship? 17 A No. 18 Q So he took the same percentage out when you started as 19 he did from your last load? 20 A Same percentage out -- same percentage out. I would 21 say -- you say take the same percentage out. I would word 22 it as I was paid by the ton, but that would change based off 23 of fuel cost or what he was being compensated with because 24 it did go up and down. But I don't see it as -- you say 25 take something out. | 31 1 (Where upon an off the record 2 discussion took place.) 3 Q Do you have a copy of that certificate dated 10/18/2010 4 or do you need -- 5 A I got it. 6 Q Now, in October of 2010, did you get a new policy 7 through the Swap Fox Agency for worker's comp insurance? 8 A I'm sorry. Which one am I looking at? 9 Q Your looking at the one dated 10/18/2010. 10 A Okay. 11 Q That's the one that we're dealing with here. That's 12 the most important one, in my opinion. 13 Did you get a new policy of insurance that year in 14 October of 2010 for worker's comp; do you remember that? 15 A A new? 16 Q Yes. 17 A 10th, the 18th, 10/18/10, did I get a new? 18 Q Let me go through this certificate with you. This 19 purports to show that the document was created on 20 October 18, 2010 by someone at Swap Fox Agency, and it has 21 Insure B Travelers Insurance or Indemnity and Affiliates. I 22 can't read, it and that's where your worker's comp policy 23 would be in effect. That insure B up there at the top is 24 referencing this right here where it says binder and then 25 these dates of effective coverage down here, 10/8/10 through |
| 30 1 Q So when it changed, how did you find out that it 2 changed? 3 A (I saw it on the -- I mean, I got the load sheet -- the 4 statement.) 5 Q When you got paid, that's when you learned? 6 A Correct. 7 Q There was no negotiating those factors? 8 A No, sir. 9 Q What Chris Thompson paid you, you got; is that correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q And you didn't have any say so in that? 12 A No, sir. 13 Q And you said earlier your job was to provide insurance 14 coverage, and his job was to provide the trailer? 15 A Well, I mean, no. My job was to provide a truck and a 16 driver. 17 Q Okay. 18 A But under the terms, I was supposed to make sure I keep 19 my insurance, you know, current. 20 Q And that's your liability insurance and your worker's 21 comp insurance? 22 A Correct. 23 Q I believe Mr. Fisher showed you a certificate of 24 insurance earlier. I don't think we made it an exhibit. 25 There's one dated 10/18/2010.                                                                                                     | 32 1 10/8/11. Did you go get a new insurance policy around that 2 time? 3 A If that's the 10/18/10 -- I would -- are you saying 4 this is the time when I was renewing it? 5 Q I'm asking you. Did you renew a policy, or did you get 6 a new one or what? 7 A I renew it every year, so if I'm renewing it every year 8 and it starts on the 10th, the 8th, the 10, 10th the 2nd and 9 then this date up here is -- I would have believed that this 10 is the beginning of a new policy. 11 Q It shows binder down there. Did you ever have an 12 actual policy issued to you from Travelers? 13 A I'm pretty sure I would have had to. I mean -- 14 Q When did you make your payments to Swap Fox? 15 A Oh, wow, I mean, normally there would have been a 16 deposit made, and I would be making monthly payments. 17 Q So around the time, you either renewed or get a new 18 policy you make a deposit; is that correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q And then from the rest of the year you make -- 21 A Correct. 22 Q -- equal monthly installments; is that correct? 23 A Pretty much. 24 Q And there were times in the past where you would fall 25 behind?                |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 33 1 A Correct. 2 Q But someone from Swap Fox would contact you and let you 3 know and then you would catch up, correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q Now, the worker's comp commission is showing a -- that 6 this policy was canceled sometime in February of 2011. Now, 7 between October of 2010 and February of 2011, were you 8 missing payments to Swap Fox or Travelers? 9 A Okay. Say that one more time, please. 10 Q Between October of 2010 and February of 2011, that's 11 about what, four months? 12 A Okay. Between October -- go ahead now. 13 Q Did you miss any of your payments? 14 A For my worker's comp, I'm going to say I really don't 15 recall missing any payments, but if worker's comp says -- 16 well, not worker's comp but if they say my insurance lapsed 17 in January, I would have to say obviously I didn't make a 18 payment. 19 Q Are you telling me you know that you didn't make a 20 payment or just because this paperwork, which is not 21 binding, says it. 22 A Exactly. 23 Q Are you relying on these documents? 24 A Yeah, pretty much. 25 Q Solely for your recollection? | 35 1 Chris Thompson? 2 A I myself don't send certificates over to Chris 3 Thompson. My agent would send it over to Chris Thompson. 4 Q Did you ever ask your agent to do that? 5 A In the past I think one time I did. It wasn't in the 6 last year. I think one time before my -- he questioned me 7 on my insurance renewal date, and I called my agent and say 8 could you send over Chris Thompson a current, you know, 9 certificate of insurance, but that was -- that had probably 10 happened two years plus ago. 11 Q How long was your agreement with Chris Thompson 12 supposed to last? 13 A He never -- we never discussed a time frame for how 14 long it was supposed to last. 15 Q How long did it actually last? 16 A I'm going to say about three and a half years. 17 Q So for three and a half years, you two companies never 18 had a written agreement? 19 A No, sir. 20 Q Three and a half years you two companies, both of your 21 LLCs, never put anything on paper to show that you two had a 22 contract with each other? 23 A No, sir. 24 Q And nothing changed since three and a half years before 25 the contract terminated, as far as the terms of contract are |
| 34 1 A Pretty much. 2 Q Are you telling me that it's possible you missed a 3 payment or two? 4 A I'm saying it is possible. 5 Q Is it probable? 6 A Probable? If that the same meaning as saying possible, 7 I'm going to say it's possible. 8 Q Did you ever get a call from anyone at Swap Fox during 9 that time? 10 A No, sir. 11 Q Did you ever get a letter from anyone at Swap Fox 12 during that time telling you your policy was getting ready 13 to lapse? 14 A No, sir. 15 Q Did you ever get a letter from Travelers during that 16 period of time telling you your policy was getting ready to 17 lapse and what you could do to cure that? 18 A I don't recall it, no, sir. 19 Q Did you ever get any of your premiums refunded to you? 20 A No, sir. 21 Q Neither Travelers nor Swap Fox ever wrote you a check 22 for any worker's compensation insurance you paid for, but 23 they weren't providing coverage for you? 24 A No, sir. 25 Q How frequently would you send certificates over to                                                                                                   | 36 1 concerned; is that correct? 2 A Yes, sir, that's what I am saying. 3 Q After Chris Thompson terminated the contract with your 4 company, did your company receive full payment for the work 5 it had already performed? 6 A If you are saying if anything was owed to me from him, 7 did I receive it, then I would say, yes. 8 Q Was it effective immediately, or did you get a 30 day 9 grace period? 10 A Immediately. 11 Q And you would make your insurance payments to Swap Fox 12 Agency? 13 A Yes, sir, sometimes, yes. 14 Q Sometimes? 15 A Yes, sometimes. 16 Q Where would you make them if you weren't making them 17 directly to Swap Fox? 18 A If I'm not mistaken it would have been to like a 19 finance company maybe. I don't know if it was actually to 20 Towers or Zurich, but sometimes it would be like a finance 21 company that would be established, and I would pay them. 22 Q Where is the last time you remember making payments to a 23 finance company? 24 A I would have to go and look at my records. Right this 25 second I --                                                                                                                           |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander & Calte Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquiresolutions.com

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 37 1 Q Just to the best of your recollection? 2 A I would -- I would believe in this -- in the early 3 portion of this year because like I said, I know I was 4 making payments. 5 Q So you were making payments in 2011? 6 A 2011. 7 Q It's 2011. 8 A Yes. 9 Q It is your testimony that you never received notice of 10 a cancellation? 11 A No, sir. 12 Q By notice of cancellation, I mean a letter from the 13 insurance company or the agent saying that they were getting 14 ready to cancel your policy unless you followed up with the 15 payment? 16 A It's a possibility they might have sent me something. 17 Also when I was aware of a possible lapse then, I would 18 bring it current. In this particular case here, I was not 19 aware that my insurance had lapsed, and any other time if my 20 insurance was about to lapse, Chris Thompson would have been 21 all over me because he did not want my insurance to lapse, 22 so I can't say I didn't make a mistake. What I can say is 23 that ever since I dealing with Swap Fox and ever since I've 24 been running for Chris, I never had this problem, and when 25 he brought it to my attention, I didn't have nothing to say.                                                                                                                                              | 39 1 deal with my policy. They might have had a more faster, 2 efficient way of dealing with the situation. 3 Q Well, there's this note here -- cancellations, 4 reinstatements, non renewals and it shows on 1/6/11 that 5 your policy was canceled, and it says by the request of the 6 finance company? 7 MR. KILLEN: Can you tell him where that is, Joe? 8 MFL FISHER: Yeah. 9 Q It says TOC inquiry on line with South Carolina. This 10 is something to show whether or not you had insurance. But 11 anyway, the finance company, if you don't make a payment to 12 the finance company, does your coverage lapse? 13 A I would say I'm sure it would lapse. I guess, that's 14 an answer. 15 Q Do you know what finance agency it was that you were 16 dealing with at this time? 17 A I would have to really go back and talk to my agent. I 18 can find that out. 19 Q It would be worth it for you to do that. Thank you, 20 sir. I don't have any other questions. 21 EXAMINATION BY MR. KILLEN: 22 Q Quick follow up. Did you ever sign a contract with the 23 finance agency? 24 A You know something, I have to go back and look at my 25 documents because like I said, normally when I start the |
| 38 1 Q "He" being who? 2 A Chris Thompson. 3 Q And he didn't know about this problem until after the 4 accident, is that correct? 5 A Correct. 6 Q That's all the questions I have. 7 EXAMINATION BY MR. FISHER: 8 Q Let me ask you one, Mr. Smalls: The finance company, 9 whenever you say sometimes you made insurance payments 10 through a finance company and not directly to Swap Fox, what 11 finance company would that be, and how did that work? 12 A The best way I can put it is Swap Fox was my insurance 13 agent. Normally, when I would go and establish a insurance 14 binder, I would have to put "X" amount of dollars down, and 15 then it would say, okay, well, to the balance on this -- if 16 the policy was $5,000, I might put down $2,000. They might 17 finance 3,000. I would give Swap Fox a check and then what 18 would happen would be I would either make payments to a -- 19 normally, I don't think it was the actual insurance, I think 20 it was to like a finance company. And then if I got in 21 trouble, you know, they would say, Hey, you know your 22 insurance is about to cancel. I would talk to my insurance 23 agent and say, Hey, what's the deal, well, you got "X" 24 amount of time. Sometimes I would just cut them a direct 25 check, you know, and they would deal with it however they | 40 1 policy I would sign "X" amount of papers, and I'd have to go 2 back and try to start looking at all those things to verify 3 that. 4 MR. FISHER: Okay. Thank you. That's all. 5 (The deposition was concluded at 6 12:10 p.m. November, 14th, 7 2011.) 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Gallo Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

Sedrick Smalls

November 14, 2011

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 1 STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA)2 : C-E-R-T-I-F-I-C-A-T-E3 COUNTY OF DORCHESTER)4 I, Laci B. Bearden, Court Reporter and Notary Public,5 certify that I did have Sedrick Smalls to appear before me at6 11:00 a.m. on Monday, November 14th, 2011, at the law7 offices of George Sink, P.A., 7011 Rivers Avenue, N.8 Charleston, South Carolina; that the witness was sworn and9 cautioned to tell the truth, the pages constitute a true and10 accurate transcript of the testimony given at that time and11 place.12 I further certify that I am not of counsel or kin to13 any of the parties to this cause of action, nor am I14 interested in any manner in its outcome.15 IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and16 seal this the 14th day of November, 2011.17181920 Laci B. Bearden21 Notary Public for South Carolina22 My Commission Expires: September 29, 2021232425 | 41 |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |           |

ESQUIRE
an Alexander Calio Company

Toll Free: 888.486.4044

2700 Centennial Tower
101 Marietta Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
www.esquireolutions.com

CERTIFICATE OF LIABILITY INSURANCE

 OPID PT
JJSTRUC

DATE (MM/DD/YYYY)

10/18/10

|                                                                                                                          |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                             |               |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|
| PRODUCERSwamp Fox Agency, Inc.P.O. Box 522Pinopolis SC 29469Phone: 843-761-3999 Fax: 843-761-6186 |  | THIS CERTIFICATE IS ISSUED AS A MATTER OF INFORMATION ONLY AND CONFERS NO RIGHTS UPON THE CERTIFICATE HOLDER. THIS CERTIFICATE DOES NOT AMEND, EXTEND OR ALTER THE COVERAGE AFFORDED BY THE POLICIES BELOW. |               |
| INSUREDJJS TRUCKING, LLC137-A Gordon St.Charleston SC 29403                                       |  | INSURERS AFFORDING COVERAGE                                                                                                                                                                          | NAIC # |
|                                                                                                                          |  | INSURER A: Tower Ins. Co. of New York                                                                                                                                                                       |               |
|                                                                                                                          |  | INSURER B: Travelers Indem. & Affiliates                                                                                                                                                                    |               |
|                                                                                                                          |  | INSURER C:                                                                                                                                                                                                  |               |
|                                                                                                                          |  | INSURER D:                                                                                                                                                                                                  |               |
|                                                                                                                          |  | INSURER E:                                                                                                                                                                                                  |               |

COVERAGES

THE POLICIES OF INSURANCE LISTED BELOW HAVE BEEN ISSUED TO THE INSURED NAMED ABOVE FOR THE POLICY PERIOD INDICATED. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY REQUIREMENT, TERM OR CONDITION OF ANY CONTRACT OR OTHER DOCUMENT WITH RESPECT TO WHICH THIS CERTIFICATE MAY BE ISSUED OR MAY PERTAIN, THE INSURANCE AFFORDED BY THE POLICIES DESCRIBED HEREIN IS SUBJECT TO ALL THE TERMS, EXCLUSIONS AND CONDITIONS OF SUCH POLICIES. AGGREGATE LIMITS SHOWN MAY HAVE BEEN REDUCED BY PAID CLAIMS.

| INSURANCE TYPE | TYPE OF INSURANCE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | POLICY NUMBER | POLICY EFFECTIVE DATE (MM/DD/YYYY) | POLICY EXPIRATION DATE (MM/DD/YYYY) | LIMITS                                                                                                                                                                             |
|----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| A              | GENERAL LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> CLAIMS MADE <input type="checkbox"/> OCCURGEN'L AGGREGATE LIMIT APPLIES PER:<input type="checkbox"/> POLICY <input type="checkbox"/> PROJECT <input type="checkbox"/> LOC             |               |                                    |                                     | EACH OCCURRENCE $DAMAGE TO RENTED PREMISES (Ea occurrence) $MED EXP (Any one person) $PERSONAL & ADV INJURY $GENERAL AGGREGATE $PRODUCTS - COMPOSP AGG $ |
|                | AUTOMOBILE LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> ANY AUTO<input type="checkbox"/> ALL OWNED AUTOS<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> SCHEDULED AUTOS<input type="checkbox"/> HIRED AUTOS<input type="checkbox"/> NON-OWNED AUTOS<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> UM/UM 75,000 | BAPDF0280410  | 10/02/10                           | 10/02/11                            | COMBINED SINGLE LIMIT (Ea accident) $1,000,000BODILY INJURY (Per person) $BODILY INJURY (Per accident) $PROPERTY DAMAGE (Per accident) $                           |
|                | GARAGE LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> ANY AUTO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |               |                                    |                                     | AUTO ONLY - EA ACCIDENT $OTHER THAN EA ACC $AUTO ONLY - AGG $                                                                                                           |
|                | EXCESS / UMBRELLA LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> OCCUR <input type="checkbox"/> CLAIMS MADECOINSURABLERETENTION $                                                                                                                                                                    |               |                                    |                                     | EACH OCCURRENCE $AGGREGATE $$$$                                                                                                                               |
| B              | WORKERS COMPENSATION AND EMPLOYERS' LIABILITYANY PROPRIETOR/PARTNER/EXECUTIVE OFFICER/MEMBER EXCLUDED (Mandatory in WA)If yes, describe under SPECIAL PROVISIONS belowY/N <input type="checkbox"/>                                                                                       | BINDER        | 10/08/10                           | 10/08/11                            | EL EACH ACCIDENT $500,000EL DISEASE - EA EMPLOYEE $500,000EL DISEASE - POLICY LIMIT $500,000                                                                            |
|                | OTHER                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |               |                                    |                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                    |

DESCRIPTION OF OPERATIONS / LOCATIONS / VEHICLES / EXCLUSIONS ADDED BY ENDORSEMENT / SPECIAL PROVISIONS

CERTIFICATE HOLDER

|                                                                                        |         |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| CHRIS THOMPSON SERVICES, LLCFAX: 688-5084P.O. BOX 3377SUMMERVILLE SC 29484 | CHRISTH |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|

CANCELLATION

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| SHOULD ANY OF THE ABOVE DESCRIBED POLICIES BE CANCELLED BEFORE THE EXPIRATION DATE THEREOF, THE ISSUING INSURER WILL ENDEAVOR TO MAIL 10 DAYS WRITTEN NOTICE TO THE CERTIFICATE HOLDER NAMED TO THE LEFT, BUT FAILURE TO DO SO SHALL IMPOSE NO OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY OF ANY KIND UPON THE INSURER, ITS AGENTS OR REPRESENTATIVES.AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVEDAVID W. HAYES |  |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|

State of South Carolina

1333 Main St, Suite 500
P.O. Box 1715
Columbia, S.C. 29202-

Tel: (803) 737-5700
Fax: (803) 737-5768
www.wcc.sc.gov

Workers' Compensation Commission

March 30, 2012

F. Reid Warder, Jr.
Wood & Warder LLC
P O Box 20550
Charleston, SC 29413

Carrier Code No. 00000

Carrier File No. NRHR20110920

Re: Claim file:

WCC File No. 1112328

SAMUEL ROSE v. CHRIS THOMPSON SERVICES, LLC et al

Date of Injury: 08/10/2011

Compliance file:

WCC File No. X110953

SCWCC v. JJS Trucking LLC

Dear Mr. Warder:

This is in response to your call to me yesterday in which you indicated my deposition that was scheduled for today in Columbia has been cancelled. You said in lieu of my deposition you would accept a letter from me that states the Compliance Division's position regarding whether or not Travelers Indemnity insured JJS Trucking, LLC on the date of the accident, which was 8/10/2011. The position of the Compliance Division is it did not. The documentation of this is presented below.

The Compliance Division's investigation determined that JJS Trucking, LLC is a limited liability company, as evidenced by SC Secretary of State registered agent information shown as Exhibit A.

Cedric Smalls, owner of JJS Trucking, LLC, responded to the Compliance Division's request for information by completing the Employer Questionnaire shown as Exhibit B. The questionnaire has attachments that include certificates of insurance indicating Travelers provided coverage to JJS Trucking, LLC from 10/8/2010 to 10/8/2011, and Zurich provided coverage to JJS Trucking, LLC from 8/24/2010 to 8/24/2011. However, both Travelers and Zurich denied they provided coverage to JJS Trucking, LLC on the date of the accident, as evidenced by the denial letters shown respectively as Exhibit C and Exhibit D.

The insurance records of the Commission indicate that Travelers Indemnity Company provided coverage to JJS Trucking, LLC from 10/8/2010 to 2/5/2011 and from 9/23/2011 to 11/10/2011, as evidenced by the proof of coverage documents shown respectively as Exhibit E and Exhibit F.

Accordingly, the position of the Compliance Division is that Travelers Indemnity did not provide coverage to JJS Trucking, LLC, on the date of the accident, and my recommendation is Travelers Indemnity should be released as a carrier of record for the claim.

Further, the position of the Compliance Division is that JJS Trucking, LLC was subject to the SC Workers' Compensation Act and uninsured from 2/5/2011 until 9/23/2011, and from 11/10/2011 through the date of this letter. JJS Trucking, LLC came under the Act by obtaining insurance, lapsed or did not renew its policy, but continued under the Act. In order to come out from under the Act, an eligible employer -- one that does not now regularly have four employees -- must file a Form 38 to withdraw from the Act. That was not done. (See R67-403 and R67404.) The issue as to whether the employer was also subject to the Act by regularly having four or more employees has not been addressed in this compliance action, but that could be the case as well.

If you have questions or comments about the above, please call me directly,

Sincerely,

Garry Smith
Compliance Division, Director
803-737-5707

Enclosures: Exhibit A - F

c:
JJS TRUCKING, LLC
137-A GORDON STREET
CHARLESTON, SC 29403

Kirsten L. Barr, Esquire
Trask & Howell, LLC
PO Box 2167
Mt. Pleasant, SC 29465

Joseph B. Fisher, Esquire
George Sink, PA
P O Box 63506
North Charleston, SC 29419-3506

Timothy B. Killen, Esquire
100 Executive Center Drive Suite 101
Santee Bldg
Columbia, SC 29210

JJS TRUCKING, LLC

*Note: This online database was last updated on 10/3/2011 6:01:29 PM.
See our Disclaimer.*

|                                               |                       |
|-----------------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| DOMESTIC / FOREIGN:                    | Domestic              |
| STATUS:                                | Good Standing         |
| STATE OF INCORPORATION / ORGANIZATION: | SOUTH CAROLINA Profit |

REGISTERED AGENT INFORMATION

|                               |                     |
|-------------------------------|---------------------|
| REGISTERED AGENT NAME: | CEDRIC SMALLS       |
| ADDRESS:               | 137-A GORDON STREET |
| CITY:                  | CHARLESTON          |
| STATE:                 | SC                  |
| ZIP:                   | 29403               |
| SECOND ADDRESS:        |                     |

|                        |            |
|------------------------|------------|
| FILE DATE:      | 07/22/2005 |
| EFFECTIVE DATE: | 07/22/2005 |
| DISSOLVED DATE: | //         |

Corporation History Records

| CODE         | FILE DATE  | COMMENT | Document |
|--------------|------------|---------|----------|
| Domestic LLC | 07/22/2005 | AT WILL |          |

Disclaimer: The South Carolina Secretary of State's Business Filings database is provided as a convenience to our customers to research information on business entities filed with our office. Updates are uploaded every 48 hours. Users are advised that the Secretary of State, the State of South Carolina or any agency, officer or employee of the State of South Carolina does not guarantee the accuracy, reliability or timeliness of such information, as it is the responsibility of the business entity to inform the Secretary of State of any updated information. While every effort is made to insure the reliability of this information, portions may be incorrect or not current. Any person or entity who relies on information obtained from this database does so at their own risk.

1333 Main St, Suite 500
P.O. Box 1715
Columbia, S.C. 29202-1715

Tel: (803) 737-5700
Fax: (803) 737-1258
www.wcc.sc.gov

Workers' Compensation Commission

September 20, 2011

JJS TRUCKING, LLC
137-A GORDON STREET
CHARLESTON, SC 29403

Re: SAMUEL ROSE v. JJS TRUCKING, LLC
WCC File No. X110953
Date of Injury: 08/10/2011

Dear JJS TRUCKING, LLC:

A workers' compensation claim has been filed on behalf of the above-named claimant. The defendant in the caption is stated to have been the employer. Additional information is required to determine if insurance coverage for JJS TRUCKING, LLC exists. Please furnish the following information within five (5) days from the date of this letter.

Name of insurance agent: Swamp Fox Agency
Agent's phone number: 843-761-3999
Insurance carrier: Travelers
Policy number: 0216-CB-EQ53181-K
Name as it appears on policy: JJS Trucking, LLC
Effective dates of policy: OCTOBER 8, 2010 to JANUARY 4, 2011
Employer's FEIN: 71-0986219
Name of person completing form: Cedric Smalls
Telephone number: _____

If you have any questions you may contact me at 803-737-5711 or MFelton@wcc.sc.gov.

Sincerely,

Michael Felton

Michael Felton
Compliance Investigator

Enclosure: Questionnaire

SCWCC

SEP 29 11

INSURANCE &
ACTICAL SERVICES

Questionnaire for Uninsured Employer

Re: SAMUEL ROSE v. JJS TRUCKING, LLC
WCC File No. X110953
Date of Injury: 08/10/2011

1. Official business name: JJS Trucking, LLC
2. Official business address: 137-A Gordon Street Chas. SC. 29403
3. Owner(s) of business: Cedric Small
4. Number of employees in SC at time of alleged accident: 4
5. Number of subcontractors in SC at time of alleged accident: 0
6. Business FEIN: _____
7. Was the above-named claimant the employee of the employer at the time of the alleged accident? ☒ Yes. ☐ No.

If applicable: How much was the claimant paid?

Hourly gross N/A or weekly gross N/A Number of hours the claimant worked per week: driver is paid by loads

8. Was the business providing service or subcontracting for an "upstream" employer or general contractor when the alleged injury occurred? If so, please provide the business name and address:

Chris Thompson Services, LLC
106 New Hope Drive
Summerville, S.C. 29483

9. Are there any extenuating circumstances or facts about this claim and accident that need to be made known? If so, please describe:

JJS employee was found not at fault at time of accident. Enclosed is a copy of accident report.

10. Name of person completing form: Cedric Small
11. Telephone #: 843-270-4031

SCWCC

SEP 29 '11

INSURANCE &
MEDICAL SERVICE

Mail FR-10 to: Office of Financial Responsibility
SC Department of Public Safety
PO Box 1498, Columbia, SC 29218

SOUTH CAROLINA DEPARTMENT

FR-10 (REV. 07)

NOTICE

Date: 08-10-2011
Time: 0540
Class: 10
Insurance: 1. Primary 2. Secondary 3. SC Primary 4. PP

Class: 10
Insurance: 1. Primary 2. Secondary 3. SC Primary 4. PP

To Vehicle
Owner/
Operator

Failure to comply could result in appropriate action under 56-1 of laws of S.C. as amended, if vehicle subject to registration in S.C. the Department must suspend your driving and/or registration privileges until you have been met under the above sections of law.

E-079899

Owner's Full Name
ROSE

SAHUEL A

E-079900

Owner's Full Name
CLARK

ROBBIE

Unit
01

Sex
M

Race
B

Birth Date
08-23-1970

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Driver's License #

Class

Insurance Company
TOVER INS CO

Policy #

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Sex
M

Race
B

Birth Date
09-12-1982

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Driver's License #

Class

Insurance Company
TOVER INS CO

Policy #

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
CHARLES THOMPSON SERVICES LLC

Address
108 NEW HOPK DR

City, State, & Zip
SUMMERVILLE

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

State
SC

Year
1993

Body
TR

Vehicle Make
INTL

VIN #

Owner's Full Name
235 TRUCKING LLC

Address
137 GORDON ST APT A

City, State, & Zip
CHARLESTON

State
SC

Contributed To Collection
Yes

Unit
02

Year
1999

Body
TR

CERTIFICATE OF LIABILITY INSURANCE

 OP ID PT
 JJSTRUC

 DATE (MM/DD/YY)
 10/18/10

|                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ISSUANCESwamp Fox Agency, Inc.P.O. Box 522Pinopolis SC 29469Phone: 843-761-3999 Fax: 843-751-6186 | THIS CERTIFICATE IS ISSUED AS A MATTER OF INFORMATION ONLY AND CONFERS NO RIGHTS UPON THE CERTIFICATE HOLDER. THIS CERTIFICATE DOES NOT AMEND, EXTEND OR ALTER THE COVERAGE AFFORDED BY THE POLICIES BELOW. |
| INSUREDJVS TRUCKING, LLC137-A Gordon St.Charleston SC 29403                                           | INSURERS AFFORDING COVERAGEINSURER A: Tower Ins. Co. of New YorkINSURER B: Travelers Indem. & AffiliatesINSURER C:INSURER D:INSURER E:                                                  |
|                                                                                                                   | NAC#                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

COVERAGES

THE POLICIES OF INSURANCE LISTED BELOW HAVE BEEN ISSUED TO THE INSURED NAMED ABOVE FOR THE POLICY PERIOD INDICATED. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY REQUIREMENT, TERM OR CONDITION OF ANY CONTRACT OR OTHER DOCUMENT WITH RESPECT TO WHICH THIS CERTIFICATE MAY BE ISSUED ON MAY PURCHASE, THE INSURANCE AFFORDED BY THE POLICIES DESCRIBED HEREIN IS SUBJECT TO ALL THE TERMS, EXCLUSIONS AND CONDITIONS OF SUCH POLICIES. AGGREGATE LIMITS SHOWN MAY HAVE BEEN REDUCED BY PAID CLAIMS.

| DESCRIPTIONLTR INSPR | TYPE OF INSURANCE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | POLICY NUMBER | POLICY STARTDATE (MM/DD/YY) | POLICY EXPIRATIONDATE (MM/DD/YY) | LIMITS                                                                                                                                                                            |
|--------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                          | GENERAL LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> CLAIMS MADE <input type="checkbox"/> OCCUR<input type="checkbox"/> CIVIL AGGREGATE LIMIT APPLIES PER POLICY <input type="checkbox"/> POLICY <input type="checkbox"/> YEAR <input type="checkbox"/> LOC |               |                                 |                                      | EACH OCCURRENCEDAMAGE TO RENTEDEQUIPMENT (By occurrence)MED EXP (Any one person)PERSONAL & ADV INJURYGENERAL AGGREGATEPRODUCTS-COMP/OP AGG                |
| A                        | AUTOMOBILE LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> ANY AUTO<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> ALL OWNED AUTOS<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> SCHEDULED AUTOS<input type="checkbox"/> HIRED AUTOS<input type="checkbox"/> NON-OWNED AUTOS<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> UM/UTM 75,000  | BAPOF0280410  | 10/02/10                        | 10/02/11                             | COMBINED SINGLE LIMIT(Per accident)$1,000,000BODILY INJURY(Per person)$BODILY INJURY(Per accident)$PROPERTY DAMAGE(Per accident)$ |
|                          | GARAGE LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> ANY AUTO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |               |                                 |                                      | AUTO ONLY - EA ACCIDENT$OTHER THANAUTO ONLYEA ACC$AGG$                                                                                             |
|                          | EXCESS / UMBRELLA LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> OCCUR <input type="checkbox"/> CLAIMS MADE<input type="checkbox"/> COINSURANCERETENTION $                                                                                                                                                        |               |                                 |                                      | EACH OCCURRENCE$AGGREGATE$$$$                                                                                                                        |
| B                        | WORKERS COMPENSATION           AND EMPLOYERS' LIABILITYANY PROPRIETOR/PARTNER/EXECUTIVEOFFICER/OWNER EXCLUDED?(Secondary to WC)If yes, describe underSPECIAL PROVISIONS belowOTHER                                                                                                   | BINDER        | 10/08/10                        | 10/08/11                             | EL EACH ACCIDENT$500,000EL DISEASE - EA EMPLOYEE$500,000EL DISEASE - POLICY LIMIT$500,000                                                                  |

DESCRIPTION OF OPERATIONS / LOCATIONS / VEHICLES / EXCLUSIONS ADDED BY ENDORSEMENT / SPECIAL PROVISIONS

|                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| CERTIFICATE HOLDERCHRIS THOMPSON SERVICES, LLCFAX: 688-5084P.O. BOX 3377SUMMERVILLE SC 29484 | CANCELLATIONSHOULD ANY OF THE ABOVE DESCRIBED POLICIES BE CANCELLED BEFORE THE EXPIRATION DATE THEREON, THE ISSUING INSURER WILL ENDORSE TO MAIL 10 DAYS WRITTEN NOTICE TO THE CERTIFICATE HOLDER NAMED TO THE LEFT, BUT FAILURE TO DO SO SHALL IMPOSE NO OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY OF ANY KIND UPON THE INSURER, ITS AGENTS OR REPRESENTATIVES.AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVEDAVID W. HAYES |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

ACORD 25 (2008/01)

© 1988-2008 ACORD CORPORATION. All rights reserved.

The ACORD name and logo are registered marks of ACORD

SCWCC

OCT 18 '11

INSURANCE &
MEDICAL SERVICES

CERTIFICATE OF LIABILITY INSURANCE

 OP 10 JP
JJSTRUC

 DATE (MM/DD/YYYY)
09/29/11

| PRODUCERKamp Fox Agency, Inc.P.O. Box 522Pinopolis SC 29469Phone: 843-761-3999 Fax: 843-761-6186 | THIS CERTIFICATE IS ISSUED AS A MATTER OF INFORMATION ONLY AND CONFERS NO RIGHTS UPON THE CERTIFICATE HOLDER. THIS CERTIFICATE DOES NOT AMEND, EXTEND OR ALTER THE COVERAGE AFFORDED BY THE POLICIES BELOW.                                                                                                                  |                             |        |                                    |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|--------|------------------------------------|--|-----------|--|-----------|--|-----------|--|-----------|--|
| INSUREDJJS TRUCKING, LLC137-A Gordon St.Charleston SC 29403                                          | <table border="1"> <tr> <th>INSURERS AFFORDING COVERAGE</th> <th>NAIC #</th> </tr> <tr> <td>INSURER A Zurich American Ins. Co.</td> <td></td> </tr> <tr> <td>INSURER B</td> <td></td> </tr> <tr> <td>INSURER C</td> <td></td> </tr> <tr> <td>INSURER D</td> <td></td> </tr> <tr> <td>INSURER E</td> <td></td> </tr> </table> | INSURERS AFFORDING COVERAGE | NAIC # | INSURER A Zurich American Ins. Co. |  | INSURER B |  | INSURER C |  | INSURER D |  | INSURER E |  |
| INSURERS AFFORDING COVERAGE                                                                                             | NAIC #                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                             |        |                                    |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |
| INSURER A Zurich American Ins. Co.                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                             |        |                                    |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |
| INSURER B                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                             |        |                                    |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |
| INSURER C                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                             |        |                                    |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |
| INSURER D                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                             |        |                                    |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |
| INSURER E                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                             |        |                                    |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |           |  |

COVERAGES

THE POLICIES OF INSURANCE LISTED BELOW HAVE BEEN ISSUED TO THE INSURED NAMED ABOVE FOR THE POLICY PERIOD INDICATED. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY REQUIREMENT, TERM OR CONDITION OF ANY CONTRACT OR OTHER DOCUMENT WITH RESPECT TO WHICH THIS CERTIFICATE MAY BE ISSUED OR MAY PERTAIN, THE INSURANCE AFFORDED BY THE POLICIES DESCRIBED HEREIN IS SUBJECT TO ALL THE TERMS, EXCLUSIONS AND CONDITIONS OF SUCH POLICIES. AGGREGATE LIMITS SHOWN MAY HAVE BEEN REDUCED BY PAID CLAIMS.

| INSR MODU LTR REGR | TYPE OF INSURANCE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | POLICY NUMBER   | POLICY EFFECTIVE DATE (MM/DD/YYYY) | POLICY EXPIRATION DATE (MM/DD/YYYY) | LIMITS                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|--------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                    | GENERAL LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> CLAIMS MADE <input type="checkbox"/> OCCURGEN'L AGGREGATE LIMIT APPLIES PER:<input type="checkbox"/> POLICY <input type="checkbox"/> PRO-ECT <input type="checkbox"/> LOC |                 |                                    |                                     | EACH OCCURRENCEDAMAGES TO REALTED PREMISES (Per occurrence)MED EXP (Any one person)PERSONAL & ADV INJURYGENERAL AGGREGATEPRODUCTS - COMPIOP AGG                                               |
|                    | AUTOMOBILE LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> ANY AUTO<input type="checkbox"/> ALL OWNED AUTOS<input type="checkbox"/> SCHEDULED AUTOS<input type="checkbox"/> NAMED AUTOS<input type="checkbox"/> NON-OWNED AUTOS                                                    |                 |                                    |                                     | COMBINED SINGLE LIMIT (Per accident)BODILY INJURY (Per person)BODILY INJURY (Per accident)PROPERTY DAMAGE (Per accident)                                                                              |
|                    | GARAGE LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> ANY AUTO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                 |                                    |                                     | AUTO ONLY - EA ACCIDENTOTHER THAN EA ACCAUTO ONLY - AGG                                                                                                                                                   |
|                    | EXCESS / UMBRELLA LIABILITY<input type="checkbox"/> OCCUR <input type="checkbox"/> CLAIMS MADE<input type="checkbox"/> DEDUCTIBLERETENTION $                                                                                                                                |                 |                                    |                                     | EACH OCCURRENCEAGGREGATE                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| A                  | WORKERS COMPENSATION AND EMPLOYERS' LIABILITYANY PROPRIETOR/PARTNER/EXECUTIVE OFFICER/ MEMBER EXCLUDED? (Mandatory in NY)If YES, describe under SPECIAL PROVISIONS belowOTHER                                                                                                | 6ZZUB9907M95409 | 08/24/10                           | 08/24/11                            | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> NO STATUS TOY/LIMITS <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> UTH-EREL. EACH ACCIDENT $100,000EL. DISEASE - EA EMPLOYEE $100,000EL. DISEASE - POLICY LIMIT $500,000 |

DESCRIPTION OF OPERATIONS / LOCATIONS / VEHICLES / EXCLUSIONS ADDED BY ENDORSEMENT / SPECIAL PROVISIONS
 THIS IS A REVISED CERTIFICATE FOR 08/24/10-08/24/11 TO PROVIDE POLICY NUMBER.

CERTIFICATE HOLDER

CHRISTE
 CHRIS THOMPSON SERVICES, LLC
 FAX: 843-688-5084
 P.O. BOX 3377
 SUMMERVILLE SC 29484

CANCELLATION

SHOULD ANY OF THE ABOVE DESCRIBED POLICIES BE CANCELLED BEFORE THE EXPIRATION DATE THEREOF, THE ISSUING INSURER WILL endeavor TO MAIL 30 DAYS WRITTEN NOTICE TO THE CERTIFICATE HOLDER NAMED TO THE LEFT, BUT FAILURE TO DO SO SHALL IMPOSE NO OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY OF ANY KIND UPON THE INSURER, ITS AGENTS OR REPRESENTATIVES.
 AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE
 DAVID W. HAYES

JORD 28 (2009/01)

© 1988-2009 ACORD CORPORATION. All rights reserved.

The ACORD name and logo are registered marks of ACORD

OCT 18 '11

 INSURANCE &
 MEDICAL SERVICES

The Travelers Indemnity Company
P.O. Box 473502
Charlotte, NC 28247-3502

09/08/2011

Samuel A. Rose
17 Ashton St
Charleston, SC 29403

Employer: Jjs Trucking, LLC
Employee: Samuel A. Rose
Date of Loss: 08/10/2011
File Number: 026-CB-EQS3181-K
State Case Num:

Dear Samuel Rose

We have completed our investigation of your Workers' Compensation claim and have decided that we cannot accept it as being compensable. There is a possibility that other insurance coverage is available to pay part or all of your related expenses if you should decide to pursue this.

It appears this injury occurred outside of the Travelers policy period of 10/08/10 to 01/04/11.

We regret that our decision could not be more favorable for you, but we are obligated to accept only the claims that are compensable under South Carolina state laws.

If you disagree with our decision, you may ask the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission for a hearing.

Sincerely,

Florence Hudson, CI Rep
(704)544-3584 Fax: (877)389-4687
(800)759-6194 Ext.
FGHUDSON@travelers.com
Workers' Compensation Unit

cc: George Sink P A Workers' Comp Commission
Jjs Trucking, LLC

C22948WSSC

SCWCC

OCT 18 '11

INSURANCE &
MEDICAL SERVICES

September 07, 2011

Attn: Joseph Fisher
George Sink, P.A.
PO BOX 63506
N. Charleston, SC 29419-3506

RE: Claim #: 2800076183
Employer: JJS Trucking LLC
Date of Loss: 08/10/2011
Claimant: Samuel Rose
SCWCC: Pending

Zurich North America

Claims

P.O. Box 968080
Schaumburg, IL 60196

Telephone (800) 808-6412
Fax (704) 551-3402
<http://www.zurichna.com>

Dear Mr. Fisher:

We recently received the enclosed Letter of Representation on the above mentioned case. However, we cannot locate any policy for of the above named employer. I have spoken with Cherri Hood of the Swamp Fox Agency who was the agency for the employer in the past. They indicated that they could not locate a WC Policy with Zurich either. They advised that JJS Trucking did have a WC Policy with Travelers Insurance until January 2011. Here is the policy information:

Travelers
Policy Number 7PKUB4408P09210
10/8/2010-10/8/2011
Cancelled 01/07/2011

At this time I request that your office amend any Form 50 that has been filed which indicates that Zurich is the correct carrier. Please also consider this letter our Notice of Denial on the above mentioned claim.

Very truly yours,
Zurich American Insurance

~~Brad Fauler~~

Brad Fauler
Claims Specialist
704-551-3481

Cc: South Carolina Workers Compensation Commission

CC: JJS Trucking Company
137-A Gordon Street
Charleston, SC 29403

SCWCC

OCT 18 '11

INSURANCE &
MEDICAL SERVICES

POC Online Inquiry

Main Page | Log Out

|        |          |         |
|--------|----------|---------|
| Policy | Provider | Reports |
|--------|----------|---------|

Policy and Coverage Provider*SOUTH CAROLINA

| Policy and Cov Provider                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Names and Addresses                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Names                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Addresses                                                                                                                 | Canc/Reinst/Non-Renew | Transaction History |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|---------------------|
| Policy Nbr: 7PKUB4408P09210Primary Insured Name: JJS TRUCKING LLCOrig Pol Nbr:Primary Insured Information:Primary Insured Name: JJS TRUCKING LLCStreet: 137 GORDON ST APT ACity: CHARLESTONState: SCZip Code: 294033598 | Cov Prvdr ID: 11347Orig Cov Prvdr ID:Coverage Provider Information:Cov Prvdr ID-Cov Prvdr Name: 11347 - TRAVELERS INDEMNITY COStreet: POB 3556City: ORLANDOState: FLZip Code: 328023558Group ID: 10804Branch: 138 | Pol Eff Dt: 10/08/2010Pol Exp Dt: 10/08/2011Primary Insured FEIN: 710986219Orig Pol Eff Dt:Orig Pol Rcvd Dt: 11/04/2010Prior Pol Nbr:State Cov Prvdr:State Eff Dt: 10/08/2010Gov Class: 7228Legal Nature of Insured: 10 - LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY (LLC)Wrap Up Pot: 2 - NON-WRAP-UP POLICYEmployee Leasing Code: 1 - NON-EMPLOYEE LEASING POLICYPol Type Plan: 02 - NORMAL ASSIGNED RISK POLICY - INCLUDING TX EMPLOYERS REJECTED RISK FUND - EXCLUDING MA PLAN TYPE CODES 06 AND 06Pol Type Cvrp: 01 - STANDARD WORKERS' COMPENSATION POLICY | Last Rcvd Dt: 05/08/2011Last Activity Dt: 05/06/2011State Exp Dt:State Cov Prvdr: |                       |                     |

© Copyright 2000 - 2011 National Council on Compensation Insurance, Inc. All Rights Reserved

My Preferences | Disclaimer

Coverage Cancelled
2/5/2011

Policy Provider Reports

Cancellations / Reinstatements / Non-Renewals

SOUTH CAROLINA

Policy and Cov Provider Names and Addresses Names Addresses Canc/Reinst/Non-Renew Transaction History

|                       |                  |                        |                        |
|-----------------------|------------------|------------------------|------------------------|
| Policy Nbr:           | 7PKUB4408P09210  | Pol Eff Dt: 10/08/2010 | Pol Exp Dt: 10/08/2011 |
| Primary Insured Name: | JJS TRUCKING LLC | Cov Prvdr ID: 11347    |                        |

| C/R/N Received Date | C/R/N Effective Date | Cancellation Notice Mail Date | Transaction Code   | Cancel Type             | Cancel Reason                                    |
|---------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| 01/08/2011          | 01/04/2011           | 01/08/2011                    | 01 - CANCELLATION  | 02 - CANCELLED PRO-RATA | 20 - CANCELLED AT REQUEST OF THE FINANCE COMPANY |
| 01/05/2011          | 01/12/2011           | 01/05/2011                    | 02 - REINSTATEMENT | 00                      | 00                                               |
| 12/05/2010          | 01/12/2011           | 12/05/2010                    | 01 - CANCELLATION  | 02 - CANCELLED PRO-RATA | 05 - NONPAYMENT OF PREMIUM                       |

© Copyright 2000 - 2011 National Council on Compensation Insurance, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

My Preferences | Disclaimer

Coverage Cancelled
 30 days after receipt by NCCI of the Cancellation document, making the effective date of Cancellation
 2/5/2011

POC Online Inquiry

Main Page | Log Out

Policy Provider Reports

Policy and Coverage Provider

SOUTH CAROLINA

| Policy and Cov Provider                                       | Names and Addresses                 | Names               | Addresses                                                   | Canc/Reinst/Non-Renew                | Transaction History          |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Policy Nbr:Primary Insured Name:                          | 7PKUB4856P01211JJS TRUCKING LLC | Cov Prvdr ID: 11347 | Pol Eff Dt: 09/23/2011                                      | Pol Exp Dt:Primary Insured FEIN: | 09/23/2012710986219      |
| Orig Pol Nbr:                                                 | Orig Cov Prvdr ID:                  | Orig Pol Eff Dt:    |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| Primary Insured Information:                                  |                                     |                     | Coverage Provider Information:                              |                                      |                              |
| Primary Insured Name: JJS TRUCKING LLC                        |                                     |                     | Cov Prvdr ID-Cov Prvdr Name: 11347 - TRAVELERS INDEMNITY CO |                                      |                              |
| Street: 137 GORDON ST APT A                                   |                                     |                     | Street: POB 3568                                            |                                      |                              |
| City: CHARLESTON                                              |                                     |                     | City: ORLANDO                                               |                                      |                              |
| State: SC                                                     |                                     |                     | State: FL                                                   |                                      |                              |
| Zip Code: 294033598                                           |                                     |                     | Zip Code: 328023568                                         |                                      |                              |
|                                                               |                                     |                     | Group ID: 10804                                             |                                      |                              |
|                                                               |                                     |                     | Branch: 138                                                 |                                      |                              |
| Orig Pol Rcvd Dt: 10/10/2011                                  |                                     | Orig POC Rcvd Dt:   | Last Rcvd Dt: 10/11/2011                                    |                                      | Last Activity Dt: 10/12/2011 |
| State Cov Prvdr:                                              |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| State Eff Dt: 09/23/2011                                      |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| Gov Class: 7228                                               |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| Legal Nature of Insured: 10 - LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY (LLC) |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| Wrap Up Pot: 2 - NON-WRAP-UP POLICY                           |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| Employee Leasing Code: 1 - NON-EMPLOYEE LEASING POLICY        |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| 02 - NORMAL ASSIGNED RISK POLICY - INCLUDING                  |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| TX EMPLOYERS REJECTED RISK FUND - EXCLUDING                   |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| MA PLAN TYPE CODES 05 AND 06                                  |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| Pol Type Plan:                                                |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| 01 - STANDARD WORKERS' COMPENSATION POLICY                    |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |
| Pol Type Cvr:                                                 |                                     |                     |                                                             |                                      |                              |

© Copyright 2000 - 2012 National Council on Compensation Insurance, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

My Preferences | Disclaimer

The Employer Came back into Compliance on 9/23/2011 but the Policy Cancelled on 11/10/2011

Main Page | Log Out

Policy Provider Reports

Cancellations / Reinstatements / Non-Renewals

SOUTH CAROLINA

Policy and Cov Provider Names and Addresses Names Addresses Canc/Reinst/Non-Renew Transaction History

Policy Nbr: 7PKUB4856P01211 Pol Eff Dt: 09/23/2011 Pol Exp Dt: 09/23/2012
Primary Insured Name: JJS TRUCKING LLC Cov Prvdr ID: 11347

| C/R/N Received Date | C/R/N Effective Date | Cancellation Notice Mail Date | Transaction Code  | Cancel Type               | Cancel Reason              |
|---------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------|
| 10/11/2011          | 10/04/2011           | 10/12/2011                    | 01 - CANCELLATION | 03 - CANCELLED SHORT-RATE | 03 - CANCELLED BY EMPLOYER |

© Copyright 2000 - 2012 National Council on Compensation Insurance, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

My Preferences | Disclaimer

Coverage Cancelled 30 days after receipt by NCCI of Cancellation Notice, making the effective date of
Cancellation 11/10/2011

STANDARD PREMIUM FINANCE MANAGEMENT CORP. PO BOX 522941 MIAMI, FLORIDA 33152-2941

CONTRACT NO. PENDING

PREMIUM FINANCE AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made on the date indicated between the secured and STANDARD PREMIUM FINANCE MANAGEMENT CORPORATION, a Florida Corporation hereinafter called "SPFMC", for the financing of the balance of the premiums on the following insurance policies:

| POLICY NUMBER                  | Full Name and Address of Insurance Company and Name & Address of General Agent to which policy premium is paid | FOR SPFMC USE ONLY                                                                                           | RECEIPTION DATE                                                   | POLICY EXPIRES                                              | TYPE OF COVERAGE                                                                                                    | PREMIUM                                                                 |
|--------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                | N.C.C.U.                                                                                                       |                                                                                                              | 10/18/2010                                                        | 10/18/2011                                                  | WORKERS COMP                                                                                                        | $4,000.00$0.00$0.00$0.00$0.00                      |
|                                | <input type="radio"/> Corporate <input type="radio"/> Auto <input type="radio"/> Monthly Billing               |                                                                                                              |                                                                   |                                                             |                                                                                                                     |                                                                         |
| (A) CASH PRICE (Total Premium) | (B) YOUR CASH DOWN PAYMENT                                                                                     | (C) AMOUNT FINANCEDThe Amount of credit provided to you or on your behalf. Unpaid balance of cash price. | (D) FINANCE CHARGEThe dollar amount the credit will cost you. | (E) DOCUMENTARY STAMPSState required documentary stamps | (F) Total of Payments (BALANCE DUE)The amount you will have paid after you have made all payments as scheduled. | (G) ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATEThe cost of your credit as a yearly rate. |
| 4560.00                        | 1140.00                                                                                                        | 3420.00                                                                                                      | 256.38                                                            | 0.00                                                        | 3679.38                                                                                                             | 17.85                                                                   |
| 4560.00                        | 1140.00                                                                                                        | 3420.00                                                                                                      | 256.38                                                            | 0.00                                                        | 3679.38                                                                                                             | 17.85                                                                   |

|                                                                                                                                          |                                |                    |                          |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|--------------------|--------------------------|
| State Documentary Stamp Tax Where Applicableby Law to the amount stated above will be paiddirectly to the Department of Revenue. | YOUR PAYMENT SCHEDULE WILL BE: |                    |                          |
|                                                                                                                                          | Amount of Each Payment         | Number of Payments | Payments are Due Monthly |
|                                                                                                                                          | 406.82                         | 9                  | Beginning 11/18/2010     |
| Each of the monthly payments is due on the same day of each succeeding month and paid in full.                                           |                                |                    |                          |

SECURITY: You are giving a security interest in any and all interest return payments, dividends and loss payments which may become payable under the policies.
LATE CHARGE: If a payment is 5 days late, you will be charged 5% of the late installment, but no less than $1.00 for example. Florida, Alabama and Mississippi not less than $1.00 for South Carolina, in Texas and Tennessee, if a payment is 10 days late, you will be charged 5% of the installment, but no less than $2.00 for Tennessee or otherwise prescribed by the state jurisdiction that is to be paid.
PREPAYMENT: If you pay off early, you may be entitled to a refund or part of the finance charge, although you may have to pay a prepayment penalty. See the reverse side page 2 of this document for additional information about prepayment, default, and prepayment penalties.

FEDERAL TRUTH IN LENDING DISCLOSURES

FOR VALUE RECEIVED: The undersigned hereby promises and agrees to pay to the order of "SPFMC" the sum of (being the total of all payments above) percent to all of the terms and conditions contained in the Schedule above and in the Terms and Conditions of this agreement, all of which are incorporated herein.

3679.38

NOTICE: SEE REVERSE SIDE/PAGE 2 FOR IMPORTANT INFORMATION

NOTICE: 1. DO NOT SIGN THIS AGREEMENT BEFORE YOU READ IT OR IF IT CONTAINS ANY BLANK SPACE. 2. YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A COMPLETELY FULLY PAID COPY OF THIS AGREEMENT. 3. UNDER THE LAW, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO PAY OFF IN ADVANCE THE FULL AMOUNT DUE AND UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS OBTAIN A PARTIAL REFUND OF THE FINANCE CHARGE.

DO NOT SIGN THIS AGREEMENT UNTIL ALL REMAINING CONDITIONS ON REVERSE SIDE/PAGE 2 HAVE BEEN READ BY YOU.

THE UNDERSIGNED EXECUTED THIS LOAN AGREEMENT AND RECEIVED A COPY THEREOF THIS 8 DAY OF OCTOBER, 2010

(PRINT OR TYPE)

JJS TRUCKING, LLC

INSURED NAME (as stated in policy)

DB

137-A GORDON ST

Address

CHARLESTON, SC 29403

City, State, Zip Code

8435773888 8434429171

Home phone Work phone

710986289

S.S.N. or Business I.D. #

Driver's License

AGENT'S NOTE: The undersigned agent hereby certifies that all policies listed above listed have been issued and delivered and that the down payment as shown in the contract has been paid by or on behalf of the insured and that all policies listed therein were issued by this agency. The undersigned warrants that the above contract and policies are bona fide and legal transactions, that the insured is of legal age and has capacity to contract, that the signature is genuine and that he has delivered a copy of this contract to the insured. The agent further certifies that none of the policies listed herein contain an exorbitant or reporting form. Agents acknowledge and it is not intended in any contract or manner with SPFMC and agrees in the event of defection to name the gross unearned commissions or unearned premiums to SPFMC upon request.

SWAMP FOX AGENCY, INC

40086

P. O. BOX 522

PENICOLA, SC 29469

PRINT NAME AND ADDRESS OF AGENT OR BROKER OF THE INSURANCE POLICY HERE

X

Melanie J. Jody 10-13-10
SIGNATURE OF BROKER OR AGENT

THIS CHATTEL/PAPER OR INSTRUMENT HAS BEEN COLLATERALLY ASSIGNED TO BRANCH BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, ASSOCIATED PARTY, AND ANY FURTHER ASSIGNMENT WILL VIOLATE THE RIGHTS OF SUCH SECURED PARTY.

TRAVELERS
 2420 LAKEMONT AVENUE
 P.O. BOX 3556
 ORLANDO, FL 32802-3556

Account Bill

Account No. 5568D3149
 Date of This Bill 11/08/10

|               |
|---------------|
| TOTAL BALANCE |
| $1,655.00    |
| MINIMUM DUE   |
| $1,655.00    |

JJS TRUCKING, LLC
 137-A GORDON ST
 CHARLESTON SC 29403

PAYMENT MUST BE RECEIVED BY:
NOVEMBER 23, 2010

ACCOUNT BILLING SUMMARY

| POLICY        | TYPE         | POLICY PERIOD        | MIN. DUE   | BALANCE    |
|---------------|--------------|----------------------|------------|------------|
| 4408P092 UB   | Workers Comp | 10/08/10 To 10/08/11 | $1,655.00 | $1,655.00 |
| TOTAL BALANCE |              |                      | $1,655.00 | $1,655.00 |

TRANSACTIONS SINCE LAST STATEMENT

|                                                     |                   |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-------------------|
| Payment Received - Thank You                        | -4,560.00         |
| Total Transactions (See Transaction Detail Section) | +6,215.00         |
| TOTAL BALANCE                                | $1,655.00 |

TRANSACTION DETAIL

|                           |              |                   |
|---------------------------|--------------|-------------------|
| POLICY NUMBER 4408P092 UB | Workers Comp |                   |
| 10/08/10                  | New Policy   | 6,215.00          |
| TOTAL TRANSACTIONS |              | $6,215.00 |

CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE

TO ENSURE PAYMENT IS PROPERLY APPLIED, detach the return payment stub and mail to the return address below.
 ASSIGNED RISK WORKERS COMPENSATION INSURANCE

648842H 2010312 7235 701 075LWK

Payment Coupon Make checks payable to: Travelers

SWAMP FOX AGENCY INC
 JJS TRUCKING, LLC

5568D3149

Travelers
 One Tower Square
 Remittance Box 96359
 Hartford, CT 06183-9042

Include Account Number on the check.

Change of Address?
 Place an "X" here.
 Print changes on reverse side.

PAYMENT MUST BE RECEIVED BY
NOVEMBER 23, 2010

|                 |
|-----------------|
| TOTAL BALANCE   |
| $1,655.00      |
| MINIMUM DUE     |
| $1,655.00      |
| AMOUNT ENCLOSED |

133434303816303932201011082010112300016550000000000000009635900000000060

---

SPECIAL MESSAGES

---

Your payment must be received by the "Due Date". Failure to pay the amount due may affect your insurability under the state Workers Compensation Insurance Plan.

You must pay at least the minimum due or up to the total balance due. If at any time you pay us more than the minimum due, and it covers your future installments you will not receive a bill.

If you dispute any of the amount due on this bill, you must do the following by the due date in order to avoid cancellation procedures from being initiated.

- 1) Provide to us written documentation outlining and explaining the specific areas of dispute as well as your estimate of the undisputed amount due and your method of calculation. You must pay the undisputed amount by the "due date".
- 2) Make a written request to the plan administrator for a hearing on the dispute. You may contact us in writing for the name of the plan administrator in your state.

All written correspondence should be mailed to the address found in the Customer Service Contacts section of this invoice.

To order Loss Control Services, please call the 1-800 number found in the Customer Service Contacts section of this invoice.

The account number shown above consists of your billing policy number and policy form. For the complete policy number refer to your policy paper.

This bill is rendered by THE TRAVELERS INDEMNITY COMPANY company indicated on the policy shown on this notice.

affiliated

TRAVELERS
2426 LAKEHURST AVE STE 100
ORLANDO FL 32814

PRODUCER

WORKERS COMPENSATION
AND
EMPLOYERS LIABILITY POLICY

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

JJS TRUCKING, LLC
137-A GORDON ST
CHARLESTON SC 29403

**NOTICE OF CANCELLATION – NONPAYMENT OF PREMIUM FINANCED POLICY****

POLICY NUMBER: (7PKUB-4408P09-2-10)

THIS NOTICE IS TO:

EFFECTIVE DATE OF CANCELLATION: 01-04-11

JJS TRUCKING, LLC
137-A GORDON ST
CHARLESTON SC 29403

INSURER:

THE TRAVELERS INDEMNITY COMPANY

PREMIUM FINANCED BY: STANDARD PREMIUM FINANCE MGMT

This policy has been financed by a premium finance company. The Premium Finance Company has exercised its right to cancel this policy as provided in its agreement with the insured, due to the insured's delinquent payment status.

Inquires regarding the outstanding balance should be made directly to the Premium Finance Company.

PLEASE NOTE: The Insurance Company is under no obligation to reinstate this policy in the event the Premium Finance Company should rescind their cancellation request.

THIS DOCUMENT IS ISSUED ONLY BY THE COMPANY OR COMPANIES THAT ISSUED THIS POLICY. FOR ANY INFORMATION CONCERNING THIS CANCELLATION, PLEASE CONTACT YOUR PRODUCER.

RECEIVED

JAN 18 2011

Swamp Fox Agency Inc.

DATE OF ISSUE: 01-05-11

POL EFF. DATE: 10-08-10

POL. EXP. DATE: 10-08-11

ST ASSIGN: SC

OFFICE: DIRECT ASSIGNMENT

PRODUCER: SWAMP FOX AGENCY INC

WUNN8K96

004863

TRAVELERS
2420 LAKE MONT AVE STE 100
ORLANDO FL 32814

WORKERS COMPENSATION
AND
EMPLOYERS LIABILITY POLICY

CANCELLATION

JJS TRUCKING, LLC
137-A GORDON ST
CHARLESTON SC 29403

*CANCEL NOTICE - NONPAYMENT OF PREMIUM FINANCED POLICY*

THIS NOTICE IS TO:

EFFECTIVE DATE OF CANCELLATION: 01-04-11

JJS TRUCKING, LLC
137-A GORDON ST
CHARLESTON SC 29403

PREMIUM FINANCED BY: STANDARD PREMIUM FINANCE MGMT

AMOUNT DUE: $

POLICY NUMBER: (7PKUB-4408P09-2-10)

We wish to inform you that your policy designated herein is cancelled in accordance with its terms as of the effective date of cancellation indicated herein, and at the hour on which the policy became effective. Any premium adjustment required by the policy will be made.

THIS DOCUMENT IS ISSUED ONLY BY THE COMPANY OR COMPANIES THAT ISSUED THIS POLICY. FOR ANY INFORMATION CONCERNING THIS CANCELLATION, PLEASE CONTACT YOUR PRODUCER.

INSURER: THE TRAVELERS INDEMNITY COMPANY

DATE OF ISSUE: 01-05-11 SJ

POL. EFF. DATE: 10-08-10

POL. EXP. DATE: 10-08-11

ST ASSIGN: SC

OFFICE: DIRECT ASSIGNMENT 701

PRODUCER: SWAMP FOX AGENCY INC

75LMK

WUNT2D00

004984

SOUTH CAROLINA DEPARTMENT
OF EMPLOYMENT AND WORKFORCE
Post Office Box 995
Columbia, South Carolina 29202

I certify that the attached is a true copy of the records pertaining to Samuel A. Rose,

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read "Nancy Andrews Moorer", is written over a horizontal line.

Nancy Andrews Moorer, Paralegal
SC Department of Employment & Workforce

Columbia, South Carolina
February 21, 2012

SSN Wage Record Inquiry

SSN

| Name                   | Acct #     | Report Type | Year | Qtr - 1    | Qtr - 2    | Qtr - 3    | Qtr - 4    |
|------------------------|------------|-------------|------|------------|------------|------------|------------|
| SAMUEL ARCHIEDELL ROSE | [REDACTED] | Original    | 2008 | $4,113.68 | $2,987.09 | $688.88   |            |
| SAMUEL ARCHIEDELL ROSE | [REDACTED] | Original    | 2007 | $5,028.19 | $3,637.27 | $4,421.64 | $4,045.51 |
| SAMUEL ARCHIEDELL ROSE | [REDACTED] | Original    | 2006 |            |            | $1,637.94 | $4,486.05 |
| SAMUEL ARCHIEDELL ROSE | [REDACTED] | Original    | 2004 |            |            |            | $1,280.00 |

SOUTH CAROLINA DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT AND WORKFORCE

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|------------------------------------|---------------------------------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------|------------------------------------|--|
| NAME: SAMUEL A ROSE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                        | SSN: _____                     | BYE: 12/10/12                           |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| CLAIMSTAKER ID:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | WFC #: 100                             | FILED: 12/16/11                | EFF DATE: 12/11/11                      |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| MAILING ADDRESS:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| CITY: CHARLESTON                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                        | STATE: SC                      | ZIP: 29403                              |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| OTHER NAME: SAMUEL A ROSE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| <table border="1" style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"><tr><td><input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 1-UI</td><td><input type="checkbox"/> 4-UI/UCFE/UCX</td><td><input type="checkbox"/> 7-UCX</td><td><input checked="" type="checkbox"/> NEW</td><td><input type="checkbox"/> TRANSITIONAL</td></tr><tr><td><input type="checkbox"/> 2-UI/UCFE</td><td><input type="checkbox"/> 5-UCFE</td><td><input type="checkbox"/> 8-CW</td><td><input type="checkbox"/> ADDITIONAL</td><td><input type="checkbox"/> R-ADD</td></tr><tr><td><input type="checkbox"/> 3-UI/UCX</td><td><input type="checkbox"/> 6-UCFE/UCX</td><td><input type="checkbox"/> OTHER</td><td><input type="checkbox"/> CONTINUED</td><td></td></tr></table> |                                        |                                |                                         | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 1-UI | <input type="checkbox"/> 4-UI/UCFE/UCX | <input type="checkbox"/> 7-UCX | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> NEW | <input type="checkbox"/> TRANSITIONAL | <input type="checkbox"/> 2-UI/UCFE | <input type="checkbox"/> 5-UCFE | <input type="checkbox"/> 8-CW | <input type="checkbox"/> ADDITIONAL | <input type="checkbox"/> R-ADD | <input type="checkbox"/> 3-UI/UCX | <input type="checkbox"/> 6-UCFE/UCX | <input type="checkbox"/> OTHER | <input type="checkbox"/> CONTINUED |  |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 1-UI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | <input type="checkbox"/> 4-UI/UCFE/UCX | <input type="checkbox"/> 7-UCX | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> NEW | <input type="checkbox"/> TRANSITIONAL    |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2-UI/UCFE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | <input type="checkbox"/> 5-UCFE        | <input type="checkbox"/> 8-CW  | <input type="checkbox"/> ADDITIONAL     | <input type="checkbox"/> R-ADD           |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3-UI/UCX                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | <input type="checkbox"/> 6-UCFE/UCX    | <input type="checkbox"/> OTHER | <input type="checkbox"/> CONTINUED      |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| BONA FIDE EMPLOYER NAME & PAYROLL ADDRESS INFORMATION:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                        |                                | DATES OF EMPLOYMENT:                    |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| NAME: JJS TRUCKING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| STREET: 137 GORDON ST APT A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| CITY: CHARLESTON ST: SC ZIP: 29403                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                        |                                | FROM: 05/02/11 TO: 12/13/11             |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                        |                                | EMP. ACCT. # 000000                     |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| BONA FIDE EMPLOYER LOCAL ADDRESS INFORMATION:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| STREET:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| CITY: SUMMERVILLE ST: SC ZIP: PHONE #: (843) 577-3988                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| SEPARATION REASON: <input type="checkbox"/> LOW <input type="checkbox"/> VQ <input type="checkbox"/> DISCHARGE <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> STILL WORKING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| ISSUE CODES: 10                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| LIABLE EMPLOYER INFORMATION:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                        |                                | DATES OF EMPLOYMENT:                    |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| NAME: JJS TRUCKING EMP. ACCT # 000000                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| JOB LOCATION (CITY/STATE): CHARLESTON, SC                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                        |                                | FROM: 05/02/11 TO: 12/13/11             |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| SEPARATION REASON: <input type="checkbox"/> LOW <input type="checkbox"/> VQ <input type="checkbox"/> DISCHARGE <input type="checkbox"/> STILL WORKING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |
| NARRATIVE REASON FOR SEPARATION FROM LIABLE EMPLOYER:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                        |                                |                                         |                                          |                                        |                                |                                         |                                       |                                    |                                 |                               |                                     |                                |                                   |                                     |                                |                                    |  |

02/21/12

CLAIMANT PROFILE DATA

SSN: 0 CURRENT PROGRAM: 01 BYB: 12/11/11 BYE: 12/10/12
NAME: SAMUEL A ROSE CLAIM TAKER : 683
ADDR: LOCAL OFFICE: 100
CITY: CHARLESTON ST: SC ZIP: 29403 I.C. PROG CDE: 01
TELE: 843 CO: 019 ENTRY DATE : 12/16/11
LIABLE STATE: 45 ADDR CHG DATE: FILE DATE : 12/16/11

SOC CODE : 53303200 UNCONVERTED: ACTIVE ISSUES: 1
LAST OCCUPATION: TRUCK DRIVERS, H CHILD SUP PCT: MONETARY COMP: Y
EDUCATION CODE: 12 CHILD SUP EFF: OVERPAY BAL : .00
SEVERANCE IND : N EB EFFECTIVE: PRIOR BYE DTE: 01/03/10
SEVERANCE AMT : .00 DUA #: -DRSC REQUAL IND : Y
PENSION IND : N CLAIM TYPE: T EUC EFFECTIVE:
SOC SEC AMT : .00 F/S WITHHOLDING: Y EUC FILE DATE:
OTHER PENSION AMT: .00 PAYMENT OPTION: DC EUC ELIG IND :
WBA : .00 METHOD OF FILING: T EUC2 EFF DATE:
TOTAL POSSIBLE: .00 PAID TO DATE: .00 BALANCE: .00

CLAIM STATUS : MONETARILY INELIGIBLE

TRANSACTION OPTION: 01

02/21/12

B E N E F I T P A Y M E N T H I S T R Y .

SSN: 0 NAME: SAMUEL A ROSE BYE: 12/10/12
BENEFITS WBA: .00 UI MBA : .00 BALANCE: .00

| PO  | CWE    | ENTRY  | CHECK | PAYMENT | CHK/SEQ | PAY      | AMOUNT | UNR  | DISQ | TOTAL |        |
|-----|--------|--------|-------|---------|---------|----------|--------|------|------|-------|--------|
| CDE | DOI    | DATE   | BY    | DOI     | OPTION  | NUMBER   | TYPE   | PAID | FLG  | REAS  | AMOUNT |
| 00  | 121611 | 121711 |       |         |         | 00000000 | 00     | .00  | 0    | 00    | .00    |

FOR MORE THAN 12 PAYMENTS DEPRESS PF2

TRANSACTION OPTION:

UI-5
UCB104-S 20WK
Rev. 7/11

SOUTH CAROLINA
DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT AND WORKFORCE
P.O. BOX 1477
COLUMBIA, S. C. 29202
OFFICIAL BUSINESS
UCB-104S

FORWARDING SERVICE REQUESTED

SAMUEL A ROSE

CHARLESTON SC 29403

INFORMATION FOR CLAIMANT

This is a monetary determination of your claim for benefits based on wages paid during your Base Period. This determination shows your Base Period Employment Record. It lists your covered employer(s) that paid you wages, their account number, and the wages paid to you by quarter and year during the base period of your claim. The total amount of wages paid to you by quarter in the base period is shown beside Base Quarter Total. This determination covers only the monetary portion of your claim. Another determination will be issued that states if you are eligible to receive benefits. It will be based on the reason for separation from your most recent bona fide employer.

Under Potential Benefits Established, your Weekly Benefit Amount, Maximum Benefit Amount, and the date your Benefit Year Ends are shown.

BASE PERIOD: The first four of the last five completed calendar quarters prior to the effective date of your initial claim. If you earned wages in covered employment not shown on the face of this form, give the information to your claimstaker at the local workforce center.

If the monetary determination was invalid using base period wages, this determination may show wages and employment from an Alternate Base Period.

ALTERNATE BASE PERIOD: The first four most recently completed calendar quarters prior to the effective date of your initial claim. If you earned wages in covered employment not shown on the face of this form, give the information to your claimstaker at the workforce center.

HIGH QUARTER: The quarter in our Base Period during which wages paid to you for insured work were highest.

WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT: The amount of benefits you may receive weekly, if unemployed and otherwise eligible, shall be one-half of the average weekly wage in the high quarter of your base period but shall not be less than $42.00 nor greater than the maximum weekly benefit amount as determined by the Commission on or before June 30 of each year for benefit years on or after July 1 of such current calendar year, and prior to July 1 of the succeeding calendar year as provided in Section 41-35-40 of the Law.

MAXIMUM POTENTIAL BENEFITS: The greatest amount of compensation that you may receive during your benefit year.

BENEFIT YEAR: The one (1) year period following the effective date of your initial claim. To establish a Benefit Year in accordance with the provisions of the Law, you must meet the following wage requirements:

1. You were paid at least $1,092.00 for insured work during the high quarter of your base period;
2. You were paid at least $4,455.00 for insured work during your base period;
3. The total of your base period wages for insured work equaled or exceeded one and one-half times the total of your high quarter wages.

AVERAGE WEEKLY WAGE: Shall be determined by dividing the high quarter wages by 13 weeks.

REDETERMINATION RIGHTS: You have the right to request a correction if you do not agree that this determination is correct. Your request for redetermination may be made by letter or by personal visit to the office where your claim was filed and it should be made without delay. No change can be made on this determination after one year from the date of this notice.

BE SURE TO NOTIFY YOUR WORKFORCE CENTER ANYTIME YOUR MAILING ADDRESS CHANGES WHILE FILING A CLAIM FOR BENEFITS.

EXAMPLE OF COMPUTATION OF BENEFITS:

|                       |                                    | Maximum Potential Benefits:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-----------------------|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| High Quarter Wages    | $1092.00                          | Your maximum total benefit amount for this benefit year is the lesser of:1. Twenty (20) times your Weekly Benefit Amount, or2. One-third (1/3) of your total Base Period Wages as shown on this determination.(1) $20 \times $42.00 = $840.00$ (2) $1/3 \text{ of } $4455.00 = $1485.00$ .Maximum Benefits would be $840.00 since that amount is less than $1485.00. |
| Base Period Wages     | $4455.00                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Average Weekly Wage   | $1092.00 divided by 13 = $ 84.00 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Weekly Benefit Amount | $84.00 divided by 2 = $ 42.00    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

SOUTH CAROLINA DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT AND WORKFORCE
INITIAL DETERMINATION OF STATUS AS AN INSURED WORKER

WORKFORCE CENTER 100

EFFECTIVE DATE 12/11/11

DATE FILED 12/16/11

DATE PREPARED 12/16/11

O

3390

SAMUEL A ROSE

CHARLESTON

SC 29403

*BENEFITS YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR:

MILITARY ASSIGNMENTS

WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT .00

MAXIMUM TOTAL BENEFITS .00

BENEFIT YEAR ENDS 12/10/12

* This statement establishes that you have the necessary wages to qualify for unemployment insurance. However, to receive benefits your job separation must also be considered. If you qualify, this is the maximum you may be entitled to receive.

SEE BACK FOR CLAIMANT INFORMATION

| EMPLOYMENT RECORD |             | STANDARD BASE PERIOD QUARTERLY EARNINGS |       |      |       |      |       |      |       |
|-------------------|-------------|-----------------------------------------|-------|------|-------|------|-------|------|-------|
| EMPLOYER          | ACCOUNT NO. | YEAR                                    | *QTR. | YEAR | *QTR. | YEAR | *QTR. | YEAR | *QTR. |
| JJS TRUCKING      | 989901      | 2010                                    | 03    | 2010 | 04    | 2011 | 01    | 2011 | 02    |
|                   |             |                                         | .00   |      | .00   |      | .00   |      | .00   |

STANDARD BASE QUARTER TOTAL

.00

.00

.00

.00

*QTR.

1. JAN., FEB., MAR. 3. JULY, AUG., SEPT.

2. APR., MAY, JUNE 4. OCT., NOV., DEC.

---

SC Department of Employment and Workforce Initial Claims Application

---

Filing location: Home

Office location: CHARLESTON

Claim creator: Claimant

Worked under a different name: No

Ethnicity

Claimant Hispanic or Latino: No

Claimant

Claimant's name: Samuel A. Rose

Date of birth: 8/23/1970

Gender: Male

US citizen: Yes

Aliases

Alias type: SocialSecurityCard

Name: Samuel A. Rose

Alias type: Current

Name: Samuel A. Rose

Race(s)

* African American/Black

Addresses

Address type: physical

Address: CHARLESTON, SC 29403-5105

United States address: Yes

Address type: mailing

Address: CHARLESTON, SC 29403-5105

United States address: Yes

Telephone Number

Telephone number type: Home

Telephone number: 843 Ext:

Alien Information

Alien card number: None

Expiration date: No

Veteran Information

Service branch: None

Date entered:

Date released:

Character of service: None

Reason for separation:

Completed first full term of service: No

In the National Guard or a Reserve Unit and served on active No duty during a period of war or in a campaign or expedition:

Served on active duty in the military for a period of more than 180 days: No

Separated from military in the last 48 months: No

Accrued days lost: No

Accrued leave: 0
(Item #16 on DD-214)

Pay grade:
(Item #4b on DD-214)

Retired from military service: No

Have a service related disability: No

Percent disabled: 0%

Awarded a campaign badge or ribbon for service during a conflict: No

Badges and ribbons: None

Will receive pension: No

Worked in the last 18 months: Yes

Employer Name: JJS TRUCKING

Employer delivery address: 137 GORDON ST APT A

Employer city: CHARLESTON

Employer state: SC

Employer zip code: 29403

Employer telephone number: (843) 577-3988 ext:

Worked for this employer: Yes

Worked part-time only: No

Hire date: 5/2/2011

Termination date: 12/13/2011

Type of work: Truck Drivers, Heavy and Tractor-Trailer

Earned at least $2,608.00: Yes

Occupational license required: Yes

Job city: SUMMERVILLE

Job state: South Carolina

Job duties: Load trailer with wood chips and deliver wood chips

Discharge reason: Still Working

Discharge explanation: I was injured on the job

Federal employer: No

Received SF8 form: No

Payroll office address based on SF8: No

Job Registration

Spouse of a veteran: No
Spouse of a deceased veteran with a total disability rating: No
Spouse of a 100% total disabled veteran: No
Spouse of a veteran killed in the line of duty: No
Spouse of a MIA or POW: No
Worked on a farm: No
Worked in a food processing plant: No

Farm Worker Information

Earned at least half income performing farm work in the last 12 months: No
Employed all year in farm work: No
Traveled to perform farm work: No
Worked at least 25 days or parts of days during the last 12 months performing farm work: No

Food Processing Information

Earned at least half income performing food processing in the last 12 months: No
Employed all year in food processing: No
Traveled to perform food processing: No
Worked at least 25 days or parts of days during the last 12 months performing food processing: No

Do you have a valid driver's license: Yes

Driver License Classes

* A

Commercial Driver License Classes

* None

Commercial Driver License Restrictions

* Class A Except Bus
* Class A Except Tractor Trailer Double Triple

Additional Claim Information

Filed UI claim outside SC in the last 18 months: No
Worked in state outside SC in the last 18 months: No
Filed claim for Trade Readjustment Allowances(TRA): No
Filed claim for Disaster Unemployment Assistance(DUA): No
Receive or have received Federal-Funded assistance: No
Receive or have received retirement: No
Receive or have received federal civilian employee benefits: No
Receive or have received federal military employee benefits: No
Claimant wants taxes withheld from unemployment benefits: Yes

Extra Earned Income

Pension amount: $0.00

Pension paid by:

Employer pension contribution percentage:

Pension effective date:

Retirement amount: $0.00

Retirement paid by:

Employer retirement contribution percentage:

Retirement effective date:

Disability amount: $0.00

Disability paid by:

Disability effective date:

Social security amount: $0.00

Social security effective date:

Job Eligibility

Only available for part-time work: No

Part-time work explanation: None

Willing to relocate: No

Can begin work immediately: No

Earliest date you can begin work: 2/1/2012

Cannot begin work immediately explanation: I am injured from accident

Children or dependants in household who require care during working hours: Not Applicable

Children or dependent care explanation: None

Self-Employed: No

Self-Employed job title:

Child or spouse of employer: No

Owner or corporate officer of a business: No

Will be recalled to last job: No

Date of recall to last job:

Have a health condition that limits ability to accept full-time work now or in the future: No

Health status explanation: None

Willing to look for other types of work: Yes

Kind of Jobs Seeking

Truck Drivers, Heavy and Tractor-Trailer

Years of experience: 4

Years of training: 4

Truck Drivers, Heavy and Tractor-Trailer

Years of experience: 4

Years of training: 4

Last Job

Number of miles traveled to work on last job: Greater than 20

Rate of pay on last job: $625.00

Unit of pay on last job: Weekly

Job Schedule Availability

Monday

Start time: 3:00 PM

End time: 3:00 AM

Tuesday

Start time: 3:00 PM

End time: 3:00 AM

Wednesday

Start time: 3:00 PM

End time: 3:00 AM

Thursday

Start time: 3:00 PM

End time: 3:00 AM

Friday

Start time: 3:00 PM

End time: 3:00 AM

New Job

Miles willing to travel to work: 10 - 20

Minimum wage you will accept on next job: $625.00

Unit of pay on next job: Weekly

Job Schedule Availability

Sunday

Start time: 12:00 AM

End time: 12:00 AM

Monday

Start time: 12:00 AM

End time: 12:00 AM

Tuesday

Start time: 12:00 AM

End time: 12:00 AM

Wednesday

Start time: 12:00 AM

End time: 12:00 AM

Thursday

Start time: 12:00 AM

End time: 12:00 AM

Friday

Start time: 12:00 AM

End time: 12:00 AM

Saturday

Start time: 12:00 AM

End time: 12:00 AM

Work Counties

Charleston

County FIPS: 19

Dorchester

County FIPS: 35

Last grade completed: High School Diploma

Currently attending school: No

Planning to attend school: No

Current School Information

Name of school: None

School location:

When did you start school:

School Schedule

Willing to change school/training schedule for a full-time job: No

Willing to quit school/training schedule for a full-time job: No

Future School Information

Name of school: None

Location of school:

When are you planning to attend school:

School Schedule

Willing to change school/training schedule for a full-time job: No

Willing to quit school/training schedule for a full-time job: No

Transportation Methods

- * Automobile
- * Bicycle
- * Public Transportation

Benefit Payment Method

Benefit payment type: Debit Card

Bank name:

Account type:

Account number:

Routing number:

Debit card agreement accepted: Yes

Direct deposit agreement accepted: No

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals

---

APPEAL FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION
COMMISSION

The Honorable Avery B. Wilkerson, Commissioner

---

Appellate Case No. 2013-001322
W.C.C. 1112328

---

Samuel A. Rose, Claimant.....Respondent,

v.

JJS Trucking, LLC, Unisured Employer, and
Chris Thompson Services, LLC, Upstream Contractor, and
Bridgefield Casualty Ins. Co., Carrier, and South Carolina
Uninsured Employers' Fund,.....Defendants,

of whom JJS Trucking, LLC, Uninsured Employer, and
the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund are.....Respondents,
and

Chris Thompson Services, LLC, Upstream Contractor,
and Bridgefield Casualty Ins. Co., Carrier are the.....Appellants.

---

CERTIFICATE OF COUNSEL

---

The undersigned certifies that the Record on Appeal complies with Rule
211(b), SCACR, and Supreme Court Order 2007-08-16-02, dated August 13,
2007, requiring redaction of personal data identifiers.

October 4, 2013

Kirsten L. Barr
Trask & Howell, L.L.C.
P.O. Box 2167
Mt. Pleasant, SC 29465
(843) 881-4228
Attorney for Appellants

RECEIVED

OCT 08 2013

SC Court of Appeals

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals

---

APPEAL FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION
COMMISSION

The Honorable Avery B. Wilkerson, Commissioner

---

Appellate Case No. 2013-001322

W.C.C. 1112328

---

Samuel A. Rose, Claimant.....Respondent,

v.

JJS Trucking, LLC, Uninsured Employer, and
Chris Thompson Services, LLC, Upstream Contractor, and
Bridgefield Casualty Ins. Co., Carrier, and South Carolina
Uninsured Employers' Fund,.....Defendants,

of whom JJS Trucking, LLC, Uninsured Employer, and
the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund are.....Respondents,
and

Chris Thompson Services, LLC, Upstream Contractor,
and Bridgefield Casualty Ins. Co., Carrier are the.....Appellants.

---

PROOF OF SERVICE

---

The undersigned hereby certifies that Samuel A. Rose, the South Carolina Uninsured Employers' Fund, and JJS Trucking, LLC were served with three (3) bound copies of the Record on Appeal this 4th day of October 2013, by depositing the same in the United States Mail, first class postage prepaid, addressed to their attorneys of record, as follows:

RECEIVED

OCT 08 2013

SC Court of Appeals

Joseph B. Fisher, Esq.
PO Box 63506
North Charleston, SC 29419

Benjamin W. Akery, Esq.
P.O. Box 1028
Goose Creek, SC 29445

Amy V. Cofield, Esq.
The Cofield Law Firm
809 South Lake Drive
Lexington, SC 29072

J. Eric Kaufmann, Esq.
P.O. Box 6461
Columbia, SC 29260

October 4, 2013

_____
For Kirsten L. Barr
Trask & Howell, L.L.C.
P.O. Box 2167
Mt. Pleasant, SC 29465
(843) 881-4228
Attorneys for Appellants