1 (COURT IN SESSION IN THE MATTER OF PROBATION PARDON
2 PAROLE VERSUS DARIUS PERRY, MONDAY, JANUARY 7, 2012 AT 3 11:20 A.M..)

4 (DEFENDANT DARIUS PERRY ENTERING COURTROOM FROM 5 HOLDING CELL.)

6 THE COURT: You are Darius Perry?

7 MR. PERRY: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: You represented by Ms. Sikora?

9 MR. PERRY: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: You satisfied with her services?

11 MR. PERRY: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: I have in front of me an arrest warrant.
13 It looks like you were arrested December 3rd of 2012; is 14 that correct?

15 MR. PERRY: Uh it was I think November 30th.

16 THE COURT: Where were you arrested?

17 MR. PERRY: At Flint Hill. I was took to Rock Hill
18 Police Department on the 30th.

19 THE COURT: For this or for something else?

20 MR. PERRY: I think it was Department of Probation but 21 it was for the same thing.

22 MS. SIKORA: And for this but then they transferred 23 him here.

24 THE COURT: All right. You have been served with this 25 warrant on December 3rd; that is the warrant alleges you

1 violated probation; is that correct?

2 MR. PERRY: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: The warrant alleges you violated the 4 sentence that I imposed here in York County on or about the 5 28th day of November 2011, resisting arrest and failure to 6 stop for a blue light. You got one year suspended to one
7 year probation. Is that the correct sentence?

8 MR. PERRY: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: It looks like you had a couple of prior
10 violations and I extended your case one time.

11 Your current violations is alleged in the warrant are 12 that you had failed to follow your agents advice and 13 instructions; that you missed reports in May; July twice.
14 That you have not completed your public service having 15 completed zero hours. That you did not notify your agent
16 when you were fired from Taco Bell. Are those things true?

17 MR. PERRY: Yes, sir. But I actually I was working at 18 Taco Bell until I stopped going to see my probation
19 officer.

20 THE COURT: All right, I find these are substantial
21 violations. I'll be glad to hear from your attorney and 22 then a couple of individuals who look like they may want to 23 speak I'll be glad to hear from them.

24 MS. SIKORA: May it please the Court, Your Honor.

25 Essentially what my client tells me in speaking with

1 him that he moved from his dad to his granddaddy's house.
2 His father lived in Fort Mill and there was a group of 3 friends that he had up there that he didn't feel were a
4 very good influence on him and he's do better living at 5 grandfather's house to be away from these individuals. In 6 speaking with Mr. Perry and his family they tell me he was 7 attending South Pointe High School and in fact doing very 8 well and was very close to graduation as well as holding 9 down a job initially at Taco Bell. His grandpa lives in 10 Rock Hill so when he moved to Rock Hill the Taco Bell job
11 was in Fort Mill off 521 and it was very difficult for his 12 grandfather to get him back and forth to Fort Mill for his 13 job.

14 Essentially my client did not tell his grandfather
15 that he was supposed to be reporting to probation. His 16 grandfather didn't know anything about it, Your Honor, and 17 said I don't know why Darius just didn't tell me because I
18 would have been happy you know to take him so that he can 19 do his public service and to report to probation given that 20 he lives in Rock Hill and he would have to report in Rock
21 Hill.

22 Darius essentially tells me that he feels like he was 23 put Grandpa out from the beginning his wife had passed away
24 there were some difficulties within the family and given
25 what his grandfather was already doing for him didn't want

1 to push it, Your Honor. I think the classic saying hind
2 sight is twenty twenty and he should have been honest with 3 him so he wouldn't be in this situation in the first place.

4 His grandfather and his aunt do wish to address the 5 court, Your Honor. His father is also here in the 6 courtroom but is just here in support of him and is not 7 wishing to address the court. If Your Honor would be 8 willing to hear from them.

9 THE COURT: I certainly would.

10 Come forward to where the officer says and one at a
11 time give us your name.

12 MS. SIKORA: Mr. Perry.

13 THE COURT: Yes, sir, your name.

14 A. Aaron Thomas Darius, Junior.

15 THE COURT: All right. You need to speak up and tell 16 me what you want to.

17 MR. PERRY: Well when he got in this trouble the last
18 time I didn't know anything about it and I could have done
19 paid it or whatever. You know then he got in school and he 20 was doing very well and he's a real smart young man. I'm 21 not saying it because he's my grandson but he is. And I
22 been trying to do everything I can you know to help him out
23 and this type thing because he's my grandson. I only have 24 two great grandson's but I got two great great grandsons
25 and they eight months old. But I been - He's been doing

1 well ever since he stayed with me. I been doing everything
2 I can for him and he hasn't give me any trouble. But the 3 only thing I'm saying that he's really a smart young man.
4 I was trying to get him to go to college and be college
5 potential. And I'll still do anything I can for him.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. I appreciate that.

7 MR. PERRY: Thank you, sir.

8 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

9 A. My name is Tammy Perry and I am his aunt. And for the 10 past couple of months I been taking a very active role or a
11 more active role in his schooling and I think the time line
12 when his attorney read is a little bit off because he did
13 live in Fort Mill with his father when he was working at 14 Taco Bell initially when the probation started.

15 He was having transportation issues because of the 16 transportation of his father so while he was working he 17 paid several different people to get back and forth to work
18 when his father wasn't able to get him there. And then 19 once he stopped working at Taco Bell that's when he was 20 unable to continue to pay for the probation. He did state
21 to me once that he walked and it was from Fort Mill to Rock 22 Hill to try to do the community service the day it was 23 supposed to be done but the place was closed by the time he 24 got there because it was a very long ways so he is sort of 25 prideful with not asking at times for help from people but

1 he is a very good kid.

2 I mean I've been at school, I talked to several of his 3 teachers and they all say the same thing. He's very 4 intelligent, he will have an opportunity to go to 5 Renaissance that I want to make sure that you will allow 6 him to go ahead and finish this semester so that he will be 7 - He's so close to graduating if he is able to go home he 8 will be able to go back to Renaissance to complete his 9 credits to get his high school diploma and not just a GED.
10 That's how close he is to his diploma.

11 I have also recommended him and he was very willing to 12 because of the issues with the family and with just his 13 upbringing and things that he has gone through we have 14 gotten him enrolled in the Catawba Mental Health program so 15 he has already completed one counseling session with the 16 counselor at the school. And she is willing to continue
17 his sessions as well even if he does have to go to therapy
18 he has to go to Renaissance.

19 So I just wanted you know plead with you that it was a 20 mistake that he has made. It has not been handled in the 21 best way. Now that everyone is aware of what's going on if 22 there is anything else that needs to be paid I hope we have 23 the opportunity to do that and just get him back into 24 school instead of in there. That's all.

25 MS. SIKORA: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Yes, ma'am.

2 AGENT FORTE: May it please the Court, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

4 AGENT FORTE: In February of 2012 he was kicked out of 5 Nations Ford. He had a hearing here on April the 20th
6 where the case was continued and advised if he missed
7 another report or tested positive for any illegal drugs to 8 arrest him immediately. He came in and reported on April
9 26 where he was referred back to Public Service to set him
10 up for an assessment so we could send him to a work site.
11 He showed up for that. May the 18th he failed to begin his 12 public service. May 24th failed to report. Did a home
13 check on him on May the 25th. Left messages for him to 14 come see me. No sign of him.

15 Went out to his Taco Bell employer out on Highway 521
16 in Indian Land and spoke to his manager, said hadn't seen
17 him in a while. June 11th his time sheet was pulled at 18 Public Service. Never seen him again until he was 19 arrested. He was actually in a house where police officers
20 were looking for another wanted offender and they came 21 across Mr. Perry. That's where he got picked up for 22 failure to identify and that was in November. Then we 23 served him with this warrant December 3rd.

24 THE COURT: All right, anything else? Anything you
25 want to say, Mr. Perry?

1 MR. PERRY: I just would like to say that I knew what
2 I did was a mistake. And if I had another chance I
3 probably - I know I'd do the right thing and I make up my 4 mind because back there behind those bars I know I can't do
5 what I want or however I want to do it is not the feeling I
6 want to be in. And it's a feeling nobody would want to be 7 in because it's like an entrapment. I mean I just know if 8 I get out I'll do the right thing.

9 THE COURT: Well I have my doubts.

10 How much time has he served?

11 MS. SIKORA: He told me, Your Honor, that he'd been 12 locked up; he understood he had a hold placed on him
13 whenever he got locked up on the false info, so I counted
14 forty-one days if we're going to November 30th as the start
15 date. And he told me he did two weeks initially on the 16 charge when he first got arrested.

17 THE COURT: So that will be fifty-five days?

18 MS. SIKORA: Uh-huh.

19 THE COURT: I'm gonna revoke his probationary sentence
20 and give him credit for fifty-four days. Thank you.
