2. Counsel for Aneisha Shaire Young respectfully submits that extraordinary circumstances exist which warrant the granting of an additional extension of time. It was confirmed that counsel had Shingles at a doctor's appointment on Monday afternoon, April 4, 2019 following his oral argument before this Court in State v. Cohen. This medical condition is being treated with medication. Given this medical condition, Shingles, counsel unfortunately and regretfully must request a final two-week extension until Friday, April 22, 2019 to file the brief and designation of matter. Counsel has been working on the case and will file the brief early if at all possible.

3. Counsel filed the initial brief of appellant and designation of matter in the case of The State v. Reginald Hamilton with this Court on March 4, 2019. Counsel had an oral argument in the case of The State v. Tekysha Cohen before this Court on March 4, 2019. Counsel this week has continued interviewing and vetting candidates for the remaining open Appellate Defender position. In addition, Counsel presented at the Public Defender Investigator Association Convention on February 28, 2019, in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Counsel presented at the "Year End" CLE in Greenville, South Carolina on February 8, 2019. Stewart Middleton with this Court on January 8, 2019. Counsel has extensive administrative duties as the Chief Appellate Defender, including administrative and Appellate Project oversight; training two less experienced appellate defenders and reviewing all their filings in advance, and interviewing.

4. Counsel makes this request in good faith and not for purpose of delay. Counsel intends to continue to work on the cases with more than three extensions first so that the caseload will hopefully become more manageable in the near future, and less extensions will need to be requested.

5. Counsel for the Attorney General's office consents to this request shown by signature below.

WHEREFORE, the undersigned counsel would regretfully and respectfully request a final two week extension until March 22, 2019, based on exigent medical reasons which required immediate and continued attention in which to file the initial brief of appellant and designation of matter in this case. Counsel will attempt to file the initial brief and designation of matter before this deadline if possible. Counsel requests that time limits for filing the brief be held in abeyance pending a ruling on this motion.
