RE: RS Custom Homes V. Mathew David DeNapoli, et al
Appellant Case No: 2018-001971
Our file: 15-127

Dear Ms. Allen:

Im am in receipt of your letter of January 29, 2019 concerning the transcript. I am sorry I failed to notify Court Administration. The court reporter broke her leg and was out on medical leave. I emailed her and advised her to request an extension, but she failed to do so. Please see the enclosed email stream.

I received the transcript on January 31, 2019. If you need anything further from me please let me know.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Frank M. Cisa

Christine, I hope you are doing well. It has been 60 days since I ordered the transcript of the hearing held on August 13, 2018 in the RS V. DeNapoli case. I am not in any rush to receive it, but pursuant to rule 207 SCACR you need to request an extension from the Office of Court Administration. They can grant up to a ninety day extension. I also need the exhibits. Thanks . Frank

Christine, Sorry about your leg. I hope you feel better soon. Under the appellate court rules you have 60 days from the date of the request to transcribe and deliver the transcript. You can also request an extension under Rule 207 SCACR. Take your time. Take the full 60 days and ask for an extension if needed. No rush. Frank

Hi, Frank,

I am in receipt of your letter requesting a transcript from 8/13/18 in the DeNapoli matter. I am just checking to see when you will be in need of the transcript? I am currently out on medical leave but can work on it from home. I will, however, be unable to provide a hard copy of the transcript until I get back in the office as I can't drive yet. I should be able to by the end of the month I'm hoping! Been a rotten few weeks. That's what I get for going on vacation – a broken leg that required surgery!

Anyway, I will get to work on this and get you an email copy. Just let me know if you need it expedited or not.

Thank you,
Christine
