Re: Churchill Park v. Alan G. Nix AND Churchill Park v. Alan G. Nix
Appellate Case No. 2018-000056

Dear Mr. Nix:

The Court received your letter dated February 17, 2019, addressed to Chief Judge Lockemy. As we have stated previously in our letter dated November 7, 2018, all correspondence with the Court should be directed to the Clerk's office at our mailing address listed above. All public written communications in this case are part of the Clerk's file, which are available on our website at the following address: <https://www.sccourts.org/ACMS/index.cfm>. Regarding your request for any internal communications, we do not maintain records other than those reflected in the official case file. Any internal communications between members of the Court of Appeals, between the Court of Appeals and its staff, and between the staff of the Court of Appeals relating to this case are privileged and cannot be provided to you. The Court will not take any further action on your filing.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
