1 (On the record at 10:38 a.m.)

2 (Pre-marked Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1, Sentencing
3 sheet, indictment, arrest warrant; 8 pages.)

4 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen, we are 5 about to begin the case of In Re The Matter of the Care of
6 Alfonso Haynesworth.

7 And ladies and gentlemen, I'll remind you that you are
8 still under oath, because I -- I do have some questions
9 that I need to -- to go through with you.

10 The first question is: Does any member of the jury
11 panel know Alfonso Haynesworth, who is sitting with his 12 attorney Mr. Charles Brooks over at the -- my right, your 13 left?

14 MR. BROOKS: Should we stand?

15 THE COURT: Yeah. If you'll ask him to stand, please.

16 (Mr. Brooks and Mr. Haynesworth stand.)

17 (No audible response.)

18 THE COURT: All right. Anybody know him or have any 19 relationship with him, professionally or personally or -- 20 or either by blood or marriage? If so, please stand.

21 (No audible response.)

22 THE COURT: Does any member of the jury panel -- and 23 Mr. Brooks, you've seen these questions, haven't you?

24 MR. BROOKS: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: Does any member of the jury panel know

1 anything about the sexual offenses that Alfonso
2 Haynesworth was convicted of?

3 And I'll remind you what this case is. This is a case
4 that has been brought under the Sexual Violent Predator
5 Act. And the State seeks to have civil commitment of the 6 respondent for long-term control, care, and treatment.
7 This is not a criminal proceeding, but one of whether 8 there be civil incarceration.

9 So does anyone know anything about the sexual offenses
10 that Mr. Haynesworth was convicted of? Is so, please
11 stand.

12 (No audible response.)

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Noone is standing.

14 Would the fact that Alfonso Haynesworth has been 15 convicted of a criminal offense, and has completed his 16 criminal sentence relate -- related to that conviction, in 17 any way prevent you from being able to be fair and 18 impartial in the trial of this case? If so, please stand.

19 (No audible response.)

20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Noone's standing.

21 Has any member -- and you can come down and speak with 22 me privately if you'd like to. Has any member of the jury
23 panel, or any of your close personal friends or relatives,
24 ever been the victim of a sexual assault? And if so,
25 would that affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

1 But if you'd like to come down and speak privately
2 about that, I'll be glad to hear from you.

3 (One juror stands.)

4 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. How bout come down and let's
5 talk privately.

6 (The juror approaches.)

7 Whereupon the following
8 conversation takes place at side bar:

9 THE COURT: Please tell us your name and number.

10 JUROR: Becky Cagle.

11 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

12 JUROR: I ---

13 THE COURT: And your number?

14 JUROR: I don't know.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Okay.

16 JUROR: I've had two daughters been sexually molested,
17 and myself, too. But it will not impair my judgment
18 against anything.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 JUROR: I just wanted you to be aware of it.

21 THE COURT: That's what I wanted you to do. Thank 22 you.

23 JUROR: Okay. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 (The Court returns to the bench.)

1 THE COURT: Has any member of the jury, or any of your
2 close personal friends or relatives, ever been charged
3 with or convicted of a sexual offense?

4 And again, if you'd like to speak privately about
5 that, I will be glad to hear from you.

6 (A juror stands.)

7 THE COURT: Would you like to come down?

8 (The juror approaches.)

9 Whereupon the following
10 conversation takes place at side bar:

11 THE COURT: Ms. McKnight.

12 JUROR: My nephew.

13 THE COURT: He was convicted?

14 JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: What was he convicted of?

16 JUROR: He was the lawyer.

17 THE COURT: He represented him?

18 JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Do you remember that?

20 JUROR: Ronnie ---

21 MR. BROOKS: Yeah. Yeah.

22 THE COURT: And of course, that would affect your 23 ability to be fair and impartial.

24 JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 JUROR: Okay.

2 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

3 JUROR: Okay.

4 THE COURT: I'm going to excuse her.

5 (The Court returns to the bench.)

6 THE COURT: Does any member of the jury panel have any 7 training or experience in the fields of psychiatry,
8 psychology, or the law? Is so, please stand.

9 (No audible response.)

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 Has any member of the jury panel currently or formerly 12 worked in the fields of psychiatry, psychology, or the 13 law? And this would be just working in it. If so, please
14 stand.

15 (No audible response.)

16 THE COURT: Does any member of the jury panel know, or 17 has any member of the jury panel ever been involved in a
18 case where you or another party were represented by 19 Charles Brooks, the attorney for the respondent? And Mr.
20 Brooks is standing right there. Thank you.

21 (No audible response.)

22 THE COURT: Thank you. Noone is standing.

23 For the State is Mr. Lloyd Flores. Has anybody ever
24 been represented by Mr. Lloyd Flores or the Office of --
25 the State Attorney General's Office?

1 (No audible response.)

2 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

3 Does any member of the jury panel know any of the 4 following witnesses that may testify in this case: And 5 they'd be Dr. Kimberly S. Harrison, Phd., who is the --
6 going to be -- possible the only witness. If so, please
7 stand.

8 (To Dr. Harrison) If you would stand so they can 9 recognize ...

10 (Dr. Harrison stands.)

11 (No audible response.)

12 THE COURT: Thank you. Noone is standing.

13 Has any member of the jury panel been involved in a
14 prison ministry, prison outreach program, or any other 15 program involved -- in contact or -- involved being in 16 contact with incarcerated persons? If so, please stand.

17 (No audible response.)

18 THE COURT: Thank you. Noone's standing.

19 And has any member of the jury panel, or any of your
20 close personal friends or relatives, ever been subject --
21 subjected to civil commitment proceedings, or been 22 voluntarily or involuntarily civilly committed? Is so,
23 please stand.

24 (No audible response.)

25 THE COURT: Thank you. Noone is standing.

1 Is there any member of the jury panel who for any
2 reason believes that they cannot be fair and impartial to
3 both the State and the respondent in this matter? If so,
4 please stand.

5 (No audible response.)

6 THE COURT: Thank you. Are there any other questions
7 that the State requests?

8 MR. FLORES: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Brooks?

10 MR. BROOKS: No, sir.

11 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, what 12 will happen now is the computer is going to select a list
13 of names, and the attorneys will get the list and then
14 they will each be entitled to certain strikes.

15 Now, once they go through the striking, when your name
16 is called, you'll come up -- and it won't be the number
17 that you -- your juror number, it will be a different
18 number -- and then you will be part of the jury.

19 So if they can -- and then we'll give the attorneys
20 about 10 minutes to -- to go through that. And we'll 21 stand at ease for about 10 minutes while they go through 22 this.

23 (Recess from 10:46 a.m. until 10:54 a.m.)

24 THE COURT: All right. We'll go ahead and strike.
25 Are all the jurors in here? You want to check outside.

1 (Brief pause.)

2 THE COURT: No jurors hanging around outside the door.

3 THE BAILIFF: They're all here.

4 THE COURT: Very good. Very good. Let's proceed.

5 MR. BRADLEY: Mr. Flores, for the plaintiff, strikes

12 stricken: Juror No. 2, Juror No. 6, Juror No. 15, Juror
13 No. 16, and Juror No. 21 from the alternate list.

14 MR. BROOKS: That's correct.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Please call the 16 jury.

17 MR. BRADLEY: Ladies and gentlemen, when I call you
18 name, please come forward through the double gate on your 19 left or the single gate on your right, whichever is most

3 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Bradley.

4 MR. BRADLEY: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, y'all have been
6 selected as the jury for this case, which will start
7 shortly. I'm going to send you back to the jury room.
8 This will take up a few minutes here, and then we're going
9 to bring you back out and start the trial.

10 But while you're back there, if y'all could, please,
11 select who you want to be your foreperson. It can be any 12 of the 12 primary jurors, so it can't be you (indicates.)

13 But of the 12 of you, if you'd decide who will be the 14 spokesman here in court and lead the jury in their 15 deliberations.

16 Now, if they would step back for a few minutes.

17 (The jury exits the courtroom at 11:01 a.m.)

18 THE COURT: All right. Is there any objection to the 19 jury that has been selected or in the manner in which they

21 MR. FLORES: None from the State, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: From the respondent?

23 MR. BROOKS: No, sir.

1 (To remaining jurors) Ladies and gentlemen of the jury
2 panel, thank you for your service today. You do not have
3 to come back, and I guess you can look forward to -- at 4 some point in time, getting another summons to -- to 5 appear here. But thank you for your service today.

6 (Remaining jury panel exits the courtroom at 11:02
7 a.m.)

8 (Off the record from 11:02 a.m. to 11:14 a.m.)

9 THE COURT: All right. Let's bring our jury in now.

10 (Jury enters the courtroom at 11:14 a.m.)

11 THE COURT: (To jury) The foreperson needs to sit in 12 this chair here (indicates.)

13 MR. BRADLEY: Your Honor, we have all the jurors
14 present in the courtroom.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. All right. Ms.
16 Anderson, thank you for taking on the responsibility of 17 foreperson of the jury.

18 (To Mr. Bradley) Please swear the jury.

19 MR. BRADLEY: Ladies and gentlemen, please stand and 20 raise your right hands.

21 (The jury complies and is sworn.)

22 THE COURT: Thank you, ladies and gentlemen. Now,
23 before we began this trial, I must tell you that this 24 trial will probably be different from what you might 25 expect. Most people never have an opportunity to actually

1 sit and attend a court session as you are today; and they
2 think from watching TV, movies, or reading books, that 3 trials are always full of high drama, intense action, and 4 riveting circumstances.

5 Now, while all these things might be true at times,
6 this trial is not for entertainment. This is a real
7 trial, which is a fundamental part of our democracy. It's 8 a search for the truth in an effort to make sure that 9 justice is done. And the process of searching for the 10 truth and ensuring that justice is done is often slow,
11 deliberate, and repetitive, the exact opposite of what you
12 may have seen on TV, seen on movies, or read in books.

13 Now, ladies and gentlemen, this courtroom is a place
14 of honor that is dedicated to the protection and the 15 preservation of our citizens' rights in what many have
16 called, and I truly believe, to be the greatest justice
17 system ever created by mankind.

18 The attorneys, who are here before you, are advocates
19 for the parties that they represent. But first and 20 foremost, they are officers of this court, and are sworn 21 to uphold the integrity and the fairness of our -- of our 22 judicial system, and to help you as jurors in your search
23 for the truth. Ladies and gentlemen, you should expect
24 them to be professional, competent, and ethical in their 25 representation of their client's interest.

1 And remember, ladies and gentlemen, you, too, just
2 took an oath to try this case and reach a fair and just
3 verdict. And you're expected to be professional,
4 reasonable, and ethical as well.

5 Now, ladies and gentlemen, what I'm telling you now is 6 intended just to serve as an introduction to the trial of 7 this case. These remarks are not a charge on the law. I
8 will instruct you on the law that is applicable to this 9 case at the end of the trial, before you begin your 10 deliberations to consider your verdict. This is merely an 11 explanation of the procedures that we will follow, so you
12 may better understand what is happening.

13 Let me say up front, ladies and gentlemen, that you
14 will not be allowed to take notes during the trial;
15 therefore, it's very important that you listen closely
16 throughout this trial.

17 Now, ladies and gentlemen, the petitioner, the State
18 of South Carolina, has brought the case against the 19 respondent, Alfonso Haynesworth, under the Sexual Violent
20 Predator Act of South Carolina. The State seeks the civil 21 commitment of the respondent for long-term, controlled
22 care, and treatment in a secure facility.

23 This is not a criminal proceeding seeking 24 incarceration, but rather a proceeding seeking civil 25 commitment.

1 The State of South Carolina alleges or claims that the
2 respondent, Alfonso Haynesworth, is a sexually violent
3 predator under the law. The respondent denies that he is 4 a sexually violent predator, and the burden of proof is 5 therefore on the State to prove by evidence sufficient to 6 satisfy each of you, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the 7 respondent is a sexual violent -- sexually violent
8 predator.

9 And if the State is unable to reach that burden of 10 proof as to one or more of the elements of the claim, the 11 respondent is entitled to a finding that he is not a
12 sexually violent predator.

13 And in most civil cases, the petitioner only has the 14 burden of proving that it is more likely true than not
15 true, such as by the greater weight or the preponderance
16 of the evidence. However, in this type of case, the 17 State's burden of proof is more powerful -- must be more
18 powerful, and must be beyond a reasonable doubt.

19 But ladies and gentlemen, your purpose as jurors is to 20 find and determine the facts. You are to determine the 21 facts from the testimony that you hear from this witness
22 stand, and any other evidence that is introduced into 23 court; and it will be up to you to determine the 24 inferences that you feel may be properly drawn from the 25 evidence that is presented.

1 Now, ladies and gentlemen, it is especially important
2 that you perform your duty diligently and conscientiously
3 in determining the facts or -- because ordinarily, there
4 is no way to correct an erroneous determination of facts
5 by a jury.

6 On the other hand, but with equal emphasis, the same
7 law that makes you the judges of the facts, makes me the 8 judge of the law. When the law is given to you by me, it
9 is the only law that you may consider. You must accept
10 the law as I give it to you and follow it, even though you
11 may disagree.

12 Let's make a deal: I cannot tell you what the facts
13 are, and you cannot disagree with me about what the law is 14 or what you believe the law should be.

15 Your job is to take the law as I give it to you, and 16 apply it to the facts as you find them from the testimony
17 and any other evidence that is presented. And after 18 hearing that evidence, you will deliberate and render your 19 verdict.

20 Until I advise you to begin your deliberations at the 21 conclusion of the case, you must not discuss the case with 22 anyone else, including other jurors. You may not use a
23 computer, a cell phone, or other electronic device with 24 communications capabilities while in attendance or during 25 your deliberation. Now, you may use these items when we

1 break for lunch. Just, even then, you can't use it to
2 disclose any information about the case; and that would
3 include, but certainly would not be exclusively, any 4 information about a party, a witness, attorney, or a court
5 officer.

6 There won't be any news account about this case,
7 because -- if it goes into tomorrow and there's a news
8 account, please do not read that -- any information
9 collected through juror research on any topic that might 10 be raised by any witness during their testimony.

11 Ladies and gentlemen, after the case is submitted to 12 you, you must discuss it only in the jury room with your 13 fellow jurors. The attorneys and the parties in this case
14 are advised they're not to talk to you at all. So if you
15 see somebody around this small courthouse square and they 16 don't even say hello, they're not being unfriendly.
17 They're just following my instructions.

18 Now, ladies and gentlemen, it's important that you
19 keep an open mind, and not decide any issue in this case
20 until all of the evidence has been -- been presented, the 21 attorneys have made their closing arguments, and I have 22 instructed you on the law that is applicable to this case.
23 And it's your solemn responsibility to determine whether 24 or not the petitioner or the respondent -- respondent have 25 met their respective burdens of proof -- actually, the

1 petitioner, as to whether they have met their burden of
2 proof, based upon the evidence and the law as I instruct
3 you now, and at the close of the trial.

4 And in just a moment, the petitioner's attorney and 5 the attorney for the respondent will make what is called
6 and "opening statement," where they will explain to you
7 what they believe the issues are in this case.

8 What they tell you during their opening statement is 9 not evidence. It is only their contention as to what the 10 issues are and what the evidence will show. The evidence,
11 as I said, will be presented by sworn testimony from this 12 witness stand, and any other exhibits that are provided
13 here in court.

14 And during the course of the trial, you may hear one
15 of the attorneys say something like, "Your Honor, I
16 believe we have a matter of law, or a question of law to 17 discuss with you;" or "Your Honor, may we approach the 18 bench." Or sometimes it may be necessary for me to excuse
19 you from the courtroom for a short period of time, so the 20 attorneys and I can discuss a matter of law.

21 And the reason for this is, as I've said, you're the 22 judges of the facts. And sometimes when we're discussing
23 facts, it may be -- or the law, it may be necessary for me
24 to make a reference to the facts. And so, I don't want
25 you to be influenced by anything that I might say in

1 connection with making a ruling on how a particular law
2 applies. So therefore, I would excuse you from the 3 courtroom while these discussions take place.

4 Also during the trial, you may hear one of the 5 attorneys make an objection to certain evidence that is 6 about to be presented. Whether I sustain it, which would 7 be to grant the objection, or overrule, to be -- to deny
8 the objection, should not be construed that I favor one
9 side over the other. I do not.

10 Nor should you infer that the objecting party is 11 trying to hide something. In this court, as in all 12 situations in life, there are specific rules that must be 13 followed, and the attorneys are merely trying to follow
14 the rules of evidence in making their objections; and I am
15 only ruling based upon what I believe the law of this 16 state to be concerning the evidence that is about to be 17 presented.

18 In determining what the true facts are in this case,
19 ladies and gentlemen, you must decide whether or not the 20 testimony of a witness is believable. It will be my 21 responsibility to rule as a matter of law as to whether 22 certain testimony is admitted. But once the testimony is 23 admitted, it will be your duty to determine or decide
24 whether or not you want to believe it.

25 Now, ladies and gentlemen, in deciding whether to

1 believe the witness, you have a right to consider: the
2 interest of any witness; the bias of any witness; the
3 prejudice of any witness; the opportunity for the witness
4 to have observed the matters and things about which the 5 witness may testify; and the way a witness acts on this 6 witness stand.

7 Ladies and gentlemen, you have a right to consider
8 anything that is in the record that will help you evaluate 9 the testimony of a witness. That means it is your duty to 10 pay close attention to the witness, to observe the 11 witness, and to listen to the witness; and to pay close
12 attention to the attorneys, and the Court.

13 Please do not let your thoughts wander. But give 14 strict attention to the testimony, so that at the end of 15 all the testimony, after the argument of counsel, and the 16 charge on the law by me, you will then be in a position to 17 determine what the true facts are and to apply the law to 18 those facts, and thus render a true and just verdict.

19 Now, Madam Forelady, it will be your responsibility to 20 preside in the jury room and be the jury spokesman here in 21 court. It will also be your responsibility to write the 22 verdict on the verdict form. And I'll give you more
23 instruction about that later.

24 Now, in order to preserve everyone's rights, I will 25 give the parties an opportunity to object to anything that

1 I've stated. Mr. Flores?

2 MR. FLORES: No objections from the State.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Brooks?

4 MR. BROOKS: No, sir.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. We'll now begin
6 the trial -- well, now -- now we're going to have opening
7 statements.

8 MR. FLORES: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the 9 Court.

10 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

11 MR. FLORES: Mr. Brooks, Mr. Haynesworth.

12 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen of the jury. As 13 His Honor stated earlier, my name is Lloyd Flores. I'm 14 employed by the Office of the Attorney General, and I
15 represent the State in this matter.

16 We are here today to determine one question. It's a
17 very difficult question, and as you've already heard the 18 judge state, this is a case brought under the Sexually
19 Violent Predator Act.

20 I must give you a disclaimer here at the beginning
21 that you will hear some disturbing facts, some disturbing
22 information about things that happened involving Mr.
23 Haynesworth, and involving other people here in Sumter
24 County and throughout the country.

25 These cases, by their very nature, must discuss these

1 types of disturbing facts. But we ask that you remain
2 open to all of the evidence and listen to everything
3 presented before making your decision in this case.

4 The Sexually Violent Predator Act was passed by our 5 legislature in 1998. They had two thoughts in mind: The 6 first, they believed that, within our population in South
7 Carolina, there exists a very small group of extremely 8 dangerous individuals, who have mental abnormalities or 9 personality disorders that make them more likely to commit
10 acts of sexual violence.

11 Second, they believe that these people are so
12 dangerous that they should be committed to a civil 13 commitment facility to receive treatment outside of the 14 public, where they may endanger the public.

15 We are asking you to determine whether or not Alfonso
16 Haynesworth is a sexually violent predator.

17 The statute -- and what I'll say here is -- is 18 repeating what Judge Young has already said as he is the 19 arbiter of the law. He will tell you what the law is. So
20 if I say something that is contrary to what he says,
21 ignore what I say, because I'm not a judge.

22 My understanding of the law, however, is that a
23 sexually violent predator is defined by two elements.
24 First, the individual has been convicted of a sexually
25 violent offense as defined by our legislature.

1 I will submit to you, you will hear evidence today
2 that Mr. Haynesworth has been convicted of such an
3 offense. I don't believe Mr. Brooks will contest that.

4 Second, Mr. Haynesworth must suffer from a mental
5 abnormality or personality disorder that makes him more
6 likely to engage in acts of sexual violence if not
7 confined for long-term control, care, and treatment in a
8 secure facility.

9 To that end, we asked psychiatrists and psychologists
10 to interview Mr. Haynesworth, and to obtain all the 11 information they possibly can about Mr. Haynesworth's
12 life, to determine whether or not he suffers from a mental 13 abnormality or personality disorder that would make him
14 more likely to commit these types of offenses.

15 To that end, Dr. Kimberly Harrison has performed such 16 an evaluation. And she will discuss the types of 17 information she relied upon, what she did, how she 18 interviewed Mr. Haynesworth, what she consulted, and how 19 she reached her opinion in this matter.

20 She will tell you that she has diagnosed Mr.
21 Haynesworth with a mental abnormality and a personality
22 disorder. She will tell you how she reached those 23 opinions and why she reached those opinions.

24 She has also reached an opinion as to whether Mr.
25 Haynesworth's mental abnormality or personality disorder

1 will make him more likely to engage in these acts in the 2 future. Listen to all of what she says.

3 You will be asked, as the judge has stated, to -- to 4 determine whether or not she's believable, whether or not
5 she did enough, whether or not she did her job in this 6 case.

7 At the end of this trial, which His Honor has already 8 stated will not be a long trial, you will be asked to 9 determine: Whether or not he is a sexually violent
10 predator, does he have the condition; does he suffer from 11 a mental abnormality or personality disorder that makes
12 him more likely to engage in these acts of sexual violence
13 if not confined for long-term control, care, and 14 treatment; and do you believe that beyond a reasonable
15 doubt?

16 If you do, and the State believes you will at the end
17 of this case, you will find Alfonso Haynesworth should be 18 committed to long-term control, care, and treatment with 19 the Department of Mental Health for his mental abnormality
20 or personality disorder.

21 Please listen to all the evidence before you make that 22 decision. Thank you for your time.

23 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Flores. Mr. Brooks

24 MR. BROOKS: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen of the 25 jury. Again, my name is Charles Brooks. I represent

1 Alfonso Haynesworth, who is seated at the table.

2 And I do agree with about 95 percent of what Mr.
3 Flores has so eloquently stated to you in opening. The 4 five percent difference is, basically, I don't agree that
5 my client fits this criteria.

6 Now, what I'll ask you to do is keep an open mind.
7 You're going to hear from Dr. Harrison. You may or may 8 not hear from my client. So bear in mind, the burden of 9 proof is on the State. They have the burden to prove 10 their case beyond a reasonable doubt.

11 We're coming into this court with nothing to prove.
12 We don't have to prove anything to you guys. So I want
13 you to keep that in mind and keep an open mind, follow the 14 law as the judge will instruct you.

15 Now, what do I mean by reasonable doubt? Well, most 16 times all of us court personnel, we've got an idea what
17 reasonable doubt is. But average -- ordinary lay folks
18 that are working their jobs may not have a good idea of 19 what that means. Let me give you something that might be 20 able to -- you may be able to equate to it.

21 I always like to use the -- a football field, the game
22 of football to explain what a reasonable doubt is.

23 Reasonable doubt would be the other team, being the 24 State, getting the ball into the end zone; driving the 25 ball all the way down the field, to get into the end zone.

1 And it's not getting the ball across the 50 or getting the
2 ball into field goal range. It's getting the ball all the 3 way into the end zone.

4 At the same time, as the respondent, we don't have to 5 move the ball or do anything. The burden is totally on 6 the State.

7 Now, what they're talking about is not whether or not
8 my client did something. What you have to listen to is 9 whether or not my client is going to do something like 10 this again. It is a different situation. It's almost 11 like looking into a crystal ball into the future.

12 We submit to you, at the close of all the evidence,
13 listening to the testimony, that you will conclude that 14 the State has not created that crystal ball to be able to 15 say my client would do something like this again beyond a
16 reasonable doubt. And it's clearly that simple.

17 And as the judge has indicated and Mr. Flores
18 indicated, this should be a relatively short trial. Thank 19 you.

20 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Flores, you may call your 21 first witness.

22 MR. FLORES: Yes, Your Honor. The State would call
23 Dr. Kimberly Harrison.

24 THE COURT: Dr. Harrison, come forward please, and be 25 sworn.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 30

1 DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON, having been
2 first duly sworn, testifies as follows:

3 MR. BRADLEY: Please state your full name, and spell
4 your first and last name for the record.

5 THE WITNESS: My name is Kimberly Harrison; K-i-m-b-e-
6 r-l-y; Harrison, H-a-r-r-i-s-o-n.

7 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES:

8 Q Good morning, Dr. Harrison.

9 A Good morning.

10 Q Doctor, how are you currently employed?

11 A I'm employed as the chief psychologist with the South
12 Carolina Department of Mental Health, Forensic Evaluation
13 Service.

14 Q And Doctor, what professional degrees do you possess?

15 A I have a bachelor's and master's degrees in 16 psychology, and a PhD in clinical psychology.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Brooks.

18 MR. BROOKS: If -- if the Court -- if the Court would 19 like, we will go ahead and stipulate that Dr. Harrison ---

20 THE COURT: Is an expert in --

21 MR. FLORES: Be the field of forensic psychology, Your 22 Honor.

23 THE COURT: But if you want to go through --

24 MR. FLORES: I would like to add at least two or three 25 -- couple of questions.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 31

1 THE COURT: All right. I'll allow him three or four.

2 MR. FLORES: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: But I'll note your acceptance of her at 4 the right time.

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES (continues):

6 Q Had you finished -- I believe you finished with your 7 question.

8 A Yes.

9 Q You stated psychology. What is -- would you describe
10 the area of psychology for the jury, what psychology is.

11 A Psychology is a broad field. But basically, it's the 12 study of human behavior, thoughts, and emotions. And then 13 clinical psychology -- excuse me (clears throat) -- which 14 is what my degree is in, is the study of mental 15 abnormalities or mental disorders in terms of assessing,
16 diagnosing, and treating those disorders.

17 Q Thank you, Doctor. Now, have you had any specialized 18 training or experience within the field of psychology?

19 A Yes. I completed a post-doctoral fellowship in 20 forensic clinical psychology.

21 Q And can you describe for the jury what forensic 22 clinical psychology is.

23 A Yes. Forensic clinical psychology is the application
24 of psychological principles to the legal system. So
25 basically, that just means that I evaluate people who are

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 32

1 involved in the legal system, whether it's criminal
2 defendants, people being considered for civil commitment.
3 It may be child custody evaluations.

4 So it's just the application of evaluating people,
5 diagnosing, for purposes of the Court, to help the Court
6 answer specific legal questions.

7 Q Doctor, have you previously been recognized as and 8 testified as an expert witness in the field of forensic
9 psychology in the courts of this state?

10 A Yes, I have.

11 Q And approximately how many times have you been so
12 recognized?

13 A I believe about 35 to 40 times.

14 MR. FLORES: Your Honor, at this time we would ask
15 that she be recognized as an expert in forensic
16 psychology.

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. -- Mr. Brooks does not 18 object, and stipulates to that.

19 Ladies and gentlemen, normally a witness can only 20 testify to what they saw, heard, smelled, tasted, or felt.
21 However, when somebody has a level of expert -- or 22 education and experience, we consider them to be experts;
23 and therefore, they can render their opinion.

24 Now, whether or not you, as the jury, decide to accept 25 their opinion, will be totally up to y'all; and you should

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 33

1 give it the weight that you deem it to be appropriate.

2 Thank you. You may proceed.

3 MR. FLORES: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES (continues):

5 Q Dr. Harrison, how -- how many times have you been 6 appointed by the Court to perform an evaluation in this 7 type of case?

8 A Specific to the commitment evaluations?

9 Q Yes, ma'am.

10 A I believe about 15 times.

11 Q Fifteen times. And how many cases have you rendered
12 an opinion in which you thought the individual should be 13 committed to the Department of Mental Health?

14 A I believe 6 times out of those 15.

15 Q Doctor, the six cases in which you opined that an 16 individual should be committed to the Department of Mental 17 Health, did you receive any additional compensation?

18 A No. I'm a salaried employee of the Department of 19 Mental Health.

20 Q And when you are asked to perform evaluations in these 21 types of cases, do you receive any additional 22 compensation?

23 A No, I do not.

24 Q Doctor, how did you come -- become involved with this 25 case specifically?

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 34

1 A As Mr. Haynesworth's case was going through the 2 process -- and it's a multi-step process to get to this
3 stage -- I was appointed by the Court to conduct the 4 evaluation.

5 Q And could you describe for the jury what you do or 6 what your protocol is when you are asked to perform an 7 evaluation pursuant to this act.

8 A Once I get a court order authorizing me to conduct the 9 evaluation, the first thing I do is attempt to gather as 10 many records related to the respondent as I can. So these 11 would be legal records, police records, records regarding 12 his convictions and sentences, records from the Department
13 of Corrections where the individual has been housed.

14 If there are any mental health records available, any 15 psychiatric hospitalizations, or treatment at the local 16 community mental health center, we attempt to obtain those 17 records.

18 Then we schedule an interview with the respondent. I
19 meet with the respondent at least once, sometimes on 20 multiple occasions, depending on the extent of the 21 interview.

22 I evaluate the -- the individual by asking them
23 questions about their history, their background, going
24 through their criminal history, all of the crimes that 25 they have been accused of.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 35

1 In some cases there may be psychological testing
2 that's needed to be done.

3 During the course of the evaluation, I may find out
4 that there are other records that are needed, so I'll 5 request those records as well. For example, if the 6 person's been in the military or if there are significant
7 medical issues, we may request medical records as well.

8 So basically, I'm gathering as much information as I
9 possibly can, because the main things I'm trying to do is 10 see if the person meets criteria for a diagnosis, and to 11 determine their level of risk as far as committing another
12 sexually violent offense in the future.

13 And so I put all that information together into a
14 report, and submit that to the Court.

15 Q And did you follow that protocol with regard to this 16 case?

17 A Yes, I did.

18 Q Now, the information that you listed -- the medical 19 records, the -- perhaps military records, information from 20 an interview -- everything that you listed, is this the 21 type of information that other experts in your field would 22 rely upon when rendering opinions in these matters?

23 A Yes, it is.

24 Q Doctor, as part of your evaluation, did you actually
25 meet with Mr. Haynesworth?

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 36

1 A Yes, I did.

2 Q And could you identify Mr. Haynesworth for the jury?

3 A Yes. He's sitting next to his attorney.

4 MR. FLORES: Yes. Your Honor, we would just like the 5 record to reflect that Dr. Harrison did in fact identify 6 Mr. Haynesworth.

7 THE COURT: The record will so reflect.

8 MR. FLORES: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES (continues):

10 Q Before we move into your -- what you exactly did in 11 this case, I want to ask you one more question ---

12 A Uh-huh.

13 Q --- about how you reached your professional opinions
14 in these matters. How do you -- once you've done the 15 evaluation, the -- the interview, which you got all these 16 documents, reports -- how do you reach that opinion as to 17 whether he should be committed or -- or whether his risk
18 is so high he should be committed; and two, he's 19 diagnosed, how do you reach that opinion?

20 A Again, it's relying on all the information that I
21 collect. So there's generally not just one piece of 22 information that I rely on. But I look at all the 23 information and have to determine, sort of, the weight of 24 the data, which way that it falls; and following the way
25 that the statute is outlined. Again, we're looking for

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 37

1 specific diagnoses and a level of risk that would make him
2 a danger to be released.

3 Q Doctor, on how many occasions did you actually sit
4 down and talk with Mr. Haynesworth?

5 A I met with him twice.

6 Q And about for how long?

7 A The first time was for about an hour, and the second
8 time was about an hour and 35 minutes.

9 Q Is the amount of time that you spoke with Mr.
10 Haynesworth, is that about common for individuals that you
11 interview in these cases?

12 A It can vary. A lot depending on how much there is to 13 talk about, how much the person wants to disclose about 14 their history. But I would say it was about average.

15 Q Dr. Harrison, in addition to meeting with and 16 interviewing Mr. Haynesworth, what type of information did
17 you receive in this case to aid you in conducting your 18 evaluation?

19 A In this specific case, I received the law enforcement
20 records. These would include arrest warrants, incident
21 reports related to his various arrests.

22 I received record -- medical records from Tuomey
23 Healthcare System; records from the South Carolina
24 Department of Corrections; records from the Department of 25 Probation, Parole, and Pardon Services.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 38

1 We had court and law enforcement records also from a
2 county in Washington State where he had previously
3 resided; records from the Columbia Area Mental Health
4 Center; records from Morris Village; and I also 5 interviewed his ex-wife on the phone.

6 Q And for the documentary information, how did you
7 receive that type of information?

8 A Some of it came from your office, some of it came from 9 -- the rest of it, I guess, came directly from the source,
10 so, from the Department of Corrections or the Columbia
11 Area Mental Health Center.

12 Q And again, this is the type of information that's 13 reasonably relied upon by other experts in your field?

14 A Yes.

15 Q At the time of your interview and evaluation of Mr.
16 Haynesworth, was there any information that you did not
17 receive?

18 A No. None that I was aware of.

19 Q And did you consider and rely upon this information in 20 rendering your opinion in this matter?

21 A Yes, I did.

22 Q Doctor, is it common for experts in your field to rely
23 upon an individual's criminal history to reach an opinion
24 in a sexually violent predator case?

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 39

1 Q And why is that?

2 A Well, it's generally a first -- one of the first
3 pieces of information that we look at, because the statute
4 requires that the individual has been convicted of a
5 sexually violent offense. So we would review the criminal
6 history to see that they were, in fact, convicted of a
7 sexually violent offense.

8 And also, just to see if there's a pattern of 9 offending, how many offenses and convictions that they 10 have to -- to get a good background for that.

11 Q And did you rely on Mr. Haynesworth's criminal history
12 this -- during your evaluation in this case?

13 A Yes, I did.

14 Q Well, was it the sole reason you reached your opinions
15 in these matters?

16 A No, it was not. It was one piece of information that 17 I considered.

18 Q Based on your interview and your review of his file at 19 the time of your interview, had Mr. Haynesworth been 20 convicted of a sexually violent offense?

21 A Yes, he had.

22 Q Of what was he convicted?

23 A What -- I'm sorry.

24 Q Of what was he convicted?

25 A What was he convicted -- he pleaded guilty to criminal

1 sexual conduct in the third degree, and assault and
2 battery of a high and aggravated nature.

3 MR. FLORES: Your Honor, if I may approach the 4 witness.

5 THE COURT: You may.

6 (Mr. Flores hands documents to the witness.)

7 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES (continues):

8 Q Doctor, I'm going to hand you some documents which 9 have been identified as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1. Would you
10 please look through those set of documents, please.

11 (The witness complies.)

12 A Okay.

13 Q Doctor, have you seen these documents before?

14 A Yes, I have.

15 Q Were they part of the information you received in -- 16 in conducting your evaluation in this case?

17 A Yes, they were.

18 Q Could you please describe what these documents are.

19 A Yes. These are indictments for the offenses that I
20 just mentioned. So this is an indictment for -- I'm 21 sorry. I'm going to start back here.

22 These are indictments for the offenses that he was 23 originally charged with, which -- which would be 24 indictments for kidnapping, criminal sexual conduct in the 25 first degree, attempted murder, and assault and battery

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 41

1 with intent to kill.

2 There are also arrest warrants for each one of those
3 offenses.

4 And then the -- the documents indicated that he pled
5 guilty to the two offenses -- criminal sexual conduct in 6 the third degree, and assault and battery of a high and 7 aggravated nature -- with the sentences he was given by 8 the judge.

9 Q How do you know that these documents are what they 10 portray to be?

11 A They're stamped with a seal, indicating that they are 12 certified true copies from the Court.

13 Q Doctor, would you tell the jury what took -- took 14 place with this specific offense.

15 A Yes. This offense occurred in 1996. Mr. Haynesworth
16 offered a 22-year-old woman a ride at a convenience store.
17 He got -- she got in the car with him, and he then crashed
18 the car on some railroad tracks.

19 He then held her against her will, choked and slapped
20 her, and threatened to kill her. He forced her into the 21 back seat, where he performed vaginal intercourse on her
22 and attempted to perform anal intercourse on her. He 23 continued to choke her while he assaulted her.

24 She was able -- the victim was eventually able to 25 escape and run to a nearby house, and her clothes were

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 42

1 recovered in the back seat of his car.

2 Q And as you indicated before, Mr. Haynesworth did plead
3 guilty to this?

4 A Yes, he did.

5 Q And what was his sentence on that?

6 A He was sentenced to 10 years incarceration, suspended
7 to time served and 5 years probation.

8 Q Well, what about this offense was significant with 9 regard to your opinion?

10 A The significant aspects of this case was that he 11 assaulted a stranger; and also the level of violence that 12 was used toward her, the use of physical force in addition
13 to the sexual assault.

14 Q Was this the sole basis for your opinion in this 15 matter?

16 A No, it was not.

17 Q Doctor, based upon your review of the records, did you
18 discover any other criminal conduct against Mr.
19 Haynesworth that was similar in nature?

20 A Yes. He had actually -- he's actually been arrested
21 for several other sexual offenses as well. The first 22 known one occurred in Tacoma, Washington. This was when 23 Mr. Haynesworth was 18 years old, and he was accused of 24 sexually assaulting his 15-year-old female cousin.

25 He told the younger cousins to go outside; and then

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 43

1 with his 15-year-old female cousin in the home, he locked
2 the doors, removed her pants and underwear, and inserted
3 his penis into her vagina.

4 The victim reported that she was screaming for him to 5 stop. Her siblings heard the victim yelling from inside
6 the house.

7 He was charged with statutory rape in the third
8 degree, but that charge was dismissed because the victim
9 did not want to testify in court.

10 Q Did Mr. Haynesworth tell you anything about that 11 offense?

12 A When I evaluated him, he denied committing that 13 offense, and said that the victim's mother accused him of 14 it to get back at him.

15 Q And when did that offense occur?

16 A That was in 1988.

17 Q Was there any other criminal activity in the State of 18 Washington that you discovered?

19 A In the State of Washington, there was another incident
20 that same year, 1988, when he was arrested for assaulting
21 a 19-year-old female prostitute. He reportedly offered
22 her money for sex, and she agreed to go with him to his 23 residence. When she asked to see the money, he could not
24 show it to her. So she tried to leave, and he assaulted
25 her by hitting her on her face. And he was found guilty

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 44

1 of simple assault for that.

2 Q And when did that take place?

3 A That was in 1988.

4 Q Was there any other conduct in Washington State that
5 you discovered?

6 A Yes. One more in Washington State. This was also in 7 1988. He approached a woman and asked her for -- offered
8 her drugs in exchange for sex. She refused, and he then 9 withdrew a gun, loaded a bullet into it, and pointed it at 10 her. She ran; he chased her, tripped her. He then handed
11 the gun to another person that was with him, and proceeded 12 to punch and kick her. He was charged with assault, but 13 based on the records we have, it looked like that charge
14 was dismissed.

15 Q And did he discuss this offense with you?

16 A He did not. No.

17 Q Now, the charge to which he pled guilty in 1996 was 18 here in Sumter County. Did you discover any other 19 criminal activity of a sexual or violent nature here in 20 Sumter County?

21 A Yes. In 1989, he was arrested for sexually assaulting
22 a woman in the woods near a grocery store here in Sumter
23 County. He was accused of choking her, forcing her to 24 have sexual intercourse; and then threatening to kill her,
25 her child, and her unborn child. He was charged with

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 45

1 criminal sexual conduct in the first degree, but that
2 charge was dismissed.

3 Q Do you have any indication why the charge was 4 dismissed?

5 A That was not in any of the information I received.
6 No.

7 Q Did Mr. Haynesworth give you any reason?

8 A No, he did not.

9 Q Coming back to the 1996 offense, could you describe
10 what Mr. Haynesworth told you happened during that 11 offense?

12 A Yes. His account of this offense was rather 13 confusing, in that I never felt like I got a really 14 coherent account of what happened.

15 But basically, what he said is that he was taking his 16 girlfriend's teenage sons out, and this -- he encountered
17 this victim who agreed to buy drugs for the boys. They 18 gave her money, but then she ran away from the car.

19 And so then he -- Mr. Haynesworth also told me that 20 this individual was actually a man dressed as a woman.
21 But hospital records indicate that vaginal swabs were 22 taken from the victim, which would indicate that it was 23 not a man, that it was a woman.

24 And he denied engaging in any kind of sexual activity
25 with the victim.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 46

1 Q Doctor, during the course of the 1996 offense, did you
2 read through the law enforcement documents that
3 accompanied that information?

4 A Yes, I did.

5 Q Was there anything else related to Mr. Haynesworth's
6 conduct towards women as you discovered?

7 A As -- when investigators were looking into this
8 offense, Mr. Haynesworth's girlfriend at the time informed
9 law enforcement that he had forced her to have sex with 10 him against her will, broke her finger, threatened to kill
11 her, choke her. And would hold her down, pry her legs
12 open, and have sex with her, even when she was saying
13 "no."

14 Q These -- this is all information you gained from law
15 enforcement documents.

16 A Correct.

17 Q You've never actually talked to his ex-girlfriend?

18 A No.

19 Q But these are the types of records that you, as a 20 psychologist, would rely upon in reaching your opinion in 21 this matter?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q If you received word that this -- this type of conduct
24 never happened, would that change your opinion?

25 A Ultimately it would not change my opinion in this case

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 47

1 I don't believe.

2 Q Doctor, based on your review of the law enforcement
3 documents, has Mr. Haynesworth been convicted of any other
4 criminal charge with -- with regard to violence against 5 women or sexual allegations?

6 A Yes. I believe that there was another one. This was 7 here in Sumter County. That between 2000 -- within the 8 month of November of 2003, he sexually assaulted his 13-
9 year-old stepdaughter, by having vaginal intercourse with 10 her and touching her chest. He was charged with criminal 11 sexual conduct with a minor, second degree. He eventually 12 pleaded guilty to assault and battery of a high and 13 aggravated nature for this offense.

14 Q And what did Mr. Haynesworth tell you about this 15 offense?

16 A To me, he denied ever engaging in sexual activity with 17 his stepdaughter. He said that the victim's mother, who 18 was his wife at the time, reported him to police because 19 she wanted money from him.

20 Q Now, the victim's mother -- did you investigate -- did
21 you come across any allegations of criminal domestic abuse
22 against the victim's mother when you were reviewing law
23 enforcement documents?

24 A Let me see. I believe he was -- he was charged with 25 criminal domestic violence, third offense, when he went to

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 48

1 her residence and threatened to shoot her.

2 Q And this was against the victim's mother; is that ---

3 A I believe that's correct, yes.

4 Q This was on the law enforcement documents you
5 received?

6 A Correct.

7 Q Doctor, was this information that you just related to 8 the jury -- was that part of the basis of your opinion in 9 this case?

10 A Yes, it was.

11 Q I hate to keep repeating myself, but is it the sole
12 basis for your opinion in this case?

13 A No, it's not.

14 Q Doctor, based upon your interview and the records you
15 received from conducting your evaluation in this case, did
16 you discover whether Mr. Haynesworth has undergone any sex
17 offender treatment?

18 A There's no indication he's participated in any kind of 19 sex offender treatment.

20 Q Doctor, I'd like to talk with you now about risk 21 factors.

22 A Okay.

23 Q Could you describe for the jury what a risk factor is.

24 A Sure. A risk factor is something that makes a future
25 event more likely to happen. So we often hear this when

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 49

1 we talk about medical issues. We -- we think about risk
2 factors for heart disease or risk factors for cancer.

3 So as we probably all know, risk factors for having a
4 heart attack in the future might include things like:
5 smoking, not exercising, a family history of heart
6 disease; eating a bad diet. Those are things that we 7 consider to be risk factors, that if you do those things,
8 you're making yourself more likely to have a heart attack
9 in the future.

10 Now, does that mean that you're absolutely going to 11 have a heart attack if you smoke and don't exercise and 12 eat poorly? No, it doesn't. We, you know, occasionally
13 hear the stories about a person who lives to 100, and they 14 ate bacon every morning and smoked all their lives. Okay.

15 But research has shown that there are certain factors
16 that will make it more likely that something will happen
17 in the future, that you will have a heart attack in the 18 future.

19 And the same science has been applied to research when 20 it comes to sex offenders. Researchers have identified
21 those things that make it more likely that a person will 22 commit another sex offense in the future. Researchers
23 have studied large groups, and identified those factors
24 that make it more likely that they will re-offend again.

25 Q And what are the different types of risk factors?

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 50

1 A We generally think about risk factors in two different
2 groups. Static risk factors are those things that have
3 happened in the past that you can't change, and you don't
4 have any control over. So when we're talking about heart
5 disease, we're talking about family history of heart
6 disease or if you smoked in the past or if you've had a
7 heart attack in the past, those would be considered static
8 risk factors. They're unchanging.

9 And then we have your dynamic risk factors. Those are 10 things that are possible to change. So for example, your 11 current diet, your current weight, current activity level.
12 Those would be considered dynamic risk factors.

13 So when it comes to sex offenders, static risk factors
14 would be: number of sex offenses of the person who's been 15 convicted in the past; the types of victims that the 16 person has offended against in the past; their number of 17 convictions for violent offenses in the past; the person's 18 age -- we know that as people get older, they're less
19 likely to re-offend with a sexual offense.

20 And then there are dynamic risk factors as well that 21 may make a person more likely to commit a sexual offense.
22 And these would include: poor problem solving skills,
23 hostility towards people, impulsive behavior. Those would 24 be considered dynamic risk factors that may be helped 25 through treatment.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 51

1 Q And were these risk factors part of the basis for your
2 opinion in this matter?

3 A Yes, they were.

4 Q With regard to static risk factors, Doctor, was there
5 an assessment you performed to gauge Mr. Haynesworth's
6 likelihood to re-offend?

7 A Yes. There's a tool that we use in this field. It's 8 called the "Static-99R." And basically what it is is 9 static risk factors, so those things that cannot be 10 changed, that we use to get an estimate of the person's 11 risk for sexually re-offending in the future.

12 Mr. Haynesworth's score on this particular tool would 13 be considered in the high range compared to other sex
14 offenders.

15 Q And what does that mean with regard to other sex
16 offenders: It's high in regard to other sex offenders.
17 What does that mean?

18 A Of sex offenders who got the same score that he did,
19 about 25 percent of them committed another sex offense
20 over five years; and about 33 percent of them committed
21 another sex offense over 10 years.

22 Q That information's based upon actual sex offenses
23 having occurred?

24 A Being arrested or convicted for any sex offense.

25 Q Does it take into account any non-reported sex

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 52

1 offenses?

2 A It does not.

3 Q With regard to dynamic risk factors, Doctor, could you
4 describe what risk factors you discovered that Mr.
5 Haynesworth has and how they might relate to his
6 likelihood to sexually re-offend?

7 A Based on reviewing records about him as well as 8 talking to him, I felt that some risk factors that were 9 really relevant to his case were -- it's called 10 "resistance to rules and supervision." So he -- he tends 11 to break the rules, break the law. He has an extensive
12 criminal history outside of the sexual offenses.

13 He was repeatedly violated on his probation. He would 14 break the rules of probation. He had numerous
15 disciplinary infractions when he was in prison.

16 So all of those things indicate that he has this
17 resistance to rules and supervision, which has been shown
18 to be an important risk factor for sex offenders in terms
19 of committing another sex offense.

20 He also tends to have poor cognitive problem solving.
21 So what this means is just ability to solve problems to --
22 if something is not working, to try something different,
23 try a different strategy; have some flexible thinking
24 about how to solve problems, rather than just resorting to 25 violence or doing the same thing over and over again.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 53

1 And then hostility. His history is also full of 2 examples of hostile behavior that he has demonstrated,
3 particularly for -- for this situation against women, but
4 also against others as well.

5 Q And Doctor, were these dynamic risk factors part of 6 the basis for your opinion?

7 A Yes, they were.

8 Q Were they the sole basis for your opinion?

9 A No, they were not.

10 Q Doctor, you mentioned that Mr. Haynesworth has a 11 history or at least has a disciplinary record while he was 12 in the Department of Corrections.

13 Was there anything you learned about his conduct at 14 the Department of Corrections that you thought was 15 disturbing?

16 A He had several what are categorized as "major 17 disciplinary infractions" when he was in prison. These 18 would include striking an employee, fighting without a
19 weapon, threatening to inflict harm on an employee,
20 threatening to inflict harm on an inmate; as well as 18
21 minor infractions, which would be things like refusing 22 orders, using obscene language, disrespecting officers.

23 One of the disciplinary infractions that was most 24 relevant to -- to this case was when he stuck his hand out
25 of his cell and touched a nurse's breast as she was

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 54

1 walking by. And he was charged with battery for that in 2 the prison.

3 Q Did Mr. Haynesworth discuss that offense with you?

4 A I do not believe he did.

5 Q Doctor, was there any other information that you
6 relied upon in reaching your opinion in this matter?

7 A I believe we've pretty much summarized it.

8 Q Doctor, I -- I want to first go to the diagnosis
9 portion of your opinion.

10 A Okay.

11 Q And then we'll discuss the risk assessment portion of 12 your opinion.

13 Based on your examination of Mr. Haynesworth, review
14 of his records, everything you've been describing for the 15 jury, all of these risk factors, did you render an opinion
16 to a reasonable degree of psychological certainty as to 17 whether Mr. Haynesworth has a mental abnormality or 18 personality disorder?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And what was that opinion?

21 A Based on all of this information and my evaluation of 22 Mr. Haynesworth, I concluded that he meets criteria for 23 two mental disorders. The first one that I diagnosed with 24 is called "paraphilia, not otherwise specified."

25 And what a paraphilia is is a pattern of interest in

1 or arousal to or behavior -- sexual behaviors involving
2 deviant sexual stimuli. So for example, someone -- you
3 may have heard of the term "pedophilia," which is someone
4 who's sexually attracted to children. Pedophilia is a
5 type of paraphilia. Paraphilia's just a broader term.

6 There are several different types of paraphilia. So
7 if people are sexually attracted to animals, that's a
8 particular type of paraphilia.

9 In Mr. Haynesworth's case, he appears, based on his 10 history, to be sexually aroused by having sex with non-
11 consenting partners. So he is sexually aroused by forcing 12 women to have sex with him.

13 And so based on that in his history, all of the 14 allegations against him since at least 1988, indicate that 15 he has a history of sexual arousal to non-consisting 16 sexual activity; and he's acted on that interest on 17 multiple occasions. And therefore, I diagnosed him with 18 paraphilia, not otherwise specified.

19 Q And the second mental disorder?

20 A The second one is actually a personality disorder.
21 Personality disorders are long-standing patterns of 22 behaving and interacting with people that cause
23 impairments.

24 In Mr. Haynesworth's case, he has a long history of 25 antisocial behavior. So all that lawbreaking behavior.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 56

1 He has a long history of irritability and aggressiveness,
2 deceitfulness, lack of remorse for his behavior. And all
3 of these symptoms are characteristics of antisocial
4 personality disorder.

5 A requirement for diagnosing antisocial personality
6 disorder is that the person had to have been engaging in
7 these type of behaviors prior to the age of 15. Because I
8 didn't have any records going back that early, I wasn't 9 sure if he was engaging in these behaviors at such a young
10 age. So in that case, I had to diagnose him with 11 personality disorder, not otherwise specified, with 12 antisocial features.

13 So just a long way of saying that he has a history of 14 breaking the law, not caring about his actions on other 15 people.

16 Q Now, when you say requirements for diagnosing, how do
17 you reach your -- had he reached base diagnoses? Is there
18 anything you rely upon?

19 A Any diagnoses that I make are based on a book that we
20 use that's called "The Diagnostic and Statistical Manual."
21 This is published by the American Psychiatric Association, 22 and it's a book that describes all of the different mental 23 disorders and the criteria that you have to meet in order
24 to be diagnosed with them.

25 And this is just the system that mental health

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 57

1 providers use so that, for example, if I say that someone
2 has schizophrenia, we -- we're all talking about the same
3 thing. It's just a way to systematize and clarify
4 diagnoses. So if I say "personality disorder," or if I
5 say a "paraphilia," we're all talking about the same
6 thing, and we're using the same criteria to hopefully
7 avoid a lot of disagreements about who has what disorder.
8 So it's just a set of guidelines for diagnosing.

9 Q Doctor, are these conditions -- paraphilia not 10 otherwise specified and his personality disorder -- are 11 these considered lifelong conditions?

12 A Yes. They generally are considered chronic.

13 Q Can they be treated?

14 A They can generally be managed if the person wants to 15 participate in treatment or learning new ways of behavior
16 to manage their behavior.

17 Q With regard to the combination of having to mental 18 disorders, does that make -- does that affect your opinion
19 in this case at all?

20 A It does. Generally the -- the two biggest groups of 21 risk factors when we look at predicting sexual violence in 22 the future is -- is does the person have deviant sexual 23 arousal and do they have an antisocial orientation. And 24 having those two big areas is really important and 25 significant, because it indicates that the person is both

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 58

1 interested in engaging in deviant sexual behavior, and his
2 antisocial orientation means that they're not afraid to 3 break the rules or violate the rights of other people to 4 get their sexual needs met.

5 And so when you have both of those, that's considered
6 pretty significant in terms of future risk.

7 Q Doctor, based on all the information that you
8 described for the jury during her testimony, including
9 your -- the information you learned from Mr. Haynesworth,
10 at this -- at this time, do you have an opinion to a
11 reasonable degree of psychological certainty as to whether 12 Mr. Haynesworth paraphilia and personality disorder affect 13 his emotional or volitional capacity, so that he is 14 predisposed to commit future sexually violent offenses?

15 A Yes, I did come to an opinion.

16 Q And what is that opinion?

17 A My opinion is that Mr. Haynesworth doesn't meet
18 criteria to be committed under the Sexually Violent
19 Predator Act.

20 Q And how did you reach that opinion?

21 A Again, based on all the information I considered --
22 the documents, the interview with Mr. Haynesworth, his
23 diagnoses, use of the risk assessment instrument that I
24 mentioned, the Static 99; as well as looking at dynamic
25 risk factors that he appears to have -- so taking all of

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 59

1 that information together, I believe that he does have the 2 mental abnormality and a personality disorder that makes
3 him likely to commit acts of sexual violence.

4 Q Is it your opinion that he has the propensity to be
5 dangerous and to commit future sexually violent offenses?

6 A Yes, that is my opinion.

7 Q Is it your opinion that his propensity is of such a
8 degree that it poses a menace to the health and safety of 9 others?

10 A I believe that it does, yes.

11 Q Doctor, is it your opinion to a reasonable degree of 12 psychological certainty as to whether -- I'm sorry.
13 Strike that.

14 Doctor, do you have an opinion to a reasonable degree
15 of psychological certainty as to whether Mr. Haynesworth
16 will engage of acts of sexual violence if he is not 17 confined to a secure facility for long-term control, care,
18 and treatment?

19 A Well, as we said earlier, we don't have a crystal
20 ball. We can't predict the future. I can't predict what 21 either -- what any of you are going to do when you walk
22 out of this courtroom. That's something that no one can 23 do, you know. We can have all the training in the world,
24 but we can predict that. So all we can do is go off of 25 what research has shown to be risk factors, what we know

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 60

1 about sex offenders, what we know about their likelihood
2 to commit future sex offenses in the future.

3 And it's my opinion that, based on everything that I
4 know about Mr. Haynesworth and what the research has shown
5 us about sex offenders, is that he is in that group of 6 extremely dangerous sex offenders who are likely to re-
7 offend in the future.

8 Q And it's your opinion he meets the legal criteria to 9 be found a sexually violent predator at this time.

10 A That's correct.

11 MR. FLORES: Beg the Court's indulgence for a moment.

12 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

13 (Brief pause.)

14 MR. FLORES: Your Honor, that's all the questions I
15 have for Dr. Harrison at this time.

16 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, I'm 17 going to give you about a 5 minute break before we do the 18 cross-examination of this witness this morning. Thank 19 you.

20 Just allow you to stretch for a minute, then we'll 21 come right back. All right. Thank you.

22 Ladies and gentlemen, please do not discuss anything
23 about the case while you're back there.

24 (Jury exits at 12:15 p.m.)

25 THE COURT: All right. We'll take about a 5 min.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 61

1 recess, just long enough if you want to use the restroom
2 facilities.

3 (To the witness) So you can't talk ...

4 THE WITNESS: Okay.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

6 (Off the record from 12:15 p.m. to 12:25 p.m.)

7 (Jury returns to the courtroom at 12:25 p.m.)

8 THE COURT: Mr. Brooks, are you ready for cross-
9 examination?

10 MR. BROOKS: I am.

11 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS:

12 Q How are you today?

13 A I'm well, thank you.

14 Q Now, as Mr. Flores asked you a lot of questions about 15 Mr. Haynesworth's past, you -- and he went through a 16 recited certain things that he'd been arrested for; is 17 that correct?

18 A That is correct.

19 Q And a large number of these, he was arrested, but the 20 charge was ultimately dismissed; is that correct?

21 A Yes. In some of them the charges were dismissed or 22 dropped for various reasons.

23 Q Okay. Is it fair to say that some of these that were 24 dismissed, if not a great majority of these, were 25 dismissed because they never happened?

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 62

1 A I couldn't say that. I don't know. Some of them were
2 dismissed -- I know one because the victim didn't want to
3 testify in court. Some of the other ones no reason was 4 given.

5 Q But now, you -- you're only going off of the record
6 you got, and that record says the victim did more testify
7 --

8 A Correct.

9 Q -- is that correct?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And you don't know anything other than what you saw 12 down on paper.

13 A That's correct.

14 Q It -- it could be because it never even happened, but 15 you don't know.

16 A That's a possibility, yes.

17 Q Okay. Now -- and the only things that were dealing
18 with that we know of as a conviction was the 1996 incident
19 where he pled; is that correct?

20 A Correct.

21 Q Okay. And that's the one that -- as Mr. Flores had 22 indicated, that triggered the statute; is that correct?

23 A Right. That was his qualifying offense that qualified
24 him to be considered under the Sexually Violent Predator
25 Act.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 63

1 Q Okay. And that's basically some 17 years ago; is that
2 correct?

3 A 1996. Yes.

4 Q Okay. And while he has been arrested for other things
5 since then, the great majority of those charges ultimately 6 got dismissed; is that correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q In your report, you also highlight certain other
9 criminal charges that were not of a sexual variety; is 10 that correct?

11 A Right.

12 Q Okay. And as Mr. Flores indicated, these nonsexual
13 criminal convictions didn't have much to do with your 14 evaluation, now, did it?

15 A Well, they do in terms of the diagnoses -- the 16 diagnoses that offered for the antisocial personality
17 disorder. They go -- the nonsexual offenses just, again,
18 illustrate this pattern of breaking the law, and violating 19 the rights of other people in numerous ways, not just 20 sexually violent ways.

21 Q Okay. But as you highlighted -- and you do admit
22 these are nonsexual offenses.

23 A Correct.

24 Q Okay. And there are many other people out there who 25 have many of these same charges and many of these same

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 64

1 convictions that -- that would not qualify as a person
2 with a sexual deviant problem as you described; is that
3 correct?

4 A Right. If all he had were the nonsexual offenses,
5 then we -- we wouldn't be here today.

6 Q Okay. Now, you talked about it earlier on direct.
7 Basically, what you're trying to do is, in essence,
8 predict the future as it relates to Mr. Haynesworth; is
9 that correct?

10 A No, I'm not. I can't predict the future. All I can 11 do is outline his risk -- his level of risk, based on what 12 we know from years of research; and apply that research to 13 a specific individual, Mr. Haynesworth in this case. And 14 specify or estimate what his level of risk is, what he has 15 about himself as -- in terms of his personality
16 characteristics or his ways of thinking; that would make 17 him likely or not to commit acts of sexual violence in the 18 future.

19 Q Okay. Now, one of those risks, does that also include
20 a person's age?

21 A Age is taken into account, yes, in that tool that I
22 described earlier.

23 Q Okay. And is -- is there a term called "aging out"?

24 A Well, we know that a person's level of risk does
25 decrease with age.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 65

1 Q Okay. And according to this report, Mr. Haynesworth
2 was born in 1969. And it's fair to say he would turn 44
3 this calendar year; is that correct?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q Okay. Is that getting closer to what we call "his 6 aging out"?

7 A Well, his age is taken into account with that Static-
8 99 tool that I mentioned. So that actually does lower his 9 risk. But even with that, his level of risk is still in 10 the high range, even taking his -- his age into account.

11 Q Isn't there a certain point where age becomes a bigger
12 factor as a person gets older?

13 A It's -- it's different for each person. I mean, there
14 are some people that are quite old that still commit sex
15 offenses. But in general, age 60 is when the age really -
16 - or when the risk really drops off.

17 Q Okay. Some of your report talks about incidents while 18 he's been incarcerated; is that correct?

19 A Correct.

20 Q You had mentioned 11 major disciplinary infractions;
21 is that correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Now, Doctor, it's fair to say that inmates do have 24 infractions while they're incarcerated, but they're not -- 25 doesn't necessarily mean that they're risk for sexual

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 66

1 violence is increased; is that fair to say?

2 A Well, sure. Some -- some inmates do have infractions
3 in prison; some do not. I evaluate some people who've
4 been in prison for many years without a single infraction.

5 The most concerning part of this to me was when he
6 touched a nurse's breast while he was incarcerated.

7 Q Okay. Now, according to that report you were -- you
8 were not there, so you're only going by the information is 9 given to you; is that correct?

10 A Correct.

11 Q And that particular situation was not something where 12 he went to court, had a trial, or anything of that nature;
13 is that correct?

14 A There -- there's some type of process within the 15 prison system where they can institutionally convict the 16 person. And so they do look at the evidence, the 17 statement of the victim in this case, and decide whether 18 to drop the charge or to, quote/unquote, "convict" them.

19 Q Okay. So basically what we're talking about is 20 administrative penalty. He didn't -- he didn't have a 21 court. It wouldn't -- it wouldn't be fair to call that 22 a conviction. We'd be talking about an administrative 23 penalty.

24 A Right.

25 Q That's different than coming into court on the other

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 67

1 offenses that you've highlighted; is that correct?

2 A Correct. Yes. He did not come to any kind of 3 criminal court for that charge.

4 Q Okay. So it's fair to say that you really can't say
5 he did it or not. You can only go off of a report is 6 given to you by South Carolina Department of Corrections.

7 A Right. All I can say is that the prison system and 8 whatever their tribunal system is for deciding on these 9 cases believed that he committed it, and he receive some 10 type of consequences for it.

11 Q Okay. And did you asked Mr. Haynesworth about that?

12 A I do not recall if I asked him about that. It may be 13 in my notes, but do not have it in my report.

14 Q Okay. Do you need an opportunity to look at your 15 notes to ---

16 A Sure.

17 Q --- refresh your memory about that.

18 A I can.

19 (Brief pause.)

20 A He just said that that was a lie.

21 Q Okay. Now, did you do any more investigation other
22 than reading a report and hear him say that total denial
23 of that incident? Did you do anything in addition to 24 that?

25 A No. There was -- I didn't see any other thing that I

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 68

1 could do at that point. I got his side of the story; I
2 got the prison's side of the story.

3 Q Okay.

4 MR. BROOKS: Beg the Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 (Mr. Brooks confers with Mr. Haynesworth.)

7 MR. BROOKS: No other questions, Judge.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Flores, any re-direct?

9 MR. FLORES: Just a few questions.

10 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

11 RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES:

12 Q Doctor, I just have a couple questions for you. I
13 won't limit myself to a couple of questions, so hopefully 14 within five.

15 A Okay.

16 Q The first, Mr. Brooks asked you about age issues with 17 this Static-99. Is that a certain proposition that if -- 18 if an individual gets above a certain age, that they're 19 not going to commit sexual offenses?

20 A No. Again, it's individual by individual. There are 21 elderly people who commit sex offenses. It is more rare,
22 of course. We know that most sex offenses are committed 23 by younger individuals, and that's why it is accounted for 24 in his risk level.

25 He -- you score this instrument by assigning points if

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 69

1 certain factors are present. And he actually loses a
2 point because of his age. It's considered getting older.

3 But even with that loss of a point, his score is still 4 in the high range.

5 Q And I just want to ask you about -- follow up on Mr.
6 Brooks's question about this -- this infraction while he
7 was incarcerated at the Department of Corrections.

8 You said you relied upon the documents from the 9 Department of Corrections concerning that offense.

10 A Correct.

11 Q And it was in those documents that referred to Mr.
12 Haynesworth's touching the breast of a correctional -- or 13 an individual who works at a correctional facility.

14 A Yes.

15 Q He did not refer to what the kind of penalty Mr.
16 Haynesworth received. What kind of penalty did he 17 receive?

18 A I'm not sure. I can look it up for you if -- if -- 19 but it's generally loss of some sort of privilege, loss of 20 good time that he may have earned, or loss of recreational 21 privileges or canteen privileges, something like that.

22 Q Does your report help refresh your memory?

23 A I'm sorry. Yes. There it is. He was sentenced to 24 720 days administrative segregation.

25 Q So we're not talking a couple of days, right? 720?

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - DR. KIMBERLY HARRISON 70

1 A Right.

2 Q Are you aware of an individual who's been infracted
3 within a correctional facility, whether they have any
4 right to appeal that, to a -- further correctional officer
5 or to any administrative law court?

6 A I believe that they do. I'm not well-versed in the 7 administrative procedures of the Department of 8 Corrections. But I have seen documents where they have 9 appealed their quote/unquote "conviction." I don't know
10 if that happened in this case.

11 MR. FLORES: Your Honor, that's all the questions I
12 have for Dr. Harrison.

13 THE COURT: Any re-cross?

14 MR. BROOKS: No, sir.

15 THE COURT: All right. Let me see the attorneys for 16 just one second.

17 (Whereupon a bench conference takes place.)

18 THE COURT: Just so that we're clear, Plaintiff's
19 Exhibit No. 1 is in evidence.

20 MR. FLORES: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may step down.

22 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Any objection to this witness being 24 excused?

25 MR. BROOKS: No, sir.

1 THE COURT: All right. All right. Ladies and
2 gentlemen, this is a good time to break for lunch. So we
3 will break and -- with the instructions that you not speak
4 to anyone about this why you go on your lunch.

5 Why don't you be back here right about two o'clock,
6 and then we'll continue with the case. Thank you.

7 (The jury exits at 12:40 p.m.)

8 THE COURT: All right. We will be in recess until two 9 o'clock. Thank you.

10 MR. FLORES: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 (Off the record at 12:40 p.m.)

12 (On the record at 2:03 p.m.)

13 THE COURT: Thank you. I understand that -- is this 14 your client's wife?

15 MR. BROOKS: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: All right. Ma'am, please stand.

17 (Mrs. Haynesworth complies.)

18 THE COURT: Place her under oath.

19 KIM HAYNESWORTH, having been first
20 duly sworn, testifies as follows:

21 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY THE COURT:

22 Q All right. Mrs. Haynesworth --

23 A Yes.

24 Q -- it was reported to me by a juror that you
25 approached that juror at lunch; is that correct?

1 A I approached ---

2 Q You talk to him and said something to that juror?

3 A About the Lord, I did.

4 Q And did you tell that juror not to believe everything
5 he heard?

6 A I said believe a little of what you hear.

7 Q Okay. Were you in the courtroom when I said that no
8 one was to speak to the jurors?

9 A (No audible response.)

10 Q You had entered the courtroom when I gave my charge to 11 the jury that -- that everyone was instructed not to speak
12 to the jurors? Were you in the courtroom then?

13 A Yeah, but ---

14 Q Okay. You didn't -- you didn't think that applied to 15 you?

16 A I apologize.

17 Q No, ma'am. Bring that juror in. I want to ask him on 18 the record.

19 (Juror Boler enters the courtroom.)

20 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir. What's your name?

21 JUROR: Elliot Boler.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Boler, it's my understanding that Ms.
23 Haynesworth made a statement to you.

24 JUROR: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: What was that she said?

1 JUROR: Don't believe everything I heard.

2 THE COURT: Does that affect your ability to be a fair
3 and impartial juror in this matter?

4 JUROR: No, sir.

5 THE COURT: You know what I think I'm going to do,
6 just -- I think I'm going to put the alternate on. Any 7 objection to that?

8 MR. BROOKS: Judge, he says ---

9 THE COURT: No. Actually he did -- you think you can 10 be fair and impartial?

11 JUROR: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Then I'm going to leave you on.
13 All right. Don't say anything to any of the other jurors.

14 JUROR: Oh, no. I didn't.

15 THE COURT: Thank you so much.

16 JUROR: You're welcome.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 (Juror Boler exits the courtroom.)

19 THE COURT: Ma'am, I have it well within my rights to 20 put you in jail for what you just did. But instead, I'm 21 going to bar you from the courtroom.

22 Please remove her from the courtroom.

23 (Whereupon Mrs. Haynesworth is escorted from the 24 courtroom by the bailiff at 2:05 p.m.)

25 THE COURT: Mr. Brooks, is your client going to

1 testify?

2 MR. BROOKS: He said he wishes to testify at this
3 time, Judge.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. BROOKS: That -- that's right before we broke for 6 lunch.

7 THE COURT: I understand. And now, do you want to go
8 ahead and rest? That way we can take up your motion at 9 this point in time, assuming that you're going --

10 MR. BROOKS: (To Mr. Flores) You haven't rested yet, 11 have you?

12 MR. FLORES: I have not.

13 THE COURT: He hasn't rest. But I'm going to let him
14 do it on the record ---

15 MR. BROOKS: Okay.

16 THE COURT: --- but do you want to go ahead and rest -
17 - rest now, so I don't have to send the jurors right back
18 out.

19 MR. BROOKS: You want to bring my client --

20 THE COURT: Let's bring your client in.

21 (The defendant enters the courtroom.)

22 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Flores, do you intend to 23 put up anymore testimony?

24 MR. FLORES: No, Your Honor. At this time, the State
25 would rest.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Mr. Brooks, do you have
2 any motions -- and he's going to still make it on the 3 record when the -- when the jury comes back out. But 4 then, you'll just proceed from there.

5 MR. BROOKS: Judge, we would respectfully ask the 6 Court to dismiss the State's petition for -- asking for 7 directed verdict. It's our position the State has not put
8 forth evidence to support their claim that my client's a
9 sexual violent predator, and ask that the case not be sent 10 to the jury.

11 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Flores.

12 MR. FLORES: Your Honor, may it please the Court. At 13 this time the State would submit we've submitted evidence
14 which a jury could find Mr. Haynesworth to be a sexually
15 violent predator. At the directed verdict phase, it's not 16 so much the weight of the evidence that -- where as is the 17 existence of such evidence. We believe there is adequate
18 evidence before the Court at this time.

19 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Mr. Brooks, based 20 upon what is been presented, I think the -- at least the 21 bare minimum has been shown to this Court; and therefore,
22 your motion is respectfully denied.

23 All right. He's going to go get my computer and then
24 we can go ahead and bring the jury. And then I'll let him
25 rest on the record, and then you can proceed.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 76

1 You intend to call witnesses, Mr. Brooks?

2 MR. BROOKS: Just my client.

3 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Very good.

4 (Brief pause.)

5 (The jury enters the courtroom at 2:10 p.m.)

6 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, hope y'all -- hope
7 y'all had a nice lunch. It's a nice day. If it was 10
8 degrees warmer, I'd probably lose half of you out there.

9 Mr. Flores.

10 MR. FLORES: Yes, Your Honor. At this time, the State
11 would rest.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Mr. Brooks.

13 MR. BROOKS: At this time, Judge, we would call
14 Alfonso Haynesworth.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Haynesworth, come forward and be 16 sworn.

17 ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH, having been first
18 duly sworn, testifies as follows:

19 THE BAILIFF: Please state your full name; spell your 20 first and last name for the record.

21 THE WITNESS: Alfonso Haynesworth; A-l-f-o-n-s-o, H-a-
22 y-n-e-s-w-o-r-t-h.

23 MR. BROOKS: Ready, Judge?

24 THE COURT: I am. Please proceed.

25 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 77

1 Q Mr. Haynesworth --

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q -- how are you today?

4 A All right.

5 Q Now, take a deep breath, because I know you don't do
6 this every day.

7 A No, I don't.

8 Q And you're seated here amongst these folks, these 9 jurors. Fine jury here in Sumter County.

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q Now, you've had the opportunity to listen to what Dr.
12 Harrison has told the Court here today, and you indicated
13 that you had some things to say.

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q Okay. Now, tell this jury in your own words why these 16 events will not happen again.

17 A All right. Well, when I reflect to 25 years ago, or 18 you want to say 17 years ago, I didn't understand the 19 burden of what Christ actually went through when he was 20 placed on the cross for accusations; and that was only
21 according to my belief. And so, as today, it's still a
22 shame that we put cross -- Christ through open shame that 23 when we put each other back on the cross like that, and 24 accuse individual with fabricated report.

25 This fabricated report began back in 2003, when Lee

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 78

1 County went into a riot. The staff was forced to
2 fabricate reports against inmates. And two of the staff
3 wouldn't go along with the system, so they got fired.
4 They follow -- they follow up by a law suit.

5 So I superceded [verbatim] behind that lawsuit and
6 filed a lawsuit. I was also fighting a case against the 7 Attorney General's Office, Department of Corrections with 8 -- on three accounts. I superceded [verbatim] in the 9 lawsuit.

10 So because of the fact they committed perjuries on the 11 reports, fabricated my records, I asked the examiner --
12 when she examined me, I said, "Well, you told me you had 13 DNA." I said, "It -- it's sad that you say you got DNA
14 from the scene when I never gave DNA testing." I said,
15 "You read my report, but you never read the lie detector
16 test and show that I told the truth on all accounts and 17 occasions."

18 Now, one of the victims, when they were forced to walk
19 away, they was found out through a thorough investigation
20 of committing perjury. And at that time, they was offered
21 to either leave or deal with prosecution.

22 So now, what I did do in 1996 was I did have a young
23 man that was -- one was 15, one was for the age of 17 --
24 and I took them out to pick up a prostitute. All right.
25 I done that; I pled down to that; I paid my crime for that

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 79

1 to society.

2 I didn't know 17 years later that I was going to come
3 back in here and face some long-term -- that's the word
4 they used to y'all -- for a life sentence, to go put on --
5 be put on dope in a facility to forget and be stripped
6 from your mind. And now, you don't have a chance to come
7 back to the courts to fight for yourself.

8 So they're actually trying to convict me for something
9 -- and it's scary, because I -- this the first time that 10 I'm actually dealing with something when it comes to my 11 freedom with, you know, situations related to my past
12 records.

13 But now, when I look at Rebecca, who saw all the 14 unlawfully things going on and couldn't do nothing, the 15 Lord remind Rebecca, "Yet you're going through these 16 things. But I just want you to continue to give me the 17 praise."

18 And that's what I'm going to do, regardless of what 19 y'all's decision about me today is rendered, I'm going to 20 continue to give God the praise.

21 Now, I'm 44 years of age. I look at Daniel as he 22 walked through the furnace of fire. Yes, I went through
23 those trials and tribulations. But you know, it's so sad
24 to think that if the jury back then -- back then acquitted
25 me, then why should I have to come back today to face the

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 80

1 same stimulations? I mean, they didn't find no mental
2 wrongs with me to where I should be treated for this and
3 that and the other. So why should I come back today, to 4 be any kind of endangerment to the means of anybody in 5 society?

6 I was yet young. Yes, I was. Running wild. Ninety-
7 five percent of the things I didn't do, but five percent
8 that I did do, I pled guilty to it. I paid a penalty for 9 it. I paid my debt back to society.

10 What am I going to do when I get up out of here? I
11 want to go home to be a grateful husband, you know, and be 12 a great leadership to my household, as I promised God upon
13 the throne when I went down and gave my sins, and I left
14 it there.

15 For the things she stated about her, that was a lie.
16 You know, I mean, the ex-girlfriend, the ex-wife -- then 17 why is she still standing beside me? What woman in the 18 wide world would want to just stand beside a man if he's 19 doing all these things -- crazy things?

20 And it's just so sad. When I asked her about the 21 woman -- ran down and being tripped up, I said, "Well, you
22 -- you bringing me a report of some document. But I want
23 to see a affidavit. I want to see the warrant. Show me
24 the warrant. Show me the DNA test."

25 She couldn't show me that. And I said, well, it's all

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 81

1 a lie.

2 MR. BROOKS: Alfonso, let me interrupt.

3 Q When you say "she" you had these conversations -- you
4 talking about Dr. Harrison.

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. I just wanted to make sure ---

7 A Yes.

8 Q --- who you were talking about.

9 A Because I knew then that the department, because of 10 the fact that I had done superceded [verbatim] in the 11 lawsuit, that they fabricated this multi-team task. They 12 got together before I got released, and brought forth this 13 -- this was their last resorts to retaliate against me.
14 And that's what they did.

15 They brought me through this here just so that I can
16 appear in here, and teach me a lesson all over again. Oh,
17 you thought you got away on your lawsuit. But we'll see
18 to it that you don't spend it.

19 But that -- perjury was committed on the stand today.
20 They fabricated everything in the record.

21 I mean, I -- I -- I'm not ashamed for what I done, but 22 I don't reflect my past when something is forgotten and 23 behind me. I -- I don't want to go back there meddling
24 with it, you know. It's behind me. And it'd be wrongful
25 for a man that -- and me to come up with a system that

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 82

1 they created in 1998, or sometime, and I was grandfathered
2 in 1996, you know. I -- and I'm being violated of my
3 constitutional rights to stand here and just to try to 4 attest to things I done in my past, you know. It's sad.
5 It's -- it's so sad that I have to go through all this.

6 And of course, the Attorney General, he ain't -- this
7 is not his first time dealing with my name on the table.
8 You know, they dealt with my table, of course, with many 9 cases I brought in the Federal Courts, because they are 10 the ones who had to represent those lawsuits.

11 So I understand when they come up, they come up
12 against, they come hard. And that's what they do.

13 But a lie is a lie. I'm not going to stand for the 14 lie. If you want to know something, you ask me. I took 15 the polygraph test, I passed it. They did their thorough
16 investigation, came up with their results. I walked away
17 from it, and left it right there.

18 Q Now, Alfonso, you've heard that one prong of this test
19 deals with whether or not a person is more than likely to 20 do things like this in the future.

21 A Exactly.

22 Q So it's not about whether or not you did it, it's 23 whether or not a person is likely to do something like
24 this in the future.

25 A Okay.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 83

1 Q Now, I'm sure what may be in the minds of the jurors -
2 - jurors here ---

3 A Right.

4 Q --- is what assurances can you give to them, what --
5 what can you say that will give people comfort that
6 Alfonso Haynesworth and any type of sexually related crime
7 will not happen ever again?

8 A Well, I accepted Christ in my life, and I know I have 9 God on my side. And like I said, when I took something to 10 the altar, I leave it there. I don't want to keep 11 explaining myself about this and that and a third because 12 I was young. I end of getting accused of things, and I
13 know not to go back into those places of doing -- of being 14 around those things that I once was caught up in before to 15 get accused, you know, or put myself in that type of 16 category.

17 I'm just a changed man to where I will go to the 18 church, where I got my position waiting on me, you know.

19 And just the fact that -- this right here is very 20 scarey, when you get up in here and you got to plead
21 against allegation that's not criminal, you know. But 22 because of the fact it's not criminal, it's civil, it's 23 still like you being held in a double jeopardy limb, to 24 come up here and attest to what you will and what you
25 won't do.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BROOKS - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 84

1 But I am a changed man, you know. I know that I'm a
2 changed man by the way that I walk, the way that I talk.
3 I wouldn't even mention the Bible or Jesus out of my 4 mouth. That's how I know that God done done something on
5 me, you know, compared to what I would tell a person, you
6 know -- you know. But as of today, I know that I'm a
7 changed individual.

8 I even made witness to people, you know. I mean,
9 that's what I do. It's so sad that it -- it -- it call at 10 me at this time of age, you know. And when they said that 11 a person will change, they will change. The system will 12 break you one way or the other, you know. Even not if you
13 -- you walk too forcefully, but through the sentence and 14 the time that you do, you will.

15 I'm 44 of age. I don't have nothing else left. I
16 mean, if they feel that I need to go into a facility for a
17 life sentence, so it be. We stood for Christ through open
18 shame, you know. I mean, what shall I say against these 19 things? If God be for me, who can be against me? I don't 20 worry about it. I know that God is on my side in spite of 21 how they may judge me today.

22 Q Okay.

23 A I know that I'm a changed man.

24 Q All right.

25 A But when you deal with man and compare to God, it's

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 85

1 unconditional. Man is unlimited at what God will do, and
2 how He look beyond. God look past; man will be up the 3 past.

4 Q Okay. Alfonso, answer any questions that Mr. Flores
5 has, okay?

6 THE COURT: Mr. -- Mr. Flores.

7 MR. FLORES: Just a couple of questions, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

9 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES:

10 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Haynesworth.

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Are you aware the Sexually Violent Predator Treatment
13 Program has released individuals who have been committed?

14 A No, sir.

15 Q You are not aware of that?

16 A No, sir.

17 Q You are aware that this law and other laws like it
18 across the United States have been upheld by the Supreme 19 Court as constitutional; is that correct?

20 A Yes, sir. I'm also aware that people been antidote
21 [verbatim] as schizophrenic and stuff and that type. They 22 was basically put into the program, put under -- seduced
23 and under medication with Thorazine. And they don't have 24 a memory brain to want to even fight again. And half of 25 them haven't even gotten out, right, but they were

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. FLORES - ALFONSO HAYNESWORTH 86

1 promised to be brought back to the courts.

2 Q Mr. Haynesworth, you mentioned tests -- perjured
3 testimony. Do you have any copies of these affidavits,
4 these passed polygraph tests, or anything else?

5 A Yes, sir. I have the whole records.

6 Q Do you have them here today?

7 A No, sir. You know, I -- they wouldn't let me bring 8 the records or nothing in.

9 Q Mr. Haynesworth, the statute gives you the right to 10 have a second evaluation. Did you have a second
11 evaluation in this case?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 MR. FLORES: Your Honor, that's all I have for Mr.
14 Haynesworth.

15 THE COURT: Any re-direct, Mr. Brooks?

16 MR. BROOKS: No, sir.

17 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may step down.
18 (The witness complies.)

19 MR. BROOKS: That's the respondent's case, Judge.

20 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, I need
21 to take up a few matters.

22 (To Mr. Flores) Any reply testimony ---

23 MR. FLORES: There will be no reply, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 All right. Let me send the jury back for just a few

1 minutes. We'll bring them right back out.

2 Ladies and gentlemen, please do not discuss anything
3 about the case while you're back there. Thank you.

4 (Jury exits at 2:25 p.m.)

5 THE COURT: Any motions to be made, Mr. Brooks?

6 MR. BROOKS: Judge, we would renew our motion for 7 directed verdict. Basically on the same grounds we gave 8 at the conclusion of the State's case, but in light of my 9 client's testimony, would renew that motion.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Flores.

11 MR. FLORES: Your Honor, I'd use the same argument as 12 I have before.

13 THE COURT: It still applies. I respectfully deny
14 your request.

15 All right. Are we going to be ready to charge -- give 16 your closing arguments at this point in time?

17 MR. BROOKS: Ready.

18 MR. FLORES: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and bring them
20 back in, and we'll argue and charge.

21 (Jury enters the courtroom at 2:26 p.m.)

22 THE COURT: I don't think y'all even got a chance to 23 sit down back there, did you?

24 (Jurors laugh.)

25 THE COURT: Usually when that happens, I lose one of

1 them in the restroom or something.

2 All right. Ladies and gentlemen, all of the evidence
3 has been heard in this case. Now is the time when the 4 attorneys will give you their closing arguments. I will
5 then charge you the law of the state concerning this case,
6 and then I will send you back for your deliberations.

7 Is the State ready to proceed?

8 MR. FLORES: Yes, Your Honor. State's ready.

9 THE COURT: Is the defense ready to proceed?

10 MR. BROOKS: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Flores.

12 MR. FLORES: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the 13 Court.

14 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

15 MR. FLORES: Mr. Brooks, Mr. Haynesworth.

16 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, before I start into 17 my closing argument, I do want to thank you very much for 18 your attention and being here today to answer this very 19 important question I'm proposing to you. On behalf of my 20 employer, Allen Wilson, the Attorney General, thank you
21 for your time and in -- in living up to your civic duties
22 when we bring you these questions that we have to have you
23 answer.

24 When I came to you this morning, I said this would be 25 a short trial, Mr. Brooks said it would be a short trial,

1 and His Honor said it would be a short trial. These tend
2 to be short trials, but they also include a lot of 3 information.

4 The Sexually Violent Predator Act, as I stated before,
5 was passed to keep those extremely dangerous individuals
6 off the streets while they receive treatment, to keep them
7 from committing or engaging in acts of sexual violence if 8 they would be free.

9 We asked psychiatrists and psychologists to render
10 these opinions: Does he have a mental abnormality or 11 personality disorder? Does he have the propensity to 12 commit acts of sexual violence? That's what the 13 definition of a sexually violent predator is. The judge
14 will -- again, he will charge you on the law after I'm 15 finished with my argument.

16 But a sexually violent predator is a person who has 17 been convicted of a sexually violent offense. Mr.
18 Haynesworth has been convicted of a sexually violent
19 offense. It was criminal sexual conduct in the third
20 degree in 1996. It involved a woman whom he raped in the 21 backseat of a car. If you believe Mr. Haynesworth, that 22 did not happen.

23 He took two boys out to a prostitute, and he was 24 charged with criminal sexual conduct, attempted murder,
25 assault and battery with intent to kill, kidnapping, just

1 because it was a mistake, if you believe Mr. Haynesworth.

2 Or if you believe his other story to Dr. Harrison,
3 which was that was a man, couldn't have been a woman,
4 where the records say there were vaginal swabs.

5 But if we would believe Mr. Haynesworth's testimony
6 today -- and you'll be asked to judge the credibility of 7 all the witnesses in this case to reach your opinion --
8 all the records that Dr. Harrison relied upon are 9 fabrications, according to Mr. Haynesworth. None of this 10 ever happened. It's just not true.

11 He was never charged with committing statutory rape
12 against a cousin in Washington. He never pled guilty to 13 assault for hitting a prostitute in Washington. He never 14 shot at a -- a prostitute in Washington. He never was 15 charged with criminal domestic violence against his wife.
16 He was never convicted of ABHAN, which he pled guilty to 17 for -- against his wife's daughter. None of this ever
18 happened. It's all fabrications.

19 He's taken a polygraph, he's accepted Christ, so we 20 should not place him in the sexually violent predator
21 unit.

22 I don't want -- I do not want to make light of the 23 Christian faith. I'm a Christian myself. But the law has 24 asked me to be here today to represent the State's 25 interest in asking you to look at all the facts that have

1 been presented; and do you believe, beyond a reasonable
2 doubt, whether Mr. Haynesworth is a sexually violent
3 predator.

4 Does he have a conviction for a sexually violent
5 offense? Yes.

6 Does he suffer from a mental abnormality or 7 personality disorder that makes him more likely to engage
8 in acts of sexual violence? Mr. Haynesworth was diagnosed
9 by Dr. Kimberly Harrison, the chief psychologist for the 10 Department of Mental Health, who is charged, as part of 11 her duties, to perform these types of evaluations.

12 She consulted the diagnostic and statistic manual.
13 She said, "Let me do an interview with Mr. Haynesworth,
14 because that's the first thing I do. Let me gather up all 15 the records I can get my hands on. Let me look at all of 16 this. Let me look at what our practice, our field relies
17 upon when determining whether or not somebody suffers from 18 a mental abnormality."

19 She diagnosed him with two mental abnormalities.
20 First, paraphilia not otherwise specified, a condition in 21 which Mr. Haynesworth, or anyone else suffering from this 22 condition, receives sexual gratification from the non-
23 consensual nature of sex with another individual.

24 You can see that in Mr. Haynesworth's history, if you
25 believe that history.

1 He also suffers from personality disorder not
2 otherwise specified with antisocial traits, which is
3 antisocial personality disorder; somebody who will break
4 the rules, despite the fact that there are rules.. And 5 while the documents are voluminous, they do say Mr.
6 Haynesworth doesn't like to follow the rules.

7 He's been revoked on probation; he's had a number of 8 charges; number of crimes against people who might 9 necessarily not conform. A cousin, but he blames that on 10 his aunt because she wanted to get back at him. Pregnant
11 woman with two young children. Prostitutes. A vulnerable
12 wife, who was beaten before, but who is still supportive.

13 Mr. Haynesworth has a long history of non-consensual
14 acts against individuals.. And while he does not have the 15 convictions to show that, the history is there.

16 And so Dr. Harrison does diagnose him with these two 17 mental abnormalities. And she consulted those records,
18 and she listened to Mr. Haynesworth.

19 Now, she did not discredit Mr. Haynesworth in his 20 entirety. He listened to her -- I'm sorry -- she listened
21 to him, as you listened to him from this witness stand.
22 And he answered questions like: Why are you not going to 23 act the way you have? Ask yourself if he actually 24 answered that question.

25 Is he likely to engage in acts of sexual violence if

1 he's put into this civil commitment -- if he's not put
2 into this civil commitment program. Mr. Brooks is right.
3 We don't have that crystal ball that we can definitely say
4 it's going to happen.

5 In fact, I'm a football fan myself. If you told me
6 who -- if you ask me -- this is the way I put it -- who's
7 going to be in the Super Bowl next year, and I told you
8 the Buffalo Bills would be in the Super Bowl -- because 9 they're my favorite team -- would you believe me? What
10 are the odds the Buffalo Bills are going to be in Super 11 Bowl next year? Probably not very high based on their 12 past history and their current history and their drafting
13 ability and their coaches inability to coach.

14 But if I said -- said to you, "What about the 15 Baltimore Ravens, the team that just won it?"

16 I just received word -- not personally of course --
17 that they just re-signed their star quarterback. That's a 18 pretty big piece of the puzzle. He did really well this 19 year. I was a little reluctant to say that he wasn't 20 going to do very well. I thought the 49ers were going to 21 win.

22 But you know, based on all that information about
23 these sports teams -- or you may not, you may not be a
24 football fan -- one is a better choice than the other.

25 The Buffalo Bills is a good choice. I -- I would be

1 very happy if they did, but probably not a very good
2 choice. Baltimore Ravens, on the other hand, a lot of 3 data to back that up.

4 And that's the kind of information that psychologists
5 and psychiatrists use to determine risk in the future.
6 They're not going to get it right 100 percent of the time.
7 We wish they would. They wish they could just look at 8 somebody, look at that data, and say for certain that's 9 the guy, that's the one. But they can't do it with 10 absolute certainty.

11 And so they've done studies upon studies upon studies,
12 and said these are the things that we look at. Do these 13 individuals have those risk factors? We look at static
14 things, things we can't change. We look at dynamic
15 perspectives, things we can change.

16 When Dr. Harrison looked at all that information, she 17 said this man, Alfonso Haynesworth, is likely to re-offend
18 based on everything I know at this time.

19 And those studies are on-going, as all scientific 20 studies are. The science of predicting the future with 21 regards sex -- sex offenders is probably in its infancy,
22 but it's growing. And those factors which she relied upon
23 are accepted by other people in her field.

24 So you're left with this, the three questions I said
25 you'd have to answer: Has he been convicted of a sexually

1 violent offense? Yes. Does he suffer from a mental
2 abnormality or personality disorder that makes him more
3 likely to commit -- more likely to engage in these acts if 4 not confined to a long-term facility for control, care,
5 and treatment? Yes. Do you believe it beyond a
6 reasonable doubt?

7 Did Dr. Harrison do something or not do something that 8 somebody in her position should have done? Should she 9 have called every single person in those records because 10 Mr. Haynesworth says none of it ever happened. Is she at 11 fault for not calling every single person in those 12 records, or was she right to rely upon those records?
13 Could she rely upon him?

14 We believe we've prevented -- presented enough
15 evidence for you to believe beyond a reasonable doubt that 16 Mr. Haynesworth does meet this definition of a sexually 17 violent predator. It's for long-term control, care, and 18 treatment. It's not a life sentence.

19 We believe you'll find him to be a sexually violent
20 predator. We thank you for your time.

21 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Brooks.

22 MR. BROOKS: Ladies and gentlemen, obviously, like I
23 said to you at the very beginning, I do want to thank you
24 guys for coming out and obviously keeping open-minded.
25 You listened to, basically, two witnesses, and obviously

1 now, you're listening to two lawyers.

2 Basically, the State is asking for you to have a
3 crystal ball, and we don't think that's fair. We don't 4 think that's right. We don't think they've proved their 5 case beyond a reasonable doubt.

6 If you listen to everything when the doctor was on the 7 stand and I asked her questions, a lot of these things
8 that she cited are things that ultimately got dismissed as 9 relates to Mr. Haynesworth. Now, you take that away, he 10 did have this one incident that occurred 17 years ago. He 11 -- he acknowledges that, and he does acknowledge that he 12 is not a perfect individual.

13 And this is not an opinion poll that you're sitting on 14 the jury for. You're supposed to put on your hat, you've 15 taken an oath, and you're supposed to look at and 16 determine the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt.

17 And like I told you in the very beginning, beyond a
18 reasonable doubt, that's the burden for the State to 19 prove. We don't have anything to prove, getting the ball
20 in the end zone. We don't have to move the ball. We 21 don't have to do anything. It's the State's 22 responsibility.

23 And what is reasonable doubt? Reasonable doubt can be 24 summed up as something simple, such as getting up in the 25 morning and ironing your clothes. You put the iron -- you

1 plug up the iron, you're ironing your clothes, and then
2 you leave the house. And then, when you're halfway to
3 your job, you think, did I turn off the iron? Now there's
4 doubt. Not to, perhaps, give you reasonable doubt, you
5 think about did I go back after I finished ironing my 6 clothes and unplug the cord from the outlet. That's 7 another example of reasonable doubt.

8 I think when you look at this case, when you listen to 9 both witnesses, it would be fair to say that you would
10 have some reasonable doubt as to whether or not the State
11 has proved that this situation with Mr. Haynesworth is 12 likely to occur again.

13 And I know that Mr. Haynesworth is not a perfect guy.
14 Who amongst us is? He has told you his situation, and 15 he's told you 95 percent of the things -- and he says 5
16 percent of the things he did, he pled guilty to it.

17 So we're not talking about an angel. But we're 18 talking about a human being who has said I've had some 19 trouble in my life; I have changed. I've been in prison,
20 and now it's time for me to go.

21 And the State wants to basically say -- wants you to 22 be predictors, want you to basically say this is who's 23 going to be in the Super Bowl, this is who's going to be 24 in the NBA finals, and this is who's going to be in the 25 World Series.

1 And they're relying on a lot of evidence that, when
2 you look at those reports, as you recall the doctor being
3 on the stand and answering my questions, a great majority
4 of those things were dismissed. Nolle prossed, as 5 prosecutors like to say, which means dismissed.

6 So it's fair for us to say these things didn't happen,
7 or they didn't happen the way the police said they
8 happened. They didn't happen enough to be a crime.

9 With these things being the problems that they are,
10 that creates a problem for the State. And what they want
11 you to do is basically step into the role as a soothsayer,
12 a person who can look into a crystal ball and make a 13 determination about a gentleman in just a short amount of 14 time.

15 And remember, Dr. Harrison -- it's not like she's 16 visited Mr. Haynesworth over a period of time. She has 17 only talked to him on two occasions, if you recall her
18 testifying to that. Two occasions, and she has come up
19 with her evaluation. And that's it. And now, the State
20 wants you to take that as the gospel.

21 We feel that this case is really "who do you believe."
22 And this is a different kind of case than what most people
23 may see on TV. Most times, when you end up coming into 24 court on criminal case, it's about: Whodunit? Did he do
25 it? Are they guilty? Did they do something in their

1 past? Did they do this?

2 In this situation, it's about -- we're not talking
3 about that. We're talking about whether or not this
4 individual is likely to do something in the future.
5 That's basically what you're asked to predict and -- and
6 simply put, the State did not/can not prove their case
7 beyond a reasonable doubt that you should be able to 8 predict the future of Alfonso Haynesworth. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Flores, any reply?

10 MR. FLORES: No reply, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

12 (To court security) Please secure the courtroom.

13 (Court security complies.)

14 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Bradley.

15 All right. Ladies and gentlemen, all of the testimony
16 and other evidence in this case has been presented to you.
17 Now is the time of the trial where I will charge you the 18 law that is applicable in this case.

19 Ladies and gentlemen, I remind you that during this 20 trial, you and I have certain responsibility or duties to 21 perform. And as the trial judge, it is my responsibility
22 to preside over the trial of this case, and I also have 23 the duty to rule on the admissibility of the evidence as 24 offered during this trial. You're to consider only the 25 evidence that is before you.

1 If there was any -- any testimony ordered stricken
2 from the record in this case, you must disregard that
3 testimony. Ladies and gentlemen, you are only to consider
4 the testimony that's been presented from this witness
5 stand, and any exhibits that have been made a part of the 6 record and any stipulations of counsel.

7 Ladies and gentlemen, I have the additional duty to 8 charge you the applicable law to this case. As the 9 presiding judge, I am the sole judge of the law, and it is 10 your duty as jurors to accept and apply the law as I now
11 state it to you.

12 If you are already have some idea as to what the law
13 is or what the law ought to be, and it does not agree with 14 what I now tell you the law is, you must abandon that 15 idea; because ladies and gentlemen, you are sworn to 16 accept the law and apply the law exactly as I state it to 17 you.

18 In every case tried -- in this court, tried before a
19 jury, as the jury, you become the sole and exclusive
20 judges of the facts. As the trial judge, I cannot 21 intimate, state, comment, or in any way make any statement
22 to a trial jury about the facts in a case.

23 Since you are the jury, you are the sole judges of the 24 facts; and you are not too far from anything that I have 25 said during the process of this trial, in ruling upon the

1 admissibility of evidence or otherwise or anything that I
2 say during the course of these closing instructions to
3 you, that I have any opinion about the facts in this case.
4 The law simply does not allow me to have an opinion about
5 the facts in the case.

6 This is a matter solely for you to determine; and as 7 jurors, it is your duty to determine the effect, the 8 value, the weight, and the truth of the evidence that has 9 been presented during this trial.

10 Now ladies and gentlemen, the petitioner, the State of 11 South Carolina, has brought this case under the Sexually 12 Violent Predator Act of South Carolina. The State seeks 13 the civil commitment of the respondent for long-term
14 control, care, and treatment in a secure facility. This 15 is not a criminal proceeding seeking incarceration, but 16 rather a proceeding seeking civil commitment.

17 The State of South Carolina alleges or claims that the
18 respondent, Alfonso Haynesworth, is a sexually violent
19 predator under the law. The respondent denies that he is 20 sexually -- a sexually violent predator; and the burden of 21 proof is therefore on the State to prove by evidence
22 sufficient to satisfy each of you, beyond a reasonable
23 doubt, that the respondent is a sexually violent predator.

24 And if the State is more able to meet that -- is 25 unable to meet that burden of proof as to one or more of

1 the elements of this claim, the respondent is entitled to
2 a finding that he is not a sexually violent predator.

3 In most civil cases, the petitioner has only the 4 burden of proving that a fact is more likely true than not
5 true, such as by the greater weight or the preponderance
6 of the evidence. However, in this type of case, the
7 State's burden of proof must be more powerful, it must be 8 beyond a reasonable doubt.

9 Now ladies and gentlemen, there are two types of 10 evidence which are generally presented at trial. There's 11 direct evidence and circumstantial evidence.

12 Direct evidence is the testimony of a person who 13 claims to have actual knowledge of a fact, such as an 14 eyewitness. It is evidence which immediately establishes 15 the main fact to be proved.

16 Circumstantial evidence is proof of a chain of facts
17 and circumstances indicating the existence of a fact. It
18 is evidence which immediately establishes collateral facts
19 from which the main fact may be inferred. Circumstantial
20 evidence is based on inference and not on personal 21 knowledge or observation.

22 And the law makes absolutely no distinction between 23 the weight or value to be given to either direct or 24 circumstantial evidence, nor is a greater degree of 25 certainty required of circumstantial evidence than of

1 direct evidence. Ladies and gentlemen, you should weigh
2 all the evidence in this case.

3 Necessarily, ladies and gentlemen, you must determine
4 the credibility of witnesses who have testified in this
5 case. "Credibility" simply means believability, and it
6 becomes your duty as jurors to analyze and to evaluate the 7 evidence, and determine which evidence convinces you of 8 its truth.

9 And in determining the believability of witnesses who
10 have testified in this case, you may believe one witness
11 over several witnesses, or several witnesses over one
12 witness. You may believe a part of the testimony of a 13 witness, and reject the remaining parts of testimony of 14 that same witness. You may believe the testimony of a
15 witness in its entirety, or reject the testimony of a
16 witness in its entirety.

17 You may consider whether any witness has exhibited to 18 you any interest, bias, prejudice, or other motive in this 19 case. You may also consider the appearance and manner of 20 a witness while on this witness stand.

21 Ladies and gentlemen, the rules of evidence ordinarily 22 do not allow witnesses to testify to opinions or 23 conclusions. An exception to this rule exists for 24 witnesses we call "expert witnesses." A witness who by 25 education and experience has become expert in some art,

1 science, or profession may give an opinion as to the 2 subject the witness claims to be an expert in; and may
3 also give the reason for that opinion. You should 4 consider an expert opinion given by a witness like any
5 other evidence, and give it the weight that you think it
6 deserves.

7 If you decide that an expert witness's testimony is 8 not based on sufficient education and experience, or if 9 you decide that the reasons given in support of the 10 opinion are not sound, or that the opinion is outweighed
11 by other evidence, you may disregard that opinion
12 entirely.

13 An expert witness's testimony is to be given no
14 greater weight than that of other witnesses simply because 15 the witness is an expert, and you do not have to accept an 16 expert's opinion even though it is uncontradicted.

17 Now ladies and gentlemen, the question always comes:
18 What is reasonable doubt in the law? A reasonable doubt
19 is the kind of doubt that would cause a reasonable person
20 to hesitate to act. Proof beyond a reasonable doubt is 21 proof that leaves you firmly convinced.

22 And ladies and gentlemen, there are very few things in 23 this world that we know with absolute certainty, and the 24 law does not require proof that overcomes every possible
25 doubt. What is required that if, based upon your

1 consideration of the evidence, you are firmly convinced
2 that the respondent is a sexually violent predator, then
3 you should return a verdict for the State.

4 If, on the other hand, you think there's a real
5 possibility that he is not a sexually violent predator,
6 you must give him the benefit of the doubt and find a
7 verdict for the respondent.

8 And reasonable doubt may arise from evidence that is 9 in this case or from the lack of evidence -- of evidence
10 in this case. It is up to you, ladies and gentlemen, to 11 determine whether or not reasonable doubt exists in this 12 case.

13 The elements that the State must prove beyond a 14 reasonable doubt are: First, that the respondent has been
15 convicted of a sexually violent offense. And I charge you
16 that criminal sexual conduct in the third degree is a
17 sexually violent offense.

18 That the -- two, that the respondent suffers from a
19 mental abnormality or personality disorder that makes him
20 likely to engage in acts of sexual violence if not
21 confined in a secure facility for long-term control, care,
22 and treatment.

23 Inherent in these two elements is that the State must 24 prove the requirement that the respondent's mental
25 abnormality or personality disorder may cause him serious

1 difficulty in controlling his behavior. In other words,
2 the State must prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the 3 individual it seeks to commit suffers from a mental 4 illness which he cannot sufficiently control without the 5 structure and care provided by a mental health facility,
6 rendering him otherwise likely to commit a dangerous act.

7 In order for you to better understand the elements of 8 the State's cause of action, I'm going to define for you
9 some of the terms that you -- that I have just used.

10 One, "mental abnormality" means a mental condition
11 affecting a person's emotion -- emotional or volitional
12 capacity, that predisposes the person to commit sexually
13 violent offenses.. This mental abnormality or personality
14 disorder must cause respondent serious difficulty in 15 controlling his behavior.

16 Two, "likely to engage in acts of sexual violence"
17 means that the person's propensity to commit acts of 18 sexually violent -- sexual violence is of such a degree as 19 to pose a menace to the health and safety of others, so
20 that he is a -- is dangerous to others.

21 Again, I remind you that the burden of proof is on the 22 State to prove to your satisfaction, beyond a reasonable
23 doubt, that the respondent has been convicted of a
24 sexually violent offense as I have instructed you; and 25 also suffers from a mental abnormality or personality

1 disorder that makes respondent likely to engage in acts of 2 sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility for 3 long-term control, care, and treatment.

4 If the State carries it's burden of proof and 5 convinces you beyond a reasonable doubt as to each of 6 these two elements of its cause of action, it is entitled
7 to a finding that the respondent is a sexually violent
8 predator. And if the State does not meet that burden of 9 proof as to one or both of these elements, respondent is 10 entitled to a finding that he is not a sexually violent
11 predator.

12 Ladies and gentlemen, there are two possible verdicts
13 which you may find in this case, and I have the verdict
14 form here. One is that the respondent is a sexually
15 violent predator; or two, that the respondent is not a
16 sexually violent predator.

17 There's no significance whatsoever in the order that 18 these -- that I state these possible verdicts. It's 19 simply that one must be stated first. And there's no 20 significance on the verdict form, it's just that one must 21 be stated first.

22 Now ladies and gentlemen, your verdict must be a
23 unanimous one. All 12 of you must agree on the verdict,
24 and your decision must not be based on sympathy, passion,
25 prejudice, emotion, or any other consideration that is not

1 in evidence in this case.

2 Madam Forelady, when the jury reach -- reaches a
3 verdict -- again, this is the verdict form and it states
4 specifically -- has the -- your question is: Has the
5 petitioner, the State of South Carolina, proven beyond a
6 reasonable doubt that Alfonso Haynesworth is a sexually
7 violent predator under South Carolina Sexually Violent
8 Predator Act, we the jury unanimously answer the questions
9 as follows..." And you can check "yes" or "no."

10 And then, if you would sign your name and put your 11 date on the verdict form, knock on the jury room door, you
12 will then be received back into court for publication of 13 your verdict.

14 Now ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to ask that you
15 return to your jury room, but please do not begin your 16 deliberations until you're told to do so. There are still 17 some matters that we must take up here in court before you
18 begin your deliberations. All right. Thank you.

19 And the alternate will stay behind.

20 (Jury exits at 2:58 p.m.)

21 THE COURT: Are there any objections to the charge
22 that's been made from the State?

23 MR. FLORES: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: From the defense?

25 MR. BROOKS: No, sir.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Here's the verdict form. If you
2 can have the jury begin their deliberations.

3 (To alternate) Ma'am, you can come forward. I just 4 want to take this time to thank you for your service as a
5 juror.

6 JUROR: Okay.

7 (The Court confers with the alternate.)

18 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, is this your 19 verdict? So say all by raising your right hand, please.

20 (All jurors raise their right hands.)

21 MR. BRADLEY: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Bradley. Does the 23 respondent request polling of the jury?

14 been polled, and the verdict stands.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

16 Ladies and gentlemen, let me take this opportunity to 17 -- to thank you for coming here and -- and listening. I
18 know this wasn't a long case, but it doesn't take away the 19 importance. And you were attentive, you listened to the 20 evidence, and you rendered a verdict.

21 Now, I'd tell you the same thing no matter what your 22 verdict was because I appreciate your being here. But 23 ladies and gentlemen, take away from here it's never easy
24 holding the life of a fellow citizen in your hands.

25 But thank you for listening to the evidence and -- and

1 coming up with a verdict.

2 Now I'll tell you that -- you know, I told you all
3 along you can't talk to anybody else about it. Well, that
4 -- that's been lifted. You can talk to whoever you want
5 to for as long or as little as you would like to.

6 Ladies and gentlemen, let me remind you, this counts
7 as your service on a jury. So you do not have to serve on 8 a jury for the next three years if you do not want to, and 9 you can't serve for the next year.

10 They're going to give you a small amount of money for 11 today, but at least it's a short one. They're going to 12 give you $15, and that will buy you a cup of coffee or 13 five you a trip to McDonalds for a couple of Happy Meals.

14 But I say that in jest, but that in no way shows what 15 you've done for this community. I mean, they -- they give 16 you $15, and that's a way -- but what you've done by 17 coming here and deciding this case is -- is of great
18 importance. And I -- and I want to thank you.

19 You know, we're always trying to look at things that 20 make America the great country that it is. And one of the 21 things, and what I think the primary thing, is the jury
22 system that we have and people like y'all, who will take 23 time out of their busy schedules, their homes, and being 24 with their families, and come up here and be willing to 25 serve all week. Y'all are lucky you didn't have to serve

1 all week.

2 But you did -- did all you could for Sumter County and
3 South Carolina for this week. And if you would just turn
4 in your juror badges. If any of y'all need an excuse from 5 work, they'll be glad to provide that to you.

6 But I'd like the honor of shaking your hand as you
7 leave.

8 (Jury exits at 3:28 p.m.)

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Brooks, any motions?

10 MR. BROOKS: Judge, we would move for the Court to set
11 aside the verdict based on the grounds that we had 12 previously put on the record at the close of the State's 13 case and at the close of our case. We would respectfully
14 ask the Court to set that aside.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Mr. Flores.

16 MR. FLORES: Your Honor, as we stated before, I
17 believe there was adequate evidence for this to go to the 18 jury. It was for the -- for their determination the 19 believability and credibility of the witnesses to come to 20 -- to come to this conclusion.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Would the -- the 22 respondent please stand.

23 (Mr. Haynesworth complies.)

24 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Alfonso Haynesworth, the 25 jury has listened to the evidence; they have unanimously -

1 - unanimously found that you are a sexually violent
2 predator. I am now turning you over to the Department of 3 Mental Health until such time as they find that you are 4 not a sexually violent predator. Thank you.

5 MR. FLORES: Your Honor, I do have the order of
6 commitment.

7 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8 MR. FLORES: If I may.

9 (Mr. Flores hands a document to the Court.)

10 THE COURT: Thank you, gentlemen.

RECORDED
2011 DEC 20 PM 1:09
CASE NO. 2011-CP-43-2381
JAMES C. CAMPBELL
CLERK OF COURT
SUMTER COUNTY, S.C.

COMES NOW, Petitioner, State of South Carolina, by and through the undersigned, and for its cause of action herein alleges and states as follows:

1. This action is filed pursuant to the South Carolina Sexually Violent Predator Act, S.C. Code Ann. Sections 44-48-10 et seq. (Supp. 2008).
2. The South Carolina Department of Corrections, having determined that Respondent, Alphonso Haynesworth, had been convicted of at least one Sexually Violent Offense, referred Respondent to the Multi-Disciplinary Team for assessment pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. Section 44-48-40 (Supp. 2008). Respondent's max out date is June 26, 2012.
3. The Multi-Disciplinary Team on October 27, 2011 determined after assessment that Respondent satisfied the definition of a Sexually Violent Predator as set forth in S.C. Code Ann. Section 44-48-30 (Supp. 2008), and referred Respondent to the Prosecutor's Review Committee for a determination pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. Section 44-48-60 (Supp. 2008) as to whether probable cause exists to believe Respondent is a Sexually Violent Predator. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT A). The assessment of the Multi-Disciplinary Team is based on a review of existing records, which may include, but are not limited to the following: description of the qualifying offense(s); history of other sexual assault(s); history of other criminal convictions/adjudications; documentation, if any, of mental disorder(s); community and institutional adjustment; and risk factors.
4. The Prosecutor's Review Committee on November 21, 2011 determined that there is probable cause to believe that Respondent is a Sexually Violent Predator as defined by statute. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT B). The Prosecutor's Review Committee bases its determination on the records and reports provided by the Multi-Disciplinary Team including any information provided by the agency that prosecuted the qualifying offense.
5. The Petitioner now alleges that Respondent is a Sexually Violent Predator as defined by S.C. Code Ann. Section 44-48-30 (1) (Supp. 2008), to wit:
 - (a) On or about January 27, 1996, Respondent sexually assaulted Victim 1 (22-year-old female stranger). According to law enforcement records,

Respondent offered to give the victim a ride when he encountered her in the rain near a local convenience store. Respondent subsequently crashed the vehicle. Following the accident, Respondent held the victim against her will, choked and slapped her, and threatened to kill her. He then forced her into the back seat of the car where he forced her to submit to vaginal/penile intercourse. Respondent then attempted anal penetration of the victim with his penis. Respondent continued to choke the victim while he attempted anal intercourse because she resisted. The victim was able to escape the car while she struggled against Respondent. The victim ran to the nearest house where she had the owner contact law enforcement. Respondent was charged with one count of Criminal Sexual Conduct in the First Degree in violation of South Carolina Code Section 16-3-652, one count of Kidnapping in violation of South Carolina Code Section 16-3-910, one count of Attempted Murder in violation of South Carolina Code Section 16-3-10, and one count of Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill in violation of South Carolina Code Section 16-3-620. On July 31, 1996, Respondent pled guilty to one count of Criminal Sexual Conduct in the Third Degree and Assault and Battery of a High and Aggravated Nature and received a sentence of 10 years suspended to time served and 5 years probation. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT C).

(b) During the investigation of the crimes outlined in subparagraph (a), Respondent's girlfriend and owner of the wrecked car informed law enforcement that Respondent forced her to have sex with him when she did not want to. She informed law enforcement she had known Respondent for three months and was attempting to evict him from her home. She stated Respondent had broken her finger on one occasion and attempted to engage in anal intercourse with her. No charges were ever filed concerning these allegations. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT C).

(c) On August 7, 1998, Respondent's probation was revoked based on numerous violations of his probation. Based on Affidavits dated April 7 and July 23, 1998, Respondent violated his probation by failing to report to his probation agent; by residing at an unapproved residence; by getting evicted from his residence; by failing to notify his agent of arrests for Possession with Intent to Distribute Crack Within Proximity of a School, Loitering, Trespassing, Shoplifting, Possession of a Stolen Vehicle, False Information to Police, Open Container and Public Drunk; by being convicted of False Information to Police, Open Container and Public Drunk; by failing to pay supervision fees; and by his conviction for Possession of a Stolen Vehicle. Following a hearing, Judge Frank Epps revoked Respondent's probation and sentenced Respondent to serve six years of his suspended 10 year sentence. Respondent completed his sentence on November 12, 2001. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT C).

- (d) Respondent was previously reviewed by the Multidisciplinary Team on or about July 19, 2001, his case was referred forward but was dismissed by the court at a probable cause hearing on or about September 27, 2001. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT D).
- (e) Subsequent to his conviction and review by the Multidisciplinary team as described in subparagraphs (a)–(d), in Richland County, between November 10 and 14, 2003, Respondent sexually assaulted Victim 2 (13-year-old step-daughter). According to law enforcement records, the victim reported to her mother (Respondent's wife) that she was sexually active and was experiencing vaginal bleeding for a period of three months. During the course of the conversation, the victim told her mother Respondent had entered her room on at least one occasion and had vaginal intercourse with her and has felt her chest. Respondent was charged with one count of Criminal Sexual Conduct with a Minor in the Second Degree in violation of South Carolina Code Section 16-3-655(2). On December 13, 2005, Respondent pled guilty to one count of Assault and Battery of a High and Aggravated Nature and received a sentence of 10 years suspended to time served and 3 years probation. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT E).
- (f) On or about July 5, 2006, Respondent was charged with Criminal Domestic Violence, 3rd. According to the arrest warrant, Respondent went to his wife's residence and threatened to shoot her. Based on this new charge and a number of violations of his probationary sentence, on September 15, 2006, Judge Clifton Newman revoked Respondent's probation in full, sentencing him to the Department of Corrections for 10 years. According to the affidavit supporting the arrest warrant for Respondent's probation violation, Respondent violated his probation by failing to report to his probation agent; by changing his residence without his probation agent's permission; by using controlled substances; by failing to notify his agent of arrests for Shoplifting, 5th, Drunkenness, and Criminal Domestic Violence, 3rd; by failing to pay supervision fees; by failing to pay his fine; and by failing to attend drug treatment. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT E).
- (g) Prior to the events described in subparagraph (a), on or about July 27, 1989, Respondent allegedly sexually assaulted Victim 3 (an unknown age female). According to the arrest warrant, Respondent choked the victim and forced her to have sexual intercourse with him. He allegedly threatened to kill her, another child, and her unborn child (2 months pregnant), if she told police. The offense occurred in the woods near a grocery store. According to court documents, Respondent was charged with Criminal Sexual Conduct in the First Degree and this charge was subsequently nolle prossed. No reason was given for this decision. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT F).

- (h) Prior to the events described in subparagraph (g), in Washington State, on or about February 23, 1988, Respondent allegedly sexually assaulted Victim 4 (15-year-old female cousin). According to law enforcement records, while in Washington State attending school, Respondent lived in the basement of his cousin's home. On the night of the assault, Respondent told his two younger cousins to exit the house to work on some yard work. After they left, he proceeded to lock the outer doors of the house. Respondent then approached the victim and removed her pants and underwear. He pulled his sweatpants down and inserted his penis into his cousin's vagina. Respondent removed his penis and ejaculated on the couch. While the assault was occurring, the victim screamed for the Respondent to stop. The screams were corroborated by the victim's sister who attempted to re-enter the house during the assault. Respondent left and returned to his basement room. The victim did not report the assault until a month later. Respondent was charged with Statutory Rape in the Third Degree in violation of Revised Code of Washington Section 9A.44.090. According to the law enforcement file, the charge was subsequently dismissed because the victim did not want to testify in court. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT G).
- (i) On or about May 8, 1988, in Washington State, Respondent assaulted Victim 5 (19-year-old female). According to law enforcement documents, in the early morning hours of May 8, Respondent approached the victim, who was a prostitute. Respondent offered the victim $50.00 in exchange for sex, and the victim agreed to return to Respondent's residence. When they arrived at Respondent's residence, the victim asked to see the money. Respondent could not produce the money, so the victim attempted to leave. When she attempted to leave, Respondent assaulted her by hitting her about the face, which left the left side of her face red and swollen. Respondent admitted to slapping the victim; however, he told law enforcement she was his girlfriend and he hit her only after she refused to leave his residence. According to Respondent's NCIC report, he was found guilty of simple assault. No sentence or fine information is available. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT H & N).
- (j) On or about August 9, 1988, in Washington State, Respondent assaulted Victim 6 (22-year-old female). According to law enforcement documents, Respondent and another individual approached the victim while she was walking to a friend's house and offered her drugs for sex. When she refused, Respondent withdrew a small revolver from his pants, loaded a bullet into it, and pointed it at the victim. The victim told law enforcement she ran and Respondent chased her, ultimately tripping her. Respondent then handed the pistol to the other individual and proceeded to punch and kick her. Respondent stopped only when a car stopped and its driver intervened. The victim identified both Respondent and the other individual in photo line-ups and told law enforcement she knew they were associated with gang activity. A summons was issued for Respondent charging him with Assault. Although unclear from Respondent's NCIC report, it appears this charge may have been dismissed as a result of being found guilty on a separate offense for which he was charged. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT I & N).

(k) Upon information and belief, while incarcerated at the South Carolina Department of Corrections on four separate occasions, Respondent has had 11 major disciplinary infractions and 19 minor disciplinary infractions, including: Class II Escape; Fighting without a Weapon; Striking an employee with/without Weapon; Refusing or Failing Obey Orders; Threatening to Inflict Harm on Employee; Abuse of Privileges; Disrespect; Use Obscene, Vulgar, Profane Language/Gestures; False Statement to Harm Another Person; Inciting/Creating a Disturbance. (PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT J).

(l) Sufficient evidence exists or will exist to determine that Respondent suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder which makes him likely to engage in acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility for long-term control, care, and treatment, and that Respondent has serious difficulty in controlling her behavior or sexual desire impulses.

(m) In support of the State's allegations that Respondent has a mental abnormality or personality disorder that makes him likely to engage in acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility for long-term control, care, and treatment, the State, in addition to any other evidence which Petitioner may present to the Court hereafter, submits the following:

 who first being duly sworn, deposes says that Alfonso Haynesworth

did within this County and State on the _____ day of JUL 23 1998, 19 ____, violate certain conditions of release in the following particulars:

DESCRIPTION OF VIOLATION

his Probation as ordered in Case Number 96-65-43-352 by the Sumter County Court of General Sessions on 7-31-96
and the order of continuation dated 11-14-97.

The Affiant states that there is probable cause to believe the defendant

0645 1/27/96 (CONT) Perp drove to Friendship Apartments. - she knows which one. Perp said he had to stop by some guys house to see about getting his car fixed so he could get on the road tomorrow. On the way out he picked up speed and wrecked. VICT was in front seat also. After wreck she suggested he call police when he couldn't get car off tracks. He pulled/pushed her into back seat, ~~staying~~ told her to take her clothes off, she said no, he slapped her and threatened her, she took her clothes off and he vaginally raped her - doesn't think she had an orgasm. Then he said that wasn't good enough and told her to turn over and tried anal intercourse but couldn't because of her resisting. ~~Perp~~ was choking her throat from behind, she got automatic locks open, broke away and ran to the nearest house she saw.

Petitioner's Exhibit D

COUNTY OF SUMTER	)	CASE NO. 01-CP-43-858
IN THE MATTER OF THE CARE	)
AND TREATMENT OF	)	ORDER OF DISMISSAL
ALPHONSO HAYNESWORTH,	)	AFTER A HEARING CONDUCTED
RESPONDENT.	)	PURSUANT TO SC CODE 44-48-80

This matter comes before me on petition of the State of South Carolina for an order finding that sufficient probable cause exists that the Respondent is a sexually violent predator as defined by South Carolina Code Section 44-48-30. The Court has conducted a hearing pursuant to South Carolina Code Section 44-48-80.

I have reviewed the petition in this case and considered the showing made in respect to this matter and am of the opinion that the State has failed to demonstrate that probable cause exists to find that the Respondent is a sexually violent predator. I find that the State has failed to present sufficient evidence that the Respondent suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder that makes him likely to engage in acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility for long-term control, care, and treatment as required by South Carolina Code Section 44-48-30(b). THEREFORE the State's petition in this matter is denied.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services Violation Report

Offender's Name: Alfonso Haynesworth

Prior Violation Dates	Prior Violations	Prior Violation Disposition
2/23/08	Arrested for Possession of Crack	Mr. Haynesworth stated that his Possession of Crack case was dismissed

Details of the Present Violations:

Mr. Haynesworth violated condition # 1 by failing to report. He failed to report on June 22, 2008 and on July 13, 2008 at 10:30 am as instructed in person by Agent William Sumter.

Mr. Haynesworth violated condition # 2 by changing his residence without permission. Mr. Haynesworth has not given an acceptable address to the probation office since February 18, 2008.

Mr. Haynesworth violated condition # 3 by failing to refrain from the use of controlled substances. On February 18, he confessed to using marijuana and tested positive for cocaine. On March 9, 2008 he tested positive for cocaine. On May 18, 2008 he tested positive for cocaine and confessed to using valium. On July 12, 2008, Mr. Haynesworth stated in a field visit that he had been using morphine to get high lately.

Mr. Haynesworth violated condition # 6 by failing to refrain from the violation of Federal, State, and Local Laws. Mr. Haynesworth was arrested on May 9, 2008 for Shoplifting 5th in Sumter County and failed to notify the agent of this arrest. Mr. Haynesworth was again arrested on 07/08/08 was for Drunkenness by the Columbia Police Department on Ticket # 81967DM and has never informed the agent of this arrest. Mr. Haynesworth again violated this condition because it is probable cause to believe that Mr. Haynesworth did commit the offense of Criminal Domestic Violence 3rd in Columbia, SC. The agent has a copy of warrant # K-134260 which attests the same.

Mr. Haynesworth violated condition # 7 by failing to pay his supervision fees. He has an arrearage of $20 with a balance of $1180.

Mr. Haynesworth violated condition # 9 by failing to pay his fine. He has an arrearage of $80 with a balance of $583.75.

Mr. Haynesworth violated condition # 10 by failing to attend drug treatment as ordered by Agent William Sumter on February 18, 2008. A letter dated March 9, 2008 proves that Mr. Haynesworth missed his appointment on that date.

For Information Only: Mr. Haynesworth is currently in jail for Possession of Stolen Goods and B & E Auto.

Agent's Recommendation: Full revocation of 10 years and terminate probation.

Agent's Justification: From reviewing this man's rap sheet he is a career criminal. He is a violent drug addict with no regards for the law. He has been revoked from probation five times and his criminal activity has only elevated. He is a threat to the community and to himself because he is a sex offender. A full revocation in this case is justified.

Forensic Psychological Evaluation
Pursuant to South Carolina's Sexually Violent Predator Act

Name: HAYNESWORTH, ALPHONSO
Date of Birth:
Dates of Evaluation: 6/15/12 & 7/13/12
Date of Report: 7/31/12
Evaluator: Kimberly S. Harrison, Ph.D.

Referral Information

Alphonso Haynesworth, a 42-year-old male, has been convicted of a sexually violent offense and is approaching release from total confinement. Related to his upcoming release, a petition was filed by the State of South Carolina alleging that he is a sexually violent predator (SVP) as defined by the SVP Act, which focuses on a "mentally abnormal and extremely dangerous group of sexually violent predators" who require involuntary commitment to a secure facility. Following a showing of probable cause for this allegation, the Sumter County Court of Common Pleas issued an order on 4/20/12 to evaluate Mr. Haynesworth to help determine whether he "suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder that makes him likely to engage in acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility for long-term control, care, and treatment."

Pursuant to the order, the respondent was scheduled to be evaluated on an outpatient basis at the Forensic Evaluation Service of the South Carolina Department of Mental Health on 5/24/12. However, he was not transported from SCDC on that date. He was rescheduled to be seen on 6/15/12. He was interviewed for approximately one hour, until a power outage occurred at the DMH facility. The interview was terminated by DMH Public Safety, due to safety concerns resulting from the power outage. The evaluation was subsequently completed on 7/13/12.

Notification

At the outset of the evaluation, Mr. Haynesworth was informed verbally and in writing of its nature, purpose, and limits of confidentiality. This respondent's questions about this information were answered, and he stated that he understood it. Subsequently, he willingly participated in the evaluation.

Background Information

Developmental & Social History

Mr. Haynesworth reported he was born and raised in Sumter, SC. He said his parents separated when he was 10 years old, and he subsequently lived with his mother. He stated he has a total of 12 siblings; he was raised with four of them. He denied a history of abuse and said he was never removed from his home as a child.

He stated he was married to Kim Haynesworth for eight years, until 2003. He said he filed for divorce in 2003, but his wife has reportedly refused to sign the divorce papers. He reported he has 13 children with 13 women. He said he is currently engaged to a woman he met during his present incarceration.

Educational History

The respondent stated he completed the 9th grade and later earned a GED. He left school because he "started hanging out in the street and I got in a fight. My family decided I needed to get out of Sumter," so he moved to Virginia to live with his aunt. He denied a history of involvement in special education classes or problems with learning or attention in school. He stated he participated in ROTC and played for the school's baseball, track, and football teams. He denied a history of behavior problems in school.

Employment History

According to Mr. Haynesworth, he has been employed as a roofer, a construction worker, a brick mason, a cement finisher, and a truck driver. He said his longest period of employment was nine years "under the table" as a roofer for various companies. He stated he has never been fired from a job and has never received disability benefits. However, 1991 records from SCDC indicate he reported he had previously received Social Security disability income. During his incarcerations, he reportedly worked as a baker, a dorm worker, and in the laundry.

Medical History

Mr. Haynesworth denied a history of serious head injuries, seizures, or serious illnesses. He said he had his tonsils removed and denied other surgeries.

Substance Use History

According to Mr. Haynesworth, he began drinking alcohol at the age of 18. He said he "had a problem" with alcohol around the age of 22 because he "started catching shoplifting charges" to support his alcohol habit. He stated he consumed two quarts of malt liquor every other day until the age of 32. He stated he tried marijuana on one occasion. He denied using other illegal drugs. However, according to records from Morris Village, at the time of his admission to that facility (11/20/96), he reported smoking one blunt of marijuana and one gram of crack per day, in addition to two quarts of malt liquor. At Morris Village, he was diagnosed with Alcohol Dependence, Cocaine Dependence, Cannabis Dependence, and Antisocial Personality Disorder. He reportedly "struggled with adhering to rules and following through with commitments while at Morris Village." He "left Morris Village on December 20, 1996 prematurely without telling staff that he was leaving." At an appointment at Columbia Area Mental Health Center on 3/31/97, he reportedly tested positive for cocaine.

Mental Health History

According to Mr. Haynesworth, as a child he was treated with Ritalin for "hyperactivity" until he was 15 years old. He denied ever taking other psychiatric medications. However, records from Morris Village indicate he was prescribed Effexor and Pamelor (antidepressants) during his stay at that facility in 1996.

During his incarceration in SCDC in 1991, Mr. Haynesworth was housed in the Transitional Care Unit. According to documentation, at the time of his admission to the unit on 5/29/91, "No delusions were present, however Mr. Haynesworth does have an inflated sense of self." His participation in treatment groups was described as "negligible" and showing "little insight."

Records indicate Mr. Haynesworth was admitted to the Columbia Area Mental Health Center (CAMHC) for outpatient services on 11/7/96. On a form dated 1/28/97, "Problems Prompting MHC Contact" are identified as, "depressed, very stressed, auditory hallucinations, thinks theres [sic] a root on him." He was diagnosed with Alcohol Abuse, Cocaine Abuse, and "R/O [Rule-out] Major Depression with Psychotic Features." He was readmitted to CAMHC on 3/31/97. Under "Problems Prompting MHC Contact" is noted, "Anger, relationship, family. Mainly needs to see MD to get medication. Beat girlfriend up w/shoe, put whelps [sic] on back after drinking 2 beers." During the current evaluation, Mr. Haynesworth said he has never been to the CAMHC and stated, "That's my brother or sister." He then stated, "I took Kim [his wife] down there" for mental health treatment. He finally acknowledged he did attend appointments at CAMHC but said, "I was sent by probation because Kim was causing me so many problems."

During the current evaluation, Mr. Haynesworth denied a history of suicide attempts or psychiatric hospitalizations. However, records indicate he was taken to the emergency department of Tuomey Healthcare System on 6/22/06 because he reported that "he feels like killing himself and other. Reports he is also hearing voices. States he does have a plan to harm himself. . . . He states that he wants to find the person that hit him with the revolver and kill him. He has had auditory hallucinations x 3 days." He was involuntarily committed and treated with Zyprexa, an antipsychotic medication. He was discharged on 6/30/06 with a diagnosis of "Chronic Schizophrenia."

Sexual History

Mr. Haynesworth claimed he has never masturbated. When asked how this could be true, he stated, "I was always involved with women." He said he first had sexual intercourse at the age of 15 with a 15-year-old female classmate. He reported he also had sex with a teacher while he was in high school. He stated he has had approximately 27 sexual partners, 8 of whom were prostitutes. He denied any sexual activity with men. He said he has seen pornographic magazines but has never purchased them. He denied ever seeing a pornographic movie. He said he frequented a strip club in 2003. He denied ever experiencing sexual dysfunction. He denied interest in or behaviors indicative of paraphilic interests such as pedophilia, exhibitionism, fetishism, voyeurism, frotteurism, cross dressing, sadism, or violent or coercive sexual activity.

The respondent denied having any sexual partners in prison or jail. When asked how he meets his sexual needs, he replied, "Read the bible." When asked to describe the type of person he is most attracted to, he replied, "Honest." He was asked what physical characteristics he finds most attractive, and he said, "I look at the honesty of the person." He denied being attracted to any physical attributes.

Legal History

Sexual Offenses

According to the Petition, on 2/23/88 Mr. Haynesworth assaulted his 15-year-old female cousin. He was living in her home in Tacoma, Washington, at the time. He reportedly told his two younger cousins to go outside. He then locked the doors, approached the victim, removed her pants and underwear, inserted his penis in her vagina, removed his penis, and ejaculated on the couch. The victim reported that, while the assault was occurring, she screamed for him to stop. According to a Tacoma Police Department General Report, the victim's sister reported "that she heard her sister . . . screaming in the living room on 2-23-88. [The sister] said [the victim] was yelling, 'Stop, Alfonso [sic], stop!' Mr. Haynesworth was charged with Statutory Rape-3rd Degree, but the charge was dismissed because the victim did not want to testify in court.

During the current evaluation, Mr. Haynesworth denied committing the offense against his cousin or ever having sex with her. He stated he was accused of the assault because the alleged victim's mother "was using drugs and soliciting her daughter for drugs. She had taken my paycheck. I threatened to go to DSS [about the drug use]." He said he never contacted DSS, but "she got mad and called the police," accusing him of raping her daughter.

As indicated in the Petition, Mr. Haynesworth was arrested for sexually assaulting a woman on 7/27/89 in the woods near a grocery store in Sumter County, SC. He was accused of choking her; forcing her to have sexual intercourse; and threatening to kill her, a child, and her unborn child. He was charged with Criminal Sexual Conduct (CSC)-1st Degree; this charge was nolle prossed. During the current evaluation, Mr. Haynesworth denied committing this offense.

The Petition notes that, on 1/27/96, Mr. Haynesworth sexually assaulted a 22-year-old female stranger in Sumter, SC. According to records, he offered her a ride from a convenience store and then crashed the vehicle on railroad tracks. He held her against her will, choked and slapped her, and threatened to kill her. He forced her into the backseat, forced her into vaginal intercourse, and attempted anal intercourse. He continued to choke her while he attempted anal intercourse because she resisted. The victim was eventually able to escape and run to a house. Her clothes were recovered in the backseat of Mr. Haynesworth's car. He was charged with CSC-1st Degree, Kidnapping, Attempted Murder, and Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill. On 7/31/96 he pleaded guilty to CSC-3rd Degree and Assault and Battery of a High and Aggravated Nature. He was sentenced to 10 years incarceration suspended to time served and 5 years probation.

Mr. Haynesworth provided an account of the 1996 offense to an SCDC employee during his incarceration. According to an SCDC document, "IM [Inmate] stated to me on 7.9.01 that he was in a vehicle with a 15 and 18 year old male who were sons of his fiancé. He stated he was taking them out to 'experience life on the streets' and was soliciting to obtain 'a blow job' for the adolescents. The prostitute was an undercover cop and he 'took responsibility.'"

In the current evaluation, Mr. Haynesworth provided a convoluted, confusing account of the 1996 offense. He stated he was driving with his girlfriend's teenage sons, and she agreed to buy "dope" for the boys. Once they gave her money, she reportedly ran from the car. He also said that this victim was actually a man dressed as a woman, a claim that is not supported by the fact that vaginal swabs were collected as evidence from her. Mr. Haynesworth stated he did not engaged in any sexual activity with the victim.

During the investigation of the 1996 offense, Mr. Haynesworth's girlfriend informed law enforcement that he forced her to have sex with him against her will. According to a Supplementary Report: "he broke her finger, he has threatened to kill her and choked her, and he has forced her to have sex with him when she didn't want to, by holding her down and prying her legs open in spite of her saying 'No' and him saying that 'well, I'm going to take it.' . . . She readily believes the criminal allegations against him." Apparently, no charges regarding these allegations by his girlfriend were filed. Regarding these allegations, Mr. Haynesworth stated during the current evaluation, "I don't know nothing about that."

According to records, between 11/10/03 and 11/14/03 Mr. Haynesworth sexually assaulted his 13-year-old stepdaughter by having vaginal intercourse with her and touching her chest. He was charged with CSC with a Minor-2nd Degree. On 12/13/05 he pleaded guilty to Assault and Battery of a High and Aggravated Nature and was sentenced to 10 years incarceration suspended to time served and 3 years probation. During the current evaluation, Mr. Haynesworth denied ever engaging in sexual activity with his stepdaughter. He stated his wife (the victim's mother) called the police because "she wanted money from me. She was crazy sick." He said he pleaded not guilty and had two mistrials on these charges. He stated he eventually pleaded guilty to ABHAN because "I did admit to beating my stepdaughter because she called me a MPer. That was the first time I ever put my hands on her."

Nonsexual Offenses

On 5/8/88 in Tacoma, WA, Mr. Haynesworth was arrested for assaulting a 19-year-old female prostitute. He reportedly offered her $50 for sex, and she agreed to go to his residence. When she asked to see the money, he could not produce it so she attempted to leave. He assaulted her by hitting her about the face. To police, he admitted to slapping her but stated she was his girlfriend. He was found guilty of Simple Assault.

Records indicate Mr. Haynesworth allegedly assaulted a 22-year-old woman on 8/9/88 in Tacoma, WA. According to police records, he approached the woman and offered her drugs for sex. When she refused, he withdrew a small revolver, loaded a bullet into it, and pointed it at her. She ran and he chased her, ultimately tripping her. He then handed the gun to another individual and proceeded to punch and kick her. He ceased the assault only when a car stopped and the driver intervened. He was charged with Assault, but it appears this charge was dismissed.

According to available legal records, Mr. Haynesworth has been convicted of trespassing (1986, 1989); resisting arrest (1986); shoplifting (twice in 1986, 1987, 1989); simple assault and battery (1987, 1989, 2002); breach of the peace (2 counts in 1987, 4 counts in 1989); disorderly conduct (1987, 1988, 1989, 2002); malicious injury to property (1987); malicious mischief (1988); assault and battery (1988, 2 times in 1989); petty larceny (1989); ABHAN (1992); breaking and entering into automobile (1993); possession, selling, or disposing of a stolen vehicle (1998); and criminal domestic violence (2003).

The respondent's probation was revoked on 8/7/98 for violations that included failing to report, residing at an unapproved residence, getting evicted from his residence, failing to notify his agent of arrests (possession with intent to distribute crack within proximity of a school, loitering, trespassing, shoplifting, possession of a stolen vehicle, false information to police, open container, public drunk), being convicted (of giving false information to police, open container, public drunk, and possession of a stolen vehicle), and failing to pay supervision fees. His probation was revoked, and he was sentenced to serve 6 years of his 10 year sentence.

Mr. Haynesworth's probation was also revoked on 9/15/06 for violations that included being charged with criminal domestic violence—third offense (he went to his wife's residence and threatened to shoot her), failing to report, changing his residence without permission, using controlled substances, failing to notify his agent of arrests (for shoplifting and drunkenness), failing to pay supervision fees, failing to pay his fine, and failing to attend drug treatment. His probation agent wrote in the Violation Report, dated 9/11/06, "From reviewing this man's rap sheet he is a career criminal. He is a violent drug addict with no regards for the law. He has been revoked from probation five times and his criminal activity has only elevated. He is a threat to the community and to himself because he is a sex offender."

Institutional Disciplinary History

SCDC records indicate Mr. Haynesworth was institutionally "convicted" of at least 11 major disciplinary infractions (i.e., striking an employee, fighting without a weapon [5 times], threatening to inflict harm on an employee, abuse of privileges, false statement to harm another person, threatening to inflict harm on an inmate, class II escape) and 18 minor infractions (i.e., disrespect; refusing or failing to obey orders [7 times]; use of obscene, vulgar, or profane language/gestures [4 times]; inciting/creating a disturbance [6 times]).

Regarding the escape, records indicate an officer gave Mr. Haynesworth "a directive to clean out the dog run . . . and to stand by the inside gate of the mess hall and the officers would let him in. . . . Ofc. Foreman informed her that I/M [inmate] was not back there. . . . She observed I/M Haynesworth walking the outer perimeter fence passing the gas tanks. She gave I/M a directive to stop and to walk towards the double fence, and he complied." During the current evaluation, Mr. Haynesworth reported he filed a lawsuit against SCDC regarding this conviction for escape. He stated he won the lawsuit and "several employees got fired" as a result. However, according to the unpublished decision by the U.S. Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, Mr. Haynesworth was unsuccessful in his lawsuit.

The respondent was charged with use of obscene, vulgar, profane language (a minor infraction) on one occasion after he "did write lewd an [sic] indecent note to Assoc. Warden Brown from KCI." A copy of this letter was requested from SCDC, but no information was received.

According to a Rules Violations report, on 1/4/91, Mr. Haynesworth "stuck his hand out of his cell and touched the side of [a nurse's] right breast." After being told to not touch the nurse, he "withdrew his hand . . . and smiled." Mr. Haynesworth was charged with battery and sentenced to 720 days administrative segregation. According to the Adjustment Committee Summary, "The committee also felt Haynesworth actions were sexual in nature dut [sic] to the area of contact . . ."

Sex Offender Treatment History

There is no indication Mr. Haynesworth has ever participated in sex offender treatment.

Current Mental Status

Mr. Haynesworth was seen on two occasions: 6/15/12 and 7/13/12. His clinical presentation was very similar on both occasions. He is a 42-year-old African American male who presented with good hygiene and grooming. He was alert, oriented, and offered appropriate eye contact. His speech was normal in rate, volume, and tone. His thought processes were logical, linear, and goal-directed. He was very talkative and tended to provide long, rambling, somewhat convoluted answers to questions. His affect was broad and expressive, and he was superficially cooperative with the evaluation. However, most of his statements regarding his background and his offense history contradicted available collateral information. He appeared invested in presenting himself in a positive light. He denied symptoms of mental illness, and no overt symptoms were observed. He denied recent or current suicidal or homicidal ideation. He reported he does not take any psychiatric medications.

The respondent denied ever committing a sex offense. He stated he pleaded guilty to the 1996 assault because "I wasn't aware of the consequences, and I got time served." Upon inquiry, he reported he has been accused of multiple sex offenses due to "being in the wrong place at the wrong time. . . . I'm not really a bad person. . . . I would never hurt someone or take advantage of a woman." He also claimed that much of the available information on him (e.g., criminal history, mental health records) is incorrect and due to "false identities. Someone was using my name." He said there has never been anything deviant, abnormal, or problematic about his sexuality or his sexual behavior. He stated he does not have any risk factors for reoffending sexually in the future. He was asked to rate his likelihood of sexual reoffending on a scale of 0 (not likely) to 10 (very likely), and he stated, "Zero" because "I'm not that kind of character."

He reported that, if he is released, he plans to live in South Carolina, work as a concrete finisher at a construction company, and preach. He stated he plans to eventually start his own construction business and move to Alaska. He said he intends to continue in his relationship with his fiancée. Upon inquiry, he reported he plans to meet his sexual needs by "reading the bible." He denied having a need for sex offender treatment or any other type of mental health services.

Diagnoses

Mr. Haynesworth has been convicted of one sexual offense. However, he has been charged with two other sex offenses, he pleaded down a third sex offense charge to an assault, a girlfriend described a history of forced sexual intercourse, and he was institutionally convicted in SCDC of touching a female nurse's breast. Mr. Haynesworth claims he has always had willing sexual partners available to him, yet he has apparently chosen to force victims into sexual acts. His victims have included both family members (i.e., a cousin and a stepdaughter) and strangers. Thus, the totality of these allegations, charges, and convictions indicates Mr. Haynesworth has a history of sexual arousal to nonconsensual sexual activity, and he has acted on this interest on multiple occasions. These behaviors and arousal pattern meet criteria for a diagnosis of Paraphilia Not Otherwise Specified.

The respondent's history and clinical presentation are also consistent with a diagnosis of Personality Disorder Not Otherwise Specified, with Antisocial Features. Personality disorders are defined by persistent and inflexible patterns of thought, emotion, and behavior that are stable over time and lead to subjective distress or functional impairment. Antisocial Personality Disorder is characterized by a pattern of disregard for and violation of the rights of others occurring since age 15. It is unclear if Mr. Haynesworth met criteria for Conduct Disorder prior to the age of 15, so a full diagnosis of Antisocial Personality Disorder is not offered. However, his history, self-report, and clinical presentation are indicative of features of Antisocial Personality Disorder. He has repeatedly engaged in acts that are grounds for arrest, both inside and outside of correctional facilities. The nature of his offenses (e.g., sexual assaults, assault and battery, criminal domestic violence) indicates a reckless disregard for the safety of himself and others. He has a significant history of irritability and aggressiveness, as indicated by repeated physical fights and assaults. His clinical presentation is marked by significant deceitfulness, as evidenced by his self-report that contradicted a significant portion of the available collateral information about his history. He presents with a profound lack of remorse for his behavior.

Risk Assessment

The Static-99R is an instrument designed to assist in the estimation of sexual and violent recidivism for sexual offenders. The recidivism estimates were derived from new charges or reconvictions of groups of individuals; as such, these estimates do not directly correspond to the recidivism risk of an individual offender. Mr. Haynesworth was pre-selected for evaluation as a potential sexually violent predator following reviews by the Multidisciplinary Team (by a vote of 4 to 0) and the Prosecutor's Review Committee as well as a finding of probable cause by the court. Therefore, his score on the Static-99R (6) was compared to a reference group identified as a "non-routine correctional sample." On average, 24.7% (range = 19.6 – 30.7) of non-routine sex offenders with this score sexually recidivated within five years, and 33.4% (range = 28.2 – 39.2) of non-routine sex offenders with this score sexually recidivated within ten years. Approximately 89.7% of a routine correctional sample of sex offenders had scores associated with less risk for sexual reoffending than did Mr. Haynesworth, approximately 5.2% had scores associated with the same amount of risk, and approximately 5.1% had scores associated with more risk.

Opinion on Status as a Sexually Violent Predator

Whether Mr. Haynesworth is a sexually violent predator is a legal decision to be made by the legal factfinder. As such, the following opinion is not intended to be dispositive on this issue, but to assist the factfinder in the decision-making process. It is noted that examiners' opinions are limited by several factors. For example, estimates of reoffense risk are based on group data that cannot be directly applied to an individual respondent. Furthermore, some terminology in the SVP statutes (such as "likely" to engage in acts of sexual violence) is not clearly defined.

The limitations notwithstanding, it is opined that Mr. Haynesworth meets the criteria to be considered a sexually violent predator as defined by the SVP Act.

First, Mr. Haynesworth meets criteria for both a relevant mental abnormality (Paraphilia Not Otherwise Specified) and a personality disorder (Antisocial Personality Disorder) that "predispose" him to commit sexually violent offenses.

Second, the respondent's score on the Static-99R, an actuarial risk assessment instrument, is in the High Range. On average, 24.7% (range = 19.6 – 30.7) of non-routine sex offenders with this score sexually recidivated within five years, and 33.4% (range = 28.2 – 39.2) of non-routine sex offenders with this score sexually recidivated within ten years. His estimated risk level is higher than approximately 90% of a routine correctional sample of sex offenders.

Third, Mr. Haynesworth appears to have several factors of small to moderate magnitude that are associated with increased risk for sexual recidivism. These risk factors, in concert with his diagnosis of Paraphilia Not Otherwise Specified and Static-99R risk level, seem to make the possibility of his sexual reoffending "likely," meaning "of such a degree as to pose a menace to the health and safety of others." These other risk factors for sexual reoffending are resistance to rules and supervision, antisocial orientation, general self-regulation problems, poor cognitive problem solving, and grievance/hostility. There is no indication Mr. Haynesworth has participated in any treatment that would potentially mitigate these risk factors.

Finally, there are indications that Mr. Haynesworth has "serious difficulty" controlling his sexual behavior. He committed sexual offenses despite the reported availability of consenting sexual partners. Some of his alleged victims knew him and could easily identify him. He continued to commit sexual assaults despite prior arrests for similar offenses.

Petitioner's Exhibit K

302.2 Pedophilia

The paraphilic focus of Pedophilia involves sexual activity with a prepubescent child (generally age 13 years or younger). The individual with Pedophilia must be age 16 years or older and at least 5 years older than the child. For individuals in late adolescence with Pedophilia, no precise age difference is specified, and clinical judgment must be used; both the sexual maturity of the child and the age difference must be taken into account. Individuals with Pedophilia generally report an attraction to children of a particular age range. Some individuals prefer males, others females, and some are aroused by both males and females. Those attracted to females usually prefer 8- to 10-year-olds, whereas those attracted to males usually prefer slightly older children. Pedophilia involving female victims is reported more often than Pedophilia involving male victims. Some individuals with Pedophilia are sexually attracted only to children (Exclusive Type), whereas others are sometimes attracted to adults (Non-exclusive Type). Individuals with Pedophilia who act on their urges with children may limit their activity to undressing the child and looking, exposing themselves, masturbating in the presence of the child, or gentle touching and fondling of the child. Others, however, perform fellatio or cunnilingus on the child or penetrate the child's vagina, mouth, or anus with their fingers, foreign objects, or penis and use varying degrees of force to do so. These activities are commonly explained with excuses or rationalizations that they have "educational value" for the child, that the child derives "sexual pleasure" from them, or that the child was "sexually provocative"—themes that are also common in pedophilic pornography. Because of the ego-syntonic nature of Pedophilia, many individuals with pedophilic fantasies, urges, or behaviors do not experience significant distress. It is important to understand that experiencing distress about having the fantasies, urges, or behaviors is not necessary for a diagnosis of Pedophilia. Individuals who have a pedophilic arousal pattern and act on these fantasies or urges with a child qualify for the diagnosis of Pedophilia.

Individuals may limit their activities to their own children, stepchildren, or relatives or may victimize children outside their families. Some individuals with Pedophilia threaten the child to prevent disclosure. Others, particularly those who frequently victimize children, develop complicated techniques for obtaining access to children, which may include winning the trust of a child's mother, marrying a woman with an attractive child, trading children with other individuals with Pedophilia, or, in rare instances, taking in foster children from nonindustrialized countries or abducting children from strangers. Except in cases in which the disorder is associated with Sexual Sadism, the person may be attentive to the child's needs in order to gain the child's affection, interest, and loyalty and to prevent the child from reporting the sexual activity. The disorder usually begins in adolescence, although some individuals with Pedophilia report that they did not become aroused by children until middle age. The frequency of pedophilic behavior often fluctuates with psychosocial stress. The course is usually chronic, especially in those attracted to males. The recidivism rate for individuals with Pedophilia involving a preference for males is roughly twice that for those who prefer females.

Paraphilias

Diagnostic Features

The essential features of a Paraphilia are recurrent, intense sexually arousing fantasies, sexual urges, or behaviors generally involving 1) nonhuman objects, 2) the suffering or humiliation of oneself or one's partner, or 3) children or other nonconsenting persons that occur over a period of at least 6 months (Criterion A). For some individuals, paraphilic fantasies or stimuli are obligatory for erotic arousal and are always included in sexual activity. In other cases, the paraphilic preferences occur only episodically (e.g., perhaps during periods of stress), whereas at other times the person is able to function sexually without paraphilic fantasies or stimuli. For Pedophilia, Voyeurism, Exhibitionism, and Frotteurism, the diagnosis is made if the person has acted on these urges or the urges or sexual fantasies cause marked distress or interpersonal difficulty. For Sexual Sadism, the diagnosis is made if the person has acted on these urges with a nonconsenting person or the urges, sexual fantasies, or behaviors cause marked distress or interpersonal difficulty. For the remaining Paraphilias, the diagnosis is made if the behavior, sexual urges, or fantasies cause clinically significant distress or impairment in social, occupational, or other important areas of functioning (Criterion B).

Paraphilic imagery may be acted out with a nonconsenting partner in a way that may be injurious to the partner (as in Sexual Sadism or Pedophilia). The individual may be subject to arrest and incarceration. Sexual offenses against children constitute a significant proportion of all reported criminal sex acts, and individuals with Exhibitionism, Pedophilia, and Voyeurism make up the majority of apprehended sex offenders. In some situations, acting out the paraphilic imagery may lead to self-injury (as in Sexual Masochism). Social and sexual relationships may suffer if others find the unusual sexual behavior shameful or repugnant or if the individual's sexual partner refuses to cooperate in the unusual sexual preferences. In some instances, the unusual behavior (e.g., exhibitionistic acts or the collection of fetish objects) may become the major sexual activity in the individual's life. These individuals are rarely self-referred and usually come to the attention of mental health professionals only when their behavior has brought them into conflict with sexual partners or society.

The Paraphilias described here are conditions that have been specifically identified by previous classifications. They include Exhibitionism (exposure of genitals), Fetishism (use of nonliving objects), Frotteurism (touching and rubbing against a nonconsenting person), Pedophilia (focus on prepubescent children), Sexual Masochism (receiving humiliation or suffering), Sexual Sadism (inflicting humiliation or suffering), Transvestic Fetishism (cross-dressing), and Voyeurism (observing sexual activity). A residual category, Paraphilia Not Otherwise Specified, includes other Paraphillias that are less frequently encountered. Not uncommonly, individuals have more than one Paraphilia.

Recording Procedures

The individual Paraphillias are differentiated based on the characteristic paraphilic focus. However, if the individual's sexual preferences meet criteria for more than one Paraphilia, all should be diagnosed. The diagnostic code and terms are as follows: 302.4 Exhibitionism, 302.81 Fetishism, 302.89 Frotteurism, 302.2 Pedophilia, 302.83 Sexual Masochism, 302.84 Sexual Sadism, 302.3 Transvestic Fetishism, 302.82 Voyeurism, and 302.9 Paraphilia Not Otherwise Specified.

Associated Features and Disorders

Associated descriptive features and mental disorders. The preferred stimulus, even within a particular Paraphilia, may be highly specific. Individuals who do not have a consenting partner with whom their fantasies can be acted out may purchase the services of prostitutes or may act out their fantasies with unwilling victims. Individuals with a Paraphilia may select an occupation or develop a hobby or volunteer work that brings them into contact with the desired stimulus (e.g., selling women's shoes or lingerie [Fetishism], working with children [Pedophilia], or driving an ambulance [Sexual Sadism]). They may selectively view, read, purchase, or collect photographs, films, and textual depictions that focus on their preferred type of paraphilic stimulus. Many individuals with these disorders assert that the behavior causes them no distress and that their only problem is social dysfunction as a result of the reaction of others to their behavior. Others report extreme guilt, shame, and depression at having to engage in an unusual sexual activity that is socially unacceptable or that they regard as immoral. There is often impairment in the capacity for reciprocal, affectionate sexual activity, and Sexual Dysfunctions may be present. Personality disturbances are also frequent and may be severe enough to warrant a diagnosis of a Personality Disorder. Symptoms of depression may develop in individuals with Paraphillias and may be accompanied by an increase in the frequency and intensity of the paraphilic behavior.

Associated laboratory findings. Penile plethysmography has been used in research settings to assess various Paraphillias by measuring an individual's sexual arousal in response to visual and auditory stimuli. The reliability and validity of this procedure in clinical assessment have not been well established, and clinical experience suggests that subjects can simulate response by manipulating mental images.

Associated general medical conditions. Frequent, unprotected sex may result in infection with, or transmission of, a sexually transmitted disease. Sadistic or masochistic behaviors may lead to injuries ranging in extent from minor to life threatening.

Specific Culture and Gender Features

The diagnosis of Paraphillias across cultures or religions is complicated by the fact that what is considered deviant in one cultural setting may be more acceptable in another setting. Except for Sexual Masochism, where the sex ratio is estimated to be 20 males for each female, the other Paraphillias are almost never diagnosed in females, although some cases have been reported.

Prevalence

Although Paraphillias are rarely diagnosed in general clinical facilities, the large commercial market in paraphilic pornography and paraphernalia suggests that its prevalence in the community is likely to be higher. The most common presenting problems in clinics that specialize in the treatment of Paraphillias are Pedophilia, Voyeurism, and Exhibitionism. Sexual Masochism and Sexual Sadism are much less commonly seen. Approximately one-half of the individuals with Paraphillias seen clinically are married.

Course

Certain of the fantasies and behaviors associated with Paraphillias may begin in childhood or early adolescence but become better defined and elaborated during adolescence and early adulthood. Elaboration and revision of paraphilic fantasies may continue over the lifetime of the individual. By definition, the fantasies and urges associated with these disorders are recurrent. Many individuals report that the fantasies are always present but that there are periods of time when the frequency of the fantasies and intensity of the urges vary substantially. The disorders tend to be chronic and lifelong, but both the fantasies and the behaviors often diminish with advancing age in adults. The behaviors may increase in response to psychosocial stressors, in relation to other mental disorders, or with increased opportunity to engage in the Paraphilia.

Differential Diagnosis

A Paraphilia must be distinguished from the nonpathological use of sexual fantasies, behaviors, or objects as a stimulus for sexual excitement in individuals without a Paraphilia. Fantasies, behaviors, or objects are paraphilic only when they lead to clinically significant distress or impairment (e.g., are obligatory, result in sexual dysfunction, require participation of nonconsenting individuals, lead to legal complications, interfere with social relationships).

In Mental Retardation, Dementia, Personality Change Due to a General Medical Condition, Substance Intoxication, a Manic Episode, or Schizophrenia, there may be a decrease in judgment, social skills, or impulse control that, in rare instances, leads to unusual sexual behavior. This can be distinguished from a Paraphilia by the fact that the unusual sexual behavior is not the individual's preferred or obligatory pattern, the sexual symptoms occur exclusively during the course of these mental disorders, and the unusual sexual acts tend to be isolated rather than recurrent and usually have a later age at onset.

The individual Paraphilias can be distinguished based on differences in the characteristic paraphilic focus. However, if the individual's sexual preferences meet criteria for more than one Paraphilia, all can be diagnosed. Exhibitionism must be distinguished from public urination, which is sometimes offered as an explanation for the behavior. Fetishism and Transvestic Fetishism both often involve articles of feminine clothing. In Fetishism, the focus of sexual arousal is on the article of clothing itself (e.g., panties), whereas in Transvestic Fetishism the sexual arousal comes from the act of cross-dressing. Cross-dressing, which is present in Transvestic Fetishism, may also be present in Sexual Masochism. In Sexual Masochism, it is the humiliation of being forced to cross-dress, not the garments themselves, that is sexually exciting.

Cross-dressing may be associated with gender dysphoria. If some gender dysphoria is present but the full criteria for Gender Identity Disorder are not met, the diagnosis is Transvestic Fetishism, With Gender Dysphoria. Individuals should receive the additional diagnosis of Gender Identity Disorder if their presentation meets the full criteria for Gender Identity Disorder.

ORDER FOR EVALUATION PURSUANT TO THE SEXUALLY VIOLENT PREDATOR ACT

James G. Bogle, Jr.
DEPUTY CLERK OF COURT
SOUTH CAROLINA

This matter comes before me on petition of the State of South Carolina for an order requiring the Respondent, Alphonso Haynesworth, to submit to an examination and to be detained in appropriate secure facility pending a trial pursuant the Sexually Violent Predator Act (S. C. Code Ann. Sections 44-48-10 et seq.). A hearing was held on April 20, 2012; the state was represented by Senior Assistant Attorney General James G. Bogle, Jr., and the Respondent by William Buxton, Esq.

I have considered the showing made in respect to this matter, and am of the opinion that probable cause exists to find that the Respondent is a sexually violent predator as defined by S. C. Code Ann. Section 44-48-30.

THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Respondent shall be:

- (a) Confined upon his max-out date from the South Carolina Department of Corrections, in the Sumter-Lee Regional Detention Center until a final disposition of this action; and
- (b) Examined and observed at the appropriate facility of the South Carolina Department of Mental Health to determine whether the Respondent suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder that makes him likely to engage in acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility for long-term control, care, and treatment.

The ordered examination shall be requested by the Office of the Attorney General of South Carolina and scheduled by the examining facility as soon as possible. The Respondent is to arrive at the examining facility at the time established by confirmed appointment with the staff of the examining facility. The Respondent continues under jurisdiction of this Court.

The Court appoints Kimberly S. Harrison, to examine the Respondent.

Within five days of the receipt of the written report of the examination by the Office of the Attorney General of South Carolina, said office shall make a copy of such examination available to the Respondent's attorney.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
