RE: Theodore Polansky v. SC Attorney General
Lower Court Case No.: 2015CP4007380
Appellate Case No.: 2016-001494

Dear Claire:

I am in receipt of your February 27, 2019 letter wherein you request a status report to be provided within 10 days. This matter arises from a Workers' Compensation Case for an injury which initially occurred in 1999. It is without a doubt the most procedurally complex matter that I have ever been involved in as an attorney. The parties are in agreement as far as the terms of a settlement. We are working through multiple rounds of revisions to arrive at a final settlement draft. It is my belief that we are very close to a final draft of the settlement documents with which we will seek approval from the SC Workers' Compensation Commission. I assure you we have worked as diligently as possible to resolve this matter.

For the reason stated above, I request that you please allow additional time for the completion and approval of settlement documents in this matter. Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at my direct dial: (803) 705-2149. Thank you for the court's patience in this matter.

Sincerely,

Temus C. Miles, Jr.
