

S.C Court of Appeals
of Kinjta K. Sadler

state v. Alexander

Inconsistent Verdict:

I am writing concerning a few crucial issue the court should consider in this appeal. I was indicted on 7 counts Attempted Murder conspiracy, assault by M.O.B and possession of a Weapon of a violent crime. However when I went to court on a Saturday Morning Jan 12 2013 I was found guilty of just 7 counts of Attempted Murder. How when they say I acted with CO-DE's I supposley did this with a group that take's you to [State v Alexander] inconsistent verdicts Mr Alexander was indicted of kidnaping, armed robbery and Criminal Sexual conduct in the third degree, But when he arose in trial the jury only found him guilty on kidnaping and sexual conduct in the third degree. However he puts in for inconsistent Verdict and on feb 4 1991 [SC Supreme court Respondent] to his Case.

State V. LANGFORD

Intimidate Witnesses:

I am writing concerning a few crucial issue that may create a legal question of Due process. I would like to turn your attention to the testimony of Larry Johnson, Shaquille Hogan and Larry Bruster. according to ["LANGFORD"] the Solicitor can no longer put witness on the stand that they [know] there testimony would be a clear act of [Perjury] § 16-9-1(B)(2). because there original statement to Law Enforcement on the event that took place were different however they were under oath. Larry Bruster was a interest witness he didnt want to testify until Judge Edward W. Miller intimidated him "LANGFORD" I am quare the ultimate mission of system upon which we rely to protect the [Liberty] of the accused, as well as the welfare of society is to ascertain the factual truth and this important mission is utterly derailed by unchecked lying witness and Law Enforcement officers or Prosecutors who finds it tactically advantageous not to turn a blind eye to Malevolent disinformation. "LANGFORD" during Sentencing Stage [P. 787 Lines 17-24] also would create a [Legal]
