MARY P. BROWN
CLERK OF COURT
BERKELEY COUNTY, S.C.

The State of South Carolina by and through Assistant Solicitor, Anne Williams moves that the court prohibit testimony concerning the victim, Reginald Porcher's character through testimony or evidence of prior convictions or other alleged bad acts unless they are connected toward the defendant or closely connected in point of time or occasion with the homicide.

The rule has long been established in this State that evidence of other specific instances of violence on the part of the deceased are not admissible unless they were directed against the defendant, or if directed against others, were so closely connected in point of time or occasion with the homicide as reasonably to indicate the state of mind of the deceased at the time of the homicide or to produce reasonable apprehension of great bodily harm. State v Brown 321 S.C. 184, 467 S.E. 2d 922; citing State v Amurgey 206 S.C. 426, 429, 34 S.E. 2d 779, 780 (1945).

The State moves to prohibit any reference or line of inquiry by counsel regarding prior bad acts and/or character evidence concerning the victim, reference shall include, but is not limited to: any inquiry by counsel and/or any references by counsel during summation, argument, or witness examination which alleges any specific instances of prior bad acts. Furthermore, the State requests notice before any such evidence is proffered before the Court.

SECURITY RISK OF MR PORCHER HAVING A CANE- WITH HX OF ASSAULTING ANOTHER

On the above date and approximate time: I, Off Y. Williams assigned to Hampton A wing, while sitting at the officer's desk when I/m Porcher Reginald SCDC# 287672 approached me and asked if he could introduce himself. I told him no, I'll find out when I do my count. He then started anyway by saying "My name is Reginald Porcher." He told me that he would be getting his tooth soon so he could be more presentable. He also stated that I would be available. I then asked, "Available for who?" He said available for him because he didn't see a ring on my finger. I recommend that I/m Porcher Reginald be charged with 338 Soliciting improper relationship (to violate an Agency Rule, entering into an improper relationship with an employee).
I, Sgt. Newton concur with the above charges.

§ 16-11-440. Presumption of reasonable fear of imminent peril when using deadly force against another unlawfully entering residence, occupied vehicle or place of business

(A) A person is presumed to have a reasonable fear of imminent peril of death or great bodily injury to himself or another person when using deadly force that is intended or likely to cause death or great bodily injury to another person if the person:
