Re: State of South Carolina v. Justin Bradley Cameron
Appellate Case No. 2018-001493

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

It has come to my attention that my staff did not notify the Court when we received the Trial Transcript in the above captioned matter. I apologize to the Court for that oversight. My office received this transcript from the Court Reporter on February 16, 2019. By my calculation, the Initial Brief of Appellant is now due on Monday, March 18, 2019. I will be at a prison near Charleston Monday and in Beaufort Monday night for Court on Tuesday. Unfortunately, my heavy schedule prohibits my completing this brief prior to leaving town on Monday. For that reason, I now request a thirty (30) day extension of time in which to serve and file this brief. Inasmuch as this is a first extension request, I have not consulted opposing counsel concerning this matter. I appreciate your time in attention to this request and remain,

Yours sincerely,
