Re: In the Matter of Lucille Rogers
Appellate Case No. 2019-000445
Lower Court Case No. 2019GC1000005

Dear Ms. Garlington:

This Court has received your notices of appeal, and the appeal has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/displayOrder.cfm?orderNo=2014-04-15-02. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

South Carolina Code Ann. § 62-1-309 provided for appeals from probate court. It provides, in relevant part, as follows:

Except as provided in subsection (1), appeals from the probate court must be to the circuit court and are governed by the following rules:

(a) A person interested in a final order, sentence, or decree of a probate court may appeal to the circuit court in the same county, subject to the provisions of Section 62-1-303. The notice of intention to appeal to the circuit court must be filed in the office of the circuit court and in the office of the probate court and a copy served on all parties not in default within ten days after receipt of written notice of the appealed from order, sentence, or decree of the probate court.

(l) If the parties not in default consent either in writing or on the record at a hearing in the probate court, a party to a final order, sentence, or decree of a probate court who considers himself injured by it may appeal directly to the Supreme Court, and the procedure for the appeal must be governed by the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

In light of Section (l) of this statute, I ask that you please provide this Court with a copy of the written consent by the parties to an appeal directly to this Court, or proof that the parties consented to an appeal directly to this Court on the record before the probate court. This documentation must be provided within ten (10) days of the date of this letter. Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of this appeal.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
