Dear Court of Appeals

I wanted you guys to look at a couple of things I think were wrongly done on Sept. 19, 2017. I went up before the Honorable Benjamin H. Culbertson. While I was standing before the Judge, the arresting officer on my case officer Lee told them I had no remorse for what I did and that my only objective on the day of Jan. 2, 2017 was to kill Mr. Mishoe in that barbershop, which wasn't true at all. When I tried to refute him on what was said about me I was told to not speak on that matter by the Judge and wasn't able to defend myself against the accusation made against me. That's against my legal rights to not allow me to speak on an issue dealing with my sentencing. Look at the case State vs. Bennett 328 SC 251 493 SE. 2d 845 (1997). I have a right to allocation. I want the court to look into my recorded confession. The arresting officer said that I made the comment ("I figured this would bother me because of what happened, but it really doesn't bother me. What makes me mad is that I didn't get any money") I don't recall Saying anything like that because what happened did bother me. Because I have never done anything like that in my life before and it scared me. I wasn't running from the police. They could have been to my house in the split of a second and arrested me. They never came, I was going to turn myself in anyway because it was bothering me. The arresting officer on my case can't be trusted. He's had it out for me the longest from past flaws. I've had getting in trouble and he always told me he would put me away for ever and getting sentenced 30 years in prison is pretty much for ever. From my understanding my plea offer was only to be from 0-15. But my attorney said with the armed robbery I couldn't have gotten no less than 10 years. So my lawyer told me the plea would be from 10-15. But once I signed the paper the solicitor said you agreed to the 0-30 plea. I asked him why would I do that if I agreed to the 10-15. He said "well this is the only offer for you if not its trial. And told me I would get 60 years. But I told him an open plea ~~200~~ from 0-30 was outrageous because I could get the whole 30 years. All he said was Beats life in prison. 30 years is life in prison. is what I said. I was young and didnt understand most of it. But agreed out of the trust I had in my lawyer. The solicitor told me dont worry the judge is a forgiving person he wont give you the whole 30 years ~~can~~ can promise you that. There were just so many flaws but I didnt know at the time. But now I do and want you guys to review all mistakes made.

Thank You and God
Bless you.
