MOTION

Counsel for the Respondent hereby moves for an extension to serve and file the Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter in the present case.

Due to counsel's present case load, which includes a large number of briefing and trial commitments, an extension of time is required to fully brief the issues presented in this case.

Respondent further moves that the time be held in abeyance pending the decision and ruling by the Court on this Motion.

RE: Deena L. Bettencourt and Scott Bettencourt, Appellants, v. Mary Wald,
Respondent
Case No.: 2011-CP-23-4086

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I represent the Respondent in the above-referenced matter. As such, I will be briefing the case on behalf of the Respondent.

However, I currently have a number of cases set to be tried before the spring of this year, and am currently in the middle of trying three cases, consecutively. It is for this reason that I would appreciate your consideration in granting me additional time in which to serve and file the Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter.

As such, I am enclosing herewith an original and seven copies of a Motion for extension of time, as well as a Certificate and filing fee. If this request meets with your approval, I would greatly appreciate your filing the same, clocking one of the copies, and returning that document to me via the enclosed stamped, self addressed envelope provided for your convenience.

Also, please note that by copy of this letter we are placing all counsel of record on notice of this request.

I appreciate your consideration with regard to this matter.

Sincerely,

MARCUS K. MCGARR, P.A.

Marcus K. McGarr
