

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Richie D. Barnes, Respondent,

v.

James Reese, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2018-002157

ORDER

Respondent has filed a motion to dismiss. Because Appellant certifies he served Respondent with the notice of appeal within thirty days of receiving written notice of entry of the order on appeal, the motion to dismiss is denied. Within ten days of the date of this order, Appellant must provide proof he has made "satisfactory arrangements (including agreement regarding payment for the transcript), in writing with the court reporter for furnishing the transcript." Rule 207(a)(1), SCACR. Failure of Appellant to comply may result in the dismissal of this appeal.

Appellant has filed two motions, which this court construes together as a motion for a stay pursuant to Rule 241, SCACR. After careful consideration, the motion is denied. See Rule 241(d)(1), SCACR ("Except where extraordinary circumstances make it impracticable, an application for an order lifting the automatic stay or for supersedeas must first be made to the lower court or administrative tribunal which entered the order or decision on appeal.").
