Dear Ms. Kitchings

Thank you for your Return letter Dated March 27, 2019. The letter I wrote to your office on 3/22/2019 I was asking your office or whom ever office to help appoint an appellate to help me with this appeal. I was told by the lower Court that one would be contacting me, but I've been told a lot of thing in the Sixth Circuit Court, I'm not sure if I'm being represented to the fullest by Court appointed Counsel.

Your letter says I have to file an appeal in accordance to the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules is this some special form or do I just file it in the form of a motion, Ms Kitchings what I'm asking from you is who, and how do I submit this appeal and get some long over due Justice. I've been Motioning the Lower Court for almost 18 Month for a speed trial and all they've done is ignored my Motion. I can't get the transcripts from any past hearing. I've been in the Court room 9 times on this same case No# 17-25960, With the same Judge, and I have (and) proof My Rights are being violated.

I've read the Barker, Langford, Pittman statutes which clearly states my speedy trial Rights have been violated Please Help me get to the right Desk for Justice for Acton.

Thank you
Rm Hough
