RE: Deborah Harwell v. Robert Bryan Harwell
Appellate Case No.: 2017-002290

Dear Miss Singleton:

My letter of February 2, 2019, which you received on February 6, 2019, was in compliance to our discussion on how we should proceed to get this case back on track. In the meantime, I recently received the letter from Deputy Clerk Allen on February 8, 2019 and was dated February 1, 2019. Could you please advise Mrs. Allen of our discussion and my correspondence as the letters crossed in the mail. I would like to file the Motion that I discussed with you within the time parameters that I requested so I can proceed to engage counsel so this case can move forward properly.

Please advise Deputy Clerk Allen of our agreement reached on February 1st and the related February 2nd letter from me that crossed with Deputy Clerk Allen's February 1st letter in the mail.

Thank you very much for your efforts to resolve the issues caused by the prior clerk that you and I have resolved. I look forward hearing from you at your earliest convenience so I will know how to proceed.

Sincerely yours,
