Greetings Mrs. Angela P. Berry, I wish to pay the cost for completion of the of Civil Case No. 2017-CP-40-7649 transcripts. The matter according to your response was incorrect in that your prior correspondence stated as "City of Columbia V. Bishop Ruben DeWayne"

Instead, your transcripts should read as referenced above. I was the Plaintiff, not the defendant in that matter. The Defendants were as follows. OPD SOCRATES GROUP LLC, The City of Columbia Police Department, The State of South Carolina and SC Department of Revenue. So please make this important correction on your transcripts so that it properly reflects only true parties as they were.

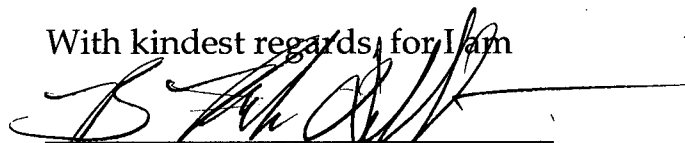

Also, Mrs. Berry, I have a very retaintive mind; I can remember phases and events as far back as 30 years as if the same happened only hours ago. So please do not alter the verbiage of that proceeding as they were. Which if such occurs you will be met with sharp legal actions against you to the full extent of the law.

When the judge who sat at bench refused to take judicial notice of her required oath of office along with the SC Constitution, I was not obligated nor obliged to entertain such foolishness which the transcripts will demonstrate based upon what was said, period.

Do your job and there will be no problem from me. I know that court reporters often will alter transcripts as a way to show themselves a team player while keeping their jobs. Not this time. Only the truth please.

Enclosed is a money order for the $85.00 as stated in your ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECEIPT OF REQUEST FOR TRANSCRIPT OF RECORD.

With kindest regards, for I am
