Trial Court Case No. 2012CP400009

Motion To Reconsider Dismissal Order

Appellant ~~Motion~~ ^{order received on 5 April 2019} ~~to Reconsider~~ because my family and I were brutally displaced from our home illegally on Monday 28 January 2019.
The Attorneys, Law Enforcement and all other Agencies were Notified long before this devastating day that the Case from Richland County had been ^{received} filed in the South Carolina Court of Appeals on or about 4 January 2019. Since that heart breaking day the Appellant and Family are just being able to get back to some normal functioning with the exception of access to my computer that was broken among a lot of other personal belongings that the intruders destroyed as they forcibly removed Appellant and Family from the home which is our own. In Support Thereof; Appellant respectfully states:

1. Appellant Notified Properly all involved in this case that it was Filed in South Carolina Court of Appeal enough Notice was giving.
2. Appellant Filed a Motion To Proceed In Forma Pauperis.
3. Appellant has been unable ^{to} Serve and File anything since being Brutally displaced from the home. Illegally On Monday 28 January 2019

Wherefore, Appellant requests that this Motion be granted so Appellante and Family are able to return to their home soon. Appellant is able to respond to the matter at this time and wishes to have more time to get files that were stored at U Haul Moving and Storage; after the devastation.
