1 The above-styled cause came on for hearing on
2 the 10th day of December, 2012, at 11:12 a.m., before
3 Judge Doyet A. Early, III, presiding over the General
4 Sessions Court for the County of Orangeburg, when the 5 following proceedings were had and entered of record,
6 to wit:

7 PROCEEDINGS

8 PRETRIAL

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sorenson.
10 MR. SORENSON: Thank you. May it please the 11 Court. At this time, we're prepared to call the matter
12 of the case of State versus Cleophas Edwards. It's 13 three indictments, your Honor: 2011-GS-38-564, -565, and 14 -566, charging Mr. Edwards with one count of murder, one
15 count of burglary in the first degree, and one count of 16 possession of a weapon during the commission of a
17 violent crime. Hope to today, your Honor, just kind of 18 get our pretrial matters knocked out so that when our 19 jury panel comes in in the morning, we'll be ready to 20 roll.

21 THE COURT: You're Mr. Edwards?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Please stand up for me. Good
24 morning. How are you?

25 THE DEFENDANT: I'm fine, sir.

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 THE COURT: Mr. Edwards, you've been indicted
2 by the Orangeburg County Grand Jury for the offense of
3 murder. And I assume you understand that if you were 4 convicted for murder, then my range of sentence would be
5 a minimum of 30 years to the balance of your life in 6 prison. You understand that?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: And you have to do that day for 9 day, if you were convicted. So there's no parole to a
10 murder offense. How old are you?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Twenty-four.

12 THE COURT: There's a wide range from a minimum
13 of 30 up to life in prison. Then you are also charged
14 with burglary first. Zero to 30?

15 MR. SORENSON: Fifteen to life.

16 THE COURT: Burglary first is a minimum of 15
17 to the balance of your life. So there's a wide range
18 there. And possession of a weapon during the commission
19 of a violent crime carries five years. So you're 20 facing, obviously, a substantial amount of time. Do you
21 understand all that?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Your lawyers have told me that
24 you are prepared to go forward with a trial starting
25 tomorrow; is that correct?

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And you understand what all happens
3 in a trial?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And what we are doing
6 today is, there's some pretrial matters to determine
7 whether or not some alleged statements that you made
8 would be -- I have to determine certain factors, number
9 one, whether or not a -- Miranda statements were given
10 to you and you understood those; and, secondly, whether 11 or not the statement by the preponderance or greater 12 weight of the evidence was voluntarily. And if I make 13 that initial determination, then it would be admitted
14 into the trial of the case and for the jury to determine 15 whether beyond a reasonable doubt it was voluntary, and 16 they would give it whatever weight, if any, they decide
17 to give it. And that's what we're here today on, on 18 the -- on the -- what's called a Jackson v. Denno.
19 That's the name of a Supreme Court case. I have to make 20 that initial determination, so we'll be talking about 21 that today.

22 And your lawyers also have a couple of motions
23 dealing with suppressing some evidence that was 24 allegedly obtained by way of a search warrant, and they 25 have a motion dealing with not allowing certain evidence

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 to go to the jury concerning why you were initially
2 arrested; i.e., for an alleged violation of your
3 probation. I think you were on probation for a
4 burglary --

5 MS. HINDS: Third.

6 THE COURT: -- third charge, and they allegedly 7 were going to arrest you for allegedly violating your 8 probation for failing to report. So those are some 9 things we are going to be discussing here today and 10 trying to get all that out of the way, so tomorrow when 11 we come in and the jury is here, we don't have to wait
12 to handle all that, the pretrial matters. And that's 13 typically how we do it.

14 So do you have any questions about what we're
15 doing today, or anything you want to ask me, or anything
16 you want to discuss with your lawyers?

17 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

18 THE COURT: Okay. You may have a seat.

19 Mr. Sorenson.

20 MR. SORENSON: Your Honor, just -- I think it
21 might help, as far as a little bit of background also.
22 I know Mr. Wise has indicated that he has a motion with 23 regards to a laptop, and I'd like to maybe address that 24 motion first.

25 THE COURT: All right.

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 MR. SORENSON: So, obviously, I think he needs
2 to make that motion so I know what I'm addressing.

3 THE COURT: For the record, we did have some 4 general discussions in chambers before we came out; and,
5 Mr. Edwards, what that means is, your lawyers and the 6 solicitor's office met with me back in my office, my 7 chambers, and I typically ask them, what do we have in 8 store? And they told me this was a murder case, they 9 told me it's an alleged stabbing of a victim who died,
10 and they told me that they had some various motions.
11 And one of them -- your lawyer sort of generally told
12 me -- it dealt with a laptop computer.

13 So I guess you've got a Motion to Suppress 14 that, Mr. Wise?

15 MR. WISE: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Would it be -- let's go ahead and 17 get that out -- let's take care and dispose of that 18 before we move forward with the Jackson v. Denno.

19 MR. WISE: Very good, your honor.

20 THE COURT: Are you prepared to do that?

21 MR. WISE: We are.

22 THE COURT: All right. If you will just tell
23 me a little bit about what's going on and your position.

24 MR. WISE: Very good, your Honor. By way of 25 background, I think the evidence will show that on the

1 day -- the day Mr. Edwards was arrested, probation
2 officers responded to his home. There were probation
3 officers, but there were also members of the Orangeburg
4 County Sheriff's Department who were with them for 5 security.

6 THE COURT: All right. Probation officers and 7 Sheriff's deputies?

8 MR. WISE: Yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: When was that arrest?

10 MR. WISE: That would have been February the 11 3rd of 2000- -- No. I'm sorry. February 16th of 2011.

12 THE COURT: And what's the date of the alleged 13 murder?

14 MR. WISE: That would have been February 3rd,
15 your Honor.

16 THE COURT: So some 13 days later?

17 MR. WISE: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

19 MR. WISE: When the officers entered the 20 residence, one of the officers -- one of the deputies
21 was a Deputy Harter. He had been involved in the 22 initial responding to the scene of the homicide. One of 23 the things taken at the time of the homicide was a
24 laptop computer, a red Acer laptop computer.

25 THE COURT: Red what?

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 MR. WISE: Acer, A-c-e-r. It's a brand of
2 computer.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. WISE: The testimony, I think, will be that
5 when Officer Harter responded to the residence, he saw a
6 red Acer laptop computer. And then he took that 7 computer, he compared the serial numbers on that
8 computer number from the serial numbers to the computer
9 that was taken at the time of the homicide, found them
10 to be the same.

11 THE COURT: Was it just by chance that Harter
12 was an investigator for the homicide as well as 13 assisting the probation officers for the probation
14 violation arrest?

15 MR. WISE: I believe so.

16 MR. SORENSON: That would be correct. He was 17 just one of the deputies on scene at the homicide. It
18 happened to be the person that actually entered the 19 serial number into the -- into NCIC.

20 THE COURT: And so he sees a red Acer, A-s-e-r,
21 computer?

22 MR. SORENSON: A-c-e-r.

23 THE COURT: How do you spell it?

24 MR. SORENSON: A-c-e-r.

25 This is State's Exhibit No. 7. That's the

1 actual laptop right here.

2 THE COURT: Okay. It's red in color?

3 MR. SORENSON: Red in color, yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: And so he sees this red-colored
5 Acer computer and says, it was a red Acer computer that
6 was stolen or missing from the house where the murder
7 scene was, and he sort of put the two together?

8 MR. WISE: That's correct.

9 THE COURT: And then compared serial numbers?

10 MR. WISE: Yes, your honor.

11 THE COURT: And the serial numbers matched?

12 MR. WISE: They did.

13 THE COURT: And then what happened after that?

14 MR. WISE: At that point, they took -- well,
15 they were going to take Mr. Edwards into custody anyway,
16 but then they took him in, and they began to ask him
17 about the computer, questioned him about the murder.
18 Ultimately, he made a confession, and also, subsequently 19 led the police to an abandoned lot where they found some 20 additional evidence.

21 THE COURT: All right. Now, why -- what is 22 your legal position as to why the Acer computer should 23 be suppressed?

24 MR. WISE: Your Honor, I think that
25 Mr. Edwards, like everybody else, has a right to privacy

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 in his home. Even though he's on probation, he has the
2 federal and the state right to be free from unreasonable
3 searches and seizures. He has a state constitutional
4 right to be free from -- to have a right to privacy.
5 And I think the officers would need a reasonable
6 suspicion to go and look at that computer and compare
7 those serial numbers. And I submit to the Court that a
8 computer, where --

9 I don't think they are going to say there was 10 anything special about it.

11 -- it just happened to be the same color and 12 the same brand of computer that was taken at the time of 13 the homicide, would be sufficient reasonable suspicion
14 for them to then take that computer and conduct their 15 search of the serial numbers.

16 THE COURT: And do you have any cases to 17 support your position, other than just the generic cases
18 dealing with reasonableness and --

19 MR. WISE: No, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: -- high probabilities?

21 MR. WISE: (Moves head up and down.)

22 THE COURT: Reasonable suspicion?

23 MR. WISE: No, your Honor. I think the Court
24 is probably aware of the standard for reasonable
25 suspicion, where you need -- you would need some fact

1 that you can articulate to show that there's been some
2 criminal activity -- kind of a high probability is one
3 of the standards that courts have used. And I would
4 submit to the Court that in this case, the only thing
5 they had was this -- really an innocent object.

6 THE COURT: Well, it is an innocent object,
7 but it's a suspicious innocent object, in that you
8 had a -- from what y'all have told me in chambers, a
9 rather -- a number of stab wounds resulting in death.
10 That occurred some 13 days later. And as a part of the 11 household contents, a red -- frankly, I've never seen a 12 red computer, but that doesn't mean anything -- and it's 13 an Acer, which makes it -- perhaps would give the 14 officer reasonable suspicion that the probationer was 15 engaged in criminal activity.

16 The question is whether or not there was enough
17 likelihood that criminal conduct was being -- had 18 occurred. And the case that you've given me, one of 19 them, is this Knights, K-n-i-g-h-t-s, versus -- U.S. v.
20 Knights, simply says: We hold that the balance of 21 these considerations requires no more than reasonable
22 suspicion to conduct the search of this probationer's
23 house. The degree of individualized suspicion required
24 of a search is a determination of when there is 25 sufficiently high probability that criminal conduct is

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 occurring to make the intrusion on the individual's
2 privacy interest reasonable.

3 Well, it doesn't give you any real one, two,
4 three, four, five steps. You just have to balance it
5 all in a sort of a -- I guess a subjective test as to 6 whether or not I feel like, in ruling on this, that 7 there was reasonable suspicion. Would you agree with 8 that analysis?

9 MR. WISE: Absolutely, your Honor. The Court
10 just read the sentence that I was going to discuss a
11 little more with the Court. The language is the high
12 probability that criminal conduct is occurring. And 13 that's what I think the Court needs to find. And I'd 14 submit to the Court that just looking at that object
15 would not be enough for there to be a high probability 16 that criminal conduct is occurring. There is really
17 nothing significant about that computer.

18 THE COURT: Other than it's red, and it's an 19 Acer.

20 MR. WISE: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: But it's not like it's a generic
22 iPad sitting over there.

23 MR. WISE: It isn't. It's a computer that's 24 available everywhere. Walmart sells them. They're out
25 there.

1 THE COURT: I'm sure they are.

2 MR. WISE: I don't think the State would
3 disagree with this. They didn't ask Mr. Edwards about
4 that computer to try to, you know, find out any other
5 information that might help them, I think, to reach the 6 level they need to reach.

7 THE COURT: Where's the serial number located
8 on it?

9 MR. SORENSON: It's on the -- your Honor, if I
10 could, just kind of a little background here. State's 5
11 and 6, your Honor, these photographs were taken --

12 (Documents are handed to the Judge.)

13 MR. SORENSON: -- from the -- the box was still 14 at the victim's residence.

15 THE COURT: The box was at the victim's
16 residence?

17 MR. SORENSON: Yes, sir. So those photographs
18 were taken on February 3rd while processing the 19 scene. And the serial number is that S/N, and it is 20 LXR4M020080321C, and there's some other numbers after 21 it.

22 THE COURT: 8321601.

23 MR. SORENSON: Yes, sir. That's the serial
24 number. And on the laptop --
25 May I approach, your Honor?

1 THE COURT: It's readily available, right on
2 the back?

3 MR. SORENSON: It's right on the back, right
4 there, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: And they had already processed the 6 scene of the murder and had obtained the serial number,
7 and here, lo and behold, is a red Acer computer with the 8 same serial number.

9 MR. SORENSON: Are you done, Mark? I'm sorry.

10 MR. WISE: That's correct, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: You don't think that would give you
12 reasonable suspicion to put two and two together?

13 MR. WISE: Well, the reason I say it doesn't is 14 because what the Court would have to do is make a
15 determination about the officer's knowledge before he 16 looked at those serial numbers. And I'd submit that his 17 knowledge before he looked at the serial numbers was 18 just, it was just a computer. It was the right color,
19 it was the right manufacturer, but that's all that there
20 was. And I'd submit to the Court that given it is just 21 a computer, that there is not the high probability that 22 the Courts need to find reasonable suspicion to find
23 that that was a computer taken at the homicide, that 24 there was any criminal activity connected with that
25 computer.

1 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Sorenson, what's
2 the State's position?

3 MR. SORENSON: Your Honor, I feel that it
4 rises, to the very least, to reasonable suspicion, at 5 the very least, if not more than that. I think it would
6 have been almost derelict of the officer, I mean, with 7 what he knew -- that said -- and he's here if we need to
8 take testimony. But I would proffer that his testimony
9 would be: He is the officer that -- that actually was 10 involved in entering the serial number off of that box
11 into NCIC. So he knew it was a red Acer laptop that was 12 stolen.

13 Thirteen days later -- and if I could, your 14 Honor, show you State's Exhibit No. 8. This is a tax
15 map, your Honor. And up here is Goff Avenue. It's 16 on 1389 Goff. That is the victim's residence. The 17 Defendant was found with that laptop at 1347 Campus
18 Drive. So we're talking maybe four, five blocks, at the 19 most, away. We're not talking about being clear on the 20 other side of Orangeburg.

21 So I think that plays into that also. I
22 mean, you're in the same general vicinity, the same
23 neighborhood. And I would agree with your Honor,
24 the comment your Honor made, that this is not the 25 run-of-the-mill gray laptop. We've got probably eight

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 laptops in our office, and every one of them is either
2 gray or black. This is the only red laptop I've come
3 across. So I think that would rise to the level of 4 reasonable suspicion. Like I said, I mean, I think it
5 would almost be derelict, I mean, of the officer's duty,
6 I mean, seeing that and then not doing anything about
7 it.

8 THE COURT: All right. You want to put the 9 officer up, or are you okay with everything?

10 MR. SORENSON: I mean, I'm good, I think, with 11 what we've proffered, because I don't think -- if 12 Mr. Wise needs to hear from him --

13 THE COURT: You need to hear the testimony?

14 MR. WISE: One moment, your Honor.

15 (Mr. Wise speaks with Ms. Hinds off the 16 record.)

17 MR. WISE: Your Honor, probably we should 18 just hear from him very briefly. My Cross will be very 19 brief.

20 THE COURT: All right. Bring him up.

21 (The witness approaches.)

22 THE COURT: Officer Harter, if you'd place your 23 left hand on the Bible and raise your right, please.

24 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

25 (The oath is administered by the Deputy Clerk

2 THE WITNESS: I do.

3 THE DEPUTY CLERK: You may have a seat. Please
4 state your name for the record.

5 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Say again, please.

6 THE COURT: Say your name for the -- state and

8 THE WITNESS: Ryan Harter.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Harter.

10 THE WITNESS: Harter is H-a-r-t-e-r.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 RYAN HARTER,

13 having been first duly sworn by the Deputy Clerk of the
14 Court to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing
15 but the truth, was examined and testified upon his oath
16 as follows:

17 DIRECT EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. SORENSON:

19 Q Deputy Harter, if you would, tell the Court
20 where it is that you are employed.

21 A I work with the Orangeburg County Sheriff's
22 Office.

23 Q And how long have you been with the Sheriff's 24 Office?

25 A Since 2007.

1 Q Okay. What are your current duties with the 2 Sheriff's Office?

3 A I'm assigned to the special operations unit at 4 the Sheriff's Office, which involves investigations of 5 various types.

6 Q And turning your attention back to February 3rd
7 of 2011, did you have occasion that afternoon to respond
8 to 1389 Goff Avenue here in Orangeburg County?

9 A I did.

10 Q And what -- were there other officers that were 11 on the scene?

12 A There were plenty.

13 Q A scene of a homicide?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q And what -- specifically, with regards
16 to a laptop, tell the Court what, that afternoon, your 17 -- your duties were with regards to -- to a laptop.

18 A Well, my duties at the scene were pretty basic,
19 initially. Once we had family members arrive, we were 20 able to determine that there was a laptop that was taken
21 during the homicide that took place. It was missing
22 from the home. Myself and my sergeant were able to 23 determine that from speaking with the people at the 24 scene. I found the laptop box in the home and confirmed
25 that that was the missing laptop, and we entered that

3 box?

4 A Yes, sir, it appears to be.

5 Q And State's Exhibit No. 6, is that then the 6 serial number information from that box?

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q And what type of computer was it that was 9 taken?

10 A It was an Acer Aspire, red laptop.

11 Q Okay. And you then entered this serial number
12 on February 3rd of 2011 into NCIC?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q Now, fast-forward, if I could, Deputy Harter,
15 to February 16th of 2011. Did you have occasion that 16 evening to be on -- to be at 1347 Campus Drive?

17 A I did.

18 Q What was the purpose of you being at that
19 residence of 1347 Campus Drive that evening?

20 A Myself and other members of the investigative 21 division or special operations were asked to assist 22 Probation, Pardon, and Parole with locating some of 23 their probationers that had violations and they had 24 warrants for, and that's why we were at that address.

25 Q Okay. And was this the only residence you went

1 to that night?

2 A No. It was probably the third or fourth
3 residence we went to that night.

4 Q And showing you State's Exhibit No. 8, is this
5 1347 Campus Drive, down here at the bottom of the map?

6 A It appears to be, yes, sir.

8 corner of the map?

9 A That's correct. That would be correct.

10 Q And tell the Court, when you went -- did you
11 have occasion then to go into that residence that night?

12 A I did.

13 Q What, if anything, did you see that kind of 14 caught your attention?

15 A As soon as I made entry into the home -- I
16 was not the first person into the home. I was probably 17 the -- maybe the third or fourth person into the home.
18 And I observed a gentleman sitting in the floor in the 19 middle room of the house, legs outstretched, straight in 20 front of him. He was sitting with a red Acer laptop.
21 It was on his lap. It was open, and he was currently 22 using it, pretty much as if we weren't even present in 23 the home.

24 Q Okay. And let me ask you: Are you familiar
25 with computers?

1 A I build them.

2 Q Okay.

3 THE COURT: You do what?

4 THE WITNESS: I build them.

5 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) And that laptop that you saw
6 sitting on this person's lap at 1347 Campus Drive, was 7 that consistent with or inconsistent with the laptop
8 that you had entered into NCIC 13 days prior?

9 A It was extremely consistent.

10 THE COURT: Why do you say "extremely"?

11 THE WITNESS: Red Acer -- as far as laptops,
12 Acer's not a big name brand. They came about a couple
13 of decades ago. They weren't very popular then.
14 They've since made a huge comeback, but most everybody
15 buys your mainstream brands, your IBMs, your Dells, your 16 HPs. So Acer is not a real popular brand. And the fact
17 that it is a red laptop really kind of sets it apart.
18 We knew it was a widescreen laptop, and so it met a lot
19 of criteria just from -- able to view it.

20 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) As a result of that, then,
21 Deputy Harter, did you have an opportunity then to check
22 the serial number on that laptop with the serial number
23 you had put in NCIC?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And what was the results of that?

1 A Dispatch came back that it was the laptop that
2 we had -- the serial number we had entered from Goff
3 Avenue.

4 MR. SORENSON: Okay. Beg the Court's
5 indulgence one second, your Honor.

6 (Mr. Sorenson speaks with Mr. Bell off the
7 record.)

8 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) How did you go about 9 checking that serial number? And if you could -- let 10 me, first of all, show you State's Exhibit No. 7. Could 11 you point out to the Court where that serial number is 12 located at on that laptop?

13 A Yeah. It's right here. This sticker right
14 here, where it says, SN. It's this middle number under 15 the bar code.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) And how did you go about 18 checking that? What do you do to do that?

19 A You basically flip the laptop over, and I
20 actually used the telephone -- I initially called it on 21 the radio. We had some problems with communications and 22 other channels bleeding over, so I ended up calling on 23 the telephone, and dispatch confirmed for me on the 24 telephone that it was the laptop.

25 Q And by looking back at this picture that was

1 taken back on the 3rd, is it the same serial number
2 that's on the box also?

3 A Yes, sir. To tell you -- I had a problem
4 entering the serial number that I'd never encountered in 5 my career before. Apparently, NCIC only allows so many 6 digits. And we had to abbreviate the last number off of 7 the serial number because it would not accept the 8 entirety of the numbers. So when I ran this laptop the 9 first time, it came back not the laptop we were looking
10 for. And because I remembered that anomaly, I asked
11 dispatch to enter it without the very last digit, and it
12 came back as an exact match.

13 Q And looking now at State's Exhibit No. 6, the 14 photograph from the 3rd, is that the -- the whole serial
15 number, the same that's on this laptop?

16 A Yes, sir, absolutely.

17 MR. SORENSON: All right.

1 Q All right. When you first looked at that

3 the manufacturer; is that correct?

4 A Initially, yes, sir.

5 Q Okay. Were there any markings, stickers,
6 anything about that computer that made it distinctive?

7 A Just the make, the color, and the width of the 8 screen.

9 Q Okay. Okay. So you believed it was the same
10 model because of the make and color?

11 A I believe it had a high probability of being 12 the computer we were seeking.

13 Q Okay. How did you come to take that --

16 A Okay. We were able to make entry into the home

18 there for the Defendant. I saw him with the computer.
19 Once he was taken into custody, I simply flipped the 20 laptop over.

21 Q So he was in custody at the time?

22 A He was being taken into custody. I can't tell

1 Q What I'm trying to find out is how you came
2 to pick up that computer. Where was he? How did that
3 happen?

4 A He was seated on the floor, and he was
5 approached by probationers and -- probation officers,
6 I'm sorry, and deputies; and once he was being handled
7 by law enforcement, I recognized the red Acer, and I
8 flipped it over and read the serial number.

9 Q So at that point, it's just sitting on the 10 floor, you picked it up, looked at the serial number,
11 and it matched?

12 A Correct.

13 Q Okay. All right. You said you have a lot of 14 knowledge about computers. What do you know about Acer
15 computers?

16 A Acer is a name brand. Like I said, they've 17 been around for a while. They were known initially to 18 start as not a very high quality brand. They've since 19 kind of revamped themselves, and they are a very 20 reputable brand now.

21 Q And you know -- you would agree with me you can
22 buy these computers at many places?

23 A Sure.

24 Q All right. And in order for you to look at 25 the serial numbers, you had to pick that computer up and

1 flip it over?

2 A Correct.

3 Q And at that point, you didn't have a warrant to 4 pick up that computer and flip it over?

5 A No, sir.

6 Q Did you ask Mr. Edwards anything about that

7 computer?

8 A No, sir, I did not.

9 Q Did you ask Mr. Edwards could you pick it up,

10 flip it over, and look at the serial numbers?

11 A I did not.

12 Q Okay. Did you have any prior knowledge that

13 that computer was going to be in that house?

14 A No, sir, I did not.

15 Q You had no tips about the computer?

16 A No, sir.

17 MR. WISE: All right. Your Honor, may I have

21 MR. WISE: Deputy, thank you.

25 THE COURT: All right. You may step down.

Reported By:

1 (The witness steps down from the witness
2 stand.)

3 THE COURT: All right. I'll take that under
4 advisement and let you know something before we leave
5 here today. And I would normally go ahead and rule,
6 because I think in the case that you gave me from South
7 Carolina, that's State versus Taylor, it talks about, an 8 additional factor to consider when determining whether 9 reasonable suspicion exists is the officer's experience
10 and intuition.

11 Well, by way of chance or whatever, it happened
12 to be the same officer that investigated the homicide,
13 that just happens to be with the probation officers
14 going in this man's house, who had simply violated his 15 probation for failing to report. And obviously he had 16 more than intuition; he had firsthand knowledge, because 17 he had just, 13 days earlier, had investigated the 18 homicide and had found that a red Acer was missing with 19 the serial number, and he simply -- all he had to do was 20 turn it over and look at it. I would go ahead and rule
21 that it's not suppressible, but my law clerk has found 22 some U.S. Supreme Court case dealing with a stereo that 23 I want to look at before I make a final ruling on it.
24 We'll look at that in a little bit.

25 All right. What else do we have by way of

1 suppression?

2 MR. WISE: Your Honor, I have one more motion
3 related to a suitcase --

4 THE COURT: All right, sir.

5 MR. WISE: -- that was searched. And I can
6 give you my background on that motion.

7 Your Honor, there came a point in the 8 investigation where --

9 THE COURT: Now, this is while they're -- the 10 probation officers and all are there in the house?

11 MR. WISE: No, your Honor.

12 MR. SORENSON: You want me to lay a background?

13 MR. WISE: Sure. Go ahead.

14 MR. SORENSON: If I can kind of give a little 15 bit of a background --

16 THE COURT: Sure.

17 MR. SORENSON: -- and that will tell you what 18 led to this suitcase. As you have heard, after -- after 19 the laptop was found, Mr. Edwards was taken into custody
20 for the probation violation warrant. He was transported
21 to the Criminal Investigative Division of the sheriff's 22 office. Kind of while that is going on, the sheriff's 23 office is getting in the process of getting a search
24 warrant then to search his apartment also.

25 THE COURT: Now, where was the computer found,

1 if not the apartment?

2 MR. SORENSON: The computer was found -- it was
3 a house, actually. I'm sorry. I'm saying apartment.
4 The house. The computer was found in the house.

5 THE COURT: And then when that was taken, they 6 took him back and ordered a search warrant for the 7 entire house?

8 MR. SORENSON: The entire house.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Makes sense.

10 MR. SORENSON: To look for weapons and any 11 other items of evidence.

12 THE COURT: I see.

13 MR. SORENSON: So that's kind of going on.
14 That search is being executed then while Mr. Edwards
15 is at the sheriff's office being interviewed. He
16 ultimately gives, after being Mirandized --

17 And, obviously, we can get into that in a few
18 minutes.

19 -- gives, initially, an oral statement
20 admitting to the homicide. And that statement is then
21 videotaped also. While that is going on -- and that 22 information is ultimately conveyed back to them getting
23 the search warrant, also, but they've gotten that search
24 warrant based on the computer being found, and,
25 basically, they're in the process of searching that

1 house. There's no items of evidentiary value that was
2 found inside that house.

3 After Mr. Edwards gives the videotaped
4 statement, he is brought back to his house, because he 5 tells them that the shoes that he was wearing are in --
6 I believe he said a closet. So he is actually brought 7 back to the house; they take him through. Needless to 8 say, they don't find the shoes that he's describing.
9 While that is going on, his roommate and her -- and his
10 roommate's girlfriend and, I believe, another individual
11 that may have lived with them at some point in time, had 12 left the residence, and then they have come back while 13 law enforcement is still searching the house, and they 14 had a suitcase with them. It's a pretty large, green
15 suitcase.

16 THE COURT: They bring a suitcase with them to
17 the house?

18 MR. SORENSON: To the house, indicating that 19 Mr. Edwards had left it at another apartment that 20 apparently they were all in the process of potentially 21 moving into. That suitcase has a luggage tag on it for 22 U.S. Airways that has his name as the passenger on the 23 luggage tag. At that point in time, that is turned over 24 to the sheriff's office at the house where they are 25 executing the search warrant. One of the crime scene

1 investigators initially opens it. The minute he opens
2 it, he sees a pair of shoes in it that are -- from the 3 description and all that --

4 THE COURT: That's what they were searching the 5 house for to start with?

6 MR. SORENSON: Well, they were searching for 7 either a weapon --

8 THE COURT: That among other things?

9 MR. SORENSON: -- or clothing or shoes. The 10 shoes were obviously one of the things, because there
11 are some -- Mr. Wise alluded to. -- several imprints --
12 bloody imprints inside the house that have a fairly 13 distinctive bottom sole pattern. So at that point in 14 time, he immediately zips it back up. They secure it.
15 They ultimately then get a search warrant for it, take 16 it back to the sheriff's office, and it is searched the 17 following day. As I indicated, there are shoes that are 18 found, there's a pair of jeans, a T-shirt that all have 19 blood or DNA consistent with the victim's on those items
20 that are taken from that suitcase.

21 Additionally, there's some paperwork of 22 Mr. Edwards inside the suitcase also from when he was 23 enrolled as a part-time student at South Carolina State.

24 So that's kind of the factual background that 25 led up to this.

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 THE COURT: All right. Sir, why should we
2 suppress that?

3 MR. WISE: Thank you, your Honor. Your Honor,
4 somewhat analogous to the computer issue is, I submit to
5 the Court, that it is at that point, the suitcase,
6 again, an innocent object. They have no reason at that
7 point to believe that there is anything in that
8 suitcase. They have secured a search warrant for a
9 home. Just the home. And the suitcase obviously is now
10 not in the home. It's coming from outside of the home.

11 THE COURT: Comes outside and brought into the 12 home.

13 MR. WISE: Well, it was opened before it was 14 brought into the home. It was opened outside.

15 THE COURT: On the porch or outside? Somewhere
16 outside?

17 MR. WISE: Somewhere outside. There was no
18 indication -- And the State is correct. Mr. Edwards did 19 make a statement about there being shoes, but he never 20 said, those shoes are in that -- in a suitcase, or in 21 that suitcase. So there is no indication that there was 22 anything hidden inside the suitcase.

23 Again, there are no questions asked of 24 Mr. Edwards in terms of getting consent. I submit to 25 the Court that there's no exigency. They've already

1 secured a warrant for the home. I submit to the Court
2 that they could have secured a warrant for the suitcase,
3 but I think that probably the -- and they obviously had
4 the opportunity, because obviously now Mr. Edwards is in
5 custody. He can't access the suitcase. So the question
6 is, again, about whether or not there was reasonable
7 suspicion to justify the search of the suitcase.
8 Because I submit to the Court that opening the suitcase
9 is a search, and they would need the reasonable
10 suspicion to search. And at that point, all they had 11 was -- related to that suitcase, a suitcase that they --
12 that somebody came and said belonged to Mr. Edwards.
13 And obviously they had his -- it had his airline -- his 14 name on the suitcase.

15 THE COURT: Or airline information indicating 16 it was his.

17 MR. WISE: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Sorenson.

19 MR. SORENSON: Thank you, your Honor. I think
20 my argument is it's probably multiple different ways
21 that I feel like this is admissible. The first would be 22 based under the probation statute that allows -- it's 23 24-21-430, that allows law enforcement to search a
24 probationer's person, vehicle, or any of the 25 probationer's possessions based on reasonable suspicion.

State versus Cleophas Edwards, 12/10/12
Volume I of IV

1 I mean, at this point in time, there is beyond
2 reasonable suspicion. I mean, he is now -- by the time
3 this happens, I mean, he has confessed to killing her,
4 has brought them back to his home to look for items --

5 THE COURT: Mr. Sorenson, what is that statute
6 again? Twenty-four what?

7 MR. SORENSON: It's 24-21-430.

8 MR. WISE: Your Honor, I have a copy, if the 9 Court would like.

10 THE COURT: Please.

11 MR. WISE: Approach the bench?

12 THE COURT: You may.

13 (Document is handed to the Judge.)

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 MR. SORENSON: That would be my first argument,
16 that -- that if you just take out of the fact that -- I
17 don't think law enforcement even necessarily had to get
18 a search warrant, period, because I think at that point
19 in time they had reasonable suspicion to be searching
20 his property, to be searching any vehicle he may have 21 owned, or even his person. Obviously, out of the 22 abundance of caution, they got a search warrant for his 23 residence. So that would be my first argument, that 24 there is reasonable suspicion, and that statute allows
25 for law enforcement to search his possessions.

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 Even if you go farther -- they did. They took
2 it a step farther. You know, they had a search warrant
3 based on probable cause, being that laptop, basically,
4 they had found, to get a search warrant to search his
5 residence. If that suitcase was in that residence, I
6 mean, obviously, it would be covered by that search
7 warrant, because it's a place where, you know, a knife,
8 clothing, and all that stuff could be found. In this
9 case, though, we have something I would submit basically
10 had been abandoned somewhere else.

11 Law enforcement didn't go find the suitcase
12 and bring it back to the Defendant's residence. It
13 was a third party that brought it to the Defendant's
14 residence. So I think it almost, at that point in time,
15 would fall under the scope of that -- of that search
16 warrant.

17 THE COURT: Sure.

18 MR. SORENSON: But out of an abundance of 19 caution, yet again, they ultimately got a search warrant
20 to search that suitcase the following day. So, really,
21 the only issue, then, that Mr. Wise might have is the 22 fact that it was opened prior to that. So I submit to 23 you that is one of his possessions. They had the right,
24 under the probation statute, to open that.

25 THE COURT: So all that coupled together gives

1 them the right to do it?

2 MR. SORENSON: I think you put all that
3 together, I mean, there's no doubt they had the right to
4 search that suitcase. Probably didn't have to take all
5 the steps they took before they did it, even.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. Anything in response?

7 MR. WISE: Very briefly, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Why would the probation statute not 9 give them the right to? It says that they can -- any of 10 the probationer's possessions. And if it's -- even if 11 he hadn't abandoned it, they were bringing it back to 12 him. He owns it. I mean, why can't they look at it?

13 MR. WISE: I think even under the statute,
14 law enforcement needs or probation needs reasonable
15 suspicion.

16 THE COURT: Well, they found a computer in 17 his place. He's given a statement. Why is that not 18 reasonable suspicion? He's says: Come on back. I'll 19 try to show you where my shoes are. Why is that not 20 reasonable suspicion?

21 MR. WISE: Your Honor, I think that the law
22 related to reasonable suspicion is somewhat comparable
23 to the law related to probable cause, which means they 24 have to have reasonable suspicion that evidence of a
25 crime is going to be found in a specific place.

1 THE COURT: In that suitcase.

2 MR. WISE: In that suitcase. So I would submit
3 to the Court that at the time they opened it, they
4 didn't have that reasonable suspicion. The analogy I
5 would draw is, at this point in the investigation, could 6 they have gone anyplace where he might have been or 7 might have had things inside -- opening suitcases,
8 opening cars, and looking in drawers, I'd submit they 9 couldn't. He still has those same constitutional
10 protections, federal and state.

11 THE COURT: Yeah, but he left the suitcase at 12 another place, and the people where he left it brought 13 it back over there while they were searching the 14 apartment. And I think that's not quite the same
15 analogy that you're raising about they could go
16 anywhere.

17 MR. WISE: Well, I think the connection
18 is this: Where the suitcase came from would have
19 been -- he hadn't abandoned the suitcase, because, as I
20 think is indicated, it was a place that anybody was 21 going to be living at. So it would be, in effect --

22 THE COURT: But why did the people bring it
23 back over?

24 MR. WISE: Because I assume they didn't want to 25 have anything to do with Mr. Edwards or that suitcase,

1 so they're --

2 THE COURT: Absolutely. All right. Anything
3 else on that issue?

4 MR. WISE: Yeah. Just one moment, your Honor.
5 The only other thing, your Honor, is that there was
6 mention of the search warrant, but I submit to the Court
7 that the search warrant was limited. I mean, if they 8 had -- if the suitcase had been in the house when the 9 search warrant was issued, I wouldn't be standing here.
10 If they said for all of his possessions, or where he is 11 now, or where he may be living, I wouldn't be here. But 12 I think the search warrant just said for the house. And 13 the suitcase was not in the house. It was at another
14 place, brought to where they were.

15 THE COURT: All right. I'll rule on it before
16 I leave. Let's do the Jackson v. Denno, or whatever
17 else we have left. My law clerk will find me these two 18 cases we are looking for.

19 Mr. Sorenson, you want to do the Jackson v.
20 Denno?

21 MR. SORENSON: Yes, sir. It's actually --
22 Mr. Bell is going to be handling that. And I don't know
23 if we just need to -- on these last couple of issues,
24 your Honor, I've got the form -- I've got the form where 25 Mr. Edwards was actually advised of that statute. And I

1 don't know if you want to make this as a Court's
2 exhibit.

3 THE COURT: That's on the probation violation?

4 MR. SORENSON: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: That's the typical form they 6 always --

7 MR. SORENSON: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: How about let's mark that and make 9 it a part of our --

10 MR. SORENSON: Mark this as a Court's exhibit?

11 THE COURT: Yes, sir, that will be fine.

12 (Probation, Pardon, & Parole Services Form 1407
13 is marked and admitted as Court's Exhibit No. 1.)

14 (Court's Exhibit No. 1 is handed to the Judge.)

15 THE COURT: Anything else? By the Defendant?
16 You had one other motion dealing with --

17 MR. WISE: Yes, your Honor. That there was one
18 in the nature of a Motion in Limine regarding testimony
19 at the trial related to the fact that the Defendant was 20 on probation for burglary at the time. Obviously,
21 probation officers responded to his house. Probation
22 officers took him into custody.

23 At the trial, though, I would like to ask the 24 Court to limit that testimony, something along the lines
25 of, law enforcement officers responded to the house

1 unrelated to the homicide. Obviously, saw Mr. Edwards
2 in possession of the computer, and, you know, checked
3 the serial number, took him into custody --

4 THE COURT: Just don't say that he was on
5 probation -- specifically what he was on probation for.
6 We can say that he was on probation, and they responded
7 for something not related to the homicide.

8 MR. WISE: Okay.

9 THE COURT: As a result of that visit, the 10 computer, et cetera, et cetera.

11 MR. WISE: What I would like the Court to 12 limit -- to limit to the testimony to is to preclude
13 that he was on probation and that he -- and -- because I
14 think, obviously, if the Court --

15 THE COURT: Well, were they there in the first
16 place if he wasn't on probation?

17 MR. WISE: Well, your Honor, that's absolutely
18 true, but I think that there's no probative value in the 19 fact that probation officers were responding there.
20 But, I think, obviously, it's very prejudicial to hear
21 they went to his house, and he was on probation. It
22 doesn't move the case along, I don't think.

23 THE COURT: Well, how would you suggest it
24 being done? They just happen to go to his house?

25 MR. WISE: No. They can testify they went to

1 his house on --

2 THE COURT: Official business?

3 MR. WISE: -- a police matter unrelated to the 4 homicide, and when they entered the house, they saw
5 Mr. Edwards sitting on the ground, laptop in his lap.

6 THE COURT: What do you say, Mr. Sorenson?

7 MR. SORENSON: Your Honor, I was concerned --
8 and I agree. Obviously, I don't think we're allowed to 9 get into what he was on probation for. But my only, I
10 guess, problem with limiting it to that is, you know,
11 two of the witnesses we have that deal with the 12 statement are probation agents. And I think there's got 13 to be some explanation as to why they're involved in the 14 questioning of -- of this Defendant. I mean --

15 THE COURT: Well, here's what I'm going to say.
16 In opening statements tomorrow, don't go into the fact
17 that he was on probation and why they were there, for 18 violation of probation. You can talk about being on 19 official business. When we get into the trial of the 20 case, if it becomes necessary that that's relevant and 21 it's instrumental in some of the other matters that tie
22 it all together, let's do a proffer to see how we can
23 deal with it before I rule on what I will allow and not 24 allow to the jury.

25 MR. SORENSON: Okay.

1 THE COURT: Bearing in mind that we don't
2 want to go into the fact he had a prior record, unless
3 he testifies, and that he violated his probation.
4 We'll just see how close we can get to that without
5 prejudicing the Defendant for prior activity that was 6 involved that had nothing to do with this case.

7 MR. SORENSON: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Just do it by proffer and don't
9 mention it in opening statement.

10 MR. BELL: We can probably bring it out,
11 actually -- probably come out in the Jackson v. Denno
12 hearing. I mean, I can bring that out too as why they 13 were there and all that, I mean, instead of --

14 THE COURT: You can, but we're not going to do
15 a Jackson v. Denno in front of the jury, so. . .

16 I'm just saying, I don't want to blurt it out
17 to the jury that this guy is on probation for burglary,
18 and he's violated his probation, and he hadn't been 19 reporting, and that's why we're over there. If you feel
20 like that's all that's -- whatever's necessary, let's do
21 a proffer at the time we're getting ready to do it
22 before the jury. Y'all know how to do that. Y'all have 23 been doing it a long time.

24 MR. BELL: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: All right. Call your first witness

1 on the Jackson v. Denno.
2 MR. BELL: We'll call Investigator
3 John Thrower.
4 THE COURT: Mr. Thrower.
5 MR. WISE: If there will be more than one
6 witness, can we have the witnesses sequestered?
7 THE COURT: How many witnesses are you going to 8 have?
9 T-H -- how do you spell your name?
10 THE WITNESS: T-h-r-o-w-e-r.
11 THE COURT: Who else we got besides
12 Mr. Thrower?
13 MR. BELL: We'll probably have Ms. Boltin, from 14 the Department of Probation and Parole, and Investigator
15 Kittrell, who's our lead investigator.
16 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Boltin, if you'll 17 just step outside for a few minutes. I'll let the lead
18 investigator stay in here.
19 Thank you, ma'am.
20 Left hand on the Bible and raise your right,
21 please.

23 of Court, and the witness answers as follows:)
24 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am, I do.

7 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bell.

8 JOHNNY THROWER,

9 having been first duly sworn by the Deputy Clerk of the
10 Court to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing
11 but the truth, was examined and testified upon his oath
12 as follows:

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. BELL:

15 Q Investigator Thrower, how long have you been 16 with Orangeburg County Sheriff's Office?

17 A Since February 28th, 2011.

18 THE COURT: Speak up for me, please. 2/28
19 when?

20 THE WITNESS: 2011.

21 Q (By Mr. Bell) And before you were with the 22 Orangeburg County Sheriff's Office, where were you
23 employed?

24 A At the South Carolina Department of Probation,
25 Pardon, and Parole Service, Orangeburg County.

1 Q And how long were you with Pardon and Parole
2 Service?
3 A Started July the 16th, 2007.
4 Q Okay. So about four years, not quite four 5 years?
6 A That's correct.
7 Q Now, Investigator Thrower, I want to put
8 your attention back to February 16th of 2011. Do you
9 remember that day?
10 A Yes, sir.
11 Q And on February 16th, 2011, you were still with 12 Department of Probation; is that correct?
13 A That's correct.
14 Q Okay. And do you know the Defendant in this 15 case, Mr. Cleophas Edwards?
16 A Yes, sir. He was one of the Defendants that I
17 supervised.
18 Q Okay. And back on February 16th, 2011, did you
19 have an occasion to do something in regards to 20 Mr. Edwards?
21 A Yes, sir, that's correct.
22 Q What was that?
23 A We were serving a probation warrant at his
24 residence.
25 Q Where was his residence?

1 A It was a Campus Street address.

2 Q Okay. And do you recall who all went to serve
3 that warrant? You went to serve it accompanied by whom?

4 A Myself; Investigator Kittrell, of the Probation
5 Office -- I'm sorry, Agent Kittrell; Agent Lacorn
6 (phonetic) Young; our supervisor, Lisa Boltin; Sergeant
7 Furtick, of the Orangeburg County Sheriff's Office;
8 Officer Harter, of the Orangeburg County Sheriff's 9 Office; and Officer Cain (phonetic), of the Orangeburg
10 County Sheriff's Office.

11 Q Okay. And about what time was this that y'all
12 went to his residence, Mr. Edwards' residence?

13 A Somewhere around maybe seven o'clock.

14 Q Okay. In the morning or evening?

15 A In the evening. I'm sorry.

16 Q In the evening?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q When y'all went there and went to serve a
19 warrant, what happened? Describe what you did.

20 A Basically -- and I have my statement that I did
21 back then. Is it okay if I refer to it?

22 Q You may.

23 THE COURT: You may.

24 THE WITNESS: Okay.

1 THE WITNESS: When we arrived at that
2 residence, myself, Agent Kittrell, Agent Young, we
3 went to the rear of the residence. Supervisor Boltin,
4 Sergeant Furtick, Officer Harter, and Officer Cain
5 was at the front of the residence. I knocked at the 6 door. A gentleman came to the door. I asked if 7 Cleophas Edwards was there. He, indeed, said he was 8 in the house. We made entry into the residence, and 9 Mr. Edwards was sitting in the living room, and he had a
10 marijuana lit up and was actually smoking marijuana when 11 we went on inside of the residence.

12 Q (By Mr. Bell) And he also had another item
13 with him?

14 A Yes, sir. A computer.

15 Q And one of the officers recognized that or 16 thought they recognized that; is that correct?

17 A Yes, sir. At the time, there were actually two 18 computers there, and he recognized the red computer that 19 was there.

20 Q Okay. And at some point, Mr. Edwards was taken
21 into custody on y'all's warrant; is that correct?

22 A Absolutely.

23 Q And where was he taken as a result of that?

24 A He was taken to the Criminal Investigative

8 Did -- was he asked to give a written statement or 9 anything like that?

10 A Lieutenant Shumpert asked him to give a written
11 statement. He said he was too upset; he couldn't write.
12 And then we decided that we would record it because he 13 didn't want to give a written statement.

14 Q And how did y'all record it?

15 A There's actually -- the room that we're in,
16 there's a key that you can turn on to actually record.

17 Q Was it audio, video, or both?

18 A Audio and video.

19 Q Okay. Have you seen somewhat [sic] of that

21 A Yes, sir, I have.

22 Q And the copy or whatever that you saw, does
23 that accurately reflect what went on that day?

24 A Absolutely.

1 A I don't recall.
2 Q Okay. All right. Did you ask him if he had
3 been drinking?
4 A I don't recall.
5 Q Okay. All right. Did he smell of alcohol? Do
6 you recall that?
7 A I don't recall that either.
8 Q Okay. Okay. All right. When you -- at the 9 time you removed him from that house, when he went out
10 the door, he was a suspect in the homicide that happened

2 or not.

3 Q Okay. Very good. What he did was, he read the 4 whole form and said, Do you understand all that? And 5 then had him sign it; right?

6 A I won't say that he read the whole form.
7 There are two sections. The first section is the 8 Miranda Rights, and the bottom is a Waiver of Rights,
9 which, you know, you can sign without your lawyer being
10 present, saying that you do not wish to have an attorney

7 BY MR. BELL:

8 Q Ms. Boltin, where are you employed?

9 A South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole,
10 and Pardon Services.

11 Q And how long have you been with the probation
12 department?

13 A About 19 years.

14 Q And what are your current duties?

15 A I'm the supervisor of the agent staff.

16 Q Okay. And you were employed with the 17 Department of Probation back on February 16th, 2011?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And do you recall having occasion to go to a
20 Campus Drive address that evening?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q And why did you go there?

23 A We went to execute a warrant on a
24 Cleophas Edwards, and that was the residence that we had 25 on record.

5 A Yes, sir.
6 Q And with members of the Orangeburg Sheriff's
7 Department?
8 A That's correct.
9 Q And the only -- the sole reason you were going
10 there was to execute a warrant; is that correct?
11 A That's correct.
12 Q Okay. You had no idea of Mr. Edwards being 13 involved in anything else?
14 A Correct.
15 Q Nobody with that group did?
16 A No, sir.
17 Q And y'all went into the house; found
18 Mr. Edwards sitting on the floor, I think?
19 A Yes, sir.
20 Q Had a laptop?
21 A Yes, sir.
22 Q And that laptop raised some suspicions about a
23 prior murder; is that correct?
24 A It did.
25 Q And he was taken into custody at that point?

State versus Cleophas Edwards, 12/10/12
Volume I of IV
Direct Examination by Mr. Bell of Lisa Boltin

1 A He was.

2 Q And taken to the sheriff's department, the CID,
3 I believe; is that correct?

4 A Yes. We went one place prior to there, at the 5 request of Lieutenant Shumpert, to show where he had
6 gone to -- supposedly he had bought the laptop, and then
7 we went straight on to CID.

8 Q You weren't transporting Mr. Edwards?

9 A I was not. I wasn't in the vehicle with him.

10 Q But you went to this other address before you
11 went to CID; is that correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q Okay. And then you went over to the Orangeburg
14 County CID, Criminal Investigation Department; is that 15 correct?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q And Mr. Edwards was there?

18 A He was.

19 Q Lieutenant Shumpert?

20 A That's correct.

2 pretty much with Mr. Edwards for the remainder of the 3 evening --

4 A I was.

5 Q -- until they took him off?

6 A I was.

7 Q And with Lieutenant Shumpert?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And I think Investigator Thrower was there for 10 some, and he went out for some, and came back; is that 11 right?

12 A I actually sent him to take another agent back
13 to the office. Other than that, I think he was there
14 the whole time.

15 Q Were you there when they read Mr. Edwards his 16 Miranda Rights?

17 A I was -- I don't know when they read it the 18 first time. I was there when he was read and reminded 19 of the Miranda Rights twice. Once when we first got 20 there, Lieutenant Shumpert reminded him of them.
21 He -- he stated, you know, we've already gone over your
22 Rights. I just want to remind you of those Rights

1 Q Okay. But for the rest of the evening, when
2 you were with Mr. Edwards, what was his demeanor?

3 A He was not real cooperative, as far as
4 answering the questions, until a certain point during 5 the night when he basically, I think, had just -- was 6 overcome with what he had done and decided he would
7 talk. He wanted specifically to speak with his agent,
8 which is Agent Thrower at that time.

9 Q And when they first started talking with him,
10 he told y'all some story about getting a laptop; is that 11 correct?

12 A From Izzie, yes, sir.

13 Q And at some point, they brought Izzie there; is 14 that correct?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q And there was kind of confrontation?

17 A There was.

18 Q And that kind of broke that story; is that 19 correct?

20 A That's correct.

4 that correct?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q Okay. And then he asked for -- to talk to 7 Lieutenant Thrower at some point; is that correct?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And Lieutenant Thrower went into the room by

10 himself with Mr. Edwards?

11 A He -- when he came back, I had been in there

12 alone with him for a few minutes, and we just talked

13 about how important it was for him to tell the truth

14 about what had happened. He looked at me, and he

15 said, I'm ready to talk, but I just want to talk to

18 was probably in there maybe three -- three minutes or 20 ready to talk.

21 Q And when you were in there with him by

5 A No, sir.

6 Q And after Thrower came in, they decided -- it

7 was decided to do a video -- to tape it? Video -- a

8 videotape?

9 A When he -- he recanted -- he -- he recalled the

10 events, told the events, Lieutenant Shumpert asked if he

11 would write them. And he said that he was just too

12 emotional, and he requested that the recording be made.

19 custody in our caged car, and I believe it was 20 Agent Thrower and Young who were in that car.
21 Lieutenant Shumpert had asked. He said he bought the

5 A I was in a separate vehicle.

6 Q So you have no idea what happened during his

8 A That's correct.

9 Q Okay. The next time you saw him at CID, what 10 room was he in?

11 A The interview room.

5 to him, I was going to advise him of his Rights, and I
6 would advise him of his Rights once I go back to my
7 office.

8 Q Okay. And let me get this straight. You were 9 aware that he had given statements, a video statement or 10 whatever, the night before; is that correct?

11 A Correct.

12 Q Okay. And the individual that you picked up
13 and took to your office on February 17th, do you see him
14 in the courtroom today?

15 A Yes, sir. Sitting in the blue shirt.

16 MR. BELL: Okay. Your Honor, I ask that the 17 record reflect that the witness has identified the 18 Defendant.

19 Q (By Mr. Bell) So you took him over to your CID
20 office; is that correct?

21 A Correct.

22 Q And where did you take him within the office?

23 A It was in the interview room that was 24 previously shown on the video.

25 Q Was anybody with you?

- 1 A Just me and Mr. Edwards.
- 2 Q Okay. And when you went into the room, what
- 3 did you do?
- 4 A Again, introduced him -- introduced him -- I
- 5 introduced myself to him and advised him of his Rights.
- 6 Q And those are the Miranda Rights?
- 7 A Correct.
- 8 Q And how did you do that?
- 9 A I pulled out the form, I read the Rights off to
- 10 him, one through five. After I read them off to him, I
- 11 let him initial each one and told him if he had any
- 12 questions, he can ask questions before we initial them.

24 MR. WISE: Thank you, your Honor. Your 25 Honor, we're going to ask the Court to suppress all the

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 statements in this case.

2 THE COURT: Why is that?

3 MR. WISE: We want to start with this. Number
4 one, the testimony at this point is clear that at the 5 time Mr. Edwards was taken into custody, he was smoking
6 marijuana. There is no -- and possibly drinking
7 alcohol. There were -- I asked about whether or not 8 there were bottles around. If he couldn't remember if
9 there were or weren't. So I would submit to the Court
10 that that raises an issue about the level of his 11 coherency at the time.

12 THE COURT: There's no testimony that he was 13 not coherent. In fact, the agent said that he was able 14 to understand his questions. He even talked to him
15 about another place he had gotten the computer. And 16 there's no evidence that he was drinking. So at this
17 stage of the game, I'll have to sort of let the jury
18 determine what weight to give that, if any.

19 MR. WISE: Additionally, your Honor -- and this
20 goes to the actual Waiver of Rights. Both witnesses
21 seem to have taken the same approach but a little
22 different. Initially, for the first set of Rights,
23 there was no individual reading of each Right.

24 THE COURT: Any law that requires that, other
25 than the simple reading of the Rights?

1 MR. WISE: No, your Honor, but I do think the
2 law requires that there be a knowing waiver of the 3 Rights. And if you don't ask a person: Do you
4 understand -- as I read each Right: Do you understand
5 these Rights? then I don't know that there's any
6 evidence that there was a knowing waiver of that Right.
7 And I'd submit to the Court that that burden is on the 8 State. So when the State runs down five Rights and 9 says: Do you understand all that and has him sign it,
10 that that's not a knowing waiver. And I would submit 11 it's the same thing as to the waiver at the bottom of 12 the form. Because I think both witnesses have testified
13 they read the waiver, and he just signs it.

14 As to the initial reading of Rights, I think
15 the testimony was that the Rights were actually read to 16 Mr. Edwards, and not that he read them himself. They 17 were read to Mr. Edwards, and there was -- and there's 18 no indication that he understood them. They were just 19 read to him, he signed them, he initialed, and that was 20 it.

21 So I'd submit to the Court that there has to be 22 that knowing waiver. And given how the Rights were 23 presented to him, there wasn't. They just never took 24 the extra effort to say: You have the right to an
25 attorney. Do you understand that? Do you know what

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 that means? and then move on as to each Right.

2 THE COURT: Do you have any case law to support
3 your position on that?

4 MR. WISE: No, your Honor, because I don't
5 think the case -- the cases have gone to whether or not
6 you have to have a -- a knowing waiver of each Right,
7 but the cases, I think, do indicate that there has to be
8 a knowing waiver of your Rights. And I submit to the 9 Court that the evidence fails there.

10 THE COURT: How about see what that guys wants.
11 I don't want him hanging around there.

12 Anything by the State?

13 MR. BELL: Your Honor, I would just argue that 14 Investigator Thrower testified he was present. He 15 understood what was going on. His signature's at the 16 bottom -- at the bottom of both these waivers. The 17 first -- and the first part says: I understand my 18 Rights. It's just -- I guess it's a matter of personal 19 preference how they read it to them.

20 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21 MR. BELL: And then they reiterate it. You had 22 the chance to see the video to see his demeanor and how 23 he was acting. He certainly wasn't acting intoxicated.
24 And Lieutenant Shumpert reiterated -- had his Rights
25 there, showed it to him again, and he didn't say that he

1 didn't understand what was going on. I think that they
2 were read to him, and he gave a knowing and voluntary
3 waiver, and an understanding waiver of his Miranda
4 Rights on all the occasions.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 Well, as y'all know, my function, under
7 Jackson v. Denno, is to act as a gatekeeper and 8 determine whether or not the Miranda Rights were 9 given, and I find that they were. The second is to 10 determine whether or not the statement was voluntarily
11 by the preponderance or greater weight of the evidence,
12 which I find that it is. So I will simply allow the 13 statements into evidence and for the jury to make the 14 ultimate determination whether or not they were given
15 voluntarily, and the Miranda Rights given beyond a 16 reasonable doubt. So I will allow the State to 17 present it.

18 As to the suppression of the suitcase evidence
19 and the computer evidence, I will respectfully deny your 20 Motion to Suppress, based on the probation statute, the 21 waiver obviously signed by your client in exhibit --

22 MR. SORENSON: Court's 1.

23 THE COURT: -- Court's 1, and my earlier
24 reasoning about the reasonable suspicion. So I will 25 respectfully deny your motion on that.

9 OPENING STATEMENTS

10 BY MR. BELL:

11 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, easy money.
12 That's what the Defendant, Cleophas Edwards, was looking
13 for on the morning of February 3rd, 2011. He went out
14 walking from his house on Campus Drive; he ended up over 15 on Goff Avenue. He saw a vehicle leave a house and 16 figured the coast was clear, nobody's home, I can slip
17 in and get something I can sell so I can get some money.
18 He needed some money. He went into the house.

19 And that's when things tragically went wrong
20 that morning. Because when he went in the house, he was 21 confronted by Carolyn Hanton who lived at the house.
22 She kept children there. He went in the house, and she 23 confronted him. What are you doing here? She screamed.
24 And she went after him. And he pulled out a knife that 25 he kept with him and started stabbing. And she died as

1 a result of there, after over 40 stab wounds. And
2 that's why we're here, ladies and gentlemen.

3 The Defendant in this case is charged with 4 murder, burglary in the first degree, and possession of 5 a weapon during the commission of a violent crime. Now,
6 when he went in there and after he had stabbed her and
7 killed her, took a couple of items with him as he left
8 that house. He took a red Acer laptop computer. He 9 took a vase, and he took other items: Some cards and 10 some money, I believe. And he left the house. I think 11 he ended up back home that morning.

12 Mrs. Hanton's husband came there and found her,
13 and called the police that morning, called the sheriff's 14 department. They arrived, and they started their 15 investigation. And the investigation went on for almost 16 two weeks, about 13 days. They checked out leads; they 17 kept running into dead ends. Until on February 16th,
18 the evening of February 16th, 2011, police officers went
19 to -- went to Campus Drive on business, and they found
20 the Defendant living there. And when they went in, they 21 found him on a computer, a laptop computer, a red Acer
22 laptop computer. And they had the serial number of the 23 computer that was taken from the Hantons' home because 24 the box was still at the Hantons' home. And they
25 checked this laptop computer, and it was the same laptop

2 So he took the Defendant into custody and
3 started talking to him. Gave him his Rights, started
4 talking to him. At first, he denied it. He said he
5 bought it from some fellow, but the police were able to
6 disprove that. And then finally he told the police,
7 Yeah, I killed her. He told them three times what
8 happened: That he was out looking for money, and he
9 just happened upon this house. And he thought, Car
10 left; I can get in there. And that he killed
11 Carolyn Hanton. And, again, ladies and gentlemen,

17 Judge Early, say, we have the burden of proving the
18 Defendant guilty of all three charges that have brought

20 The law is clear on this. As he sits, he sits there
21 innocent until we, the State, prove him guilty beyond
22 all reasonable doubt. And that's our burden.

23 Now, how do we do that, ladies and gentlemen?
24 Well, first of all, we have to prove each element of

1 computer.

2 So he took the Defendant into custody and
3 started talking to him. Gave him his Rights, started
4 talking to him. At first, he denied it. He said he
5 bought it from some fellow, but the police were able to
6 disprove that. And then finally he told the police,
7 Yeah, I killed her. He told them three times what
8 happened: That he was out looking for money, and he
9 just happened upon this house. And he thought, Car
10 left; I can get in there. And that he killed
11 Carolyn Hanton. And, again, ladies and gentlemen,
12 that's why we're here this morning.

13 My name is Harrison Bell, along with 14 Don Sorenson, we represent the State of South Carolina.
15 We work for the First Circuit Solicitor's Office. We're
16 the prosecutors in this case. As you heard his Honor,
17 Judge Early, say, we have the burden of proving the
18 Defendant guilty of all three charges that have brought
19 him into court today, and we accept that responsibility.
20 The law is clear on this. As he sits, he sits there
21 innocent until we, the State, prove him guilty beyond
22 all reasonable doubt. And that's our burden.

23 Now, how do we do that, ladies and gentlemen?
24 Well, first of all, we have to prove each element of 25 each crime that he's charged with. For instance, the

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 crime of murder. The crime of murder in South Carolina
2 means that it's the unlawful killing of a person with
3 malice aforethought, either expressed or implied. The 4 unlawful killing of a person with malice aforethought,
5 either expressed or implied.

6 Malice means ill will or hatred or reckless
7 disregard for human life. That's the simple definition
8 of malice. His Honor, Judge Early, will explain it more
9 fully to you at the end of this trial. The use of the 10 deadly weapon can be malice, can be implied malice. And 11 malice must exist at some point before the killing.
12 That's aforethought. But it can exist at any time
13 before the killing. It could exist a week before, up to 14 a second before. That's what malice aforethought is.

15 Expressed or implied. Expressed malice; it
16 simply means somebody says, I'm going to kill you, or 17 lay -- or plans to kill or lays in wait. Implied means
18 the actions. You can -- you can imply malice through 19 the actions of the person, as I said earlier, such as 20 the use of a deadly weapon.

21 Burglary in the first degree in this state
22 means that a person enters a dwelling without consent
23 with the intent to commit a crime therein and has some 24 aggravating factors. And in this case we allege, one,
25 that he was armed with a deadly weapon when he entered

1 the dwelling and remained in the dwelling or exited the
2 dwelling, is what the law says.

3 We also allege, and it's an "or," or that he
4 caused physical injury, which killing a person is
5 certainly injuring a person.

6 And, finally, he's charged with possession
7 of a deadly weapon or possession of a weapon during
8 commission of a violent crime. And I would say to you
9 that the law in South Carolina says that both murder and 10 burglary in the first degree are violent crimes. So if 11 you find him guilty of murder and/or burglary, you can 12 find him -- that he had a weapon, a knife, during the 13 commission of a violent crime.

14 Now, how do we do this, ladies and gentlemen?
15 You heard a little bit. We present evidence; we present
16 witnesses on the stand; we present exhibits, if we have 17 any, to prove our case. And that's what we do.

18 And that's what you're here to determine the 19 facts of the case from these witnesses and from these 20 exhibits. And how do you do that? Well, you've already 21 kind of been told because you're the judges of the 22 facts. You have to listen to the witnesses up here.
23 You have to judge their credibility or believability.
24 And how do you do that? Well, Judge Early said, number
25 one, you haven't left your common sense at the door

1 here. You can still do that. And I suggest you do it
2 as you do every day in life. That is, you know, when
3 you talk to friends, when you talk to family, even when 4 you talk to strangers, by listening to them and looking
5 at them and seeing their body language, you can
6 generally have a good idea if somebody is telling you
7 the truth or they're -- they're handing you a line. And 8 you can do that in this courtroom as well. And that's 9 what I suggest to do.

10 Now, ladies and gentlemen, as I said, the State
11 has the burden of proving the case. All I can ask of 12 you is to listen carefully to all the witnesses.
13 Observe carefully all the exhibits that may or may not 14 be presented. And at the end of this trial, you will be 15 asked to render a verdict. Your verdict comes from the 16 facts that you, find and the law that you charge. You
17 combine them to render your verdict.

18 I believe, ladies and gentlemen, at the end of 19 this case, after you have seen all the witnesses, seen
20 all the exhibits, listened to the charge, you will find
21 the Defendant, Cleophas Edwards, guilty of murder,
22 guilty of burglary in the first degree, and guilty of 23 possessing a weapon during the commission of a violent
24 crime. Thank you.

25 Thank you, your Honor.

OPENING STATEMENTS

BY MS. HINDS:

Good morning. That's my client. I'm Peggy Hinds. And we represent Mr. Edwards, who is sitting at that table. I'm going to keep this brief, but I'm going to do some repetition, unfortunately, because the principles are that important they need to be restated.

As he sits there at that table, Mr. Edwards is an innocent man. That's not just an oratory. That's not me just saying he sits there right now an innocent man. It's not conjecture. It's a truth. It's an absolute truth.

You might ask why would I say that? We're in a courtroom; you know that he's been charged with three separate crimes; and we started a trial. Why would I say he's an innocent man? Because it's the truth.

We have a fundamental principle in this country that says that anybody who's accused of a crime is presumed innocent. That's a fundamental principle. And that principle protects you and me and every citizen in this country. It puts the burden on the State for them to have to not only accuse somebody of something, but to actually put forth the necessary things to convince you beyond a reasonable doubt that they are talking about.

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

State versus Cleophas Edwards, 12/11/12
Volume II of IV -- Jury Trial

1 It is up to the state of South Carolina. They have the
2 burden. That's because of that presumption of
3 innocence. He has to convince each and every one of you
4 that there are -- that there are not doubts that you
5 have. That you are firmly convinced of his guilt. We 6 contend that they're not going to be able to do that.

7 I'd like to just bring up a little story that
8 you probably know from your childhood. But I'd like you
9 to keep that in mind as you listen to the testimony and 10 evidence that you're going to hear this morning. It's a
11 the story about the six blind men and the elephant.

12 Basically, there's six blind men in the village.
13 They're told that there's an elephant in the village.
14 None of them have, obviously, ever seen an elephant.
15 But they're curious. They want to go and at least try
16 to experience what an elephant is like. And so they go
17 to the elephant. And each one of those men decides 18 to -- to see what that elephant is like.

19 The first man walks up to the elephant, he 20 touches the leg, and he says, Oh, okay, the elephant is 21 like a pillar.

22 Second man walks up to the elephant. He 23 touches the tail, and he says, No, you're wrong. It's 24 like a rope. The elephant's like a rope.

25 Third man walks up, and he touches the trunk.

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR
Official Court Reporter for the State of South Carolina

1 And he says, Both of you got it wrong. It's like a tree
2 branch. That's what it's like.

3 At that point, the fourth man walked up, he
4 touched an ear, and he said, I disagree with all of you.
5 I don't know what y'all -- or how you're coming up with 6 that. He touches the ear, and he says, Hmm, it's just 7 like a fan, just like a fan.

8 Finally, the last man comes up, or excuse me,
9 the next man comes up, and he touches the elephant's
10 side, his belly. And he said, That elephant isn't like
11 anything that you're saying. It's like a wall, a great 12 big wall.

13 Finally, the sixth man comes up, and he touches
14 the elephant's tusk, and he says, No, you all got it
15 wrong. The elephant is like a solid pipe.

16 At that point a wiser man comes up, and he 17 explains to the blind men that they're all right, but in 18 a very limited way. Excuse me. He explained, again,
19 that bits and pieces of what they were saying were true.

20 The moral of that story is that maybe there can 21 be some truth in what someone says or what someone 22 presents, but until you're able to put those truths in 23 context, you must withhold judgment until you see the 24 picture all together. That's what we're asking you to 25 do today.

1 I would also ask you to please remember that
2 the seriousness of this crime does not equate to guilt.
3 In other words, we are not saying that is not a tragic
4 event. It is. But don't confuse that with the guilt of
5 Mr. Edwards.

6 The solicitor is going to try to convince you
7 with bits and pieces of the puzzle. Again, I ask you to 8 hold judgment until the very end until you have heard
9 everything. I remind you again, Mr. Edwards sits there
10 an innocent man. He remains innocent until and only if 11 the State can convince all of you, and that -- beyond
12 any -- beyond a reasonable doubt. That's a doubt that 13 would cause you to hesitate. It causes you to think.
14 If it causes you to wonder, that's a reasonable doubt.

15 If you feel that reasonable doubt, you --
16 what -- what you have to do is clear. You would have to 17 find him not guilty. We believe that at the end of 18 this trial, there are going to be enough unanswered
19 questions. Please listen to what they present. Please
20 also look at what they will not be able to provide you
21 today. At the end of the evidence, we will ask you to 22 return a verdict of not guilty.

23 Thank you.

24 THE COURT: You may call your first witness.

25 MR. SORENSON: Thank you.

1 A Yes, I did.

2 Q What items did you discover or tell the police

3 that you found were missing from your home?

4 A A computer, and, like, a vase with --

5 Q Okay.

6 A A vase.

7 Q All right. And let me deal with the computer

8 first. What type of computer was that?

9 A It was a red Acer computer.

10 Q Was it like a desktop or laptop?

11 A Laptop?

12 Q Laptop.

13 THE COURT: Sir, can you hear him all the way

14 in the back?

15 THE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: My jurors, you able to hear? If

17 you can't hear, raise your hands, please.

18 MR. SORENSON: Make sure you keep your voice

19 up, Mr. Hanton.

20 THE WITNESS: All right.

21 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) Let me show you State's

22 Exhibit No. 7. Do you recognize that laptop?

23 A Yes, I do.

24 Q And whose laptop is that?

25 A That's mine.

1 Q Do you remember how long before this you had
2 bought that laptop?

3 A I want to say maybe a week or two.

4 Q And do you remember if you still had the box to 5 that laptop in your house?

6 A Oh, yes, we still had the box.

7 Q Bear with me one moment, Mr. Hanton.

8 Let me show you State's Exhibit 5. Is that the 9 box to the laptop?

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q That box was still in your house?

12 A Yes.

13 MR. SORENSON: Your Honor, at this time we 14 offer State's 5 into evidence.

15 MR. WISE: No objection.

16 (State's Exhibit No. 5, Photograph -- Laptop

18 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) And did you point that out
19 to the police that day at your house?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Okay. In fact, is that when they took that 22 photograph, to your knowledge?

23 A To the best of my knowledge.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Hanton, speak up just a little 25 bit or either pull that mic closer. You're sort of

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) And where -- I may have

6 asked you this. If I did, I apologize.

7 Where -- where in your house was that laptop

8 located at?

9 A In the far back room -- bedroom.

10 Q In one of the bedrooms?

11 A Right.

12 Q Was that your bedroom?

13 A Well, one of the bedrooms that my son used to 14 stay in.

15 Q Okay. You said that was in the -- what part of 16 your house?

17 A In the far back.

18 Q Okay. In the back of the house?

19 A Bedroom. Right.

20 Q And you also indicated there was a glass kind

21 of vase --

22 A Right.

23 Q -- that was taken. Let me show you State's

2 A Right. Hers -- my wife's vase.
3 Q Where was that item located at?
4 A Coffee table.
5 Q Where?
6 A In the living room -- excuse me, in the den.
7 Q In the room where your wife was found?
8 A Exactly.
9 Q And tell the jury what, if anything, was kept
10 inside that -- that glass vase?
11 A It was a couple of cards and -- cards and stuff
12 like that. It was $40 that we could never figure out if 13 we want it work (phonetic), so it was just sitting in 14 the glass vase.
15 Q It was $40, you remember?

8 BY MR. SORENSON:

9 Q Investigator Aldridge, if you would, once
10 again, just tell the jury where it is that you're 11 employed?

12 A Orangeburg County Sheriff's Office.

13 Q And how long have you been with the Sheriff's
14 Office?

15 A Little less than four years.

16 Q Okay. And you just recently were promoted to 17 an investigator; is that correct?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q And what -- tell the jury kind of what your 20 current duties are with the Sheriff's Office.

21 A I'm with the Special Operations Division. We 22 do activities such as search and rescue, SWAT, K-9, any 23 other duties assigned by the Sheriff.

24 Q Okay. Now, back in February of 2011, you were

1 correct?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q And what were your duties at that time back in
4 February of last year?

5 A At that time, I was attached to the Patrol
6 Division.

7 Q Okay. And tell the jury kind of what that 8 would entail then?

9 A Patrol Division is the division that would 10 answer calls for service, do property checks, your 11 normal criminal enforcement division.

12 Q Okay. So if I called 911 and asked the deputy 13 to respond out to my residence for whatever reason, a
14 burglary, trespassing, or something, you, at that time,
15 may have been the officer that would respond?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q Okay. All right. And we'll turn you back,
18 Investigator Aldridge, back to the afternoon of February
19 3rd of last year, of 2011. Did you respond out to [REDACTED]
20 [REDACTED] that afternoon?

21 A I did.

22 Q Tell the jury, if you recall, what the nature
23 of the call was initially that you were responding to.

24 A I responded to a call for service in reference
25 to a female subject that had sustained what was

3 Q Okay. And do you recall where you were at when 4 you received that call or --

5 A I was at the corner of Goff and Chestnut
6 Street.

7 Q Okay. How far is that away from [REDACTED]
8 [REDACTED]?

9 A In between a quarter mile to a half-mile.

10 Q So you were one of the first officers on the 11 scene, then?

12 A I was.

13 Q And who -- let me ask you this: [REDACTED] is 14 that located in Orangeburg County?

15 A It is.

16 Q And tell the jury what -- what you encountered
17 when you -- when you arrived at that residence that 18 afternoon.

19 A When I arrived on scene, myself and a support
20 unit, I observed through the garage doorway what looked 21 to be a female victim laying on the ground. She was 22 actually facing downward on the ground with an arm
23 propped up in a puddle what looked to be blood.

24 Q I'm showing you State's Exhibit 11. Would that 25 be the doorway you were looking through and what you

Reported By:

1 observed?

2 A It would be.

3 Q Okay. Now, had you -- before observing
4 that, had you -- had you encountered her husband,
5 Aaron Hanton, prior to that?

6 A I did.

7 Q Where was that that you encountered Mr. Hanton;
8 do you recall?

9 A That would be in the carport area.

10 Q Okay. And let me just -- just so we know,
11 State's Exhibit No. 9, that's the residence that you
12 responded to?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q Now, upon observing -- and did you ultimately 15 learn that that was his wife, Carolyn, that was -- that 16 was deceased?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q Okay. What then did you do upon -- upon
19 observing her inside the residence?

20 A Myself and the support unit looked around the 21 outside and secured the scene. At that point, we 22 already determined this was a crime scene, a potential
23 fatality. We tried to make sure that no other
24 additional people were injured. We did observe four 25 children inside the residence, none of which looked to

State versus Cleophas Edwards, 12/11/12

1 be injured. I stood down and waited for additional
2 units to arrive on the scene.

3 Q And did y'all clear the residence to make sure
4 there wasn't a suspect still on the scene?

5 A I maintained outside the residence while other
6 units went inside to get it clear.

7 Q Okay. And was there anybody else found besides
8 the four small children that you talked about; anybody
9 else found --

10 A No.

11 Q -- out there at the scene.

12 All right. Were those children ultimately
13 removed from the house and returned to their parents?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q And tell the jury -- you said you encountered
16 Mr. Hanton kind of in the carport area. Describe to the 17 jury when you encountered him, what was his demeanor?

18 A The best I could describe it, he looked to be 19 in a state of shock. He was very matter of fact with 20 his details. He advised us that his wife had been 21 injured. I believe at one point he may have even 22 advised that she had been killed. And he just -- he 23 looked to be taken aback by -- by the incident overall.

24 Q Okay. And, ultimately, who else -- was anybody
25 else called out there then to the scene?

2 along with administrative and investigative units.
3 Q Okay. And did anybody respond medical-wise
4 to -- to confirm the -- the victim's condition,
5 Mrs. Hanton's condition?
6 A Orangeburg EMS did arrive on the scene.
7 Q Okay. And did they confirm that she was 8 deceased?
9 A I believe they did run a vitals check on her
10 and confirmed she had none.
11 Q So you indicated your supervisors, crime scene
12 investigators all showed up?
13 A Yes, sir.
14 Q Okay. And ultimately were you then involved
15 with any of the kind of follow-up investigation?

18 units.
19 Q Okay. And you did indicate that part of 20 y'all's' role out there initially was basically to secure
21 that scene and to make sure nobody else went in to the

2 Q And where did you work prior to the Sheriff's

4 A I worked in Columbia with Richland County.

5 Q Okay. And what are your current duties with 6 Orangeburg County Sheriff's Office?

7 A Currently right now, I'm assigned to the 13 murder of Carolyn Hanton?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q Okay. And tell the jury what kind of your role
16 was out there that day at the scene.

17 A Initially, upon arriving on the scene, as
18 part of Special Operations, my initial duty is scene
19 security. And we want to make sure that we had that 20 scene under control for other law enforcement or medical 21 personnel to come in. Once that's established, I then

2 A I did. Through investigation and speaking with 3 persons who are familiar with objects in the home, we 4 learned that a laptop computer had been taken during the 5 homicide.

6 Q Okay. And was there any evidence kind of 7 relating to that laptop that was still at the residence
8 that afternoon?

9 A There was. We were able to locate the 10 packaging and box that the laptop came in.

11 Q All right. I'm showing you State's Exhibit
12 No. 5. Is that the -- is that the box?

13 A Yes, sir.

16 A It's an Acer brand, Aspire model.

17 Q All right. And as part of that kind of box, is 18 there a spot on the box where it actually had the serial
19 number and the information regarding the computer also?

20 A Yes, sir. There was a manufacturer's label
21 applied to the exterior of the box that had the serial
22 number for the laptop.

22 MR. SORENSON: Thank you, your Honor.

23 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) All right. So that -- that 24 was, I guess, a yes. You were involved in going to the 25 1347 Campus?

State versus Cleophas Edwards, 12/11/12
Volume II of IV -- Jury Trial
Direct Examination by Mr. Sorenson of Ryan Harter

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q And where is [REDACTED] located at in
3 relation to [REDACTED]?

4 A If you -- if you turn on to [REDACTED], you can take
5 a right onto Mingo Street, and it will eventually
6 intersect with [REDACTED] a couple of blocks down.

7 Q Going back to State's Exhibit 8, we have [REDACTED]
8 [REDACTED] here, Mingo Street --

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q -- and ultimately it intersects down at the 11 bottom here with [REDACTED]; is that correct?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q Okay. And, yet again, kind of in the number
14 nine box there, is that [REDACTED]?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q So that's a few blocks away from the [REDACTED]
17 [REDACTED] residence; is that correct?

18 A Correct.

19 Q Now, tell the jury what you observed when you
20 went into the residence at [REDACTED] that
21 evening.

22 A Once we entered into the residence, I observed
23 a young male seated on the floor of the living room.
24 And one of the many things that was taking place, out
25 of everything that was going on, I observed in his

1 possession, he was actively using a red laptop. And it
2 immediately caught my attention.

3 MR. WISE: Objection, your Honor, based upon
4 the pretrial motion regarding that piece of evidence.

5 THE COURT: Well, I've already ruled on that,
6 and I stand by my ruling. And you're protected for the
7 record.

8 MR. WISE: Thank you, your Honor.

9 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) You indicated -- let me ask
10 you, do you -- was it the Defendant, Cleophas Edwards,
11 that was -- that was using that red laptop?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q And did you have an opportunity then to kind of 14 look and see a little more -- not only what color the 15 laptop was, but what type of laptop it was?

16 A Yeah. And if -- when that laptop's open, the 17 back side of the top lid has the brand on it.

18 Q Okay. What brand was it?

19 A It's an Acer brand.

20 Q Okay. And is that the same type of laptop you
21 entered into NCIC or into the computer system two weeks
22 prior?

23 A Yes, sir. It was the same make and the same
24 color.

25 Q Let me ask you, Investigator Harter, as part of

State versus Cleophas Edwards, 12/11/12
Volume II of IV -- Jury Trial
Direct Examination by Mr. Sorenson of Ryan Harter

1 your duties -- or even your hobbies, are you familiar
2 with computers?

3 A Yes, sir. I -- I did several years of a double
4 major at the University of South Carolina as a math
5 computer science major, and for about 20 years I kind of 6 built computers.

7 Q Okay. So was this something you were familiar
8 with when you saw it?

9 A Absolutely.

10 Q And was Mr. Edwards ultimately taken into 11 custody by other officers that were there?

12 A He was.

13 Q Okay. Now, did you then have an opportunity
14 with that -- that red laptop to further look at it?

15 A Yes, sir. On that particular laptop, if you
16 just take it and close and flip it upside down, there's 17 another manufacturers-applied label on the bottom that 18 has -- it was very similar to the label on the box, just 19 a smaller version.

20 Q Let me show you State's Exhibit No. 7. Is that 21 the computer you found?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 MR. SORENSON: At this time, we'd offer
24 State's 7.

25 THE COURT: Subject to your objections, it will

2 (State's Exhibit No. 7, Acer Laptop, is 3 admitted into evidence.)

4 MR. SORENSON: Thank you, your Honor.

5 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) Now, you've indicated -- let 6 me kind of -- kind of hand that to you. Kind of just
7 point for the jury where you indicated that serial
8 number is located on that computer?

9 A There's a sticker right over here on the 10 left-hand side that was applied by the manufacturer, and 11 it looks similar to the one on the box. It starts with 12 an S, slash, N, and it has the serial number.

13 Q And what -- what did you then do with that
14 serial number off of that red Acer laptop?

15 A I then contacted my dispatch and had them
16 compare it -- or actually just had them enter it into 17 the system, generally, into the NCIC database to see if 18 it returned with any type of hits.

19 Q Okay. And did it ultimately come back with a 20 hit?

21 A Yes, sir. It returned as the laptop missing
22 from Goff Avenue.

23 Q Okay. And now looking now -- I mean, at the 24 photograph off of the box, State's Exhibit No. 6, I
25 mean, does that serial number match up now even looking

2 A Oh, absolutely.

3 Q Okay. So this was obviously taken into custody
4 at that point in time?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q And you advised the investigators in reference
7 to the homicide what you had found?

8 A Yes, sir. I advised my supervisor on the scene
9 at the time, which was Sergeant Furtick, that we had 10 located the laptop from [REDACTED]. And he, in turn,
11 notified Lieutenant Shumpert with the Criminal 12 Investigation Division.

2 Q Okay. Anybody else in the house at the time
3 you -- you were in there aside from law enforcement
4 people?

5 A Aside from law enforcement, there was -- I
6 don't know if he was present in the house or if he had
7 been removed from the house, but there was another
8 person present in the home.

9 Q Do you know who that person was?

10 A I don't recall his name. He was a housemate of 11 the Defendant.

12 Q Okay. You identified him as a housemate?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q Person who lived there?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q Okay. Very good. Did you see him with the

18 A No, sir.

19 Q Did you ask any questions about the computer?

20 A No, sir. Not at that time, no, sir.

21 Q When you walked into the house and you saw
22 Mr. Edwards, what was he doing?

23 A He was seated on the floor with his back up

State versus Cleophas Edwards, 12/11/12
Volume II of IV -- Jury Trial
Direct Examination by Mr. Bell of Dr. Ross

1 as follows:

3 BY MR. BELL:

4 Q Dr. Ross, how are you employed?

5 A I am a forensic pathologist with Newberry
6 Pathology Associates in Newberry, South Carolina.

7 Q And could you tell the jury about your
8 educational background?

9 A Yes. I have a bachelor's degree from the 10 University of South Carolina, and I got my M.D. from 11 State Medical Center in Syracuse, New York, where I also 12 did my training in pathology. Pathology is the 13 discipline in medicine that teaches us how to identify 14 and diagnose diseases by looking at tissue under the 15 microscope. We also learn how to do an autopsy. I'm 16 further trained in the area of forensic pathology.
17 Which, the word "forensic" means legal, so we use our 18 pathology knowledge towards areas in the legal field
19 like accidents, suicides, and homicides, and we are 20 trained to do a specific and more thorough forensic 21 autopsy.

22 Q And you are a licensed medical doctor in the 23 state of South Carolina?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Do you have any other specific licenses or

1 accreditations?

2 A Board certification. It's a national
3 certification in three areas of pathology, including
4 forensic pathology.

5 Q And how long have you been practicing as a
6 forensic pathologist?

7 A Thirty-six years.

8 Q And a rough estimate, how many autopsies have 9 you performed?

10 A Over 6,000.

11 Q And how many causes of death have you
12 determined?

13 A Well over 6,000.

14 Q And how many times have you ever been qualified
15 to testify in the Courts of South Carolina?

16 A In South Carolina, over 70.

17 Q Okay. You've been qualified as an expert in 18 forensic pathology?

19 A Yes.

20 MR. BELL: Your Honor, we'd offer Dr. Ross as 21 an expert in the field of forensic pathology.

22 THE COURT: Any Cross-examination as to her
23 qualifications?

24 MS. HINDS: No objection, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen of

State versus Cleophas Edwards, 12/11/12

Direct Examination by Mr. Bell of Dr. Ross

1 the jury, Dr. Ross will be qualified as an expert, which
2 means under our rules of evidence, she will be allowed
3 to give opinion testimony.

4 You may proceed.

5 Q (By Mr. Bell) Now, Dr. Ross, you've already 6 testified that your specialty is in determining how
7 diseases or how people die; is that correct?

8 A Correct.

9 Q Okay. Did you have an occasion to examine an 10 individual, Mrs. Carolyn Hanton, sometime in February of 11 last year?

12 A Yes.

13 Q What was the exact date?

14 A It's February 4th, 2011.

15 Q Okay. And your -- where did your examination
16 take place?

17 A In the morgue at Newberry County Memorial
18 Hospital in Newberry, South Carolina.

19 Q Okay. And before we get specific into her
20 case, can you tell the jury kind of generally how you go
21 about doing an autopsy?

22 A Yes.

23 THE COURT: Hold on one second. Did any of the 24 family members want to step out?

25 MR. SORENSON: I think the ones that wanted to,

State versus Cleophas Edwards, 12/11/12
Volume II of IV -- Jury Trial
Direct Examination by Mr. Bell of Dr. Ross

1 stayed out. Thank you.

2 THE WITNESS: The coroner of the county will
3 call us and authorize and order an autopsy. The body is 4 brought to us in a body bag, which we open, and we take 5 photographs of the person, take inventory of the 6 clothing, take the clothing off, and then furthermore
7 take photographs of the -- of the body, nude, back
8 and -- front and back, and identify any pattern of 9 injury present.

10 Q (By Mr. Bell) Okay. And then after you've 11 done -- that's the external examination?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And then what do you do after you've done the 14 external examination?

15 A Then we do a specific type of internal 16 examination looking at each organ to identify any 17 injuries or natural diseases of each organ.

18 Q Okay. And, now, turning specifically to 19 Mrs. Hanton, can you tell the jury what you observed
20 upon her -- upon your initial examination of her?

21 A Yes. We could see that she had multiple stab
22 wounds and incised wounds. These types of wounds are 23 made by a sharp object. A stab wound is defined as 24 being deeper than it is wide on the skin. Incised wound
25 is a wound that's split -- a cut of the skin made by a

Reported By:
Rolayne M. Volpe, CCR, RPR

1 sharp instrument. She had at least 43 stab wounds plus
2 multiple incised wounds.

3 Q Where were these wounds located?

4 A They were located around the head, one incised
5 wound on the left side of the neck, there were wounds in 6 the chest, in the back, in the abdomen, and in the upper 7 arms.

8 Q Were there -- were there some wounds that were
9 more -- did more damage than other wounds?

10 A Yes. There were -- there was at least one stab
11 wound in the chest that went in and actually perforated
12 the heart, causing bleeding. There were several wounds
13 in the back that entered the chest cavities and entered 14 and perforated and cut into the lung tissue.

15 Q Okay. And most -- how would you describe
16 most of the wounds that you observed on the body of 17 Mrs. Hanton?

18 A The other ones were superficial. In other
19 words, they didn't go into the chest cavity or the 20 abdominal -- or the abdominal cavity and cut into 21 organs.

22 Q And so did you determine the cause of death of 23 Mrs. Hanton as a result of these examinations?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And what was that?

State versus Cleophas Edwards, 12/11/12
Volume II of IV -- Jury Trial
Direct Examination by Mr. Bell of Dr. Ross

1 A It was the exsanguination, which means to bleed
2 out, due to the incised wounds of the heart and lungs
3 due to multiple stab wounds.

4 Q Did you determine manner of death?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And what was that?

7 A Homicide.

8 Q What does homicide mean?

9 A Death attributed to the action or inaction of 10 another.

11 Q And that's just your classification, or the 12 classification of the state of South Carolina, I
13 believe?

14 A Correct. There are five manners of death that 15 we can put on a death certificate. Homicide is one.
16 Suicide, accident, natural, and then if you can't figure
17 it out, it's undetermined.

18 Q Okay. Let me show you a couple of things. Let 19 me show you what's been marked as State's 38, and just 20 ask that if this State's 38, which is a knife, would 21 that be consistent with the wounds that you observed as,
22 you know, capable of producing the wounds that you
23 observed on Mrs. Hanton?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. Now, also, Dr. Ross, after, I guess,

3 anything else?

4 A We collect fluids from the body for toxicology
5 purposes. And on this case, I think we collected
6 fingernails for -- for SLED to investigate to see if
7 there was any DNA underneath the fingernails.

8 Q And, specifically, Dr. Ross, let me ask -- I'll

19 envelopes for the fingernails.

20 Q (By Mr. Bell) Okay. And once you collected
21 these, do you -- what did you do with them?

22 A We seal them, sign them, and we submitted them

24 Sheriff's Office, William Ketcherside.

25 Q Okay. And, finally, Dr. Ross, let me show you

8 temperature, or rigor mortis, et cetera, is -- it's not

9 specific enough.

10 Q You can just give an approximation?

14 A Other than stab wounds, no.

- 4 A That's correct.
- 5 Q Who took him there?
- 6 A Myself and Agent Young, at the time.
- 7 Q Okay. And where did you take him to at the 8 Criminal Investigative Division of the sheriff's 9 department?
- 10 A We took him to the interview room.
- 11 Q Okay. Did you meet up with anybody in 12 particular there in law enforcement?
- 13 A Yes, sir. Lieutenant James Shumpert of the 14 Orangeburg County Sheriff's Office. He was the head 15 detective during that time.
- 16 Q All right. And when you took him to -- when 17 you took him into the interview room there, you said,
18 what happened?
- 19 A He was read his Rights.
- 20 Q Okay. Those were his Miranda Rights?
- 21 A That's correct.
- 22 Q Who read those Rights?
- 23 A Lieutenant Shumpert did.
- 24 Q Were you present at that time?
- 25 A Yes, sir, I was present during that time, and I

3 Q Okay. And so how were they read to him?

4 A They were read off to him one at a time.

5 Q Okay. Was it from a specific sheet? Piece of 6 paper?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Okay.

9 (Document is shown to defense counsel.)

10 Q (By Mr. Bell) Let me show you what's been 11 marked as State's No. 1 and ask you if can identify 12 that?

13 A Yes, sir, I recognize it.

14 Q And what do you recognize it as?

15 A This is the Orangeburg County Sheriff's Office
16 Criminal Investigate -- Criminal Investigation Miranda
17 sheet.

18 Q Okay. And that's the one that was read to him
19 back on February 16th, 2011?

20 A That's correct. I signed it here at the bottom
21 left.

22 Q Okay. And that was read to the Defendant
23 Cleophas Edwards?

24 A Yes, sir, it was.

25 Q How was it read to him; do you recall?

1 A Yes, sir. There are actually five Miranda
2 warnings on here, and they were read off to him one at a
3 time.

4 Q Okay. And can you please read those, what was 5 read to him?

6 A Yes, sir. At the top of the paper, it says:
7 These are your Rights. Please read carefully. Before
8 we ask you any questions, you must understand your
9 Rights. Please initial beside each sentence.
10 The first one says: You have the right to 11 remain silent. Anything you say can be used against you

4 Q Okay. Now, before we go any further on these 5 top five Rights, there's some writing out to the left of 6 that. What are those?

7 A These are the places where you place your
8 initials. After these were read to him, we asked
9 Mr. Edwards did he understand, and he said that he did;
10 and if he did, to initial, and he initialed them here.

11 Q Okay. So that's his handwriting on those five 12 spaces besides the numbers?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q Okay. And that's his signature at the bottom

16 A Yes, sir, that is.

17 Q Okay. And did he seem to understand the Rights
18 as y'all read to him?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q And who read them? His Rights?

21 A Lieutenant Shumpert did.

22 Q Okay. Was -- how was his attitude? Was he

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q Okay. And then after those Rights were read to
3 him, was something else read to him?

4 A Yes, sir. Down to the bottom, it says, Waiver
5 of Rights, and it reads, as thus. It says: I have read
6 the statement of my Rights, and I understand what my
7 Rights are. I'm willing to make a statement and answer

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. WISE:

18 Q Good afternoon, Investigator Thrower. How are 19 you doing?

20 A I'm good.

21 Q Investigator, I want to go back a little bit to 22 when you first arrived at Cleophas' home. How did you 23 get in?

24 A We knocked at the door.

25 Q Who let you in?

1 A And -- let me refer back to my statement, so I
2 can get the gentleman's name correct. It was his 3 roommate.

4 Not to take up the Court's time, his roommate
5 opened the door.

6 Q Was his roommate Melvin Simmons, the name?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Okay. Very good. You spoke about a person
9 named Izzie. Do you remember mentioning that name?

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q Okay. Did you find out that Izzie was another
12 one of his roommates?

13 A Well, if Izzie was his roommate, I wasn't made
14 aware that he was actually a roommate or not.

15 Q Okay. All right. And were you made aware of 16 anybody else who lived at that house?

17 A Just his roommate.

18 Q Okay. All right. And you got to the house
19 around 7:00 p.m.; is that right?

20 A Approximately. I'm not exactly sure of an 21 exact time, but maybe it was somewhere around there.

22 Q And you testified that when you walked in the 23 house, you saw Cleophas; he was smoking marijuana?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And did you see a bottle of vodka on the floor

1 next to him?

2 A I didn't. I don't recall if any alcohol was in
3 the house. I wasn't focused on alcohol. I was just
4 focused on Mr. Edwards, who was right in front of me,
5 and the marijuana, and, you know, what he had in his 6 lap.

7 Q Officer Thrower, let me just show you one
8 thing.

9 (Document is shown to Mr. Sorenson and then 10 handed to the witness.)

11 Q Want you to take a look at that. Do you
12 recognize what's depicted in that photograph?

13 THE COURT: Well, don't we need to identify it
14 or mark it or do something for the record?

15 MR. WISE: We'll mark it for identification.

16 THE COURT: Defense Exhibit 1 for I.D.

17 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 1, Photograph, is 18 marked for identification.)

19 Q (By Mr. Wise) Investigator Thrower -- Agent
20 Thrower, take a look at that. Does that look like the 21 room where Cleophas was sitting when you entered the 22 house?

23 A It does.

24 Q Okay. And you see that bottle of vodka sitting
25 there?

1 A I see it now.

2 Q But you don't remember seeing it then?

3 A No, sir.

4 Q Okay. There came a point when you were in

5 the house that a determination was made about that Acer

6 computer; correct?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Okay. And at that point, it was -- everybody

9 knew that this was a computer that was involved in the 10 homicide that happened previously? Were you made aware

11 of that?

12 A At a later time. But at that point in time, I

13 was just concerned with what we were there with him for.

14 Q Okay. All right. When he was being taken from

15 the house --

16 A Okay.

17 Q -- was he at that point suspected of being

18 involved in that homicide?

19 A I wouldn't say that he was suspected as being

20 involved in it.

21 Q Okay. Okay. You talked to him about

22 the -- that Acer computer; didn't you?

23 A I don't recall if I did or not.

8 A At the CID.
9 Q Okay. All right.
10 A The place where they actually were doing the

1 business?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And that was the residence of Cleophas Edwards?

4 A It was.

5 Q And was he there when you and the other

6 officers arrived?

7 A He was.

8 Q And during the course of being there, he was

1 Q Yes.

2 A He had stated that he had bought the computer

16 we stayed on scene. And I think Deputy Harter and 17 Furtick went to the door, asked if someone there by the 18 name of Izzie resided there. He came to the door.
19 Asked if he would mind coming and answering a few

4 really offer a whole lot of information at that point,
5 and then he eventually asked to speak to Agent Thrower.

6 Q Okay. And when you said "we," who is we?

7 A Lieutenant Shumpert and myself.

8 Q Okay. All right. And how was his demeanor at 9 that point?

10 A He was -- he was calm. He just was -- we knew

12 saying about the computer and stuff, just wasn't making
13 a whole lot of sense.

14 Q Did anybody tell him what to say or put words

18 A No, sir.

19 Q Did Lieutenant Shumpert?

20 A No, sir.

21 Q Okay. How long did this back and forth go
22 until he said I need to talk to Thrower?

1 and Thrower just ran over, dropped him off, and came
2 straight back. So he wasn't gone but, you know, maybe
3 15 minutes.

4 Q And when he said he wanted to talk to Thrower,
5 what happened?

6 A He and I had spoken right before Thrower got 7 back. I promised him that I would allow him to speak to 8 Agent Thrower as soon as he got back. I explained where 9 he had gone. We talked a little bit more, and then at 10 that point, he said he wanted to speak to Thrower. I
11 told him that as soon as he got there, we would allow 12 that. When Agent Thrower got back, he came to the door
13 of the interrogation, and Shumpert and I were both in 14 there; and Mr. Edwards said, I want to speak to Thrower, 15 but I want to speak to him alone. So we left, and we 16 left him with Agent Thrower.

17 Q Okay. And what was the next thing that you
18 recall happening?

19 A Maybe three or four minutes later, I guess it
20 was, somewhere around in there, Agent Thrower came to 21 the door, opened it, and said, he's ready to talk.

22 Q Okay.

23 A I think his exact words, that he said he killed

1 A We went back in, and Agent -- I mean,
2 Lieutenant Shumpert was speaking with him again. I
3 think he reminded him of his Miranda Rights again and
4 asked if he would write the statement. He gave us a
5 verbal one, and then he asked: Can you write that for 6 us? And Mr. Edwards said that he was too emotional and 7 he just really couldn't write it right then, and he
8 asked: Will y'all record it for me? And Lieutenant
9 Shumpert said: Yes, we can do that.

10 Q And was that done?

10 A He said he did.

11 Q And then after -- after he gave the -- the 12 video statement, that State's 2 in evidence, what

13 happened with. . .

14 A I think after that, Agent Thrower and I were

15 going to transport him to the detention center. And

16 when we got there, as part of their processing, they

17 asked, did he need medical attention, and he said he had

18 a really bad headache. So we took him to the emergency

11 A No, sir.

12 Q Okay. Did Cleophas ever, to you, deny being

14 A Can I look at my notes --

15 Q Sure.

16 A -- to see exactly what he said?

17 (The witness reviews a document.)

18 A He did not deny it directly, as in speaking
19 directly to me. He denied it in my presence, speaking
20 to Izzie.

21 Q Okay. Okay. And -- okay. So you heard what 22 he was saying when he was speaking to Izzie? You were

4 Q Well, no. What I'm more concerned about is --
5 well, let me just ask you this.

6 Bear with me one second.

7 A I can't say it was an adamant denial, because
8 it changed immediately within a couple of sentences,
9 so. . .

5 A Correct.

6 Q I'm sorry. Okay. I want to go back to what

7 happened at CID. Cleophas gets to CID, and then he's

8 taken into a room, and you spend some time speaking with

10 A That's correct.

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. Okay. And then there was a point when

20 He was overcome that night? Do you remember using that

15 A That's correct.

16 Q Which is only one page. What is the next
17 sentence after you read that Edwards adamantly denied
18 being involved in the murder?

19 A He stated: I got -- I got laptop from Izzie a
20 couple of weeks ago.

21 Q So he basically just was denying that he -- he 22 just recently got the laptop as well?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q And then not too long -- too much later, is 25 when he kind of changed emotions again; is that right?

1 A That's correct.

2 Q What emotion -- how was he acting at this

3 point?

4 A He was very confrontational with Izzie,

5 accusing him of stealing the laptop, and then him

6 getting caught with it, is basically what it all came

7 down to. And so he's very theatrical. Angry, I guess

8 you can say. Confrontational. That ended very quickly.

9 Lieutenant Shumpert stopped it, you know, from going any

10 further. And I think at that point, Mr. Riley returned

11 out to the other area and remained there for a while. I

12 don't know what was discussed because I was -- I stayed

13 with Mr. Edwards.

14 Q Okay. Did his emotions -- did Mr. Edwards'

15 emotions change after that?

16 A It did.

17 Q To what?

18 A He became real quiet. I think he was -- I

19 guess you could say he was very concerned.

20 Q And was that about the time that he asked to 21 talk to Thrower?

22 A It was, because -- because while that was

2 Q And how long have you been employed there?
3 A Since May of 2005.
4 Q Okay. And that's how long you've been in law
5 enforcement?
6 A Correct.
7 Q And what is -- what are your current duties?
8 A Criminal investigator.
9 Q And how long have you been an investigator?
10 A Since November of 2009.
11 Q Okay. Were you involved in the investigation
12 of the murder that occurred on February 3rd, 2011, out
13 on [REDACTED] --
14 A Yes.

16 in that?
17 A I was one of the initial responding
18 investigators.
19 Q Okay. And, generally, when you went -- you
20 were called to that address?
21 A Yes, I was.
22 Q And what did you do when you got there?

2 Q And so that was the initial -- your initial
3 part, is that correct, trying to find the children's 4 parents and all and get them where they needed to be?

5 A Correct.

6 Q After that was taken care of, what was done
7 next?

8 A Myself and Sergeant Turkvant received
9 information of some footwear impressions. We were able 10 to see the footwear impressions and then went to local 11 shoe businesses to try to locate what type of shoe it 12 was.

13 Q Okay. How did you just -- just looked in the 15 A I seen one on the outside and one inside the 16 house.

17 Q Okay. And were you able to find anything close
18 to -- any type of shoe close to it?

19 A No.

20 Q And during the course of that day and other

2 Q And is this the four-page statement that he

4 A Yes, it is.

5 MR. BELL: We would offer this as State's 4.

6 MR. WISE: No objection, your Honor.

7 (State's Exhibit No. 4, Defendant's Statement,
8 was previously admitted into evidence at page 87.)

9 Q (By Mr. Bell) Let me hand you State's 4,
10 Investigator Kittrell, and ask if you would please read
11 that to the jury?

12 A I woke up, and I walked out of the -- out of 13 the house around 8:00. I had on a black hoodie and blue
14 jeans, and I tucked a knife in my pants. I smoked a
15 Black & Mild walking around the block thinking about
16 what I was going to do about finding a new house to stay
17 in and how -- how to start paying bills and start a
18 store. As I walked -- as I was walking, I saw a car
19 leave a red and yellow brick house, and I -- and I
20 paced around it and walked in. As I walked in, a lady 21 saw me and screamed, and I backed up to the door. I was 22 so scared. I stood there trembling. She came towards 23 me and kicked me and punched me, and I turned around and 24 pulled out the knife. I started swinging it. I didn't
25 stop until she stopped fighting me. I tried to run out

1 of the back, but I fell and passed out. I woke up
2 inside the house and went back -- went to the back to
3 leave, but could not find the back door. All I saw was 4 a room with a laptop, and I took it, and I went out the 5 door I came in. I ran to an abandoned building and 6 threw up and cried for about ten minutes, and I took my 7 hoodie off and tucked it under the house, and then threw
8 the knife as far as I could and ran back to my house. I
9 was in pain that day and smoked marijuana and went to 10 sleep and prayed for forgiveness. I stayed home the 11 rest of the day.

12 Q Okay. Then there's a question-and-answer
13 section?

14 A Yes, it is.

15 Q Would you read that, please?

16 A Yes. A little bit more to the narrative. You
17 skipped a space. It says: The next day, I took my 18 roommates car and threw a shirt out of the window near a
19 street.

20 First question: How many times did you swing
21 the knife?

22 Answer: I do not know.

23 Question: Did anybody else go into the house
24 with you?

25 Answer: No.

1 Question: What did you do with the laptop?
2 I didn't use it for two or three days because I
3 felt bad, and later, I used it a few days, then pawned
4 it at Woody's. I got it back from Woody's two days ago.
5 What color was the laptop that you took?
6 Red.
7 What color is the house that you went behind?
8 White and grayish.
9 Did you take anything else from the house
10 besides the computer?
11 Yes. I took a vase with $60 and some cards.
12 Where did you put these items?
13 Behind the house.
14 What did you do with your pants and shoes?
15 I put them in a green suitcase.
16 Where did you put the green suitcase?
17 At Carrington (phonetic) Apartments, in my new 18 apartment.
19 Did you tell anybody what you did?
20 I told my ex-girlfriend that I hurt someone
21 -- I hurt someone badly, and I need help.

8 Defendant, Cleophas Edwards?

9 A I took him back to the jail.

10 Q Okay. Was anything taken from him that you
11 recall?

12 A Oh, a search warrant was obtained, and DNA
13 swabs were taken.

14 Q And who did that?

15 A Lieutenant Carter.

16 Q Were you present when that was done?

17 A Yes, I actually served the search warrant on 18 him. Lieutenant Carter took the swabs.

19 Q And what are the swabs that he took?

20 A DNA oral swabs, rubbing inside the cheek to get

3 Q Is it Investigator?

4 A Yes, it is.

5 Q Investigator Kittrell, just a few questions.

6 When you met with Cleophas on the 17th, were you aware
7 of the statements he gave the night before?

8 A I knew he gave a statement, but I didn't know
9 exactly what it consisted of.

10 Q You hadn't spoken to Agent Thrower?

11 A No. I spoke to him and told him I needed a
12 statement of what was told to him.

13 Q But you didn't ask Agent Thrower what Cleophas
14 said to him -- to Agent Thrower?

15 A No.

16 Q Okay. Did you see the video?

17 A After -- after the fact.

18 Q After you interviewed Cleophas?

19 A Correct.

20 Q Okay. All right. And you took him from the 21 jail to CID?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. And that -- and CID is the same place
24 where that video was taken?

25 A Yes, it is.

1 Q All right. And what time did you get him out
2 of the jail?

3 A I'd have to look at my Miranda form. Because,
4 normally, it's within two or three minutes or maybe five
5 minutes of me putting the date on top of the Miranda
6 form until when I got him out of the jail.

7 Q So you brought him right from the jail into CID
8 and had him sit down and sign a waiver form?

9 A Well, I sat down and told him -- again,
10 announced who I was and -- well, when I picked him up
11 from the jail, I informed him of who I was and what I
12 wanted to talk to him about; but before I asked him any 13 questions, make any statements, I was going to advise
14 him of his Rights, and I'll do that once I got to my 15 office.

16 Q The Miranda form -- the time on that Miranda
17 Waiver form is 2:51 p.m. Now, how long before you had 18 him sign that, or you filled that time in, had you
19 picked him up from the jail?

20 A No more than five minutes.

21 Q Okay. And then he gave a statement at 3:48; is 22 that correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And the 3:48 is the time the statement began;
25 correct?

14 then you had him reduce it to writing in State's 4?

15 A Correct.

16 Q And did -- everything that he told you verbally

1 those three.

2 (Photographs are handed to the Judge.)

3 MR. SORENSON: Are you ready, your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Not quite.

5 Okay.

6 MR. SORENSON: All right. And I believe it's

7 State's 17, 18, and 20, then, that Mr. Wise has an 8 objection to.

9 THE COURT: Let me see them, please.

10 MR. SORENSON: Yes, sir.

11 (Photographs are handed to the Judge.)

12 THE COURT: And, Mr. Wise, the objection is?

13 MR. WISE: Your Honor, these are the more

14 graphic photos. They show wounds to the body of 15 Mrs. Hanton. We don't believe that they are probative

16 of any -- what happened, and we've already agreed to

17 admit certain other photographs; so we submit that these

18 are not probative and because of what they show, the

19 cuts, the blood, we think they are -- it could be more

20 prejudicial, inciting some passion or emotion in the 21 jurors.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 Mr. Sorenson?

24 MR. SORENSON: May it please the Court, the 25 one -- there's one I believe that shows her back.

Volume II of IV -- Jury Trial

1 Obviously her shirt has been lifted up by the crime
2 scene investigator.

3 THE COURT: Correct.

4 MR. SORENSON: Our purpose for wanting that is
5 basically to show the injuries to her back. In his 6 statement, he almost makes it sound like he's defending
7 himself. I think that those wounds to her back would 8 then be probative to kind of -- kind of refute that part
9 of his statement.

10 The other two -- I mean, one, I think, kind of 11 shows -- there's one of them that shows kind of a more
12 general area.

13 THE COURT: That one?

14 MR. SORENSON: Yes, sir. And that, I think,
15 would be -- more be showing, you know, kind of -- kind
16 of just like her arm but also the area around there
17 also. But the one to her arm, your Honor, is basically
18 just to show -- I mean, it's my position, it almost 19 shows that she's still trying to get up, you know, when 20 she -- when she passed away.

21 THE COURT: Well --

22 MR. SORENSON: And it's something I would like
23 to use in my closing argument, quite frankly.

24 THE COURT: -- the facts that have come out so
25 far obviously show a very gruesome demise to this

1 unfortunate lady, and I certainly think, coupled with
2 the autopsy testimony by Dr. Ross, these two photographs
3 that show the wounds are -- are certainly relevant to
4 what this lady endured, and I think probative value
5 outweighs the prejudicial value. Could have, certainly,
6 had a lot more, I would think, of a crime scene of this
7 nature, and just -- only two show actual wounds, and I
8 think that corroborates what the pathologist testified
9 to as well as well some corroboration to the other
10 facts, so I will allow them. Your objection is noted.

11 MR. WISE: Thank you, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: You might let the family members
13 know. They may not want to --

14 MR. SORENSON: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: -- look at those.

16 MR. SORENSON: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: All right. Anything else that I
18 can do?

19 MR. WISE: Not from the Defense, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. We'll start bright and 21 early -- well, not bright and early. We'll start sort
22 of middle and early tomorrow at 10:30. Thank you.

23 MR. SORENSON: Can we talk to you just real
24 briefly in chambers about a totally unrelated matter?

25 THE COURT: Absolutely.

Volume III of IV -- Jury Trial
Direct Examination by Mr. Sorenson of Nadia Weldon

1 you would give your name for the court reporter and
2 spell your last.

3 THE WITNESS: My name is Nadia Weldon. My last
4 name is spelled W-e-l-d-o-n.

5 NADIA WELDON,
6 having been first duly sworn by the Deputy Clerk of
7 Court to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing
8 but the truth, was examined and testified upon her oath
9 as follows:

10 DIRECT EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. SORENSON:

12 Q Nadia, also, would you spell your first name,
13 just for the court reporter, also.

14 A First name is spelled N-a-d-i-a.

15 Q Okay. And, Nadia, if you would, tell the jury 16 how old you are.

17 A I'm 22.

18 Q And what do you do for a living?

19 A I go to school full time, graduating. I work
20 at Arby's in Calhoun County, and I also work at Golden
21 China, right next to Check Into Cash.

22 Q What are you going to school for?

23 A Business management major. Hopefully, when I
24 graduate, I'll go into the Navy.

25 Q And when are you set to graduate, Nadia?

Direct Examination by Mr. Sorenson of Nadia Weldon

1 A May, 2013.

3 left?

4 A Yeah.

5 Q And, Nadia, how do you know the Defendant,

6 Cleophas Edwards?

7 A I used to date him before he went in.

8 THE COURT: Speak up a little louder for me,

9 please.

10 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) Nice and loud. That's not

11 going to turn too much, so you can pull your chair up a

12 little bit if you have to. I know you can be nice and 13 loud, so just keep your voice up.

14 Tell the jury how you met Mr. Edwards.

15 A I met him at a party with one of my friends,

16 that one of my friends invited me to.

17 Q Do you remember about when that was?

18 A In September of 2010.

19 Q Okay. And did you start dating Mr. Edwards

20 shortly after that?

21 A Yes, I did.

22 Q Okay. And do you remember where Mr. Edwards

23 was living at back in September of 2010 up until he was

24 arrested in February of 2011?

25 A In a rented house on [REDACTED].

1 Q Okay. And who -- at that house, who was --
2 during that time period, who else was living in that
3 house on [REDACTED]?

4 A Melvin Simmons, Isaiah Smith, and Britney.

5 Q Okay. And obviously, Melvin and Isaiah are 6 both males; is that correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And did Isaiah have a nickname he went by?

9 A Simba.

10 Q Simba. How about Melvin; do you remember what 11 he went by?

12 A Mel.

13 Q Mel. All right. And then you indicated a
14 female named Britney?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Was Britney in a relationship with one of the 17 other people in the house?

18 A Britney was Melvin's girlfriend.

19 Q All right. And were they all kind of staying 20 in that house when you first met Mr. Edwards back in 21 September of 2010?

22 A Yes. Britney stayed on campus in a dorm, but,
23 you know, she would spend the night at her boyfriend's
24 house occasionally.

25 Q How about Isaiah Smith, Simba, was he living

- 2 A No. He had moved in there after, shortly.
- 3 Q So he moved in shortly after September of 2010?
- 4 A Yes.
- 5 Q And at the time when Mr. Edwards was arrested
- 6 in February of 2011, was Melvin living with him at that
- 7 time?
- 8 A Yes.
- 9 Q Okay. How about Isaiah Smith, was Isaiah Smith

- 11 A No.
- 12 Q Okay. And was Britney still with Melvin and
- 13 staying there occasionally, though, at that time?
- 14 A Yes.
- 15 Q Do you know where Isaiah Smith had moved to?
- 16 A Moved to [REDACTED]
- 17 Q Okay. All right. Let me ask you this. Do you
- 18 know a guy -- during the time that you were seeing and
- 19 dating Mr. Edwards, a guy by the name of -- that went by
- 20 the nickname Izzie?
- 21 A No.

1 to you?

2 A No.

3 Q All right. I want to turn your attention,
4 Nadia, if I could, to the early part of February of
5 2011. Did there come a time during that time period
6 where you saw your boyfriend, Mr. Edwards, with a red
7 laptop?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. And did he tell you where he had gotten 10 that laptop from?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Tell the jury what Mr. Edwards told you
13 regarding where he got that laptop.

14 A He said he bought it from someone off the 15 street, some white dude off the street.

16 Q Do you remember if he told you how much he paid
17 for it?

18 A No.

19 Q Now, did there come a time in the early
20 February of 2011, after you saw him with it, when he 21 asked you to do anything with that laptop?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. What was it that Mr. Edwards asked you
24 to do with that laptop?

25 A He asked me to pawn it for him.

1 Q Why did he want you to pawn that laptop?
2 A He said he had no identification to pawn the
3 laptop.
4 Q Was there a reason why he needed to pawn that
5 laptop?
6 A Pay rent.
7 Q Okay. And did you ultimately go with him
8 somewhere and pawn that laptop?
9 A I went to Woody's Pawn Shop.
10 Q That's here in Orangeburg on Russell Street?
11 A Yes, sir.
12 Q And do you remember how much money you got for 13 that laptop?
14 A $150 for the red laptop.
15 Q Okay. I'm showing you State's Exhibit No. 41.
16 Is that the pawn receipt that you signed indicating that 17 you pawned that laptop, that Acer Aspire laptop, on 18 February 10th of 2011?
19 A Yes, sir.
20 Q 2:56 in the afternoon, showing you got $150?

3 MS. HINDS: No objection.

4 (State's Exhibit No. 41, Woody's Pawn & Jewelry
5 Receipt, is admitted into evidence.)

6 Q (By Mr. Sorenson) A few days after that, did
7 Mr. Edwards ask you anything else about that laptop?

8 A Eventually he asked me to go get it back out.

9 Q Okay. And did he tell you why he wanted to get
10 it back out of -- from Woody's Pawn Shop?

11 A He had a website going up, so I guess it was so
12 he could keep his website running.

13 Q And what was Mr. Edwards -- back in February of 14 2011, do you know what he was doing for a living back
15 then?

16 A He sold CDs at the Shell station that he made
17 himself, mixed CDs.

18 Q So he's mixing CDs. So was he using the laptop
19 and the computer to do that?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Okay. All right. And on February 15th -- so,
22 you know, five days after you had pawned that laptop for

5 we're talking about? Is that who --

6 A Yes.

7 Q So on February 15th, the two of y'all went back
8 to Woody's?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Tell the jury, when you went back to Woody's,
11 what you did there when you went back.

12 A When I went back to Woody's, he came in with 13 me, he handed me the money to get the laptop out. I got 14 the -- I handed the clerk the money, got the laptop,
15 handed it right back to him, went about my day.

16 Q What do you remember about that laptop? Do you
17 remember?

18 A Just the fact that it was red.

19 Q Red. Do you remember how much money you had to 20 pay to get the laptop back?

21 A The statement says $180, so that's how much we 22 paid to get it out.

23 Q I'm showing State's Exhibit No. 42. Is that a

11 A Like, I got it. Here you go.

12 Q Okay. All right. Now, back in February of 13 2011, obviously you were still dating him up until his 14 arrest; is that correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q So you -- were you around him a decent amount

17 of time?

18 A Yes, I would say so. I didn't see him at all

19 that day of the 16th, nor did I see him like the rest of

20 the day of the 15th, probably after he got the laptop
