Courtney Shante Thompson’s Motion for Directed Verdict
(End of Defense Case) 1

Conclusion of Robert Antonio Guinyard’s Cross-Examination
of Investigator Travis Holdorf (State’s Case in Rebuttal) 4

Certificate of Counsel 5

1 I could approach.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 (WHEREUPON, there was a bench conference.)

4 THE COURT: All right. Anything further?

5 MS. PINNOCK: Your Honor, I don't believe --- oh,
6 I'm sorry.

7 THE COURT: Go ahead.

8 MS. PINNOCK: Ms. McDuffie, are you all done?

9 MS. McDUFFIE: Yes, I am.

10 MS. PINNOCK: I don't believe we rested
11 yesterday.

12 THE COURT: You'll need to rest when they come
13 in.

14 MS. PINNOCK: Okay. Instead of --- I'm just
15 going to ask Your Honor how you want to handle it ---
16 renewing objections and motions?

17 THE COURT: Do it right now.

18 MS. PINNOCK: Okay.

19 THE COURT: Go ahead.

20 MS. PINNOCK: Your Honor, at this time we would 21 renew our motion for a directed verdict. Because
22 Ms. Thompson decided to testify because we did decide
23 to put up a defense for her, it's my opinion that Your
24 Honor is now required to look at all the evidence that
25 has been presented by the State and by Ms. Thompson

1 when considering whether or not the State has produced
2 substantial circumstantial evidence for the homicide
3 by child abuse for Ms. Thompson's actions.

4 I think considering it as a whole, I would ask
5 Your Honor to look at it again because I don't think,
6 based on everything that we heard yesterday, that
7 there is any more than a suspicion that Ms. Thompson
8 was the person that was responsible for causing the
9 injury or that she failed to act when the injury
10 occurred.

11 I think that --- because those are two essential
12 elements of the charge, Judge, I think based on 13 everything that you've heard from the State from 14 Ms. Thompson's defense, I don't think that it rises to 15 more than a suspicion of Ms. Thompson's guilt and I
16 don't think it should be given to the jury.

17 THE COURT: All right. You're motions are 18 denied. Even based upon her testimony yesterday, she 19 essentially confessed to the unlawful conduct towards 20 the child. The legal argument could be made that she 21 confessed to the homicide by child abuse on the
22 witness stand yesterday, so the evidence as it sits
23 before me, and all I'm required to look at is the 24 existence of the evidence, not the weight of the 25 evidence, that's supposed to be taken in the light

1 most favorable to the State, the case is sufficient to
2 go forward to the jury. You can rest when they come
3 in.

4 MS. PINNOCK: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MS. PINNOCK: One last renewal, I'm sorry, our 7 motion for a mistrial based on the defense that was
8 put up by Mr. Li and Mr. Guinyard, Your Honor, I do
9 think it violated Ms. Thompson's right to get a fair
10 trial. She is guaranteed that right under the due
11 process clause of the Constitution. I think it has 12 turned into a character case with nothing but an
13 assassination on Ms. Thompson, based on prior bad acts
14 that were not relevant to this case whatsoever.

15 So I think with recognizing his constitutional
16 right and Ms. Thompson's constitutional right to a
17 fair trial has been violated, and I'd ask you to grant
18 a mistrial as to Ms. Thompson.

19 THE COURT: All right. Your motion is denied
20 based upon my previous reasoning.

21 THE COURT: All right. Anything further?

22 (There was no response.)

23 THE COURT: Okay. Let's bring them in.

24 (WHEREUPON, the jury entered the courtroom at 25 9:48 a.m.)

1 aware that the autopsy didn't match the reenactment
2 prior to making that statement, correct?

3 A Yes, sir, she was and also Antonio was.

4 Q And it was only after that that she gave this
5 second statement?

6 A It was --- we had talked to her, tried to talk to 7 actually both parties for several hours before she
8 said, "If you put us together, I'll tell you what 9 happened."

10 Q Thank you.

11 MR. LI: No further questions, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

13 MS. PINNOCK: No questions, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Redirect?

15 MS. McDUFFIE: No, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. You may step down.
17 You may call your next witness.

18 MS. McDUFFIE: Your Honor, that's the extent of 19 the rebuttal testimony the State will offer.

20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

21 All right, ladies and gentlemen. That's the 22 extent of the reply testimony that you will have from 23 the State at this time. If you will now retire to 24 your jury room. We are going to order some lunch, so
25 they will bring you your menus. I have a matter of
