Re: State of South Carolina v. Justin Bradley Cameron
Appellate Case No. 2018-001493

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The Initial Brief of Appellant in this case is due today. I had hoped to get it finished today, but a hearing that was scheduled for this coming Friday got moved to Monday, because Friday is, of course, Good Friday. That fact was overlooked at the time the docket was compiled. Because my case was added to an already full day Monday, we did not get to complete the hearing and I had to go back to Greenville today as well. For that reason, I now need to request a second, thirty (30) day extension for this stage of this appeal. I have discussed this request with Ben Aplin and he has graciously consented to my request.

As always, I would note that I no longer have associates in my firm and therefore, have no other lawyers in my office to sign off on the necessity for this request. I am currently on my way back to Columbia from Greenville. For that reason I have asked that my Paralegal sign the correspondence on my behalf. This letter is being scanned and emailed to your office today and the hardcopy will be placed in the mail this evening. A copy will be emailed to Mr. Aplin and a copy mailed to him also. Thank you very much for your time and assistance in this matter. I remain,

Sincerely,
