Official Court Reporter

1 MS. GILMER: Your Honor, before the court is the
2 defendant, William Shane Vanderford. He is here
3 represented by attorney Eric Delaney.

4 Your Honor, on February 1st of 2019, he did enter
5 guilty pleas with one Alford plea on the following
6 Indictments. Your Honor, we are here before the Court
7 for sentencing today. I will read the Indictments
8 first.

9 First, 2018-GS-44-1127 for the offense of 10 kidnapping. He did plead under North Carolina v
11 Alford. 2018-GS-44-1128, domestic violence first 12 degree. 2018-GS-44-1129, possession of
13 methamphetamine, third or subsequent offense.
14 2018-GS-44-1130, possession of a scheduled three
15 controlled substance, second offense.
16 2018-GS-44-1131, possession of a scheduled four
17 controlled substance, second offense.

18 Your Honor, he did plead guilty to those remaining
19 charges, other than the kidnapping to which he plead
20 under North Carolina v Alford.

21 Your Honor, we did work out a negotiated plea in 22 the case of ten years active prison to run
23 concurrently between the charges.

24 Your Honor, as to the possession of a scheduled
25 controlled substance those would be a negotiated time

1 served sentence. Your Honor, the defendant did agree
2 to a permanent restraining order which was part of the 3 negotiated plea. That would be in effect with no
4 expiration date Your Honor and then he also did sign
5 an order that would prohibit him from possessing 6 firearms or ammunition under state law for a period of 7 ten years from the date of release.

8 Your Honor, we are before the Court just for 9 purposes of sentencing today. This case was first up 10 for trial this week but the plea was heard by the 11 Honorable Judge McKinnon in York County to seal this 12 agreement by the State and the defendant. We did
13 defer sentencing at the defendant's request so that 14 his parents could be present. And Your Honor, I would 15 have a few other things to place on the record at the 16 appropriate time.

17 THE COURT: So the negotiated sentence is time
18 served for -- well, let's see. It's ten years for the 19 kidnapping?

20 MS. GILMER: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Ten years for domestic violence, first
22 degree, criminal possession of methamphetamine, third
23 or subsequent. Okay. Ten years for that. And then 24 time served for the possession of a scheduled three 25 controlled substance, and time served for possession

1 of a scheduled four controlled substance.

2 MS. GILMER: That is correct, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right, and what is the time
4 served?

5 MR. DELANEY: He has been incarcerated on these
6 charges since August. Well, let me --

7 MS. GILMER: I have 540 days.

8 MR. DELANEY: August 21, 2017, 540 days, Your 9 Honor.

10 THE COURT: So both of these carries a maximum of 11 a year, so it's negotiated one year sentence on those,
12 correct, for time served?

13 MS. GILMER: Yes, Your Honor

14 MR. DELANEY: Yes, judge.

15 THE COURT: You said 540 days?

16 MR. DELANEY: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Delaney, you represent
18 William Shane Vanderford on the charge of kidnapping;
19 domestic violation, first degree; possession of
20 methamphetamine third or subsequent offense;
21 possession of a scheduled three controlled substance
22 and possession of a scheduled four controlled
23 substance?

24 MR. DELANEY: Yes, sir, I do.

25 THE COURT: And you agree that the guilty pleas

1 has already been entered on these charges?

2 MR. DELANEY: That's correct, judge.

3 THE COURT: All right. And do you agree with the 4 negotiated sentence as related to the Court by the 5 solicitor?

6 MR. DELANEY: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. Anything in mitigation?

8 MR. DELANEY: Judge, just briefly. I know I
9 already said 540 days credit. Shane's parents are 10 here today. They wanted to be here. Shane wanted
11 them here so they are here today for support.

12 Getting to this point, judge, as you heard this 13 case was in trial mode. Possibly either going as 14 early this week. If it didn't go this week it would 15 be some time in the near future.

16 The kidnapping charge was the charge that was I
17 guess in debate here. As you heard, Mr. Vanderford
18 entered an Alford plea to that charge for ten years.
19 Reviewing this case with Mr. Vanderford if he went to 20 trial there would have been a risk if he was convicted
21 to get something in my opinion much more. I think he 22 made the right decision in this case. We are just 23 asking Your Honor to go along and impose the sentence
24 here today.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Vanderford, anything you want to 2 say.

3 THE DEFENDANT: Oh, yes, Your Honor. I would like
4 to say, you know, my parents always taught me if I did
5 something wrong be a man and stand up and say you done
6 it. I did assault Miss Sizemore. I did not kidnap
7 her. I felt like, you know, my rights during this 8 whole trial was violated. My due process rights. I
9 never received initial appearance. I never received a
10 preliminary hearing.

11 THE COURT: So do you want to withdraw your guilty
12 plea and go to trial on these charges? Is that what 13 you're saying?

14 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir, Your Honor. I really
15 want to have it on record, you know, that I feel this 16 way.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 THE DEFENDANT: I really do.

19 THE COURT: Well, you understand that another
20 judge accepted your guilty plea so your guilt or 21 innocence is not an issue before this Court. The only
22 issue before this Court is the sentence to be imposed.

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, I understand that, Your 24 Honor. I just wanted it on Court record that I felt 25 that way.

THE COURT: All right. Anything else?

THE DEFENDANT: I would like to apologize to my mom and dad for leaving them here to raise my kids alone, to Miss Sizemore for assaulting her. And that's all Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Anybody else want to speak on your behalf.

All right. You said the victim is not present.

MS. GILMER: She is not, Your Honor. I have been in consistent contact with her during the pendency of this case, Your Honor. She did have a medical procedure last week. Our law enforcement victim advocate spoke with her today. She was planning to be present however she was not feeling well due to that procedure and is not present in court. She was okay with us going ahead for sentencing.

Your Honor, she and I did discuss this negotiated plea. She is in agreement with it. She is asking the Court to issue the permanent restraining order with no expiration date, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. And the paperwork that has been handed up to me it looks like Judge McKinnon has already issued a permanent restraining order. That's his signature, February 1, 2019. I think that's already been done.

1 MS. GILMER: Okay.

2 THE COURT: All right. What are the facts of this
3 case? What did he plead guilty to?

4 MS. GILMER: Your Honor, I was going to somewhat
5 condense them but if I could just read the same thing
6 at the plea hearing due to the statements made by the 7 defendant today.

8 Your Honor, this offenses did occur on August 21st
9 of 2017 here in Union County. There was an out
10 building on property where the victim and defendant
11 were living. It had been converted to a residential 12 area.

13 A family member of the victim called 911 and 14 reported to law enforcement that the victim came to 15 his residence with multiple injuries, telling him her
16 boyfriend, the defendant, had physically abused her
17 and had locked her inside their residence. Responding
18 officer made contact with the victim who was crying
19 and appeared fearful with visible injuries. The 20 victim was transported to Spartanburg Regional Medical 21 Center for medical treatment.

22 Your Honor, she reported that she was in bed
23 asleep at approximately 3:30 that morning when the 24 defendant began accusing her of infidelity and 25 striking her head. She reported the defendant slammed

her head into the wall and repeatedly pushed her around the residence after pulling her from the bed. The victim reported the defendant continued to repeatedly strike her with his hands and dragged her by her hair. The victim reported that the defendant also struck her legs and head with a lead water pipe and repeatedly threatened to kill her. The victim reported she was able to run out of the residence but the defendant dragged her back inside by her hair and dead bolted her inside the residence and also took her phone. She reported she was able to push out the air conditioning unit to escape after the defendant left.

Your Honor, the victim did have multiple injuries. She reported loss of consciousness. She had multiple bruising to her legs, arms, chest, back and face. She also had cuts to her feet, abrasions to her stomach and mouth. CT scans did show a scalp hematoma to and a deviation of her nasal septum. She also had a large bald spot on her head. That corroborated her account that she had been dragged by her hair.

Your Honor, the defendant was arrested at the Union County Courthouse later that same day. That's when the drug charges arose, Your Honor. In a vehicle he drove there was Buprenorphine, Clonazepam and methamphetamine found in the vehicle.

1 Your Honor, law enforcement it the actually
2 searched the residence where the victim and the 3 defendant lived where she said that this happened.
4 They actually observed the AC unit removed from the 5 window and there was and external lock on the door on 6 the outside of the building.

7 Your Honor, there would have been two witnesses at 8 trial that the State anticipated would have testified.
9 They were courthouse personnel and on that day the 10 defendant was here at the courthouse. They overheard
11 him say that he needed to call his father to let his 12 girlfriend out.

13 THE COURT: All right, prior record.

14 MS. GILMER: Yes, Your Honor. He had -- let's 15 see -- since 2000 a grand larceny, unlawful use of 16 vehicle, a breaking into a motor vehicle in 2001.
17 2002 two counts of petty larceny, one count of 18 shoplifting. 2003 simple possession of marijuana and 19 driving under suspension. 2010 possession of meth or 20 crack, distribution meth. 2014, shoplifting, public
21 disorderly conduct. In 2017 assault and battery,
22 third degree and shoplifting third.

23 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Vanderford, you have 24 already plead guilty in front of Judge McKinnon. So 25 the sole purpose of the hearing hear today is for the

1 sentencing. There is a negotiated sentence which I
2 will accept. Sentence of the Court for kidnapping,
3 domestic violence in the first degree, and possession
4 of methamphetamine, is that you be confined to the 5 State Department of Corrections for one year. On the 6 charges of possession of a scheduled three, controlled
7 substance and possession of a scheduled four 8 controlled substance, sentence of the Court is that 9 you be confined to State Department of Corrections for 10 one year. You will receive credit for 540 days served
11 thus far. So for the possession of a scheduled three 12 controlled substance and possession of scheduled four 13 controlled substance that will just be a time served
14 sentence. All sentences will run concurrent.

15 MR. DELANEY: Thank you.

16 MS. GILMER: And Your Honor if we could just add

17 --

18 THE COURT: Yes, the kidnapping I put no sex
19 offense.

20 MS. GILMER: Thank you, Your Honor.
