Re: Woods v State
Appellate Case No.: 2016-002367

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of the March 21st order of this Court permitting me to file one unbound copy of my ROA and giving me thirty days to comply.

I am going to forego including my trial transcript as I do not have the funds to make copies of this.

As I understand the rules for an ROA, the initial reply brief, or as in my case, the amended initial reply brief, and the final brief are to be included in the ROA.

As a result of an overly zealous shake down two weeks ago and the plunder and pillage of my legal boxes, all of my filings are in a state of disorder. My legal papers in three SCDC legal boxes were shuffled and are now in chaos. I can only find the cover or caption page and the proof of service for my amended reply brief.

I would greatly appreciate if you, at your earliest convenience, would please send me a copy of the amended initial reply brief that I filed and mailed to this Court on August 16, 2018. I am enclosing a copy of the cover page and the proof of service for your reference.

Per this latest order, I only have until April 21st, to comply with filing the ROA, and ask that you please send this as soon as possible.

I thank you and this Court for all your help and assistance with my case.

Sincerely yours,

Cedric L. Woods, 265789
