LITIGANTS TO COMPLAINT

Appellant Travis Stewart Motions the Court for Leave of Court to Amend the Notice of Appeal and Proof of Service submitted March 15, 2019 along with proof of that Proof of Service's submission via U.S. First Class Mail due to extreme extenuating circumstances associated with repeated robberies of Appellant's home in Orangeburg, South Carolina resulting in $150,000 to $170,000 of items and difficulties securing proper investigation of and prevention of further thefts from same by the local police department. The repeated robberies have worsened Appellant's PTSD and major depression resulting from the Assault and Battery Appellant suffered from Respondent 's Tiffany Maddox, assistant residential manager of Aspyre at Assembly Station, disrupted his academic studies at the University of South Carolina and prevented timely attention to an ability to adhere to the requests of the Court which were not known until April 11, 2019. Appellant begs the Court's forgiveness and permission to submit these documents to the court.

Respectfully,

Travis G. Stewart, Appellant
