Re: Appellate Case #2019-000666

Dear Mr. Sayles:

Court rules require counsel to inform the court whether or not they believe an appeal has merit when the appeal is from a plea. I do not have a good faith basis to believe that your appeal from the plea has any contested legal issues. See the enclosed explanation. The purpose of this letter is to advise you that you have twenty (20) days from the date of this letter to inform the South Carolina Court of Appeals in writing of any arguable basis on which to assert that there are legal issues preserved for appeal in your case. You can write the court at this address:

South Carolina Court of Appeals

P.O. Box 11629

Columbia SC 29211

Please include the Appellate Case #2018-000666 in your correspondence to the Court.

Sincerely,

David M. Mauldin

RULE 203(B) EXPLANATION

SC Court of Appeals

Pursuant to Rule 203(B)(iv), the undersigned asserts that he does not have a good faith basis to believe that any issues are properly before the Court of Appeals, and the undersigned did not object to the sentence or file a motion to reconsider the sentence. Nevertheless, the undersigned consulted with the Appellant about his right to appeal, and after consultation, the undersigned has filed the instant appeal at the request of the Appellant because the Sixth Amendment requires counsel to follow the Appellant's request. See Frazer v. South Carolina, 430 F.3d 696, 706 (4th Cir. 2005) ("A defendant has a right to pursue a direct appeal, even if frivolous, which counsel must assist as 'an active advocate on behalf of his client.'") (quoting Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 744 (1967)).

Respectfully submitted,
