Dear Counsel:

Good morning. After further careful and deliberate consideration of this appeal, the panel wishes to schedule it for oral argument on June 4. From my review of our records, I'm not certain who is representing the State in this appeal. Would you please respond to this email to let us know (a) the name of the attorney representing the State and (b) whether you (or whomever would be arguing) are available on June 4.

We appreciate your time and attention. Thank you!
