SC Court of Appeals

Dear State:

On May 6, I received a letter address to Counsel, and reason for this letter is to let the state know that attorney Montrio Belton was not representing me when the Honorable Judge Gibbins granted me a speedy trial court date. The Honorable Judge granted me a trial date for July 22, 2018 and the state never called the case to trial. The Honorable Judge granted this court date in April 2018. The appointed Attorney was Geoff Dunn out of Rock Hill, S.C. There was ~~no~~ court ruling as far as documentation only verbal, and Video/Audio. Court appointed Attorney for (Me) Defendant act as if he was not in court that day and the Judge never charge the Attorney for his Ineffective Assistance Counsel. I ask for Appointed Counsel to Recuse Himself on these grounds of I.A.C. The Honorable Judge is well aware of All the Misconduct in the Court. He is the only Judge that has heard every case for this case,
